"GREEN STOCKINGS" PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

Senjor Actors Display Talent and Careful Training.
proceeids gratifying

Last Friday, April 30, the Senior Class gave one of the best class plays ever given by any class of the High School.

The play opened with the scene in Captain Faraday's drawing room Thelma Rinke took the role of Celia. In the beginning Tedda was dressed as Celia was supposed to be, with hel hair combed back, and wearing an austere gown of black. One could plainly see that the Faraday household looked upon Celia as the mainstay and maid-of-all-work of their home. Celia perceives that she has to bear the brunt of all househas cares and resent, it The one oleat event which causes her to hold great event thich causes ber to hold her own is the announcement of her younger sister's marriage. Celia knew only too well that she would then have to wear a pail of greetu stochilig to the wedding. She absolutely swears within herself that she will not wear green stockings.

Daring Scheme.

So her fertile mind thinks out some way of escape. Her scheme is this: She will tell the family that she is engaged to a Colonel in the Army who has sailed for Somaliland Africa. Then after her sister is married she perceives a scheme of getting rid of her lover, in her parent's eyes by printing his death in the paper. For effect Celia writes a letter to Col onel Smith, but later tucks it in a circular envelope not intending to mail it to Colonel smith, but her younge sister finds it and gives it to Martin the butler, whom we recognize as A. W. Held, to mail. Thus her letter goes through the mail to a person who Celia thinks does not exist but finally it falls in the hands of a Colonel Smith in Somaliland, who is unknown to Celia. Later this Colonel Smith calls on Celia under an assumed name but tells her he is a Colonel Smith who got the letter. When be first entered he told Celia he was a dear friend of Smith and brought some things for remembrance: Although Celia has never known him before she decides she rather likes him. Willard Vogel made a very dashing Colcne Smith.

It is comical to see how attentive all the young dandies are to Celia when they find she is engaged. They decided that there really was some thing fascinating about her after all. $\left\lvert\, \begin{aligned} & \text { of the play }\end{aligned}\right.$ orward.

DISTRICT CHAMPIONS-1920.

Carl Hummel and Harold Moerbitz quite outdid themselves in this repect.

Clever Acting.

Aunt Ida must be especially com ended on her clever actions. Lorene ueller, who took the role of Aunt , displayed some of the cleveres ore the dignity of their years well All the students in the cast took heir part very well as every one who as will tell you ane and Forence made a very capable pair of arried sisters, while Natalie and her Bobbie (Leo Heiman) were the fun the play.

Gratitude Expressed to Coach.
The Senior Class desires to expres their hearty thanks to Miss Schmidt who so unselfishly gave her time to the coaching of the play. It was under her careful and sincere interest that the play was such a success in evy respect.
It is reported by Louis Koehler, the business manager, that the class cleared about $$ 150.00$.

Teacher: "Please don't think you an cheat me because I know all of our old tricks."
Student in rear of room: "It take crook to catch a crook."

DIAMOND STARS WIN TWO CLEAN VICTORIES

"Dce" Hamann Humbies Sleepy Eye and Springfield.

RETLRN (GAMES SOON.

A week ago Wednesday the New Ulm High School baseball team played their initial interscholastic game against our old enemies Sleepy Eye, and the result was that the locals emerged victors by a score of 6 to 5 , due to a wonderful rally in the ninth inning.

Name Close at First
The game started at four o'clock with Hamann on the mound for the locals and Shapiro doing the catching. The first three innings of the game were faultless with neither side getting any runs. However, the visitors scored a run in the fourth and four in the fifth, most of them due to errors, committed by the locals, and the visitors at the same time kept us scorcless. However, in the sixth inning Clobes brought in our first score througn a rauty play or the opponents. This part of the contest saw "Doc" Hamann in great form, and from the sixth inning on he twirled a wonderful article of ball, while "Sox" Schuel ler of the opponents was weakening under the terrific strain of his foemen.

Ferccions Finish.
In the last of the eighth inning the locals through some remarisable hitting, combined with good base-running tallied three more scores which brought the total score 5 to 4 but still in the opponent's favor. Then came the wonderful ninth. The Sleepy Eye batters, who faced the plate during this inning were soon retired and the locals took their last turn at bat Paulson took then Paulson was out at fist. Harris, the next man up, hit a grounder to the third baseman, who happened to be our friend, Erwin Hertz, and in an erratic attempt, he heaved wildly to first. Glassman was unable to reach it and Harris advanced to second. Clobes was then substituted for Harris at econd. Blien, the next man up, singled, scoring Clobes. Shapiro then strode to the plate and lifted the old ball for a clean cut two-bagger, and Blien brought in the winning score.

Hamann Twirls Well.

The game was exciting enough for anybody, especially for the local fans, who thought victory was impossible after the seventh inning. We meet Sleepy Eye again on the fifteenth and the team looks forward to another win Great credit is due of Captain Ha-

THANKS:

Monday, May third, the members of the girls' basket ball team were agreeably surprised. You all know how anxiously the girls were waiting for those little, silver basket balls. When ever we asked \rr. Schrammel about them, he would tell us, that we were not going to get them rut we were going to get some wonderful N. U. letters. So when Mr. Schrammel announced, that the players were to be very excited about it, because we were afraid that we would be disappointed The girls surely were very much surThe girls surely were very much surprised, when Mr. Schrammel began to prised, when Mr. Schrammel began to hand each player a little box with a hand each player a little box with a jeweler's name printer on the cover, for they knew that their wish had been granted. Believe me, it surely was a grand and glorious feeling to know, that a wish you had been dreaming about for months, was fulfilled.
The girls hereby wish to thank Mr. Schrammel and all others, who helped to get these basket balls for us. We appreciate them immensely and you may be sure, that we will never forget the good basket ball games, we participated in for N. U. games

TO BE-OR NOT TO BE.
Life is a funny proposition, they say; so is society, or rather, so would it be if the society proposition were not pathetic rather than funny. What has become of the societies in the High School? Four or five years ago the D. O. T. and P. L. S. were envied by other schools; the membership was large, meetings were interesting-in fact so interesting that not only members but also non-members crowded the assembly. There was a keen sense of friendly rivalry between the two organizations which urged both to do their best. The effect on the members was noticeable-they were a snappy, was noticeable-they were a snappy, peppy bunch, ready for work, and ready for fun. But what has become of the societies. They have dwindled down to such a stage as to be invisible to the naked eye. Meetings are a nuisance; programs are "dry," and members are scarcer than sugar: Why? Because we aren't "stickers." The novelty of the toy has worn off, and we cast it away only to pick $u_{p}$ the next new fad. Such is the state of affairs.
"To be or not to be-that is the question!" Are we going to take up our societies with the pep which is due them, or are we going to give them up altogether? Rather than do a thing half-heartedly, let us grve it up entirely. After all, it does not make any difference what the rest of the world difference what the rest of the world thinks of us, just so we are satisfied with ourselves. Let us make an ef-fort-let us prove to ourselves that we are worthy of being sons and daughters of the "Lavender and White"-the most glorious High School in the Union.

HIGH SCHOOL BASKETEERS RE-

CELTE EMBLEMS.

Instead of the usual form of athletic letters the members of the High School Basket Ball teams were this year awarded small silver Basket Ball emblems. The girls were very delighted since it meant that a cherished dream had come true.
Mr. Schraminel, assisted by the coaches, Mr. Kirchoff and Mir. Church made the presentation on Monday morning. The girls after some hesitation finally responded to Mr. Schrammel's call and received their reward mels call and received their reward ship.

Seven Happy Girls.
The following girls received the em-
lems
Aurelia Forster, Edna Hamann, Eser Wiedenmann, Ylona Bentdahl Lola Liesch, Minnie Timm and Lillian Harbo.
Ralie, as captain, made a neat (but inaudible) speech of appreciation. Only two of the team, Esther and Ylona do not graduate this year.

Seven Boys Rewarded.
The boys despite some conflicting conditions concerning the return of their suits were also rewarded for their fine season's record in winning the District Title for the fourth consecutive time. The regulars and two subs received the emblem of victory. They were:
Osear Esser, Harry Shapiro, Richard Grafio, Clement Berg, Raymond Clobes, John Grafi and Eimer Hamann. Coaches speak.
The last two named do not graduate this year and will likely form the nucleus of next year's squad. Both Mr. Kitchoff and Mr. Chu:ch made short speeches thanking the athletic association for the gift, and expressing the thought that it had been possible to have winning teams only by hard practice, and continued interest. Ossie accepted the gift on behalf of he boys' team, and so passes the 1920 it Basket Ball Season into history.
"When do leaves begin to turn?"
"The day before the examination."

MR. (GLOOR A VISI'TOR.
The superintendent-elect. Mr. Arnold Gloor, visited the schools Monday and Tuesday. He came here for the purpose of getting acquainted with the teachers and get a general idea of the schools. His impression of the buildings, etc., sfened favorable.

mann who made nineteen Sleepy Eye batters look sick by striking them out. Schueller of the opponents struck out sixteen locals. The line-up was practically the same that appeared in the Springfield game with the exception of Springfield game with the exception of Blien played first, Paulson third, and Blien played first, Paulson third, and Heymann right field.

SPRIN(GFIELD GME.

Last Saturday the base ball team scored a very easy victory over the Springfield nine, the game resulting in a slug-fest for the locals, who managed to get sixteen counters to their opponents three. The game was poorly played on the visitors part, while the locals displayed a much better brand of ball, and deserved a victory. Captain Hamann again pitched superb ball, retiring 10 of the Springfield men by the strike-out route, while Nelson, the left handed pitcher for Springfield was ineffective at times, and struck out only four of our men. Heidemann relieved him in the seventh inning and struck out three men. The locals scored in every inning except the third and the fifth, securing one in the sixth and two more in the eighth.

Guod Team Work.
The team work of the locals was very good, Paulson gathered eleven put-outs at first without an error, while Harry caught in great style Blien, Shapiro, Kretsch and Franta each got three hits, while Hamann, Paulson, Clobes and Berg, each secured Paulson, Clobes and Berg, each secured one. Another remarkable feature was one. Another remarkable feature was that the visitors managed to set only that the visitors managed to set only four hits. The only other scheduled games we have so far are with Sleepy Eye and Springfield on the fifteenth and twenty-second of this month respectively, but we hofe to have another game with the college soon. The statistics of the game were as follows: New Ulm.

NOTES OF THE GAMES.

Mr. Palmbach and Ed. Bradtke of the College umpired very satisfactorily in the Sleepy Eye game. Ed. Berg and Mr. Zollicoffer of Springfield alternated in the Springfield same. Not a decision was questioned in either game.
Shapiro and Hamann worked well together in holding the runners close to the bag, especially in the Springfield game. The last put-out of the game was the resuit of an attempted steal of second. Harry's accurate peg nipped the runner by several feet.
Kretsch smashed the ball hard every time up in the Springfield game getting three clean singles. Harry had a two-bagger to his credit in each game. Blien secured three hits in each game and scored runs enough alone to win the Springfield game. Franta drew three pretty singles in the laiter contest.
Lewis Harris, overall-pinch-hitter: proved a hero in the ninth inning of the Sleepy Eye game by reaching second on a hard smash to third. His uniform was imposs:ble from a baserunning point of riew, so a runner was substituted for him. Blien and Shapiro then "hit in the pinch" andt the game was on ice.

Both Schueller and Hamann pitched fine ball but Doc got better as the game progressed, while Schueller weakened in the eighth and ninth. His support also blew up at the critical moment. Hariann had the Springfield sluggers at his mercy at all times. Only one clean drive was rade off of his offering. Eisht errors by the New Ulm infield accounted for all the runs.

Three Springfield batters were hit by pitched balls in the thircl inning. They developerl a bad habit of shutting their eyes and ducking the curve balls. When the curve broke they were unable to dodge in time. However, tight fielding prevented any runs in this inning.

Only two flies went to the New Ulm outfield in the Springfield game.

Return games with Sleepy Eye and Springfield on May 15 and 22 are scheduler. A practice game with the college will also be arranged soon.

BEACTIFLL BREAD BAKED,

On Saturday, May 1, the Bread Baking club tried their skill in baking bread to see who would have the honor of baking at the County Bread Baking Contest. The following were the grades received by the members:

Clara Wendt, $93 \%$.
Elizabeth Hintz, $92 \%$
Lucy Schneider, $91 \%$
Laurene Leist, $90 \%$.
Myra Seifert, $88 \%$.
Beatrice Gaag, $82 \%$.
The two winners, Clara Wendt and Elizabeth Hintz, will participate in the County Bread Baking Contest to be held here on Saturday, May 15. The girl that scores highest in this will have the privilege of baking bread at the State Bread Baking Contest. Last year luck was not with us, but we hope to be more successful this year and send one of our representatives to the State Contest to bring home some honors.

Dramatic Finish.

Little Betty, aged five was memorizing the Beatitudes in the Bible. Her mother was entertaining company one day and asked Betty to recite them. "Blessed are the poor-" said Betty, "For they,"-her mother prompted, " shall come home dragging their tails behind them," Betty finished triumphantly.

EXCHANGES

We have received a large number of exchanges since last time. Among the latest are: The Echo, Fairmont, Minn., The High School Life, The Su Huta, The Pelican, The Weekly YpsiSem, The "0," The Tattler, The Breeze, The Ah La Ha Sa, The Industrial Collegian and The Fertilite.
The Echo-Your short stories are good. You are fortunate in having someone to write poetry for your paper.
The High School Life-This is a vell edited paper. The last issue contained a summary of the basket ball season
The Su Huta is a snappy little paper. Your jokes are clever.
The Pelican is a newsy paper. The last issue contained considerable material encouraging the lower class men to finish high school.
The Weekly Fysi-Sem-Thiz is a very snappy little paper. It certainly shows that those' who are publishing it have some real school spirit.
The "0"-The Oskaloosa High School of Oskaloosa, Iowa, got second place in the state tourney. This is no smiall honor, and we wish to conno small honor, and winning of it.
The Tattlex-The Windom High School has just given their anrual operetta and it met with a grand success. The il La Ha Sa-You seem to have forgotton your exchange column. Your stories about Greek Mythology are interesting.
The Industrial Collegian-A good joke column would liven up your paper considerably.
The Fertilite-Your paper is lacking in literary work. A few jokes would touch up your paper a great deal.
"My father is a great man. The king touched him on the shoulder with a sword and made him a knight."
"Pooh, some one touched my father on the head with a poker and made him an angel."
