Brass sextet—Michael Good, Lee Sather, JoAnn Erickson, Jerry Schiltz, Gail Peterson and David Zimmermann.

Junior High Also Represented
Elementary and junior high school soloists and ensembles were judged and received ratings but are not eligible for the district contest, which is open only to senior high school students.

Those receiving A ratings were:
Vocal solos—Judy Lindemann, 9, alto, and John Beecher, 9, tenor.

Ninth grade triple trio—Lionie Peterson, Judy Lindemann, Shirley and Linda Clobes, Susan Hoffmann, Nancy Noyes, Jane Vogelpohl, Marni Gislason and Susan Bethke.

Instrumental solos—Sue Holland, 5, Mellophone; Richard Gardner, 6, sousaphone; Rebecca Radke, 5, snare drum; Roger Schmid, 7, snare drum; Linda Holland, 8, contrabass clarinet; Zana Lundeen, 8, snare drum; John Beecher, 9, cornet; and Randall Kroening, 9, sousaphone.

Trumpet trio—Steven Plautz, Steven Kramer and Tom McCleary sixth graders.

Co-editors of Graphos Chosen For Next Year

Next school year co-editors of the Graphos will be Steve Marquardt and Sharon Warnemunde. Both are presently taking journalism and are members of the staff.

Both have helped with the make-up of the last two issues of the Graphos and will have complete charge of this year's final issue, which will be distributed June 3.

Steve's experience consists of working for the Daily Journal, writing for Graphos, 1958-59, and serving as sports editor for the Graphos this year.

Sharon is taking journalism this year and has therefore had experience in writing. She was chosen, along with Steve, out of a class of eleven.

One of the present members of this year's class will be selected as editorial page editor, at a later date.

Quartets—Karen Lampright, 6, Kathy Fritsche, 5, Carol Hogfos, 5, and Dianne Wellmann, 5, clarinet; Penny Olson, 8, Gretchen Onstine, 8, Sue Anderson, 7, B-flat clarinet; Elaine Alfred, 9, Susan Bethke, 9, Giner Knopke, 8, and Sharon Hogfoss, 8, flute; Sharon Wellmann, 9, Nancy Noyes, 9, Anita Hesse, 8, and John Mitchell, 9, B-flat clarinet.

If you see the juniors running frantically about, don't be alarmed. With only twenty-four days left to set the stage for Prom, with its theme "Colonial Ball," juniors are really working hard to finish on time.

The committees have been chosen, the materials ordered, and the work is now underway. The decoration committee is divided into five groups, each doing a specific job. The table decoration, program, and invitation committees have been holding regular meetings, but have made no definite plans. However, the food committee has the menu all planned. This will consist of Appetizers—pineapple juice and rye thins; Main Course—baked ham, mashed potatoes with butter, Mexican corn, over-night fruit salad, relishes, and soft rolls with butter. Dessert—ice-cream and cookies. Milk or coffee will be served with the meal and fruit punch during the dance.

Committee Members Announced

Chairman and co-chairman of the committees are as follows: Decorations—Faculty advisors—Mr. Oien and Mr. Lindboe; chairmen—Connie Stone and Neil Edwards; co-chairman—Carol Strate and LeRoy Shapekahn. Invitation—Faculty advisor—Miss Raverty; chairman—Sandra Kerr; co-chairmen—Helen Larson, Mavis Larson, and Kathleen Korslund. Program—Faculty advisor—Miss Raverty; chairman—Christine Oswald; co-chairman—Judy Carstensen. Food—Faculty advisor—Miss Westling, chairman—Mary Fluegge, co-chairman—Mary Ann Diedrick. Table decorations—Faculty advisor—Miss Stoppelman; chairman—Mary Fluegge; co-chairman Grace Rolloff. Clean-up—Faculty Advisor—Mr. Zahn; chairman—Douglas Bloedel; co-chairman—David Gehrke.

The Prom will be held on April 30. Dinner will be served in the cafeteria at 6:30, followed by the dance in the

Six Committees Working On Senior Class Play

People working behind the scenes on a class play often go unnoticed, and this year is no exception. Many hours are spent by these people. The 1960 senior class play has six committees working along with a cast of 17.

The committees are as follows, Business: Ann Vogel and Gerald Tobias, chairmen;—Avis Borchert, Fat Fenske, Kathy Jeske, Sharon Fiemeyer, Jean Hintz, and Judy Donohue. Publicity: Mary Higgs and Paulette Vorwerk chairmen;—Carol Albrecht, Merle Frank, Kathie Konokowitz, Yvonne Helget, Margaret Altmann, and Fat McCleary. Properties: Claire Rolloff chairmen. —Kathy Clobes, Joyce Borchert, Sharon Bethke, Rita Thill, and Sharon Foster.

Stage: Bill Fritz and Cliff Current, chairmen;—John Farrell, Arlo Kilmer, Jerry Weiland, Tom Reirhart, Larry Hulke, Jim Freisinger, Ronald Guggisberg, Terry Wellner, John Hogan, Judy Donohue, Ellen Lippmann, Dean Lindquist, Bruce Keske, Janice Reinhart, and Tom Karl. Make-up: Marsha Haber and Janice Reinhart, chairmen; Elaine Boesch, Sharon Beck, Pam Riederer, Darlene Myers, Kathy Keckeisen and Norma Wieland. Ushers: Carol Ahlbrecht and Sharon Foster, chairmen;—Sharon Fiemeyer, Sylvia Schwermann, Margie Blaaid, Susan Reim, Terry Wellner, and Jim Freisinger.

Vocal Spring Concert Scheduled For May 8

Presenting musical selections at the Vocal Spring Concert, May 8, 1960, at 8:00 in the evening, will be the Senior Choir and both Glee Club under the direction of M. Ackerman.

Selections that definitely will be presented by the choir are "O Day Full of Grace," "Hora," "When I Grow Too Old to Dream," "King James," and "Sine Noie." Several other numbers are still awaiting decision.

Comprising the Glee Club numbers are "Orchestra Song," "My Lord What a Morning," "Sing To The Lord of Harvest," and "Jesus Joy of Man's Desiring."

"Halali and Cindy," featuring only the boys, will be presented by the Ninth Grade Choir.

Welcome Extended To Student Teachers

A welcome is extended to the three student teachers—Miss Shervheim, Mr. Joseph Ramsbacker, and Mr. Clifford Christianson—by NUHS students.

Miss Shervheim, a graduate of Kensington High School, and now a senior at Gustavus Adolphus, is teaching two classes of English 10, one class of English 12, and one class of American history, besides supervising Mr. Olson's 5th hour study hall. She considers our school system an excellent one; her classes have not been all work, for she has had some unusual or amusing experiences. She will be here until April 8. As yet she had not signed a teaching contract for next year.

Mr. Ramsbacker, a native of Mountain Lake and a student at Mankato State, is teaching two physical education classes—ninth and twelfth. He commented on the nice school we have, and said he was looking forward to doing his practice teaching here. His plans as to where he will be teaching after he graduates, are also indefinite.

Mr. Christianson, also from Mankato State, says his most unusual experience at NUHS has been having a girl wink at him, (I wonder if that's unusual). He hails from Excelsior, Lake Minnetonka. His schedule consists of seven art classes and one orientation class. He thinks he's going to like teaching.

L. Karl, R. Kroening To Regional Speech

Lois Karl, senior, and Randall Kroening, freshman, by rating "superior" in discussion, and "very superior" in memorized oratory, respectively, at the District 10 speech meet at Wabasso, March 29, earned the right to participate in the regional contest at Montevideo, April 7.

Ratings for the other NUHS contestants were as follows: Mike Shay, excellent in discussion; Ann Vogel, superior in oratory; Billy Macklin, superior in humorous interpretative; Gladys Niemann, excellent in humorous interpretative; Ellen Lippmann, very good, and Jennifer Feuerhelm, excellent in serious reading; Myron Frisch, very good in extemporaneous speaking; Mary Kay Schmid, superior in manuscript reading.

Senior Play, "Fair Exchange" April 22-23

A comedy-drama entitled "Fair Exchange", to be given by the senior class on April 22-23, has a mixture of laughter, sorrow, and tension in its plot.

Comedy is brought on by Rochelle Pieser who plays the part of Agnes Benjamin. She is in her early thirties, married, and very romantic in every way. Hettie Jean Mau plays the part of Diana Wilson, a thirteen-year-old scrawny, long-necked girl who is indifferent to boys but very much interested in outer space. Her vocabulary is extremely large for a girl her age. Ellen Lippmann portrays the part of Carol Stellar, a bosom friend of Diana Wilson. She is almost fourteen years old, very proud of it, and interested in fishing and collecting rejection slips from every magazine in the United States.

Ginny Martin, played by Rita Thill, is seventeen years old and extremely tall, a fact which makes her dates seem like midgets. Her sense of humor adds a touch of comedy. Jim Grundmeyer plays a dumb puppet until Ginny pulls the strings. He's tall and thin, and dances like a scarecrow oiled at the joints.

Mary Higgs and Meral Frank play the parts of Wendy Rheal and Bob Jones, respectively. They are the life of a party, coming up with wisecracks every few minutes.

Sorrow is brought in by Carol Domeier who plays the part of seventeen-year-old Kay McCarthy. She is Larry's high school steady and simply adores him. She is constantly grieving because her steady is one of the honor exchange students. Henry Domeier, who plays the part of Steve Gaviland, is brought in the same predicament Kay McCarthy is in. He is Peggy Wilson's seventeen-year-old steady. She is to be escorted to the prom by another boy and Steve is quite upset. Seventeen-year-old Larry Munger, played by Tom Lindemann, is the honor exchange student to an Ohio School. He is quite excited about his trip, but at the same time he tries to comfort his steady girl, Kay. Lester Fluegge plays the part of Ched Armstrong, the honor exchange student from Ohio to escort Miss Honor Student to the prom.

Bruce Keske and Sharon Bethke play the parts of Hal Valle and Stella Woolsey. They are both sixteen years old, very much in love with each other, and are secretly engaged. Sandy Hippert and Bob Sandon play the parts of Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Wilson, parents of Peggy and Diana. Helen Wilson is thirty-six years old and leans towards the romantic. Kirk Wilson is a muscular man who loves his family very much. Jerry Kretsch plays the part of a thirty-year-old state trooper who is dedicated to his job.

Although the plot seems not too unique, the pace of the last act and the ending are somewhat different.

Merle Wenger Champ In Ag. Association

Merle Wenger was Champ in the De-Kalb Agriculture Association Banquet at Mankato, on March 22, 1960. Other boys receiving recognition as outstanding corn growers in the New Ulm Chapter for 1959, were these boys: Tom Scheibel, Duane Leick, James Rolloff, Allen Altmann and James Lendt who received citations for Educational achievement.

EDITORIAL

How important are attitudes? Our attitudes toward our teachers, parents, policeman, fellow students, and studies are very important in that they determine our very character; and people generally judge us by our attitudes.

How are our attitudes shown? By our manners, good or bad, which play a vital part in the formation of our over-all attitude—manners at home, in the school room and halls; at church services, and in public places. Bad manners usually accompany a bad attitude.

Also the way in which we react in certain circumstances gives people an insight into our character; for example, the kind of attitude we take when things don't always go our way. Do we complain or do we take the disappointment in stride? Do we criticize before we know the full story behind whom or what we are criticizing?

Attitudes soon become habits and our success in this world may well be determined by the attitudes we take early in life.

Do you underclassmen care if we seniors give you some advice? We know that word advice might make you say, "Oh, no! Not again!"

But after almost four years in high school, there are some things we have learned.

One—Don't always look for the easiest subjects. Your acceptance or rejection by a school of your choice may depend on the right selection of courses.

Two—Try to establish a good reputation for yourself as a school citizen. It is easier to maintain that sort of name than it is try to to re-build a "shaky" reputation.

Three—Realize there is a reason for the subject matter taught in all classes, although you may not see it at the time.

Four—Take part in some extra-curricular activity if at all possible. The experience you gain and the friends you make, with both students and faculty members, are very much worthwhile.

Five—Understand that getting an education can fun as well as a challenge.

All Work and - - - No Play?

Amid the difficulties of finding a place to practice, dodging foam rubber golf balls, and being fined, the senior class play rehearsals began.

The library and Mr. Jensen's room were the most unusual places for play practice. It seemed there were too many activities taking place to get either the auditorium or the little theater.

Practice golf balls flying around the auditorium on Monday nights when the night classes were in session was another unusual interruption.

A fining system was set up by the cast members. One can be fined for being late to practice, for causing a disturbance, or for missing a cue. The money is to be used for a party after the performance. So far about $1.50 has been collected.

Orders from headquarters were to bring homework to the practices, but it seems not too much of it gets done. Instead the cast members can be seen occupied by various activities around the auditorium. Included was a contest of throwing golf balls over the curtain; however the champion never was picked. Another favorite occupation of some is talking to friends while not on stage. So you can see not too much homework gets done. Anyone listening in might, at times, think there was indoor football practice going on.

For "Watch your blocking. Watch your blocking," is an oft-repeated phrase.

At one time, while Mr. Jensen was trying to get Rita Thill to do her part a certain way, he began to speak in German. Rita, able to understand and speak German, taked right back. It seemed to help, because now he is satisfied with her interpretation.

Although it may sound as if nothing is accomplished, the play is progressing rapidly.

Senior Write-Ups

by Judy and Hetty Jean

Larry Hulke

Larry is known as an easy-going fellow with a friendly "Hi," for everyone. News got to us that Larry is in the hospital. We want you to get well quick and come back to school Larry. His future plans are indefinite.

Karen Zupan

If you see "Bubbles" floating around the hall, it's none other than Karen Zupan. She is a very active girl, but a lot of her free time is spent writing letters. After she graduates she is planning to go to De Lyle's Beauty School in Fairmont.

Joleen Fluegge

Joleen can usually be found making the rounds at the roller rink. She enjoys Consumers and dislikes people who talk behind other peoples' backs. After graduation she wants a job in town.

Karen Salisbury

Playing the accordian and old time dancing are Karen's favorite pastimes. Girls wearing slacks with high heels is what bothers her. She feel those people are long gone and need help. After graduation she plans to work on the farm and then get a job in the fall.

Tom Wellner

Tom, Terry's twin, can be found taking nickles and dimes from the senior play cast, for he is the guy that collects the fines. It pays to be good during play practice, eh kids! Seriously though, he is doing a fine job as student director. He enjoys dancing and his work is farming. He has no definite future plans.

Pamela Riederer

One of the quieter girls in the senior class, but one who plays a big part in extra-curricular activities, is none other than Pamela Riederer. Eating hamburgers, tennis, and swimming are Pam's favorite pastimes. Her pet peeve is having to be one of the last seniors out of the auditorium. After graduation, Pam plans on going on to college.

Bruce Keske

One of the more agile boys in the senior class is Bruce Keske; he's very active in gymnastics. It seems that Bruce spends most of his spare time listening to the radio at Breezy Point—that is, all alone. Mr. Fier and Ag. are his favorite subjects, and he plans on joining the Navy after graduation. At present, Bruce works on the farm. His main peeve is people who do not mind their own business!!

Patricia Fenske

If you don't know where to find Patricia Fenske, just stop by the band room. You can usually find Pat madly blowing away on her baritone. It seems that Pat has acquired a very interesting hobby—she collects foreign and mainly "American" money. After graduation, Pat plans to go into the nursing field.

Newsy Notes For Juniors

If you think you see Grace Rolloff going down the hall, you had better look twice for it might be Helen Larson. Several junior girls have been exchanging clothes; and if you're used to identifying the girls by their clothes, you had better be careful.

"Keep your head still! Don't move your feet very much, but shake everything else!" This was Mr. Voves' description of how to rumba. Along with this, he taught the juniors and seniors to waltz, fox trot, and jitterbug.

I thought Charlie Wech had gone, but evidently he has left his "cold" here. One of these days the roof will fall in during fourth hour study if those two people keep on blowing their noses. Note:—The Roof is now safe. The people concerned have been silenced.

When Mr. Zahn asked who Carl Schurz was, Mike Young answered "Musingwear!"

Did you know Al Alwin is taking flying lessons and hopes to solo soon? If you see a plane that looks like it's out of control, run for cover!

The junior English class has finished studying two plays and are starting on essays. The speech classes are doing pantomimes. In second hour I heard Dennis Spert had to kiss Karae Sommers! I wonder who made that motion?

Janice Reinhart

Every one knows Jan, for she is the girl with the friendly smile that gladly takes your 50c as you enter the New Ulm theater. She enjoys shorthand and office machines, as her future plans might include that line of work. We feel that she really deserved the title of the FFA Sweetheart. Keep up the good work, Jan.

Thomas Karl

One of the senior boys that really does a good job in all musical activities is none other than Thomas Karl. Tom's favorite teacher is Mr. Heile, and he plans on attending the U of M. after graduation. It seems that Tom's favorite pastimes are sports and showing off his shiny "49" Mercury to a certain Trinity girl. Tom's pet peeve is sitting through a solid hour of College Prep. class.

Karen Janni

Wedding bells will soon be ringing for Karen Janni after graduation. Her favorite class is Office Machines. Karen's a girl that really knows how to work the adding machines. One of her favorite pastimes is sewing, and her favorite colors are pink and blue. Karen's pet peeve is people who crack their gum!!

Merle Wenger

Typing and Ag. Classes really gain the affection of Merle (Squirrel) Wenger. Merle lives on a farm near Lafayette and is working there at the present time. Sports and music are his hobbies. Merle's main pet peeve is people who know so much. His favorite teacher is Mr. Olson.

Mary Zangel

One of the more friendly girls with a big "Hi" for everyone is Mary Zangel. At the present time, Mary is working at the Loretto Hospital as a nurse's aid. Even though she is working as a nurse's aid, Mary plans on going on to a beauty school. Mary's favorite pastime is roller skating. She enjoys Mr. Olson and art the most in school.

It's 'N And's

I wonder what it would be like if every one did as they felt, and didn't give a care for anyone except themselves.

There are many of these types of things that can be thought about, and here are a few:

—If we were never courteous and did things only to please ourselves?

—If we were always self-centered and thought of nothing but accepting glory all the time instead of giving it?

—If we were always inconsiderate of others, just because it was a little easier than to be considerate?

—If we all gave way to our moods all the time, and never tried to keep a smile, even if it almost hurts at times?

—If we would never display any of our other manners and did things just as sloppily and lazily as possible.

I guess you'd have to agree that if we all did these things; it would probably help to make a better world for ourselves and those around us.

Easter's Many Customs

The time of Easter has many traditions associated with it, among them is the one of coloring eggs.

The custom of using eggs at Easter comes to us from very ancient times. The Persians gave colored eggs at their New Year, which they celebrated in the spring. The Hebrews also used eggs at the time of their feast of the Passover.

The egg has always been regarded as a symbol of creation or new birth. Therefore, when people began to celebrate Easter, they kept up the custom of using eggs. At those times the Easter egg was generally colored red.

In Germany the little children believe that the white hare brings them their Easter eggs. In Russia, people send eggs to their friends on Easter Sunday.

In our Country, one of the Easter sights in Washington is the egg-rolling on the White House grounds. The children come to the park, each carrying a basket filled with eggs of many colors. After rolling eggs down the little hills, the band comes out to pay for the children, and the President comes out to watch them.

Snooping Around NUHS

Class play practice—

A character was supposed to leave stage "in a quandary," not knowing the meaning of the word, she turned to Mr. Jensen and asked, "Where is the quandary?"

Mr. Geortzen, to his first hour history class: (State tourney)

"That guy had two speeds.—Slow and slower."

It isn't everyone who has the superintendent of schools come in to wake him up from a nap—but Leander Guoden did—in fifth hour study last week.

Did you know that Mike Slaybaugh must really love biology? He became so engrossed in his work that one sixth hour he was locked in the biology room. A call to Mr. Lynoot's office over the inter-com system brought rescue.

Gloria Schreiner really forgets everything but basketball when she plays basketball in played. In making a grab for the ball she got a hold—forcefully—on Kathy Konakowitz's head!

Baseball, Track, Golf Start Hopeful Seasons

With five of his starting nine returning, Coach Vernon Zahn feels the Eagles could be a real threat. That is, if he can find a couple of pitchers within the next few weeks.

For the first time in years, Mr. Zahn finds himself without one first rate chucker. If he weren't faced with this problem, he could be set to defend the South Central Conference Championship won last year.

Missing personnel leave three gaps in the infield and the first three pitchers are gone. A first baseman, second baseman, and third baseman will have to be found before the April 22 opener against Luther. Zahn has all three starting outfielders returning, a catcher, and shortstop.

No Berth Secure Yet

Even though he has five starters back, Mr. Zahn said the "regulars will have to prove themselves capable of starting." He added that it is not impossible for anyone to work into the starting line up. He looks forward to a good scramble in the fight for all infield positions.

Again, Zahn stressed the need for desire and the right attitude to carry the team along: for if you followed the team last year, you were aware of this.

Number Reporting Up

Reporting to the meeting were 25 senior high students. Included were nine pitchers who are going to be battling for a position on the squad in the next few weeks.

Seniors reporting: Rog Zobel, Jerry Wieland, and Tom Lindemann.

Eagles Place Second In District Tourney

Hopes of picking off the District 10 championship were lost as the Eagles fell to Walnut Grove 67-51, March 12, at Gustavus Adolphus. The tall Loggers made quick work of the Young Eagles as they grabbed an early lead and won handily.

New Ulm had won the right into the finals with a 63-59 comeback victory over a latecomer in the Echo Rockets. The Rockets had led throughout, and at several times enjoyed seven-point leads.

The Eagles turned the tables in the third period against the Echo team as they applied their full-court press. New Ulm outscored the Rockets 20-6 in the game winning quarter. At the end of the third period, it stood 53-46 for New Ulm. Echo staged a late rally, but two buckets by Mike Olson and a pair of free throws by Mike Young gave New Ulm their victory. Olson topped the Eagles with 20 points while Young hit 16. Doug Wiesner tallied 12 and led the rebounding.

Loggers held 21 point lead

In the championship game, the Eagles were frigid from the field at the start, while Walnut Grove was hitting at a good pace to move away for keeps. Hope was that the Eagles would rally as they had against Echo, but the Loggers forged their way into a 21-point lead midway through the second half. The Eagles staged a mild rally, but the deficit was too great to overcome. Olson again hit 20 points as Karl Preuss and Doug Wiesner supplied 13 and 12, respectively.

The nucleus is there for this year's track squad, but Coach Epp will be lacking depth.

Coming back are several top notch performers who will be the center of Mr. Epp's squad. He pointed out several events in which New Ulm should stand out. There is good experience in the weights, and a pole vaulter who is in third year. Also the low hurdles should be pretty fair, plus good performance in the 880 run and 880-relay.

By the latter part of the season when "the other guys develop", the Eagles should be fairly strong. Mr. Epp added, "We should not be weak in any event, but we'll lack depth."

Replacements May Be Hard to find

Missing will be Lyle Hames, Curt Christensen, Wolfgang Mueller, (exchange student,) Rodney Nelson, Joe Koeck, and Don Feldsein. All figured high in New Ulm's success last year. "Those boys are going to be tough to replace," stated the track coach.

Especially tough to replace will be Hames and Christensen. Both were the two highest point-getters last year. Hames started in the 100 yd. dash, relay teams, and hurdles; Christensen was also in relays plus broad jumping.

Both Junior and Senior High Listed

Mr. Epp looks forward to new records to be established and to field

Sophomores totalled 12 to lead the senior high classes; those present at the signing-up meeting were as follows: Mike Slaybaugh, Craig Opel, Mike Good, Peter Smith, Robert Knopke, Carl Knopke, Gerry Schiltz, Gary Keske, Morrie Peterson, Al Hicks, Dave Wiesner, and Mike Mather. John Mitchell, a ninth grader seems to be a good prospect from junior high.

Assisting Mr. Epp will be Mr. Achman, wood shop instructor. Tuesday, April 26, is the opening meet for the thinclads here with Winthrop, Lamberton and New Ulm in a triangular.

Golf Practice Starts

The Eagles golf team will have most of its last years squad members back, but will hope for a so-so season. Coach James Blackstad feels the loss of Roger Kleinschmidt will be a gap which will have to be filled in order to have a fair campaign.

But Mr. Blackstad also feels that by the latter part of the season, the boys should be in good form and reaching their peak. Since the districts were held this past fall, the upcoming meet will only be the district schools competing against each other.

Those who will carry the load for the "putters" will be John Farrell, Steve Auferheide, Allan Schmucker, Mike Shay, and Tom Karl.

The opening meet is at Springfield on April 20th.

Wiesner, Olson, Young Named To All-District

New Ulm placed three juniors on the all-district team released through the New Ulm Daily Journal.

The Eagles were the only school of the 17 in the district to place more than two players. Champion Walnut Grove established two positions, as did Echo and Sanborn. Lamberton managed one place on the ten man squad.

Those chosen from New Ulm were Doug Wiesner, slick moving pivot man; Mike Olson whose outside shooting enabled the Eagles to reach the finals; and Mike Young, the floor general.

Out-of-Town Players Listed

Here are the other players chosen. From Walnut: Fred Schmiesing, 6'7" center selected as tournament's most valuable player; Bruce Nordstrom, a player who never rattled under pressure; Echo: Paul Tongen, one of the best pivot men in the area; Don Redetzke, whose driving ability knocked off Redwood Falls; Sanborn: Gary Weedman, a smart 5'7" player who makes up for his size with his scoring ability; Charles Goe-rish, who was deadly with his left-hand drive shot across the lane; Lamberton: Bob Gebhard, who carried the Hawks to a fine season which included breaking Walnut Grove's home-court win streak at 72 games.

Four other players received honorable mention. They were Noel Biebel from Gibbon; Ron Anderson and Ken Anderson of Walnut Grove; and Jim Roth of Lamberton.

Mr. Goertzen Resigns Post As Head Coach; Still on Staff

by Steve Marquardt

By now most of you know that our head basketball coach, Virgil Goertzen, has resigned as coach. It surprised most to hear that Mr. Goertzen, one of the best-liked teachers and coaches here at NUHS, had made that decision. He will remain on the teaching staff, however.

Of course, under the circumstances one can visualize his action. Every year he took "his" sport too seriously and became ill. If you remember, he was ill during the district tournaments for a spell.

On his resignation, he added, "It was a hard decision to make; for I have enjoyed working here. I only

Rev. Richards To Speak At Athletic Banquet

The Rev. Bob Richards, minister and Olympic star, will be the featured speaker at the sixth annual athletic banquet at Turner Hall, Thursday, April 7, at 6:30.

All senior high athletes from the three local high schools (NUHS, Martin Luther, and Holy Trinity) have been invited to attend. After a dinner for the athletes, each school will have its outstanding pancratist selected. From the three seniors selected, the best of their respective schools, one will be chosen as New Ulm's outstanding athlete.

Lyle Hames, graduate of NUHS and last years outstanding senior athlete will be on hand to congratulate the students honored.

Only seniors are eligible for the school and city honors.

Gym Team Sends Four To State Gym Meet

Our gym team finished their season recently after a short but fairly prosperous season. The gymnasts took part in several meets and also the district and regional competition.

Those representing New Ulm in the Region III tournament were Doug Bloedel in Class B; Carl Knopke, Jr., Bob Knopke, and Bruce Keske in Class C; and Bob Holland, Rich Lamprecht, Glen Johnson, Galen Johnson, and Byran Schumacher.

Winning and going on to the state meet were Bloedel, the two Knopkes, and Holland. Although none of these four placed high, they achieved a major pinnacle.

The big New Ulm Invitational, cancelled because of Mr. Pfaender's illness, will be held next year. Mr. Pfaender was high in praise for the boys "who did a fine job."

Performing during halftime of the district games and last fall in the physical fitness program here made up their local appearances.

Volley, Handball End

Of the six teams entered in the boys' volleyball tournament, the Junior Apes, won the sudden-death playoff.

They drew a first round forfeit and then won the final game. Players on the winning team were Mike Young, Doug Wiesner, Chuck Wieland, Karl Preuss, and Mike Olson.

Also, in the handball tournament, Mike Olson was the champ after a sudden-death playoff.

hope I gave the athletes under me a tremendous desire to excel." He continued, saying, "A basketball player must accept all the sacrifices and have the desire to excel in order to be a standout."

Mr. Goertzen piloted the Eagles cage team to their second Conference Championship and "talked" them into the district finals this year. He stated that you don't make a winner in one year. It starts two or three years earlier, and you have to give credit to the coaches below who help out.

This ended a short coaching career for Mr. Goertzen, who started out as assistant coach at Mankato State six years ago. He was at Mankato in '54-'55 and was down in Iowa in '55-'56, where he led his team into the district finals. He has been here since '56.

Replacing Mr. Goertzen is Lee Hopfenspirger, a Hamline graduate this spring. Hopfenspirger has been under wellknown Joe Hutton at Hamline and should not change the offense since he has been playing under about the same kind in college.

Intramural Wrestling Draws Fifty-Five

Monday, March 20, opened a new season but a short one in school athletics. This short season was that of intramural wrestling. Approximately 55 boys turned out for the weigh-in for placement of weight division. These boys ranged from grades 7-12. Most of these had some previous wrestling experience, but some had none at all.

Phy. Ed. classes included wrestling in their activities, perhaps contributing to the fine turn out. Holds, take-downs, pins, and other things concerning wrestling, were taught quite thoroughly.

There were boys in all weight classes from seventy-five pounds to heavyweight, except the 175 lb. class, in which no one entered. To all class winners, medals will be given.

Tournament lasted for Three Days

The tournament began on Monday with all first round matches being wrestled off on that day. Tuesday began consolations, and Wednesday the championship matches were wrestled off.

Most of the boys realized after their matches what tip-top shape each must be in to wrestle. Compliments should go to our Eagle wrestlers who were referees, and to wrestling coaches, Mr. Anderson, and Mr. Voves for the smoothness with which this meet was carried through.

Salesmen Sell 525 Subscriptions to Eagle

Sharon Bethke, Pauline Suess, Mary Higgs, Kathy Konakowitz, Carol Domeier, and Norma Wieland have completed their work as members of the sales committee by selling 525 subscriptions to the 1960 yearbook, the Eagle.

The copy writers and typists are responsible for most of the work that is now left to be done on the Eagle. The general copywriters are Carol Albrecht, Pat Fenske, and Susan Reim; sports writers, Steve Marquardt and Gerald Tobias. Typists are Rita Thill and Janice Reinhart, while Mary Higgs is working on the cover design.

Over all is the editorial board that determines policies, confers with Miss Steen and helps with the general planning. This board is made up of Avis Borchert, Marsha Haber, Judy Donohue and Kathy Keckeisen.

NEWS IN BRIEF

NUHS Again Rated High

Notification of the recognition and acceptance of NUHS by the North Central Association of High Schools and Colleges for the forty-first consecutive year has been recently received by the principal's office.

This acceptance means that the staff, the courses of study, and the equipment of our school has fulfilled all requirements and that the credits of all graduates of NUHS will be accepted by any college or university in the United States.

Annual Spring Dance to be May 6

The Spring Dance this year will be held a week after Prom on May 6. The Swing Band will play. The decorations used for the Prom will be left up—7th through 9th.

Easter Recess for Ten Days

Easter vacation beings on April 8. We will return to school again on April 19. This is the last vacation before Summer. School will close for the year, June 3.

Assembly April 7th

Galen Miller Harvey, known as "Happy" Harvey by audiences throughout the country, will present an assembly of "Fun and Music", with his piano and newly added Hammond Organ, in the high school auditorium, April 7, at 8:45 A.M.

It was while he was on television and radio in the Carolinas some years ago that he was nicknamed "Happy." He has the ability to arrange tunes, improvise on simple themes, perform the best of the popular music of the day on both organ and piano. Direct community singing and audience participating stunts give his program both flexibility and variety.

One-Act Play

"The Proposal" a one-act play farce won recognition at both the district and regional one-act contests.

On March 21, the cast composed of three people—Jerry Dannheim, Christine Oswald and Steve Aufderheide—traveled to Morgan for the district contest. The play placed first, with Fairfax as alternate.

On March 31 the cast went to Lake Benton for the regional. Although the judge was very much impressed with the play and found it fun to watch, he gave first place to Montevideo, placing New Ulm third, with a superior rating.

Swing Band Accepts Dates

The NUHS Swing Band and soloist will make two out-of-town trips in the near future, to Faribault and to Arlington.

Exchange programs between the NUHS Swing Band and the Shattuck Military School Dance Band have been arranged.

On April 9, the NUHS Swing Band will travel to Faribault to play for one of the school's Saturday night dances. In return the Shattuck band will play for a teenage dance scheduled for April 23 at Turner Hall.

The band will also travel to Arlington May 14, to play for their high school prom.

Lecture In Assembly

"Inside Scotland Yard" will be the subject of the lecture to be given at NUHS by Mr. Hugh Stoneman on Thursday, April 21, at 12:38.

While Mr. Stoneman was with Scotland Yard, London, he was a superintendent in charge of an entire Police Division and had over fifteen hundred officers and men working under his supervision. Since leaving active duty with Scotland Yard, he has been a private investigator.

Scotland Yard is generally regarded as the oldest and finest police force in the world.

Mr. Stoneman's lecture will be a factual and exciting insight into the workings of this great police organization by one of the most respected police officers of the British Isles.

Drama Duo Here May 4

A Drama Duo, made up of Sara and Sandy Rosen, will appear in the high school auditorium, May 4, at 12:38 p.m. The program will trace the highlights of dramatic history through reading, song, pantomime, and acted scenes.

Sara Rosen, a veteran of five years professional modeling, has appeared in various plays at the U of M. Some of these were "The Enchanted," "The Taming of the Shrew," and "Pal Joey." She is also an award winning actress and has appeared on commercial TV.

Sandy, the other member of the group, is a member of the Collegiate Players, an honorary fraternity for talented theater students and graduates. Known also as an excellent vocalist, he has appeared in the Upper Midwest with the Northmen, a group which appears professionally and also has made a number of recordings. Sandy has also appeared in several productions at the U of M.; some of these are Max Schulman's "Barefoot Boy With Cheek," and Gilbert and Sullivan's, "Rudigore." Last summer Sandy was a member of the company aboard the Minnesota Centennial Showboat, which presented "She Stoops to Conquer."

Education Conventions

To learn of the latest developments and trends in their respective fields, a number of NUHS faculty members will be attending education conventions in the next few weeks.

Mrs. Franklin and Miss Kayser will be in Minneapolis April 10-13, at the National Convention of Classroom Teachers.

Mr. T. R. Olson is going to Sioux City for the conference on adult education, while Mr. J. Blackstad will be in Minneapolis for the Visual Aids meeting.

Miss Steen, Miss McLaughlin and Miss Kayser are scheduled to attend the spring conference of librarians and teachers of language arts.

Miss Schmid and Mr. Ness have attended a guidance meeting at Mankato.

New Plan to be Tried

"Fair Exchange" is really fair exchange—a new idea has been proposed.

Mr. Jenson, director of the senior class play, "Fair Exchange," has invited Trinity's play cast and director to come to the NUHS dress rehearsal, Thursday evening, April 21; he is then anticipating an invitation to attend their rehearsal later.

The purpose is to provide our students with an audience, for Mr. Jenson feels it will cause the cast to perform better. It is also to promote an exchange of ideas and comments on the performance.

Folk Program Repeated

Honoring many, many requests, Miss Mueller's Junior High Folk dancing groups will give a repeat performance at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, April 10. This will make it possible for all grade school pupils, as well as interested adults to see this excellent program presenting dances from many countries. NO ADMISSION CHARGE.

The program consists of folk dances from England, Ireland, Scotland, Scandinavia, Germany, Russia, France, Mexico and the United States.

Authentic and colorful costumes add much to the program.

Judy Nickel is the narrator.

Army Applications For Specialist Program Available to Seniors

Master Sergeant Vernon E. Carstensen, Chief U.S. Army Recruiter or this area announced the opening of enlistment application to high school seniors under the Army's Graduate Specialist Program.

Seniors may make application at this time for enlistment testing and reserve a vacancy in one of 136 technical training courses for enlistment after graduation.

Sergeant Carstensen stated that applicants applying now would be scheduled for physical examination and aptitude testing in Minneapolis during Easter Vacation. This early testing and application will determine individual qualifications and enable each applicant to select the exact technical training course he desires to specialize in within the Army.

He further stated that there are several other options available, which include enlistment for overseas assignment, the Army Security Agency, Army Airborne, the Army Career Group Option, and the buddy enlistment.

Individual Treatment for Each

Each applicant is individually counseled and assisted in selecting the program for which he is best qualified. After final qualification, through aptitude testing, the applicant will be assured the specialized training of his choice before enlistment.

High school seniors and graduates may make appointments for enlistment testing and receive complete information as to Easter Vacation processing by contacting Sergeant Carstensen or Master Sergeant Jack Benson at their office, Room 304, Post Office Building, Mankato. Office hours are from 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Mondays through Saturdays.
