EXTRA! EXTRA! SAVE YOUR SNAPSHOTS FOR THE 1922 ANNUAL

Seniors in Need of Several Dozen of Good Ones.

HAND 'EM IN.

The Seniors are progressing very rapidly with their Annual. The staff is busy at work planning and working to make this year's annual a huge success. Most of the material for the Annual is obtained by the staff members. But—

Save Your Snapshots.

Have you some snapshots of your classmates or a good one of yourself? Have you a picture of a fellow student on which he looks more comical than usual? If you have, hand it in, because we need several dozen good snapshots for our Annual. You may have a good picture that would be just the thing. Bring it around and we will tell you whether or not we can use it. These snapshots are the life of a good Annual. Poor pictures bring down the standard of an Annual.

Hand to Editor.

If you don't know to whom to give the picture, just hand it to a Senior, and he will see that it gets to the right person. Or if you know the editor or any other staff member, give it to him.

We wish to thank you in advance for the good pictures we know you are going to hand in.

With the able coaching of Miss Russell the Sophomore girls defeated the Catholic High School girls in a basket ball game, played in the High School gym, Dec. 22, 1921. Mr. Clark was referee and Miss Russell time-keeper. The score was Sophs 15 Catholic High School 11.

Have you noticed what almost all the Seniors girls got from Santa Claus? It's quite evident. Girl graduate books, of course. There were several dozen floating around the Assembly and going through the ordeal of confiscation last week.

Tonight will be quite an eventful night here for the High School students. First the Sleepy Eye game and the Candy Booth, and then the Zoegling dance at Turner Hall. We'll show Sleepy Eye all the pep we've got.

Mrs. W. C. Cockroft substituted for Miss Schmidt in American and Ancient History classes last week.

H. S. B. B. TEAMS BEAT SLEEPY EYE TEAMS BY LARGE MARGINS

SLEEPY EYE GAME.

On Friday, Jan. 6, the local H. S. basket ball team journeyed to Sleepy Eye to engage in the first "conference" game of the season. Sleepy Eye has a new gymnasium and this was an added incentive for them to win.

Both Teams Work Hard.

The game started with a dash, both teams playing hard. For five minutes the ball went up and down the floor, then the locals caged a long basket as a starter. They followed this right up with a short shot and then began to drop them in quite regularly. Sleepy Eye made desperate attempts to stop this, but they were unable to do so. They finally tallied one with a free throw and just before the half ended scored a field goal. The half ended 17-3 in favor of New Ulm. Schleuder was hurt and McHale substituted during the 2nd quarter.

Locals Playing Fast.

The 2nd half found the locals going as before. Schueller especially raged around making one basket after another. Schleuder was again put in and made things hum anew. "Wally" Franta also "raised the dust" and "Erbs" and "Bems" held their men scoreless, "Erbs" even making a basket. Sleepy Eye sent in substitute after substitute, but they couldn't stop anything, although they succeeded in getting one more field goal and two free throws. The final whistle blew with the score 34 to 7 in favor of New Ulm.

Sleepy Eye played a hard game, but they were powerless. No one could have stopped our fellows that night, as they were "hitting on all six," as one of them put it.

Fine Feed After Game.

After the game both local teams were given a fine lunch by Sleepy Eye and the game was forgotten. The teams certainly want to thank Sleepy Eye for the hospitality which was shown them and which we expect to return at par value.

SLEEPY EYE GIRLS' GAME.

Accompanied by a large crowd of rooters the Girls' Basket Ball team went up to Sleepy Eye, Jan. 6. They arrived in the city at 6 o'clock and spent the time before the game in banging at the glass backboards, as they were not used to them.

The game started at 7:30. The first half found the score 11 to 5 in our favor. Florence made one beautiful shot from the line, while Lorna made four field goals and a free throw.

Sleepy Eye Outplayed.

The second half the Sleepy Eye team did not score, although they were given a chance at 5 free throws. Lorna made another free throw besides three field baskets and Florence put in another long shot. The game ended 20 to 5 in our favor.

Wicherski refereed the game.
We want to compliment Sleepy Eye on their new gym. It is very modern in all its equipment and has a fine floor.

After the game the Hi Y Club served a delicious lunch to both teams.

The Sleepy Eye teams will meet our teams here tonight, determined for revenge.

GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS GAME.

Friday, Jan. 13, the local team defeated the fast Gustavus Adolphus second team by a score of 38 to 20. The game was hard fought throughout.

WILL PLAY AGAIN.

The first interclass B. B. game of the season was played Friday, Jan. 13, between the Freshmen and Sophomores. The latter came out at the long end of the 16 to 8 score.

Hard Battle.

The game was hard fought from the beginning to finish. Judging from that contest by the time some of the players attain their Junior and Senior years they will help keep New Ulm High on the map in interscholastic basket ball. Several of the members pulled off some very good football tactics with the result that quite a few players are walking around with sore joints. The Sophs outplayed the Frosh in teamwork and shooting. But the latter proved to be the best fighters of the two. They fought for all they were worth to hold the Sophs down, but the superior ability of the second year team prevailed. The final score was 16 to 8 in favor of the Sophomore team.

Play Two Out of Three.

These two teams will play again and the two victories out of three will tell who the winner is. This team will play the winner of the Junior-Senior battle for the class championship.

Bessie Dietz was born in Texas. Her earliest years were spent on her father's ranch. She was the pet of the cowboys employed by her father, and when she was still a mere child she learned to ride a horse expertly and frequently accompanied the ranchers on their round-up expeditions. Her parents, fearing that she would lose all her feminine traits, sent her to a convent school, where the environment was more desirable. After two uneventful years here, she prevailed upon her parents to allow her to enter the N. U. H. S. She was completely happy here for three years. Then a love affair terminated disastrously, and so at the present time she is contemplating to re-enter a convent school in order to avoid the opposite sex, and forget her grief in her studies.

Miss Garnoch entertained the teachers new B. S. L. club Tuesday evening. We wonder what B. S. L. stands for. It surely is new.

SPEAKING OF SAYINGS.

There's a number of sayings that have gone out of date. They may have been the thing in—say—Shakespeare's day, but they don't apply now.

For instance: "The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world." How ironical! Just try to imagine a sleepy, hen pecked husband swaying the cradle of his squiralling offspring in the wee hours of the night. Does he rule in his own home? Nay! He doesn't rule the world!—or he wouldn't be employed thus.

Of course you've all heard the saying, "Figures don't lie." You may even have quoted it yourself at one time or another. The fact is, however, that figures do lie sometimes—and so do sayings. Your grandmothers probably hark back to the days when hoop-skirts, and what-nots were so fashionable—those good-for-nothing appendages which so modified the human form. Figures did lie then! You bet!

It must have been some poor goof of a poet, who, upon departing for the city to live in an attic room, grow long hair, and scribble, exclaimed to his sweetheart, "Till death do us part!" ere he left his hamlet. And ever afterward it has been the custom of youths to gush forth the very same words upon similar occasions. There can be no doubt, but that they impress the listener profoundly, particularly when the words are uttered with the hand resting upon the heart. However, they are valuable only for the sentiment implied. "Till death do us part!" And why pray should death part us? It needn't unless you have any serious misgivings concerning your ultimate testing—what with ouija boards, mediums, spiritualists and all those other up-to-date facilities for making intercourse with one's loved one in paradise so delightfully easy and interesting.

And so you see, the phrase-specialist isn't so much to be admired—the person who answers every question, and who expresses every thought with a hashed-over phrase. Some day, you see, he might spring one that was no longer fashionable. And any way, it's always best to be original.

EXCHANGES.

A new arrival in the form of a magazine is "The Orange Peels" of Orange, Mass. Rather late for the first issue of a school paper, but then you know how things get put off. Anyway, the paper can be proud of the Literary department of his issue. We noticed some rather pointless jokes. A good idea of this paper is to publish a list of 1921 graduates and what they are doing now.

We're not quite sure where the "Hill Echo" comes from except that it's from Dyrsburg. Possibly Tennessee, since that state is referred to twice. We like the way the paper goes about to get a gym installed in their school. School boards are terribly stubborn sometimes. Good paper, except that larger headlines would give a more finished appearance.

The Karux of Phillipsburg, N. J., arrives as usual but minus the blue cover. The Karux would look better if Christmas came once a month, of course, the insides of the paper are alright. I liked the knocks this week. Some of the jokes are good. And, of course, some aren't.

Redwood's "Sen Jo So Fre" comes in with a Christmas cover too. Whether this publication will eventually end up by being a magazine or a newspaper is about as interesting a question as whether Johnny Esser was a he or she at the Sophomore masquerade a couple of months ago, but not nearly so important. We notice it has sort of a headline and it says "On, Oh Redwood—Let's Beat New Ulm." Hm! Not if we can help it. The whole publication is well written and interesting.

CHUMS.

I like to go with Billy Smith
With Charley Brown and Pete,
We're just one age, and all of us
Live on the same old street.
We stand together mighty close,
We're in one room in school;
In work or play it's all the same—
We stick—for that's our rule.
But still there is another friend,
And when I see him come
I have the feeling after all
That he's my finest chum.

We talk together every night,
I tell him of our play,
And all about my school work and
Our baseball team—and say—
He seems more anxious, far to hear,
Than any boys could be.
And my—he sort of seems to know
The thoughts inside of me;
It's fine to think that he's my chum
And know that I am his,
That I can tell him everything,
No matter what it is.

He says it makes him young again
To be a pal of mine;
And that he's learning more each day,
And that he thinks it's fine
To hear about the fellows, and
The lots of things we do,
But he doesn't know how good it feels
To have him wanting to.
It's fine to have a Billy, Pete
And Charlie go and come.
But say, it's finer still to have Your Dad, the greatest chum.

tip-off and almost immediately scored with a long shot. For the next five minutes the ball went up and down the floor, both sides missing several shots and then Schleuder put in 2 free throws. Schueller immediately followed with 2 field goals, who was in turn followed by Schleuder with another one. The quarter ended 10 to 0 in favor of New Ulm.

Gustavus Makes a Spurt.

The second quarter found the "Gusties" determined to go, and go they did. They scored 2 field goals and a free throw before the locals scored their first basket during this period. They again found the basket, to be followed with another one by the locals. A short pause in the scoring till the "Gusties" burst out afresh and scored another 2 baskets. The locals were on the job though and netted 2 long shots and a free throw. The half ended without further scoring, 20 to 11 in favor of the locals. During this second period the "Gusties" outpointed the locals, scoring 11 points to the locals ten.

Locals Forge Ahead.

The third quarter was almost a repetition of the first. Both sides had about equal possession of the ball, but the "Gusties" couldn't make their shots count. The locals on the other hand found the basket three times for field goals and twice for free throws, making 8 points to their opponents none.

Last Quarter Hard Fought.

Both sides fought hard during the last period, but the locals came out with the larger number of baskets. The locals scored soon after the quarter started, but then the "Gusties" made 4 field goals in succession and one free throw. This sudden offensive on the part of the visitors put the locals on the defensive for a short time and they came back strong and added four field goals to their list. The score was then 38 to 20 in favor of the locals when the final whistle blew.

GIRLS' TEAM VS. ALUMNI.

Friday, Jan. 13, the H. S. girls beat up the Alumni girls by the overwhelming score of 21 to 9. The Alumni set everyone to laughing when they came out on the floor. They had their hair fixed like little girls, and they looked mighty good. The Alumni had about nine girls out in uniform and they needed them too because every once in a while one of them got hurt or winded and a sub had to be put in.

Locals Obtain Lead.

Lorna began the scoring by placing a neat field goal. Both teams played around a little until the Alumni began to get rough. In consequence fouls were called and Lorna put in three free throws. She followed them up with two more field goals. The Alumni then made their first basket. Lorna found the basket for another field goal and the Alumni did the same. Score 11 to 4.

Big Margin Over Alumni.

As before Lorna again started the scoring with a neat field goal. The Alumni scored two points on free throws. After passing Florence found the basket for her first score of the game. This was followed by one from Lorna. The basket must have had an attraction for Florence, because she put in three baskets right after each other. Score 24 to 6 in favor of the High School girls.

Subs Put In.

In the third quarter Bessie was put in for Lorna and Elizabeth for Irene. This evened up the team quite a bit and made the game more interesting. The only points scored in this period were a free throw by Florence and one basket by the Alumni. Score 25 to 8.

Alumni Play Hard.

In the last quarter the regular players were put back in, but the Alumni had found their gait and held them down much better than in the first half. The Alumni scored 1 free throw, Lorna obtained two baskets and Florence 1. This brought the final score to 31 to 9 in favor of the crack H. S. Girls' team.

CO. A GAME.

During the Xmas season the locals also beat the Company A team on the Armory floor. In the first quarter the locals scored quite a few points and had a comfortable lead over the Company.

In the second period almost all subs went in and then it became a hard fight. The Company gradually closed up the gap in the score and then the first five men for the high school again went in, but the Company fought stubbornly and it was all the high school could do to win by a one point margin, 29 to 28.

LOCALS.

Don't forget to bring a snapshot or two of your friends for the Senior annual. Help make the snapshot section a big success.

We think the members of the Baseball band are regular sports. They offered their services to come up and play for the B. B. game with the G. A. team.

The Seniors are going to have another, larger Candy Booth at the Sleepy Eye game this Friday, so bring along some extra "dough." Remember the funds go to the Annual, so help us along.

Why are recitations such complete failures these last two weeks? If you had seen the nightly crowd on the river, skating in the glorious moonlight until midnight, you wouldn't ask such foolish questions.

Have you noticed some of the cripples in school? Since interclass basketball has started nearly every student has taken on a craze for the popular sport. But after strenuous practice some of them don't like the "knocks" part of it.

JOKES.

Gentleman (calling): "Is May in?"

Maid (indignantly): "May who?"

Gentleman: "Mayonaisse."

Maid: "Mayonaisse is dressing."

Teacher: "What does A stand for?"

Student (bluffing): "Just a minute, I've got it on the tip of my tongue."

Teacher: "Spit it out, it's arsenic."

Miss Close in domestic science: "I told you to notice when your soup boiled over."

Bright Freshie: "I did. It was a quarter to three."

Ted: "Can a man be in two places at the same time?"

Bill: "Sure, I was in Sleepy Eye last week and home, sick all the time"

"I am disgusted with the delays in our parcel post service."

"Why don't you send your things by telegraph."

"That chicken you sent me Saturday was a very old bird," said a bride of two weeks.

"You are mistaken, madam. It was a very young chicken," replied the butcher.

"Don't tell me that. Haven't I got eyes? Why, it hadn't a single tooth in its mouth."

Jack: "How can I see my girl of-tener?"

John: "Look at her."

Lady: "Aren't you the same man who got a piece of mince pie here last week?"

Hobo: "No mum, I'll never be the same man again."

Fair Customer: "I'd like to try on that hat over there."

Salesman: "Sorry, ma'am, but that's a lamp shade."

There are metres of ryme,
And metres of tone,
But the best kind of metre

Colored Preacher: "As dis heah congregation ain't willing to pay me a suffishuncy of salary, I'se guine to and expected a puhsition in de county jail. De tex' foh today will be 'I goes to Prepare a Place For You.'"

The director of the Zoological garden was on his vacation. One day he received a note from the chief assistant, which closed thus: "The chimpanzee seems to be pining for a companion. What shall we do until you return?"

Joe S.: "I wonder if we'll have enough fellows back for a good team next year?"

Erbs: "They come and they go. But we stay here forever."

Teacher: "What's the difference between a pint and a quart?"

Son of a Tippler: "A pint is what makes you happy, a quart's what makes you dry."

Mr. Jones: "You rent this house?"

Mr. Brown: "Yes, but it's almost like owning it."

Mr. Jones: "How?"

Mr. Brown: "I haven't paid the rent for the past ten months."

The class in chemistry was wrestling with a tough problem.

"Suppose," said the professor, "you were called upon to attend a patient who had swallowed a heavy dose of oxalic acid, what would you administer?"

There was silence for a few minutes and then a voice spoke up: "The sacrament."

A QUESTION OF COLOR.

An old colored man was burning dead grass when a "wise man" stopped and said, "You're foolish to do that Uncle Eb., it will make the meadow as black as you are."

"Don't worry 'bout dat, sah," responded Uncle Eb. "Dat grass will grow out again an' be as green as you is."

HORSE-RADISH.

Young Lady, on first visit to western ranch: "For what purpose do you use that coil of line on your saddle?"

Cow Puncher: "That line we use for catching cattle and horses."

Young Lady: "Oh, indeed. Now, may I ask, what do you use for bait?"

ON THE BEACH.

Upon the beach she held my hand,
I let my soul-felt pleading flow,
I coaxed, I begged, I swore, but yet—
That doggone crab would not let go.
