TEACHERS RETURN FROM COUNTRY

SOPHOMORE GIRLS CAPTURE CHAMPIONSHIP

TWO WEEKS IN COUNTRY SCHOOLS.

We are publishing a list of the different schools in which the members of the Normal Department did their practice teaching. They were all in Brown county, with the exceptions of Margaret Kienlen, who was in Sibley county, and Sylvia Gehrke, who was in Redwood.

Aurelia Schneider—Margaret Bentdahl—District 10; Lola Meyer—Clara Epple—District 28; Olivia Meidl—Jeanette Russell—District 9; Laura Martin—Ida Stadick—District 69; Lillian Lind—Angela Floetl—District 67; Veronica Krzmarzick—Olivia Henle—39; Margaret Kienlen—Florenze Volz—District 72; Ilga Hanson—Lydia Anderson—District 7; Sylvia Gehrke—Miss O'Connell—District 81; Magdaline Foerster—Wilhelmine Puchner—District 15; Myrtle Alwin—Edna Nieman—District 14; Lauretta Arbes—Natalie Dietz—District 3.

After two weeks of country life, the Normalonians are back at work preparing for Kindergarten. By the way they talk they all seemed to have enjoyed themselves very much; although a few found country life somewhat different from city life. Everyone is so brimful of experiences to tell about, that the girls must "fight for the floor."

Olga seems to have had too much experience, for she is sick. Olivia, who substituted for the teacher in District 59, Nicollet county, from March 6 to 18, is now out in Miss Russell's school for a week.

"GLORY OF GREENS" AT FRESHIE PARTY.

The Decorations.

The Freshmen surprised their guests last Saturday by the unexpectedly pretty and appropriate decorations at their St. Patrick's party. Strings of bright balloons and twisted crepe paper were intertwined overhead. A large incense burner was one of the mediums through which they expressed their originality.

Amusements.

Jay Gould's orchestra furnished music during the entire evening. An Irish flag race, the Virginia Reel, and several other games furnished the amusements.

DEFEAT SENIORS 8-2.

In a rather one-sided, though well-played game the Sophomore Girls cinched their title by defeating the Seniors a second time 8-2.

Nicknames.

The Seniors were dressed like little kids and had hair ribbons on and had signs on their backs, such as "Wildcat" and "Fighting Fiend."

Good Playing.

The Seniors fought their hardest, as did the Sophs, but the Sophs played a good game and earned the title they were after. It was a defensive game as is indicated by the score and the Seniors were lucky enough to get only one field goal through the entire game. Lucy Emmerich played a good game for the Sophs. Martha Schaffer substituted for Captain Jennie Schnobrich and played a fine game. Florence Murphy played her usual good game, scoring 4 field goals.

SOPHOMORE GIRLS BEAT LAST YEAR'S CHAMPS, 13-7.

On March 10, the first game of the second round of girls' interclass games was played. The Sophs had an easy time defeating the Freshmen team twice before and these games gave them the right to play the Seniors.

Rough Playing.

The ball was on the Sophomore side most of the time during the first half. The score at this period of the game was 8-4. The second half the Seniors staged a comeback but Esther Tappe and Florence Hellmann treated their opponents "rough," so this was short lived. The Seniors were anxious to win, but the Sophs played a fine game, and can credit themselves with winning a game from a team that captured class championship for two years. Another game will be played and if the "Sophs" win again they

PLANS FOR SENIOR PLAY.

The Seniors held a class meeting the other day for the purpose of making arrangements for the annual Senior class play, which will be given early in May. The committee consists of Florence Schneider, Gertrude Ackermann, Myra Alwin and Miss Morse, who will coach the play and is also supervising the committee.

They are all diligently reading various plays and sending for others. With this committee and Miss Morse at work, we may rest assured that the Senior class will put on an extraordinarily good play.

Tryouts will be held as soon as the play has been selected, and it will be upon the merit of these alone that Miss Morse and Mr. Clark will decide who the lucky ones are to be.

Just wait till the next issue comes out, for by that time the play will be chosen and the cast selected. Then we won't be able to wait until the performance is given.

D. O. T. MEETING

A regular meeting of the D. O. T. was held Monday night, March 21. Roll call was responded to by "a favorite vehicle." It seems if some of the Daughters of Thespis were a bit smaller, little sister would be minus a kiddie car or velocipede.

The business meeting was peppy and many important matters were taken up and disposed of. The chief discussion was that of holding a joint D. O. T. and P. L. S. meeting sometime in the near future, to which all lower classmen would be welcome. This meeting is to take the place of the D. O. T. quarterlies, which have been held in previous years.

The program, which followed, was short but very interesting. Florence Schneider, accompanied by Robert Fisher, gave a very pleasing vocal solo and was called upon for an encore. The piano solo by Miss Almeter was very much enjoyed by all. Elizabeth Hintz substituted for Minnie Gewerth by reading the life of Mary Roberts Rinehart. The meeting terminated with the critic's report by Miss Morse.

Wally: "Joe, why is there rubber around the electric light wires?"

Joe: "Dizzy, they are covered so the light can't leak out of them."

REWARDS FOR WINNING HONORS.

An assembly was held the fifth period last Friday, March 24, for the purpose of awarding honors to the boys' and girls' basket ball teams, the debating team and those winning first place in the Siegel Trophy contest. The Friday assemblies are usually held the last period in the afternoon, but because of the absence of out-of-town students, who go home Friday afternoons and perhaps for other reasons, Mr. Clark found it rather necessary on such great an occasion to take the pupils unawares and call the assembly the fifth period.

Although it is rather ridiculous to think of the 25th of December so near Easter time, the assembly resembled in all ways a Christmas program. Sylvester, as cheer leader, rendered some thunderous vocal solos and was joined in a chorus by the student body. Then all was hushed for Santa Claus was coming down the aisle with his pack. It was Mickie, of course. He told how good each little girl and boy on the team was all year and summed up all that had been accomplished by the teams this season. The results show that Joe Schueller played the greatest number of quarters and made the most number of baskets on the boys' team, while Hildegard Hein played the full number of quarters on the girls' undefeated team and Lorna Schleuder caged the most baskets.

After Mickie's speech, all players having participated in sixty per cent of all the quarters, were called up one by one to receive the letters. Those who received them are: Hildegard Hein, Florence Schneider, Irene Ochs, Wanda Nelson, Maybelle Simmet, Lorna Schleuder, Joe Schueller, Hugo Schleuder, Carl Fritsche, Raymond Amann and Walter Julius. Watch for the appearance of the faces and don't forget that you, too, may be the proud owner of those letters some day if you try.

Then Sylvester and his chorus raised the roof in cheering for the best coach we ever had and Santa, his Basket Ball duties over for this season, picked up his empty pack and flew away—to the back of the assembly room. But, lo! Another Santa appeared in person of Mr. Clark. He awarded Stanley Olson, President of the Athletic Association and Edward

LOYALTY.

Much has been said and written during the last few years on loyalty. Periodicals were filled with articles touching on the recent war. A war always brings out the spirit of patriotism in a people. Few are immune. A man who in word or action is disloyal is despised by his fellow countrymen. Loyalty to one's city or school activities is also important. One refusing to participate in or support school activities is as disloyal to that school as one who plots against a government is a traitor to that government.

The basket ball season was a decided success owing to the active support of the student body. School affairs cannot be successful unless every student tries his or her best to help.

There will no doubt be a High School Track Team and possibly a Baseball Team and it is up to the student body to make this as successful as was the basket ball season, by lending their loyal support.

LOCALS.

Hugo Schleuder attended the Northwestern Gym meet at Minneapolis for several days last week.

Theodore Fritsche has returned to school, after being confined to his home, where the grippe had a grip on him.

I'm forever posing! That's what everybody's saying, but just wait till you see their smiling countenances in the Annual.

Scarlet fever has claimed another of our Sophomore boys namely, Marvin Meyer. We all hope for his speedy recovery.

Candy sales were conducted Thursday and Friday for the benefit of the D. O. T. Society. The proceeds amounted to approximately eight dollars.

The faculty is hoping for the opening of the track season for evidence has been shown in the basket ball boys' marks that the basket ball season is over.

It's a sure sign of spring when every group of girls acts this way. Did you get your new hat?—Oh, how cute! Um hum, I saw the most adorable dress—buzz, buzz, buzz.

Yum, yum! Oh, where didja say it was—and when? Down in the Home Economics Department. Yes, it's a doughnut sale to help the Campfire Girls financially. Don't fail to be there.

Howard Vogel is busily preparing for the State Oratorical Contest, to be given at Minneapolis Central High School, April 14th. While you're enjoying your Easter vacation hold your thumbs for the State Championship.

RULES: FOR SLEEP.

(It is feared that most students fail along these certain points.)

Don't sleep on your left side because it causes too great a pressure on the heart.

Don't sleep on the right side because it interferes with the respiration of the lung.

Don't sleep on your stomach because it interferes with the digestion and with the respiration of both lungs and makes breathing difficult.

Don't sleep on your back, for that method of getting rest is bad for the nervous system.

Don't sleep sitting in a chair for your body falls into an unnatural position and you cannot get the necessary relaxation.

Don't sleep standing up for you may fall and break your neck.

DON'T SLEEP. R. G. H.

WOULDN'T IT BE FUNNY IF:

Joe S. wore knickerbockers, once more?

Art L. would get A plus in every subject?

Bems A. couldn't strut and throw out his chest?

All the school would strike?

Bill Prom would play baseball?

Wally F. was not eating candy?

Carl never saw Florence anymore?

A NARROW ESCAPE.

It was a dark, spooky night, and she was coming home late from the office where she worked.

As she walked along she thought of the article she had seen in the paper that day about a girl being robbed. The robbery had taken place about a block ahead of where she was now.

When she saw how dark it was at that place now she stopped and decided to avoid passing that place by going around on another street. It would be farther but she did not care.

Just as she made her decision and started out again the street lights went out. She was so frightened she almost screamed but she kept on going.

Suddenly she heard footsteps behind her. She started to run. She had run for about half a block when someone called to her to stop. Instead of stopping she ran faster.

At last she had to stop. She was so frightened that she could not even scream. The man that had been chasing her came up and held up something that looked like a gun.

She was just going to hold up her hands when she said, "Here's your fountain pen, Miss, you left it at the office." What she had thought was a gun was her fountain pen and the man was the office-boy.

A GENTLE GAME OF FOOTBALL.

He made a run around the end
Was tackled from the rear,
The right guard sat upon his neck
And the fullback on his ear,
The center sat upon his legs,
Two ends sat on his chest,
The quarter and the fullback then
Sat down on him to rest;
The left guard sat upon his head,
A tackle on his face;
The coroner was next called in
To sit upon the case. Ex.

Bems: "Say, Wally, did you hear the story about the empty barrel?"

Wally: "No, what about it?"

Bems: "There was nothing in it."

REWARDS FOR WINNING HONORS.

Witt, Secretary and Treasurer of the same, "N. U.'s" resembling those given to the teams save for a lavender bar across the letters, for their good work as Athletic board officers.

The awarding of honors to the Debating team and those having received first place in the Siegel Declamatory and Oratory Contest was done for the first time this year. They each received medals upon which the date, their name, and name of school was engraved. It was a great mistake not to have done this before for surely they deserve it as well as the Basket Ball teams. Those who received the medals for their respective work are: Debate—Caroline Guggisberg, Roy Pfeiffer Clarence Roloff; Declamation—Elizabeth Hintz; Oratory—Howard Vogel. Howard will represent the New Ulm High School at the state contest in April. We didn't get a whole Basket Ball championship, but, as Mr. Clark stated, we will get something in Oratory.

When Mr. Clark had finished distributing the contents of his pack, he gave a short talk on the future. It seems that in all the work of this year most of the participants were lower classmen so that next year, with the fresh supply, the stock of talent will be exceedingly great.

A LETTER FROM MR. GRAPHOS.

Graphos Bocques Ave.,
High School City.

Dear Subscribers:

Well, here I am again! I just came from the shop with a new suit of type. I don't know whether it's in style or whether it looks good on me or not, but that's why I'm writing to you.

I want to ask a favor of you. I wish that you would ALL write to my office, "The Graphos Bocques," and tell me just exactly what you don't like about my suit. Tell me where it doesn't fit right, where it could be changed so as to meet with your approval. You see, I haven't any mirror and I need your opinion. I know you don't like my suit, because I've heard you say so, but please be explicit and tell me exactly what is wrong with it.

Tell me what you WANT and I'll wear it, if it is possible for my tailors to make it.

Respectfully yours,
MR. GRAPHOS.

The other day Jennie went into Beck's for some sheet music, going up to the clerk she asked him: "Have you 'Ten Little Fingers and Ten Little Toes?'"

Silly: "I think I deserve as good a mark this month as I had last month, because I did just as good work."

Miss Russell: "Perhaps we should lower last month's mark then."

Reporter: "What kind of a head shall I write about the two peroxide blondes, who threw a fit at the game today?"

Editor: "Just say, 'The Bleachers Went Wild.'"

Art: "Say Wally, I think Bill Prom would be a good backfield man for next year's squad."

Wally: "Why?"

Art: "Why, man, suppose Bill had the ball within our 10-yard line, if he were tackled he would fall across for a touchdown every time."

EXCHANGES.

"The Echo." The arrangement and general appearance of your paper and the originality of it as a whole make "The Echo" one of our best exchanges. There seems to be a lot of pep in the school that's backing your paper.

"Su Huta" is a fine, newsy paper, but where are your humorous and exchange departments?

"The Fairmont High Echo." Yours is a snappy little paper. The editorials and poetry unusually good. We find the "Slam Bang" column very amusing.
