95 to Graduate

Plans have been completed for the activities commencement week beginning May 29.

Twice as many boys as girls will graduate on Thursday, June 2, at 8 P.M. at NUHS with the main speaker being L. L. Cunningham, president of Business Institute in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Frank Niemann, president of board of education, will present the diplomas.

Ninety-five seniors, consisting of 63 boys and 32 girls, dressed in purple gowns and caps, will proceed to the music of the high school band directed by Jack Strang. Also on the program are numbers by the chorus directed by Elmer Ackermann.

The senior sermon according to present plans is to be given by Rev. Frank, May 29 in the Methodist church.

All seniors who wish to, may attend, although it is not compulsary. Those attending will meet in the church basement by 7:45, so as to march in together.

Award Eve Planned

The annual senior class award night will be held on Friday evening, May 27, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium, senior class president Duane Neubauer presiding.

The NUHS band will present a concert from 7 to 8 p.m. The band will be conducted by seniors, besides the director, John Strang. The selections for the program will be numbers that have been played previously this year.

All seniors, their families and friends are invited to attend, as well as any interested underclassmen.

Fritsche
Gets Top
Rating
At State Meet

Climaxing three successful years of speech work last Friday, Bill Fritsche was awarded a superior rating at the state speech tournament held at Hamline University. There was a total of eight speakers entered, each representing one of the state's regions. Fritsche's speech dealt with the guaranteed annual wage.

Bill admits that he knows less than nothing about the subject, but stated that if after three years of public speaking he can't deliver a six minute speech without saying anything, something has gone wrong.

Subject Is Drawn

In extemporaneous speaking, the entrant draws three speech topics from a large number. Selecting one, the other two are discarded. The speaker then has one hour to prepare a six minute memorized speech. Before the contest, no one has any idea about what subject matter the topics will cover.

Dale Sauer New Dist. FFA Head

Dale Sauer NUHS senior was elected to the office of president, and Mr. Ed Fier was elected District adviser of the Southern Minnesota District of the Future Farmers of America at the district banquet which was held in Worthington, Tuesday, April 26.

Verne Radloff was the official delegate from the New Ulm chapter. Dave Edwards and Ronald Brey combined their ability in an instrumental duet as NUHS's participants in the talent contests.

Team Qualifies

New Ulm Future Farmers of America chapter dairy judging team qualified for entry in the state contest at a district contest in Brookings, S.D. Saturday April 23.

The five-man team placed fifth out of the 25 chapters competing, according to advisor Ed Fier, who accompanied the boys.

Members of the dairy team were Rich Runk, Arden Olson, Harlan Steuber, James Freiwirth, and Gary Schiller.

Election On May 18

Election of next year's student body president and vice-president is scheduled for May 18, after several preliminary steps in preparation for the voting.

To be a good student body president, the elected individual must have expressed interest in all extra curricular activities, have a pleasing personality, rate average or better scholastically, and have shown leadership and ability in school activities. These qualities which a student body president must have were discussed in homerooms Monday, May 2.

Students Nominated

On the following Monday, May 9, sixteen students will be nominnated by the tenth and eleventh grade homerooms. The student council will select four qualified candidates from this group. The candidates will be junior boys or girls, and the ninth, tenth, and eleventh grade students will have the privilege of voting.

Campaigns will be started the following week, climaxed by the campaign speeches May 13 and the final election on Wednesday, May 18

Committees Set For Prom

If anybody has seen a stray palm tree or camel, please send it back to the junior class decorating committee or to Richard Marks, Virginia Schlieman, James Wolf, and Carolyn Kottke, committee heads.

Table decorations, food and program committees, headed by Kathryn Dirks and Patricia Boettger; Rosalie Hippert and Carol Wilson; and Audrey Wellmann and Sylvia Garske, respectively, have all things lined up for the banquet.

Special invitations to the seniors, juniors and faculty have been written, sealed and posted by Karen Wagner and Louise Lippmann, committee personnel.

Things are usually in one grand mess after the ball, but the boys on "clean up," headed by George Petersen and Allen Gebhard, will make quick work of that as the 1955 Junior Senior Prom, "Oasis of Dreams," comes to its great finale.

The selection of the sophomore boys and girls for serving is to be made by Miss Westling.

The class advisers helping the committees are Ann Westling, Betty Hanson, Jean Treadwell, Orlene Raverty and Vern Zahn.

Rotarians Picked

John ; Purtzer and Kenneth Rock Vam have been selected Rotarians for the first half of the month of May.

John has been in gym team, track, band, class play and other speech activities; while Kenneth has participated in track, football, dramatics and chorus.

Previous Rotarians were Bob Bodine, Duane Neubauer, Warren Sonday, Dale Sauer, Bob Dempsey, Bill Fritsche, and Brace Hintz.

Selection of two Rotarians for the last half of May will be made next week.

School in Minneapolis put on a Good Grooming Assembly for the Senior Girls in the auditorium on April 12.

The girls from the Robinson Beauty School were Lulu Nichols, Delores Fritsche, Norma Jean Gehrke, and Marlene Heck.

Faculty Changes

Mr. Kermet Kleene will join the agriculture department July 1, 1955, to take over the veterans' training classes. Mr. Kleene has graduated from the University of Minnesota following five years of teaching at Granite Falls and Herman, Minnesota. He was in the U. S. Coast Guard for four years. Mr. Kleene received his bachelor's degree from the University of Minnesota in 1942.

Mr. Fier will continue present program of day classes, F.F.A., and adult evening classes.

Mr. Forsberg will continue parttime, directing offerings in co-operation farm management.

Miss Madeline Englerth will continue her educational work in California or Minnesota.

Mr. George Dahl is going to teach in the Minneapolis school system.

Class Play Opens Tonight

"Arsenic and Old Lace" the Senior Class play to be presented May 6 and 7, ought to provide a few laughs. It's setting is in Brooklyn at the Victorian home of the spinster Brewster sisters, [Helen Hoffman and Sandra Scheible], who engage in a very "different" past time.

The sisters' nephew Teddy, [Ken Rockvam], who fancies himself the 28th president of the United States, is digging the Panama Canal in the basement for Yellow fever victims. Another nephew Mortimer, [Warren Sonday], a newspaper columnist with many troubles, makes a very enlightening visit to the home of his aunties where he meets a would-be lodger, Mr. Gibbs, [Erv Boelter]. Naturally there is a girl in the plot, Elaine Harper, [Sharon Nelson], daughter of the rector of the church next

Shirleen Lindemeyer Master Bread Baker

Champion bread baker in the annual bread baking contest is Shirleen Lindmeyer, junior. Winner among the freshman and sophomores was Alice Brandel. Even though they did not place first, the boys again did well.

Winners were announced April 1 and 2, and among the first 10 places awarded in the junior-senior division, boys took exactly half, including second, third, fourth, sixth and eighth places.

Fashions Shown

As a culmination of their year's activities, the girls in the clothing classes of grades seven through twelve presented a Fashion Show to their mothers and to the women members of the faculty on April 28, at 4:15 in the cafeteria.

Miss Frisk, student teacher in the clothing department, was the commentator. Miss Westling and student teacher Louise Hausotter made the arrangements and the 10th grade home ec. classes prepared the food for the tea served after the show.

Background music was furnished by records.

door, [Sid Herrick]. Elaine is desperately in love with Mortimer, but she has a hard time in gaining his whole attention throughout the play.

Interesting Plot

The plot really begins to thicken when a third nephew, Jonathan, [Rich Harris] and his friend Dr. Einstein, [Jim Gratz], descend on the peaceful home of his aunts.

The police are always walking in on mysterious scenes and add to the comedy of the situation. Playing the "cops" are Lieutenant Rhony, [Sam Traurig]; Officer Klein, [Ken Brueske]; Officer Brophy, [Rich Heymann]; Officer O'Hara, [Elray Bentdahl].

Finally the whole plot comes to a dramatic end with theentrance of Mr. Witherspoon, [John Purtzer], the superintendent of Happy Dale Institution.

Kathy Dirks Is Officer

Kathy Dirks was elected president of Fri-le-ta at the last meeting of the year on April 27. Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer will be elected in the fall.

New Ulm High School has again been placed on the list of secondary schools approved for the ensuing year by the North Central Associations of colleges and secondary schools. This means that any graduate's credits from NUHS will be recognized at any school in the United States.

Editor's Grabbag

Not only do we have a splendid high school band but also a terrific choir. That was verified by the applause given the group Sunday, while performing under the direction of Mr. Elmer Ackermann, for their spring concert—which was a job well done!

One of the members of last year's graduating class has been seriously ill and has been in an isolation ward for observation. The nicest thing many of us will do today will be to send a card or brief note to Corrine Hessing, St. Cloud Nursing School, St. Cloud Hospital, St. Cloud, Minnesota. It only takes five minutes to write a note of cheer to a good friend who now needs lots of it.

Although some of the assemblies in the past have been of inferior quality, we were fortunate this year to observe three actors out of the University of Minnesota doing pantomine, musical comedy, Greek tragedy, and Shakespeare. The husband-wife team, Irma Mae and James Schroeder who amused us on our stage, is now with the well-known Star theater group in Minneapolis and currently starring in Odets play COUNTRY GIRL, which the movie was based on. Harsher critics than those of NUHS have given them nothing but the best reviews with strong suggestions of likely theater stardom for these actors.

The newly formed Hot Rod Club of New Ulm has been named "the Timing Association" and its officers are President, Herb Franta; vice pres., Gayle Winter, Secretary; Les Young;and Treasurer, George Peterson, I hope it will be successful as it's now official that one out of three accidents are the result of pushing that dashboard needle too

Seen on the golf links last Monday were Coon Hayes and his caddie, Dianne Blauert; Ken Brueske, Tom Traurig, Bill Fritsche, "Slip" Sonday and his favorite "ball shagger" Jan; the slamming Diedenhofens. "Butch" Rock Vam has some new "irons" ordered. Seems many of NUHS kids are now in the "Country Club set."

Breakfast for Senior skip day was probably one of the niecest things planned in a long time. Even at six in the morning most of the class was there bright-eyed and full of scrambled eggs and bacon, that were catered in.

It wasn't a poet who cried out in locker room:

"Oh, to be free from school, Now that spring is here. And swim and fish and play the fool, And, in this way end the senior year."

Dale Cordes is going to make the Air Force both a hobby and a career-a hobby by making model airplanes and the career by his plans after school, the air force. English doesn't attract him in any way, and he wishes it would "go fall in a hole."

William Marks seems to enjly life in his socalled submarine, for that's where he spends all his time fishing. "Big Bill" doesn't care for leaky boats, so he's deto stay on dry land and join the Amry. "It's been a long time a-brewing" doesn't have anything to do with him personally.

The varied life of a nurse seems to be exactly what Elaine High wants. With the hum of the sewing machine and the blare of her radio, "Lane" sits sewing to beat sixty. "O, my gosh!" and another dress is done. Her constitution says people should act accordingly!

For What It's Worth

The most important day to a girl at this time of year is none other than May 14. It's still not too late to make some girl happy and insure a good time for yourself that Saturday night. This is the time of year when Seniors try to do everything they can to have some nice memories ten years from now. At this writing only 36 fellows will be able to sit back in the future and remember their prom date, the dress she wore, her trouble with the too high heels and where to pin the corsage, the party afterwards, the banquet ... all of this will just be a void in the memories of the seventy-five boys left who as of yet, will be soloing it on the night of May 14. Remember, a prom date is not a pledge for life but a guarantee for one evening of fun.

A planned senior skip day beginning with a breakfast for all is unique with the class of 1955 and probably a good idea for other classes to follow. It was sure fun.

From the Sub-Deb department of the LADIES' HOME JOURNAL:

Saying "no" and Meaning it are two different things. Apparently there are ways and and ways of giving the familiar negative reply. Whether it's to an additional school activity, when you can't handle another; a kiss that you don't want; a date, a movie or idle chatter on the night when you should be studying for your geometry test; a friendship with someone that just isn't good for your best self; a piece of cake if you're overweight! or a class ring because everyone else has one—these things are best refused quickly and firmly, without

Eagle Baseball Team Slated Powerful in '55; Four Lettermen Return

The NUHS Eagles, for many years an area baseball power, are regarded highly again this year. They lost only two regulars from last year's region representative. However, the two boys they did lose were really outstanding players. They are catcher, John Breu, a good hitter with power and very good behind the plate and Dave Ramnes, a fastballer who racked up a no-hitter or two. Both will be sorely missed.

Their starting nine will go something like this. Sam Traurig catching; Ken Brueske, first base; Jim Wolf, second base; Warren Sonday, shortstop; Rog Wiedl or Warren Wieland, third base; Rich Brey, left field; Dallas "Ace" Herrick, center and John Klotz in right. "Jocko" Werner, a lefthander is slated to pitch as will Klotz and possibly Herrick.

Veterans Make Difference

The power of the team will rest on the shoulders of Klotz, Brey, Sonday and Brueske. The rest of the boys are pretty good hitters and fielders.

Three Sophomores Take Dip

Three sophomores, Nick Gulden, Gil Garske and Rich Kraemer went for an unexpected swim in the Cottonwood River, Saturday, April 9, below the Flandrau State Park dam when their small, flat-bottom boat was upset by the swift cur-

According to the boys, everything was going well until the water depth was too deep for their 12 foot push pole to touch bottom. Then the back current took over and pulled the boat toward the side gate in the dam where there is a treacherous current. Desperate attempts were made by Gil to push the boat away. All hands on deck grabbed cans and were ready to bail, but a terrific suction took the boat down so fast bailing didn't help.

Nick and Gil, weighted down by heavy clothing, jumped toward the nearest pier and made it there after a short but difficult swim.

Rich was on the end of the boat nearest the current; as a result, he was caught in the worst part. He was pulled underwater for 50 feet and then smashed against rocks on the bottom of the river.

After battling with the current, Rich came into shallow water and waded out down stream from where he started a half block. Engineer boots and heavy clothing made it tough for him to swim.

Nick and Gil didn't have enough strength left to climb up the pier so Rich came to the rescue with a bamboo fishing pole. Gil and Nick then inched their way to the top of the dam.

Shivering from the cold swim, the three boys went in the woods and started a fire to dry their clothes.

While the boys were drying their clothes a fourth part-owner of the boat, Don Mathiowetz, arrived for a boat ride. After hearing the near-tragic story, he rushed to the river to see what condition the boat was in; he found nothing but pieces of wood floating in the river. Besides losing the boat, Gil had lost one shoe and his dad's $25 rod and reel; Nick, a $10 rod and reel; and Rick, a jacket and push pole. They now lie in 20 feet of water.
