Local Combo To Highlight Spring Dance

Highlighting the senior high Spring Dance on Friday, May 13 at 7:30 p.m. will be two live bands, the Roustabouts and the Bridgestone Five. The dance will be held in the promdecorated gym with no admission charge.

The Bridgestone Five have appeared in different places in the area, including the State Fair.

A junior high dance is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, May 14; also in the big gym. Two bands, the Roustabouts and the Generations, will perform with no admission charge.

for the $200 State Bond and Mortgage Scholorship

To choose the recipient, Mr. Fjelstad has appointed a committee. This year it consists of one administrator, Mr. Olson; one counselor, Miss Schmid; and four teachers, Mr. Harman, Mr. Madson, Miss Mueller and Miss Kayser, who will act as chairman of the committee.

They choose the recipient by three main qualities - he shall be in the upper half of his class in scholarship; during his high school career he shall have proved himself worthy and deserving of the scholarship; and he shall attend a recognized college, university or trade school as determined by the guidance department of NUHS.

Application blanks may be obtained from Miss Kayser in room 204 and must be returned by May 20.

The scholarship will be announced and presented Senior Award Night, May 27. In previous years the scholarship has been granted to Jeanette Lang, 1964 and Bruce Burdorf, 1965.

Of Graduation Address

"New Directions in Higher Education" is the title of the address to be given by Mr. Harvey H. Rice, president of Macalester College, at the eighty-first annual commencement exercises June 2, at Johnson Park at 8:00 p.m.

The band will play "Pomp and Circumstance" as the processional and "War March of the Priests" as the recessional. The choir will sing the traditional "Glory" and several other selections for the last class to graduate from the old high school. Mr. M. Lynott, principal, will present for the twenty-third and last time the graduation seniors to the Board of Education. Mr. Lynott is retiring at the end of this school year.

Mr. Harvey H. Rice, commencement speaker, was born in West Virginia. He received his A.B. from Concord College, 1929; M.A. from West Virginia University, 1933; PhD from Ohio State University, 1938; and L.L.D. from Concord College, 1961.

He has been a high school teacher, principal, and college instructor, and the president of two New York State University Colleges of Education, before becoming president of Macalaster College in 1958. He also served in the Navy during World War II.

Juniors Campaign For Student Elections

"May the best man win," "Vote for the candidate of your choice." These slogans and many others will soon be heard echoing through the halls of NUHS during the week before the student body elections, scheduled for May 18. The Student Council will then screen the list of candidates.

The nominations for next year's Student Body President will be May 5 in home rooms. To be nominated the student have these qualifimust cations:

1. both junior boys and girls are eligible

2. should have average scholarship or better

3. should show evidences of ability to lead student de-4. should be popular; an effective speaker; have a pleasing personality; and be of good character

5. should have shown an interest in all school activities and have been a participant in some.

The assembly for the candidates and their managers will be held on Monday, May 16 or Tuesday, May 17. At this time each manager will speak on the good qualities of his candidate and will urge the students to vote for him. The candidate will also speak.

Only the ninth, tenth and eleventh graders will vote. Voting booths will be set up in the foyer of the auditorium and the polls will be open before school and during the noon

Seniors to be Awarded For Past Achievements

Highlighting the achievements of seniors the past three years, the Annual Senior Awards Night program will be presented May 27 at 8:00 p.m., in the high school auditorium. Parents and students are urged to attend.

Letters, chevrons, monograms and pins will be awarded to the seniors under the NUHS point system as symbols of achievement.

The special awards include the Dirks Memorial and the Tante Meyer awards, all-activity, Josten, American Legion, Bausch-Lomb Science, Eckstein Music, Gieb-Janni Shop. L.B. Krook Commercial trophies and initiation into the National Honor Society. New this year will be the Harman Award.

Awards Explained

The Dorks Medal is awarded to a senior boy and the Tante Meyer, to a senior girl who has shown high character, done average or better school work, and taken advantage of the opportunities offered during high

The Josten award goes to one senior boy and one senior girl having earned the greatest num ber of honor points during their attendance in Senior High

The American Legion Award is awarded to one senior boy and one senior girl selected by the faculty on the basis of 40% citizenship, 40% extra-curricular and 20% scholarship.

The seniors in the upper third of the class in shcolarship are eligible for the National Honor Society, but not more than 15% of the class may be selected. Service, leadership, character and scholarship are the four qualifications on which membership is based. Also only those seniors who have attended NUHS for at least two years are eligible for membership

The faculty rates each individual and then the committee makes the final selection from the basis of these ratings.

The Harman Award is to be given to a senior boy who has participated in one of the school's extra-curricular vocal groups, played varsity football and either basketball, baseball or track; he also must have the highest scholastic rank of the boys meeting the first re-

Art Classes Slate Exhibits

The art classes, taught by Mr. Marti, have planned an art exhibit for the public from 7:00-9:00 P.M., in the art room and adjoining rooms.

The 7th graders will be giving puppet plays that evening. One of the performers that will be seen is "Bear, Bomb, and Billboard,"

The senior art class, which is working on "free planning", will be showing sculptures and pottery. The sculpture consists of heads and figures.

Sandi Gillick, Senior Attends Conference

Sandra Gillick, senior, was chosen to attend the First National Bank of Minneapolis Economic Conference for Young Adults, from April 21 to 23.

The Citizens State Bank of New Ulm has sent a representative to this meeting for the last five years.

New Editors Take Reins Of Graphos

Linda Newton, Mary Jane Meine, and Roberta Opel have been named assistant editors of the Graphos for 1966-67, working with Jane Halvorson, next year's editor-in-chief. Their first "production" of the Graphos will be issued June

JoAnne Altmann, Judy Baumann, Jim Davison, Sharon Dickey, Susan Feuerhelm, Diane Jorgenson, Nancy Martius, Barb Roiger and Margaret Woratschka, all members of this year's journalism class, will also be working on the staff. Bob Page will be the new sports

Nancy Martius, as she has done this year, will continue to be the just-o-writer, setting up all the galleys at the Daily Journal office, where she works part-time.

Prom Theme Goes Parisian

A grand march from Turner Hall to the High School? You must be kidding! I'm not though; this is one of the new additions to this year's Junior-Senior Prom.

"Springtime in Paris" is the theme for the Prom which will be held on May 7. The festivities will begin with the Banquet at Turner Hall at 6:00 p.m. After the meal, the guests will be led in a grand march to the high school by the class presidents, Don Nelson and Pat Stewart and their dates. The dance, with Guy DeLeo providing the music, will then get into full swing and will end at 1:00 a.m., Sunday morning.

The Graphos editors wish to thank three senior girls for their contributions to the paper all year long. Jeri Ahrens and Connie Johns performed the thankless task of business manager and were in charge of all advertising. Knopke proved a camera whiz in her first year behind the lenses. These girls did their behind-the-scenes chores efficiently and unfailingly. . . THANK YOU!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Editorial

Just a note to EVERYONE to re-read the story on Award Night - and then make plans to attend! It's kind of a big night for any senior who's even tried to improve his school. Many assorted honors are meted out - from typing pins to scholarships. Also there is the initiation ceremony for the newly selected members of the Honor Society. Actually it all makes for a very interesting night. We have been there reporting and you would be surprisedthe strangest people win the strangest things! Why don't you come and see?

Heap of the Month

BY JOHN GAREIS

Who's this - Jim Clark making a pit stop at LeMans? The Red Baron preparing to have another "dog-fight" (no pun intended) with Snoopy? No - it's "Red" Stolt enjoying the view of the engine (?) in his Studebaker Lark.

Red's Lark is one of those cars that have been through the course and are starting all over again. How Red keeps it running is still a mystery to me but, somehow he gets it going in the morning and the Lark just keeps on going 'till Red's safe (?) at school.

Question? How does Studebaker pack all that wild power into such a tiny engine?

Well - one month more to get your favorite car in as Heap of the Month so let's see some real voting this

Eagles Sweep Mechanic Arts

A last inning double play started by second baseman Mark Dyre choked off a last ditch Mechanic Arts rally and gave New Ulm a 4-3 victory in the first game of a doubleheader April 30 at Johnson Park.

The tying run was tagged out at the plate after Dyre made the second out and threw to first sacker Mike Leach, who cut down the runner with his peg to catcher Doug Hitzemann.

Doug Spelbrink pitched the route and picked up the win. He received scoring support in the second inning when the Eagles notched all four runs. Although Dyre banged the Eagles' only hit that frame, two errors cleared the way for the winning margin.

NU Keglers Finish Ninth In Tourney

The NUHS boy's bowling team rolled its way to a 9th place finish in the Bowling Propriater's Association State Tournament after winning the Southwest District Tournament at Atwater.

In the Atwater tournament March 18 the team of Craig Shavlik, Bill Koeckeritz, Gary Gluth, Mike Rolloff and Steve Fluegge rolled a total series of 2275 to beat second place Atwater by about 50 pins.

Individual three game scores were: Steve Fluegge 492, second high in the tournament; Craig Shavlik 464; Bill Koeckeritz 450; Gary Gluth 451 and Mike Rolloff 418.

A second team of Bruce Lambrecht, Duane Tessmer, Ron Alm, Jim Bastian and Gary

Penkert also competed, but did not place.

In the six-game State Tournament held at White Bear Lake on April 2, New Ulm's team finished 9th, and received a a trophy for winning the District tournament. Mike Rolloff was high man for NUHS with a six game series of 1038. Gary Gluth rolled a 1008; Steve Fluegge 947; Craig Shavlik 826 and Bill Koeckeritz 784. The team series was 4603 for an average of 153 per man.

The State Tournament was won by Austin. Approximately 520 high schools received invitations to compete in district tournaments, including the state's private, parochial and public schools.

George, planning a future in physical education or advertising, interviewed the basketballbaseball coach at Hamline University and the public relations man for the American National

The three-day visit also included a visit to the Webb Publishing Company as well as numerous banquets.

George termed the trip "informative, interesting and fun."

New Editors Plan Larger, Later Eagle

The staff for the 1966-67 Eagle has been chosen: editor for the student division is Carol Hogfoss; activity division, Kathy Fritsche; faculty, Jim Eyrich; and sports Judi Walston.

Other positions will be held by Doris Christianson, sales manager; Katie Engel, publicity; Barb Mogen and Sharon Dickey, Copy editors; and Bonnie Wolf and Sheila Fischer, typing editors.

The 1967 Eagle will have many changes both large and samll, Mrs. Green revealed. The first large change will be that the book will not be delivered in the spring as books have in the past, and as the 1966 year book will be.

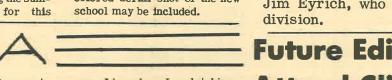

"We are changing over to a late summer delivery. The books will be distributed on a special evening during the summer. The reason for this change," said Mrs. Green, "is that with spring delivery, our deadlines set by the American Yearbook Company close after the first of the year. Therefore, we have been unable to include spring sports, prom, and graduation. With late summer delivery we can give proper coverage to these high points of spring."

The second change is that the deadline for having senior pictures taken will be October 1. It is suggested that present juniors have their pictures taken over the summer, to avoid last minute rush.

Another change is that the yearbook will include senior high only, with the junior high having a memory book.

The book will expand to 104 pages but the price will remain at $4.00. It is hoped that a colored aerial shot of the new Captains this year are seniors, Chris Gieseke, Betty Christiansen and Gayla Lueck; juniors, Brenda Steinberg, Sue Feuerhelm, and Linda Giesesophomores, Pauline ke: Burk, Sheila Lingenhog and Bonnie Nelson. Three preliminary games were played by each team and more were played by the tournament winners.

Eight tournament games were played all together. Pairing off in the first rounds on April 18 were Christinsen

Future Editors J-C's Sponsor Attend Clinic

To give criticisms and suggestions for improvement was the purpose of the little ten year book and new spaper clinic at Glencoe on April 25, which the 1966-67 staffs of the Eagle and the Graphos attended.

Those for the Eagle were Judi Walston, Kathy Fritsche, Carol Hogfoss, Jim Eyrich, and the advisor, Mrs. Green. Attending for the Graphos were Jane Halverson, Roberta Opel, Mary Jane Meine, Linda Newton, and the advisor, Miss Kayser.

The publications advisors of the Alexander Ramsey High School were the critics.

The New Ulm FFA chapter held its annual crop judging contest on March 12, at Jackson. The team placed second out of 16 in the district and third in the region. The team members are Paul Brandel, who placed sixth; Eugene Wellmann, ninth and Jeff Griebel, tenth. The top six teams in the region will go to the State Contest May 2 and 3.

The soil judging team, which held its contest on April 14, also placed second in the District and third in the Region. In this contest the top 10 teams in the region will go to the State Contest. The team members are Gary Moll, fourth; Roy Janni, seventh and Lloyd Hoffman, ninth. The contest was held at the Southwest Experiment Station near Lamberton. On April 23 the dairy judging team went to Brookings, South Dakota, to reclaim the regional championship for the fourth consecutive year, but were unsuccessful and placed eleventh in the region. The top boys from New Ulm were Gary Gluth and David Rolloff.

During the State Convention three New Ulm boys will receive the State Farmer degree which is won by only 2% of the Ag students in Minnesota. The winners were Gary Gluth, John Fluegge and David Roll-

Swing Band Swings With Spring Plans

The "Twilighters" are beginning a schedule of dances for the month of May. On May 14 is the big event for the NUHS swing band, the Gibbon Prom. They will feature a selection of songs such as "Everyman," "Pepperment Twist," and "Sentimental Journey." There are three vocalists - Janice Femrite, Betty Christenson, and Cathy Anderson. Tentative plans include the Walnut Grove Prom and a teen-age dance.

The band is also planning an assembly for the student body

Plans have been made for a catered picnic about the middle of May. The exact date has not been set.

Vocal Concert Ushers in May

Even though Maypoles and May baskets usually usher in the first of May, the vocal department lent a hand this year by presenting their Spring Concert last Sunday.

Variation in apparel of the students aided in creating gay, springtime mood of the Select Choir, Boys' Chorus, Bel Canto, Choral Club, Freshmen Chorus, and Chansonettes.

In keeping with tradition, the performance was in strict concert style with only a few background decorations which the Better Half, Stage Crew and Mr. Jensen devised.

NUHS Approved

For the fifty-third consecutive year since 1908, NUHS has been placed on the approved list of the North Central Assoclation of College and Secondary Schools.
