

Heroes, Villians, Humor, Highlight Play

A little romance . . . a little villainy . . . and a lot of humor are making up the spring play, "Love Rides the Rails - or - Will the Mail Train Run Tonight?" to be given April 21 and 22 in the Junior High Auditorium.

'On Scene' Tries Again

"Here we go again!"

"Where?"

"To 'On Scene,' of course,"

"Why?"

"To be T.V. stars!"

"We were snowed out once but have been rescheduled for April 27."

We wish them "happy dancing" and expect their autographs free when they return in all their glory and sore feet.

Work Continues On Recital

Indian Pageant dancers - 50 senior girls - are busily working on dance routines, costumes, make-up, properties, and construction for their recital, scheduled for April 30, at 8 p.m. in the Junior High auditorium.

The eleven scenes which will be enacted are: Indian Life, Pioneers, Treaty of Traverse des Sioux, Indian Agents, The Traders, Soldiers, Payment at the Annuity Table, Formation of Soldiers Waiting for the Annuity of 1862, Killing at Acton, Council of Braves, and The Attack.

Prom Work Begins

The "67" Prom will be held Friday, May 5, with the theme a secret.

The banquet at the Tropicana will have two shifts; one at 6:00, and one at 7:30, with transportation provided. Plans are under way for entertainment in the time between the first dinner hour and the dance.

The Underbeats will play for the dance in the gymnasium from 9:00 to 1:00.

Decoration committees were organized at an April 4 meeting. They will start working at the homes of various members, because space is not available in school at this time.

INSTRUMENTAL WINNERS

Juniors To Attend Workshop

JoAnn Christensen, Kurt Kohn, Jayne Rosener, and Becky Schreyer will attend the NUHS Student Council workshop at St. Peter, April 22.

Such topics as teenage drinking and smoking, school dress codes, and student council responsibilities will be discussed by the group.

Mr. Wurm will accompany the members.

Ted Marti Boys' Stater

Ted Marti was chosen by the faculty to attend the annual Boys State at St. Paul in June. The Ben J. Siefert Post #132 of the American Legion is the local sponsor.

The following criteria are used as a guide to determine who will attend: He must be in the upper one third of his class and demonstrate his leadership ability in extra-curricular activities. He should be of good moral character, should have qualities of courage, honesty and cooperativeness, and should have an interest in political science and government. Participation in extra-curricular activities such as music, art and dramatics are assets to be considered.

Band, Choir

Present Concert

Another first for the Senior High was the joint all-senior high, combined vocal and instrumental concert, held Sunday, April 9, at 8:00, in the gymnasium.

The 100-voice choir and 50-piece band were under the direction of Mrs. Patton and Mr. Strang, respectively.

This year the concert was made up of various styles of music. Next year the plans are for an all-popular music concert.

Forensics Guild

Sponsors Banquet

The National Forensics Guild composed of members in the area of speech, drama, and debate, with guest speaker, Mr. George Rice, will have their banquet at the Kaiserhoff on April 25, at 6:30 p.m.

Jim Aufderheide, president of the guild, will be the toastmaster at the dinner. Awards of merit will be presented by Mr. Oien.

One hundred people will attend the affair, including parents of those in the three areas mentioned above and other interested people to whom reserve tickets were sold for the dinner.

Stewart Selected Rotarian

Pat Stewart has been chosen by faculty vote to attend the Junior Rotarian Conference in St. Paul April 23-25.

Pat will leave Sunday and stay at the home of a St. Paul businessman who is a Rotary member. During this stay he will visit the capitol, tour factories, and have an interview with an expert in Math who works for a commuter company.

English Students To Attend Guthrie

On May 10 the three sections of College Prep English 12 are going by bus to the Tyrone Guthrie in Minneapolis to attend the 1:30 performance of Shoe makers' Holiday.

The group will leave here in the late morning and will return right after the performance.

Miss Kayser and Mr. Jenson will accompany the group

NU Speakers Advance to Region

With 124 students from sixteen area schools participating, the District 10 speech tournament was held on Saturday, April 8, at NUHS.

Highlighting the tournament for NUHS were these seven students - Barb Kleene, Bruce Fenske, Jim Aufderheide, Roger Hippert, Andy Schmid, Vicki Pugmire, and Greg Schwab - who won in their respective divisions and will advance to the Regional speech tournament being held April 13 at Springfield.

Sub-District

Held a week earlier on April 1, at Winthrop, was the sub-district speech tournament.

Winning for NUHS in the sub-district events were: Andy Schmid, Vicki Pugmire, Barb Burnett, Greg Schwab, and Steve Somsen.

Because all events in the declam do not have a sub-district contest, some of the winners from the local contest did not participate.

Editor's Specs

EDITOR'S NOTE:

We the members of the 1966-67 Graphos staff would like to take this opportunity to thank this year's journalism class and all the other willing reporters for the help they have given us this year in reporting the news around NUHS. Without their help the Graphos would not be possible.

As part of their journalistic work, one member of the class wrote the following editorial and we feel they express some long lost gratitude.

In Appreciation

Have you realized what it's like making popcorn when about fifty people have been standing in line for fifteen minutes? Have you ever run out of nickels selling candy when everyone keeps giving you quarters? Have you ever tried working a pop machine when it's still warm? If you haven't, then probably you're not a Student Council member.

These milk dud pushers have done an exceptional job representing NUHS at all our home events. Through all the difficult moments, they have come out smiling, eating candy bars, and playing records.

Our ambassadors of good will need an extra round of applause. Thanks, Student council, for being so great.
— Becky Schreyer

'Early Bird'

Losing tennis balls under the bleachers and in the ceiling up among the lights, seems to be the special talent of several Early Birds. After a couple weeks of hopeless tennis playing, Mr. Anderson decided to let the students play both golf and tennis. (Besides, the supply of tennis balls is slowly shrinking. Now it seems twice as hopeless. Actually, things aren't that bad; but then, the duffers haven't started using real golf balls yet!

Question ?

"What would you do with a co-polmer?"

These are some of the answers. Mr. Epp - Clean it up and throw it away.

Mr. Deming - Kick it.

Mr. Werner - Take it down to the Chemistry lab. right away.

Scott Fodness - Help it find a female co-polmer.

Barb Roiger - Use it to get a boy.

Judy Baumann - Send it to Mankato.

Greg Benson - Kiss it.

Greg Burdick - Drink it.

Paul Brandel - Hustle it.

Paulette Konakowitz - Kill it before it spreads.

Linda Komro - Put it in a cage.

Lindie and Joei - Give it to Mr. Senske's baseball team.

Thanks to Adolf Schmidt for providing the word, co-polmer.

BOOK OF GREAT JUNGLES - Ivan Sanderson

The real jungles, according to Ivan Sanderson, cover only 1/7 of the earth's surface. THE BOOK OF GREAT JUNGLES, illustrated with over 140 photographs, maps, and drawings, takes you on an exciting journey through these jungles. Besides an interesting narration about giant plants, mighty rivers, and huge waterfalls, Sanderson relates fascinating stories about witch-men, tribal customs, and old jungle legends.

After living forty years in jungles, Ivan Sanderson has written his BOOK OF GREAT JUNGLES to prove that jungles are not terrible and uninhabitable.

Fashions '67

Fanny Fashion says the little-girl look is in for spring.

Short little tent dresses will swing into spring in an assortment of bright colors and splash prints. Smart baby dolls and tiny low-waisted dresses will also make the scene for spring.

Shorts, jump suits and jackets in wild prints and stripes dominate the '67 sports wear.

Poetry Corner

Jim Aufderheide

"WHO'S THAT?"

Who's that over there?
Leadin' that pack of howling boys,
Playing with those wondrous toys,
Pulling dog's tails to see what'd happen,
Or running with his coat a-flapping'.
Just havin' fun!

Who's that over there?
The one in the corner all alone,
'Stead of playing-going home,
Avoiding others fearfully;
The ones that seem, mockingly,
To look at him.

Who's that over there?
The boy that's cracking all the jokes,
Or arguing with all the folks
Over petty things like money or cars,
Doing little things that'll possibly mar
His good name.

Who's that over there?
Defending the freedom he loves so dear,
Defending by fighting without much fear,
Reprimanding those who take no heed
Of things which could eventually lead
To their downfall.

Who's that over there?
The foolish-acting little boy,
The adolescent so very shy,
The teenager that loves a fight,
The young adult upholding right;
His parents know!

Ready for the Indianapolis '500, Diane Jorgenson's '52 grey Chevy makes its trial runs up and down Broadway with her regular "crew" of friends.

Diane's car has the distinctive characteristic of possessing a red racing stripe over the hood and trunk. Nicknamed "Tiger," the heap certainly must have a Tiger in its tank. Look for Diane's car at the local auto shows.

SCHOOL SHORTS

BRIEF CASES—OBSTACLES?

One morning just a few minutes before class, Craig Steenberg was standing around Nancy Lewis' locker. (This was not unusual, but the event that followed was rather unusual.) Craig has set his large, tan briefcase down to take the load off his arm; Nancy was just putting her books on her arm so the two could be "off to English class." Upon her first step, she, her books and all, sprawled on the floor. Craig, gave his arm to help her up on her feet once again. Embarrassment was written all over their faces; and Nancy, who was still in shock over what had just taken place, cried, "Craig, I fell and tripped all because of your big, clumsy briefcase. I'll never speak to you again."

The onlookers were still laughing, but poor Craig and Nancy were still full of embarrassment.

The pins, at the Bowlomat were surprised the other day when they were knocked down 198 times by Bruce Lambrecht.

ENGLISH CHOIR

Fifth hour English C. Prep class one day was privileged to spend their time singing some of Robert Burns' songs. Under the direction of the renowned vocalist, Miss Kayser, the "English choir" poured forth its well-blended and lovely voices (?). Two of the songs sung were "Sweet Afton" and "Auld Lang Syne." After the finale, one male voice spoke out in happiness, saying, "Now my day is complete!"

TIME BOMB?

After the incident about the bomb in the school, Steve Somsen came up with another of his fantastic ideas. The following day he came rushing into Miss Kayser's room carrying a bag (supposedly having a bomb in it.) Steve, thinking he was pretty smart, told Miss Kayser that he'd found this bag "ticking" behind some door and was afraid it might go off any minute. Then he proceeded to ask her what she thought it was.

Her reply was, "It seems to me that it's an old alarm clock." Steve, downcast by her answer, said, "Oh, you!"

Thursday, March 16, the Spring Music Concert will be broadcasted over KNUJ FM. Anyone interested can tune to 98.1 on their radio dial.

Mr. Wurm remarked that President Johnson is forming a new women's division of the army. It will be called "Johnson's Wax."

Mr. Oien and Miss Kayser seem to have a common difficulty. "Spoonerism" is speaking before you think!

As we were walking in the hall, a voice from room 104, said, "Will we make money or will we lose money? Well, what did you do?"

When the grade school students from Jefferson invaded our school, Mrs. Ackerson declared this is a "population explosion."

EAGLES TIE

NUHS Eagles and Fairfax Eagles ended a terrific game of 3 to 3 after eight innings of play at New Ulm's second home game. Due to poor lighting facilities, the teams were forced to end the game in a tie.

NUHS was ahead, 3 to 0, until the sixth inning when a Fairfax man hit a long to left field which brought in two runs. The score was tied when a few minutes later another man came home.

Pat Stewart pitched for the first three innings and then was relieved by Frank Whitcomb. Whitcomb pitched until the sixth inning when he was replaced by Craig Shavlik, who pitched the rest of the game. The combination of these pitchers averaged two strikeouts per inning.

Mark Dyre, Pat Stewart, and Rex Stromquist brought in the three runs for New Ulm.

LEACH NAMED TOP ATHLETE

Mike Leach

Mike Leach was named Senior Athlete from NUHS at the annual city athletic appreciation night banquet Saturday, April 1, 1967, at Turner Hall. Leach was a regular in football, basketball, and baseball for the past two seasons.

In football, he was one of the leading ball carriers as a halfback. In basketball, Leach was the second leading scorer, and in baseball he played first base.

Guest speaker at the banquet was Joe Hutton, former Hamline University coaching great who is now employed by General Mills as a public relations man.

Bruce Heckmann from Luther High School was named the outstanding athlete from the city of New Ulm.

Do you like baseball? If you do, you're a baseball fan. But years ago, those who followed the demons of the diamond were called "fanatics." In recent years, the term has been reduced to fan. Now you can be any kind of sports fanatic - that is - fan.

The Eagles got a second place in the medley relay team and a fourth in the mile relay.

HANSEN WINS WIELAND TROPHY

The Wieland Memorial Trophy, a new athletic award, has been given to NUHS by the family of the late Darwin Wieland, a 1958 graduate of NUHS, to recognize each year an outstanding basketball player. Any boy who has participated in 12 games is eligible.

The winning player is selected by the squad members only. To help them make their decision, the following criteria have been set up: rebounding and scoring assets and leadership.

The trophy can be received only once by any player.

The trophy itself remains in the school, with the winner's name engraved on it.

Mr. Oien presents Debate awards to Roger Hippert and Scott Fodness.

EAGLES SCALP INDIANS

NUHS started off the '67 baseball season against Sleepy Eye, Friday, April 7, here at Johnson Park.

With Roger Zahn gone, the pitching will be taken over by either Craig Shavlik, Doug Spelbrink or Pat Stewart.

The entire infield from the Region Championship team is back to provide solid defense.

Team members are: Seniors - John Sands, Rex Stromquist, Doug Schultz, Doug Hitzeman, Pat Stewart, Dan Odegard, Mike Leach, and Gerry Hesse. Juniors - Ward Stromquist, Bob Ryan, Bruce Lambrecht,

Registration Begins For 1967-68 Classes

Registration for next year's classes began Monday, April 10, in homerooms.

New booklets for each individual student were handed out by the homeroom teachers.

The booklet has been completely revised this year. Several sections were shortened and some were added on. Miss Schmid was responsible for preparing the booklet after the teachers had rewritten some of the information.

Pages 8 through 30 are made up of course description for senior high.

Extra-curricular activities are also explained.

Several sections are made up of different colored paper for ease of selection, and contain a program of studies, suggested programs, and planning sheets.

Carol Hogfoss, senior, designed the cover of the booklet.

A new feature in registration this year is that each student will see the guidance counselor individually before final course decisions are made. At this time the booklet must be returned to the counselor.

Students Feated at Banquet

Eleven students who have worked in Audio Visual department this year will be guests at the Audio-Visual Banquet, on April 12, at the Tropicana.

These volunteers are Mark Schmidt, Helen Alfred, Bob Page, Judy Baumann, Thomas

Goltz, Barb Adams, Doug Schultze, Vickie Nelson, Jerry Geisler, Sheila Fisher, and Doug Greiser.

These students helped by booking and delivering films, running errands and moving equipment to the rooms as needed.

The banquet is in appreciation for their help.

Mr. and Mrs. Blackstad are accompanying the group.

G.A.A.

GAA girls are trying their luck at knocking down pins at Nicklasson's Bowlomat after school, Mondays through Fridays.

There are 15 teams, with five girls on each team.

The girls will hold a tournament in the latter part of May; at that time Nicklasson's will present a trophy to each girl on the highest scoring team.

Those girls who have been chosen as captains by their teams are: Bev Botten, Jo Ann Altmann, Sue Rodenburg, Bonnie Wolf, Linda Gieseke, Corrine Webster, Jo Ann Christenson, Sue Groebner and Marlys Zupfer.

Final Assemblies Conclude Year

Two assemblies are scheduled for the rest of the year, one on April 26 and the other, May 8.

'Computers, An Adventure in Time Saving', will be presented April 26. Doug Kenney, and expert on computers will lecture and demonstrate the wonders of our computer age.

'A Man Without A Country,' a lecture on Americanism, will be presented May 8. Loyalty to our causes and our country will be discussed.

F.F.A. NEWS

The New Ulm FFA crop judging team went to Jackson March 22 and came home with the reserve champion team. There were 15 teams present. The top team was Jackson. The District and Regional contests were at the same time. New Ulm had its three members place in the Top 10. They were Paul Brandel, sixth; Leo Guggisberg, eighth; and Eugene Wellmann, ninth.

Mr. Fier said that this was one of the best team efforts in the past years. Now the team will go to the State Contest May 8 and 9, during the State Convention.

Band Acquires Student Teacher

Attending Mankato State College and student teaching in instrumental music under Mr. Strang's direction is Craig Johnson from Mountain Lake, who will be in NUHS for the last nine weeks of school.

Mr. Johnson became interested in music when in high school, where he was in band. Now, as a student in college, he is a member of a fraternity - Phi Mu Alpha. He belongs to the college choir; and he plays in the marching band, concert band, and the orchestra of Mankato State.

His speciality is the percussion instruments, where he is presently the section leader of the tympani. He also plays the snare drum and has had some experience playing the trumpet, trombone, and clarinet.

At present, Mr. Johnson will observe the band, and later will direct.

Cheering Tryouts In Planning

A meeting was held for all girls interested in trying out for cheerleading, April 5, in the Lecture Theater, with Miss Mueller.

This year the candidates must be able to do five different jumps, round-off, cartwheel, flip, and the splits. They also must have had previous experience, either as one who tried-out last year or as a cheerleader in some other school.

Those who attended the meeting were Becky Peterson, Joyce Kraus, Debbie Steenberg, Linda Odegard, Andy Schmid, Jackie Berg, Rhonda Boesch, Debbie Dewanz, Jan Lowinske, Cheri Martens, and Peggy Zobel.

If anyone else is interested, contact Miss Mueller or Vickie Pugmire. No dates have been set yet for practices of the day of try-outs.

WANTED: Good Drivers

Are you a good driver? Anyone who owns a driver's license and is not over 19 years of age can enter the annual Jaycee Auto Road-e-o sponsored by the Lincoln - Mercury division. This includes girls, too, since there is a separate division for them in the contest.

This is an opportunity for youths to demonstrate their all-around driving ability and knowledge, competing with other students. With the contestants using a brand new Mercury, their ability to handle a car in traffic, to maneuver and to park will be judged; a written quiz on driving knowledge is also to be given to participants.

The winner of the local finals will go to the state contest, and from the state to the national contest. Gifts and prizes will be given both to the winners of the state contest and the national contest, also.

The time and place for the local contest has not been scheduled yet.

'Love Rides the Rails,' the Spring play, has provided numerous opportunities for candid pictures; here are just a few. Helen Rodenberg, upper left, choreographer, points out to Kathy Fritsche that she "just isn't in line with the other chorus girls!" At the upper right, Carol Hogfoss "relaxes" on the knee of Bruce Mogen. They make a "villainish" pair. In the lower right, Doug Backer and Steve Akre, members of the industrious State Crew, apply finishing touches. The last picture is so unbelievable that you will have to come to the play to understand it.
