The Thanksgiving turkey says that a freeze is on the way. Be sure that your car heater works and that you've got enough anti-freeze. The hint for this month is - be conservative.

Rehearsing for the fall play, "Everybody Loves Opal", are Sue Rodenberg, Bob Rolloff, and Ron Eyrich.

Juniors Sponsor Broadway Comedy

"This is a marvelous play that is going to be a lot of fun, and I hope we can have a large audience to enjoy it," remarked Mr. Jensen.

The presentation of "Everybody Loves Opal" is now only three weeks away. Full scale rehearsals are being directed by the two student directors, Bonnie Borchert and John Sievert, and the main director, Mr. Jensen.

This Broadway comedy is a "prank" in three acts to be given on Nov. 17 and 18, two evening performances.

Mr. Zahn Attends Academy

Mr. Zahn was one of a group of 38 principals, teachers, counsellors, coaches, and athletic directors to visit the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland, Monday Oct. 30 to Wednesday Nov. 1.

They flew from the Naval Air Base, Minneapolis.

The purpose of their trip was to familiarize them with the Naval Academy and requirements for the type of student wanted in the Academy.

Mr. Zahn noted that among many rules, all of the students are required to attend the church of their choice every Sunday during their 4 years there.

If any junior or senior boys are interested, contact the Guidance Department or Mr. Zahn.

Costumes for the show are the responsibility of Corrine Webster and Sandy Wieland. Set design and construction are under the direction of Curt Page and Roger Hippert. Trudi Wright and Carol Eyrich are in charge of properties.

The play is sponsored by the Junior Class.

NUHS Has Open House

Open house in observation of American Education Week, November 5-11, was held in all New Ulm public schools Tuesday, November 7, from 7:00-9:30.

Each teacher was stationed in his respective classroom or shop. Demonstrations were given by students in the shop and business rooms. The Speech Class conducted tours on the hour and half-hour. They were aided by the Student Council who were stationed at entrances prepared to direct and assist people.

Coffee and cookies were served in the cafeteria.

Miss Van Offeren, chairman of American Education Week, was in charge of making arrangements for the elementary schools; Mr. Strang, for Senior high; and Mr. Osland, for Junior high.

"How good are your schools" was this year's theme for the week's activities. There were millions of parents across the country going to visit their schools.

NUHS Choir To Present Program

"Song of Christmas," an arrangement by Fred Waring, has been selected for the annual Christmas program, Dec. 17, in the Junior High Auditorium.

Narrators will be selected principally from the choir, while the solo parts will be assigned after auditions.

Chances are that this will be the first performance on the newly appointed stage, with its new cyclorama, new drapes and additional lighting.

Mrs. Frank Patton and Mr. Robert Jensen are in charge of the program.

Three Join NUHS Staff

NUHS has three student teachers working in the fields of business, music, and math.

Mr. Jerome Erickson, a graduate of New Ulm High School, and now a student at Mankato State College, is teaching accounting, shorthand, and typing. His hobbies are bowling and golfing.

Working in the music department is Mr. Ed Wenner, a student at Mankato State College. He teaches eighth grade general music course, ninth grade choir, and girl's voice lessons. He enjoys golf and tennis.

Mr. Arlo Kilmer, a student of Mankato State College, teaches math. His hobbies are all sports.

Editorial

Why Can't We

Why doesn't NUHS have a foreign exchange student?

Smaller towns like Fairfax and Sleepy Eye have students from foreign countries. Certainly then, NUHS should too. If we can promote international relations by having students from Brazil and Venezuela spend a day with us, then we should also be able to have a foreign student living and learning with us for a whole school year.

In today's world, international relations must start with an exchanging of ideas and learning. Education is the key work all over the world, not just in the United States.

Perhaps a start would be to investigate the American Field Service program.

How about a foreign exchange student for our school?

Are we Ready

Is NUHS ready for a course in humanities? Perhaps not every student is, but many seniors are. A class that studied and discussed man; his value, his goals, and his limitations through the study of literature, philosophy, and history could be both interesting and challenging, as well as an aid to the student in understanding himself.

This course is successful at Redwood Falls and Mankato High Schools; it could be successful in New Ulm. How about it, teachers?

Congratulations

New Ulm High School's cross country team is to be commended for their fine showing in this, their first season. They faced much stiff competition all season long, but still made a good showing at every meet. Many coaches marveled at the great balance shown by the NUHS team, that balance being a strong point all season long.

The man mostly responsible for the success of the harriers was Coach Dick Peterson, who took on the added task of coaching the cross-country runners. Coach Peterson did a fine job in leading the Eagles to a first-place finish in the District 10 meet and a sixth-place in the Region 3 meet.

Most important of all, the Eagles cross country team did a splendid job of keeping up JUHS' good name by maintaining a sense of good sportsmanship and fair play.

Congratulations on a great season!

Teachers Practice At Field

If you happen to be driving past Johnson field and you see a few of our teachers running around, don't think they are all nuts; it's only practice for the touchfootball team.

Who are the teachers on this team? Messrs. Schmidt, manager; Debban, Voves, Oslund, Hakes, Isensee, Trapp, D. Olsen, and Mr. Sydow, Pete Sydow, and Cal Korth.

This has been a good year for them, since this is their second year.

The faculty team has played eight games with Kraft, Pizza Plaza, Super-Sweet, and 3M; losing only one to Kraft.

Last Saturday, Nov. 4, they went to state championship games at Coon Rapids where they played one of the top four teams in the State.

Mr. Voves being helpful as he sometimes is, helped a referee throw out his penalty flag after which he spent the night warming the bench.

Student Council

by Ted Marti

After a successful Homecoming, the Student Council sent several representatives to Franklin, the site of the Southwest District Student Council Convention.

These representatives included Ron Eyrich, Tom Fritsche, Vicki Harmening, JoAnn Tobias, and Ted Marti. At Franklin, New Ulm headed a discussion group on Qualifications of Student Council members.

With Homecoming gone, the Council is now considering a Winter Whirl. If you have any suggestions concerning the dance or tother activities, inform your representative and he will try to incorporate it into their program.

Book Shelf

The most talked about book in the NUHS library at the present time is Black Like Me.

John Howard Griffin, a white man who darkens the color of his skin, walks into a different world filled with a hate and fear known only to the American Negro. Black Like Me shows how this man has to search for a place to sleep and how he tries to find a job other than manual labor, while constantly upon him is the "hate stare." This is a true story written in the form of a diary.

Did You Know?

that Patty Adams talked to a fly in A.B.C. Shorthand?
that it costs the district $600 for each student per year?
that Mr. Jones' new daughter is named Helen Bronwen?

that the Eagle photographers took over 75 classroom and other pictures October 24?
that the cage ball was punctured in phy. ed.?
that the faculty lounge has a pop machine?

that the students don't have a pop machine?

that there are 34 tables and 244 chairs in the cafeteria?
that music is played during the Early bird phy. ed. classes each morn?

that Miss Kayser has a lion named Lester Linus Lion sitting on her desk?

that there are a number of girls who are about to be "chided" for their short short skirts?

Heap Of The Month

The right front seat keeps falling flat on to the back one.

Do any of you recognize this car? Why, it's the Zark-O-Car, of course.

The Zark-O-Car is owned by Mark Zeise. It is a 1965 cupric brown two-door Ford Custom.

The purpose of the Zark-O-Car is to transport Snork to school and the overworked football players home.

Seniors from NUHS, Cathedral, and other area schools reported to the Senior High cafeteria at 8:00 Saturday morning, October 21, to take the ACT test. The examination ended about 12:30.

SCHOOL SHORTS

Mr. Werner's German Class

In Mr. Werner's German I sixth hour class there is a new game which consists of the pupils forming two circles; here they count in German to one hundred. But there is one catch - every time they come to seven or a multiple of seven, they have to say wurst. No English can be spoken during the game or the students have to start over with number one.

Marvin "Sonny" Romberg, a 1965 graduate of NUHS, was recently named honorman by the U.S. Naval Training Center in Great Lakes, Illinois.

The training center donated to the guidance office, the yearbook, entitled Keel, which contains action photos and graduates' pictures at the training center.

Last year the door around the corner was a janitors's closet. Now it is a back door to Mr. Paulson's room in the office, making it one of the few two-door rooms on the first floor.

BILOXI, Miss. - Airman First Class Stephen C. Boesch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merlyn E. Boesch of 520 S. Broadway, New Ulm, Minn., has been graduated from a U.S. Air Force technical school at Keesler AFB, Miss.

He was trained as a radio repairman and has been assigned to a unit of the Air Training Command at Ellsworth AFB, S.D.

Airman Boesch is a 1966 graduate of New Ulm High School.

Gus Dewy, leader of the Gestures, was a guest speaker of Mr. Larson's social science classes Oct. 5. Mr. Dewy told the classes about making records, taking tours and the hardships and of the excitement of working with a goup. The group is hoping for another hig like "Run, Run, Run."

The Senior class spent third hour in the gymnasium October 4 listening to photographers from area studios talk about class pictures.

The three studios represented were Myer's, Acker's, and Oswald's.

Seniors were also reminded to get their pictures taken as soon as possible to meet the deadline for the yearbook.

If you wish to see the photographs that each studio showed, stop at the glass display window by the FFA rooms.

Monday, Nov. 6, Mrs. Heldberg attend a District In-Service Home Economics Meeting, of which she is chairman. Discussion will be on different kinds of vocational work.

The student council elections were held Tuesday, September 12, in the NUHS homerooms.

The twenty-one representatives are as follows: seniors, Tom Backer, JoAnn Christensen, Vicki Harmening, Bruce Lambrecht, Becky Peterson, Mary Schultz, and Mark Wilfahrt; juniors, Bev Botten, Tom Fritsche, Jolene Johnson, Carlie Marti, Jayne Rosener, Debbie Steenberg, and Trudi Wright; sophomores, Scott Backer, Mike Domeler, Gall Gulden, Steve Martinka, Steve Peterson, Richard Schwartz, and JoAnn Tobias.

These people will be busy all year doing such things as working at basketball games, decorating the gymnasium, and presiding over homeroom meetings.

Language STORY

Have you heard the "sounds of music" coming out of the language lab?

Some of Mr. Werner's first-year students are learning the chords for "Kusse ihm Mondschein." These students - John Jacobs, Bob Kaiser, Wayne Miller, Mark Benson, and Julie Westrum - will soon be able to play for their class on their electric guitars.

The last period of the day, Miss Hasselmeyer's Spanish I class join in singing Spanish songs to Sarafae Good's accompaniment on her guitar.

Maybe once in a while you wonder what happened to Mr. Trapp's old room.

It is now the business office and not one room, but three. Mr. Paulson, the business administrator, says the office takes care of "federal programs, pupil accounting, and financial administration." That's a good thing to know.

Only 45 Days Till Christmas

Mark Zeise all ready to go hand on wheel foot in car as he posses with the Zark-O-Car.

Eagles Finish Fourth in SCC

A victory, 34-7, over St. James ended the Eagle football season here Oct. 27 at Johnson Field - leaving the Eagles with a 5-3 season record and 4-3 in conference play, to take fourth place in the SCC.

The Eagles scored easily in the early part of the first quarter, and the outcome of the game was never in doubt after that. Starting on their own 43-yard line, Ron Alm, Doug Spelbrink, and Dan Volz took eight and nine yards at a crack to set up the three-yard TD plunge by Dan with 7:33 left in the quarter. Doug kicked the extra point.

Twice the Eagles came close to getting touchdowns in the latter part of the first quarter and the early part of the second quarter, only to see the breaks go against them.

A short punt after a penalty against St. James for illegal grounding put the ball on St.

James' 28 yard line. A long pass from Tom Backer to Scott Hansen clicked for the Eagles, running the score to 14-0 after Doug added another kick.

The Eagles scored twice the latter part of the third quarter. A fine 52-yard run by Dan Volz came with 4:47 left in the quarter. Frank Whitcomb kicked the extra point.

Mark Dyre thrilled the fans a few plays later with a 78 yard pass interception and runback for a TD.

St. James managed to score with about three minutes in the game on a 47 yard run by Dick Hackett.

Bruce Lambrecht led the Eagles defense with 13 tackles. Darrell Untiedt had 12, Scott Hansen 11, and Tom Reitter 10.

Eagles Hang On For Victory

The New Ulm Eagles built up a 20-7 half-time lead, then hung on for a 20-19 victory over Glencoe on Oct. 20 at Glencoe.

Glencoe scored their last touchdown in the last quarter, but failed to make the extra point. Tom Bieraugel blocked the kick to maintain the victory for the Eagles.

Eagles Shut-Out Waseca

Sparked by a shut-out of Hutchinson the week before, the New Ulm Eagles hustling football team trounced Waseca 40-13 on Oct. 13 at Waseca.

The Eagles built up a 20-7 half-time lead, then settled down defensively to hold the Waseca offense while the NU offense continued to push the Bluejay defense back.

This resounding victory evened the Eagles' season record at 3-3.

Ron Alm escapes tackle and comes through with the touchdown.

Cross Country News

Eagle Runners Take First

New Ulm High School won the first District 10 cross country meet in history Oct. 15 at Redwood Falls.

The Eagles hustled to the victory by taking second, sixth, seventh, eighth, and tenth places.

Final scores were New Ulm 33, Redwood Falls 58, Lambert 64, and Gaylord 72.

Kim Williams led the well-balanced Eagle runners by finishing second with a time of 10:41. Following him came Steve Seeman, Chuck Wacker, Ken Nelson, Ron Eyrich, Steve Peterson, and Jim Torgerson, all in order of finish.

R. Nyberg of Lambert was the top individual runner in the meet, but the Eagles won it on their great balance.

Eagles Place Sixth in Region

New Ulm High School's young cross country team placed sixth in the regional cross country meet held Oct. 22 at Olivia.

Appleton was the top team in the meet with Olivia second.

Top Eagle runners were Kim Williams, 22nd; Steve Seemann, 29th; Ken Nelson, 31st; Chuck Wacker, 32nd; Ron Eyrich, 39th; Jim Torgerson, 48th; and Steve Peterson, 53rd.

This showing in the regional meet wrapped up a successful first season for NUHS cross country.

Doug Spelbrink with player of the week trophy.

Doug Spelbrink Named Player Of the Week

Doug Spelbrink was named the Journal-KNUJ back of the week. He received a trophy donated by the Nicklasson Athletic Company and was interviewed on KNUJ Saturday, Oct. 21. Doug has been a triple-threat this fall; he can run, pass, and punt with the best of players. In addition, he is an outstanding linebacker and leads the team in tackles.

Against Waseca, Doug gained 127 yards in 22 carries, averaged 39 yards wopunts, and led the team 113 unassisted tackles. Coach Varpness said, "Doug also is the team's best blocker in the back field." He rates the 175-pound senior halfback a fine college prospect.

New Captains Elected for '68

New tri-captains for the 1968 football season were selected at a meeting held Oct. 30. The new captains are Gary Untiedt, Frank Whitcomb, and Mark Zeise.

Doug Spelbrink was chosen Most Valuable Player of the year. Doug plays linebacker and offensive halfback.

Honorable mention went to: Scott Hansen, outstanding lineman; Doug Spelbrink, outstanding back; Ted Marti, most improved player; and Steve Martinka, best sophomore prospect.

Cheerleaders Make Changes

Two projects are receiving the attention of the cheerleaders - new winter uniforms, and the formation of pep club.

Because school spirit is better than ever before and because a number of students have indicated interest in such an organization, the cheerleaders plan to discuss the matter with the administration.

Several weeks ago, the "A" squad cheerleaders attended a cheerleading clinic at Granite Falls. They learned many new cheers which will be presented to the student body.

EAGLE EYE

Seniors Play Last Game

Did you know that Friday, Oct. 27, football game against St. James was the last high school football game 18 senior boys will play?

The boys - Dan Volz, Scott Hansen, Doug Spelbrink, John Sievert, Tom Backer, Tom Reitter, Eric Wieland, Bruce Lambrecht, Steve Harmening, Steve Akre, Ted Marti, Tom Bieraugel, Darryl Untiedt, Mark Dyre, Bob Burns, Ron Alm, and Lynn Brey - will miss the thrill of running onto the field to play their best. The thrill of doing something for the school that they are proud of, - the thrill of winning a game - the thrill of having the coaches and their parents to look at them and say, "Nice game-you were great" - the thrill of being someone.

I'm sure all of us, including the boys, wish they could stay for a few more years and play football for NUHS - but they must move on. Football was only the start for them; now they must go out and succeed in more activities.

In a few years they'll look back and remember all the work and fun they had playing here at NUHS and what a great coach you are, Mr. Varpness.

Winter Sports Move In

As all of you know basketball, wrestling, and gymnastic are just around the corner. I'm sure all of you and the three head coaches - Mr. Werdahl, Mr. Peterson, and Mr. Schmid - are looking forward to the first game, dual, or meet.

A meeting for basketball, coached by Mr. Werdahl and Mr. Olson, was held November 2. The six returning lettermen - Doug Spelbrink, Scott Hansen, Mark Dyre, Tom Backer, Tom Reitter, and Steve Harmening - plus 36 others were present.

Their first practice will be November 13. Rules and regulations will be given out at that time.

New Letterman officers elected: (l-r) Tom Schwartz, Treasure; Lynn Brey President; Mark Zeise, Vice President; and Ted Marti, Secretary.

Cooperative Office Edu. On-the-Way

A cooperative office education program involving 15 senior girls and 15 local business firms started Sept. 11. Mr. Bruels program coordinator reported that the early response is excellent.

These girls have a varied background in business education classes; shorthand, book-keeping, typing and office machines training.

Each firm pays the student workers a "going wage."

The student trainees and employers are: Bonnie Borchert, New Ulm Journal; Pauline Burk, Loretto hospital; Kathleen Gieseke, Montgomery Ward; Mary Guggisberg, Citizens State Bank; Paulette Gulden, Robert Johnson Accounting Service; Joyce Hoffmann, Vogel Clinic; Carol Lietzau, Minn. Valley Testing Laboratories and Sears Robuck and Co.; Deborah Nelson, New Ulm Junior High School Office; Susan Prah, Herberger's; Leah Schaeffler, State Bond and Mortgage Co.; Deanna Schmitz, Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing; Jo Anne Schnobrich, New Ulm Clinic; Leanne Tostenrud, State Bank of New Ulm; LaVonne Turbes, Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing; Peggy Zobel, Oswald's Laundry.

The program is designed to help non-college bound students develop skills in a particular trade - in this instance - office work. Through the program the students will graduate from high school with book and practice knowledge in secretarial work. They will be able to step into a full-time office position.

The girls spend each morning in school taking required subjects as English and social plus a one-credit course. They also have a daily training program. Mr. Bruels conducts this class and spends about 1½ hours a day checking up on the girls in the office program.

The girls report to work at noon, 1 or 2 p.m., and average about 15 hours per week on the job. Each of the 15 business firms involved has a supervisor appointed to help teach the students office routines. Mr.

Students Host "Operation Amigo"

Last Wednesday, 40 students from Venezuela and Brazil came to NUHS for a visit. They were brought here by 3M Company on a project called "Operation Amigo". They toured a farm, had lunch at the Kaiserhoff, and then visited the 3M plant.

Upon arriving at the school, they were greeted by Mr. Olsen, Tom Mohr of FFA, and Miss Hasselmeyer. The 5th and 6th hour Spanish classes entertained the Latin American students with a song called "Tres Hojitas, Madre." Then one of the South American boys entertained the classes by playing the guitar and singing.

When the program was over, the New Ulm students formed groups with the Latin American students and toured the school. The boys seemed to like the chemistry lab, and the girls, the home economics rooms. The biology lab was the most popular with everyone. In the language lab some New Ulm boys worked the equipment for the visitors. Most of the South Americans had never worn ear-phones before, and enjoyed listening to the tapes.

When the tour was completed, all the students went to the cafeteria, which had been cleared for dancing. Some of the girls were shy about dancing but the boys enjoyed showing their skill.

Just before it was time to leave, one of the South American boys accompanied a group on one of their country's folk songs. He played the guitar, as did a New Ulm girl when she accompanied everyone on an American folk song.

Everyone had a lot of fun, and we hope someday they can come to New Ulm again.

Bel Canto Has New Member

Thirty girls tried out for the Bel Canto vocal group, but only thirteen new members were added.

They are Janet Steinhauer, Mary Karl, Valerie Stolze, Jill Marti, Denise Dallman, Connie Weide, Jean Kramer, Jolene Johnson, Mary Schwartz, Julie McCleary, Marsha Steinberg, and Lori Neisen.

FFA

Twenty-three FFA students from New Ulm Senior High School received first-hand experience in livestock marketing and at the South St. Paul Central Market. At this clinic Future Farmers sold animals from their own farming programs and studied the marketing process at the same time.

Mike Zeig, a member of the New Ulm FFA Chapter, finished among the top ten FFA cattle dairy judges in the Nation at the recent Dairy Cattle Congress which was held in Waterloo, Iowa. At the contest Zeig competed with 123 State Champions from 41 different states.

The New Ulm FFA Chapter had the Brown County Soil Champion for the 6th straight year. The winner this year was Gary Moll of New Ulm. Gary captained New Ulm FFA's entry in the Regional Soil Judging Contest which was held at the Southwestern Minnesota Experiment Station at Lamberton, and the New Ulm team was named Champion and will represent 45 schools in Southwestern Minnesota at the State Contest. Other team members were Richard Schnobrich, Bruce Gieseke, and Randy Griebel.

The annual Fall Leadership Clinic for local Chapter officers in District 12 was held October 2nd at Madella High School. Tom Mohr of New Ulm who is serving as District President directed the Clinic. Tom also serves as New Ulm FFA President. Other local officers in attendance were: Vice president - Leo Guggisberg, Secretary - Gary Moll, Treasurer - Mike Zeig, Reporter - Bruce Luepke, Sentinel - Dale Mack, Parliamentarian - Eugene Wellman, Chaplain - Steve Melzer, Advisor - Frank Stuckey.

Mike Zeig was again the New Ulm FFA's contestant in the Regional Cow Clipping Contest which was held at Mt. Lake on October 25th. For the 2nd year in a row Mike came home with the Reserve Championship. His brother, Steven, was his assistant in this Regional Contest.

New Ulm's Future Farmers are extremely busy at this time of year completing their Corn Growing Activities. Yield checks are taken on their corn plots and then the sampled corn is donated to the Minnesota Society for Crippled Children for use in maintaining their group camp at Annandale.

Speech Class Presents Radio Plays

The Canterville Ghost, by Oscar Wilde, was presented as a radio play over KNUJ FM by the NUHS Speech class, November 8, at 8:00 p.m.

The cast included the following: narrator, Kent Knutson; Canterville, Mike Roiger; Otis, Mark Weise; Mrs. Omney, De Anne Reinhart; Virginia, Kristine Eyrich; Washington, Joe Bernardy; Jefferson, Bob Hoffoss; Eleonore, Vicki Chamberd; Ghost, Dick Ostrum; and Mrs. Otis, Linda Starke.

In charge of sound effects were Bruce Fenske, Jed Marti, and David Stout.

This was the second in a monthly series of plays... Planned for December is Dickens' A Christmas Carol.

Home Ec. Has Nursery

Mrs. Heldberg's 2nd hour Home Economics class is going to hold a nursery school two days during the week of November 13-17. The class will consist of six 4-year old children. Two girls will share one child; one will observe and one will work with a child.

Some of the activities the children will take part in include free play with provided toys; a planned project; coloring; a lunch time (being served juice and crackers) and a free project, where they can do anything they want, within reason. It is possible that they will also see some movies. This is the second year this project has been done.

Goodrich; Craig Reed, police department in Los Vegas, Nevada; and Don Schaefer, B.F. Goodrich.

District Gets Edu. Center

To provide educational and cultural services not economically feasible to provide as individual school districts, an Edu-Cultural Service Center has been established at Mankato State College.

The Edu-Cultural Service Center is a service organization cooperatively planned and operated by twenty-four public school districts and twenty-four parochial schools located in south-central Minnesota, under Title III, Public Law 89-10.

The personnel at the Center will assist the schools, teachers, and students in bettering their education programs. Some of the services they will provide are Audio-visual Centers, Diagnostic and Curriculum Services, and Arts and Humanities.

Mr. Fjelstad, superintendent of New Ulm schools, is a member of the Board of Directors. The counties included are Blue Earth, Brown, LeSueur, Nicollet, Sibley, and Watonwan.

The concert last Sunday presented by the Mankato Symphony Orchestra at the Junior High Auditorium, was the first of such activities to be furnished by the Edu-Cultural Center, under the Arts and Humanities.

Early Bird Catches ?

Early Bird Phy. Ed. students have one distinguishing characteristic: they all have baggy, red eyes. Whether it's from lack of sleep or just from playing badminton too strenuously is hard to say.

The object of Early Bird is to aid students who are taking overloads and for band students. It is also a way to develop fitness through activities that have carry-over value for later years.

Last year Early Bird was in an experimental stage; therefore there was only one class. This year there are two sections of wide-awake, fitness enthusiasts.

Some of the up-coming activities are golf, tennis, scoop, and paddletennis. There's also what is known as improvise time when the class makes up its own games.
