Students Witness Various Kinds Of Programs

"Memories of 1918," a pageant, was presented this morning during the activity period by Mr. Anderson's homeroom.
It was a memorial to the heroic efforts of the soldiers in the World War and presented some of the grim tragedy which occurred. As an Armistice Day program it was an excellent example.
Dorothy Dirks, Donald Drill, John Eckstein and Richard Engel took the main roles, while the rest of the class rendered the songs needed to class rendered the songs n make the pageant effective.

REV. RICHARD'S TALK

A most inspiring address for youth was given Tuesday morning, November 7, by Rev. Sidney Richards. His topic was in line with the topic for American Education Week for that day entitled, "Education for Human Relationships."
Live successfully, cooperate with others, live creatively, that is have a hobby, make friends by being one, and help lift and carry loads were highlights of his talk. Every student should have got some personal message from this address.
F.B.I. AGENT WARNS STUDENTS
L. H. Richmond, representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, spoke to the student body at a spespecial program on October 31. He brought out the value of enforcing the law and spoke of the methods used by the F.B.I. in criminal investigation.
Mr. Richmond explained the requirements for admittance into the "G-man" corps, outlining the physical, moral, and educational requirements. By m.eans of true stories, the speaker told how cases, apparently long dead, were revived and solved by the F.B.I. through lengthy investigations and tests.
The school patrol boys, stated Richmond, are receiving the proper training in respecting the law and doing their share in enforcing it.
The speaker made a plea beard throughout the land: • Don't let the of crime."

Mr. John Ellis, actor in many stage successes in New York City and other cities, played the leading role in a presentation of "Rip Van Winkle" at an assembly program on November 7.

BONFIRE, PARADE, DANCE FEATURED IN HOMECOMING

Two Day Celebration 「o Mark Homecoming With Sleepy Eye

With "Blackout Sleepy Eye" ringing in everyone's ears and haunting veryone's dreams, the gala N. U. H. . homecoming will be opened tonight at 6:30 with a stupendous parade. Led by the high school band and the irls' drum and bugle corps, the parade will leave the high school building and march through the business section and up Center Street to College Hill.

The twenty or more floats in the parade are being prepared by the various advisory groups and are based on the theme "The American Way." The difference between the present European and American ways will be shown in the contrast between our American youth and the Europeans; our fighting football spirit and their war spirit; our well- and Their war spint, our well-laden Thanksgiving tables and their limited rations. limited rations.
The parade will end at the foot of College Hill, where a huge bonfire is to be held. The junior high school is in charge of supplying the necessary materials for the fire, and as intimated by George Olson, president of the student council, something awful might be in the offing if it isn't the biggest and best bonfire N. U. H. S.

WELCOME GRADS

The Graphos and the entire student body wants to take this privilege of welcoming back all of the grads from way back. We're glad to have you with us and hope you enjoy yourselves.
