New Officers Assume Duties

Schugel, Sandmann, Wagner Head Classes

In the class elections held last Monday to select this year's pilots for each class, the boys snared 12 positions to the girls' 10. There were many candidates but these are the ones who were chosen.
In the senior class LaVerne Schugel was elected president; Vernal Schultz, vice-president; Myrtle Halverson, secretary; and Charles Groebner, treasurer
The juniors decided that Eugene Sandmann president, James Prokosch as vice-president, Arlyn Reinhart as secretary, and Jerry Hamann as treasurer would be the best for them; and the sophomores chose Richard Wagner as president, Grace Lamecker as vice-president, and Beverly Kuester as secretarytreasurer.
In the junior high the freshman picked Roland Olson, president; Dorothy Campbell, vice-president and Joanne Windland, secretary treasurer to lead them through the first year of their journey through high school.
The eighth grade has Sharon Oswald as president, Beverly Jensen as vice-president, Fred Gratz as secretary, and Y vonne Strate as treasurer; while the seventh grade chose Alton Buggert for president, Jame Kavemeier for vice-president, Joy Herrmann for secretary, and Luverne Ahrndt for treasurer

All Homerooms Hold Elections Of Officers

Compilation of the returns in the lections for officers in all home rooms in junior and senior high last week showed that the boys won the seater number of positions.

Sixteen Boys

Enlist in Guard
"Hup, two, three, four. Hup, two, three, four!" that's what 16 members of N.U.H.S. hear once a week as they drill with the Nationa Guard.
Members who have joined the Guard are Tony Sellner, Donald Lonien, Fred Olson, Fred Schneider Virg Herrick, Alvin Ganske, Chuck Malby, Jim Lathrop, Bud Thiede Frank Ubel, "Pete" Lindemann, Dale Schlottman, Dale Schlottman, Gerald Christenson, Phelps Schulke, John Frederich, and Bernard Domeier.

Meetings on Monday
The Guard meets every Monday evening at the armory from eight to ten o'clock. At present the Na tional Guard has a recruiting cam paign going on in which the coun try's quota is a man a minute. The drive started on September 15 and will end on October 15. The New Um Guard is trying to raise enough men to fill their quota of 130 enough for a platoon.

Enlist Now

Boys, if you are seventeen, enlist. The pay you receive is two dollars and a half for each evening you drill. Besides, you are getting excellent training and you are showing that you are interested in your country's welfare.

Homecoming Tiff At Johnson Field N. U. vs. Redwood

Redwood's Cardinals will meet he Eagle eleven tonight at Johnson Field when the New Ulm squad battles for the homecoming game Following the team into the fiold will be the cries, "Make Redwood Deadwood", and "Shuffle the Cards". These slogans were selected by the student body as appropriate cries for the evening's festivities.
Classes will be dismissed at three o'clock. The band will lead the procession through town, including the queen and her attendants, a tout weven o'clock and the corona ng their arrival at the field Our queen will be crowned by Mr. Herrmann, while last year's queen, Rita Gleisner, will present her with the scepter After a short welcome given by the queen of the festivities, the football game will get unde ay. During the half, the New Ulm high school band will perform under the direction of Jack Strang, music upervisor.
Marv Tenhoff will supply the music for the dance beginning at ten o'clock. Admission will be 50 c per Homecoming festivities got under way last night with a bonfire held below Hermann Heights. The events of the evening included the burning of the effigy, announcement of the queen and captain and short comments from the latter. A dis comments from the latter. A display of fire works was given by Mr. Lynott with the assistance of the custodians.

From the site of the bonfire the majority of students were transported out to the Beach where a wioner roast was held. Ten-o'clock was "lights out" and every one went home to get a good rest for the big home to get a good rest for the big Homecoming

White In N.U. To

Talk on Temperence
Vernon C. White, special temperance lecturer, will bring an address in the New Ulm High School on Oct. 6, at 11:15. It is a timely, up-to-date, and authentic message. As one pastor said of Mr . White, "He not only knows the facts, but s able to present them in a way hat arouses interest and leaves a lasting impression"
Having done research work on the alcohol question and read numerous books on this subject, Mr. White is fully equipped to give the acts.
Mr. White is sponsored by the National Temperance Movement, Inc. with offices in Chicago, Illinois. The movement uses the latest findings of science and the best methods in education, keeping in mind always the religious emphasis, to bring to the nation a new approach to this old problem.

Coronation Exercises To Be Held Tonight

One of the eleven senior girls pictured above will reign tonight as queen of the homecoming festivities. Her coronation will take place tonight at 7:30, on Johnson Field, before the game. The other 10 will be her attendants.
The girls elected by the student body are the following: Tane Fesenmaier, Mary Green, Patricia Harman, Delores Hulke, Shijley Kosek, Kathryn Kral, Jeanine Naumann, Beverly Nelsop, Delphine Rolstad, Betsy Von Bank and Audre Woeble Woebke. They were chosen from a ballot on which all the senior girl's names were listed. A one was to be placed before the name of the girl desired for queen, and a check before eight others who would be her attendants. All the home rooms voted.
Because the election was so rlose, was decided that 10 girls be attendants rather than eight, as originally planned.

Memories

Remember when? That's quite a beginning. Of course you remember when-that is when you were in grade school, or when you attended your first football game or school dance. But do you remember when other suys and girls were making history in the halls of New Ulm high school? cills of New Ulm high school? Like in 1937 when our varsity basket deam went to the state tournaments. When Hildegarde Hein, class of 1924, last year's Phy. Ed. teacher, was a rooting cheerleader, for the purple and white clad lads. When Stu Groebner, class of ' 40 was editor of the Graphos and Jack Minium, class of 1940 took the state in humorous declam. When the class of 1911 donated the statue of Joan of Arc that is now in the hall outside the library.

You probably don't remember these particular things, but you know or ave heard at some time of the good ecords that these and other classes have made They have mighty good memories of their high school days teries of their high school days Are you going to leave as good a record as the alumni of our high are you making?

Intelligence?

You'd think that after 12 years of school a senior could tell the difference between an ap ple and a walnut. Maybe the lighting was poor, Dale, but who has lights in someone else's back yard?

Friendly:

Maybe Betsy Von Bank will be more particular about whose pet she befriends. Seems she tried to pet one of the otters and he bit her Oh, well Lit. always was a good friend of Dr. Dubbe.

Undernourished?
There is absolutely no one in school who has an appetite like Chuck Brust. The other night he had three raw onions for supper and at Swing Band rehearsal he played, "I'll Sit Alone" and no wonder? Poor Connie Muesing.

At the popcorn stand the other day.-A young man said to his gir friend "Shall we get a bag of popcorn and split it, or do you want some too?

The dates for the Homecoming dance certainly were slow in coming this year. Weren't they boys?

From Where I Sat:

The Swing Band certainly sounded good at their first practice. Now that ,we've got some one to play the music all we need is dance and we can hardly wait for that.

Dear Diary

Just think, this year we have two Homecoming Slogans. "Shuffle the Cards" and "Make Redwood Deadwood". The Home coming pins are different too. They have a rabbit's foot attached. Guess we're super stitious or something.
Watched the second team play last week We'll have a fast team to watch in a few years.
On the way home from the G.A.A. hike last week, Connie Muesing got stuck in the mud. Seems her socks were all muddy and so she threw them away. Scared of a scolding.?
Had to hand in our papers in typing. Got so scared I couldn't remember where the letters were. Hey Hey typed 25 a minute without a mistake. TJ think I'm up against competition like that.
Really about time we get a new car, now the muffler is ca-put and it makes terribly much noise.
Got letters from Pat and Gene today They really miss cheerleading and high school in general. I can see what they mean I'll hate to leave next year, too.
Dear diary, please pray that we win the Homecoming game. I have my fingers cross ed all the time.

Nite now,

Dear Editor

In the last edition of our "Graphos" there appeared an editorial on school spirit which in my estimation "hit the nail right on the head". You commented on the attitude of some of the student body toward our football team. You also stated that not only a team must cooperate, but the cheerleaders and fans must stick together. Since that edition came out there has been lots of comthere has been lots of commenting among the students. with yout but some-mity with you, but some-myut those who are guilty of poor sportsmanship L have made sportsmanship - have made accusation and have insulted accusation and have insulted the staft behind their backs. ple of poor sportsmanship and conflict between students. It has promoted bad feelings and probably will be a barrier between many of our students for the rest of the year, and for Seniors who are spending their last year together.

I believe that we are making a "mountain out of a molehill" and we should remedy the situation before we find ourselves in a worse state. We, the seniors, have worked together for three years. We put on the most successful class play that N.U. successful class play that N.U. H.S. has had for, years; we gave the class of 47 a swell gave the class of and owe all of our success to one thing, co-opera tion. It is only one word, but covers so much territory. It is the word that will put all of us back on the right track again; it will send us thru a fourth successful year in every feld, and that's a goal which we don't want to lose just because we don't know how to "ac't out" one little word. Let's all "bury the hatchet" and pitch in to make '47 and '48 the best, most successful and happiest year of our entire career.

A Senior.

Eagles Will Try To 'Make RedwoodDeadwood'Tonight

Game Time at 8 P.M.; Light Backfield, 172 lb . Line To Start

Tonight the New Ulm Eagles attempt to make "Redwood Deadwood" as they battle the Cardinals at Johnson Field undei the ares at 8:00 P. M.
The Cards come to town to try to put a damper on the gala homecoming festivities with a victory over Hank Nicklasson's fighting eleven. Every member of the squad is determined to set back Slocum's crew with a loss. For New Ulm the probable starting line up wil have Curt Larson or Virg Herrick at one flank; Chuck Malby will be be at the other end. At tackles are Charles Brust, Al Ganske or Wally Charles Brust, Al Ganske or Wally Eckstein. Guards are Leo Traurig and Jack Bloedel. Center post is quarter will be James Prokosch. Khalil Mansoor and Harold Wieland will probably start at balf. Full-backing will be Eugene "Sandy" Sandmann.
Redwood Falls has a possible allstater at end in Clyde Slocum, Redwood's all round athlete. In the first game the Cardinals played, they battled to a scoreless ti against Olivia.
If "Nick" starts the team he will average 172 Waseca, our line field averages about 155. Heaviest player on the team is 202 -pound tackle, Charly Brust. Heaviest back is Sandmann weighing in at 165 pounds. Average team is 165 pounds.

After each game we are going to pick a "star of the week". Star of the week for the Glencoe fray was Harold Wieland. He took the honors when, on the last play of the ors when, on the last play of the game, he sped 52 yards for a touchgame, he sped 52 yards for a touchdown to save New Ulm's "face" and down to save New U
For the Waseca game candidates that we picked were Khalil Mansoor, Jack Bloedel, Harold Wieland, Chuck Malby and Robie Lamecker. Mansoor was picked for his touchdown and ground gaining, Bloedel for his standout line work, Wieland for his standout line work, Wieland for some nice gains and touchdown for some nice gains and touchdown that didn't count, Chuck Malby at end, and Robert Lamecker for his sensational knock down of a pass intended for giant Krause, which would have gone for a sure touch

Mansoor Scores
We pick the star on the basis of a game winning TD or doing the most to lead the team to victory, the game saving tackle, etc., or being outstanding in holding down the opponents scor
With the score favoring Waseca 18 to 6 , Monte is the "star of the week" scoring N. U.'s only touchdown.
Wieland again broke away but had his nice run recalled. He also made some nice gains but Mansoor's touchdown-run over shadowed his advances. Jack Bloedel worked hard in the line, but the Eagles lost Malby played good defense ball. Lamecker battled down the pass thrown to Krause with Waseca leading 6 to 0 , but N.U.H.S. broke leading 6 to 0 , but N.U.H.S. broke through the ice scoring a TD while through the ice scor Waseca scored two.
So it's Wieland for the Glencoe tilt and Mansoor for the Waseca battle.

Eagles Lose Third Game To Fairmont, 34-0

New Ulm's Eagles were virtually eliminated from the South Centra Conference race last Friday when they lost their first home game of the season to Fairmont 34 to 0 .
Fairmont's passing ability and be ing able to come through when th chips were down plus an array of New Ulm fumbles were the main factors in the romp over the Eagles Fairmont scored in every period, They made seven in the first quar ter, seven in the second, 13 in the third, and a final seven in the last stanza. Wilkens, the Cardinal place kicker and quarterback kicked 4 out of 5 place kicks thru tbe goal posts. Treberg Scores
The Cardinals scored their first touchdown when right half Treberg took the ball over from the eleven. Wilkins split the cross bars with a kick to stretch the lead for Fairmont to seven points.
New Ulm got a break when Joel Tierney punted from his own 29 The kick bounced free from the receivers hands and Chuck Malby re covered on the 43.
N.U. emassed three first downs, two by Mansoor and one by Wieland on a march to the one yard line. Wieland was hit on the on when the ball squirted from his grasp with a Fairmont player covering.

Eagles Threaten
Fairmont kicked from the end zone and recovered a New Ulm fumble on the 20 . Mansoor's 22 yard run sparked the Eagles to the 5 after Fairmont had booted to New Ulm.
The scarlet jersied team took over on downs and marched 93 yards for a touchdown that featured the run ning of Quarterback Wilkens and a 40. yard gain on a 25 yd. pass from Jaqua to Anderson who took the heave on the 15 and fought his way over the goal line. Wlkens again converted.

Runs 81 Yards
Simmons featured a 990 yard pay dirt march when he went 81 yards for the score as the second half opened. Fairmont scored again after intercepting a flat pass.
The final score came when again Eagle pass was intercepted.
New Ulm roared back with Lamecker doing the ground gaining but couldn't score.
New Ulm made seven first downs to Fairmonts 10. The Cards had 10 penalties called against them most for illegal motion. New Ilm had two Fairmont completed out of 4 passes and intercepted of ours, while we could only complete 1 out of 8 tries.

An excellent defensive game was played by New Ulm as they held Springfield to two first downs.

Sports Revieut

by
The New Ulm high school eleven now has two games under their belt, now has coner and non-onfere fence, and Terry O'Hara proved the biggest stumbling blocks in the Glencoe loss.

Glencoe out rushed the Eagle line 202 yds. to 115. N. U. Was set back for 19 while Glencoe lost 14 Glencoe attempted 13 passes; com pleting eight for a .615 percentage, while N. U. tried three and had two intercepted. New Ulm fumbled four times, Glencoe three.

Glencoe had the decided advantage on rumning and pass plays. Counting kickoff and punt returns rushing and passing plays, interception runbacks, and penalties. We could get only 174 yds. while Glencoe rolled up 315. Our opponents got 11 first downs to our three.

Lose Second Game

In the Waseca game the Eagles dropped their second straight game, but this was a closer battle with the Blue Jays leading 6 to 0 at the half time intermission.

A little runner wearing a 13 on his jersey kept the Eagles in "hot water" most of the game.
The game ran the total score for the season up-to-date of our opponents to 51 and ours to 12 . The team will improve a great deal before the season ends.

Fgotball Notes

Remaining season prophets with perfect calls are Lee Oren, Al. Ganske, Virg. Herrick, Fred Nystrom, Bud Thiede and Curt Larson. The boys predicted both losses to Glencoe and Waseca. All six predicted a victory in our first home game of the season over Fairmont.
Spotting for the Glencoe announcer was Bootsy Kraus. He told us he wasn't going to do it again-over the P. I. system-when in the Waseca game, Dunn raced 90 yards for six points. Jim Clay, game charter and I, plainly saw a man in motion and distinctly heard a whistle on the play, to say nothing of the coaches and fans. The team slowed up when they heard the whistle. The St. Peter coach was at the game and he said, he, was at the game and he said, he, too, heard the whistle. The TD proved to be the turning point of proved to be the turning point orer the game.-When Rosited down a pass for Krause it batted down a pass looked as if Robie crawled up Krause's legs to reach the pass.

The Waseca Blue Jays dumped he New Ulm Eagles in a South Central Conference game 18 to 6 Clark Dunn provided the scoring unch Waseca needed to gain their irst conference victory of the sea on. Dunn raced 9, 90, and 35 yards for touchdowns.

Eagles Improve

The New Ulm team showed improvement over the season opener fighting to a 6-0 half-time score. The Eagles received the kickoff, and marched to the 10 on some nice unning by Mansoor, but stalled n the 7 -yard marker.
Waseca took over, moving the pigskin to the 34 before punting. On third down Wieland broke away or a touchdown, but a holding penalty nullified the score.

Waseca Scores

The second quarter opened with Waseca driving for a TD on a 41yard march. Waseca failed to score the extra point.
The Eagles knotted the score in the third period. Mansoor dashed across from the 35 -yard line on a nice run to put NU back in the all game. The Waseca line, determining not to lose the lead, blocked Monte's attempted conversion.

Dunn Runs 90 yds.
The Blue Jays were held deep in their own territory before kicking. NU then gave back the ball to the victors on a fumble.
Waseca fumbled returning the pigskin to New Ulm who in turn kieked on fourth down to the 10 yard stripe. Then came Dunns terrific run of 90 yards to the promised land. The run forged Waseca into the lead 12 to 6 .
New Ulm tried vainly to come back, but a fourth down interception ended a drive for pay dirt. Waseca then marched to the 33 where Dunn took over and breeped ver for the game's last touchdown making the final score -18 to 6 in favor of Waseca.

Among the new members of our for either the pep fest or homecomfaculty we find Audrey Olson, a ing. She's sorry but she won't be graduate of St. Olaf, who is our able to make it. clothing teacher. Miss Olson originally taught at Milaca and is one of our rivals from Hutchinson.
Miss Olson says she is surprised at the interest and enthusiasm of the members in her class; they have a lot of pep and like school; that's what makes it a lot easier for her. Right now the classes are working on fall fashions; she says they are all fashion-minded.
There is a sad note in this story though. Miss Olson won't be here

Seniors To Compete For Scholarships

High school seniors again will have a chance to compete for the Pepsi-Cola college scholarships. The seniors will elect the classmates. who they think are qualified to enter the competition. A preliminary test will be given in our school Friday, November 21.
The seniors who are selected have a chance to win a four-year college scholarship or a college entrance award. The first is awarded to two seniors in the state and the latter awarded to the five runner-up sen-

One of the new teachers in Senior high is Virgil Halligan, who is in charge of our speech department. He is originally from Blue Earth, Minnesota. Before coming here, he graduated from Gustavus and taught while he was in the army for a year.
Mr. Halligan likes New Ulm very much, especially the clean streets, lawns, boulevards and parks. He likes the school too, especially his speech department. The cooperation of the student body and the faculty has been excellent.

Another one of our new teachers is Miss Ellen Mueller in physical education. She attended St. Olaf for two years. Then she went to Gustavus Adolphus and graduated from there. Her home is in Arlington. This summer she spent her vacation in California, went to modeling school and did a lot of ice skating. She also attended Jewell School of Dance. She likes the ocean the best of all. Miss Mueller likes New Him. ler likes New Ulm and the girls, 一 her best student, she says, is one with a sense of humor and lots of enthusiasm. Her hobbies skating and horseback riding.

Fine Food Flys From All Home Ec. Classes
"What's cookin" in the home ec. department? Well, the freshmen girls are still canning. They've canned peaches, pears, plums, apples and tomatoes. This week they will start making jams, jellies, and marmalades. The senior boys are doing some what the same thing.
The junior girls are preparing fresh fruit desserts.

This past week you might have seen some odd things happening in study hall, one in particular was the unior and senior girls drawing dresses for dolls. No, they're not in their second childhood yet. They're designing dresses. After that they will study the different types of weaves, textiles and sewing machine attachments.
The sophomore girls are also studying the different types of weaves, textiles and fabrics suitable for woolen garments.
The seventh and eighth grades have completed their thimble and needle dolls and will learn the different seams and how to operate the sewing machines. In a few weeks they will begin making pajamas.

Freedom Train Shows History

Renee Reim

Have you heard about the Freedom Train? It's coming you way amid more advance planning and fanfare than Barnum and Bailey's circus ever had It's plan ning to visit 300 cities in the United States for one and two-day stands.
The red, white, and blue Freedom Train is a seven-car railroad train carrying a precious load of documents on board-treaties, the surrender documents of World War II, and original drafts of the Constitution and Declaration of Independence, just to name a few. The documents themselves are encased in plastic so that no accident can mar them.

Notes In The Mews

Move Hep!

Well it looks like we'll have a pretty good swing band this year. At least Mr. Strang says there are possibilities, especially after the last possibilities, especially after the last two rehearsals. Some of the pieces which are being practiced, and which are strictly on the beam are "The Johnson Rag," "The More I See You," and "For You, For Me Forever More." No special date has been set for appearance but I'm sure we'll all be waiting.

Marching On and On

The band members are going to form ALUM on Johnson Field on Oct. 3 to honor the alumni of this will be "Grand played with this will be "Grand Old Grads."

Bills a croakin'

Miss Anderson: [in a serious tone of voice] "All right there, stop that talking.'
Bill Dempsey: "I'm not talking."
Miss Anderson: "You looked like you were talking.
Bill: "I'm sorry, I'll try not to look like that again."

Rusthing the Season: I suppose as you come down the hall you'll hear someone singing "Twas the Nite Before Christmas." Well, Miss Anderson was able to get Fred Waring's version of this number and so the choir will sing it for the Christmas program. It really is beautiful if it gets worked up a bit.

Solid, but def.
Hey kids, if you want to hear some solid sax boogies, just come around Mr. Strang, who is simply a wonder.
By the way, Marv Tenhoff and his orchestra will play for the Homecoming dance on Oct. 3. His band hails from Mankato. So-longkids!

New Ulm Will Shine Tonight;
Oh, I can hardly wait until tonight, can you? Homecoming is always such a big event with so many things, fashions fer-in-stance to talk about. There will be all the darling new outfits that were planned weeks ahesd, just waiting to be sported tonight. There will be our pretty queen and her attendants all royally garbed; the band will be all decked out and so will the team because we're going to win. Isn't that a gorgeous thought?

Just to be a black sheep I'm going to talk about something for a little minute that doesn't have direct bearing on the big day, but on every day. I'm speaking of the new, darling hunks of extravagant necessity that we use to hold our skirts up in some cases, but for decoration most-beits, what to hold our skirts up in some cases, but for decoration most-beits, what else? The newest is a red leather with a wide center narrowing out around the back, having two little slots just big enuf to hold nickels. It's called a coke-cash case, and mighty handy in the larger schools where they have coke machines. That is a good idea, our school is large enough.

Cheers to the Cheers to the Waseca band and majorettes for the performance they put on two weeks ago. The band, dressed in gray trousers, royal blue jackets and hats, with gold braid looked very sharp. The majorette wore a cream suit with tails and gold trim. All in all, the performance was striking, as well as their appearance.

See you all at the game and dress warm.
