Wilbert Brey Is Date Set for BackAfter Three Annual Bread-Weeks of School Baking Contest

Wilbert Brey, N. U. H. S. senior, who recently returned from Chicago, spent three weeks going to school where he learned the intricacies of the teletype setter, perforator and reperperforator. To those not educated in newspaper printing, it is a system of operating a linotype machine.

Misses 3-Weeks School

Bud had to obtain the approval of his teachers to miss three weeks of high school in order to go to Chicago to attend teletype school. When he returned to N. U. H. S. he was faced with a lot of make up work, but now has that situation well in hand.

The time Bud spent away from school was not wasted for he expects to work as a type setter on a newspaper when he graduates this June.

To explain the technical aspects of the teletype setter, "perf", and "reperf" would take pages of writing. In short, a perforator is like a typewriter; but instead of typing on paper [continued on page 4]

The activities of the home economics department during the next month will be quite varied. A bread-baking contest and a study of men's clothing are some of the future plans.

Plans for the annual bread baking contest are now being formulated. April 5 or 6 are the tentative dates.

A new cadet teacher from the University, Janet Falkenhagen, will come the last week of March to teach foods.

The boys' clothing class will be having a unit on men's clothing in the near future. Such problems as how to choose a hat to suit the shape of the face, and whether to wear a single or double breasted suits are included in the unit. The boys have been doing personality rating and have been studying the various phases of etiquette, such as date and travel etiquette. They have also been learning how to buy luggage and how to pack it correctly.

Mr. De Mott has had experience as a clown with some of America's leading circuses, including The Hagenbeck and Wallace Circus and The Cole Bros. Circus, as well as a comedian in other branches of the entertainment profession.

Coach Ness Praises "Good Team'

Eagles Win District Tourney;

Cares and worries were thrown to the wind on one of the most joyful days N.U.H.S. has witnessed for four years. The Eagle basketball team had reached a hard fought for goal-the District Ten Basketball Championship of 1949, by defeating Redwood.

The team, coaches, and the audience merged into one as the final buzzer ended the district playoffs. Yelling, hugging, kissing, hand shaking, and back slapping were all common things to behold. The Nessmen had come through to win and the audience went wild with their approval.

Typical comments made were, "Next, the Regional", "State tour-ney, here we come", "There's nothing stopping us now", but there were some who stayed more on the conservative side and decided not to commit themselves by split, second prophecies. These were few and far between.

The jubilance of the crowd was not confined to the auditorium, but was carried along to parties and gatherings all over New Ulm.

previous tourney games were played over and over by followers of the team, both young and old.

Team Deserves Honor Words of praise were heaped on the players of the team that had risen from the cellar to become one of the top teams in the state.

The players and fans alike agree that credit should be given to the Eagles' mentor, Morris Ness. He has taught, coached, and worked with the team to develop them into a first-rate ball club.

Mr. Ness was asked for a brief statement on the game he took on a serious look and said, "It wasn't just a hot team that beat Redwood; it was a good team." Smilingly he added, "It's the greatest thing that's ever happened to me."

By the time this issue comes off the press the results of the Regional Tournament shall be known. But regardless of the outcome, the New Ulm Eagles won the District Championship of 1949, and that is something to go down in the annals of N.U.H.S. history.

Soph Practice Teacher, New Senior Student Both Pleased with NUHS

Norman Bernholtz, the new senior boy, is from Carroll, Iowa. His subjects in Iowa were agriculture, mechanical drawing, biology and American history. Here he is taking metal shop, American history, biology, and agriculture. He has one sister but she is not in school. When asked what his impression of New Ulm High School was he said, "I think it's pretty swell."

Joyce Moore of Hopkins, Minnesota is practice teaching English 10 and Speech here till March 25. Miss Morre, a former student of Hopkins high school, is in her final year at Gustavus Adolphus college where she majors in both English and speech. Visit With Charles Olstad

It was 5 o'clock. On the door of the University Hospital I read: Visiting hours-2-4. But with crossed fingers I went in and asked if I might see Charlie Olstad. After a moment's hesitation the head nurse nodded and said, "Station 43, to your right".

I walked down several corridors, around several corners and finally emerged in a boys' ward. I just looked.

"Fuzzy", came from the corner by the windows.

"Charlie"!! Silence.

To have something to say, I blurted out that I was afraid they weren't going to let me see him because of the visiting hours. His remark put me at ease-"They most likely thought you were my mother."

Following this was an hour such as I have seldom experienced before. The fine disposition and sense of humor displayed by these boys was edifying. Each was there for a different reason-polio, appendicitis, and even mental illness but all shared everything-even visitors. The M. P. ran all the errands. While I was there he brought in a survey Charlie had taken of all the patients. Charlie is editor of the hospital paper. It comes out when ever they have enough material and is about the size of the Eaglet. Just by glancing at the survey you could learn a lot about the thoughts and hopes of each patient. Under the column "What do you want to be"? was listed everything from a husband to priest. A few girls even wanted to be nurses, although a very talkative, flirtatous 10-year old [I later found out he was the one who wanted to be a husband] named Peter couldn't see why girls wanted to be nurses unless they were like Miss Mange. Miss Mange, the rest informed me. was the best-looking nurse on the floor.

From what I saw in one hour, all the nurses deserve bouquets for the wonderful work they're doing.

Under "The favorite food column", Charles had pears. By a strange coincidence, they had pears for supper. The patient's favorite songs ranged from "Silent Night" to "Dear Old Maple High."

Charlie is now able to be out of the iron lung at all times. But the first two nights he was out completely, he said he barely slept at all. Now, however, he feels quite relaxed and talks almost normally. He can't walk yet, but he can hold things-things like a letter! And if you're ever in the cities, don't fail to go to see him. You'll never forget it! I know, I

X-Ray Is Important In Finiding Disease

"O. K., Let's X-Ray" is the slogan on dozens of colorful posters going up this week in store windows around town to advertise the mobile x-ray unit coming to New Ulm in April.

The Christmas Seal organization has estimated that there are about half a million persons in the United States with tuberculosis. Half of that half million do not know they have the disease. In its early stages, TB often shows no symptoms. A chest x-ray can find tuberculosis; it can show the extent of damage done by TB germs in the lungs.

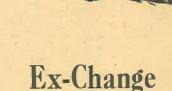

Brown county is hoping to better the 93 percent top rating achieved by Steele county in its survey, according to Mr. Victor P. Reim, who is county x-ray chairman. Every student can help this county achieve its goal by seeing that his whole family and all his friends are x-rayed.

Nearly 60,000 Americans die each year from tuberculosis. That is why county Christmas Seal workers are urging every New Ulm high school student to have a chest x-ray and make sure his lungs are healthy. The x-ray survey began in this county March 9.

"An x-ray picture of your lungs may not be as good-looking as a picture of your face but it's more important. A portrait shows you something you can see every day by looking in the mirror," says a news release from the state Christmas Seal organization. "The x-ray will tell whether your lungs are as healthy as you feel."

Tuberculosis is still the first cause of death among United States people between the ages of 15 to 45, the state Christmas Seal organization announces.

Redwood Tumbled In District Finals; Brownton Edges New Ulm DISTRICT 10 REGION 3 Cardinals No Match BrowntonEliminates As Eagles Win 51-35 New Ulm From Play Championship Game 43-40 In Regional

New Ulm won a comparatively easy tussle from Redwood Falls 51-36 to win the District Ten championship trophy before a packed house of over 1500 fans.

Harlon Sauer proved the big gun as the junior center got 15 points to pace his mates and take game honors. Junior Don Boelter collected 12 and soph Hugh Sweetman 11 to round out the double digit numbers for the winners.

Wayne Arms and Eldred Patton who had averaged 18 points apiece in previous district games came out with 10 and seven points respectively.

New Ulm pulled into an early 10-3 lead at the quarter and held on through a third period Cardinal rally and poured it on in the fourth canto to pile up a 15 point win.

Sauer sent the Eagles on their merry way in the first period. Hugh Sweetman lead the scoring in the second quarter and again Sauer came back to lead the Nessmen in the third installment. Don Boelter got half of his points in the final period of play.

Eagles Win Semi-Final 54-42 From Lamberton Hawks

New Ulm hit their scoring peak with a 54-42 District Ten win over the"Lamberton Blackhawks in the semi-finals as Hugh Sweetman again paced the Eagles with 17 points.

The Eagles had their best scoring balance of a balanced attack during the season as four players hit double numbers. Harlan Bauermeister and Harlon Sauer each drilled 11 points and Don Boelter bagged another 10.

New Ulm was pressed to win from the Blackhawks until the final period when once more the Eagles broke loose with a scoring deluge to win the semi-final game.

Lamberton forward Hansen hit the game high with 22 points on eight baskets and six free throws.

Sauer's defensive job on tourney

Brownton continued undefeated for another game at New Ulm high school's expense when they fought off a last period surge by the Eagles to win their 23 straight 43-40 in a rough-tough Region three opener.

Brownton's unorthodox defense stifled the Eagles and led to the continued fouling of both teams. Each team lost four players via the five foul route and a total of 60 fouls were called, 33 being on New Ulm.

on by the Eagles with most of the regulars watching from the sidelines. Dennis Nelson, Eugene Sandmann, Harlon Sauer, Wayne Hayes and Don Boelter gave New Ulm fans hope. Nelson lead the spark at the end of the third period and Sandmann relit those hopes in the last.

New Ulm had chances of catching the Bears twice during the game but Brownton would push ahead to win the three point occasion.

Eagle Captain Receives Trophy

Happiness and pride in his teammates is expressed by Captain Harlan Bauermeister as Supt. J. J. Salzwedel of Gaylord hands him the district championship trophy. Hugh Sweetman eagerly looks on.

By Scoop, Sports Editor

New Ulm's Eagles came through with flying colors to win the District. Ten basketball championship from Redwood Falls.

It was the first District 10 win since the wonder club consisting of Herb Furth, Don Eichten, Don Fenske, Jack Pollei and Stan Martinka graduated in 1946.

A coaching tribute to Morris Ness and Vernon Zahn and many honors to the squad. The team played championship ball to win in the District and gave the New Ulm high school cage fans quite a season of basketball thrills. The team also won a very good share of their games when they won 15 and lost only six. But, remember we lost four games by a total of seven points.

The custom of picking an all-star team, so to speak, has dropped from the District playoffs. Everybody makes their own, but here's a few teams that would be outstanding if they played together. Cinch to anybody's ball clubs would be Wayne Arms, Harlan Bauermeister and probably a few more.

My teams are based on their performance in the District meet, not regular season play. I saw two games at Redwood Falls and the remainder here. Doing a little talking with other sport editors my teams are boiled down to this. There will be difference but here took the Regional.

The losing team always has their excuses, but I feel very, very, justified in saying that the officials at Glencoe had about as much to do with our loss as anything else. Now don't get me wrong, I'm not crying or complaining, I'm saying they were as lousy a pair of officials as I have ever seen work an important game.

Even the best officials have their off nights and miss more than they usually do. They don't call them right all the time. How can the Regional committee select an official that had not worked a game during the entire season for the tournament? Let's not have the same mistake next year. At least have them ref somewhere during the season. Best yet would be have the best officials from the "range" come down here and send our best to the north. The officials wouldn't know the teams and the control of the game would be simpler.
