Basket Ball Season Opens

NEW ULM LOSES TO MADELIA, 12-6

In a game played on a snow-covered gridiron, accompanied by zero weather, the Madelia High School football team defeated the New Ulm gridders 12-6.

The first touchdown for the Madelia boys came early in the first quarter, through a series of penalties and several line plays. Arndt, New Ulm's tackle, kicked off against the strong wind; Madelia getting the ball on their thirty-yard line, made a weak return, but from penalties in succession, totaling four, because of offsides, the ball was put in New Ulm's territory; and this, combined with several hard line smashes, put the oval across. Their try for point failed, however.

Recovered Fumble Scores.

Madelia scored their second touchdown after a long midfield session of hard fighting. Both teams seesawed on equal terms, and it seemed as though the first score would decide the contest, when suddenly the tide turned. The ball, being fumbled by the New Ulm backfield, because cold weather prevailed, was scooped up by a feet Madelia back, who raced forty-five yards for a touchdown, putting the score at 12-0, as their try for point again failed.

New Ulm Parade Starts.

At the start of the fourth quarter, the Lavender and White attacked their opponents' goal line with so great a force that their advancement could not be repulsed. Line smashes, cross-backs, and end-runs soon made things different; and a beautiful pass, Rieke to Pfaender, who received it over Madelia's goal line, placed the score at 12-6. Rieke's kick for point missed by inches. This ended the scoring for both teams, although Madelia threatened to score in the closing minutes only to be met by New Ulm's stonewall.

The following players started the game for New Ulm: Berg, Kosek, ends; Arndt, Rieke, tackles; R. Emmerich, Becker, guards; J. Emmerich, center; Stelljes, Regelin, Marti, and Feller, backfield. Substitutions: Vogel for Becker, Pfaender for Feller, Beecher for Marti, Simons for Stelljes.

FIRST DEBATE OF SEASON WITH REDWOOD FALLS.

The first debate of the season will be with Redwood Falls on December 16 in the High School Auditorium. Redwood Falls will uphold the negative and New Ulm the affirmative of this question: Resolved: "That the U. S. should construct an All-American, Great Lakes-Atlantic waterway, rather than cooperate with Canada in the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence project."

If hard work is an indication of the caliber of a team, we certainly have an excellent one, and it is to be hoped (Continued on page 4.)

S. E. H. S. ORCHESTRA RENDERS CONCERT

A musical treat was enjoyed by those who attended the concert of the Sleepy Eye Symphony orchestra, last Tuesday. The following program was rendered:

PART I.

March: "National Guard" ..... Mackie-Beyer
Selection: "Faust" ..... Gounod
No. 1: "Tzigani Dances" ..... Carrie Jacobs Bond
Novelette: "Star Blossom" ..... Fredric Knight Logan
Vocal: "I Passed by Your Window" ..... Miss Olive Prescott
—Miss Olive Prescott. M. H. Brahe
A Spanish Waltz Song: "Dreamy Sevilla" ..... F. K. Logan

Intermission.

PART II.

A Japanese Intermezzo: "Tea Cup Tinkles" ..... F. K. Logan
"Wedding of the Winds" ..... John T. Hall
Idyll: "The Mill in the Forest" ..... Rich Elimberg
Solo: "I Heard You Go By" ..... Miss Olive Prescott
..... Daniel Wood
No. 2: "Tzigani Dances" ..... Carrie Jacobs Bond
Caprice: "Butterflies" ..... Chas. L. Johnson
The vocal solos by Miss Olive Prescott were particularly well received by the audience.

FORMER H. S. INSTRUCTOR DIES AFTER SHORT ILLNESS.

The Grap os, as representative of the entire New Ulm High School, wishes to take the opportunity to express its regret over the recent death of Mr. Ralph Camp, former history instructor in the High School. Mr. Camp died at his home in Fargo, N. D., after a short illness.

NIGHT SCHOOL.

In order to give parents an opportunity to visit the High School, the first three class periods were held Wednesday evening, November 16. It was disappointing that the crowd was not larger, but those who were here showed much interest and appreciation of the work of the students. Unfortunately, the lights went out for a period of twenty minutes. This irritated some of the pupils, especially those in German, because they had spent all afternoon studying a certain poem they were supposed to read that night. The majority of the students, however, felt very much at home in the dark. Immediately after the classes were over, the following program was given:

Program.

Two musical selections ..... N. U. H. S. Orchestra
Solo ..... Miss Yaeger
Two musical selections ..... Girls' Glee Club

"HEARTLESS HOUSE" OPERETTA POSTPONED

Because of a change made in the program schedule, it has been found necessary to postpone the presentation of the operetta, The Heartless House. The operetta will be given some time during the last week in January instead of on December 8. This change of date will, no doubt, be disappointing to many, but the probability is that it will result in a larger attendance and greater receipts for the Glee Club. The great number of movies, plays, and other entertainments occurring before Christmas might result in a small crowd, and for this reason it has seemed advisable to change the date.

In place of the operetta, the members of the Glee Club have planned to have a Christmas party on the evening of December 16 at the High School.

JUNIOR PLAY NETS $163.25.

The Junior Class play, Miss Lulu Bett, presented at Turner Hall, Nov. 17, was attended by a fairly large crowd; and as a result, the sum of $163.25 was taken in. Of this amount, approximately $67.65 was cleared.

The play itself was very well done, and those who took part in it are to be congratulated. The musical numbers by the High School orchestra, and the entertainment between acts, furnished by Hazel Buchholz, Imelda Ochs, and Alice Bong, completed the program.

WE SEEK—BUT MANY CANNOT FIND.

Freshies, Freshies, everywhere. Students "digging" in the library. Seniors on the Honor Roll. Ollie Harbo studying from 8 p. m. to 1 a. m.

DoDo P. in Home Ec. Pupils studying in the assembly. Alice Olson chewing gum. Virgil students rejoicing over a long lesson.

Laura Celle in deep thought. Miss Ritt not good natured. "Skamp" Huelskamp unhappy. Fat Epple and Tony Simmet not gossiping.

The answers to all questions.

Jim: "When do you do your hardest work?"

Joe: "Before breakfast always."

Jim: "What do you do?"

Joe: "Try to get out of bed."

Joe Wiedl: "In our Manual Training exam, Mr. Cunningham asked about pieces of wood that we never saw or heard of before."

J. Bianchi: "Oh, he expected you to get it out of your heads."

A pessimist is an optimist who endeavored to practice what he preached.

Coach W. A. Stover Issues First Call for Cage Men, Monday.

The thundering herd of "gridders" was silenced for another season, when Coach Stover called his basket ball candidates to colors, Monday.

Prospects Not So Bright.

Despite the fact that over thirty-five men responded to the first call, prospects for developing a team equal to the calibre of last year's aggregation are dark, because last year's team was phenomenal. Esser, Schroepel, and Schoch, are the three lettermen back from last year's squad, but this does not mean very much because only one of these, namely Schroepel, will be able to play the entire season. Esser will become ineligible in January, and Schoch will see very little service, if any, on account of injuries received during the football season. Beecher, Feller, and Rieke, all of whom were members of last year's "A" squad, constitute the remainder of the experienced men.

Some promising material may be developed, however, among some of the lower classmen, such as Emmerich, Marti, Arndt, Stelljes, Pfaender, Regelin, and Hintz.

Consequently, the success of our new team by the time of the tournament will depend chiefly on how fast these players will develop.

The following schedule has been secured.

Dec. 9—Winthrop, here.

Dec. 17—Arlington, here.

Dec. 22—Gaylord, there.

Jan. 14—Sleepy Eye, here.

Jan. 20—Lamberton, there.

Jan. 21—Springfield, there.

Jan. 27—Redwood Falls, here.

Feb. 3—Lamberton, here.

Feb. 4—Winthrop, there.

Feb. 10—Sleepy Eye, there.

Feb. 17—Redwood Falls, there.

Feb. 27—Gaylord, here.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION SPONSORS "THE DROP KICK."

The movie, sponsored by the Athletic Association, Monday and Tuesday nights, drew large crowds. The money netted is to be used to pay the expenses of the association. The movie was The Drop Kick, featuring Richard Barthelmess. It met with everyone's favor because it was an active football story.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM PROMISES FUTURE TREAT.

A very interesting program was arranged by the committee for last Friday's assembly. The following numbers were given:

Vocal Solo ..... Ruth Wicherski
Flag Drill ..... 5th and 6th Grade Girls
Vocal Duet ..... Miss Yaeger, Miss McGee
Doll Dance ..... Ruth Wicherski
Alice Bong

After the program "Fat" Leonard led the student body in a few yells in order to stir up some spirit for the (Continued on page 4.)

PERSONALITY.

Personality, that marvelous and rare quality, is very mysterious to those without it. They cannot understand why some can sell real estate or be successful in other fields while they plod along at their same old pace. In other words, with personality, one can do practically everything; without it, one is as insignificant as the pebbles on the beach.

Goethe, himself, a great personality, once said that "the greatest good fortune of earth's children is personality. Certainly, everyone, especially those who lack this powerful quality, realize that there is a great deal of truth in that statement. One, however, does not have to search through volumes of history in order to find personalities; they can be found in our own high school.

That these are in the minority is true enough, but even those who are minus a remarkable personality can cultivate it to some extent. How is this possible? By "taking an inventory of oneself," as Mr. Dirks says, and then comparing it with the person who has a personality is the first step. Having noted his own shortcomings, he will try to remedy them. These two steps pursued patiently and earnestly will win for anyone the most powerful asset possessed by human beings.

REMINISCENT OF BLESSINGS ON THANKSGIVING DAY.

November has come and gone again; with it came the last football games of the season, a few exams, and to cap the climax, Thanksgiving Day, which for a short time relieved us of our regular school routine.

The general opinion is that this short relief from work is the first item on the students' list of blessings. Any old philosopher will tell you that's the wrong attitude toward Thanksgiving, that you can be thankful the schoolhouse didn't burn down, and so forth. These are two extremes, the first claiming the greater number. Whatever you do, be thankful for what, in your eyes, seems to be a blessing to you. And since we have all been blessed in some way or other, let us all from now on, according to the old hymn, "Count our blessings, name them one by one."

STUDENT OPINION.
A SUNLIGHT DANCE.

We have a fine gymnasium, a peppy orchestra, and many good dancers; so why aren't we having some sunlight dances after school? They're a great remedy for worn-out minds and tired bodies! Why not ask permission from our worthy head officials?—Suggestion from a Student.

The Graphos asks those of you who have opinions to express on this idea to write them out and drop them in the Graphos box, in the assembly. If a sufficient number of students express a desire for such dances and a willingness to cooperate in making them successful, they may be worth consideration.

EXCHANGES

The Graphos, New Ulm, Minn.: Your front page make up is very good and worthy of praise. Your humor is also good.—Star of the North, Virginia, Minn.

The Orange and Black, Gibbon, Minn.: Your paper is excellent; we like it very much. Call again.—Graphos, New Ulm, Minn.

The Freshmen of Marshall High were tortured at the Sophomore party and were also made to kiss the Blarney stone.—The Tiger Herald, Marshall, Minn.

The Echo, Faribault, Minn., sends us their sympathy because of our captain's illness, which prevents his playing the rest of the season.

The students of the Medford High School have decided to show the teachers of the school that they know how to keep the school neat.—Medford Exhaust, Medford, Minn.

The Tattler, Windom, Minn.: We like your paper very much, but it lacks one thing and that is an Exchange column. Why don't you add an Exchange column? You will see that it will improve your paper very much.—Graphos, New Ulm, Minn.

The Graphos, New Ulm, Minn., states that the Junior Class will present their play, "Miss Lulu Bett," on November 19th. We wish you great success, Juniors!—The Ybnac, Canby, Minn.

"I may be down, but not out," said the ball player as he was sliding to the touchdown goal.—Winnewissa Ripples, Pipestone, Minn.

Power of Suggestion.

Joe: "Why are your socks wrong side out, Jim?"

Jim: "My feet were hot and I turned the hose on them."

Saying It With Sales Talk.

Pretty Saleswoman: "Don't you want a talking machine in your home?"
He: "My dear, this is so sudden."

FRESHMEN NOTES.

Night school was a novel experience for us. We wonder, however, why the lights went out. We were very sad (?) when in some of our classes we could not do much work. Nevertheless, a "good time was had by all."

Last week during six weeks' tests, we found that many had developed the "Test Fever," and remained at home, presumably in bed. We wonder?

The Seniors have given us several ominous warnings as to what to expect in the line of initiations later on. "Spare us, O Upper Classmen!" we cry. "Think of the time when you were also verdant Freshmen, and have mercy on us!"

SOPHOMORE NOTES.

Famous Sayings:

"Miss Kearns uses the key method, but she keeps her door locked."

John Mills (ask the author for the explanation).

"Marguerite, why are you laughing?"—Miss Kearns.

"Wasn't the 'night' part of night school grand?"—Irma Dietz.

"Oh, the snaky women!"—Armin Pufahl.

"Why' is the word that makes many an English II student's heart sink."—XYZ.

"Why?"—Hilary Oppliger.

"Oh, nothing."—Renola Frank.

"What was the date?"—Appolonia Huhn in history class.

"Am I not correct?"—Edw. Hage.

"Pronounce it."—Miss Treadwell.

"Oh, how 'dumb' we are!"—The Sophomore class in general.

Have we misers in our class? At least, we hope not. Miss Kearns is patiently waiting for the money to pay for the book report sheets, and our class officers are waiting for the class dues. Sophomores, show them they are not waiting in vain.

"Whispers in the dark." What does that mean? It refers to the Latin II. class of last Wednesday evening. Because of the dark, a few were good enough to help the others.

Notice to Sophomores: Miss Holzinger has just received some new children's books, which you will enjoy. Some of them are: "Bunny Rabbit," "Dicky Dare," and "The Story of a Cat." Do not pass by this splendid opportunity for reading some of the best known books although they might be a trifle too hard.

JUNIOR NOTES.

We are glad to have Alice Vercoe back again after a three weeks' absence.

The cast of the Junior class play certainly worked hard and were rewarded by a fairly large audience.

Miss Steinhauser: "Alfred, please tell the class of what your market basket is made."

Alfred Arndt: "It's made of wine."

Miss Steinhauser: "Of wine?"

Alfred A.: "No, I mean of grape vines."

"Fat" Arndt came to evening school with his hair curled, and now all the girls want to have curly hair like "Fat's." The only trouble is "Fat" won't tell where he had his crowning glory curled.

If you have an idea, or an opinion to express, write it out and deposit it in the Graphos Box.

FEATURE

EXAMINITIS.

Examinitis is a disease very common among students; some are immune to it. Vaccination ineffective.

CAUSE—

Due to bacilli of procrastination. Implanted at the beginning of term, lie dormant for months, sudden awakening near end of term. Bacilli prevalent on scholastic premises. Very infectious.

SYMPTOMS—

General excitement and great fear. Mental depression and gloom, as though a cloud had settled over patient.

Gone feeling, extending over frontal, parietal, and occipital regions.

Sensation of weakness and sinking in pit of stomach.

Brains feel swollen, too large for cranium.

Marked tendency to early rising, but late retiring.

Abnormal ambition; sudden mania for cramming.

Loss of appetite, craving for stimulants; strong coffee.

Sensation in bed as though he or she were sinking deep down.

Sighs and groans—worse on reflection of condition.

Confusion of mind as if intoxicated; wild, wandering feeling.

DIAGNOSIS—

This disease is peculiar in that all the symptoms are present, thus facilitating diagnosis.

PROGNOSIS—

Very severe onset; periods of relief at intervals, during second week as inflated brain cells function and relax. At end of second week patient revives, takes new interest in life.

COMPLICATIONS—

Mental Relapse—This may occur anywhere from second week to a month after attack subsides. Close watch must be given, as patient often succumbs to this.

PROPHYLAXIS—Very desirable, but a condition very difficult and almost impossible to obtain.

Patient must have absolute quietness—no disturbance whatever. Proper light and good ventilation. One meal daily, served in quiet of patient's room. Light diet—stimulating drinks.

However, these all tend to excite bacilli and thus encourage progress of disease; therefore the most satisfactory and immediate relief is experienced by three weeks removal from school premises.—Exchange.

NEW BOOKS.

The library has already received about $200 worth of children's books. There are also six new Social Science books by Fay, a ten-volume set of pictured encyclopedias, and vol. 10 of the class-room. There are, moreover, twelve new Emily Doehne-Strickler books, namely:

- The Thunderer .....E. Barington
- Speak to the Earth .....S. Comstand
- Arrogant Beggar .....A. Yezienska
- Forever Free .....H. W. Marrow
- Emily's Quest .....L. M. Montgomery
- The Long Pass .....R. H. Barborer
- The Cule .....M. Johnston
- Let's Go .....L. Freemore
- Hankey's Room Mate....W. P. Eaton
- Christmas in Modern Story.....
- .....Van Brien and Bennis
- The Grandmothers .....G. Westcott

Dear Old Fat Head:—

As I have nothing to do, and wish to do it, I tout I would took my pen and bottle of ink in mine handt and typewrite you a few ladders, please excuse dis lead pencile.

We are all well ad present, except my brudder; he was kicked in the suburbans last night by a mule—de mule is not expected to live.

Your rich aunty who died from pat-pitipation of the heart when you was here is still deadt and doing nicely. Hope this will find you the same. After she diedt da found fifteen thousand dollars sewed up in an old bus-sell that she had left behind, so you are therefore no longer a poor man but a dutchman.

Your brudder will went to work dis morning de job will last about six months, but might get out sooner on good behavior.

I saw your little 'boy this morning for the first time I think he looks just like you, but he is all right otherwise, so I would not worry about dat if I was you.

I am sending you by Adams Express your overcoat, and as day charge so much a pound to sent it, I cut off de buttons. Hoping this will prove satisfaction. You will find de buttons in de inside pocket.

I almost forgot to tell you I got married last week. I got a pretty good wife. She is from Milo, but I think I could have got a better one at Westerville, as they have a larger stock to select from.

As this is all I got to say, I will klose my face and expect you to do the same. Hoping this will reach you before you get it, and that you will answer before dat, I remain your con-fectiionery second to the last kousin.
Otto Mobile.

P. S.—In case you do not get this letter, write me and let me know and I will sendt it to you at onced.

that the student body will show its appreciation of their efforts by giving their support in every way possible.

NIGHT SCHOOL. (Continued from page 1.)

The Home Economics II. girls exhibited the garments that they made this year; and the dining room which they refinished was open for inspection. The Home Economics I. class served a delicious lunch immediately after the program. They also had a food sale from which they netted thirty-two dollars. This money was raised to pay for refurnishing the dining room.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM. (Continued from page 1.)

Mankato game. Mr. Stover was called upon to give a harmonica solo, but he preferred to talk about the Mankato game. We are looking forward to a solo performance by Mr. Stover in the near future.

HUMOR.

If everything were just as people wish it were:

Harold Stelljes would be a D. A. R. History student.

Fat Arndt would be the world's most witty man.

Fred Rengsdorf's hair would be as slick as Bob Paulson's.

Charles Veecck would be master in the library.

Adeline Moll would be 5 ft., 7.

Helen Krook would have the world at her feet.

Alyce Lindmeyer's nose would reach heaven.

Margaret Galloway would be a master in the art of argument.

Alvin Rolloff would be a Daniel Webster.

James Beecher would have a secretary to do his Higher Algebra.

If you have an idea, or an opinion to express, write it out and deposit it in the Graphos Box.

Miss Yaeger (while teaching a Frosh how to sing): "Ruth, put your finger where you are singing."

And Ruth promptly put her finger in her mouth.

Ben: "The girls in our office wear desk hosiery."

Joe: "What do you mean— desk hosiery?"

Ben: "Rolled tops."

"Oh, Johnnie, how did you ever get such a black eye?"

"Because I did not choose to run, mother."

Lusty Language.

Lady: "Isn't it wonderful how a single policeman can dam the flow of traffic?"

Boy: "Yes, Grannie, but you should hear the bus drivers."

Blessings on you, little man,
Freshman lad of three feet, ten,
With thine elephantine ears
And thine age of thirteen years,
And thy white head, whiter yet
Bleached by Sophomores thou hast met;

From my heart I wish thee joy
For I was once a Freshman boy.

We know that ignorance is bliss,
'Tis folly to be wise;
So when a maiden gets a kiss,
She always shuts her eyes.
