NUMBER 8

SIEGEL TROPHY CONTEST TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

District Contest Scheduled for New Ulm on February 14.

SIX SCHOOLS ENTERED.

The students of New Ulm High School have been given an opportunity for some years to participate in contests in Oratory and Declamation. A prize was offered by the late Mr. J. H. Siegel for which the various classes compete in an annual contest. Two members of each class are chosen to compete in Oratory for the boys. Two girls from each class are also chosen to enter the Declamatory contest. The boy and girl who are winners in these contests are New Ulm's representatives in the district and state contests. This year the district contest will be held at New Ulm on February 14. The competing schools will be Mankato, St. Peter, New Ulm, Sleepy Eye, Redwood Falls and Gibbon, and a very interesting contest is expected. With this in mind the High School students are especially interested in the Siegel contests which will select New Ulm's representatives.

Siegel Contest.

The boys' contest will be held at 8:00 p. m. on Thursday, January 29. On the following Saturday night, January 31, at 8:00 p. m., will be held the girls' contest. Four Seniors, eight Juniors, seven Sophomores and three Freshmen, making a total of twenty-two girls have entered the Preliminary contest. The Juniors and Seniors held their preliminary on January 22 at 3:00 p. m., and the Sophomores and Freshmen on January 23.

Those entered are:

Seniors.

Hazel Current
 "The Man and the Shadow"
 Lillian Zimmermann. "If I Were King"
 Thelma Rinke "The Only Way"
 Daisy Larson "Thrush"

Juniors.

Mildred Eibner "The Swan Song"
 Alice Schmidt
 "The Soldiers' Reprieve"
 Lola Meyer "Training in Manners"
 Martha Backer
 "The Soul of the Violin"
 Esther Stephan "The Music Master"
 Aurelia Schneider. "The Arena Scene"
 (From Quo Vadis)

Sophomores.

Beatrice Gag
 "Billy Brad and The Big Lie"
 Olivia Meidl "A Soldier of France"
 Adelia Baumann "The Lost Word"

1920 BASKET BALL SEASON OPENED BY BOTH SQUADS

GIRLS WIN THREE STRAIGHT—BOYS SPLIT EVEN IN FOUR GAMES

REDWOOD FALLS TONIGHT

THE MANKATO GAME.

At seven-thirty on December 19th, the whistle blew for the first game of the season. Quickly the girls ran to their positions with the determination to win the game. To tell the truth, the girls were rather scared after seeing the two tall centers of the Mankato Commercial Team. The girls buckled down to business however, at the very minute the whistle blew and were far from being confident of winning, so this accounts for their victory, the score being 32 to 17.

"Wiede" Stars.

"Wiede" and Lil played a fine game. You all know that the baskets "Wiede" made that night were surely good ones. We should like to meet the forwards who could keep up with Minnie and Lola. They completely out-played their opponents as the score will prove. Edna and "Ralie" played their best, though we must admit Ralie had bad luck.

The Mankato girls were game losers and we are eagerly waiting for February 7, when we will play them on their own floor.

They have a good fast team, but who wouldn't with a coach like theirs? Mr. Ward who refereed the game is their coach.

THE ALUMNI GAME.

The Alumni girls were anxious to play us during the Christmas holidays. All their star players were home then and I believe they were rather confident of winning. So on Monday, December 29th, the High School sextette met them for a decisive battle. The teams were evenly matched, although two of our star players were not playing. Minnie, our star guard, who kept Louise from making a single basket last year was home for the holidays. Ekas, who was unable to play in the Mankato game, because she froze her toes, tried to play but after playing a few seconds she had to stop. So two of our stars were unable to play.

Good Guards.

But Lola, who is one of the best little guards, was there, and easily proved that she could keep up with "Ochsie." Aurelia Schneider played guard in Minnie's place, and surely did make Louise and "Geggie" work for the baskets they made. Aurelia is a good player and may be sure of being on the team next year, if she keeps

FIVE GAMES PLAYED.

The local high school basketball team started its present season December 19, and since then has played four more games. Of the games played, the team won two as they defeated the Alumni and also the St. James high school team, while on the other hand they have suffered defeats from the strong Mankato Commercial College team, from our old and ancient rival, Sleepy Eye, and lastly from the Gustavus Adolphus seconds. In the first two games, namely the Mankato and the Alumni games the high school showed rare form and the team worked splendidly, while the last three games the team was slightly off form due to the lack of practice during vacation. Tonight the team meets the Redwood Falls quintet on the opponents floor and a battle royal is expected, as the team has done some very good practicing the last week.

MANKATO COMMERCIAL GAME.

The high school quintet succeeded in holding down the strong Commercial team from Mankato, and the score resulted 31 to 17 in the opponents favor. The score does not rightly indicate the quality of the game for it was very even for three-quarters of the game. The first half ended 11 to 9 in the opponents' favor and if the visiting team had not made a grand rally in the last few minutes of play the score would have been much closer. As it was, the team showed up splendidly by holding such a team, as they are considered of college calibre. The team worked well as a whole, and Ossie was the high point getter for the locals while Juhnke starred for the visitors.

ALUMNI GAME.

On December 29 the team met some of the old high school luminaries and again made a wonderful showing of basket tossing. At the end of the first half the score was 9 to 8 in our opponents' favor, but the high school came back strong and made a grand rally, and the conclusion of the game resulted in a 30 to 19 win for the high school. The game was featured by showing many of the old high school stars in action, but they couldn't overcome the skillful game their younger opponents played.

HIGH SCHOOL PARTY CHEERS IN DEFEAT

Sweet Music Drives Away "Dull Care."

MUSICIANS APPRECIATED.

"Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast."

That must be true!

Why?

Well, you know on Friday, January 9, our old friend Sleepy Eye journeyed down here to play against our boys, and as you all know, captured the bacon.

Now, would you blame our boys if they were a wee bit angry over their defeat?

No, you couldn't blame them at all!

After the game we had a dance in the gymnasium and the Sleepy Eye players and rooters were asked to attend. The High School Orchestra furnished the music and when the strains of some beautiful waltz were heard, all anger left the hearts of our players and they began to enjoy themselves, forgetting their defeat for a few happy hours!

A Royal "Good Time."

Everybody seemed to have a good time, from all appearances. There were several "Lemon Waltzes" but owing to the high price of lemons, a boy's cap was used instead, and thus served the purpose very well. These waltzes caused much merriment throughout the evening. Of course, there were some who did not dance, but they seemed to enjoy watching the others dance.

At eleven o'clock the last number was played by the orchestra and the lights were turned out. This, of course, was a gentle hint for all present "to depart."

Thank You, Mrs. Winner.

The High School Orchestra is to be congratulated on their excellent playing, as everyone who heard them that evening will say. Much praise should also be given Mrs. Winner, who has had charge of the orchestra this year. She may be small—But Oh My!

Congratulations, Orchestra.

The entire High School can be justly proud of our orchestra and if ever the student body has a chance to assist them in any way they should do so willingly.

We hope that Sleepy Eye enjoyed the dance as much as we did and that it helped to pass away a few hours of their long wait for the train. The High School Parties are becoming very popular here in school, and if the students continue to observe the few rules that have been given them, these affairs will surely continue.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 1920.

It's Up To You.

Yes, let the other fellow waste his time swearing at the weather and kicking about his luck and his ill fate, you get busy. Accommodate yourself to the inevitable and manufacture a little fate to suit yourself. The game is worth the candle, in fact, it is worth an entire electric light plant.

One grows in any direction in proportion to the time and energy used. The student if he wishes to attain success, must get into action, intelligent action, persistent action; for matter without action is of no value, and even inaction may be no good, for if the action is from the outside, like the chips floating down the stream, it is worse than being simply of no value or good. The only action that counts in this struggle is action from within, resistance from within, determination from within—brains. Are you putting up the proper resistance to stem the tide or just floating down stream? If the latter, you certainly have lots of company—most people are going in your direction, and will land at the same destination, for which you are headed. Hey there! Ship ahoy! The life-line is out! Will you catch it or will you float peacefully on? It's up to you.

Lack of Time.

It is so easy to put off till tomorrow the task that should be done today that, for no other good reason, many fail to make anything out of themselves. The person that cultivates the habit of doing at once the thing he desires to do, or should do, is the person that succeeds in life, for success is the result of action, not of undecision or of postponing—why do you think that next week, next month, or next year you will have more time than you have now? Do you have more now than you had a month ago. Frankly, have you not just as much time now as you will ever have?—all the time there is going. Remember, while you are losing this moment, someone else is using it and laying the foundation of future success.

One generally finds time to do the thing that one desires to do; be it work or play; too often play.

There is an old saying, "If you are in a hurry and want a thing done quickly; take it to a busy man." Why? The busy man is methodical, works with system, he loses no time thinking about his tasks, but spends it doing them.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

It seems to be the style to take an inventory at the beginning of every year so we will do the same for the Graphos. I think you will all be glad to know that we are still out of debt.

IMPROVEMENTS IN THE HIGH SCHOOL.

The High School has received a new blessing—(although some of us have doubts about its really being one.) It's located down in the Manual Training Dept. If any one should go there to have a look at the curious object, it's Mr. Kirchoff who proudly displays it. And now we come to the point—it, the object, is a planer, also used to join boards. It is manufactured by the Oliver Company. Its price is $245. The most useful thing about it is the noise it makes when operated. Mr. Kirchoff says it sounds like a herd of cows, but we know better—it sounds exactly like a Freshmen class meeting. Mr. Kirchoff takes the opportunity to make known to the general public his desire for a capable operator of the Oliver Planer and Joiner.

NOTICE!

Boys are learning to bake bread. Are they intending to be bachelors? At the last baking the boys even had the better bread.

NEWSY NUGGETS FROM THE NORMAL DEPARTMENT.

(With Apologies to Miss Koch)

Miss Larson has been absent for a week on account of illness. This has given her a chance to catch up in her work.

Miss Current has returned to school after having a light case of the mumps.

Miss Timm was excused Friday afternoon in order to go to Gibbon with the Basketball Team.

Miss Battes substituted for Miss Pfaender Thursday as Therese had disappeared at the fatal moment.

Miss Dietz is nursing a sore throat. Too much night-air in her case.

Miss Rinke is sporting class pins from various places. She happens to be on a pin committee.

The stingiest man was scorning the hired man for his extravagance in wanting to carry a lantern in going to call on his best girl.

"The idea!" he scoffed, "When I was courting I never carried no lantern; I went in the dark."

The hired man went on filling his lantern.

"Yes," he said sadly, and look what you got."

Two Tommies came into a restaurant and ordered Turkey with Greece. Servant: "I'm sorry, but I can't Servia."

Tommies: "Then call the Bosphorous."

The boss came in and said that he could not Russia; so the Tommies went away Hungary.

Eager Shopper: "Where are the demonstrations today?"

Salesman: "No demonstrations on Thursday."

Eager Shopper: "Not even a special sale?"

Salesman: "Special sale in bathtubs, but no demonstration."—Ex.

Jones: "Mr. Smith has forgotten his umbrella again. I believe he would forget his head if it were loose."

Moore: "Yes, you are right. The other day I heard him say that he was going to Switzerland for his lungs."

Mr. Henry: "Your speech seemed to lack polish."

Cy: "I know I did. I've been called a smooth article long enough. I want to treat 'em rough."

"Do you know what the order of Bath is?" the teacher asked Mickey.

"Sure, Ma'am," he replied,—"In our house it's Katy, then me brudder, then me."—Ex.

Freshie: "Why are the muscles in my head smaller than those in my arm?"

Miss Carr: "Because you don't use them so much."

Heard after the High School Party: Young Lochinvar:—"May I go home with you?"

Bright Miss:—"Are you afraid to go home alone?"

Miss Peterson: "Conjugate 'Abide.'"

Freshie: "I abide, I abode, I have a bid."

up her good work. We surely did need her, and appreciate her help immensely.

Lillian was also home, but she is always right there, when basket ball is mentioned, and so she came for the game. She and "Wiede" played a very good game. They had hard guards but they are swift and that counts.

Edna and Ralie outplayed their opponents, and so it was not hard to see that our team would win. We won by a narrow margin, but win we did.
We also believe that, if our other two stars had been able to play, we would have won by a higher score.

The Alumni team had plenty of subs and played a good, clean game but found it impossible to keep up with our team.

The line-up was as follows:

Alumni	High School
Louise Fritsche F.	"Wiede"
Ellen Ochs F.	Lillian
"Billie" Eibner G.	Lola
Agnes Bastian G.	Aurelia
Elda Jahnke R. C.	Edna
Regina Esser J. C.	Ralie

Miss Johnson, who was the girl's coach last year, was here to referee the game. The girls were all very glad to see her back.

Subs: Gladys Grossendorf played in Louise Fritsche's place the second half. Irene Stamm was substituted for Regina Esser and Eleanor Biebl took "Billie" Eibner's place.

Aurelia Schneider was substituted for Ylona Bentdahl.

ST. JAMES GAME.

On January 2 the local team started the year right by winning from the St. James high school team by a score of 28 to 12. The game was not considered very good from the onlooker's point, and the result was that the first game, and lacked the usual pep. The visitors started scoring but the locals soon took the lead and maintained it throughout the game.

SLEEPY EYE GAME.

Last, but not the least, the locals were administered a defeat from the strong team of basket-shooters from our neighboring village of Sleepy Eye.
The game was entirely in the visitors' favor and the locals were very much off form. The visiting team brought a large bunch of rooters along and displayed wonderful pep. The game started promptly at 7:30 and from the first notice of the referee's whistle the Sleepy Eye aggregation was in the lead and never throughout the whole game was the score very close. The locals simply couldn't get started, while the opponents were adding point upon point, and the result was that the first half was unanimously in favor of the visitors, the score being 18 to 5.

The locals came back strong the second half and started scoring but the lead was too great to overcome, although it can well be said that the locals outplayed their rivals in the second period. As it was, the first conference game ended with the score being 32 to 17. In the last half Coach

Church changed his line-up somewhat without any effect. The defeat was a bitter pill for the boys to swallow, but each and everyone has sworn revenge, and in the coming weeks they will try to reverse the score when they meet the same team again at the neighboring village. The boys lacked team work and defense while the Sleepy Eye aggregation had a splendid offense, and a well arranged five-man defense. But the fellows think they can turn the tables in their next battle, and in the coming weeks of practice Coach Church intends to eradicate many of the faults that showed in the past. For the locals the Graff brothers played stellar games, Jentz getting two clean baskets and Rich playing some good defense. The opponents played good all-around basketball and they showed some mighty fine material for a championship team.

The line-up for the game was as follows:

New Ulm.	Sleepy Eye.
Paulson R. F.	Hutchins
Hamann L. F.	Hertz, Capt.
Esser, Capt. C.	Glassman
Graff, J. R. G.	Schueler
Graff, R. L. G.	Lahre

Substitutions: Shapiro for Hamann, Berg for Paulson, Herzog for Esser.
Referee Bane
Umpire Henry

GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS GAME.

Last Friday the high school lost another hard fought battle to the Gustavus Adolphus College second team from St. Peter. The visitors gained the lead, but the locals soon overtook them but slowed down quite a little towards the end of the first period. The score for this period being 14 to 9 in the visitors' favor. The second half showed the visitors working some splendid team work and the result was that they added point upon point, the final score being 33 to 20.
Due to the fact that some of the regulars were unable to play, a new change in the line-up was seen. The game, though lost, was only a practice game,
and the locals have not suffered severely. The locals played very evenly excepting Jents who again did some spectacular playing while the visitors shared honors equally.

RENOVATING THE LIBRARY.

Yes, indeed, the pupils of the N. U.
H. S. have, in the past years, displayed so great a thirst for knowledge (namely in the form of novels) that it became necessary to have more shelves built in the Library for the accommodation of our ever increasing supply of books. May they rest "in pieces"! The addition was made last week, and verily—during that time Miss Mayer's usually peaceful (!?) kingdom looked like our respective homes during spring housecleaning; and her usually pacific (!?) map looked like our respective mammas during the same period. Also, our own respective faces looked like our respective papa's respective mug when mammas respective dinner wasn't respectable—since Miss Mayer kicked every one, not very respectfully, out of the Library for making noises.

TRIANGLE MEETING.

On Monday evening the Triangle club had its usual meeting.

The meeting was called to order at 7:30 in the assembly room. Roll was taken and each member responded by giving their favorite name.

The program was opened by some popular songs sung by the society. After that Gertrude Winkleman read an essay entitled Where Do We Go When We Go To Sleep. Gertrude said that when we sleep we stay just where we are, only our minds wander over different channels of thought. Then Lillian Zimmermann gave a piano solo and responded to an encore. Daisy Larson gave an amusing war poem about the soldier who has returned to his "civies," telling how he missed all the treats he used to get while he was still in his uniform.

The "Thread of a Story" was begun but turned out as a failure. Then upon motion the society posed as the school board during parliamentary drill, discussing the subject of privileges for the students. This was not very snappy because only a few took part.

Then came the critic's report. The critic thought the idea of singing popular songs by the society was very good, but hastened to add that "The Thread of a Story" and parliamentary drill were not taken up in the right spirit.

The society elected the following as officers for 1920.

President.....John Graff
Vice President.....Lola Meyer
Secretary.....Robert Fenske
Treasurer.....Henry Esser.

Upon motion the meeting adjourned.

EXCHANGES

Since our last issue we have received copies of the following papers: The Rouser, Madison, Minn., The Panhandler, Guymon, Okla., The Purple and White, Anadarko, Okla., The Breeze, Center City, Minn., The Comet, Paris, Tenn., The Golden Rod, Wayne, Nebraska, The Otaknam, Mankato, Minn., The West High Weekly, Minneapolis, Minn., High School Life, Devils Lake, N. Dakota, The Gleam, St. Paul, Minn., and The Tattler, Windom, Minn.

The Christmas number of The Rouser reflected the spirit of Christmas in the right way, also in literary articles and editorials. Your joke department is good but the exchange department is a little weak.

The Panhandler tells us that their Senior class play has already been staged. The proceeds will be used to help pay for the annual.

The Breeze always had appropriate cartoons. We hope we will be able to climb the steps ahead of you.

There were many things that the students of Mankato H. S. wanted Santa Claus to bring them, according to The Otaknam. We wonder if all the wishes were fulfilled. If they were, then Santa must have had some job.

The High School Life was somewhat late in getting started this year but no doubt will soon make up for this. The literary department is better than those of most other papers. Your paper is also fortunate in having a good cartoonist.

The Gleam staff published a fine Christmas number. In our estimation, it is the best number that they have issued for some time.

The only reason why so many flunk is 'cause there's so many teachers that don't seem to appreciate the fact that we know we know more than they know. If we could show them that we are just helping them get a salary maybe they'd give us better marks.
