 Have you got your costume for tomorrow night? They're coming as soldiers, negroes, clowns, monkeys and every way imaginable. Let's go!

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION IN FINANCIAL STANDING

Make $70 on Mankato Game.—Out of Debt.

The last report of the treasurer of the A. A., shows a balance on the favorable side of the ledger for the first time this year.

Starting the year with a deficit of about $25, with a necessity of purchasing nearly $200 worth of equipment, the financial status of the Association looked dubious. Nearly $100 was realized from the sale of membership tickets. We broke even on the St. James and Lambertson games and made $15 on the Sleepy Eye game. Over $70 was cleared from the Mankato game, putting the A. A. a few dollars to the good.

It will be the policy of the A. A. this year to finance all games from the sale of tickets and not to solicit any money unless it is found absolutely necessary to do so.

The Association is to be complimented on the business-like manner in which it is meeting the situation.

NORMAL NEWS.

Last Wednesday at 1:15 the Normal Class held a very important meeting, it was for the purpose of organizing. The following officers were elected: President Sylvia Gehrke Vice President Myrtle Alwin Secretary Olga Hanson Treasurer Marguerite Kienlen They could not decide upon a name, motto, etc., in so short a time, but they hope to select a very good name at the next meeting.

The girls are all anxious to have Friday come, because they will then take another of their "Flying Trips" out into the country. This time they will visit the Essig and Sleepy Eye communities.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS ORGANIZED.

A Girls' Campfire Organization has been started under the guardianship of Miss Spriestersbach. Miss Gladys Grussendorf is assistant guardian. About thirty girls have signed up. We all hope it will be a success. All the girls ought to join, because it is a very beneficial organization.

GRID WARRIORS BEAT LAMBERTON 33-0 AND ARE DEFEATED BY MANKATO 65-0

LOCAL BOYS RUN AWAY WITH LAMBERTON.—THE STRONGER AND HEAVIER KATO TEAM DOES SAME TO US.

LAMBERTON GAME.

Saturday, October 15, the local football team trimmed Lambertson to the tune of 33-0. The game was played at Lambertson.

The game was called at about 3:20. New Ulm received the ball and by passing and plunging carried the ball across Lambertson's goal three minutes after the game started. Lambertson then received but was held on downs. The locals again started all, but through penalties, were forced to give up the ball. Lambertson made first downs only twice, while the locals were able to advance the ball continuously, but at the critical time New Ulm was penalized for being off side and Lambertson punted out of danger.

Locals Playing Poor.

In the second quarter the locals' playing was bad. Everything seemed to go wrong; the teamwork that is so necessary was lacking. Both sides had about equal possession of the ball. Lambertson almost making a touchdown on an intercepted pass.

Tighten Down.

The locals started the third quarter with new pep. On a pretty fake play Schleuder outran the entire Lambertson team and scored a touchdown. Lambertson then received, but lost the ball almost immediately when McHale intercepted a pass for another touchdown. The quarter ended with New Ulm again in possession (Continued on page 4.)

MANKATO GAME.

Saturday, October 22, the Mankato gridiron men trimmed the local aggregation to the tune of 65-0. The game was a one-sided affair. The Mankato eleven were a heavy, fast and brainy bunch for which we give them credit. Their defensive line was immovable, in other words a stone-wall. Their interference was also very good. Notwithstanding all these odds our boys put up a good fight. The first quarter they could not quite find themselves, but after that they tightened down and played football. Our team was also weakened by losing several good men, McHale, Schleuder and Amann were put out of the game and subs put in.

The game by quarters:

First Quarter.

New Ulm won the toss and chose to receive. The Mankato kicker sent the ball clear down the field and New Ulm fumbled it. Mankato recovered the ball and in a few more minutes scored a touchdown. This was almost immediately followed by another. Both these goals were kicked. Mankato then made an end run which resulted in another touchdown. The goal was not kicked. The score at the end of the quarter was 27-0.

Second Quarter.

New Ulm received, but lost the ball on downs. Mankato, with several line plunges and end runs, made another touchdown. The goal was missed. (Continued on page 4.)

CLASS TREASURERS MAKE OUT FINANCIAL REPORTS.

This year the financial matters are going to be looked after a little better than last year. Other years the principal never knew how the classes and societies stood in regard to financial matters. This year these matters are going to have supervision.

The treasurers of all the organizations in the school have to make out a financial report at the end of each month and hand it to him. This way Mr. Clark can see just how these organizations are standing, and to see that they do not run up big bills with no money to pay for them. This is a new system and a good one.

BIG SOPHOMORE PARTY TOMORROW NIGHT.

Articles to this effect have been published in the last two or three issues of "THE GRAPHOS," but we wish to emphasize the great fun the students may have by attending this party and others in the ensuing school year.

These parties help to bring the students of the different classes together, thereby promoting school spirit. If the students would not get together once in a while they would not get acquainted and they would lose interest in going to school. Besides this, "a good time or money (Continued on page 4.)

MOONLIGHT PARTIES HELD BY H. S. STUDENTS

Big Times at Camel's Back.—Three Parties Held.

In the last week or two the beautiful moonlight has had such a queer effect on some students that they decided to overcome it by having moonlight parties.

There were several parties given, to be exact, there were three groups of students who went on parties. Of course, they went on different nights, because these kind of parties are always held on Camel's Back, and it wouldn't do to have more than one party at one time. No, not at all.

There were parties on Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday nights. Fires were made, wieners roasted and marshmallows toasted, ghost stories told and many other things pulled off to amuse those present. Of course, one teacher or more accompanied these parties. Teachers always help to brighten up a party, especially a moonlight one.

Good times were had by all those present and usually all arrived home at a late or early hour—which? Some showed the "after effects" the next day in school.

ON THE 29TH OF OCTOBER

Cut out your plays and cut out your pranks, And every one come to the Hallowe'en dance. It will be given by the Sophomores, And at eight they'll open all the doors; The admission will be just thirty-five cents, And all will be welcome, both ladies and gents. You all know it will be a masquerade, So call the attic and trunks to your aid; The gym will be decorated simply grand, And you'll all get a chance to hear Fletcher's Band. This dance will be held at Turner Hall Gym, And you know what a success it will be if given by them. Who—The Sophs.

Counting apple seeds, and swallowing roasted marshmallows and buns, suffered as usual and everyone agreed, that the "Angel Food" was a special feature of the whole shootin' match.

On Wednesday night another "bunch" was out at Camel's Back on a similar outing, but this one differed from the other by the conspicuous absence of "Moonshine." The old bird seemed to be hiding behind the clouds, afraid to come out.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1921.

DO YOU TAKE AN INTEREST IN OUR ATHLETICS?

There are 225 students in the New Ulm High School. Now how many of you were out to that football game with Mankato last Saturday? Not very many.

Where is your love for your school? Don't you care whether or not we have athletics? If it had not been for the big crowd from Mankato we probably would not have made expenses to say nothing of the $70, which we cleared. The students from Mankato came 30 miles to help their team along, while some of you haven't enough interest in YOUR school and its affairs to walk three blocks to a game. That's not the right way to do. Why can't more of you come out to help our boys along. If they see a big crowd of their students on the side lines they will feel that you have an interest in them and they will repay you by playing all the harder. But if there is only a small crowd of their high school students on the side lines they will feel that you don't care a rap, whether they win or lose, and they will play accordingly. Ask any member on the football team how he feels about a big or small crowd of home rooters helping them along, and he will tell you.

We admit that there was quite a crowd of New Ulm people out there. But only a small per cent of the crowd were H. S. students. We fail to see where the rest of YOU were.

Saturday, Oct. 29, we play St. Peter here. Redeem yourselves by turning out full force at this game. They beat us last year, but we aren't so sure about the game Saturday. But we are sure that whether we win or lose will depend a whole lot on the student body's attendance at this game. So let's all get out and cheer our team to victory.

"1928."

A well dressed man of about 25 walked down the aisle in a train. A sight of a familiar face caused him to drop his suit case, the contents, mainly women's silk hosiery, scattered in all directions. Recognition was mutual.

"Well, well, Reinhold, this is a surprise. I had imagined you in the pulpit, dishing out salvation a la carte in the style of your High School days and here you are, a traveling salesman,

"As I live it's 'Chick!' Ha, ha, I see by your badge that you are a delegate to a butchers' convention instead of running a chicken ranch in California, as you had planned. Have you heard from any of our old High School friends lately, I see by the paper that David Williams is running for mayor of Cambria, the metropolis of the West. Also that Gertrude Esser has a seat in Congress while her husband, Joe S., is working on the invention of a new dish washing machine. By the way, have you seen the new motion picture, 'The Mystery of the Dead Potato Bug,' in which Victor and Elvira are starring. They say the scenario was written by Fannie Shapiro and is her most famous accomplishment."

At this point the train stopped with a jerk, and the conductor, Arthur Lamecker, informed them that there would be a delay of several hours, because of the electric current being turned off.

Reinhold and "Chick" decided to take a walk. After half an hour "Chick" was thirsty so they went to a nearby house for a drink. There to the surprise of both they met Lynn Currant, owner of the place. He was very glad to see them and Mildred, his wife, learning of their situation, offered to take them to New Ulm in her new aeroplane.

As soon as they arrived at the thriving city someone rushed up to them and tried to sell them a Hudson Coupe. Of course, it was Howard Vogel, and while they were glad to see him his arguments were so persuasive that they thought it would be best for their pocket books to move on.

Hardly had they left him when they met Dr. Carl Fritsche, intently reading a letter. He informed them that it was from Florence, who was studying music in Italy and was preparing to go into Grand Opera with Howard Haling in the fall. While the group was still deep in conversation a loud "Honk, Honk" came from the street. Looking, they saw a car with a huge "Hough For Governor" sign on it. The car contained Miss Hough herself, who looked much the same, except that her face appeared as though she had devoured all the law books of the United States. There were several other suffragettes with her, among them Lucy Schneider, Myra Seifert, Julia Hauenstein and Verna Dahl.

Having left Dr. Carl at his office and "Chic" at his meat market, Reinhold proceeded down the street in gay spirit whistling "New Ulm High."

PEP!

Vigor, vitality, vim and punch,
That's Pep!
The courage to act on a sudden hunch,
That's Pep!

The nerve to tackle the hardest thing,
With feet that climb and hands that cling,
And a heart that never forgets to sing,
That's Pep!

Sand and grit in a concrete base,
That's Pep!

Friendly smile on an honest face,
That's Pep!

The spirit that helps when another is down,
That knows how to shatter the darkest frown,

That loves its neighbor and loves its town,
That's Pep!

To say, I will, for you know you can,
That's Pep!

To look for the best in every man,
That's Pep!

To meet each thundering knockout blow,

With a laugh, because you know
You'll get the best of the whole darned show,
That's Pep!

ON SATURDAY.

The 29th of October is surely an important day,

The St. Peter team is coming, the New Ulm squad to play.

We will meet them, we will beat them, It'll surely be some game.

It will add another laurel to New Ulm High squad's fame,

So to celebrate the event, (We're sure to win)

All come to the masquerade at the Turner Hall gym.

LOCALS.

The "Woodgatherers," a part of the Campfire Girls, showed their ability along that line. The boys, as usual, let the girls do all the work, but came in strong on the eats.

Several of the Seniors had "black eyes" or "blue eyes," whichever you wish to call them, last week. We wonder where they have been keeping themselves, and where they got them. However, ask Arthur Lam-ecker, he might tell you.

One of the Seniors has gone up one stage in the matrimonial business. Recently, he was "best man" at a wedding. We suppose that the next time he has something to do with matrimony will be when he gets married.

"C'mon, kids, let's get up a moonlight picnic. Aint the moon just wonderful lately. S-o-o-o-o big and light!" That's what was heard quite often the past week. Several moonlight parties were held up at Camel's Back, too. Those moonlight parties are the stuff, all right.

Quite a few accidents seem to have happened lately. Charlie Spaeth has a sore foot (could hardly walk out to Camel's Back for a moonlight party) and Hugo Schleuder also has one. He said he got that playing in the football game at Lamberton.

Wednesday, Oct. 12, the Girls' Glee Club and the High School Orchestra entertained the assembly. The girls sang only one song, "Happy Birds," because some time had to be left for the orchestra. The student body suggests that Mr. Clark give us at least 15 minutes for special exercises like that, not only the usual ten minutes. The orchestra played two pieces. Miss MacFarlane is a very good director and the students appreciate her efforts very much. Her ability was shown by the success she had with the Glee clubs and orchestra with such few practices. The orchestra is not quite as large as it was in former years, but nevertheless, it played well. We hope that we will often have the pleasure of hearing them play and sing.

JOKES.

If Pershing should sit on a tack there would be a general uprising.

Miss Russell: "Tomorrow we take the life of Shakespeare. Please come prepared."

Dad (sternly): "Where were you last night?"
Boy: "Oh, just out riding with some boys."

Dad: "Well, then tell them not to leave their hair pins in the car after this."

Registration Officer (to spinster): "Your name, please?"

Spinster: "Mathilda Brown."

Officer: "Age?"

Miss Brown: "Have the Misses Hill, who live next door, given you their ages?"

Officer: "No."

Miss Brown: "Well, then, I'm the same age as they."

Officer: "That will do." Proceeding to fill in particulars, he murmured: "Miss Brown as old as the hills."

DON'T LOSE YOUR PLUCK.

When things are running crosswise, and the engine's out of gear, When the road is rough and rocky, and the sky is far from clear, When you're plainly up against it and you're surely out of luck, That's the time to use your courage and to show your stock of pluck.

'Most anyone can travel on a road that's smooth and clear, And any one can get there if he only has to steer; But when the motor's balky and you're running in the muck, If you're ever going to get there, you must call upon your pluck.

There's no thrill in easy sailing when the skies are clear and blue, There's no joy in merely doing things that any one can do, But there is some satisfaction that is mighty sweet to take When you reach a destination that you thought you'd never make.

So when everything's against you and your plans are going wrong, Just face the situation and keep moving right along— Don't sit down and wail and whimper, even though you may be stuck, You're not absolutely helpless if you still possess your pluck.

—Author Unknown.

Imagine the scene: A big comfortable chair, a beautiful girl snuggled down in it, her head leaned back so she is looking into the face of a handsome young man who is bending so attentively over her.

Now he reaches his arm around her. Her head is pressed against his heart. Speech at this time would be impossible.

Listen: We hear her strangled whisper, "Oh, dear, you hurt." In a low, earnest voice he says, "Well, I simply can't help hurting you a little bit. You don't mind, do you?"

Again we hear absolute silence. They seem perfectly contented.

It is not long, however, that they remain in that position. He does not seem content with what he can see of her face.

Her eyes are of a violet gray. He bends farther over so he can see into— well, so he can see into her mouth.

Because he is, of course, the dentist treating her teeth.

of the ball on the thirty-yard line.

Passes Work Good.

The fourth quarter was a repetition of the third. Passes were freely used and when they failed Thies by terrific line plunging almost unflinchingly made ten yards or more and a fresh start. Two more touchdowns were scored in this quarter. About eighty per cent of the passes worked, but of these only about one-half counted, as New Ulm was always penalized for being off side. If this hadn't occurred the score would undoubtedly have been much larger.

Coach Church Left in New Ulm.

The ragged playing on the part of the locals was due to the fact that through some misunderstanding Coach Church was left in New Ulm, and the team in Lambertton was on edge waiting for him and he was unable to find a car to take him up. This incident took much pep away from the team.

"Pat" was taken out and Spaeth substituted. Mankato pulled off a fake plunge and made a touchdown. New Ulm made a good pass but again lost the ball on downs. The first half ended with a score of 40-0.

Third Quarter.

New Ulm kicked off and Mankato fumbled. New Ulm got the ball and also fumbled. With the aid of a fake end run Mankato made another touchdown. Current was put in for Amann and Kiecker for Williams. Mankato also substituted for several players. The score at the end of the third quarter was 46-0.

Fourth Quarter.

Schleuder hurt his leg and Williams was put in. Mankato almost immediately made another touchdown. New Ulm received and made a little gain, but fumbled and Mankato recovered the ball. Mankato then made another touchdown, but only kicked one goal. When the whistle blew the score was 65-0 in favor of Mankato.
