The article appearing in the Graphos last week concerning the new cheerleaders was not confirmed by Mr. Dirks. These cheer leaders were elected, but, as Mr. Dirks said, it does not necessarily mean they will be given the position because so many votes had to be discarded.

HOW ARE YOU DOING

Grim report card day has come and gone again. Did you see four A's on your card or was it beautifully decorated with little red E's? The red coloring may look nice but isn't their appearance rather difficult to explain to your parents? You don't like the subject, the teacher doesn't like you, the work's too hard—that certainly doesn't sound very convincing does it? Why don't you turn over a new leaf and resolve that this six—weeks you are going to be different and that your next report card will be minus the red trimmings. The time to start is right now.

DOES THIS MEAN YOU?

Why is it some people can't be trusted? Why do supposedly intelligent people resort to the most flagrant methods of cheating whenever the opportunity presents itself? To be sure, such practices may get one a better grade than he may have earned honestly, but why not think of the other fellow? In the scale system of grading the dishonesty of the few will send down the marks of their more honorable class mates.

There is scarcely a person living who has never yielded to the temptation of taking the wrong way to get a good mark; but when people stoop so low as to copy verbatim from their notebooks during a six-weeks—or any other—test, they should—if they have any self-respect or sense of honor—feel ashamed to face those who have failed because they were honest.

The fact that you may be a cheater doesn't necessarily mean you won't make a success of your life after you leave school, but it is bound to retard your success.
Do you think you'll ever be proud of the manner in which you got your marks in high school?

All students at the U. S. naval academy are designated as midshipmen.

Puerto Rico has a university with an enrollment of approximately 5,000.

STUFF AN' JUNK

Qualified!

Snowbeck: What makes you think you can play foot-ball?

Vernon A.: Well, last summer I was hit by two cars and a truck.

Tops-

The height of something or other is a dumb girl turning a deaf ear to a blind date.

Appreciation-Miss Fisher: I heard you sang at church last Sun-day.

B. Neuwirth: Yes, I sang "I Shall Not Pass This Way Again," and the audience seemed to enjoy it immensely.

J. Bergren is complaining that the horn on his car is so indifferent---it doesn't give a hoot.

Quess Again --

A senior girl, blond and no bigger than a half pint and likes to flirt, too.

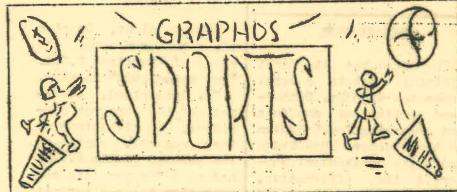

It is sufficient to say the boy looks like Spanky McFarlane of the movies.

Such an advantage!

Whatever trouble Adam had,
No man in days of yore,
Could say when Adam told a joke,
"I've heard that one before."

Evy and Anita lived in an apartment during the Mankato convention--incidentally the T.C. football captain lived down the hall!!

Some girl might not like the idea very well.

grid heated Seven battles are on the Little Ten schedule for this week end as all ten of the conference schools enter into the sixth week of competitive play.

vention many scheduled games will be played tonight instead of Friday.

Out of seven grid tilts, three are inter-conference and four are non-conference games.

In conference. tilts, Tracy tangles with Springfield, New Ulm plays St. James, and Fairmont clashes with the Sleepy Eye Indians.

The better games, however, will be the non-conference Marshall-Pipestone battle and the Hutchinson-Willmar tussle.

Other games find Glencoe vs. St. Peter and Redwood Falls vs. Montevideo.

The receipts from the Drum Corps card party last Thursday evening were approximately forty dollars. The money will be ased to pay for the new drums.

The way the cards stack Due to the M.E.A. con- up at present, one of the most spectacular grid battles of Little Ten Competition this year may be the Glencoe-Hutch' battle on Nov. 11.

Tradition has it that in past years a weaker Glencoe team has gone up to Hutchinson and trimmed the ears off of them.

If this be so, what will happen this year when those two pair of mighty backfield monarchs, Krassean and Smith. of Hutch, meet Glencoe's Hontington. and Marsh on a gridiron.

The question most fans non-conference should ask is who will they carry off first.

Glencoe Football Game--Next Friday at 8 P.M.

By Sports Editor

According to an announcement by Mr. Hanson, the St. James-N. U. H.S. grid battle, scheduled for Friday was changed to tonight.

Thus it is that the Lavender and White warriors will tangle with the St. James eleven at Johnson Field tonight at 8 P.M. in the second home game of the 1937 season.

battle Does tonight's mark a turning point into the winning column for the Will this Harmanites? week's ineligibilities prove disastrous?

These are some of the questions asked by interested spectators as the N.U.H.S. gridders start down the last mile as far as the '37 football season is concerned.

Some 1500 fans may be in for some surprises tonight as they watch an apparently undermined N. U. H. S. eleven take on new life and come out on the long end of a score for the second time this year.

Tickets for the junior super production The Sixth Key are going on sale today.

Helen Andreen has been appointed business manager and has complete charge of making the play a financial success. The players have learned their lines and now are in the polishing process. The play is a humorous story of an old maid and her family who believe in the supernatural.

The cast has had its picture taken for publicity purposes. Mr. Sutherland is conducting a contest between the three American history classes to see which class can sell the most tickets. The play will be presented on Thursday; November 4 at 8 p.m. in the highschool assembly. The dress rehearsal will be on Wed. night.

MUSIC NOTES

Slowly, but surely, Mr Kitzberger is building up his music department. Much progress is being made in the grades by installing the do-re-mi system for sight reading. Every student up to the tenth grade is given the rhythm and pitch test to determine his musical ability. The Prescott Merit Award system has been installed for highschool students who are beginners on some instrument. Watch this department. It's bound to go places this year.

Mr. Kitzberger's picture appeared in the October issue of The School Musician, a prominent magazine for musicians published in Chicago.

DEBATE NEWS

The squad had its first official debate several weeks ago with Mr. Sutherland acting as chairman and "Jumping Jack" Minium as time-keeper. Rae Radke and Anita Grussendorf supported the affirmative, while Gareth Heibert and Leon Ochs took the negative on the question, Resolved: That the several states adopt a unicameral system of legislation. This was one of a series of debates scheduled over a period of three weeks. In these debates, the boys will take the negative and the girls the affirmative.

Mr. Sutherland hopes to produce several winning debate teams this year as his squad from last year has been reinforced by four new members, They are Gertrude Crepeau and Gladys Gulden, sophomores, and Rae Radke, and Leon Ochs, juniors. Mr. Suthseveral erland wants freshman debaters to fill out his squad. Come on you freshmen! Hold a powwow and send some debaters up to the third floor! We can use them!

matter with Mr. Dirks. Many students have been complaining that they do not get enough time to get from the music room to their classes. This situation is to be discussed with Mr. Dirks by Robert Plagens and Leon Ochs.

Mr. Dirks took the after noon off Monday to go duck hunting.

P.T.A. HOLDS FIRST MEETING

Monday night, October 11, the gym was the scene of the first P.T.A. "get acquainted" meeting.

Mr. Sutherland, chairman of the program committee, in his introductory remarks, explained the purpose of the P.T.A. and need for complete cooperation between parents and teachers. Assisting Mr. Sutherland on the program committee

Mrs. W. Muesing.

Mrs. Roger Schmid led a community sing to open the program. Mr. Eggers, the new president, expressed his appreciation to members of the committees for their fine work. Tickets to the New Ulm and Lyric theaters were donated by Mr. Engstrom and Mr. Melzer and given to the students who secured the most memberships. Mr. Hanson expressed his greetings to the members of the P.T.A. in behalf of the New Ulm Public Schools. After a few get-acquainted games were played, a free lunch was served.

FRI-LE-TAS ATTEND CONFERENCE

The members of the Mankato girls' club acted as hostesses to girls' clubs of southern Minnesota, eighty-eight of whom were pupils of New Ulm High School, at that city, Saturday.

An Indian motif was carried out in the decorations at the meeting. Miss Ida Koch of New Ulm gave a talk on personality. Letha Stoltenburg's saxaphone solo was a big attraction on the morn ing's program. Her selections were liked hugely.
