

Juniors to Present "The Family Nobody Wanted"

"Ready on Act I; you had better know your lines!" These are words probably spoken by the director, Mr. Jensen or the assistant directors, Rita Thill and Janice Buggert, during practice for the junior class play, The Family Nobody Wanted.

This play is a comedy concerned with a family that has an unusual teen-age problem. The cast includes Lynn Thomas, Judy Donohue, Tom Lindemann, Sandra Hippert, Bob Sandon, Kathy Keckeisen, Nancy Newton, Bill Knopke, Ann Vogel, Lois Karl, Carla Stelljes, Ellen Lippmann, Sharon Foster, Tricia Lindemann, Roger Zobel, Tom Karl, and Merle Franke.

The play will be given in the NUHS auditorium at 8:00 P.M. on November 7 and 8. ID cards will admit students on Friday night. Prices for everyone else are 30c for children and 50c for adults on both Friday and Saturday nights.

TWIRP

T-W-I-R-P The Woman is Requested to Pay.

Here it comes, girls, the season you've all been waiting for! The journalism class is sponsoring its annual Twirp Week, November 10-15, climaxed by the Twirp Dance.

Seniors, pink; juniors, yellow; sophomores, blue—these are the colors of the bows which you girls will present to your date. These bows may be obtained from Arlene Brockhoff, for senior dates; Donna Asleson, juniors; and Merry Hills, sophomores.

Following are a few rules for the girls of NUHS for Twirp Week:

1. Twirp Week will start on Monday, November 10, and come to a climax with a senior high dance in the small gym at 8:00 P.M., November 15.
2. Dates will be made and financed by girls only.
3. No boy shall be permitted to date a girl during Twirp Week.
4. Girls must open doors and carry books when they accompany any boy to class.
5. All senior high girls are required to participate in some phase of Twirp Week.

Charge for the dance will be 50c per couple, and 35c per lone individuals. The swing band will furnish the music for the dance.

Boys, think twice before refusing!

Plan Program Veterans Day

For the past five years programs have been held alternately at Holy Trinity and NUHS in observance of Veteran's Day and plans have been made for a similar program for this year, in the NUHS auditorium on Tuesday, November 11.

The Concord Singers have shared in the program before, and will again this year.

The program will be presented in the following order:

- 10:50 a.m. Band Selection NUHS Band
- 10:57 M.C. Speech—Khalil Mansoor
- 10:59 Advancement of Colors—Veteran's Color Guard
- 11:00 Moment of Silence and muted taps
- 11:01 "America"—Group Singing
- 11:02 Choral Selections—Concord Singers
- 11:10 Address of Day—Alvin Mueller
- 11:25 National Anthem—NUHS Band
- 11:27 Retirement of Colors—Veteran's Color Guard
- 11:28 Patriotic Selections—NUHS Band

NEWS IN BRIEF

Class Officers Elected

Seven girls and four boys were elected as senior high class officers during class meetings last Monday.

From the senior class are Lyle Hames, president; Curt Christenson, vice-president; Kay Parsons, secretary; and Judie Hoffmann, treasurer.

From the junior class are Jerry Steinkopf, president; Sandra Hippert, vice-president; Ann Vogel, treasurer and Patricia Lindemann, secretary.

From the sophomore class are Karl Pruess, president; Sandra Fritsche, vice-president; and Kristine Oswald, secretary-treasurer.

Marriage of Staff Member Announced

Miss Loveless, clothing instructor was married to Edwin Godel on September 27 at their college chapel in St. Paul. Mr. Godel is finishing his studies in veterinary medicine at the University of Minnesota at present.

Delegates Selected for Convention

The annual State Student Council Convention will be held in Austin, Minnesota this year on November 6-8. David Silcox and John Holland will represent our school at the meeting.

Open House Planned For November 13

To observe American Education Week, an annual open house where parents and teachers get to know each other will be held by the public schools, both elementary and high school, on November 13, 1958, in the high school cafeteria from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Teachers from kindergarten on up through senior high will be present.

For the visitors there will be a guest register attended by Miss Mittelstadt and Miss Radel.

Tours lasting about an hour will be conducted through the high school buildings by Mr. Pfaender, Mr. Herrmann, Mr. Ness, and Mr. Olson.

Cookies, coffee and tea will be served during the evening under the supervision of Miss Westling and Miss Loveless.

U of M Assemblies

Project Vanguard

Project Vanguard Program will be presented in the auditorium on November 7. It will be a lecture and demonstration on man's first step in the conquest of outer space. William Dworzan, a member of the National Capital Astronomer's Club of Washington, D.C., will present the program.

The students will see a model of the satellite in action, they will hear the rocket motors roar into action, and they will learn how they can participate in the geophysical year.

The presentation uses balloons, gyroscopes, satellite models, an animated solar system, a working model of a three-stage launching platform, a model of a space capsule that contained the dog in Sputnik II and other related models and working apparatus.

A smile pays off quickly.

When In Arabia Do As The Arabians Do

Box 332 c/o Aramco
Abqaig, Saudi Arabia

Greetings to NUHS,

Seven thousand miles across a vast area of land and water come the strains of "Purple and White, FIGHT! FIGHT!" Can you hear it in New Ulm, Minnesota? Those are my thoughts as I compose a letter for the faculty and student body of NUHS.

Kayf haalak? (Arabic for "How are you?") I want to declare that I miss NUHS. I've been hearing from many of the students, and the news about football, junior class play practice, first dance after a game, and the first edition of the Graphos all help establish a "lump" in my throat. One doesn't realize the attachments and friends acquired until after one leaves a community.

Subjects and Types of Students Differ

I now teach in the Industrial Training Center, a school for Arabs. Most of the students in the school also work for Aramco, the oil company. The students are taught English, Arabic, English typing, Arabic typing, general science, chemistry, physics, general math, algebra, geometry, office machine practice, blue-printing and drafting, geography, and social studies. The students come to school on assigned time from the company, and many come on voluntary time in the evening. During the day, it is estimated that 2000 Arabs come and go to classes. Some take as many as five subjects, others just take one or so depending on their job. The age of these students ranges from fourteen to thirty.

School officially opens at seven-thirty in the morning and ends around ten o'clock in the evening. I report at nine in the morning, teach six classes of English, and leave at seven-thirty in the evening.

The faculty consists of just five American teachers. All of the others are from surrounding Arab countries like Lebanon, Syria, Jordan, Palestine, Iraq, and Egypt and the Sudan in Africa. My students equal 9th and 10th graders in the United States, although their education isn't as broad here.

Comparisons Are Difficult

Most people ask me to make a comparison between teaching in the United States and here in Arabia. I can't compare schools, but I can compare students. Since this country has been very backward, the American oil company has given them something worthwhile. The students here are very eager, too eager, in learning. English is their second language and the favorite subject. I would say the desire to learn is the big difference as compared with students in the United States. The disadvantage is the fact that here one has to repeat directions or some other facts several times before they master it. This definitely has more of a strain to it, but the over-all results are more gratifying to the teacher.

More Mail, Please

I, too, am learning so much from these people. I'm quite sure I'll return with a greater understanding of people, their habits and customs.

I would like to suggest that a letter my way will bring, within time, some interesting experiences I've encountered. Anyone who wishes to write, I'll do my best to get an answer to you.

Best wishes to everyone.

Fiy amaan illaah, (goodbye)

DAR Offers $100 Bond As Top Natn'l Prize In Good Citizenship Contest

Dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism are the required qualifications for the senior girls who will be nominated for the Good Citizenship contest conducted by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Three girls will be nominated by the senior class, in home rooms within several weeks, with the faculty making the final choice.

The name of the girl selected will be sent to a District Chairman of the D.A.R. Good Citizen Committee. From these names, one girl will be chosen to represent the district. The choice will be made after examination of a questionnaire which the girl will be required to answer.

A representative from each of the districts will go to the D.A.R. State Conference March 3, 1959, at the Nicollet Hotel in Minneapolis at which time she will be interviewed personally. One girl will be decided the Minnesota D.A.R. Good Citizen and will receive a $100.00 U.S. Savings Bond.

Mr. Lynott urges the seniors to be thinking of suitable candidates.

Style Show In December

A style show and tea will be prepared by the Clothing foods and classes, and presented on December 8, at 3:30 p.m. in the Little Theater.

Mothers of the girls in the home economics classes and faculty women are invited.

Before the show the tea prepared by the foods classes will be held in the cafeteria. The seventh, eighth, ninth and twelfth grade girls will help prepare the food and serve.

EDITORIAL

American Education Week is November 9 through November 15. This is a week especially set aside for us to pause and inspect our education system in America. Students in our country all have equal opportunity to learn; however, the desire to learn must come from us. Here in New Ulm we are fortunate in receiving top caliber instruction. NUHS rates very high scholastically, and is a completely accredited high school.

There will be open house held in the school cafeteria one evening during American Education Week. Here our parents will have the opportunity to meet our teachers and have a friendly chat.

We should all invite our parents to attend as they will receive valuable information about our school. Let's work hard to make American Education Week and Open House a success.

Let's Go Dancing!

Not only do the fall and winter seasons remind one of cold weather and snow, but also of the various Teen age and school dances held throughout these seasons. Playing for their dances will be the NUHS dance band under the student direction of Bob Winslow.

The members of the band are as follows: saxophones—Karen Johnson, Lois Karl, Bud Knopke, Tat Knopke, Allen Alwin, and David Gehrke; brass—John Arlandson, Bill Knopke, Mike Good, Bob Winslow, and Gerald Schiltz; basses—John Holland and Tom Karl; piano—Leslie Lueck and Sylvia Schwermann; drums—Mary Jane Hillmer and Reuben Stoll; and vocalists—A trio made up of Karen Darlington, Sue Vogelpohl, and Darlyne Barrett, and three soloists—Lynn Thomas, Nancy Newton, and Karen Darlington.

The schedule of dances is as follows: Friday, October 31—Turner Hall; Saturday, November 15—Twirp Dance at 8:30; Friday, November 28—Armory; Monday, December 22—Turner program; Saturday, December 27—Turner Hall; Saturday, January 17—Woodchoppers Ball; Saturday, February 7—Turner Hall; and Tuesday, March 17—Turner Hall (7:00-10:00 p.m.)

Band

Probably the feature of the fall marching band schedule was the trip on October 4 to the University of Minnesota to "All Bands' Day." Here over 100 bands participated in a colorful pre-game and half-time show at the Minnesota-Pittsburgh football game. During the half-time performance the twirlers and drum majors were featured on the field.

After completing the marching schedule by playing at Gustavus Adolphus' homecoming parade on October 8, concert music has become the main aim. The first performance will be at the Veterans' Day program on November 11. The two main numbers on the program will be "Americade" and "American Patrol."

Recently Mr. Strang and Mr. Ackermann attended a meeting concerning the annual music festival which will be held at Redwood Falls. This year the solo and ensemble contest will be held on April 10 at 6:30 P.M. at Sleepy Eye. The next day the larger groups will gather at Redwood for the usual part of the festival.

This year all four schools—Sleepy Eye, Springfield, Redwood Falls, and New Ulm—will be operating under league rules and are in the second sub-district of district 10.

Choir and Glee Club

The choir and glee club continues its rehearsals for the annual Christmas Concert which is in December. A few soloists have been selected, but no definite plans are as yet completed.

A new, eager group of Carolers have been chosen and they are sopranos, Phyllis Larson, Karen Darlington, Sue Vogelpohl, LaVonne Alfred, and Valene Wieland; altos, Kathy Keckeisen, Nancy Newton, Darlyne Barrett, and Leah Moller; tenors, Gerald Tobias, Lynn Thomas, and Jeff Radke; basses, Les Lueck, Alan Runck, LeRoy Schapekahn, and Mike Young. There is also a second group of Carolers which will fill in as alternates. The student directors for both groups are John Holland and Les Lueck.

A SPIN OF THE WHEELS

with Colleen and Audrey

John Holland is the one senior who greets us all at assemblies, for it is just one of his official duties as our Student Body President. John's interests lie in football, basketball, and Hanska. In band he plays baritone; in choir, he is president of choir council.

Larry Boelter, of blonde hair and blue eyes and leather jacket, is one of the few in our senior class that is able to play a guitar, one of his main interests. In the morning, he is one of Miss McLaughlin's pet peeves in the library. Larry will most likely join the army when he graduates but his future is undecided.

Virginia Broste is always ready with a friendly greeting for everyone. She is known for her ability to make remarks just a wee bit too soon. Virginia's hobbies and interests lie in the immediate Hanska area. Her future is undecided right now.

Alida Tillman is known for her outstanding work in Girl Scouts. She now teaches her own Brownie troop. One of her hobbies is the collecting of salt and pepper shakers from all over the country. She does a good job of supplying her neighbors in college prep with pencils. Alida plans to be an interpreter after college.

Lyle Hames is one of the outstanding athletes of our class in football, track, and wrestling. Lyle's friendly personality is sure to help him in his newly elected position as senior class president. Lyle's enthusiasm and willingness to help, make him a great asset to the school. Much of his time is spent in keeping his car in shape.

Stanley Beck from Lafayette, is known by most of the seniors for his spotless white shoes. His quiet but friendly personality makes him an asset to our class. He is an active member of F.F.A.

Tom Konakowitz, another of our hot rod fans, drives a pink and white Pontiac. He is also in F.F.A. and is going to farm with his dad after graduation. Tom is known for his sense of humor and can be seen at most of our football games.

Karen Darlington, one of our homecoming attendants, takes part in many of the vocal

A PECK OF HECK

During football season I overheard this conversation:

Jerry Tobias: Is this school haunted?
Principal: No. Why?

Jerry T.: How come they're always talking about school spirit.

We have another question from Jean Hintz.
Jean: "In running to Chemistry, my favorite class, I accidentally hurt my foot. What do I do for a twisted ankle?"

Answer: "Limp."
Had enough?

Snooping through the halls I found that many students were disappointed by their grades. While snooping, as usual, Jim Priesinger gave me a sure-fire plan on how to end those miserable report card days.

4 Point Plan On How to Flunk

1. Stop when you have read through the material once. After all, you don't want to know more than the teacher.

2. Always use a pencil instead of ink. If it is indistinct enough, the teacher may think it's right.

3. Always do your studying during lunch. This gives you free time on evenings and weekends.

4. Gather information from outside sources, not just textbook and lecture notes. Other sources meaning TV, radio, party line and the corner drugstore.

To close this gem of literature we quote a wise member of our faculty, Mr. Olson. "Keep Smiling"! Does this phrase ring a bell with some of you accounting students? It should!

music activities here at school. She is vocalist with the swing band. Karen seems to have a special interest in the University of Minnesota also. Her hobby, at present, is tearing up little "pink slips" of paper. Her ready smile and cheerful personality will help Karen attain her goal in life.

Lorelei Merwin, better known as "Lori", is an energetic girl who can be found working at the Journal office after school. Reading much and writing short stories make up her major hobby. She is one of the senior girls expecting a diamond for Christmas.

Melvin Stadick, another of our F.F.A. members, is a quiet but dependable person who intends to make farming his future work. Usually during noon hours he drives around school in his blue Plymouth.

David Grothem is a congenial person hailing from Hanska. After graduation he plans to either enter the armed forces or make use of his F.F.A. experiences by farming. Dave also enjoys working on his black Chevy.

Snooping Around NUHS

At the end of fourth-hour social-Foreign Relations class, Mr. Harman asked for an opinion on this question: "Do you believe the civilizations will be destroyed by the Atom Bombs." Jeff Radke gave his theory, Dave Silcox gave his, and then John Holland held up his hand. John said, "I believe that not all of the civilizations will be completely wiped out. A few Social teachers, chemistry teachers and those kinds will survive."

"In other words, the meek will survive," said Mr. Harman.

Jeff Radke piped up, "The young died first."

When Kathy Clobes' turn came in Speech Class to give her demonstration speech, she took her hula hoop and showed how to whirl it around her neck. Mr. Wood watched with keen interest. After she had finished, Mr. Wood's only comment was, "You had better watch out before you turn your Adam's apple into apple sauce."

One day as Mr. Anderson came down to the field for football practice, a black armband that he was wearing aroused the curiosity of the team members. After a few minutes, Jeff Radke asked for an explanation. Mr. Anderson told the team he was in mourning for David Silcox. Why?—The love bug had bitten him.

Everyone was wondering why the waste-paper basket was sitting on top of a table in third-hour study hall. Finally David Benson solved the mystery—he had lost his pencil.

Nancy Bottenfield shall always remember the homecoming committee report assembly, for it left a dent in her big toe. Quite by accident, Darlyne Barrett caught Nancy's foot in the seat.

After Miss Kayser stated that she wasn't very good at telling jokes, Jeff Radke asked her if she didn't like humor.

Before she could answer, Howie Vogel chimed in, "She doesn't have to. We've always got you to laugh at."

During a heated game of volley ball in GAA, a serve was made that was out of bounds. Before it hit the floor, Joyce Borchert touched the ball without anyone's noticing it. Confusion arose. In true George Washington spirit, she announced in a little voice, "I am Joyce Borchert, and I cannot tell a lie. I touched it."

During first hour English after the Dutch Assembly program, there was some discussion on Holland. Miss Kayser asked Heinz Schwermann whether he had visited that country. Larry Johnson interposed. "No, he didn't have time. He skipped only one day."

TAKE IT OR LEAVE IT

by Darlyne, Karen and Nancy

When New Ulm's first snow came glittering down, there was a great deal of chatter in college prep class; back in the corner, one could hear Dave Silcox singing, "Let's get together and talk about the weather".

La Vonne Alfred certainly had an awful time trying to keep a straight face, while giving her brief, but terribly humorous speech about a race driver.

What's this we hear about Mr. Wood wearing a corset, among other articles at a party. This older generation! And Jo Ann is not the blabber-mouth!

Nobody wanted to volunteer to give their speech in college prep; therefore, Jeff marched up to the lectern, saying, "Oh, I guess I'll give it a whirl." His speech was about Burmese women. When he finished, Lori asked "What do the men do?" John answered "Whatever men do!"

Ken Hartmen wants to "burnish" a teacher. Ken, you're not paying attention to word usage.

Judie was talking to Phyllis about her two boy friends. "If I could combine them," she said, "I'd be the happiest girl in the world. Frank is gay, suave, rich, handsome and witty; and Sam wants to marry me."

Women haters: Women

Some of the best boy scouts are girls.

More of you should come out to watch "Slugger" Chambard play volleyball. If the girls aren't killing wasps, they're ducking her low flying serves.

She did it again! Karen got lost driving to the Blue Earth game. No, not just a few miles off; they went to Iowa. It gets worse each time. Good thing that was the last game or they would be California bound—or maybe Minneapolis. This next little verse is especially for Darlyne and Doreen.

Road Map

A road map is a useful thing
When hope is nigh forsaken . . .
You get it out, and there you find.
The route you should have taken.

Mr. Ackermann punished Jeff Radke by forcing him to write 500 times, "I will learn what Mr. Ackermann's room is to be used for during third period!"

David Gulden deserves a big "Thanks" for the rescue he made on the evening of our Homecoming game. When the parade was ready to begin, there were two stranded attendants awaiting a late convertible.

We all wish the juniors luck on their coming class play. From the lines we've heard muttered here and there, it sounds pretty good. Take our advice though, and don't leave any reminders of the cast, etc. around where the janitors can find it. Better not sign your names or make drawings in too noticeable a place. We really "shook our family tree" on that one.

Since the Christmas season is not too far away, we almost expect to hear kids singing Jingle Bells or another carol, but the seniors stick to the old "theme song" of "Bridge On The River Kwai." Every once in awhile the haunting strains of the tune are heard whistled as the boys march through the halls.

Sound Familiar?

Come here once and read this even though it is too dumb to read. I first decided to write this when I heard how the "New Ulmers" talk. Ya, it's real much fun to talk like this, gel? I extra forgot to mention that they always seem to say already yet. Well, this will be all for now as I have to go by my locker to get an ink pen.

An Education Comparison

By Bonnie Harmening

Do you think that you have too much school work? Would you prefer to follow this schedule: German, French, English, Latin, Math, physics, chemistry, geography and geology, history, art, music, religion and phy. ed., or maybe this schedule: English, French, German, Math, physics, chemistry, biology, history, book-keeping, accounting, business law, religion and phy. ed.? These are the subjects taken by Wolfgang and Peter, respectively, in their schools in Germany.

Both have attended different schools; Peter now attends Wirtschaft's Oberschule, in Ulm, and Wolfgang, Kepler High School in Neu Ulm, Germany.

Their school year begins a week after Easter with their summer vacation, six weeks in length, at the end of July. They also have a week's vacation the beginning of November and two weeks for Christmas vacation. Besides a few extra days off for legal and religious holidays, their school year continues until the week before the next Easter.

Sessions and Grading are Different

Daily sessions begin at 7:00 A. M. and continue through until 12:00 P.M. in the summer; in winter, they're one hour later. When in school, students have just classes, no study time. Their afternoons are used for studying.

Their system of grading is from 1-6 which is equal to our A-E. With an average of less than 4, the student fails. Just as we do here, he either has to take the course over or drop out. Report cards are issued not every six weeks as in NUHS but just at the end of the year.

A difference that we would especially notice is that their schools have no extra-curricular activities. The only athletics the boys in Germany have is whatever they have in their phy. ed. class. If they are particularly interested in a certain sport, they can join a club. These clubs are not associated with the schools and meet on their own time. Both Peter and Wolfgang belong to rowing clubs; Peter also belonged to a fencing club.

Much Travelling Done By Both

Much of the extra time Peter and Wolfgang had in Germany was spent much as we do here, listening to music, going to the theater, and doing some traveling. Both Peter and Wolfgang have done extensive traveling in Europe. Wolfgang has visited in Austria, Belgium, England and Wales; Peter, in all the western European countries except Scotland, Ireland, and Portugal.

Before returning to Germany next summer both are planning to make a tour of the United States.

With two years of high school to finish, since they attend school 13 years before graduating, they have no definite plans for their future. They will probably have to serve their time in the army before continuing their education or going into business.

One Straight 'A' NUHS Student

To a sophomore goes the honor of being the only student out of 368 in senior high to make the straight "A" honor roll for the first six-weeks period. Myron Frisch holds this honor. Tony Rolloff, senior, made the "A" average honor roll.

Debaters Rate High Fourth At Worthington Meet

Worthington, Minnesota, was the scene of the first debate team tournament of this year, on Saturday, October 25.

Gary Kleinsmith and Howie Vogel represented the affirmative and Bertha Larson and Colleen Pugmire represented the negative, debating against South Dakota and Iowa. Winning five and losing three, New Ulm tied for fourth place.

The next debate tournament will be in St. Paul, November 8. Following that will be Spirit Lake, Iowa, November 15; November 22, Esterville, Iowa; and December 1, Worthington.

Personnel Varied

The teams, affirmative and negative, have been tentatively set up. Howie Vogel and Gary Kleinsmith are working together again this year. First year debator Darlyne Barrett is debating with Myron Frisch. Dave Nicklasson will work with Karen Seifert. Under classmen working on the aff. team will be Mike Good and Peter Smith; Mary Chambard and Paul Huhn.

Colleen Pugmire and Bertha Larson are the only two senior girls on the negative team. The two boys from the senior class are Allan Runck and Jeff Radke. Helen Larson and Lois Karl are teamed together. Underclassmen are Mary Schmid and Gloria Fesenmeir and Joanne Erickson and Pennell Somsen.

In speech classes the juniors are working on panel discussions and analyzing campaign speeches.

Homecoming Activities Meet With Big Success

Doreen Davis was officially crowned as the 1958 Homecoming queen in the pre-game ceremonies at Johnson Park Friday, October 17. Her attendants were Colleen Pugmire, Kathie Herrick, Ruth Chambard, Darlyne Barret, Valene Wieland, and Karen Darlington.

The crown was placed on Doreen's head by Superintendent Herrmann and the scepter was passed to her by the 1957 queen, Mary Lee Clobes.

Naming of the queen was the highlight of the pep rally at Johnson Field on Thursday evening in a skit given by the junior girls. The pep band played, the cheerleaders led the crowd in several cheers, the members of the football team were introduced and a pep talk was given by Mr. Anderson, Coach.

After this, the students went to Flandrau Park where refreshments were served by the Boy's Home Economic class. Here a number of skits were then presented. The senior, junior and sophomore classes all presented skits, three were given by Mr. Wood's speech class students and the program was concluded with a skit by the queen and her attendants.

As a climax to the festivities after the game, the annual Homecoming dance was held in the high school auditorium which was decorated in colorful autumn flowers. Dick Sandman and his Velvetones provided the music for dancing.

F. F. A.

The boys of the New Ulm F.F.A. Chapter are busy in another fall season.

The chapter soils judging team composed of Melvin Stadick, Ronald Guggisberg, Robert Besmer and Fredrick Juni won second place honors in the District 12 contest held at Springfield. Stadick, Guggisberg and Juni, the top three judges, will represent the chapter at the state contest in May.

Dayle Besmer, 1958 graduate, was presented a check on behalf of the State F.F.A. Association as an award for being the State Star Dairy Farmer.

On October 27 and 28, Alan Runck represented the chapter at a co-operative convention in St. Paul. The development of co-operatives has been one of the greatest steps forward for agriculture in the last century.

On October 31, Fredrick Juni represented the chapter at the district cow clipping contest held on the Russel Cunningham farm east of Sleepy Eye.

Three New Student Teachers At NUHS Progress Made On '59 Eagle

Getting experience in teaching are three college students. Assisting in teaching, they will be here until November 21.

Mr. Kleist is from Mankato State and is teaching 11 grade speech and English.

Miss Theis and Mr. Ask are from St. Olaf College. Miss Theis is teaching 1 and 6 hour English 12 and German I and II; Mr. Ask is teaching chemistry, biology, and physics.

Darlyne Barrett, Colleen Pugmire, and Audrey Miller have been selected as members of the editorial board for this year's Eagle. Other members will be chosen in the coming weeks.

Miss Steen, accompanied by the three girls, attended a yearbook clinic at Sleepy Eye, on October 28. The Little Ten Schools participate in this annual affair.

Mr. Carl Towley of Hopkins, one of the judges of the yearbooks for the National Scholastic Press Association, gave criticism of all of the yearbooks and pointed out good and bad features of each. There were also discussion groups giving the features of their yearbook.

Senior pictures will be taken by Acker Studio; this was decided by the preferential ballot of the seniors. The group pictures will also be taken by Acker Studio.

Other pictures for the Eagle will be taken by Mr. Marti, Dennis Thompson, and Bill Fritz.

Cardinals Stop New Ulm 19-0

A crippled Fairmont football team moved among the favorites of the South Central Conference with a 19-0 win over New Ulm. The long marches in the first and second quarters ripped through the Eagle defense for touchdowns.

The first came on a one yard fourth down plunge by Fairmonts reserve quarterback, Dave Wilkinson. With first and goal from the three, New Ulm dug in but on fourth down fullback Mel Anderson crashed over for the score. He also kicked the extra point for a 13-0 halftime score.

A very strong New Ulm line came back in the second half to hold Fairmont to a near standstill. Fairmont, however, scored again with one minute remaining in fourth quarter.

New Ulm netted only 59 yards compared with 291 for Fairmont.

Redwood Downs NU

Powerful Redwood Falls downed the New Ulm Eagles 34 to 13 on October 3 at Redwood.

New Ulm, although an underdog, trailed only 20 to 13 at one point in the 1st half. The Cardinals then scored on a quick plunge up the middle to drown out New Ulm hopes. New Ulm was down by 14 points at half time, 27 to 13.

In the second half, New Ulm held an explosive Redwood Falls offensive team to a lone touchdown, but were unable to score themselves.

Lyle Hames scored both touchdowns for New Ulm, both coming on pass plays. One of these pass plays, Dave Silcox to Hames, covered 70 yards.

New Ulm Ties Blue Earth

After a hard first half, New Ulm came back to score and to wind up the season with a 7-7 tie.

Blue Earth recovered a New Ulm fumble to set up their touchdown which came after a 52-yard pass play.

In the second quarter the Bucs were stopped on the N.U. 18. New Ulm took over on the 20 after the punt and Silcox went 73 yards on the first play. Mike Olson took the ball to the 1 foot line but there the Eagles were stopped cold.

After holding Blue Earth at the four-yard line in the second half New Ulm marched 96 yards for the TD. Mike Olson took it over from the seven and Silcox skirted end for the extra point.

Conference Hopes Fall As NU Loses To St. Peter

Although New Ulm came back with a strong second half, it wasn't enough to beat St. Peter as they fell at the hands of Saints 26-12.

The Eagles couldn't seem to get going in the first half as St. Peter rolled up a 13-0 lead.

New Ulm sprang to life in the second half when it took the kick and marched 64 yards for the score. Lyle Hames gained most of the distance and went over from the one. The conversion failed and the score stood at 13-6.

It appeared that New Ulm had finally been able to stop St. Peter three plays later when they ran 38 yards through the middle to score.

New Ulm again came to life and marched 61 yards to the 8 yard line but lost the ball on downs. Two plays later St. Peter scored on a 67 yard pass play to make it 26-6. Ken Cordes threw two 20 yard passes, the second of which went to Wiesner who scored to make the score 26-12. New Ulm recovered a fumble but ran out of time on the St. Peter 23 yard line.

Eagles' Defense Startles St. James

The New Ulm Eagles put on a tremendous defensive show as they toppled St. James 6-0. The Eagles went into the game as a two touchdown underdog and with a record of winning only 1 game from St. James in 8 years.

The Eagles took the opening kickoff from the forty-five down to the eighty-yard line where they were stopped on a fourth down pass play which was completed just out of the end zone. After changing possession of the ball, the Eagles came right back to the 13; but here they lost 15 yards in 2 plays, St. James never got within the Eagles' territory in the first half.

The turning point of the game undoubtedly came in the second half after neither team had made a first down when Dave Silcox tossed a beautiful pass to end "Wenz" Wiesner. Jerry Steinkopf, who had quite a night blocking, kept things going by picking up five off tackle. Lyle Hames slammed off tackle for eleven, then swept the end for ten more to put the ball on St. James' twenty yard line. Lyle cut back up the middle picking up fourteen yards to the four. Finally on his fourth straight carry he slammed his way over for the touchdown. The point after was missed resulting from a fumble.

Both St. James and the Eagles got the ball again, and both had to punt. The game ended as Dave Silcox intercepted a pass to halt any chance for a St. James' touchdown.
