One hundred and seven NUHS seniors will receive their diplomas at the seventy-fourth annual commencement, May 28, at 8 PM in the high school auditorium.

Dr. Marcus Bach of the University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa, will be the guest speaker. He has chosen as his title If I Were Graduating. Out side of his regular duties at the university, he is the author of several books including Strange Altars, The Dream Gate and The Circle of Faith.

The Senior High Band will play "War March of the Priests" from "Athalea" by Mendelssohn for the Processional. "Court Festival" by William Latham will be played during the program, with "Pomp and Circumstance" by Elgar to be played as the recessional.

The Senior High Chorus has not yet decided on the numbers they will present, but have been working on the "Benediction" and "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor." The senior members of the choir will sing "Halls of Ivy."

Seniors To Receive Awards at 8 p.m. Thursday, May 21

Senior class awards will again be presented during Senior award night, May 21, at 8:00, in the high school auditorium. Lyle Hames, senior class president will preside.

Along with the awards given for various activities participated in by seniors, are special ones such as the Dirks Memorial, Tante Meyer, Geib-Janni Shop Award, Josten, Bausch-Lamb Science, American Legion, and National Honor Society Awards.

Thirteen seniors will direct the band in a concert presented from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. They include John Arlandson, "Seventy-six Trombones"; Nancy Bottenfield, "The Liberty Bell March"; Virginia Broste, "Curtain Raiser"; John Holland, "Proud Heritage"; Phyllis Larson, "Rock It"; Leslie Lueck, "Music for a Carnival"; Audrey Miller, "Dixie Thunder"; Kay Parsons, "Fantasy for Band"; Jeff Radke, "Washington Poet"; Alan Runck, "Swing-a-Round"; Howie Vogel, "Little Brown Mambo"; Charles Wech, "Knuckle Duster"; and Robert Winslow, "Vienesse Refrain".

The concert will be presented outdoors in front of the auditorium. In case of rain, it will be moved to the auditorium.

Scholarship Participants Waiting for Results

Scholarship tests have been taken and the participants in the different tests are waiting for the results, which do not come out until August.

Tony Rolloff has been accepted into an ROTC scholarship. This scholarship offers four years of free college plus $50 a year to cover school expenses. Tony plans to accept this after he returns from Germany.

John Arlandson has taken a test for the Coast Guard Academy. This was on the competitive basis. John, as yet, has not been notified whether he has been accepted, and he is undecided as to what decision he will make if he is accepted.

Merit Scholarship tests were taken last Tuesday, April 28. This, too, is to win an education free. In last year's Merit Scholarship Tests Bertha and Tony were finalists.

Time is spent in the guidance room by students seeking help in their plans for after graduation or for next year's courses. Pictured are Lynn Luepke, Karen Zupan, Miss Schmid, guidance director, and Darlyne Barrett.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Merit Test Given to 34 Juniors

Not to show who are the brightest students, but to single out the students who "use their ability"—that is the reason for Merit tests. The merit test at NUHS was given on Tuesday, April 28, at 8:30. The 34 juniors that participated wrote all morning. If chosen to be in the finals, the students are given a chance for free education at the college of their choice anywhere in the United States.

Bertha Larson and Tony Rolloff were in the finals last year.

Mr. DeLoss Walker To Present Speech, "Let Freedom Ring"

"Let Freedom Ring" is the title of the speech to be given by Mr. DeLoss Walker, a professional speaker, at New Ulm High School on May 11 at 11 o'clock.

Leading newspapers describe Walker as a "dynamo, strikingly effective, world famed, and inspiring."

In addition to speech making, Walker operates Walker's Management in Chicago, is a former associate editor of Liberty Magazine, is a world traveler, university professor, coal mine operator, and a business analyst.

Boys' and Girls' County Representatives Selected

Avis Borchert, Jean Hintz, Ann Vogel, Bill Fritz, James Rolloff, and Gerald Tobias, juniors, have been chosen to represent NUHS at Girls' and Boys' County which will be held in New Ulm, May 5.

One change has been made in the plans—from 2:30 to 3:30, all teachers will remain in their respective classrooms so that they will be available for all autograph seekers.

Final Assembly On May 29

A talk by Mr. Hermann, the passing of the gavel from Hohn Holland to the new NUHS student body president, and some entertainment will highlight the final assembly on May 29, at 10:00 a.m.

This year some sort of pin will be given to the retiring student body president as a memento of his years in high school.

Following the assembly the students will be dismissed for the last time as seniors, juniors, sophomores, etc. The students will then go to their classes to receive their report cards.

"A Night By the Sea"

by S. Hippert

If you saw many juniors around in the halls and in the gym after school and in the evening during the past several weeks, you soon discovered why.

This year's prom theme "A Night By the Sea" kept many of us busy.

Each committee needed much attention and each person assigned to one did a good job of fulfilling the required task.

This year's prom theme showed many unique ideas ranging from the dock, on which punch was served to the sea horses with blinking eyes. The art work, which took many hours of labor, was certainly an asset to the prom.

The banquet was a great success. The food, entertainment, and servers made it so.

Even though confronted by last minute worries, all turned out to be a success. All that is left are fond memories.

Honor Roll

The seniors topped this fifth six weeks with 26 students on the honor roll while the sophomores are a few behind with 18. The juniors trail with 17.

Student Body Prexy Election Draws Near

It is again time for everyone to observe and look over the junior class and decide who they think would make the best student body president for next year.

Each tenth and eleventh grade homeroom will nominate two candidates from the junior class. The final election will take place on May 20. All ninth, tenth, and eleventh graders will vote also.

When deciding who you think would be a good person for this office, you should decide whether they meet these qualifications: they should have an average scholarship or better, be an effective speaker, be of good character, and have some interest in student activities.

The many duties of the president include presiding over all assemblies, pep meetings, etc.; to be the official representative of the students in expressing their wishes and desires relative to extracurricular activities; to serve as chairman of all student council meetings; to appoint committees to plan Homecoming, assembly, convention; and to make an annual report of work in the student council.

Eight Students Qualify For State Declam

"This is the largest number of students New Ulm has sent to the Region in recent years and the largest number of students from any one school in the last five years. New Ulm also had the largest number of students that were alternates to the State," Mr. Wood commented about the results of speech competition.

New Ulm entered eight students in the Regional at Lambert on April 9. At the State there were two students from NUHS.

In the original oratory at the Region, Ann Vogel received a rating of excellent, Myron Frisch, superior; in memorized oratory, Leslie Lueck received superior; in extemporaneous speech, Gary Kleinsmith, superior; in pantomime, Alan Runck, superior; discussion, Bertha Larson, superior, Lois Karl, excellent.

In the state meet Leslie Lueck in oratory and Myron Frisch in original oratory represented NUHS. Leslie received a rating of excellent and will receive a silver medal. Myron, a rating of superior and will receive a gold medal. Fifty-four schools participated in the State meet.

Howard Vogel in extemporaneous and Alan Runck in pantomime were alternates to the State.

The six people who won superior ratings in the regional will receive medals from the Minnesota High School League on Award Day.

Conference On Physical Fitness Held in Minneapolis

Calhoun Beach Hotel in Minneapolis was the scene April 24 and 25 for the Governor's Conference on Physical Fitness. Attending from New Ulm High School were Mr. Pfaender of the faculty and Bruce Keske as a student delegate. The purpose of this conference called by Governor Freeman, was to develop interest among Minnesota citizens to stimulate youth to a greater program of physical activity.

Senior Sermon Scheduled

The Senior Sermon is scheduled for 8:00 Sunday night, May 24, at the Methodist Church, with the Reverend Lennis Mitchell speaking.

Those seniors attending are to meet at the church by 7:45, with caps and gowns, so that they might march in together. Musical numbers will be provided by several NUHS groups.

EDITORIAL

Guest Editorial

In this country of ours, with all the new inventions and the high living standards, we find that there is a very noticeable increase in the rate of mental illnesses. The most probable reason for this is that we aren't keeping up mentally with the changes. In other words, there is so much chaos and confusion that we can't adjust to our changing lives.

Just because we have mental illness doesn't mean there is nothing that can be done. Of course we have psychologists and psychiatrists, but so few that they can't keep up with the rising rate of illness. If ever there has been a need for men and women in this field, it surely is now. Just to illustrate, let us take the St. Peter hospital. There are over 2,000 inmates and only three qualified doctors to treat them. What kind of a job can three men do with 2,000 inmates? More psychologists are needed everywhere.

You probably wonder how people become mentally maladjusted. It is mostly a matter of repressed experiences. When something happens to us, we often try to hide or to cover up the incident. Sometimes we attempt to forget it by saying or doing something which supposedly straightens it all out. As soon as this is done the incident becomes "repressed." It really is not hidden at all, it only enters our subconscious mind. It's these repressed griefs that come back to make us miserable when we could have avoided them by talking it over with someone. As long as we talk things out with others, chances are good that we would not possibly to have trouble with them later. Surely it takes more than one or two repressed experiences to affect us, but through the years they build up.

Another very important factor we tend to omit in our lives today is trying to know ourselves and why we act the way we do. Too many of us worry about the other person and what he or she is doing, rather than finding out about ourselves. In the Bible we are told time after time to "Know thyself." And if you find yourself to be rather self-contained, try talking things over with a friend, your parents, a minister, priest, your guidance department, or your teachers. Surely someone will be very willing to listen.

Our country needs psychiatrists and psychologists. It needs people who have a desire to help others as well as themselves. If you enjoy conversing with people and like to help others, why not at least take a look into this field of psychiatry?

Band Climaxes Season

With such numbers as Proud Heritage, "Jolly Robbers Overture," and two band accompaniment selections, the concert band and its individual members have started to climax this year's program.

Probably one of the outstanding features of this year was the guest performance by Mr. Don Jacoby. The band found his personality just as fascinating and superb as his playing. During the course of practice before the concert, Mr. Jacoby tried to get a certain section to produce a louder tone. He said, "Girls are nice things to be loved and cuddled but when they play a horn—that's different!" So he told the male section leader that his name was Gladys until he produced the desired sound—it didn't take long!

The music festival, held at Redwood Falls this year, proved quite interesting for most people. A special situation was the attraction of an unsuspecting New Ulm band member for a female Redwood Falls flute player—too bad it was only a one-way deal. I understand it took a 2-act "going steady" performance to break this one-sided crush—that was clever thinking!

With Worthington as their destination, 15 students took off on Friday, April 24, to the regional-state musical contest. The superior qualities of our music department showed through again—five "A" ratings out of a possible seven were received. The other two received "B's".

A SPIN OF THE WHEELS

with Colleen and Audrey

Phyllis Larson proved her ability in the field of home economics when she was named New Ulm's "Homemaker of Tomorrow" and rated as one of the ten finalists in the state. Next year she will attend the University of Minnesota to continue in this field. At present, Phyllis is in choir, GAA, and band.

Another FFA member is Bob Middleton who is at present farming by himself. He hopes to study agriculture at the University of Minnesota next year. A member of the Nation Guard unit in St. Peter, Bob enjoys working with miniature ballistics in his spare time. His other interests include, of course, girls and real good food.

A short red-headed girl who loves all sports is a description of Myrt Klossner. She participates in GAA and was a member of the New Ulm's girl's bowling team that won recent acclaim. She especially likes softball and will play on Harold's team this summer. Horseback riding and roller skating are also Myrt's pastimes, along with playing in our school band.

Arlene Brockoff's friendly personality and pleasant voice are great aid to her at the New Ulm Rural Telephone Company where she works as an operator every night. In her spare time, she enjoys sewing, reading, taking pictures, and her recent interest, old coins. Arlene's plans for the near future include continuing working and getting married.

Friendly and fun-loving is the description of Bonnie Harmening. Her favorite pastime includes reading, writing letters and swimming. She is in choir and glee club and a member of the Graphos staff. Bonnie is one of the senior girls that found out that even without daylight saving time you can gain six hours between New Ulm and St. Peter. Although she had difficulty in deciding between Winona State and St. Cloud, Bonnie will study elementary education at the latter school.

Ted Fritsche can be spotted by his flashy Packard Hawk. His many interests include tennis, water skiing and loafing. College Prep class is his favorite pastime. After graduation, Ted plans to go to the University of Minnesota where he will enter Pre-Medicine. Ted wants to become a world-famous eye surgeon. We think he's getting a head start by film. If time allows, he'd like also to be a race driver on the side.

Lynn Luepke is one of our many seniors who hails from Courtland. He often can be seen making his way to New Ulm in his '49 Ford. Lynn claims, however, that his car is not his hobby, because he works on it only out of necessity. His main interest is working on a model engine in shop. Lynn will attend Mankato State next fall.

Janice Nichols is known as one of those few seniors who believes in coming to school early. After school hours, she enjoys swimming, boating, reading, fishing, sewing, and writing to pen pals. She also likes to collect records. Janice, who is a member of the Graphos and Eagle staff, plans to work after graduation.

Ronnie Dahlthorp comes to us from Cambria via his red and white '57 Chevrolet. His friendly personality helped him to become vice-president of F.F.A. of which he is a member. Ronnie also sings bass in our senior choir. After graduation he will go into service and then farm, which he enjoys very much.

Choir

With the Festival and the Spring Concert behind, the choir has only graduation to look forward to. Students have truly seen the words "a bad dress rehearsal makes for a good concert" take action. This year we are seeking a new look for the graduation exercises with a new assortment of music and a special "senior class" choir, under the direction of Karen Darlington.

Mr. Ackermann is already having try-outs and making arrangements for next year's choir, which looks very promising.

Charlene Koeck is another senior girl who is athletically inclined. Her interests include going to teen-age dances and collecting records and pictures of her favorite rock'n'roll singers.

Kenny Hartman, whose main interests are girls, tennis and cars—black Plymouth's,—has a knack for livening up parties by telling jokes, whether they are good or bad. Redwood Fall's doubles tennis team is his major gripe right now. Did you lose to them, Ken? Mankato State is Kenny's goal after graduation from N.U.H.S.

Kathy Popp, whom you can find working at the Cat 'n Fiddle on Saturday nights, is a girl with a quiet, pleasing personality. Last fall she was one of the twirlers leading the band at football games. Besides dancing, she enjoys roller skating with her friends. Kathy's future plans are indefinite; but she plans to work in New Ulm.

Gary Zimmerman, one of the senior boys who blushes very easily, enjoys fishing and hunting in his spare time. By the way who's the cute girl that we see him walking to class everyday? This summer Gary's job will be driving a truck and next winter he will enlist in the Army.

Betty Hostelka, another lucky senior girl who will be getting a "sparkler" pretty soon seems to be floating on cloud number 9. Betty, a twirler, performed at our basketball and football games and was in the class play. This summer as well as next year she will be working at Oster's. Betty, we hear you were one of the seniors who was enjoying seventh hour study for a few days!

Harvey Olson, a bowling fan, enjoys bowling and also likes fixing cars when he can find the time. After May 28 he is going on a trip for about a month and then will be enlisting in the Air Force. Harvey's friendly ness will help make his future life a success. GAL 9 GRAPHOS JOB 8949 DC

Ronnie Thill, a happy go-lucky guy, has his hopes set on entering the armed forces next fall. Sports such as baseball and basketball occupy much of his leisure time. Ronnie says that English is the pet peeve. At the present he works on a farm and will continue through summer.

Audrey Miller is our tall blushing blond who comes from Hanska. She can often be seen rushing around to accomplish her duties as one of the Eagle Staff and a member of the Graphos staff. Audrey, who represented New Ulm at Girl's State last year, is also a member of choir and band. However, she is best known for being the best supporter of our student-body president. Audrey plans to study home economics at St. Olaf next year.

Judie Hoffman, a senior with a striking personality, takes part in choir and G.A.A. and in on the Eagle staff. Just lately we've noticed Judy has been riding the bus more frequently. Her interests seem to have switched to bus drivers. Next year we will find Judy in St. Paul at an airline school where she will get the necessary training to become a stewardess.

Wenz Wiesner, a congenial guy who enjoys a good time, plans to go into the armed forces after graduation under the military Police Branch. Most of us recognize Wenz as one of our star basketball players; and now he is playing with our still unbeaten baseball team. Better not exceed the speed limit anymore because after Wenz has completed his Army career, he intends to get a job with the highway patrol.

Peter Muehlen, one of our exchange students from Germany, enjoys listening to classical or jazz music, depending on the mood he is in. He also likes to travel, see and observe people—wonder who—as well as to participate in sports. After he has completed his education, he is going into the Army in Germany and later will work in his dad's business. We as a school have gained from his stay in our community and hope he has gained equally as much.

TAKE IT OR LEAVE IT

Actually I don't get it—but seven senior girls are wondering how Mr. Anderson's throwing arm is! (whatever it means, I believe it.)

"Anything you can do, we can do better!" I think that line could fit the senior girls as they sing it to the senior boys—about skipping school, detention, etc.!

No doubt the juniors will agree that all the effort and hard work that went into the making of the junior-senior prom and banquet were well worth it. We're sure that everyone enjoyed his "night by the sea."

While the mob scene was forming, little mob scenes were taking place off stage of "Thunder on Sycamore Street." Karen beat up "Ted for a nasty action and Jeffrey pushed a poor helpless wife over a piece of stuffed furniture, where her quiet husband was resting.

Sssshhh! quiet and shut-up was all that could be heard in the corridor before the "mob scene." That is until Mrs. Hayes and old lady Carson came tripping in over a tumbling mat.

Attention! Did you know that Mr. Jensen was "almost" considered the cleanest member on the faculty. It seems he went into a noisy place and was dragged to the shower room. Henceforth, he stuck to his putting make-up on.

Snooping Around NUHS

This year's senior class has last year's class beat for diamond rings—the two new victims of cupid's arrow are Betty Helseth and Betty Hostelka.

Mr. Heille tried to pull the old "shell" game at the Junior-Senior Prom Saturday night, but it didn't work. Either Mr. Heille's packet sleeve isn't large enough or else the waitresses are too quick.

"Cut that head." "Kill it!" "Who ripped off those heads?" These may sound like very blood thirsty remarks, especially coming from Miss Kayser, Never fear however; they are just comments made by the journalism class while setting up their dummies.

The Black Hole of Calcutta had nothing on the library during these hot humid days. The only difference is, the "prisoners" in the library do not have to stand the heat and lack of ventilation as long as the prisoners in India. So far, no casualties!

Thirteen days of formal classes left!

From night is now a memory—Skip Day, picnics and the spring dance are coming up. The latter event is to be held next Friday night. The Swing Band will play. Some novelty dance movies are to be shown—and the next year's swing band is to play for several numbers.

Donnie Johnson, a real quiet individual, is always cooperative and willing to help. He despises people who remove the grill from their car and don't replace it. During the summer months Donnie will be working with his dad in their machine shop; and then he plans to enlist in the Army.

Ronnie Martinka, too, is an active member of FFA. He is also a member of New Ulm's gymnastics team. Much of his spare time is spent riding horses, water skiing, and other interests whom we won't name. We understand, however, he can be found at Flandrau after 10 p.m. After graduation, Ronnie will farm at home.

Cliff Current ran the 880 yard run in 2:09.4 seconds to set a school record. This also broke the old Redwood invitational record. In the last stretch, Bryan of Buffalo Lake passed Cliff to claim the race and won the record with a time of 2:08.

Lyle Hames set a new school record in the low hurdles by covering the distance in :21.1 seconds. This was only one-tenth of a second shy of the Invitational record. The mile relay team ran the mile in 4:00.5 to tie last years record.

The Eagles opened their baseball season with a 9-2 win over DMLC High School on April 21 at Johnson Park.

Glen Plagge and Nils Iverson, both seniors, combined for the two-hitter. Plagge pitched the first three innings and Iverson the last four.

Luther scored its two runs in the first inning but after that, Plagge settled down and pitched two innings of no-hit ball. Iverson had 8 strikeouts in the four innings he worked.

Dennis Sperl, a sophomore, was the only Eagle who had two hits. Senior, Dave Silcox tripled.

Golfers Take Win

New Ulm High School's golfers placed in a triangular meet at Fairmont which opened the golf season.

Fairmont won the meet with a team score of 265. New Ulm was second with 279 and Esterville-Iowa was third with 283.

Many Picnics Planned To Climax Activities

A number of picnics and social events are being planned to climax school activities.

The Biology classes again this year have planned their annual picnic which takes them to Flandrau Park and over Camels-back Hill. They take their lunch and make it an afternoon free of school.

The Swing Band usually has a evening out in which they go to a supper club or hotel dining room. The event is made possible through the fees for playing for dances, one prom a year, and teenage dances. Each person is allowed to bring a guest.

Last Friday the final plans were made for the student council picnic. The picnic is paid for out of the receipts of concessions and other projects put on by the student council.

The members of the journalism class with their class adviser, Miss are going to spend part of the forenoon of May 20 going through the New Ulm Daily Journal. After the trip, they will go to the Fountain for a picnic dinner.
