

Kathy Korslund Selected NUHS Homecoming Queen

"Singe the Saints" is the hopeful slogan of all NUHS students for this year's homecoming game tonight against St. James. Kathy Korslund will reign as queen, with Christine Oswald, Sandra Cordes, Paulette Melzer, Sandra Fritsche, Lynn Schneider and Carol Strate as her attendants.

For the first time, all Thursday evening homecoming festivities were to be held in the auditorium. Activities were kicked off earlier in the week by the sale of pins by the student council representatives. These pins are beatnik pep pins with NU Eagles and a picture, but no slogan. They can be used at all athletic contests, not only at football games. If any student wishes to add purple and white ribbons, he can do so himself.

The announcement of the queen and her attendants was made last night at the pep fest. Following the pep fest and skits, food was served.

Tonights' activities will be headed by a parade to Johnson Field. Plans for the parade include something new; a junior high float and floats from the sophomore, junior and senior classes. The band will march down to Johnson Field and the students who will be following the band may get their shakeroots from the windows of the shop room.

The queen will be crowned by last year's queen, Judy Donahue. After the game with St. James, the homecoming dance will follow, with alumni coffee in the teacher's lounge and home economics room.

Open House Slated Early In November

Open house, an annual event at New Ulm Public Schools, will again be held this year, in the NUHS cafeteria, some evening during the third week of November. The exact date will be announced soon. The purpose is to enable the parents to become acquainted with the teachers. The time is 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Tours will be conducted throughout the building at intervals, and all the elementary, junior and senior high teachers will be on hand to meet with parents and friends. Coffee will also be served.

Although American Education Week is the second week of November, because of various conflicts, open house had to be moved ahead one week.

A cordial welcome is extended to all parents and friends.

Welcome Alumni

Six Attend Meet At Lake Crystal

Steve Marquardt, Myron Frisch, Donna Walt, Marni Gislason and our two exchange students from Germany, Suzanne Zoller and Claudia Konrad, participated in the annual Southwest Conference Student Council Meeting held at Lake Crystal on October 11.

Panel discussions were held in two sessions. This gave each delegate a chance to attend at least two panels. Two groups of panel leaders were selected so that they were able to attend at least one panel in addition to their own.

Topics discussed included "Sick" Student Councils, Worthy Projects, and Cooperation between Student Council and Administrations. Mr. Olson, the advisor from New Ulm, attended also.

Juniors Stepping Toward 'One Foot In Heaven'

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! the NUHS junior class on November 11 and 12 will present a play taken from the book by Hartzell Spence, entitled, One Foot in Heaven, a story of a minister's family.

It's cast of 17 includes John Bottenfeld as Reverend Spence; Sharon Warnemunde, Mrs. Spence; Calvin Korth, Hartzell; Karen Rockvam as Eileen; Craig Opel, Dr. Romer; Ronald Helget, Ronny; Tod Tillman, as George; Paul Marquardt, as Major Cooper; Morrie Peterson, Bishop; Bud Knopke, Fraser; Pat Long,

Twenty Year Sea Veteran To Talk On Experiences

Captain Paul W. Dry, veteran of twenty years of sea duty, will speak at NUHS on November 2, in the auditorium under the sponsorship of the University of Minnesota.

Captain Dry has spent his years on the high seas in the service of the United States Merchant Marine. In the course of his many voyages he has visited fifty-four countries

Seniors Briefed On Photos For Annual

"How shall I wear my hair for the pictures?" "Where will I ever get the money to pay for them?" These are a few of the queries that could be heard when the seniors were given a glimpse of what their pictures might look like.

Representatives from three New Ulm studios—Oswald's, Ackers, and Meyers—were at the class meeting. Seniors were supplied with information concerning the pictures' size, quantity, time to be taken, time of finishing, and cost.

The class will have a meeting to decide which is the studio of their choice. All seniors must have their pictures for the Eagle taken by the studio selected by the class. If they wish their personal pictures taken by a different studio, they may do so.

Senior High Students To Hold Mock Election

Is NUHS predominantly Republican or Democrat?

A mock election for state and national officials will be conducted during senior high home room period on November 7.

Sample ballots have been purchased, and students will show their preference by voting for their favorite candidates. After the election the votes will be tallied and the results announced.

Louise; Rhonda Loose, as Marie, Bonnie Smith, Molly; Joanne Erickson, Letty; Jeannie Epp, as Mrs. Sovel; Connie Mueller, Mrs. Digby; Gloria Fesenmaier as Mrs. Cambridge; and Joanne Brakke, as Mrs. Jellisen. Mr. Jenson is assisted by the assistant directors, Sandy Mathiowitz and Steve Bushard. The technical director is Mary Kay Schmid.

The members of the other committees will be published in a later issue of the Graphos.

and he has logged more than a million miles of ocean travel. His trips have taken him completely around the world five different times.

In addition to serious talk about the Maritime Service and spinning the wonderful yarns of the sea, Captain Dry brings with him a stageful of maritime equipment which he demonstrates and discusses.

An important part of his program is his discussion of the vocational aspects of Maritime Service and his personal observations of World Foreign Trade.

New Organization For Young GOP's

Teen-age Republican is the name chosen for a group of young people devoted to Vice-President Nixon and all his follower.

Bill Knopke is the president of the club; Carol Strate, vice-president, and Sandra Kerr, secretary.

The goals of the club are to raise funds for the party and to persuade voters to follow Nixon, Anderson, Peterson, and Nelson.

Meetings are usually held during the noon hour, but special meetings are held at night.

Boy Chosen Cheerleader

Boy chosen junior high cheerleader along with two girls!! From 68 candidates it was not easy to pick three cheerleaders.

The new junior high cheerleaders are Lauren Jones, Dorothy Young and Julie Pugmire. Alternates are Jeanie Stone and Diane Nord. They will cheer at all "B" squad games. Congratulation!

From Ulm, Germany, are NUHS two exchange students, Claudia Konrad and Susanne Zoller. Both are taking heavy schedules, participating in activities and learning to know the American way—including football games and TV.

1960 Grads Into Various Fields

Just what are the 1960 graduates of New Ulm High School doing? We have found they are pretty well split up and on their ways to the four corners of the world.

Attending colleges and universities are as follows: Mankato State—Jean Hintz, Lois Karl, Tom Karl, Mary Higgs, Arlo Kilmer, Ellen Lippmann and Sylvia Schwermann; St. Olaf—Susan Reim; Gustavus—Carol Albrecht and Bob Sandon; University of Minnesota—Claire Roloff, Ann Vogel, Rochelle Peiser and Jim Roloff; Yankton College—Pat McCleary; and Bemidji State College—Pamela Riederer.

Professional and Vocational Schools for Some

Taking up nursing as a profession are Sandy Hippert, Northwestern; Marsha Haber and Pat Fenske, Swedish Hospital; Kathy Clobes, University of Minnesota Nursing; and Nancy Newton, St. Mary's Hospital.

Seven girls are going to beauty school in Mankato:—Joyce Borchert, Sharon Foster, Kathy Keckeisen, Tricia Lindemann, Hettie Mau, Paulette Vorwerk and Karen Zupan. Ronald Guggisberg plans to attend Minneapolis Trade School.

Studying to become secretaries are Avis Borchert, Mayo Clinic, Medical Secretary; Norma Wieland and Kathryn Jeske, Mankato Com-

Journalism Class Seeking New Title

Because of a conflict, the date set for the traditional Twirp Dance is December 10 instead of sometime in November. The Journalism Class, which sponsors the Twirp Dance, is considering the changing of Twirp (The Woman Is Requested To Pay) to another theme. Anyone with suggestions may contact either members of the Journalism Class or Miss Kayer in Room 204.

mercial; and Darlene Meyers and Judy Donahue, Minneapolis School of Business.

Uncle Sam has the Greater Number

The armed forces have claimed 21 of the boys. Air Force: Charles Fleck, Bruce Keske, Jerry Kretsch, Ken Worden, Dick Melhop, Carlyle Stadick, Jerry Steinkopf, Reuben Stoll, Gary Mueffelmann, Roger Zobel, and Tom Lindemann; Paratroops: Roger Grossmann, Cliff Current and Jerry Skalla; Navy-Air Force: Dave Hulke; Army: Dean Lindquist, Richard Kral, Richard Schweiss, John Hogen and Jim Preisinger; National Guard: Doug Henke; and Navy, Alan Geslin. Allan Altmann plans to enter the Navy in November.

Labor, as usual, has the largest following. Working at Osters are Joanne Clyne, Marjorie Blaahid, Sharon Beck, Sharon Bethke, Merle Frank, Mary Zangel, George Long, Tom Reinhart and Margaret Altmann.

Working on farms: Leander Gulden, Vernon Sievert, Lester Fluegge, Clarence Deopere, Jerry Wieland, Tom Wellner, Terry Wellner, Merle Wenger and Bob Besemer.

Work in Nearby Towns for Many Others are Tom Ubl and Gary Hesse, Burdick Grain Elevator; Gerald Tobias, Kraft; Rita Thill, Eibners and plans marriage; Karen Janini, turkey plant in Madelia; Karen Salisbury, Fingerhut Factory in Gaylord; Sharon Fiemeyer, Coop Creamery in Courtland; Shirley Clyne, Union Hospital; Arlene Fluegge, LeSueur Canning Factory; Jim Grundmeyer, assistant manager at the National Food Store produce department at Sleepy Eye; Kathy Konakowitz, bank in Springfield; Janice Reinhart, Gislason and Reim and New Ulm Theater; Vernon Wilson, body shop; Bill Fritz, Star and Tribune Office and part time at the North Side Garage; Shirley Koopmann, packing eggs at Gaylord; Larrys Hulke, Supersweet in Courtland; Elaine Boesch, Berens and Rodenberg Law Office, and ReJean Fluegge, Joleen Fluegge and John Farrell, at home.

Planning marriage are Janice Bugger, Rosemary Griebel, and Gloria Schreiner. Elizabeth Rewitzer is now Mrs. H. Kretsch; and Pauline Sues, Mrs. R. Zangl.

Yvonne Helget and John Higgs are undecided.

Boys Choir Organized

Attention Boys! Do you like to sing? If so, Mrs. Wiechert, the vocal director, is starting a new all-male chorus. The group now consists of fifteen boys, but many more are needed! You will sing the kind of songs that you would like to sing and possibly do some barbershop harmony. The group meets every Tuesday night at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Wiechert said, "If you like to sing, boys, please come!"

SPORTS CRIER

by Steve Marquardt

With the Saints from St. James invading New Ulm tonight for the homecoming battle, you'll probably be witnessing the top game of the campaign. That may be hard to realize after watching the Eagles build a 4-0-1 mark thus far.

Even though we beat Sleepy Eye 19-6, Glencoe 6-0, tied Waseca 0-0, knocked off Fairmont 13-6 and nipped Redwood Falls 20-19 last week, we still have three rough games ahead. These are the St. James game tonight, St. Peter here next Friday and then Blue Earth.

The present leaders of the South Central Conference, St. James has a 1-0 league mark. They beat Blue Earth 20-0 in their only conference start. New Ulm is a half-game behind because of the tie with Waseca and needs a win desperately for title hopes. A loss would put the Eagles a full game and a half back. But a win would put New Ulm in the No. 1 position.

Even if we win tonight's contest, we still have to take the remaining two games or stand a chance of sharing the title. But if Waseca gets knocked off while the Eagle continue to win, the title is ours. Only remember the few 'ifs' and 'but's' that stand between us and the title.

How does St. James come into the game? Since an opening season loss to Redwood Falls by 34-13, they have held their opposition to only a single touchdown. That's quite an improvement. The first

TD came last week in the 19-6 win the Saints had over Windom.

They have Al Firchau and Steve Strommen in the backfield, who always give someone a headache. Last year, Firchau raced for two touchdowns while Strommen piloted the squad to a 24-12 win in their homecoming. Can the Eagles turn the trick this year?

Choir Teacher Brings Changes

Mrs. Wiechert is the new music teacher this year. Along with her come many new ideas for more vocal groups. Time allowing, Mrs. Wiechert would like to start a Boy's Choir and more quartets and sextets. Study halls must be juggled to make these possible.

Right now Mrs. Wiechert is busy with a Freshman Choir, Senior Choir, and Girl's Glee Club. Approximately 200 students participate.

No special music is being used at the moment because there are still several people trying out. Mainly religious and patriotic songs will be sung until the choir is completed.

A pianist to accompany the choir is still to be chosen. Margaret Palmer has been playing so far, but others wishing to try out are most welcome. The choirs meet in a new place this year—the Little Theater; this room must be used instead of B-1 because of a shortage in class rooms. Tryouts will be held there.

Eagles Dump Cardinals For First Time Since '53

by Karl Preuss

The New Ulm Eagles handed Fairmont a bitter defeat on their homecoming September 30. It was the first time the Eagles had beaten Fairmont since 1953.

After two unsuccessful marches, New Ulm broke into the scoring column. With less than a minute left in the half, Doug Wiesner intercepted a Fairmont pass and raced 67 yards for the T. D. Karl Preuss kicked the extra point.

The Eagles scored again in the third quarter after a set of exchanged punts. The drive went 33 yards in 13 plays. With fourth down on the one foot line, Doug Wiesner hit Steve Aufderheide in the end zone. This time Preuss' kick went wide.

Fairmont then scored on a 48-yard drive with Moye going over for the T. D.

The Eagles were without the services of Chuck Wieland, who was out with a knee injury; and Myron Frisch, who was in the Twin Cities for religious services.

The win gave the Eagles three wins, no losses, and a tie for the season.

Fairmont 0 0 0 6— 6

Uncensored Opinions Of Teaching Coaches

Since sports are almost with us, football, basketball, track, or something else, we thought we'd find out some girls' opinions of our coaches. Remember, these statements are merely the girls' opinion of them as people, not as teachers or coaches.

E. W. Anderson (Head Football) "I wish he was a little younger and not married." C.S.

Virg Goertzen (Ass. FTball. Bskball) "Reminds me of Mike Y. Gets all red and embarrassed." S.C.

Cliff Anderson (Wrestling) "Something about him that reminds me of a father." P.M.

Lee Hopfenspirger (Head Basketball) "Ruff! I think he is real neat." G.R.

Vern Zahn (Head Baseball B-Basketball) "Real nice, always has baseball and Karl Rolvaag on his mind." G.F.

Henry Epp (Track) "I like him! What a weird sense of humor." H.L.

Snooping Around NUHS

If you happen to see Dan Lloyd's wart, (apologies to Miss Raverty) you can thank Jane Vogelpohl for putting the toad in Dan's locker.

Miss Steen asked her third hour English class what a paradox was. Jim Babel, expressing his brilliant deduction to only a few classmates, came up with, "A pair of docs."

Talk about the power of the press—Mike Shay, oblivious of everything, was seen at a stop sign reading the "Graphos," as cars rolled through the green light.

You've probably heard of bats in the belfry, but how about mice in psychology? Big Neil (gamehunter) Edwards brought two mice for an experiment in animal instincts. Agnes and Leander were their names. When the cat, a natural enemy, didn't go after the mice, Chris Oswald's dog "Freddie" did!

According to one senior boy, Dr. Manette went into a Comma after a certain event.

When Charles Wieland asked question after question in Miss Kayser's English class, she turned to him and said, "Charles, I don't know whether you have an inquiring mind or whether you're just a pest." Jerry Dannheim immediately pointed his finger at Charles and said, "Bang! Bang!"

Second Half Eagle Rally Beats Redwood Falls 20-19

by Randy Kroening

The New Ulm Eagles, seeking their first win over Redwood Falls in seven years, came fighting back in the second half to edge the Cardinals, 20-19, in a thriller.

Redwood dominated the first half as quarterback and co-captain Chuck Lussenhop passed for three Cardinal touchdowns. The first one came on a nine yard pitch to end Bill Maher. The kick for the extra point was blocked by Roger Ring, who replaced Paul Renner at center. The Eagles tied things up at 6-6 as Mike Young scored on a seven yard run.

Lussenhop again passed to Maher for his second touchdown. This time the extra point attempt succeeded as Lussenhop again put the Cardinals out in front, 13-6. Lussenhop hadn't finished his aerial attack on the Eagles, though, as he passed to end John Stemm to give the Cardinals a halftime lead of 19 to 6.

Sad Dad's

It was Dad's Night at Redwood Falls and the dads had something to see as the tide changed in the second half in favor of the Eagles. The Cardinals' offense ground to a halt as New Ulm's defense tightened up and allowed them only one first down in the entire second half.

"Redwood Special"

The Eagles' offense started rolling also as Young ran for his second touchdown and the extra point. The Eagles caught up with Redwood late in the third quarter as Young threw a pass to Doug Wiesner in an inspiring play, better known to Coach Anderson and a few others as the "Redwood Special." Call it what you may, it worked, and the ball game was again tied up at 19-19. But New Ulm couldn't be stopped as Wiesner passed to Young for the crucial extra point and the resulting 20-19 victory.
