

Seniors Honored Soon With Awards

The annual Senior Awards Night program will be presented May 28, at 8:00 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Dennis Kral, senior class president, will preside.

An outdoor band concert will be held before the program, with senior members of the band directing, if weather permits. Otherwise the concert will be indoors.

Letters, chevrons, monograms, and pins will be awarded to the seniors under the NUHS point system as symbols of achievement.

The special awards includes the Dirks Memorial and the Tante Meyer awards, all-activity, Josten, American Legion, Bausch-Lomb Science, Eckstein Music, Geib-Janni Shop, L. B. Krook Commercial trophies, and the National Honor Society Awards. The State Bond and Mortgage Scholarship winner will also be announced at this time.

Meaning of Awards Explained
The Dirks Medal is awarded to a senior boy, and the Tante Meyer to a senior girl who has shown his high character, done average or better school work, and taken advantage of the opportunities offered him during high school.

The Josten Award goes to one senior boy and one senior girl having earned the greatest number of honor points during their attendance in Senior High School.

192 To Graduate In Outdoor Service

As 192 seniors await graduation exercises to be held at 8 o'clock at Johnson Field on June 4, the administration is planning a time schedule and the procedure to be followed if it rains.

Harold P. Pluimer, Director of Aerospace Education at North Central Region United States Air Force, will speak.

The schedule will be much the same as last year. The seniors are to assemble at 7:30. Only minor changes will be made to fit the number of students graduating compared to last year's 146 students.

War March of The Priest by Mendelssohn will be the processional and Pomp and Circumstance by Elgar the recessional, played by the band. As a feature number the band will play Marriage of Figaro by Mozart.

The choir's plans are still being made, but there will be several selections.

'Li'l Abner' Attracts Largest Crowd Ever

A record crowd of almost 3,000 saw the matinee and the three night performances of "Li'l Abner" a few weeks ago. Sponsored by the senior class, the Broadway play grossed about $1500, which will be placed, after expenses are withdrawn, into the senior class treasury. It will probably be put in the organ fund after graduation.

Being a musical and requiring many cast and crew members, "Li'l Abner" drew its workers and actors from all senior high classes. The 99-member cast included 13 sophomores, 22 juniors, and 50 seniors. Crew members numbered 132. Of the nine crews, three were headed by underclassmen.

After the last performance, gifts purchased with money collected from cast and crew members were presented to the advisors. Among other things Mr. Jenson received a fly wishing him a speedy recovery and a sand pail and shovel to help

The American Legion Award is awarded to one senior boy and one senior girl selected by the faculty on the basis of 40% citizenship, 40% extra-curricular and 20% scholarship.

Membership in National Honor Society

Seniors in the upper third of the class in scholarship are eligible for the National Honor Society, but not more than 15% of the class may be selected. Service, leadership, character, and scholarship are the four qualifications on which membership is based. Also only those seniors who have attended NUHS for at least two years are eligible for membership here. The faculty rates each individual, and then the committee makes the final selection on the basis of these ratings.

The initiation ceremonies for the newly-chosen members will climax Award Night.

Distribution Of Eagle To Be Last Week Of May

Distribution of the 1965 Eagle to over 640 students and faculty members will take place on Wednesday, May 26. Seniors will receive their yearbooks in the auditorium, juniors in the small gym, sophomores in the Little Theater, and freshmen in the library. The seventh and eighth graders will report to the cafeteria.

Rev. Hauan To Deliver Senior Sermon May 30

The Reverend James Hauan of St. Peter's Episcopal Church will deliver the Senior Sermon to the class of 1965. This year Our Savior's Lutheran is hosting the services at 8 p.m. on May 30.

Pastor N. S. Magelsson of Our Savior's will give the Liturgy. The Senior Choir of Our Savior's with members of the Select Choir under the direction of Mrs. Wiechert will also take part in the services.

The class members who plan to attend are asked to be at the church with their caps and gowns at 7:30.

in his garden. (Rumor has it that this is Mr. Jenson's last year to direct a play. Next year he will help only on the tech work.) Mrs. Wiechert, who was in charge of the vocalists, was given a dozen red roses and a stereo album; Mr. Iverson, who directed the swing band, was given two albums; and Mrs. Ackerson, who helped out backstage and with construction, received a baseball bat charm for her bracelet. (She had threatened to use one of the props to protect the sets backstage).

To celebrate the climax of over four months of work, a party was held in the small gym, Saturday night. It was planned by Jackie Aaker and some of the crew chairmen. Refreshments were paid for by the senior class.

"Strike," the taking down of all the sets and general clean-up, took place Sunday afternoon.

Prom 'Experiment' Termed Successful

"The escorts to the club made us feel like real guests. I enjoyed the banquet because we could choose what we wished to eat and didn't have to wait for service." The opinion of the changes in prom were stated this way by one senior girl. The changes included a smorgasboard served at the Tropicana and being chaffeured to the prom by parents and faculty. The guests went to the Tropicana in two shifts, 5:45 and 7:30.

The Gay Nineties quartet of Montevideo started the evening with songs and humor. Several girls were personally serenaded by the group. Punch was served at school by several sophomore girls, before each shift went to the Smorgasboard and also during the dance.

The Grand March, led by Dennis Kral, George Wolf and their dates, provided many onlookers with an opportunity to enjoy the evening clothes worn by the students and the decorations which followed the theme "Carousel." A dance followed with music by the Henry Charles band.

Jeri Ahrens and Ann Fesenmaier, kneeling, and Donna Fischer and Mildred Broste, standing, place some final touches on Prom decorations.

Final Assembly Planned As End of Year Nears

This year, as every year, the final assembly of the year will put the finishing touches on another school term and bid the out-going seniors farewell. The assembly will start promptly at 8:30 a.m., June 4. Tom Ginkel will preside and Mr. Fjelstad will speak for a few moments with words of advice for the seniors.

All last-minute tasks will be performed, from the passing of the gavel by student body president, Tom Ginkel to the newly elected president, to the presenting of any awards not given at award night.

Music will be provided by the pep band and final announcements made. The singing of the school song for the last time in the 1964-65 school year will close the program.

Students Practice Directing As Band Plans For Spring

Thirteen directors are taking turns at conducting NUHS band rehearsals as preparation for spring events get into full swing.

Eleven of these directors are seniors who will be leading the band during the concert on Award Night, May 28. Jack Aaker will open the program with "American Eagle March," and will be followed by Kathy Ballard, directing "My Hero." The next number, "Student Prince," will be conducted by Mr. Kodet, student teacher. The following seniors will be in charge of the remainder of the program: Bonnie Berentson, "Billboard March"; Penny Parsons, "Lawrence of Arabia"; Eileen Karl, "Overture for Winds"; Judy Epp, "Swing Bolero"; Carol Lindquist, "Noble Men March"; Rog Schmid, "Hootenanny"; Mark Sather, "Bandology"; and Brian Schmucker, "Orange Bowl March".

Of course, Mr. Strang is also wielding the baton at rehearsals. As seniors watch, and occasionally help with difficult passages, he works with juniors and sophomores on parts for "War March of the Priests" and "Pomp and Circumstance," the processional and recessional for commencement.

Nine Represent NUHS At Boys', Girls' County

Seeing first hand county government in action on May 4, were nine juniors from NUHS, participating in Boys' and Girls' County. This event is sponsored by the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary. Representatives were chosen by the faculty in much the same manner as Boys' and Girls' Staters. They were Ruth Webster, Eric Forsberg, George Marti, Donald Nelson, Steve Plautz, Jim Schiller, Myrene Jones, Sally Vogel and Katy Knopke.

'65-'66 Co-Editors Picked For Paper

Graphos co-editors for 1965-1966 will be Ruth Webster and Sandra Woods. Bobbi Lieberman will be assisted by John Morris as sports editor; and Gayla Lueck will be page editor. These students are, at present, enrolled in journalism.

Fifteen other members of the present journalism class will provide help with assignments during the year.

The new Graphos staff will have the sole responsibility for and will put out the last issue, that of June 4.

Student Body Pres. Nominations Made

First come the nominations, then the campaign, and finally the inevitable defeat or victory. This is the way it has always been in selecting a student body president and this is the way it's going to be this year. You might say only the candidates have been changed.

On May 6, nominations were made by the tenth and eleventh grades, and the following were chosen as candidates: Gary Gluth, James Schiller, Tod Schnobrich, David Schwartz and George Wolf.

Come May 14, the candidates will address the student body and state what they believe they can do for NUHS. But the student body has the last word, and on May 19, the day following the school board elections, they will say it.

around the county, the group took a tour of the court house, sat in on a County Commissioner's meeting, visited the jail, and were given an explanation of the county court system by District Judge Mather. They then went to the Probate Court Room where various workers in the court house, such as the auditor, the register of deeds and the county nurse explained their individual functions.

In the Register of Deeds office, the group was given a demonstration of the microfilming devices.

After lunch at Turner Hall, Mayor Rodenberg talked to the students on what the young people of today want to be recognized for.

Thirty-one boys and girls from Comfrey, Hanska, Springfield, Sleepy Eye, and New Ulm attended Boys' and Girls' County.

Seniors Attend Annual Law Day at Courthouse

The President of the United States has again issued his proclamation to the effect that May 1 is Law Day. As in former years, seniors, in observance of the day, spent the morning of April 30 at the courthouse observing a mock trial. The affair was sponsored locally by the Brown County Bar Association.

The Law Day theme for 1965 is that to uphold the law is a citizen's first duty, and the purpose of the Day is to focus attention on the fact that every citizen can help strengthen our nation by the rule of the law.

Mr. Terence Dempsey was Law Day chairman. The moderators were Mr. Reim and Mr. Somsen; Mr. Nierengarten and Mr. Rosenbloom acted as judges; and Mr. Minium, Mr. Hunter, Mr. Alsop and one more attorney were chosen to present the case.

Americans, according to Mr. Dempsey, can contribute to Law Day by recognizing the rights of others by personal compliance with the laws, by teaching respect for laws in the home, by supporting and aiding law enforcement, by serving on a jury, and by giving testament in court when called upon.

The WAG

We Are the Greatest

First of all we would like to say, and I think we speak for all seniors, that the prom was just great. The teachers were having so much fun, we think next year it should be called the Faculty-Junior-Senior Prom.

We've made a careful and expert study of the future of the class of '65. These are some of the predictions on what the students will do.

Greg Heille—pack Dash in washers 10 feet tall (while making proclamations.)

Charles Forsberg—Swiss Cheese and doughnut hole salesman.

John Anderson—give testimonials for the twilight zone.

Jerry Sandau (and car)—philosopher (But that's all life is—waiting.)

Tim Silcox—sidewalk surfer.

Dennis Kral—a pole vaulter.

Gary Paulson—a hero.

Susie Lange—"Pewlit Surprise" winner for her "Ode to Dead Balloon."

Joe Ubl—bottle cap painter.

Steve Reinhart—green money-maker.

Ted Schmidt—a red onion.

Ann Schaeffer, Karen Schlumpberger, and Patty Drexler—a trouble trio.

Jack Aaker—just plain Jack Aaker.

Scott Harmening—inventor of a build-your ego machine.

Gayle Schleuder—an outlaw.

Pauline Precht—a gypsy.

Joe Minnik—Mighty Mouse.

Jackie Borchert—Donald Duck (quack, quack.)

Have you seen Greg Heille's rubber-band with a nail through it? For those of you who don't know, it's a hangnail.

We have been accused of stealing the name WAG from last year's seniors. We haven't really. Then it meant "We are the greatest." Our class is modest. To us it means only, "We are great."

Every body knows Mr. Werner calls his sixth hour class "Mutts!" Louise Brinkman and Jean Raabe decided to do something about it. They handed out Milk Bone Dog Biscuits at the beginning of class. But they should learn not to try to get the best of Mr. Werner. By the end of class, sixth hour students were awfully full of dog biscuits!

Please, someone, tell Todd Schnobrich to read this column for once so he knows what he's complaining about!

We wish to repeat a former announcement that Bill Hintz is not related to Marlene Hinze in any way. Besides being a football hero, Bill is a great asset to Mr. Epp's track team. I heard Mr. Epp say the other day that Bill can run faster with one foot tied behind him than any other boy can run on two feet. Isn't that nice to know, Bill?

Pat Nelson is one of the great chemistry students at NUHS. Without her in lab there would be little accomplished. Just think of the fifteen minutes of hard work spent cleaning out a crucible. Then guess who broke it? She is interested in nursing and playing a brunette Daisy Mae with Li'l Abner himself. Her sharp clothes and freckles are the envy of many girls.

Hailing from Lafayette, Bob Green will be one of the 192 students to graduate this spring. Bob was a part of our wrestling team and they couldn't have made it without him. Rumors have it that Bob's also a real swinger in Consumers Education. How about it, Bob?

If you want to have a real swingin time take lessons from Diane Hall. No one could possibly enjoy life the way Diane does. Occasionally she even works, like out at Ebert's last summer. The rest of the time Diane can be found tearing up the city streets with that lovely, gray, snailed-shaped car she drives. One thing is sure—Diane will never have time to get bored.

Cal (Cal Vine, the grapevine) (Dudley Do-right) (Gib) (Speed) (Grace)—yes Grace as in graceful! (Bashful) Schreyer! Isn't that just about enough of a description of Cal? But there are a few of us who like him anyway. Seriously, Cal is really a terrific guy and he even occasionally works for Mr. Epp. Usually Cal skips away from work, but he'd do almost anything to get out of Phy. Ed. No, if ever you need a favor done, just ask Cal; he'd be willing to help. The best of luck to a swell guy!!!

No one in school has ever heard a TALL story about Donna Komro. They've all been short, but sweet. When asked what subjects she was interested in, she replied, "Easy ones!" Probably her biggest problem during all her school days was guarding Jane Gaut in a basketball game. Of course, as in everything else, she did a wonderful job.

Steven Keske is another member of the 5th hour Consumers Education Class. (One of Mr. Borchert's favorite students, I'll bet!) Steve is undecided about his immediate future, but the thought of service and being mama's fearless soldier is sticking in his mind. Steve, you'd make a great general.

Ivan Radloff is another conscientious and hard working guy. Reliable but quiet are characteristics of Ivan. Working hard, being conscientious and reliable are all good ingredients for the recipe of success. May he blend them well!

Rochelle Roberts is a demon behind the wheel and a real whiz in Phy. Ed. Rochelle is another new member of our class and has a talent for making friends and showing them a good time. Luck always to a girl who knows how to have fun.

Marvin (Sonny) Romberg—If anyone's been back stage during a play or concert, more than likely they've run into Sonny. LOOK OUT!! He's real good at bouncing anyone right out the back door if they're disturbing the peace! Basketball, track, and permanent stage crew are all part of Sonny. NUHS will be losing one of its "biggest" assets this spring.

Steve ("Hund" (that's German—refer to Steve or Leon Berdan for the definition), Rat, Evil Eye Fleagle) Reinhart—Everyone knows Steve by at least one of these names. His characterization in Lil Abner won't be forgotten. He's a smooth guy with a "smooth way" about him. Seriously, people, like Steve are hard to come by (especially his nicknames). Whatever his future may be we're sure (pretty sure, anyway) he'll always find new "front-tiers" and nicknames.

Lida Peters is the hard-working hospital gal who will one day be the best hard-working LPN that Union Hospital ever saw. Lida has a certain knack for being around and saying the right things at the right time—perfect assets of being a perfect nurse. This past year she has been library assistant. She deserves a lot of credit and recognition for just being the wonderful girl she is; there's no other words that could describe her better.

Paulette (Pete) Peterson—If anyone has known Paulette for 12 years, they know she has another nickname, "Giggles!" Obviously! Paulette is also known for her "lush" wardrobe. She can usually be found bombing around in her "hot Ford (muddy country roads don't keep her home!) "Cheerfulness" seems to be her key word to life—and a good one at that!

Vicki Pietz—keeps herself busy (most of the time) being editor of the "Graphos" and working at the "Daily Journal." Journalism seems a likely occupation for Vicki. She has a tendency to worry a lot, but then who wouldn't with Miss Kayser chasing you all over school waiting for "Graphos" assignments! Right "Graphos" staff and Vicki, our leader?

Pat (Busy Bee) Martius was one of the few kids who really knew what she was doing back stage during our presentation of Li'l Abner. Pat works hard in school too, which is shown by the condition her books are in. No one has more old papers and notes packed in her books. Maybe she uses them to review her final exams.

Helen Heck, dark hair and eyes, wears a "sparkler" on the third finger of her left hand or in other words: She has her future all planned. She's getting married shortly after graduation. She never talks a great deal, but she is very attentive. What more can we say but Best Wishes.

Gary (Bugs) Paulson is our pride and joy in track. We have thought of another nickname for Bugs—"Road Runner," because it is said his manner of running resembles that of the famed cartoon character. Gary is not only outstanding as a track star, but is equally good in both basketball and football. Besides being a good athlete, it is rumored that Gary is a terrific comedian—his Prom invitation acceptance is really something to behold. Real conciet, Bugs!

Terry (Appassionata) Peterson is the study hall giggler, but she is a very effective comedienne; she can usually even get the teacher to laugh. We predict that Terry will be a great journalist some day, since she's doing such a great job writing Senior Sketches (she didn't write this one). Terry had the part of Appassionata, Bullmoose's girl friend in 'Lil Abner.' We wish the best to our co-heart in lawsuits!

Sandra (Sandy (Puff) Pfeiffer is the red-head that works at the Theater. She is also a star member of the "Left Rear Corner Club" of the Monday First Aid Class and usually can think of a good idea to frustrate Mr. Anderson. But without Sandy and her interesting pocket novels, the class just wouldn't be the same!

Mary Ann Schirlinger is the friendly blonde waitress down at Eibner's. She also managed to find time to be one of the dancers in the musical; a very good one, in fact. Her only possible fault is that she gets rather flustered when Mr. Harman asks her a question—but then, who doesn't?

Ted (Teddy (Schmidty)) Schmid has to be part Irish—they are the ones who are notorious for bad and quick tempers, aren't they? This is Ted's only bad quality, however, and he has a zillion good ones to more than make up for that teeny little bad one. He is a little hard to get to know, but once you know him you'll never regret it—he's one of the nicest guys around, and is always willing to do you a reasonable favor. You will always find his name on the honor roll and on the roster of the band. Good luck to a swell guy and future architect!!

Brian (Byron) Schmucker is known by everyone, 'cuz he's one of the friendliest guys around. Byron has a terrific voice that has won him much fame in both musicals and Select Choir and Boys' Chorus. Byron is also a good athlete—was out for football and is out for golf. Best of luck at college, Bri.

Kenny Lang is one of those tall, good-looking intelligent senior boys. His name frequently appears on the honor roll, showing only a few of his achievements. He also displays his talents in FFA. Best of Luck to a really neat guy.

Janice (Jan) Schugel, the gal who is seen driving around town in a white pick-up truck—but it's one of the most popular ones in town. She was a last minute arrival on the property crew, but she sure made herself useful! Jan is always willing to try something new before she says "can't" we found out in Phy. Ed. during tumbling and apparatus. She turned out to be one of the best students in the class.

Junior Chatter

Dear Daddy,

—Congratulations are in order to Ruth Webster. Her mother had a baby while we were working on Prom decorations. Ruth was not prepared for the event; she didn't even have any cigars.

—Poor Mr. E. W. Anderson has his problems. His car, dog, and desks all disappeared in three days. Call the police and hope the insurance policy is good.

—How many people saw the movie after Prom? I don't mean who didn't go, I want to know how many went and slept through it.

—The question of the month is "Where did I put my shoes?"

Love
Me

Kathy Mack is always looking for fun; and by the smile she always wears, we assume she must find it. She does do some work, however. After graduation she hopes to go to Mankato business school. Good luck, Kathy.

Lois Hesse is very popular in the 1st hour social science class as the silent thinker. She never worries about anything; in fact, her mind is so at ease that she can sleep through any class without being disturbed even if she sits in the front desk. Lots of luck to a real sweet girl.

Tom (pin-him-down) Noyes is another member of our terrific wrestling team. Naturally, his favorite subject is First Aid. His favorite pastime is driving around with Chuck Shay and the rest of "the boys." Good luck, Tom.

Besides being a very bright student Carol Lindquist can be proud of her talent to play the piano. She also did a marvelous job as student director for the senior high production of Li'l Abner. Carol can be easily recognized by her friendly smile and happy "Hi!"

Tall Vaughn Johnson may be quiet and shy, but he's always thinking. He must be one of the few seniors left who's still interested in learning something this year. We're sure Vaughn will take many fine memories from NUHS with him after graduation.

NU Takes Second

Chuck Strate of NUHS tallied upset wins both in the high jump and broad jump, but his team wound up second as Madelia coasted to a 61-point quadrangular track victory April 27, at Johnson Field. The Eagles finished with 40 points.

Accounting for second place were Craig Steenberg, in the mile run; Bruce Wiesner in the discus and high jump; and Bill Hintz in the high jump (tie for second). The mile relay team also finished second.

Nicollet finished third and Springfield fourth in the first track meet of the season.

New Ace Guns 3 Hitter

Bruce Burdorf's 3-hit pitching and Scott Harmening's 2-run single paced the Eagles to a 2-0 shutout over Sleepy Eye April 23 at Johnson Field.

Jerry Pagel reached first base on an error in the fifth and Tim Silcox singled to the opposite field. Harmening's third single of the day brought both runners home.

Shortstop regular Burdorf proved effective on the mound too as he registered 11 strikeouts and allowed no walks. Lonnie Dehne pitched an inning of relief, setting the Indians down 1-2-3 in the seventh.

Senior high girls kept playing their 1965 basketball playoffs throughout the weeks of the play and prom. The games now have been completed, with Jane Gaut's team victorious.

With those games all in the past, the girls started the class tournaments. The juniors won over the sophomores, but they, in turn, lost to the senior team.

During the last few weeks of school, these girls will start practicing for the track meet, May 15, ending a year of fun in the girls' athletic department.

FFA Achievements

by John Fluegge

The Dekalb Corn Achievement Award was won by the New Ulm FFA Chapter. Those winning were Gary Gluth, John Schroeder, Tom Haala, John Fluegge, Mike Griebel, Neal Hoffman, Jeff Griebel, David Roloff and Allan Lambrecht. Each received a plaque.

John Schroeder was named Minnesota's Star FFA Dairy Farmer. For his achievement he received one hundred dollars and a beautiful trophy.

The Region Six Dairy Judging Championship went to the NU FFA. The five-member team was as follows: Roger Besemer, Tom Haala, John Schroeder, John Fluegge and Gary Gluth. Roger Besemer, Tom Haala and John Schroeder went to the state convention and received a superior rating in the state meet.

Other teams going to the state convention were the crops and soils teams who also received a superior rating in the tough competition. The crops team placed seventh in the state and the soils team placed eighth. The crops team was made up of the following: Paul Brandel, Mike Griebel and Dennis Kral. Allan Lambrecht, Kenneth Lang, and Lloyd Hoffman made up the soils team. The teams were competing with seventy-five of Minnesota's top teams.

Roger Zahn In One Hitter

An unearned run in the seventh inning lifted the New Ulm Eagles to a 3-2 non-conference victory over West St. Paul April 24 at Johnson Field.

Bruce Burdorf notched the Eagle's go-ahead run with two out in the last frame when he reached third on an outfield error and came home on an attempted pick-off play.

Both teams had good pitching, but several errors were committed as the result of a rain-soaked, muddy field. Roger Zahn pitched a one-hitter in gaining his second win.

1-0 Win For NUHS Team

A first inning run scored by Tim Silcox was all New Ulm needed to win their fifth game in a row and blank St. Peter 1-0, on May 3 on the Saints' field.

Silcox led off with a walk and advanced to second on Bruce Burdorf's infield out. Neil Gulden's single sent him to third and he scored moments later on Joel Zimmermann's sacrifice fly to right.

Burdorf and Rog Zahn combined for a one-hitter while striking out 6. Except for a fourth inning triple, the Saints never got a man beyond first.

Cheerleading Tryouts

Senior high cheerleading tryouts will be held May 14 following candidates for class president speeches. Two of the 64-65 cheerleaders, Ann Fesenmaier and Karen Lampright, are trying out again.

Five groups are trying out, as of May 4:—Jackie Berg, Andy Schmid, and Linda Odegard, freshmen; Ann Fesenmaier, Kathy Nelson, Cheryl Roberts, juniors, and Helen Rodenberg, a sophomore; Karen Lampright, Linda Johnson, juniors and Vickie Pugmire a sophomore. Marianne Lohman, Lorie Kosek, Linda Newton and Susie Feuerhelm, all sophomores. Gloria Wieland and Sandy Melzer, sophomores, make up the last group.

By Greg Roiger

Local sports scribe and enthusiast Steve Reinhart came up with some predictions in study hall the other day that pretty well state New Ulm's hopes for spring sports in a nutshell.

—In baseball "Evil Eye" said New Ulm should go places, through the district and into the region. With the addition of Bruce Burdorf to the pitching corps that area looks set. All we need, says Steve, is some of the hitting of last year.

—In track, the first thing he said was, "Gary Paulson will go to state." He wasn't going to stick out his neck but said the team shouldn't be surprised if some of the promising candidates come through.

—The tennis team, says Steve, isn't having a tremendously successful season, but, should do "fair" in the district.

With the return of veterans Brian Schmucker, Keith Cunningham, Roger Schmid, "Choker" Chuck Shay, and with the help of such promising golfers as Bill Koeckeritz, New Ulm, will take district, and region and fare well in the state.

Just in case Steve's predictions are correct, here are the dates and times of upcoming tournaments.

Baseball playoffs for District 10 start May 24. The Region III tournament is Monday, June 7 and Wednesday, June 9 at Granite Falls. In track—the district meet is here Saturday, May 29, the Region meet at Hutchinson, Saturday, June 5, and the state, in the Twin Cities June 11 and 12.

District golf and tennis are on the same day, May 29. Golf at Winthrop and tennis here. Region is also on the same date, June 4, both at Montevideo. The state tournament for the two sports is June 11 and 12.

Four Dollars Profit

Four dollars a share was the profit made by NUHS senior social classes on their 17 shares of McCrory Corporation stock, when it was sold several weeks ago.

An investment in Sunset International is not doing as well, but the seniors plan to hold those shares for a time.

He is the co-editor of the year-book, a member of the boys' chorus and the NUHS choir, a singer for the swing band, and a district vocalist. Active in sports, he has participated in football, basketball, and baseball.

Eagle Editors Chosen; Plans Made for '66

To include more people in candid or informal shots, the Eagle will be enlarged next year from 103 pages to 116 pages.

The editors chosen for next year are as follows: Ruth Webster, executive editor; Ruth Klossner, Sandie Gillick, Ron Nelson, and Steve Plautz, division editors; Bob Scharf, photography editor. Business manager is Sally Vogel; art and publicity column editors are Marlene Mack and Linda Huhn.

Plans to have individual pictures of the faculty and grades 7-12 are being made. The layout will change to a contemporary arrangement characterized by closely cropped pictures and concern for facial expression. End sheets will have one four-color picture. Personnel comments on seniors will be dropped, and more typical class room scenes will be added.

Miss Reinhart, Eagle advisor, commented, "I think the 1965 editors did a creditable job in continuing the effort to improve the NUHS Eagle."

The tentative delivery date for the 1965 Eagle is May 27.
