

We Present The 1973 Homecoming Queen GINNIE LEACH

Ginnie Leach

"I like people," replied Ginny when asked what was especially important to her. "It fascinates me how people are all so different - everybody is an individual. I especially like to see happy, smiling people," she added. Ginny is a Rat Pak member, gymnast, tumbler and a member of the yearbook staff. Some of her free time is spent swimming, redoing furniture, and working on needlepoint.

Julie Eichinger

Julie expressed an opinion that it is important to be alone at times in order to straighten things out in one's mind. No doubt this statement coincides with her interest in becoming a psychologist. "This type of career will give me an opportunity to help others," she says. Julie is active in tumbling and gymnastics. She is also a student council secretary and a yearbook staff member.

Lou Ahlness

Lou, as a happy farm resident, says she loves the outdoors and can appreciate nature. Among other things she enjoys listening to music and swimming. She is active in volley ball, FHA, and Rat Pak. "Where would I be without people?" was an interesting question she raised. "Or for that matter where would anybody be without people?"

Beth Burns

This pom-pom girl obviously has a great deal of patience since her future plans include helping severely retarded children. As secretary of the Senior Class, Beth is also involved in band and select choir. She enjoys sewing, water skiing, bowling and hiking.

Sherri Marstone

This familiar cheerleader expresses a special interest in football but also enjoys reading and listening to records. "I like poetry," says Sherri, "because it's something I can relate to." Being active as a student council member and working at Hardees keeps her quite busy. She plans to attend college after graduation but has no definite major in mind.

Steph Johnson

Stephanie is very energetic and loves excitement. She enjoys going to dances and says she likes all kinds of music. "I'm a true fisherwoman," she states, "and I like going camping or just being outdoors." Stephanie feels school activities are very important and would like to see more students involved. She is a cheerleader and a member of select choir.

Sue Hoffmann

Cycling and snowmobiling are two of Sue's favorite pasttimes. Besides working at Madsen's, she also finds time for cooking and sewing. She hopes to attend North Hennepin Junior College and pursue a career as a medical secretary. Sue's school activities include FHA treasurer, volley ball, and yearbook editor.
