LOCAL TEAM DEFEATS OUR ANCIENT RIVALS

GIRLS LOSE TO OPPONENTS. BOYS ALSO DEFEAT THE STRONG GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS TEAM

SLEEPY EYE GAME—16-13.

Last Friday in a slow, fast, and in general a thrilling game our team defeated the Sleepy Eye "Basketees" by the close score of 16 to 13. "Doc" Hamann was not able to play because of a scholastic difficulty and his place was filled by "Slippery" Tauer. No field baskets were made in the first quarter, the 3 to 3 score being made by free throws.

Very Close Refereeing.

In the second quarter Joe netted the first field goal of the game. Snooks tossed three free throws while Glassman of Sleepy Eye made 2. This left the score 8 to 5 in our favor when the half ended. The refereeing was so close that even Sleepy Eye murmured slightly because one of their men was put out on fouls. This close refereeing also kept our fellows from getting started. Joe and Snooks each had several fouls and were thus prevented from doing much strenuous work.

Change Made in Line-up.

In the first part of the third quarter no scoring was done. Fritsche was substituted for Tauer but this combination didn't last two minutes, for Joe and Snooks were put out. Slippery then took Schueller's place and "Farmer" Kretsch took Herzog's. Slippery then let them know he was in again by making a field goal. "Jens" shot a free throw and brought the score up to 13 against Sleepy Eye's ten points.

In the fourth quarter "Jens" also used his hands once too often and Harris was put in. Sleepy Eye then made their one lone field goal and a free throw, tying the score. Hertz was then put out for fouling and Nagel substituted.

Crowd in Uproar.

With only a few minutes left to play the spectators were held in suspense until "Farmer" broke loose and made a field goal. Sleepy Eye tried desperately to score but could not. Slippery then shot a free throw making the score 16 to 13 in our favor. With this score the game ended.

Substitutions: Fritsche for Tauer, Tauer for Schueller, Kretsch for Herzog, and Harris for Graff, Nagel for Hertz.

GIRLS SUFFER DEFEAT.

The spectators in the Sleepy Eye gym were very eager for 7:45 last Friday, the 18th. At 7:45 the referee blew his whistle and both Sleepy Eye and New Ulm girls appeared ready to begin the battle. Every one there witnessed a very exciting game. Our girls put up strong opposition and made a good showing in spite of hard luck on the part of the forwards.

Close Refereeing.

The referee, the Mankato High School principal, informed both teams that he would referee very closely. It apparently was true, for in the third quarter only one regular Sleepy Eye player was still fighting in the game.

Some Rough Playing.

There was considerable tussling and tumbling in the center after the first toss-up but Sleepy Eye started scoring by caging a field goal. The Sleepy Eye guards were fouled on overguarding so "Wiede" could start our score with a free throw. After this a field goal from the center line followed. Then several other shots found their way to the basket. At the end of the first quarter it seemed as though the game was going to be a wonderful victory for us. The score was 7 to 2 in our favor. But Sleepy Eye was not slow in showing us that they were eager for revenge. Gertrude got a chance to shoot several baskets but she had hard luck and missed her shots. The ball was down on our opponents' side most of the time, but Girlie and Wanda sent it back to center as fast as it came down to them. The Sleepy Eye guards disregard the rules of guarding and accordingly "Wiede's" guard, the captain, was put out of the game. During the second quarter Sleepy Eye added a free throw and a field goal to their score making it 5 to 9.

Tie Played Off.

Sleepy Eye started the third quarter by netting two more field goals. Our team had found out by now that they

FAIL TO CAPTURE THE FIRST PLACES

Some Very Good Talks Given.—Lillian Eyrieh Takes Second Place.

Last Friday, February 11th, occurred the Annual Sub-District High School Declamatory Contest in which Lillian Eyrieh carried off second honors. The High School Auditorium was thronged with an enthusiastic audience. Preceding the selections of various contestants was a violin solo by Dorothy Hein, accompanied by Joyce Alwin, which was immediately followed by a vocal solo by Howard Haling, accompanied by Frances Krook. Just before and after the decision of the Judges the orchestra gave some very fine selections.

Excellent Delivery.

The declamations delivered by the contestants from the various towns represented were as follows:

The Wandering Jew, Darwin Seifert, Redwood Falls.

Toussant L' Overture, Evan Davies, Mankato.

The American of Foreign Birth, Conrad Olsen, St. Peter.

America, a Beacon of Light and Peace, Denton Steffer, Arlington.

The Strcnuous Life, Howard Vogel, New Ulm.

Patrick Henry's Speech, John R. Thomas, Lake Crystal.

Pauline Pavlorna, Edna Thomas, Lake Crystal.

The Highwayman, Irene Miller, St. Peter.

The Littlest Rebel, Lillian Eyrieh, New Ulm.

The Sacrifice of Sidney Carton, Margaret Wise, Mankato.

The Heart of Lincoln, Marie Mauer, Arlington.

The Gypsy Flower Girl, Floy Harris, Redwood Falls.

Judges' Decision.

All the selections were so well given that the judges had a very hard time deciding to whom the honors should be given. The decision was finally made giving to the girls, 1st place to Redwood Falls; 2nd place to New Ulm, and 3rd place to Mankato, and to the boys, 1st place to Arlington; 2nd to Mankato, and 3rd to Lake Crystal.

The judges were: Prof. E. E. Carlton, Gustavus Adolphus college, Supt. E. E. Lenander, Winthrop, Mrs. H. L. Beecher, New Ulm.

New Ulm has for several years taken some place in the sub-district contest and we hope that this success continues every year, but if we wish to maintain this record the students must respond with double the number and triple the enthusiasm of the past.

P. L. S. PRESENT GOOD LITERARY PROGRAM

Members Make the Society Big Success.—Snappy Drill.

The meeting was called to order at 7:30 by President Clarence Herzog. Roll call was then taken by the secretary. Five members were found to be absent. He then read the minutes of the last meeting and they were accepted by the members.

Someone suggested that the society have a sleighing party. After considerable discussion the probable date was fixed for the following Tuesday. A committee of two was then appointed to find out about the sleighs. The motion was made and seconded that we adjourn from the business meeting. This sleighing party was not held, due to the melting of the snow.

Very Good Program.

The first member on the program was given by Henry Amann. He gave a few current events which were interesting. This was followed by a short reading by Hugo Schleuder. It was a witty Irish story which portrayed the blunders of a servant named Andy. Next Bruce Harris gave a very good, short poem. Clarence Herzog then displayed his wit by giving several good jokes. After this Howard Olson gave an original story. The society had to think about times twenty-five years from now. The story was very original, oh yes, quite so! The next number was a group of impromptu speeches. Walter Schweppe told what he thought of the new ruling in the High School. Elmer Hamann was absent so Harry Kortbauer was given his assignment, "My First Date With a Girl." Harry surely had a dizzy experience with a girl and his first date.

Snappy Drill.

For the Parliamentary Drill led by Stanley Olson, the following subject was chosen, "The Society to Act as the Faculty Discussing the Methods of Punishment for the Infraction of the New Blue Laws." Some very worthy discussions were given by the budding orators of the society.

The critic's report was given by John Graff. He commented on the numbers on the program and gave many good suggestions for their improvement. Upon motion the society adjourned.

RATHER CLEVER.

Freshman: "I beat my sister up this morning."

Junior: "Oh, goodness, is that a fact?"

Freshman: "Sure, I got up at six and she got up at seven."

YOUR FEELINGS.

There are numerous people who would profit in numerous ways by adopting the point of view of the philosopher who refused to allow anybody to hurt his feelings.

As for society in general it would be an immensely happier, more contented, more prosperous and efficient collection of individuals than it now is.

For every time a person does allow his feelings to be hurt he reacts in a way detrimental to his own good and the good of others.

He may not show that he is hurt—may refrain from even a mild sulking—but the inner turmoil he experiences reverberates through his whole being.

Disturbing his poise, it disturbs his judgment, disturbs indeed, the functioning of all his mental processes. And in some degree it also affects his bodily processes.

So that, for example, if he is engaged in work of any sort, that work will fatigue him sooner than would otherwise be the case. And he will work with less speed and accuracy than usual.

This means a distinct impairing of productive efficiency. And whatever impairs productive efficiency injures society as well as the individual.

The great majority have sufficient power of control if they will but exercise it. And acceptance of the aforesaid philosopher's viewpoint is an excellent means whereby they may help themselves to exercise it.

The Chemistry Ball held in the Laboratory Hall was a decided success. The Carboic Acid Toddle, the Bunson Burner Shimmy, and the Distilled Water Waltz were the favorite dances while the "Test Tube Blues" was the most popular selection.

JUNIOR SPEAKERS CAPTURE FIRST IN SIEGEL CONTEST.

Annual Public Speaking Tilt Discloses Clever Talent.

Girls' Declamatory Contest: Lillian Eyrich, Elizabeth Hintz, Wanda Nelson.

One of the most interesting contests held annually at the High School is the Siegel Trophy Contest, which this year was held on Tuesday, February 8.

Decision of the Judges.

Judges: Mrs. Wm. Meile, Rev. A. Ackermann and Mr. Fred Johnson.

Decision of Judges.

This was a most entertaining program as all who were present can testify, and the decision of the Judges was awaited with great anxiety. The numbers were all so good that the Judges had a warm time deciding, but the following winners were finally announced:

Lillian Eyrich, first place, thereby winning five points toward the Siegel Trophy cup. Elizabeth Hintz, second place, winning three points for the Sophomores, and Wanda Nelson, third place, winning one point for the Junior Class.

These points added to the points awarded to the winners of the Boys' Oratorical Contest rank in the classes as follows:

Seniors1 point
Juniors6 points
Sophomores6 points
Freshmen5 points

Juniors Obtain Cup.

The Juniors and Sophomores were tied for the cup, each class having six points. Then as they couldn't very well "play it off" as they play off a tie in basketball, the winner had to be determined in another way. Mr. Gloor, on investigating individual credits, found the Juniors had 14 more points to their credit than the Sophomores, so the Siegel cup went to the Juniors—for this year. The question now seems to be whether or not they will keep it for the next year. What do you think?

Teacher: "A 'camp' is a temporary lodging. Can anyone give me an illustration in a sentence?"

Freshie: "Once in a while 'Snooks' stays at Huelskamp's."

Question in history quiz: "What happened about 12 A. D.?"

Answer received: "That's when I got home last night."

D. O. T. MEETING.

On Monday, February 14, at eight p. m., the D. O. T. held its regular meeting. After the entire society had assembled the meeting was opened by the roll call, to which each member (???) responded with the name of his favorite month. After a few peppy remarks, as a result of which Edna Niemann, Sergeant-at-Arms, was appointed as a committee of one to receive all members with open arms (and doors) at the next meeting, the business meeting was adjourned.

The program was opened by a piano duet by Myra Alwin and Gertrude Ackermann. This was greatly enjoyed by all, as the applause proved. Next Helen Meile swallowed her fears, strode up to the stage, and presented a number of good jokes. These were also greatly appreciated, for there are not many members in the society who are at the present time suffering from the lack of a sense of humor.

Florence Schneider entertained us with a number of choice songs, equally well appreciated.

Adelia Radke's poem about her big sister's beau met with the approval of everyone. After several popular songs had been sung by all, the meeting adjourned. Everyone be out at the next meeting—the entire program is to be carried out by teachers, and we are sure to see an "All Star" cast.

ANNETTE.

Your eyes were blue
When first we met,
I thought you true
Annette! Annette!
But with your eyes
A snare you set,
They were but lies,
You were a net.
For candy yet
I owe a debt.
Oh, how you 'et
An'et! An'et.

When "Tuddy" goes out to promenade
She looks so fine and gay,
She has to take her dog along
To keep the boys away.

GIRLS SUFFER DEFEAT.

were up against it but they were determined to fight. There was very much passing. "Wiede" and Gertrude added two more points to our score by shooting two free throws. In the beginning of the fourth quarter "Ekes" was put out of the game on technicals and Florence took her place. Sleepy Eye shot another free throw. Then two more Sleepy Eye players were disqualified and put out. The scores were tied now. Hard work on both teams kept either of the sides from scoring so when time was up the score was tied. It was agreed upon to play till one side succeeded in scoring two points. The referee told the teams they had been playing a good clean game so far and that it should be kept up till the best team scored two points. Sleepy Eye scored the two points after much fighting but we won't admit that Sleepy Eye has the better team because on our floor we beat them 28 to 18 and they gathered 12 to our 10 on their floor.

GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS GAME, 32-20.

The locals defeated the strong Gustavus quintette in a REAL basket ball game. It was a game featured by clean playing and snappy passing. Schueller began to play in great style, getting two ringers in quick succession. These were followed by another one by "Jens" and then he dropped in another one. These with a free throw by "Doc" gave us nine points to the zero score of the opponents, in the first quarter.

Gustavus Starts Scoring.

The second quarter started with Gustavus making 5 baskets in succession and bringing the score up to 10-9 in their favor. Then the locals came back and rolled in three hard-earned baskets making the score 15-10 in our favor when the half ended.

Second Half Regular Battle.

The first ten minutes of the second half were hotly contested, the teams scoring alternately but with Gustavus getting a few more points than the locals. Their defense had tightened up and they were making their shots count. The crisis came when Gustavus made their tenth basket and were only two points behind the locals. Then our fellows played, and played hard. Their passing was accurate and they worked the ball down the floor fast. A basket resulted, followed by another one and then the Gustavus defense broke and three more baskets resulted. Then with only two minutes left to play Gustavus made a desperate attempt to come back, but they failed and the final score was 32-20 in our favor.

Gustavus surely has a good second team. They are all big fellows and outweighed our team and if our fellows hadn't started off with such a rush the result might have been different.

BOYS' ORATORICAL CONTEST.

The annual Siegel Oratorical contest held Tuesday, Feb. 8, was interesting and entertaining. It was held at 3 o'clock in the afternoon instead of in the evening because of the small number of contestants, only five having entered the contest: one Senior, one Junior, two Sophomores and one Freshman. The program was as follows:

The New South Clarence Roloff
Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address Lewis Harris
The Strenuous Life . . . Howard Vogel
Incentives to Patriotism
Americanism Raymond Anann
Roy Pfeiffer

Decision of the Judges.

Judges: Mr. Gloor, Mr. Brigham and Miss Schmidt.

Although there were only five taking part in the contest it, no doubt, was difficult for the judges to decide to whom the first three places should be awarded. However, this was their decision. First, Howard Vogel, (Freshman); Second, Roy Pfeiffer, (Sophomore); Third, Lewis Harris, (Senior).

Howard spoke very clearly and forcefully giving the audience a fine conception of Theodore Roosevelt's speech on "The Strenuous Life." The winner of the second place, Roy Pfeiffer, after a slight blunder at the beginning steadied himself and gave his poetic climax in splendid style. Lewis Harris displayed good force and emphasis in his selection also. He is the only one of the speakers who will graduate this year, and with the remainder of the entrants eligible for next year, the interest in oratory should be greater than this year.

EXCHANGES

The West High Weekly of Minneapolis came this week. Its front page measures about two by three feet, and of course, runs away with first honors. Judging from the pictures on the front page, the editor imagined that West High is a garden variety of circus. However on reading part of the paper, he found that the picture of the circus wagon was an ad from the "Hesperian." That must be their annual or something like that. Their "Lafeteria" is a dandy joke column. Their athletics are shoved way back on the back page.

Whazzamatter.

The papers are mixed again. The Su Huta of Lake Crystal was not received last week. It's too good to miss, so here goes.

There are several references to Mrs. Franchere. Do you New Ulm students know who that is? She was here two years ago, but we didn't call her that. She was a Miss then. She's teaching a house-keeping course, and Ancient History and probably a few more subjects, for a little while. Su Huta's popularity contest is a very good idea. We'd be willing to bet that Su Huta's editor won't be the "Laziest Person." Your jokes are good. Where's your Exchange Department?

Who's Who from Battle Creek, Mich., where the breakfast food comes from, is a sort of a cross between a magazine and a paper. Its cover and front page are well planned, and the planning worked. The pictures look like Grape Nuts. What is the Eight-two?

The Lake Breeze Weekly from Sheboygan, Wis., has a fine Alumni column. Their humor column has an elaboration on the old "higher berth is lower, but the lower is higher" mix-up. Their basket ball team isn't doing as well as last week.

The Otaknam must have turned Bolshevik this week. It's printed in red. The Juniors got it out. They slam the Seniors and the Sophomores and the Freshmen all over the back page, and we suppose the Seniors, the Sophomores and the Freshmen will slam back in the next issue. As usual, The Otaknam contains so much that is good that it's impossible to review it all. There is an account of the Declamatory contest held here.

We have heard from The Echo this week. Personally we don't see why they call it "The Echo." It makes enough noise for sixteen of them, and it doesn't copy other papers, either. The Seniors are getting ready for their class play. Hope it's a good one.

Rastus: "Say, Sam d' you wanta buy this mule?"

Sam: "What's wrong with him?"

Rastus: "Nothing."

Sam: "What d' you wanta sell him for?"

Rastus: "Nothing."

Sam: "All right, I'll take him."

Chemistry teacher reviewing the table of atomic weights: "What does 12.00 stand for?"

Hungry student: "Dinner."

LOCALS.

Iona Arbes has left school to work in the office of Auditor L. G. Vogel.

An enthusiastic crowd accompanied our teams to Sleepy Eye last Friday.

Eleanore Gewerth is now carrying her tonsils about in a bottle. It's so much more convenient to show them from a bottle, don't cha no!

Captain "Yens" Graff has returned to school after having been down with tonsillitis. Kind Fate scheduled this illness for the interval between games.

Have you noticed the fickleness of the weather? Because of the thunder shower the night before, a freshman came to school one morning with an umbrella; he was caught in a violent snowstorm on the way home.

You didn't know the Juniors had a girls' B. B. team, did you? Well, they have—and it's sure to be a good one under the captainship of Bessie Dietz. There have been several inter-class practice games; the Sophs beat the Freshies, and the Juniors beat the Sophs; so of course—well figure it out for yourself!

Is anyone in your class down with the measles? Has a friend of yours left school? In short, has anything happened in connection with the school, which is of interest to you? If it's interesting you, it interests the entire school. So as soon as you hear of anything that's new to you make a note of it—and drop that note into the Graphos Box. It needn't be a write-up, a bare statement is sufficient. It will help make our Local column more newsy and interesting. Furthermore, it will fasten more securely the "ties that bind" the high school students together.

EASY.

Junior: "Going to the game?"

Senior: "No, I'm financially embarrassed."

Junior: "Oh, well, walk in backwards and they'll think you're going out."

Teacher in Chemistry: "What does NH stand for?"

Bright Student: "Nobody home."
