GIBBON GAME.

We left the High School about 4:15 and arrived at Gibbon about six o'clock, Jan. 7. After putting our baggage at the school we went to a local restaurant and had supper. The boys then walked around and then went to the cars to wait before we went to the schoolhouse. An incident happened that is worthy of mention.

Carl Displays Wit.

On the other side of the street from where we were sitting was a bank. The door of the car happened to open and one of the fellows told one of them near the open door to close it. Carl Fritsche, who, up to this time had not displayed any of his wit, exclaimed, "Yes, close the door, there is a bank across the street and we might get a draft." Numerous incidents similar to this happened but they have already escaped our memory.

After the game the fellows watched a practice wrestling match that was held. Then they were all invited to partake of some lunch which consisted of cake and coffee, served by some of the lasses of the High School. The trip was made home without any trouble.

The Game.

After considerable delay about getting a whistle for the timekeepers the game started at about nine o'clock. It started with a rush and after about a minute of play New Ulm got a basket which was soon followed by another. Gibbon also scored a field goal and a free throw which put the score at 4-3. Considerable passing by Gibbon under our basket slowed up the contest at times. The New Ulm team rallied and piled up a comfortable lead and when the timer's whistle blew at the end of the first half the score was 20-9.

Second Half.

The second half started with Gibbon doing a little more aggressive work in the way of advancing the ball. The Gibbon team scored but 2 field goals in this half and all the rest of the points on free throws. Considerable cheering ensued from the Gibbon spectators as there was but a few minutes left to play, but lo, when the referee's whistle sounded and the smoke had cleared New Ulm was declared victor by a score of 29-19.

N. U. H. S. VS. D. M. L. COLLEGE.

For several weeks past the Boys' Team has been doing some hard, quiet practising and until Thursday, Dec. 16, had played no teams other than the seconds. Then they had an encounter with the D. M. L. College. The game itself was of little importance but it gave us the opportunity to see how our team stood compared to other schools. A few details of the game might be interesting.

The team did not seem to be able to work together at first and seemed rather lost. A foul gave the college a chance for a free throw and they made it. Our team then hit its stride and Joe broke loose and shot the first basket. "Snooks" followed up with two more pointers. "Doc" then found the hoop and began to roll them in.

A glance would tell which was the superior team. The only chance at baskets which the college received were long shots, and it was by "more luck than sense" that they got some of those. Close guarding by "Yens" and "Erbs" kept the college from getting any chance for short shots. The score at the end of the first half was 24-3.

The second half was marked by the excellent teamwork of the High School Team and the continuous stream of baskets being shot. By a few lucky shots and a couple of free throws the college increased their points to ten. But our fellows were not satisfied with low numbers and the score was 49, going on 50, when the final whistle blew and the game ended, with a final score of 49-10.

Dope.

Now, the real significance of the game is this: the D. M. L. College played Lamberton and was beaten by

JUNIOR ENTERTAINMENT IS HOWLING SUCCESS

Third Year Artists Display Wonderful Wit and Talent.

$150 CLEARED.

The biggest event in the lives of the Juniors was the Junior entertainment which was staged Friday evening, Dec. 17. Their first number was a dance interpreted by some Junior girls who were dressed in quaint costumes of our grandmother's ball days. They were heartily applauded, but refused to reappear except to bow.

Slight Hand Work.

Then Robert Fisher showed us a few "slight mistakes" which turned out to be the tricks of a real magician. Producing rabbits from comparatively empty handkerchiefs was nothing for him. He drew yards and yards of ribbon from kernels of rice.

The orchestra furnished a snappy number which was "jazzy" enough to suit anybody. This was followed by a very enjoyable duet by Joyce Alwin, who played xylophone, and Hazel Oswald who played violin.

At last—we held our breath till the curtain went up—the play—"The Laughing Cure."

The cast of characters was as follows:

Dr. St. George Carey, a modern invention, who turns the trick ...

..... Sylvester Wellmann

Jimmie Mason, Mrs. Hanson's brother, who knows his sister

..... Arthur Lamecker

Dr. Whitcomb, a physician of the old school

..... Rheinhold Thies

Clarke Hanson, a man of business, useful, but not important

..... Carl Fritsche

Laura Hanson, his wife, with no sense of humor. Florence Schneider

Gay Hanson, his sister, who lives up to her name

..... Lillian Eyrich

Kitty Clyde, his stenographer, who has an eye on Jimmie. Beatrice Gaag

Mary Ellen Perry, a neighbor, of the Aunty Doleful School ..

Ruth Reim Norah, the maid, who catches the fever

..... Clara Wendt

The Juniors certainly deserve credit for their dramatic and musical ability in putting on a program like the Junior Entertainment.

AT THE FOOTBALL GAME.

Girl: "Oh, are they allowed to grab them by the legs?"

Sarcastic boy: "No, usually they tap the fellow with the ball on the shoulder, and ask him kindly to lie down."

PROTEAN SOCIETY HOLDS PEPPY SESSION

Large Number Attend Initial Meeting of New Year.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The members of the P. L. S. held their first meeting in Miss Schmidt's room on the evening of Jan. 4, at seven-thirty. A surprisingly large crowd was present. The room was nearly filled—only a few vacant seats.

The old members ran things, since the new ones didn't know how, and would have been too afraid to say anything if they had. They'll get over this though.

The first business was the election of a temporary chairman. John Graff was unanimously elected. After he took charge we got down to business.

First came the election. The following will be the officers for the rest of the school year:

President

..... Clarence Herzog

Vice President

..... John Graff

Secretary

..... Carl Fritsche

Treasurer

..... George Langmack

Sergeant-at-Arms

..... "Chick" Olson and Henry Esser

The President was instructed to appoint a program committee.

After that the old members voted that the new members each pay forty cents for expenses connected with the initiation. The Secretary read the Constitution for the benefit of the new members.

Then someone made a motion to adjourn. We exited with the usual noise.

PREPARATIONS FOR THE DECLAMATORY CONTEST.

This year the local Declamatory Contest will be held later than in former years. The girls who intend to take part in it will be very busy learning and practising their selections in the next few weeks. So far, only about nine girls have signed up for the contest, but there will, undoubtedly, be more signing later. The collection of readings will be entirely new, as Mr. Gloor has sent for a number of them. Miss Loucks and Miss Frederickson will have charge of the practising. The local will take place on February 4th, the sub-district contest between St. Peter, Redwood Falls, Arlington, Lake Crystal, Mankato, and New Ulm, will be held in the New Ulm High School auditorium on the 11th of February; and the district contest on the 22nd of that month.

LET US BE BOOSTERS.

There are two kinds of criticism. The one is constructive; the other, destructive. Constructive criticism is prompted by the desire to help. It is accompanied with a willingness to do something of a constructive nature to correct the imperfect conditions to which it calls attention. It does not exist for its own sake; it is merely incidental. The spirit back of it is one of cheerful co-operation.

Destructive criticism on the other hand is often borne of the desire to find fault apparently for no nobler purpose than that of belittling somebody's work. Criticism, which has such an origin, is of course unworthy of any attention whatsoever. Again, it may be borne of a consciousness that things are not as they ought to be, but it lacks vision. It fails to see that mere criticism can accomplish nothing. It is not accompanied with any sense of personal responsibility or moral obligation. The spirit behind it is one of pessimism and egotism. To describe this kind of criticism is to condemn it. To practice it requires little intelligence and no virtue. To indulge in it is utterly futile.

As destructive criticism is exceedingly easy, it is also quite common. No community is entirely free from it. It finds its way into every society. It would therefore be nothing short of miraculous if boys and girls in school were not at all subject to the temptation to indulge in criticism for its own sake. How easy it is to "knock" the football team or the basketball team! How easy to take a shot at the Graphos or any other High School activity which someone is making an effort to promote perhaps with indifferent success because of somebody else's failure to "boost." The rule that ought to govern every student in this matter is that he has a right to criticize only when he himself is contributing his full share to the success of an enterprise. For example, criticize the Graphos, if you please, but let your criticism be followed by the contribution of a good live article to its columns. Then you will be a constructive critic, a booster and not a mere knocker.

In this connection a word of caution, however, is in order. One school activity should not be promoted at the expense of another. This does not mean that every student should be a member of every school organization, athletic, musical and literary. It means that every student should assume an attitude of sympathy toward these organizations. In this sense it is possible for all of us to become boosters, and with this sense of sympathy, appreciation, and co-operation we can enter upon this new calendar year with the assurance that it will be a happy and successful one for the New Ulm High School.

ARNOLD GLOOR.

BOOST.

The old year is gone with all its faults and misgivings and it is the vogue to make some resolution that will aid us as well as others. Now we are trying to get away from this seeming pessimistic view of our High School life and want to put things in a new light. We are going to try to dispel Old Man Gloom through this medium. And to accomplish this it is necessary to have all connected with High School life to co-operate and boost. Students, boost all activities, teachers, school board, societies, and you may rest assured that they will boost you. And if we all boost, and do not criticize the other fellow even if it is necessary to take a grain of salt with some things that are said and done, we will have conditions that can't be beat.

Some students may say that they cannot boost but that they will not knock either. There are but two kinds of people in this world—Knockers and Boosters. Which are you? Better invoice yourself, and if you do not boost you are a knocker. Boosters are people that make this little world of ours roll around. Let's all get together and try to make ours an ideal High School and this can be accomplished only by 100% boosting. Therefore—BOOST.

THE CHRISTMAS PROGRAM.

On Dec. 17, during the assembly period the Seniors staged their usual Christmas celebration. It was in the form of a very funny program.

Santa visited us too, with an exceptionally large bag of presents and also a Christmas Tree. Even if we are High School students and are supposed to be dignified, some of us acted more like first graders when Santa comes to them. In his bag he had just loads of toys. This was because every student bought a present for someone else.

On Thursday morning everybody drew the name of some student for whom he had to buy a present. So Santa had quite a job distributing them. Rattles were very prominent especially among the Freshmen.

Poor Santa got so hoarse towards the end that he could hardly be understood. It was no wonder, when he read every student's name once or twice, and that in the loud booming voice necessary in all the din and uproar.

Of course the faculty was not forgotten as it might almost sound. Each one of them was also presented with some little toy.

Then Santa said he had to leave us, but would come back next year, if we were good.

SINGING AND PEP FEST.

When Santa Claus visited the High School just before Christmas he must have left big bags of pep to be distributed as needed. The results showed at the first Basket Ball Pep Fest just before the Gibbon game. Besides the unusual pep which the students displayed there was another attraction quite new to us: Miss Schmidt helped the occasion by playing our beloved High School Songs, "The High School Favorite" and "The Lavender and White." The result of combined efforts made this by far the best pep fest held this year.

New Directory.

We are told that Miss Schmidt is to keep the position of music director in the High School. So here's our suggestion: Eat cough drops unsparingly and acquire the voice of a lark to thrill the audience—and SING.

Aint it awful feelin' lonesome,
Aint it awful feelin' blue,
When all the world is black
And things go wrong with you;
The days just stick about you,
The time will simply drag,
You can't think of a thing to do,
Although your lessons lag.

A smile is a passport to happiness,
That no one is able to doubt;
If you don't believe in this saying
Why try it and you'll find out.
If you have a good word for anyone,
Why everyone has one for you,
And then life will be worth living
And your thoughts won't be so blue.

23-3, as a score, which was one point less than the score at the end of the first half in our game with the college; Lamberton beat the College by 20 points, we beat them by nearly 40, therefore according to dope, we should beat Lamberton. Again, the College played Sleepy Eye two games. The first was 17-12 in favor of Sleepy Eye and the second one a tie, 14-14. Then, according to our old friend "dope," we should beat Sleepy Eye by a good score. Of course "dope" might go back on us or the other teams might make some remarkable improvement, but we have a strong team and we may depend on their ability to meet any improvement made by any other team. So with the support of the student body we may leave it to the team to meet every obstacle and go through the season, a winning team.

GIRLS' ALUMNI GAME.

The N. U. H. S girls met defeat at the hands of the Alumni girls Dec. 27, 1920. It was their first basketball game this season. Although the girls were defeated they are far from being discouraged. The whole game was a sort of rough and tumble affair. "Mully" did his best to make the game exciting and as far as we know succeeded very well.

The Alumni started the game by putting in three baskets before the H. S. scored their first point. At the end of the first half the alumni was pretty well in the lead. During the last half of the game our girls put up a good fight which almost carried us to victory. The game ended 18-24 in favor of the Alumni.

The H. S. line-up was as follows:

Mr. Gloor was unable to get a game for the girls Friday and so far has none scheduled. He has written to Sleepy Eye and will find out there if other towns are scheduling games. We hope he will succeed in getting games and satisfying the Girls' Team.

BOYS' ALUMNI GAME.

On Dec. 27 the local High School Quintet met a team composed of old stars of the High School. The desire on the part of the Alumni to avenge the defeat received at the hands of H. S. last year made it very interesting and a battle royal ensued. The game started with a rush and after about three minutes of play the High School scored a basket, which was immediately followed by another. The Alumni scored a point on a free throw. After the first quarter the Alumni changed their entire line-up but the score saw-sawed in about the same proportion and at the end of first half the score was 15-9 in favor of the High School.

The second half found the Alumni using the same line-up as in the beginning of the game. This quarter found the Alumni going at top speed as they scored several field goals while the High School did not annex a single point in this period. The fourth quarter began, found the Alumni using the same line-up as in the second quarter. The High School, however hit its stride and with about two minutes to play had a four point margin when "Pat" Eibner, a member of the St. Thomas College squad scored two spectacular field goals from the center of the floor. This tied the count at 27 so after a little wrangle about the time it was agreed to play an extra five minutes. The High School, however, scored a field goal after about a minute of play and a little while after this another one was added which made the score 27-31 in favor of the High School which stood till the end of the game.

Did you see Mr. Brigham, the new principal? The girls are just raving about him. No use girls, he's married. Remember, he's Mr. Brigham—not Brigham Young.

On Thursday, January 6, 1921, at 8:30 o'clock a decided lack of Mr. Kirchoff was discovered. Upon further investigation it proved that he was sick and absent for the day.

The Junior Entertainment was a big success financially. The Junior Treasury has about one hundred and fifty more little round dollars. We'd like to say right here, that dollars are mighty little nowadays.

Mr. Eckstein, the former president of the school board, has resigned. They're hunting around for someone to fill his place. We're sure they'll have a hard time finding anyone who will take the interest in school affairs that Mr. Eckstein did.

The usual D. O. T. meeting was opened by a rather heated parliamentary drill caused by some people who had been on programs too often. Upon motion the business meeting adjourned.

The following program was rendered:

1. D. O. T. Song ... Society
At the beginning of the song numerous pauses were in evidence, but after slips of paper had been produced from pockets, desks, books, etc., the volume was noticeably increased.
2. Vocal Solo ... Florence Schneider
Florence's song, "Brown Eyes," was greatly appreciated, and she was forced to respond with an encore "Under the Lilacs."
3. Life of Thomas Love Peacock ... Myrtle Heim
Myrtle presented the life of Mr. Peacock in an exceedingly interesting and educational manner.
4. Reading ... Ruth Reiml
Ruth gave "The Priest and the Mulberry Tree," a rather humorous poem by Thomas Love Peacock.
5. Debate ... Aurelia Schneider, Olivia Meidl, Josephine Huelskamp, Helga Hauenstein
The question for debate was: Resolved that credit should be given to all who are on High School Athletic Teams. Aurelia and Olivia upheld the affirmative while Joe and Helga upheld the negative.
6. Piano Solo ... Sylvia Gehrke
Sylvia rendered her selection in a very artistic manner.
7. Jokes ... Ylona Bentdahl
The jokes given by "Eykes" were well chosen and effectively presented.
8. Critic's Report ... Miss Myrick
Miss Myrick fittingly closed the program with constructive as well as destructive criticism, which was highly appreciated by the society.

FAREWELL PROGRAM FOR MR. HENRY.

On Thursday morning, Dec. 16, 1920, during the assembly period a rather sad event took place in our High School. It was a farewell program for Mr. Henry, our former principal.

Mr. Gloor gave a short talk in which he expressed the general feeling of faculty and students toward Mr. Henry during his sojourn here.

Then Howard Haling, president of the Junior Class, read the resolutions published in the last issue of the "Graphos."

Clarence Herzog, president of the Senior class presented Mr Henry with a beautiful floor lamp, towards the purchase of which all four classes contributed. While Mr. Henry was given the gift the students sang the following song to the tune of "Boola Song":

Mr. Henry, Mr. Henry,
We are singing
Praises ringing,
We will never find your equal
Mr. Henry! Here's to you!
