

NEW ULM DEFEATS MADELIA 42--0

SOPHOMORES STAGE HALLOWE'EN FROLIC

On Wednesday evening, the 25th of October, the Sophomores held a Halloween Masquerade Dance at the Creamery Hall, for the students and the faculty of the High School. Everyone was required to be masked in order to gain entrance to the hall. The students present were dressed to represent Halloween spirits, fairies and everything imaginable. Prizes were awarded to the following: most comic couple, Lena Oetting and Laura Oswald; first best dressed couple, Lucy Schneider and Mildred Epple; second best dressed couple, Della Pfeiffer and Catherine Poynter; best dressed single, Hilda Steinmetz; second best dressed single, Marvin Solberg.

Lena and Laura were dressed as old maids. They had bustles on their skirts and had on old shoes and hats. The best dressed couples certainly deserved prizes, for their costumes were very pretty. Lucy and Mildred wore Pierrette costumes of black and white material and Della and Catherine were fairies. They had tarletan dresses of a pretty orange color. Marvin represented a cowboy. Hilda Steinmetz wore a black Grecian costume.

Music was furnished by the Orient orchestra and everyone present reported a very good time. The teachers, with the exception of Miss Halverson, Mr. Church and Mr. Stewart, were not present on account of having left for the Teachers' Convention on Wednesday night. It was too bad that the rest of the faculty members were not able to attend because school dances are such rare occasions. The dance lasted until eleven o'clock and the dancers did not depart until the last strains of "Home Sweet Home" died away. The student body wishes to thank the Sophomores for the good time and they hope there will be another like it in the near future.

FRIDAY ASSEMBLY.

Last Friday we had our regular assembly. The seventh period was omitted for that purpose. The principal event was the spelling match between the Sophomores and Freshmen. The Freshmen were lined up on the south side of the assembly and the Sophomores on the north. Mr. Gloor first made a few remarks about giving each side a fair chance. The Sophomores outnumbered the Freshies to quite an extent but the outcome seemed rather doubtful at the end of the first round, being 31 to 28 in favor of Sophomores. As the bell rang they stood as follows Sophomores 24, Freshies 22.

Oscar: "What shall we do tonight?"
Fred: "I'll toss up a coin for it. If it's heads we'll go to the movies; if it's tails we'll go to the dance; and if it stands on the edge, we'll study."

Sweeping Madelia off its feet, the New Ulm High School football team rolled up a score of 42 to 0 in the first home game of the season played Wednesday afternoon, October 25, on the Brown county fair grounds.

New Ulm was a trifle slow in getting started, but once under way the local football machine plowed through Madelia for gain after gain. When called upon to hold, the New Ulm team held like a stone wall and Madelia made its down but two or three times during the entire game.

Stars for New Ulm.

Nelson, Spaeth and Gebhard were the star players for New Ulm. Nelson made long gains through the line and proved adept at receiving passes from Keckeisen. Spaeth was a consistent ground gainer who could always be depended to carry the ball forward and Gebhard displayed unusual judgment in selecting plays.

Nelson Kicks Off.

Nelson for New Ulm kicked off. Madelia failed to make its ground and punted back. Nelson gained two yards, Schugel fumbled. Madelia fumbled. Spaeth, right end, exchanged places with Schugel, right half. Madelia completed two forward passes, Madelia failed to make downs and punted. Keckeisen threw a perfect forward pass to Nelson. Spaeth went through the line for a touchdown. Score at the end of the first quarter, New Ulm, 6, Madelia, 0.

Gebhard Makes Touchdown.

Early in the second quarter R. Gebhard went over for New Ulm's second touchdown. Nelson drop kicked for goal. Score New Ulm, 13, Madelia 0. The third New Ulm touchdown was made by Schugel who intercepted a Madelia pass and ran 20 yards. Score at the end of the first half, New Ulm 19, Madelia 0.

Nelson Drop Kicks.

Early in the second half Nelson was successful in making a drop kick from a difficult angle, adding three more to the New Ulm score. Nelson has outkicked any team this year which New Ulm has encountered. The remainder of the quarter was a saw-saw between the two teams with neither side scoring.

New Ulm scored almost at will in the fourth quarter. Spaeth made 30 yards on a fake punt formation. Nelson followed this with seven yards on a shift formation which took him over the line for a touchdown. Nelson made the next two touchdowns for New Ulm with end runs and line plunges.

Madelia Fought Hard.

Although Madelia was outweighed it displayed good fighting spirit. It was able, however, to make its downs, but two or three times during the game.

The New Ulm team is now undergoing intensive practice for the Armistice day game with Sleepy Eye. The Sleepy Eye team has defeated everything in this part of the state with the exception of Mankato. This will be the big game of the season. Hundreds from Sleepy Eye are expected to come here. New Ulm fans are asked to turn out to a man to support their team.

P. L. S. MEETING TUESDAY, OCT. 30, A GREAT SUCCESS.

The Protean meeting for Tuesday, Oct. 30, was a great success. The program for the evening was a complete surprise to everybody, even to the program committee.

After roll call was taken and the minutes read by the secretary, the evening's program was opened with a piano solo by Roland Hohn.

The second number was exceedingly interesting, being an account of the "Newberry Case," given by Edward Gebhardt.

The third number was very funny, being a collection of good jokes, recited by Fred Leonard.

Current Events, right up to the times, were given by Armin Scheman.

In the meantime the best number of the whole evening's program was being prepared and after the stage was cleared of the President, Secretary, table, etc., the famous "Dixie Sextette" was introduced by their leader, Marse Pudd'n Head Witt. The company accompanied themselves with stringed instruments.

The members of the Famous Dixie Sextette were as follows:
Marse Pudd'n Head Witt .....

.....Edward Witt, Bass, Ukelele

D. O. T. MEETING WELL ATTENDED.

The election of officers took place at the last D. O. T. meeting, Monday evening. Elizabeth Hintz is president; Lorna Schleuder, vice president; Freda Olsted, sec.-treas. and Venus Synstebly, sergeant-at-arms. The meeting was called to order by Cecelia Hough and then all the members sang the D. O. T. song. The roll call was taken, all the members present responding with the name of their favorite writer and a drama. It was decided that at the next meeting there would be a "feed."

Committees were appointed and then the business meeting adjourned. Miss Halverson gave a report of one of the latest books. Verna Dahl gave the life of Edgar Guest and Maybelle Simmet gave one of his poems "How Do You Tackle Your Work?" Hildegard Hein gave some jokes which were greatly enjoyed by all and then the critics' report was given by Marie Olsen, because of the absence of Miss Tripp. After this "The Thread of the Story" was greatly enjoyed by all. Upon a motion the meeting adjourned.

Girl (at railroad station): "Are you engaged?" (meaning working.)
Worried Porter: "Married, Miss."

THE MERCHANT OF VENICE UP-TO-DATE

The cast for the "Merchant of Venice Up-To-Date" has been selected. This play will be given with "The Trysting Place" and together the two plays will form an evening's entertainment. The funds thus raised will be turned over to the Athletic Association to be used to finance our athletics.

The cast for "The Merchant of Venice Up-To-Date" is as follows:

The Duke of Venice...Jos. Keckeisen
Antonio, a Senior .....Jos. Schueller
Bassanio, his friend, and suitor to
Portia .....Oscar Muesing
Portia, a rich heiress .....
..... Hilda Steinmetz
Nerissa, her friend .....
..... Erna Grussendorf
Gratiano, suitor to Nerissa .....
..... Eugene Waterston
Shylock, a wealthy gambler .....
..... Fred Leonard
Tubal, his friend ....Bernard Esser
Jessica, Shylock's ward .....
..... Lorna Schleuder
Miss Abbie S. Thredice, a teacher.
..... Maybelle Simmet
Polly, Portia's maid ..Gladys Wagner

The entire play is a direct take off on "The Merchant of Venice," proper. It pictures typically our High School Life. It is full of humorous incidents and local color from the beginning to the end.

Miss Russell is coaching "The Merchant of Venice Up-To-Date" and Miss Tripp "The Trysting Place." The entertainment will be given shortly before Thanksgiving. These two plays are bound to make the biggest hit of the season. Don't fail to see them!

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB.

The Girls' Glee Club, which is reorganized, under Miss Kemp, is progressing rapidly.

The officers for this year are: President, Lorna Schleuder; Secretary and Treasurer, Lucy Schneider.

The girls have not planned anything so far, but if they continue to do as good work as they are doing now—they may probably get up an entertainment.

The Girls' Glee Club is not quite as large this year as last, but there is good material in it.

IN AMERICAN HISTORY.

Mr. Stewart: "Who started the World war, Cecelia?"

No answer.

"Who started the World war?" very sternly.

Cecelia, waking up and looking terrified: "P-please S-S-Sir, I d-d-didn't."

Della, at the Soph. masquerade: "Pardon me, haven't I seen you somewhere before?"

Verna Miller: "Possibly, I've been there."

EDUCATION.

Education is the training of the whole man and woman for a complete life. Not the brain alone, nor the body alone, nor the mind alone, but the body and mind, the will, the heart, and the soul, are to be prepared for the enjoyment of the most sterling advantages in a life true to the highest ethical and spiritual principles. Physical culture is not education, but a part of it; mere instruction in the languages and in the sciences is not education, but a part of it; even the mental training and the discipline of the will which are inseparable from the proper study of language and the sciences, are not the whole of education. The powers have not only to be developed, but to be accustomed to aiming at the right goals. There are scoundrels who are scholars, but there are no scoundrels who are educated men in the truest sense. Scholarship and a superiority disciplined mind are merely forces of immense potentiality. A man can misuse them as he can misuse physical strength or political eminence. The salvation of society lies, not merely in the diffusion of knowledge and the production of shrewd thinkers, but in the production of leaders who lead in the right direction. "Pietas" towards our country and "Pietas" towards God are the lodestars that must guide the educated men and women whom America is preparing.

HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT.

H. E. spells he generally, but here in High School it stands for one of the most practical and well equipped departments of the school. Home Economics is all right and it's a go!

To take this course does not mean an easy credit, it does not mean merely fun. The girl in the Home Economics department must work and concentrate as well as any student in literature, history or science. This ends my sermon, so please keep on reading.

What is accomplished in the department is really quite miraculous. First of all, did you see those small wooden boxes carried around by the Freshman cooking class? Well, if you're anywhere near like the curious cat, your curiosity will soon get the better of you, so look into them—really it's surprising—they carry all that they have accomplished this year in that box. Also if your olfactory organ is in good condition you will have noticed that most delicious odors have been creeping into various class rooms every morning. They're learning how! The way to a man's heart, you know, is through his stomach.

Finally, ask one of the owners of these mystic boxes what else your head is composed of besides bones and piano key material. They'll know, because they take physiology.

Now passing on to the work of the Senior classes! Spring the query on one of the General Science girls, "What kind of a living room would you like to have in your home"—and presto! They'll tell you to visit the H. E. department and that room is on the window sill. There is a smoking stand in one room which is a slight evidence that all these rooms aren't intended for Old Maids' Homes. And, by the way, do you know what type of a house you live in? Do you realize that the furniture in the room where you are reading this has a period name? Do you know a good picture and frame when you see it?

Do you know how to hang a picture correctly? Could you recognize a genuine Oriental rug if you saw one and if you did, would you know in what country it was made? Perhaps not, but I mention this merely because it shows somewhat the things what are taught in the department. The classes are instructed how to remodel furniture, how to recognize good durable furniture and how to buy it. If I add that they learn also how to darn stockings so they don't wear out one's nervous system, how to mend clothing skillfully, you will realize why the course of Home Economics is practical.

Finally I wish to make an announcement! The members of the Senior sewing class have almost completed their one hundred dollar garments; guaranteed to wear a century and so well finished that they can be worn inside out on any occasion. They will display their work of art at the greatest style show ever given in the history of America or Paris in the High School assembly sometime in the near future. Watch for it. "Yours for a wholesome entertainment,"

The Home Economics Department.

TYPICAL.

Teddy: "Occasionally a man gets so discouraged that he feels like writing poetry."

Lucy: "I learn more by letting every one tell me all they know than by telling them all I know."

Miss Tripp in English: We will have Bacon tomorrow.

The entertainment given by these darkies consisted of several of the old time negro songs, such as "Old Black Joe," "Old Folks at Home," "Thars Whar Ma' Money Goes," etc., several solos, and a good bunch of darkie jokes. Their program was ended with "I'll Be in My Dixie Home Again Tomorrow."

Following this Armin Scheman was elected chairman to lead the discussion on the question, "Should Bachelors be Taxed for the Support of Old Maids in Minnesota." The arguments for and against given by the boys were very interesting.

A short business meeting was held during which the treasurer gave his report. Mr. Stewart, the critic, gave a favorable report and the meeting was adjourned.

Elvera: "My idea of perfect outdoor exercise is riding comfortably in a motor car with someone else at the wheel."

Myra: "This is a great life if you know how to dress for it."

From a story written by a Freshie: "She held out her hand and the young man took it and departed."

Miss Russell: "Has anyone else a question?"

Jocelyn: "Yes, what time is it?"

An American officer was drilling a Russian regiment. He sneezed and three men answered, "Here."

Mr. Church: (scratching head): "Is this plain?"

Harold V.: "No, it's solid."

Marvin: "What kind of wood do they make a match with?"

Minnie: "He wooed and she would."

The D. O. T. had a meeting Tuesday of last week at 7:30.

The Camp Fire Girls had an important meeting Wednesday after school.

Miss Tripp, Miss Erickson and Miss Kemp spent the week end with friends in Mankato.

G. Schlottman (after a ducking in hot water): "Come on if you want to fight—any of you!"
Some "Crust," eh?

Mr. Dirks went to Minneapolis for the Minnesota-Wisconsin football game last week.

The Seniors are sporting their new class rings and pins. The background is black enamel mounted with a gold N. U.

Mr. Gloor has scheduled basketball games with Comfrey, Lamberton, Sleepy Eye and Redwood Falls for the coming season.

The first vacation the High School students have had was Thursday and Friday of last week and they were mighty glad to get it.

The members of the Normal Department are taking a three weeks' course in cooking. They serve hot dishes for those who stay here for dinner.

The Freshmen class had a very important meeting Thursday at 1:15 to decide whether or not to put their class picture in the Annual.

Miss Kemp went to her home in Lake City Friday afternoon, and acted as bridesmaid at a wedding the following day. She returned Sunday night.

One day a big "freshie" came to High School. The boys ducked him in a tub full of water and then discovered that the victim was Walter Wiedenmann.

Myrtle Harbo spent several days with her sister, who is attending Carleton college. She also took in the Minnesota-Ohio football game at Minneapolis.

The October Honor Roll is quite a bit longer than the one last month. There were ten who had the required three A's and one B in September, while this month there are seventeen.

MR. GLOOR'S CAR STOLEN.

Friday afternoon, October, the twenty-seventh, Mr. Gloor parked his Dodge touring car on Snelling Ave., in St. Paul. He left the car at about three o'clock expecting to return for it some time later in the afternoon.

He did not return for his car until five o'clock, when to his surprise he found it gone. He at once notified the police of the city, but as the thief may have left with the car shortly after three, it is doubtful whether it can be found. The insurance company was also notified so they and the police started a search at once.

The car was purchased in September, 1921. It, having run but some six thousand miles, was still as good as new. Although it was practically new it was insured under the basis of an old car because it had run a year. It so happened that the insurance ran out just two days before the stealing took place. The policy had been renewed but as the car was about a year old the insurance company valued it at five hundred and fifty dollars instead of eight hundred dollars as they had the first year.

We all hope that Mr. Gloor will get his car back again. We can profit by his experience and have our cars insured against theft, as he has. If he does not find his car he will at least receive his insurance money.

Ochsie, over the telephone: "I wish you'd send a large mouse trap to my house."

Voice on the wire: "Yes, madam, and who is it for?"

Ochsie: "Don't be silly. It's for the mice of course."

Julia: "Did you mark me absent?"
Miss Tripp: "No, I heard you talking, so I knew you were here."

ANNUAL DRIVE.

The Seniors have come out of a trance and are wide awake, ready for business. They're determined to have an Annual and will be busy the next few weeks, raising money to finance the undertaking.

Here's the way they're going to do it.

The McCall Magazine Company has offered a $100 cash as a prize if they secure 200 subscriptions for this magazine. Well, the Seniors are going to get the $100. They're too good looking (I mean the $100) to pass by.

Then a committee is going out to get ads from the business men. In fact, Cecelia Hough and Lorna Schleuder, two of the members of the committee, have already secured $317.00 worth of ads. Now—does it still look as if the business men wouldn't back them, and do their bit?

Another financial aid is the willingness of the various organizations to pay for their picture in the Annual. The Seniors appreciate this very much, and hereby wish to thank the organization which have consented to do this.

The Senior class has the material to compose an Annual Staff, it can raise the money to put out an Annual and lastly it has the—I was about to say "pep," but I'm not certain whether or not it has. That remains to be proven, Seniors. It is up to you, Seniors, each and every one, to prove that you've got that most essential factor of all undertakings, namely—"pep."

Let this be written on the brow of every Senior:

"We're all of us ugly ducklings, and we'll come out swans at last—

That is, we aim to.

At least, there's no one else, if we don't dast,

To give the blame to.

It's only we ourselves that keep us down:

Men choose a fool's cap, who might wear a crown.

All gifts are in our reach, but some we're blind to;

We can have an Annual, if we're a mind to."

Miss Lohren asked the Freshmen to write a composition on what they hoped to do in life when they grew up. This was one of them: "When I grow up I want to be a policeman or a soldier or a cowboy. When I'm a policeman I'll arrest everybody. When I'm a soldier I'll fight the whole world, and when I'm a cowboy I'll lasso all the people. When I get through with these jobs, I want to be an engineer so I can run over everybody. They will say I am a very desperate man."

Marvin M. (In Lab.): "Say, the gas is leaking from this tank."

Mr. Church (who is very busy): "And you stand there and tell me about it? Get some putty and plug it. Use your head, boy, use your head."

Young Billie Wurst was much in love,

His heart was all awirl;
He took Miss Weiner in his arms.
For he never sausage a girl.

Dentist (prodding Eugene's gum in search of a fragment of tooth): "That's funny, I don't seem to feel it."

Eugene: "You're lucky."

A twelve course dinner might be described as a gastronomic marathon.

EXCHANGES

QUALITY, NOT QUANTITY.

Who should go to college? What standard of admittance should a college and university set when it opens its doors to prospective students? Should every educational institution have the right to set certain requirements for entrance and to refuse admittance to those who fall short?

There are too many students of the wrong type going to college.

An Iowa institution is practicing the policy of "limitation by selection" with regard to its student body this year. This is but one example of the new idea in education which has developed since going to college has become the popular thing to do. In speaking of this limitation scheme, the president of the school said: "The aim is to secure students, who, in their preparatory work, have shown qualities of personality and character which together with the classroom record, give evidence of an earnest purpose and promise of satisfactory results in a college course."

It is admitted that there is a class of college students who are not adapted to the research work and study required in college. There is a larger class who have no serious purpose in taking such a training other than to have a good time, and to attain social and athletic fame. These are the classes which the limitation will weed out.

This does not bar any young person from going to college. Those, who really have the desire for a college education will in most cases be those whose high school record is satisfactory, and whose character and personality is of the desired type. Such a limitation will not cripple college athletics, for anyone who partakes in such sports should have good grades. To have brain and brawn is by no means incompatible.

No college makes money out of its service. It gives the students far more than his tuition pays for. Therefore it seems right that a college should insist that all who come within its doors be those prepared to take full advantage of the benefit to be derived.—Mildred Hessman '24.—Sen Jen So Fre.

SOPHOMORES INITIATE FRESHMEN.

At a party given by the Sophomores, the Freshmen were initiated into High School. The Freshmen entertained with songs, stunts, and piano selections. Raymond Bismark read a prophecy for the Sophomore class and Inola Barker rendered a wonderful selection of one of her first grade piano exercises. The high school faculty helped to entertain us also. Miss Fjelstad and Miss Qualey played a beautiful duet, entitled "Chop Sticks." They were encored back and played a "Thanksgiving Turkey Song." Miss Stout and Miss Uhl gave a dialogue, Mr. Tripp recited a poem and Mr. Bolstad told a comical story.

After the program the Freshmen were taken through the "Chamber of Horrors," where they saw visions from the underground world and all that goes with it.

Games were played, after which refreshments were served.—Mora Mirror.

ATHLETICS.

What about athletics for this year? Think of last year's experiences and let us plan now for the success of the various teams under the direction of Coach Morgan, Taylor and Weston. There is no reason why Grove should not have winning teams with the large number of entrants to pick from. But success has its conditions and these conditions to be considered at present are loyalty of the student body, support of the patrons of the school, and a willingness on the part of those students who are athletically inclined or who by proper training may develop into well rounded teamsters to go out and make a determined effort to get on the teams.

It is something to talk about to have the home team go out and bring in the scalp of a rival team. It is more than simply pride; it makes a record for the school.

There are some live teams scheduled against the home team which have frequently given the side line boosters their money's worth. But that is more the reason for a greater incentive for us to bear them down and prove that merit with a loyal backing can win out.

Boost athletics, talk it, play it, and when this year has passed our teams will have set a record that will be hard to beat.—Comet, Paris, Tenn.

THE HONOR SYSTEM.

The honor system, which has been used in many high schools as well as colleges, has been instituted in our High School. This is a method by which the student body governs itself, taking over the care of the building, smoking and cheating. We get more privileges when we have proved ourselves capable of taking the responsibility.

By this method each pupil is responsible to the student body for his conduct, instead of the faculty. This makes him behave even when the teacher is out of the room. If the pupils have a share in the governing of the school they will take more interest in the activities of the school and watch out for defects and ways of improvement.

The Honor System, like any other organization, trains the members in leadership and self-government. This training helps them after they leave school and go out in the world.—School Bell.

TRY-OUTS FOR SPEAKERS BEGUN.

The Declamatory contestants have their selections picked out and are working very hard.

We notice this fact when strolling by Assembly B and hear strange noises issuing through the key holes and from under the doors. But "B" isn't large enough for their "ability," so the Attic will be used later.

The competition is growing more keen at every practice. Thirty-six girls and twelve boys are preparing topics for the contest.—Echo.

KATO BREAD TEAM REPRESENTS U. S.

Myra Jones, Leona Petterson and Evelyn Cuddy win fame. Trio visits Canada. People give receptions and medals to U. S. guests.—Otaknam.

A teacher after elections, Nov. 7: "How did you vote?"

Another teacher: "In my brown suit and squirrel toque."

THE JOKE SHOP

Pat: "Can you recall the day you lent me ten dollars?"

Joe: "No, but I'd like to."

Teacher: "This is the worst town or gossip I ever lived in."

Ditto: "H'm! What have you been doing?"

Miss Halverson: "How was Alexander of Russia killed?"

Dixie: "By a bomb."

Miss Halverson: "Can you be more explicit?"

Dixie: "Yes, the bomb exploded."

Dave: "I say, can you loan me a few bucks?"

Victor: "Why, yes, I'll let you have it when I return from my vacation."

Dave: "Fine! When will you return?"

Victor: "I'm not going."
