

PROTEAN SPIRIT IS INCREASING

INTERESTING PROGRAMS ARE COMING.

Each meeting of the Protean society sees its pep, literary spirit and enthusiasm increasing. The program for November 14 was unusually interesting.

The meeting was opened with roll call and reading of the minutes by the secretary. The evening's program was very interesting, entertaining and instructive. The first number was an Adventure Story by Leander Schlumpberger. His subject was "My First and Last Attempt to Drive a Mule." It was a scream. Even Mr. Stewart laughed until we all felt like "braying."

Two-Men Debate Successful.

The next number of the evening's program was a debate on the "Non Partisan League Question" Marvin Solberg, affirmative and Roy Pfeiffer, negative. Marvin Solberg, first speaker, gave some very interesting and persuasive information as to the origin and aims of the League. The applause given Mr. Solberg was so great that the audience had to be quieted.

Roy Pfeiffer showed his ability as a debater. His arguments were equally as good as Marvin's.

In the rebuttal, which followed, both parties were able to successfully refute their opponents. Most of the members of the Proteans are still undecided as to who was victor.

First Impromptu Speeches.

Before the meeting was opened a number of subjects for Impromptu Speeches were given out to various Proteans. The first speaker was our friend, Carl Frank. His subject was "A Contrast of City and Country Life." Carl held that there was not much difference between New Ulm and the country.

Arno Kienlen discussed "Farm Life." He contrasted the present and the past. He brought out the fact that the radiator (meaning radio) made spare time on the farm more interesting.

Marvin Meyer confessed in his speech why he flunked Chemistry. He brought out clearly that it was because his marks were below grade.

Cambria, the city way down east, was discussed by Ivor Price, who makes up the one hundred and first of its population.

Open Discussion on Election.

Arno Kienlen led an open discussion on the election returns. Mr. Stewart was well informed as to election returns outside of the state. The discussion as a whole proved very successful.

The members of the Society were more than pleased with the report of the critic, Mr. Stewart.

Miss Kemp spent the week-end with friends in Minneapolis.

Sleepy Eye Defeats New Ulm In Hard Game

Our Boys Play Opponents Off of Feet During Three Quarters

Team Shows Vast Improvement In Two Weeks

The New Ulm high school football team went down to defeat before the speedy Sleepy Eye eleven by a score of 14 to 0 at the Fair Grounds last Saturday afternoon. But the count does not tell the story of the game. For the last three quarters, with the exception of a few minutes at the opening of the second quarter, New Ulm played Sleepy Eye off its feet. If it had not been for the disastrous first quarter Sleepy Eye would have been held for a tie.

Sleepy Eye Kicks Off.

The game opened with Sleepy Eye kicking off to New Ulm. Nelson caught the ball and returned it to the New Ulm 10-yard line. Spaeth went around end for one yard. New Ulm failed to gain. Nelson kicked. Sleepy Eye's ball on its thirty-yard line. New Ulm penalized 15 yards for holding. Sleepy Eye failed to gain. Sleepy Eye gained two yards. Sleepy Eye made three end runs and went over for a touchdown. Sleepy Eye kicked goal. Score: Sleepy Eye 7, New Ulm 0.

New Ulm Holds.

Nelson kicked off for New Ulm. Sleepy Eye returned the ball to its 25-yard line. Raverty of Sleepy Eye made 7½ yards. Sleepy Eye penalized 15 yards for holding. Sleepy Eye kicks out of bounds. New Ulm's ball on its 20-yard line. Schueller failed to gain. Schueller made three yards. Spaeth went around end for 8 yards. Nelson kicked. Green for Sleepy Eye returned the ball to the Sleepy Eye 40-yard line. Sleepy Eye made five yards. Sleepy Eye failed to gain through center. Watschke, Sleepy Eye right half, made one yard. Green, Sleepy Eye, thrown for loss of three yards.

Make Second Touchdown.

New Ulm's ball. New Ulm failed to gain, Schueller made three yards.

Forward pass Schueller to Gebhard was incomplete. Nelson kicked. Sleepy Eye's ball on its 25-yard line. Nelson went down the field in time to tackle the Sleepy Eye runner. Sleepy Eye made one yard. Watschke, Sleepy Eye, made five yard, Green, Sleepy Eye, carried the ball for two yards more. Watschke gained five yards. Green made six yards. Green made five yards. Huiras, Sleepy Eye's left half, made two yards. Green gained three yards. Raverty made three yards. New Ulm held for 3 downs on its 2-yard line. Watschke of Sleepy Eye went over for a touchdown. Sleepy Eye kicked goal. Score: Sleepy Eye, 14; New Ulm, 0.

New Ulm Turns Tables.

The remainder of the game was a different story. New Ulm got its second wind and in spite of the loss of Gebhard played Sleepy Eye off its feet. The hard playing of New Ulm took Sleepy Eye by surprise. On several occasions it fumbled the ball and New Ulm recovered it for big gains. During the last half New Ulm executed trick plays which kept Sleepy Eye guessing and netted long gains for the local team.

Stars on Both Teams.

Stars for New Ulm were: Williams at right tackle and Schugel at left end. Time and again they broke up the Sleepy Eye interference and threw the carrier of the ball for a loss.

For Sleepy Eye, Green at quarter was in every play. He was a hard man to stop when he was carrying the ball. Watschke of Sleepy Eye was a good ground gainer.

The lineup for Saturday's game was as follows:

New Ulm.	Sleepy Eye.
Schueller	L. E.

CAMP FIRE.

"He-lo-pa-chee?" Sounds "Indianish," doesn't it? It means—well that's a secret, but it is the charter name of the New Ulm Camp Fire society, organized last January under the supervision of Miss Spriestersbach. If you watch closely the little fingers of the girls in High School you will soon see who is a member of the New Ulm chapter. The Camp Fire, like the Boy Scouts, is a national organization with a total membership of over 25,000, and it is found also in England, Russia, and many other European countries. Among its honorary members we find even such not-

D. O. T.'S HAD SPREAD.

The Daughters of Thespiis had a particularly good meeting last Monday night. Yes, I'll tell you why—because they had a most delicious spread. DEBATE WITH SLEEPY

EYE ON DECEMBER 14

OUR TEAM TO UPHOLD AFFIRMATIVE.

Two Debate Teams are on the floor this season. The following were chosen at the try-out a few weeks ago: Howard Vogel, Clarence Rolloff, Wesley Gebhard, Elizabeth Hintz, Roy Pfeiffer and Caroline Guggisberg.

The question is—Resolved: "That the Kansas Type of Industrial Court of Arbitration Be Established in Minnesota."

The first debate on December 14 is scheduled with Sleepy Eye. The debaters are bound to show Sleepy Eye that New Ulm can beat them mentally, if not physically.

One evening the two teams had a regular debate among themselves, one team taking the Affirmative and the other the Negative. The discussion was full of enthusiasm and it is to be regretted that there were no judges present to pronounce a verdict as to which side deserved the victory.

Mr. Stewart, the capable coach, is following a systematic method of instruction and, beyond doubt, will turn out a good team.

Roland Hohn is working with the two teams so as to be prepared to substitute in case of emergency.

The first team will uphold the affirmative in the debate with Sleepy Eye.

THE WHEREABOUTS OF LAST YEAR'S TEACHERS.

Miss Morse, last year's English teacher, is teaching at the Cannon Falls High School, this year.

Miss McFarlane, our music teacher, is teaching music at Lake City, Minnesota, High School.

Miss Myrick was married to Mr. Evans and is now residing at Le Sueur. It will be remembered that she taught General Mathematics and Higher Algebra at New Ulm. The students of the High School wish her much happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton went back to Montana, their former home. Mr. Stanton taught Manual Training.

Our last year's principal, Mr. Clark, is attending Columbia University.

Miss Potter, who was the school nurse the past two years, is at St. Paul this term.

The H. S. is practicing very hard on the two plays to be given, "The Trysting Place," and the "Merchant of Venice Up-to-Date."

The girls' basketball squad began practicing Monday. Another winning team is predicted. They feel fortunate in securing Mr. Dirks as coach.

Last Friday we again had an assembly. It was held to work up enthusiasm for our big game with Sleepy Eye. Let's try to keep our assemblies.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT IN N. U. H. S.

I, for my part, think it a very good idea to have student government re-instated in High School again. Many say, "Oh, we had it here once upon a time, and it proved unsuccessful, and we won't have such a thing again." But is that saying that it should forever be out of the question? Let us try it again and then again until we do succeed. There is nothing like trying, anyhow for things that really prove to be of advantage.

Student government shows us whether the boy or girl is honest. "Honesty is the best Policy." This rule would then be proven to its fullest degree. Furthermore it would then point out to us clearly those who are cheaters.

Student government would give the boys and girls the means of governing themselves. It would show the teachers that they could govern themselves without having a teacher in charge.

Many more things could be said which prove student government is really beneficial in preparing the boys and girls for future life.

Self Government was installed in our High School about four years ago, but was discarded, for the students could not manage to keep the pupils quiet. This led to the old method of ruling the assembly room again. The fact was that the student in charge of the class did not take enough responsibility upon himself. This is the main reason that student government failed.

Self government is a good plan for High Schools and other places where student government should be. This kind of ruling will bring the student who is in charge of the class to a great responsibility. It will give the student training which will be useful to him now and in years to come, especially when preparing to become a teacher.

WE NEED AN ASSEMBLY PERIOD.

The value of an assembly period once a week on Fridays is not highly valued by every student. If they would all realize how much good they could get out of it, they surely would work together and show the faculty that they really want one. Every good student who works hard all week, wants and furthermore, needs something to freshen him or her up at the end of the week. Why? Simply because the constant strain on the mind for five days causes a person to want a little rest. Many students get sick of school because they feel it is all work and no play. An assembly period at the end of the week gives the good student new ambition and new life so that he will not lose interest in his school life by the time Monday comes around again.

Surely the assembly periods will not be kept out of existence on account of some noisy students. There are students in school who have rest and fun about seven or eight periods a day. They manage to get that by not getting down to work as a useful student should. Furthermore they disturb the students who want to work and keep them from learning as much as they otherwise could.

There is a remedy for the evil that exists in the assembly periods. Those that don't care for an assembly on Friday could be put in another room where they would have to work, until they were ready to come to the assembly and get some good out of it. Surely, students, you can show the faculty that you deserve an assembly period on Friday. Don't let a few lazy students keep the entire student body from enjoying the benefits of an assembly.

ADVERTISEMENTS HELP MAKE GRAPHOS POSSIBLE.

It is very largely due to the fact that the local merchants have been willing to place their advertisements in the Graphos that our school paper has been made possible. The businessmen are willing to help make our paper a success. It will be only returning the favor if we make it a point to buy from the merchants whose ads appear in this paper.

SOPHOMORE COLUMN.

Frank Schluck: "Who ate up all that ice cream I left here?"

Orval Fenske: "I dont' know, but Sall-et Thies."

Mr. Hein to students: "Physical culture is a wonderful thing and you all need it. Now throw out your chest, place hands on hips and advance six feet."

Ivor Price: "But, Mr. Hein, I've only got two feet."

The Sophomore class can at least pride itself upon having a few exceedingly unselfish and considerate members. This is evidenced by the fact that from 3:30 to 4:10 p. m., these kind souls distribute their adorable presences a week at a time among the various teachers so that none will feel slighted.

Mr. Stewart (to a Sophomore coming up the hall reading a book): "You will run into somebody with your nose buried in that book."

Sophomore: "It's a wonderful book, Mr. Stewart. It tells all about the six senses. I have five senses, but the sixth is not developed. Do you know what it is?"

Mr. Stewart: "Yes, common sense."

"Hello, Wes," said Boiler, as Wes was walking along whistling blithely, "Whither away?"

"Am going up to Dr. Vogel's to be examined for basket ball," said Wes.

"Jerusalem! You don't seem to be much worried about it," said Boiler.

"Oh, no!" smiled Wes, "there won't be anything doing. I've never been able to pass an examination the first time in all my young life."

FRESHMAN COLUMN.

Random Thoughts by the Freshies.
The Sophs may be proud of their Romans,

And Alpha may seem a bit Greek,
But we'll tell you the Freshies have Homer,

Now let's see Soph conceit spring a leak.

Of course, they've the opera star,
Pat-ti,

And Wesley who surely can preach,
And Stanley, the famous explorer,
And such-like celebrities.

But the Freshies go in for aesthetics,
With their Mielke way, Roses and Grace;

As for gold-dust twins, Homer and Heinie

Can beat most any old Soph;
And we've borrowed a first-rate mascot,

Real Garnet, not just common Stone.

THE ORCHESTRA.

When the orchestra had its first few practices, students in flunk class and others who were standing around by the doors, thought the Goosetown Band had come to serenade one of the teachers. (With apologies to the Goosetown Band.) There has been quite an improvement since then and the orchestra will make their first appearance at the A. A. plays. Those playing violin are Marvin Meyer, Julia Hauenstein, Martha Prom, Charlotte Miller, Harold Loeffelmacher, Virgil Wagner. Charlotte Miller, Virgil Wagner and Harold Loeffelmacher come from the grades and we surely appreciate the fact that they are willing to help make the orchestra more complete. Elvera Kretsch plays the saxophone; Willard Price, the drums; Emerald Miller, the clarinet; Florence Hartl, the cornet and Doris Haugen, the slide trombone. Adeline Ritschel plays the piano. With an able director, such as Miss Kemp, the orchestra will certainly prove to be as much of a success as it has been in previous years.

THE SECRETARY.

If he writes a letter, it is too long; if he sends a postal, it is too short; if he edits a pamphlet, he's a spend-thrift; if he goes to a committee meeting, he's butting in; if he stays away, he's a shirker; if the crowd is slim at a luncheon, he should have called the members up; if he calls them up, he's a pest; if he duns a member for his dues, he is insulting; if he does not collect them, he's crazy; if a meeting is a howling success, the Entertainment Committee is praised; if it's a failure, the Secretary is to blame; if he asks for suggestions, he's incompetent; if he doesn't, he's bull-headed.

Ashes to ashes,
Dust to dust,
If the others won't do it,
The Secretary must.

SLEEPY EYE GIVES NEW ULM CREDIT FOR FIGHT.

Again did Sleepy Eye high school demonstrate its superiority over the New Ulm eleven, Saturday, when Coach Aitchison's men defeated the county seat lads by a score of 14 to 0. But, it was not an easy victory. The New Ulm boys put up a very stiff fight and held the hard plunging and speedy Sleepy Eye players to two touchdowns. New Ulm showed surprising form, and though they did not threaten the Sleepy Eye goal, their line held well and they kept our boys from piling up a big score.—From Sleepy Eye Herald-Dispatch.

THE JUNIOR DANCE.

Monday evening, Nov. 6, the Juniors gave a dance at Turner hall. There was no school on the following Tuesday so everybody had a good time and didn't have to think of studying. The school board, faculty, and all High School students were invited. Several teachers, and Dr. and Mrs. Hintz and Mr. and Mrs. Zschunke were there. The Orient Orchestra furnished the music and the crowd danced until 11:30. The admission was 50 cents for dancers and 25 cents for spectators. The Juniors made a little more than their expenses.

CAMP FIRE.

ed persons as Mrs. Harding, Galli Curci, and Madame Pavlova.

Ignorant of the ideals of the Camp Fire, many know it only as an organization of girls who wish to play the role of an Indian, but the Camp Fire really is a band of girls who appreciate the highest values in life and wish to live so that their daily lives may be the application and expression of their ideals. They live up to seven laws which are to:

1. Seek Beauty,
2. Give Service,
3. Pursue Knowledge,
4. Be Trustworthy,
5. Hold on to Health,
6. Glorify Work,
7. Be Happy.

They sound easy, don't they—but try them!

The chief events of the Camp Fire are the monthly ceremonial meetings. They're mysterious and secret—but of course only a Camp Fire girl can really appreciate them! Last week witnessed the first meeting of this kind this year. The program was as follows:

1. Camp Fire Salute.
2. Roll Call—Imitation of an animal.
3. Talk on Rank of Wood Gatherer—Miss Spriestersbach.
4. Special Number—Story.
5. Awarding the Honors.
6. Camp Fire Song—"The Sun Is Sinking in the West."
7. Business Meeting:
 1. Secretary's Report.
 2. Treasurer's Report.
 3. Old Business Report.
 4. New Business Report.
8. Social Meeting.
 1. Free for all chatter followed by di-vine (?) refreshments.

The officers elected for this year are: Lucy Schneider, President; Mildred Epple, Treasurer; Marjorie Krook, Secretary, and Marion Reineke, Social Secretary. Miss Elizabeth Schmidt is co-guardian for the new year.

The reports of last year showed in every way the success of the new group. This of course lays a good foundation for Camp Fire this year. Among the big successes was the Christmas party given last Christmas for little children, many of whom would otherwise not have had much Christmas cheer. The candy and doughnut sales helped to pad the treasury to stand the ten-dollar "annual" blow.

Unfortunately the He-lo-pa-chee group did not go camping last year, but when summer is again ushered in, they aim to pitch their tents in some secluded spot beside the shores of "Git-You Guessing?" where they will learn all the secrets of nature; that water is something else besides a beverage; that there are other birds besides robins, and so forth. Meanwhile, during "King Winter's" reign the girls will keep up their work, prospering in health, wealth and wisdom.

CRITICISM OF GRAPHOS.

"The Graphos" from New Ulm, Minnesota, is one of the many new exchanges being received. The paper is well written and is exceedingly interesting. One fault which is rather noticeable is the length of paragraphs. Try to shorten them and the paper will be relieved of an appearance of heaviness which is not merited. It is not wise either to put jokes on the front page, as it tends to make it appear that the purpose of the paper is humor.—Wigwam, Yakima, Wash.

Myra: "'Punted?' Why no! He just kicked off the ball."

Roland decided to play hookey, but fearing that Mr. Stewart might ask his parents where he had been, he called the principal on the telephone.

"I am calling up to tell you that Roland Hohn will not be at school today?"

"Oh, all right. Who is this speaking?"

This was rather an unexpected question and Roland answered, "This is my mother."

Bill Redeker: "Who's that lady in white sitting out there guarding the entrance to Mr. Gloor's office?"

Herb. M.: "Don't you remember Joan of Arc that found a white horse and led the French army to victory?"

Bill: "Maybe she'll find Mr. Gloor's car that way if she stays there a while, and maybe she'll lead our football team to victory next time."

Victor Liesch: "Can you write your name with your eyes shut, Dad?"

Dad: "Yes, Victor."

Victor: "Then shut your eyes and sign my report card."
