NEW ULM, MINNESOTA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1922.

NUMBER 1

P. L. S. INVESTITURE CEREMONY

FRIDAY, SEPT. 30TH, IN THE GYM.

Lunch! Lunch. Lunch!
First meeting on Monday evening, Oct. 2, 1922.

On Friday evening the new members of the Protean Literary Society paraded up to the school house. With fear and trembling "Shaky Legs" were led to the place of initiation.

The program was a wonderful success. Oysters with strings tied to them were fed to us only to be pulled from our mouths again. Songs were sung and nearly all the initiates thought they were singing their funeral song. The rythm was kept by the steady beat of many paddles on the poor new members.

After a century of this torture, a faint aroma of something that smelled good floated down into the gym. This naturally caused many mouths to water and at last to the great relief of the hungry ones a huge pan of buns and wieners came through the door, followed by a case of pop. Everybody showed the animal instinct and fell to as a pig does with his front paws in the trough.

First Meeting.

The first meeting of the Protean Society was held on Monday evening, Oct. 2. The secretary read his report and also read the constitution for the benefit of the new members. The program, which was as follows, was a great success:

The 1922 Football Season
..... David Williams
The Coal Strike.....Edward Witt
An extemporaneous discussion by the members.

Mr. Stewart, the critic, gave us a very favorable report and the meeting was adjourned.

THE MOON AND STARS WERE WONDERFUL.

Last week the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs had a Moonlight Wiener Roast up on Camel's Back. It was a merry group that made its way up to the familiar hills that night. They yelled and sang so loud that I think "Old Herman" himself must have heard them. And they were oh! so hungry after they had climbed all those hills and saw the big blazing fire which Mr. Stewart and Mr. Dirks had built. The wieners certainly smelled good while they were roasting and bursting over the fire. Oh! kids, but the Freshies were so surprised when they saw that their marshmallows got bigger when they held them over the fire! They thought there was more to 'em then. After lunch they spent the evening in shouting and singing the praises of New Ulm way up to the clear blue sky.

FOOTBALL TEAM SPLITS EVEN IN TWO BATTLES

Victory at Madelia Defeat at Glencoe

25-0

17-9

Husky New Ulm Boys Plow Through the Line for Four Touchdowns.

The New Ulm football team scored a clean cut victory last Saturday afternoon, when they defeated the Madelia high by a score of 25-0. Inability of the opposing team to withstand the hammering of our team, was the cause of their defeat. Outplayed in every way, the Madelia team still battled and put up a stiff fight. Four touchdowns were made, one by Jones and three by Nelson, who starred for our side.

First Half.

The game started by New Ulm receiving the ball, but lost it on downs, and it was Madelia's ball. They, too, lost it and this time New Ulm scored a touchdown. A goal kick was made, scoring seven points for New Ulm toward the end of the quarter. The second quarter another touchdown was made by Nelson going through the line. An attempt at a goal kick failed, the first half ending 13 to 0.

Second Half.

This time Madelia received the ball, but after a few downs Madelia fumbled and New Ulm recovered. Plym scored another six points, making defeat seem further away. Fumbles were frequent, due to cold weather and wet grounds, making it very unpleasant for the players. Madelia tried to keep us from scoring, but Nelson made another touchdown. This ended the scoring for both sides. In the last quarter New Ulm opened up in passes, but most of them were fumbled, due to the ball being slippery from the rainy weather. Both sides tackled well. Drake, Scott and Schaleben did the best work for Madelia.

New Ulm High School Football Team Defeated in Initial Contest of Season.

While Glencoe succeeded in drawing the long end of a 17 to 9 score in the first gridiron contest of the season in which the New Ulm high school football eleven participated, our boys recovered from a slight attack of "stage fright" after the second quarter and demonstrated their ability by outplaying their opponents during the two succeeding frames. The game was staged at Glencoe Saturday afternoon.

Opposed by Experienced Players.

The New Ulm team went into the fray with a great deal of pep, confident of victory, but soon learned that their opponents were mostly seasoned players, while only two of the local boys had ever been in a regular football game before. This, naturally, led to "tenderfoot" outcroppings on the part of the new players, but they rallied remarkably and showed wonderful staying powers during the last three quarters.

Glencoe Scores 10 Points.

During the first quarter of the game, Glencoe scored 10 points, and was successful in preventing our boys from scoring. This big lead could not be overcome, in spite of the fact that New Ulm buckled down to hard work and put up a good fight, after shaking off the brief spell of "stage fright."

Locals Make Good Headway.

New Ulm presented a stone wall front to Glencoe during the second frame, compelling the latter to be satisfied without a single point. Our boys did not gain, however, until toward the last of the quarter, when Esser caught a forward pass, thrown by Spaeth. Carl Frank and Vogel were substituted by Edward Gebhard and Fritsche. "Plym" Nelson made good headway through the line, but the quarter ended before he was able to score.

Glencoe on Defensive.

The third quarter started differently. Our boys went into the fray and hammered the Glencoe line, making quite a few gains. The pigskin was being pushed toward the Glencoe goal, when "Plym" put a drop kick over our goal, scoring three points for New Ulm. Glencoe scored another touchdown during this quarter.

The Final Frame.

The hopes of the New Ulm players and fans soared skyward during the final quarter, when our boys scored

D. O. T. STYLE SHOW BIG SUCCESS

FASHION'S CAPRICIOUS WHIMS.

The style show, staged in the assembly room last Friday, was a decided success. The new fall fashions were displayed by the new members of the D. O. T. Society. Maybelle Simmet, very attractively attired in Pannieres played the piano for the various models as they walked across the stage. Lottie Pfaender entered in a very neat riding suit of red and white linen. A fur coat with flaring lines, worn by Verna Dahl, was received with favor by the audience. Myrtle Harbo displayed to the best advantage a blue chiffon evening gown. The simple little frock, worn by Hazel Heiman, was new in every detail. Florence Hellman, in a traveling suit, accompanied by Caroline Guggisberg, handsomely groomed in a man's business suit, pushing a perambulator, which was the latest in reed baby carriages, created quite a sensation. The occupant of the carriage, very daintily dressed in an infant's gown, proved to be Hildegard Hein. Ruth Renner, in the very popular Swan Lake model, was followed by Irene Muske with wide hoop skirts. After the latter's somewhat hurried exit, Esther Pufahl entered wearing an attractive child's play dress. The light frocks worn by Evelyn Alwin and Vida Juni, the Goldust Twins, were popular with the audience, while Viola Cordes in a very effective afternoon gown was well applauded. A forecast of 1925 fashions was given in the person of Freda R. Irene Ochs, as a flapper of 1898, was a decided success. Her outfit was very complete from the tips of her dainty boots to the top of her chic little hat. Little boys' suits were worn by Irma Steinberg and Lily Martin. Martha Schaefer wore an up-to-the-minute school dress of Parisian design. The fashion show ended with a flourish when Grace Anderson and Doris Haugen posed as flappers. There was a flurry of skirts and a hurried rush for the door, the stage was cleared. The decrees of Dame Fashion had been transmitted to an appreciative audience.

CORRECT.

Down stairs in the kitchen his mother was struggling with the supper fire.

"Johnny," said his mother, "fetch me a stick of wood."

"Ah, mother," replied Johnny E., the grammatical portion of your education has been sadly neglected. You should say: John, my son, transport from that recumbent collection of combustible material on the threshold of this edifice one of those curtailed excrescences of defunct log."

SCHOOL SPIRIT.

I am the School Spirit! I am the life of your school. I am more than I seem, a something more than a conquering, living, growing thing. I look back upon and cherish those stirring days when your school first started upon its career, for I was always present. You must accept me now for I live for your benefit; and if I am not in your midst you will fail in your attempt to make your school worth while. I study with you, follow you, waiting always to be received by you. If any school activity is lead to victory, I am with you. You can not see me, but I am there, ever aiming to govern your school. I am no beggar, I merely call for your assistance. If you live for your school, work for the benefit of your school, honor your school and think it is the best school in the world, I will be with you. I AM THE SCHOOL SPIRIT.

LITERARY TRAINING.

The work of literary training is invaluable. It is of more value than practically all of the other High School activities combined. Perhaps it does seem to many that athletics are more important in school life than literary work and undoubtedly in many schools athletics do predominate, but literary work is equally important. What is the value of athletics after you have completed your education? It will be a work practically useless after the completion of your education, while literary work can be used all the time. Some of the greatest professors at the leading colleges and universities have expressed their preference to the man of literary training or the public speaker over the athlete, for the reason that while the athlete is very prominent indeed during his school career, he cannot use this training after he leaves school. In nine cases out of ten he is heard of no more, while the public speaker is the man that we hear of ever after. He is the man that leads us in politics, social and business affairs. It is the literary trained man who influences us and the development of our community. His name heads the list of famous men of his time.

It is not that I am opposed to athletics, but to show you the importance of literary training over that of other High School activities. You get out of your literary society just the amount that you put into it and no more. Let's all get busy and make this the biggest season in the history of the P. L. S. and bring it up to such a standard that we can feel proud to be members of this society.

REPUTATION.

"Reputation comes in just two varieties—Good and Bad.

A Good Reputation is the hardest thing to get and the easiest thing to lose.

A Bad Reputation is the easiest thing to get, and the hardest thing to lose.

Reputation can be the most exalting or the most damning thing in life.

Reputation is the right hand of Fate—that points out the road to Success or Failure.

Reputation is an invisible pedestal, on which we stand like statues, marked Famous or Infamous.

Reputation is priceless and yet, it is within the reach of everybody.

Reputation is the most precious thing to a woman and the most valuable thing to a man.

Every human being is a peddler of Reputation—His own and the other fellow's—Why deal in Bad ones when plenty of Good are to be had."

Above is a clipping which it might be worthwhile for the reader to clip out and paste in his pocket note-book or in her compact.

The following editorial is based upon the saying above.

Every student here in high school has a reputation, either Good or Bad. What is yours?

Can you boast of being regarded by the Faculty and your fellow students as an individual with a Good Reputation?

If you treat everyone with whom you come in contact fairly and squarely, if you are honest and not a cheat or a piker, you may rest assured that you have a Good Reputation, one of the hardest things to get, one of the easiest things to lose, one of the most exalting things in life.

But—if you are dishonest or discourteous toward your teachers, if you deceive your fellow students, if you try to cheat or somehow get the better of the other fellow every time you get a chance, if you are one of those pikers who hangs back and refuses to pay his Athletic dues, or puts up a fight in order to evade subscribing for the Graphos—you must expect to be branded with a Bad Reputation among the Faculty and your fellow students. Thence you possess one of the easiest things to get; one of the hardest things to lose; one of the most damning things in life.

Now, your future depends upon your Reputation. After you graduate from High School and go out into the business or professional world to find a job, your success is going to depend upon your Reputation. If your statue is standing in the hall of your Alma Mater and that invisible pedestal has Reputation marked Famous, your future life will undoubtedly be a success. However if your statue is marked Infamous, you will very likely face failure.

Can you buy a Good Reputation? No, indeed you cannot, but everyone has an equal chance to acquire one. For—"Reputation is priceless, and yet it is within easy reach of everybody."

A Good Reputation is essential for the welfare of us all. A respectable and satisfied woman must possess a Good Reputation. A respectable and successful man must also possess the quality. Therefore a Good Reputation is the most precious thing to a woman and the most valuable thing to a man.

Now, in what line of Reputation are you dealing or going to deal in? Try to get in with the Good Ones? Remember there are plenty to be had.

Get into the right rut—then stay in it.
 CAROLINE GUGGISBERG.

LOCALS LOSE FIRST GAME TO GLENCOE.

A touchdown. "Plym" again demonstrated his skill on the gridiron by making a 30-yard dash through the line on one down. The ball was very near our goal and the rooters cheered for a touchdown. This pepped up our boys and "Plym" got through the Glencoe line, scoring six points. A goal kick was attempted, but failed, the game ending in a score of 17 to 9 in Glencoe's favor.

Tackled Hard and Low.

Roy Gebhard and Bernard Esser starred for New Ulm and did excellent defensive work. Our boys tackled their opponents hard and low, outplaying Glencoe in this department of the game. Defeat at the hands of a more experienced team will be an asset to New Ulm in the future gridiron battles.

FOUND HAVEN IN TELEPHONE.

New York Man Was Evidently Firm Believer in Old Adage, "Any Port in a Storm."

John had just left the house to catch the 7:35 for New York. He had been gone about ten minutes when the telephone rang. Mrs. John answered it. Her husband was on the other end.

"Hello," he said, "is everything all right, Mary?"

"Why, yes," said Mrs. John.

"You're all right?"

"Why, yes."

"And the baby?" John asked anxiously. "The baby is all right?"

"Of course," said Mrs. John.

"What makes you think we aren't? Nothing has happened since you left the house. What's the matter, John?"

"Well, I'll tell you." He dropped his voice almost to a whisper. "There are several pretty girls in this station collecting for the Wilson fund, and I thought it would be less expensive to get into this telephone booth and telephone to you than it would be to stay outside."—New York Evening Post.

WHY SHE GOT MAD.

"I understand the wife of this professional humorist resents the way he pokes fun at feminine foibles."

"Hasn't the fellow tact enough to convince her that she's an exception to the rule?"

"He may have that much tact, but what makes her mad is the fact that he doesn't take the trouble to exercise it."—Birmingham Age Herald.

"Pa!"

"For goodness sake, what is it now?"

"This book is called Shakespeare's Works."

"Well?"

"Well, you told me they was plays."

HORRORS TO THE NEW MEMBERS OF D. O. T.

On Monday evening, the 25th of September, some thirty or thirty-five new members were enrolled into the High School Girls' Dramatic society, the Daughters of Thespis. The new members experienced an awful time for they were forced to do rather disagreeable things most of the evening. First of all the girls were blind-folded and the old members led the girls up the steps, one by one, to the second floor and made them crawl into the assembly on their hands and knees. Next they were placed on the platform and had a D. O. T. painted on each of their arms with iodine and silver nitrate. Then the old members led the girls down the winding stairs into the gym, where they had to walk barefooted in deep pans filled with everything from fly-paper to water. After that they were allowed a ten-minute rest and then a program was given by the new members. Solo dances, debates and short plays found the chief amusement, after which a delicious luncheon was served by the old members. A password was given to the new members and no one can get into a meeting without remembering it. The new members take much interest in the society and will endeavor to do everything in their power to add to the welfare of the organization.

PEP! VIM! SNAP!

That's the translation for our assembly meetings. Oh! Boy! Every one is full of life and we certainly show it. That's the way to end up the week so that we feel anxious to get back to school again on Monday. That makes school life interesting.

The last Friday of September was the first assembly which we had directly before a football game. All the players that went to Glencoe on Saturday lined up on the stage so that we could look them over. Our Captain, Carl Spaeth, was asked to give a speech. He did give one, but most of us thought that it could have been a trifle longer. Carl seems to be a man "of action and not of words."

Our three coaches took their turns in speaking to the students. Mr. Church got everyone intensely interested in regard to "Plym" and the statue on the stage. He finally told us that he thought they both looked alike. Of course we all agreed, but nevertheless, "Plym" shows more action than a statue does when he gets on the football field. Mr. Stewart and Mr. Dirks gave very interesting talks in regard to football. They discussed sportsmanship, which every one should think of especially when playing against another town. Mr. Gloor also gave a short talk on football and why he liked it.

The surprise of the Assembly period was Miss Halvorson. She got up on the stage like a shot and told us what we could do to help the team. She gave such a snappy little talk that everyone tried to show his appreciation in the yell for her which followed. That is the kind of spirit we should like to have shown by every member of our High School.

NORMAL NEWS.

When the regular session of the New Ulm High School began this fall the Normal Department also opened its eyes after having slept in peace all summer. The hinges on the door were oiled and seven young hopefuls began to work on the Science of Pedagogy.

Within the next few days several more drifted in and at this time the class totals eleven. Of these, ten are school marms and the other has hopes of becoming a school master. It is said his hopes are quite strong.

After everything had reached the point at which things began to run smoothly Miss Koch decided that it was about time that this bunch of youngsters should get busy and organize for the purpose of having something definite with which to carry on their business. The outcome of this decision ran as follows:

Graphos Reporter.Erma Hindermann
In order to gain some practical experience the people in this department have taken charge of several classes in the Second and Third Grades of the city schools. All seem to think that teaching is not the "Snap" that it had at first appeared to be.

Wednesday and Thursday, October 4th and 5th, respectively, were two of the greatest days of the year. On these days the students were out to visit seven different country schools in order to observe the methods and management of these institutions. The trips surely were enjoyable outside of the fact that they imparted many practical suggestions to the future managers of these places.

WITH APOLOGIES TO LONGFELLOW.

Oh, tell me not in mournful numbers
High School life's an empty dream,
For the guy gets out who slumbers
And who rows on easy stream.

The work is hard, the studies fierce,
Just a diploma, the goal;
Chemistry, physiology, we must perce,
Would rather climb a pole.

Not enjoyment, mostly sorrow,
Cram, cram, cram, from day to day;
Then there's gym work on the morrow,
Straight and narrow is the way.

On the gym floor twice a week,
Hop and skip and thrust and jump;
Would rather something easy seek
Than to have my heart go thump.

There are stiff exams in everything,
That we all must bear and take,
And then we get some real low marks,
We can't pass at that rate.

Our dear schoolmates, too, annoy us,
As o'er books we pose and pour,
Talking, talking, always talking,
Saying naught and nothing more.

Thus with troubles over burdened,
Wearily we'd dare to die,
But it's just for these we love you,
Here's to you, dear New Ulm High.

EXCHANGES.

"Salemica." It takes a lot of "Pep" for a school with such a small enrollment to put out a magazine like the Salemica.

"Echo" from Luverne is the first exchange we have received this year. We wish to compliment you on the good arrangement of your paper. It's very newsy and is well written.

"School Bell." Nearly missed you, you're so small. The first of this year's issue of your paper showed great improvement over those of last year. Where's the exchange department?

"Milaca." We were surprised to get a May issue of the Milaca, but better late than never." This issue was complete in all respects. The arrangement was very good while the material was par-excellence. We hope to hear from you this year.

"Mur Mur." You are noted for your original short stories and jokes. The Castle Mur Mur proves interesting. This poem is very clever:

"Freshmen quit because—what's the use?

"Juniors quit because—some poor excuse.

"Seniors quit because—can't stand the strain.

"Sophomores quit because—just lack of brains."

LOCALS.

Miss Vogel is taking charge of Miss Tripp's classes.

Miss Halverson spent last week end at her home in Madelia.

Miss Spriestersbach spent the week-end with friends in Mankato.

Marjorie Krook was absent from school the last week on account of illness.

How did you like the looks of your best girl, after the D. O. T. initiation?

Mr. Joe Morrison, a friend of Prof. Stewart, was here last week for a short visit.

The Camp Fire Girls had a meeting in Miss Spriestersbach's room at 3:30 on Thursday.

A bunch of peppy High School students hired a truck to take them to Madelia, Saturday.

Five Juniors, four Seniors and two Sophomores played on the team when we played Glencoe.

Monday the Economics classes went down to Buenger's furniture store to look at different period furniture.

Everybody ought to go to the football game Saturday at Mankato. Come on, gang! Let's see you there.

Miss Tripp was absent from school for several days last week, having been called home by the death of a relative.

Bessie Dietz and Irene Karstad, graduates of the Class of '22 visited school last Friday. Both girls attend the Mankato State Teacher's College.

Everybody seems to find something interesting on the new bulletin board. No wonder, with all the deficiency lists and most of all, the Football schedule.

Nearly all the girls in gym classes wear bloomers and gym shoes. It's so much easier to do your exercise this way, so let's see everybody out in bloomers after this.

Eugene Waterston is back at school after having been at the National Rifle Match at Camp Perry for a month. He is an excellent shot having received the Marksmanship Medal and Team Medals. We all hope he will do as well in Football.

BLACK AND GREEN.

An old colored man was burning dead grass when a "wise guy" stopped and said, "You're foolish to do that Uncle Eb. It will make the meadow as black as you are."

"Don't worry 'bout dat, sah," responded Uncle Eb. "Dat grass will grow out an' be as green as yuh is."

Fred: "Which is correct, the yoke of oxen is or are ploughing?"

Ned: "The yoke of oxen is ploughing."

Fred: "Correct, now which is right, the yolk of egg is or are white?"

Ned: "The yolk of egg is white."

Fred: "Wrong. The yolk of egg is yellow."

"Bridget, I don't want you to have so much company. Why, you have more callers in a day than I have in a week." "Well, mum, perhaps if you try to be a little more agreeable you'd have as many friends as I have."

DECIDED TOO SOON.

"Was papa the first man who ever proposed to you, mamma?"

"Yes, but why do you ask?" "I was just thinking that you might have done better if you had stopped around a little more."

One day Mickie had occasion to speak sharply to one of his Bright Science Students. He said sharply, "you've neglected your work shamefully, and you must remain with me an hour after school."

She shrugged her thin shoulders. "Well," she said, "if your wife doesn't mind it, I'm sure I don't."

Blanche H.: "You can't believe everything you hear."

Celia H.: "No, but you can repeat it."

Ivan: "Why do some singers in halls close their eyes when they sing?"

Roy: "Because they can't bear to see us suffer."
