STATE CHAMPIONSHIP!

HOWARD VOGEL TAKES FIRST IN STATE ORATORY

NEW ULM DEBATERS IN STATE FINALS

Win Fifth Victory.—Defeat Cannon Falls 2-1.

The New Ulm Debating Team won more laurels for themselves and for the High School when they defeated Cannon Falls here on Thursday, March 22, the final decision being two to one.

The local team consists of Howard Vogel, Elizabeth Hintz, and Clarence Roloff while that of Cannon Falls was composed of Caryl Engstrom, Merle Olson and Ellis Yale. Both teams presented their side of the question with exceptional persuasiveness and showed rare ability in argumentation.

The question for debate was, "Resolved That the Kansas Type of Adjudication Should Be Established in Minnesota." The New Ulm debaters upheld the Affirmative while Cannon Falls defended the Negative.

The judges were: Prof. George Miller and Prof. H. H. Fuller from Mankato Teachers College and Prof. George J. Fuller, Mankato High School. Atty. George B. Erickson acted as chairman.

The Cannon Falls debaters had their side very well in hand but the locals had better arguments in the rebuttal. Cannon Falls used considerable theory, while New Ulm used actual facts gathered after intensive study and research. Both teams exhibited exceptional oratorical ability.

Much of the debaters' success can be traced to Principal Stewart, who has worked with them incessantly since last October. The coach and team have been working hard for many weeks and the students certainly appreciate it.

The High School Orchestra rendered several pleasing selections before the debate and when the decision was being made, Virgel Wagner favored the audience with a violin solo.

There are but three teams left to debate for state championship, New Ulm being one of them. Cass Lake and Duluth Central will debate in about a week and the winner of that contest will meet New Ulm for State Championship. This is the first time that New Ulm has ever reached such a high standard and it is a great honor both to the High School and the city. The locals have eliminated all the teams in the southern part of the state.

Considerable importance must be given the Cannon Falls debate, owing to the fact that Cannon Falls had heretofore won with the negative side of the question in every contest. Practically all teams and coaches in the state concede that the Negative is the best side, and every team has been anxious to debate that side. Cannon Falls defeated Red Wing, St. Peter, Faribault and Minneapolis Central with the Negative. New Ulm

Howard Vogel brought honor to New Ulm High School as well as himself, when he captured first honors at the boys section of the State Declamatory Contest which was held at District Champion Two Years.

The championship of the district has been won by Howard for the past two years. In his Freshman year after winning out in the Siegel Trophy contest, Howard represented New Ulm in the sub-district contest.

During his Sophomore year after having won first places in the local, sub-district, and district contests, he was entered into the state finals where he was awarded fourth place. This year was a repetition of last year's victories for Howard and he was again representative of the district in the state contest at which he won first honors out of a field of ten contestants. His oration this year was "The Responsibilities of Our Nation." Last year his subject was "The Value of an Ideal."

Howard Vogel has brought an honor upon his school which has never before been won by its representatives, although they twice succeeded in capturing second place. Supt. Arnold Gloor is due a great deal of credit in these victories, as it was he who coached Howard for all the contests.

Perham Girl Leads in Dramatics.

Catherine Dunham won first place in the Dramatic section of the contest. Her subject was "The Witching Hour."

Second and third places were awarded respectively to Donald Barr of St. Cloud whose selection was "The Wandering Jew" and David Rockes of

Wadena, with "The Turk Must Go."*

In the girls' contest second place was won by Alice Frost of Mora, with "Mercedes" and third place to Genevieve Rodange whose declamation was "The Rescue of Lygia."

Other Contestants.

The other representatives of the various districts and their selections are as follows: Ralph Stevens, Warren, "Grattan's Reply to Corry;" Ronald Iwinn, Monticello, "The Wandering Jew;" George Desmond, Franklin, "A Plea for Cuba;" Merrill Abbey, Luverne, "The Turk Must Go;" Lloyd Hanson, Tawer, "I Am an American;" Louis Usem, Austin, "Americanism;" Leo Walsh, Harmony, "The American Spirit." Supt. O. W. Herr of Red Wing presided at the afternoon contest.

The girls with their selections with the exception of the prize winners were Anne Cassidy, Warren, "The Littlest Rebel;" Zella Kibley, Appleton, "The Last Word;" Mary Drewy, Windom, "Cuddy;" Lily Koivisto, Gilbert, "The Melting Pot;" Hazelle Lee, Madison, "Number Six;" Evelyn Thykeson, Albert Lea, "Madame Butterfly;" Thelma Berg, Rushford, "The Man and the Song." Supt. E. H. Wilcox of Lakefield presided at the evening contest.

Supt. Gloor Sec.-Treas.

At the annual meeting Supt. A. M. Bank, Park Rapids was re-elected president; John S. Garns of McPhail School, vice-president; and Supt. Arnold Gloor, New Ulm, secretary and treasurer. This is a distinct recognition of the interest Supt. Gloor has taken in the State contests.

Judges.

The judges of the contest were: Supt. Erick Leke, Excelsior; Supt. J. Ray Struble, St. James; Supt. John M. Brendah, Hallock; Supt. E. H. White, Ely and Supt. E. E. Hargis, Redwood Falls.

Prizes Awarded.

The prizes donated by the McPhail School are as follows:

First Prize—In each division, shield for the winning school and one-half year's tuition in the School of Expression for the contest, amount valued at $100.00.

Second Prize—In each division, tuition for one term in the School of Expression, valued at $50.00.

Third Prize—In each division, ten private lessons from anyone in the School of Expression, valued at $30.00.

These prizes hold good only during the year after the winning contestant graduates from High School and are not transferable.

Medals to all the winners in the contest are provided for by the league. A gold medal to the winners of the first prize, silver medal to the winner of the second place and a bronze medal to winner of third place.

If possible, arrangement will be made to hold the final contest in New Ulm.

Esther Poehler is in school again after an absence of about a week.

NEW ULM DEFEATED AT DISTRICT TOURNAMENT

Marshall Wins by Score of 20-19.—

Tyler Defeated in First Game.

For the first time in eight years New Ulm failed to be entered in the State Tournament. Whether or not the undersized floor at Balaton had a direct bearing on the defeat of our basketball team must remain an undecided question but we do know that with a floor of those dimensions to play on and the loss of two of our star players, New Ulm was fatally handicapped. New Ulm and Sleepy Eye did not want the tournament played at Balaton, but that was where the district committee had made arrangements for it, so there was no alternative but to play the tournament there.

First Game.

The New Ulm-Tyler game was the first one scheduled. This was a slow uneven contest throughout, and it early became evident that Tyler was no match for the fast, heavy New Ulm quint. Only in the opening minutes of the first quarter did the two teams play on anything like even terms. The New Ulm team gradually drew away without seeming to exert themselves. The scoring for New Ulm was evened up among the team. During the first half McHale made two baskets, Nelson three, Schueller two baskets and five free throws, and Franta two baskets. Frederickson at running guard for Tyler scored both the field goals for his side.

The second half was a duplication of the first. Nelson made five baskets, Schueller five baskets and four free throws and Franta one basket. Hanson made two baskets and Christianson one basket and two free throws for Tyler. The final count was New Ulm 48, Tyler 15.

Second Game.

The second game of the tournament was called between Sleepy Eye and Marshall. Sleepy Eye was defeated by a score of 15-12 and although handicapped by a small floor they put up a stiff fight and would have undoubtedly won on a floor of regulation size.

Final Game.

The winners of the elimination games, New Ulm and Marshall, were put against each other for the final game of the tournament in the evening. This contest opened in grand style with both teams playing about on even terms for the first quarter. The second quarter New Ulm began to draw away and it looked like a decisive battle for them. During this quarter New Ulm scored eight points while the best Marshall could do was to score two, leaving the count at the halfway mark, fourteen to eight in New Ulm's favor. No one would have predicted a victory for Marshall.

BE A BOOSTER!

There are two distinct classes into which the students of New Ulm High can be divided. The first class is the Boosters; the second the Knockers. There ought really to be only one class—the Boosters.

The class of people who "knock" can do much toward making a failure. You may be justified in knocking something or other you may not like, but if you try to find some points to boost, I'm sure you will. So why not boost; boost not only to your fellow-classmates, but to townspeople? Make them think that their high school and its activities are all successes of which one can well be proud; don't pick out the bad points and run down your school! Be a booster! Boost your high school, boost its functions, boost its teams, boost its publications, boost its faculty, boost your fellow students. Boosting is contagious. Others will join the class of boosters if you do. Boost the best high school in the U. S. A.!

CLIQUE.

Girls and boys are apt to form cliques. This is found almost everywhere, even here in our own High School. You find a few congenial friends and you stick close to each other and give the cold shoulder to everybody else who comes around. Now, friends are fine, and it is bully to have a little crowd of them you like especially. But, did you ever stop to think that the fellow you shouldered off today, the fellow who was hanging around looking as if he'd like to join you was mighty lonesome? Do you realize that this fellow might not think very highly of you for doing this, that he might think you very discourteous and unmannerly and that he is just as well off without your company? Never take on an attitude that will make the other fellow think ill of you. Maybe you'd like the other fellow a heap. He might have more in the way of good companionship to give you than you have to give him. Anyhow, it is sort of off color to be too snooty, to have a close corporation. Give a thought to how the other fellow feels about it, and behave like an honest-to-goodness feller. Make everyone your friend. Treat one as kindly as the other and you will be loved by all.

SOME MORE LAURELS.

Oratory, debates and games have brought fame to N. U. H. S. but don't forget that there are some more things which can. The typing and shorthand I and II classes held the preliminaries the week before Spring Vacation.

Of the Typing I class LeRoy Haenze and Doris Haugen were chosen as the best. Of the Typing II class: Lucy Schneider and Clarence Rolloff were chosen. Of the Shorthand II class Clarence Rolloff and Irene Muske were the highest.

These six pupils will represent New Ulm in a contest which is going to be held either at Redwood Falls or at New Ulm somewhere around April 14. Come and see what they'll do!

JUNIOR PLAY IS GREAT SUCCESS.
0-0-0-Oh Clarence.

"Clarence," Booth Tarkington's new comedy, which was staged at Turner Hall on Friday, March 16th, was one of the best plays ever put on by a Junior Class. No one who saw this wonderful play could truthfully claim the one thousand dollars reward for not laughing during the performance even after the first act was only half over.

Large Attendance.

The play was well attended by both the students and the people of New Ulm. The audience enjoyed it very much and were glad that they had come. They feel that the members of the Junior Class have much talent and they will turn out well next year for their Senior Entertainment.

Program.

The High School Orchestra under the direction of Miss Mary Kemp, rendered some very pleasing selections and the audience appreciated them greatly. The following was the cast in order of appearance:

Mrs. Martyn, Mr. Wheeler's SecretaryMarjorie Krook
 Mr. WheelerEugene Waterston
 Mrs. WheelerVerna Dahl
 Bobby Wheeler ...Theodore Fritsche
 Cora WheelerMyrtle Harbo
 Violet Pinney, Cora's governess ..

.....Irene Ochs

.....Fred Leonard

Scenes.

Act I—Ante room to Mr. Wheeler's private office—morning.

Act II—Living room of the Wheeler home—three weeks later.

Act III—Same—That evening.

Act IV—Same—Next morning.

Marjorie Krook as Mrs. Martyn did her part very well. Mr. Wheeler's part was acted with much pride and dignity by Eugene Waterston while Mrs. Wheeler, interpreted by Verna Dahl, did remarkably well as the matron of the family. Bobby Wheeler, in every day life Teddy Fritsche, acted his part to perfection as did

SENIOR CLASS PLAY CHOSEN.

"Daddy Long Legs" is one of the best plays ever produced in America. The plot is centered around Judy, a pretty little drudge in a bleak New England orphanage. On one occasion a visiting trustee becomes interested in Judy and decides to give her advantages that she otherwise could not have. Judy does not even know the name of the one who is assisting her and a number of rather interesting situations result.

The carrying of the parts gives an opportunity for good acting and the entire play is a series of entertaining incidents. The part of Judy, which is played by Cecelia Hough, portrays a character both pathetic and humorous and the action moving about her is delightful and charming.

Much enthusiasm is shown by the members of the Senior class. Practice has already begun under the able coaching of Miss Tripp.

The first game of the girls' inter-class series was played between the Sophomores and Freshmen. The Sophomore girls showed championship form their first game and were picked to cop the championship.

The Freshmen, captained by Edna Pollei, played a fine game. Schueller, Niemann and Pollei were the stars for the Freshmen, while Meidl (Capt.) and Hackbarth were undoubtedly the Sophomores' best. After the first half the spectators knew how the game would turn out for the Sophs had the lead throughout this period. Elenore N. scored the only basket for the Freshmen. The Freshmen are to be complimented on their good playing, considering that this is their first year of Basket Ball.

The score at the end of the game was 11-2 in the Sophs' favor.

The second quarter was a repetition of the first, both teams making the same number of points. The score at the end of the half was eight to eight.

The Seniors came back with a rush in the third quarter, making two baskets and one free throw. Vogel went in for Oswald and Price for Frank. The score at the end of the third quarter was fifteen to ten, in favor of the Seniors. In the last quarter the Seniors had a streak of luck and made three baskets. Oswald went in for Price. Ceremonial Camp Fire Meeting.

On Wednesday, March 14, the Camp Fire had a ceremonial meeting. This meeting was held on account of celebrating the Camp Fire's eleventh birthday. An excellent program was put on by all the old members. On this same evening the Camp Fire became doubled. At six o'clock an excellent birthday supper was served. The Camp Fire Girls considered themselves lucky in having two of their old members, who are students at the State Teachers' College at Mankato, with them.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CLASS, FRIDAY PROGRAM.—BIG SUCCESS.

On Friday, April the sixth, the Public Speaking Class furnished our Friday program. This class is said to have the most "big guns" in it or in other words those students who can do the most. So you see if we get this class to perform we have practically all the "geniuses" in school. A most interesting farce was given by three students. Oscar Muesing was stage manager and Howard Vogel acted as chairman. Florence Hellmann rendered a most artistic piano solo which was met with such great applause that she had to play another one.

"Who's A Coward."

"Who's a Coward," was the short comedy which made a hit with every student. The cast was as follows: Jimmie Theodore Fritsche Bess, (his wife) Irene Ochs Dippy, (the burglar) Marvin Meyer

When the curtain went up Jimmie and Bess were getting near the table and were going to read. Bess gave a gasp and Jimmie jumped up dropping his magazine. "Good Heavens, Bess, why do you always scare a fellow at such an unexpected moment?"

Bess: "You sure do get scared. Very easy to talk about a woman being a trial. Why you jump two feet every time I say, Boo!" Inquiring to the cause of her sudden alarm this time, Bess said she just read that Mrs. M. Jamison was bereft of $50,000 worth of jewels the other night.

Jimmie: "Oh, nonsense, why the Jamisons haven't even got $50,000 worth of jewels to their name, its just a scheme to get some notoriety! That's all."

Bess: "Oh, I know what you're driving at; you are afraid that I might ask you to get up some night to see that the doors are all locked. You're a coward."

Jimmie: "Who's a coward?"

Bess: "You are. Last week I thought I heard a mouse in the kitchen. Did you get up to investigate—no, you did not."

Jimmie: "Why I didn't have a light and they could have seen me very plainly—do you think I want to make a target of myself?"

Jimmie: "I tell you I've got just as much courage as anybody else."

Bess (leaving the room): "You've nicely kept it hidden."

Jimmie left alone thinks he ought to do something to show Bess that he isn't a coward so he decides to call up his cousin, Bob, to come over and rob them that night so that he can knock him over and take the things away from him again. Meanwhile Bess decides on the same thing. To test Jimmie's courage, she calls up her cousin who also consents to rob them that night. That night a real burglar came and Jimmie, thinking it was his cousin, compliments him on his fine make up and gives him all of Bess's jewelry and asks him to wait there. In the meantime Bess comes down and seeing him thinks he is her cousin and gives him all Jimmie's jewelry and tells him to hide in the next room. Jimmie comes in and he and Bess talk for a while. Then they give their signals for the burglar to come out. Bess screams at the top of her voice. Just then the telephone rings and Bob tells Jimmie he can't come tonight. Jimmie rushes into the next room and the burglar has escaped. "And I gave him all of your jewelry," wailed Bess. "And I gave him all of yours," moaned Jimmie. And the curtain was lowered.

NEW ULM LOSES TO MARSHALL

At the beginning of the second half the tide turned when Joe was disqualified on four personals. Almost immediately Franta followed in his footsteps, chalked up with four personal fouls. The loss of these two players undoubtedly cost New Ulm the game. Notwithstanding the team being crippled and weakened they fought hard and led Marshall up to within fifty-five seconds of play. With one minute to play and only one point to the good New Ulm started a stalling game in Marshall's territory. Then it was that Cartier despairing of victory and grasping at straws, lunged for the ball and feeling it in his grasp, threw it blindly over his head. As fate would have it, the basket happened to be under the flying ball and through it went, winning the game for Marshall by one lucky point.

The Balaton Press says of the New Ulm players, "We have heard it said that these fellows were rough players. In our estimation nothing could be further from the truth. Both of the men who were disqualified on personals were husky fellows, worth their sale, who played clean games. Nelson was the most consistent scorer of the tournament with twenty-eight points to his credit in two games, Miller at standing guard played a strong game and did so with some of the fastest men at the tournament playing a good offensive game."

New Ulm Line Up. Marshall Franta R F. Norwood Nelson L F. Johnson Schueller C. Hoff Miller L G. Prew

Subs: Tomschin for Franta, Nelson for Schueller, McHale for Nelson, Jones for McHale. Cartier for Norwood, Weler for Prew.

Myrtle Harbo as Cora Wheeler in her wrangles with her brother. Irene Ochs as Violet Pinney acted her part with much grace and dignity. Oscar Muesing, as Clarence, the hero, could not have done better. Both Irene and he could become theatrical stars. Della, the maid, and Dinwiddie the butler, were characterized unusually well by Hildegard Hein and Ivan Stone. Fred Leonard as Hubert Stem acted the role of the villain very neatly.

Much credit for the success of "Clarence," should be given to Miss Agatha Russell who coached the play and Miss Elizabeth Priestestersbach who directed it.

WHY?

Why should little trials and troubles Always clutter up the way, Hiding many little pleasures That should cheer the passing day? There's a happy call of school times Coming when our school days cease. There's a promise in this wide world Of our happy days to come.

But we fail to heed this whisper As we gaze upon our books. We are thinking of tomorrow's exams, Not of days which are to come. There's a promise of a higher life, But all we hear is the teacher's sigh. There's a promise of great pleasure, But we cannot hear its cry.

SOPHS BEAT JUNIORS 4-1.

Best Interclass Game Ever Staged in N. U. H. S.

Friday saw one of the best games of the interclass series, played between the Juniors and Sophomore girls. This game was watched by the largest crowd of spectators that were ever present at a girls' interclass game.

Juniors Display Wonderful Fight.

Not one time until the last minute of the game was the outcome sure. The score was, at the first half 2-0 in favor of the Sophs.

The Juniors, three of the team having never played before, put up the scrappiest fight, one could ever hope to see. The Sophomores had plenty of pep and consequently the game was very interesting.

The Juniors certainly played against hard luck, having fine chances, good arms and then a miss. The students in the sidelines were almost frantic—it was like a Sleepy Eye game. The 3rd quarter—Pfaender dropped a beauty of a free throw, the only point for the Juniors. The last quarter found both teams battling desperately to gain and hold the lead. A lucky long shot, by Schroeder cinched the championship for the Sophs. From then on the Sophs kept on fighting and the Juniors were unable to score. Three-fourths of the students were for the Juniors but were sadly disappointed at the outcome. Schroeder was the underhand star for the Sophs, while for the Juniors, Tappe and Pfaender looked best, but the entire team played a consistent game. It was the first game that Renner, Hetlinger and Pfaender played.

—Mention the Graphos When Buying From Our Advertisers—
