N. U. DEFEATS SLEEPY EYE IN FIRST DEBATE

With a victory of 3 to 0 over Sleepy Eye in the first debate our trio is "all set" for an ideal season. Elizabeth Hintz, '23, Howard Vogel, '24, and Clarence Roloff, '23, our team, upheld the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved: That the Kansas Type of Industrial Court of Adjudication should be Established in Minnesota." Elsie Hansen, Ralph O'Toole and Theodore Frederickson composed the Sleepy Eye squad and supported the negative side of the question.

The judges were: Mr. S. R. Struble of St. James, Miss Selma Mellgren and Mr. A. G. Scheidel, both of Mankato. Mr. Gloor gave the opening remarks and acted as chairman.

This debate was the first held for many years in New Ulm and those who were present witnessed a first-class, snappy, direct debate.

Throughout the main speeches the teams were quite evenly matched, as the speeches were well constructed on both sides. However, in the Rebuttal our team took the lead and in fact there clinched the final score.

The Sleepy Eye team did remarkably well, taking into consideration the fact that their debaters were all inexperienced, while two of our squad, Elizabeth Hintz and Clarence Roloff have each been on one of our Debating teams in previous years. Howard Vogel, our other member, is a polished orator, so naturally with this material and Mr. Stewart's efforts in coaching a well trained team copped victory in Debate for the first time in many years.

In the next series of debates in January our team is the bye-team and will not debate but sometime in February it will again be on the platform against a victorious team from the January series.

The debate was fairly well attended by the student body and the residents of New Ulm who were the recipients of an extraordinary intellectual program.

This unanimous victory was by no means easily secured but was due totally to the "stick to" attitude of the members of the team and Mr. Stewart's thorough preparation in coaching the team.

The team undoubtedly deserves the unflinching support of the whole high school in honor for the laurels it has won for our N. U. H. S.

Esther Poehler, Sophomore, Beatrice Frederick and Edgar Fechner spent the holidays at their homes in Courtland.

We hope to see Wanda Nelson, Ruth Hummel, Irene Carstedt, Bessie Dietz and Gertrude Esser on the 19th of January. The Mankato Teacher's College will play at New Ulm and there are rumors around that Wanda Nelson will play with the opposing team. We wonder what attitude Mr. and Mrs. Neson take—Plym for New Ulm and "Wantz" for Mankato.

BASKET BALL TEAM UNDEFEATED VICTORIOUS OVER LAMBERTON WINS FROM REDWOOD FALLS

LAMBERTON GAMES.

Visibly nettled by the superiority of their opponents in the ability to play basket ball, the Lambertton high school girls' team displayed decidedly scrappy traits when they met the local high school girls at the high school gymnasium here, Friday evening, Dec. 22. One member of the visiting sextet lost her equilibrium to such an extent that four personal fouls were chalked against her and she was ruled out of the contest on that account. In spite of this "open hostility," our girls retained their sweet tempers throughout the game, not a single personal foul marring their perfect record for good conduct, whereas their opponents were credited with a total of six. The contest was a very one-sided affair, ending in a score of 34 to 4 in favor of New Ulm.

Hildegard Hein Stars.

Hildegard Hein was the most brilliant star in New Ulm's firmament, scoring a total of 11 baskets and four free throws, seven of the former during the first half of the game. Lorna Schleuder got four baskets, three of which were scored during the first half. Redding rang up the only two baskets credited to Lambertton—one in each half. The New Ulm girls excelled their opponents in every feature of the game, and at no time was there any doubt as to the outcome of the contest.

Girls' Lineup.

Lambertton.	New Ulm.
Steinhauser ... L. F.	Hein
Redding ... R. F.	Schleuder
Downs ... J. C.	Dahl
Christiansen ... R. C.	Jacobson
Decker ... R. G.	Simmet
Meisen ... L. G.	Ochs

For the second half of the girls' game, Florence Hellmann was substituted for Maybelle Simmet. Erma Steinberg for Irene Ochs and Elizabeth Hintz for Maybelle Simmet in the New Ulm team. The Lambertton sextet was kept intact for the entire contest, with the exception of Meisen, who was ruled out for personal fouls.

Lamberton Fouls Costly.

Two free throws, resulting from as many personal fouls towards the end of the last half of the boys' mill, cost Lambertton the game, as they gave our boys the opportunity of scoring two points, thus breaking the existing tie score. The visitors were credited with a total of six personal fouls, as against four for our quint. The final result of the game was a 17 to 15 score in favor of New Ulm.

Visitors Off With Rush.

Lamberton started the boys' contest off with a rush that somewhat be-

REDWOOD FALLS GAME.

The Redwood basket ball team was defeated here Friday, January twelfth, in the fastest game of the season.

The game started with New Ulm getting the tip-off. Nelson passed the ball to Schueller. In the first few minutes of the game no baskets were made, although the ball hit the rim many times.

Nelson started the scoring by putting in a basket. This was followed immediately by another one made by Joe. Redwood also started to wake up and made a free throw which brought their score up to one point. They then brought their score up to four points and for a while the score was fairly close, but New Ulm soon widened the score for the half ended with New Ulm being 7 points in the lead.

Second Half.

At the beginning of the second half Redwood made a surprising gain and brought their score within two points of ours before our boys realized that they had better get busy. Joe started the score by rolling in the short shots and after a few minutes Nelson put in a few baskets from the center of the floor. Towards the end of the game our players satisfied themselves by tossing the ball around and taking an occasional shot at the basket, that is, when our players had the ball. When the final whistle blew our boys were in the lead, the score being 21-14.

In the third quarter the subs were put in to try their skill at playing a real game. This was done to see how they were progressing with their practice and training, so they will be ready to play when some of the other players are "laid out."

Iona Lebert is rapidly recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

The new flunk list has spoiled the sweet memory of vacation for some pupils.

Thusnelda Hetlinger was absent Monday on account of the death of her father.

Lillian Eyrich and Eleanor Gewerth, '22, who are attending the Normal School at Winona, spent their Christmas vacation here.

Waldemar Franta, '22, formerly a student of St. John's University, returned to the New Ulm High School to take up several subjects.

Erma Steinberg and Thusnelda H. motored to Courtland and spent some of their vacation visiting their friends and relatives residing there.

Helen Meile, Florence Schneider, and Beatrice Gaag, '22, were home for the holidays. Beatrice is taking a course in nursing at the University hospital, Helen is attending St. Mary's at Fari-bault and Florence Schneider and Hazel Oswald are attending McPhail.

SANTA VISITS ASSEMBLY FRIDAY BEFORE XMAS

The Christmas Assembly, Friday, Dec. 22, 1922, was an unusual success. Each of the classes was represented in the program. The Freshmen Chorus, led by the world famous musician, Herr Heine Somsen, was unusual. It is one of the very few choirs which has its own band. Santa certainly should have, if he didn't, rewarded the Freshmen for their efforts.

Sophomores Show Talent in Play.

Sophomores took the "cake." Their part in the program was not only very original, but also very well presented. The play, "Xmas Plots," was in two scenes. The cast was as follows: Grandma Van Cleve, Hertha Hackbarth, Aunt Emmeline, Marion Reineke, Dorothy, Charlotte Bockus, Weston, an admirer, Joe Keckesen, Barton, another admirer, Roman Teynor, the butler, Otto Sell.

The individual parts were very well played. Marion Reineke showed unusual ability in acting the part of an old maid.

Junior Class Stages Pantomime.

The Junior Class gave the Story of "Blue Beard and his Wives" in Pantomime. Howard Vogel read the story while other Juniors dramatized it. The cast was as follows:

Blue Beard	Fred Leonard
His Wife	Irene Ochs
Her Sister	Myrtle Harbo
Her Brother, the hero	Oscar Muesing

The Juniors must be credited for having gotten up so good an entertainment on the spur of the moment.

Santa Makes His Appearance.

In the Fire-place a small boy, Lorence Schlueder by name, was seen sleeping as the curtain rose. Finally Lorence awoke to find that Santa had come in even if he had tried to block up the fire-place for him. Suddenly, while Lorence stood admiring the tree and talking to himself and to the audience, Santa came in. Lorence was horrified and crawled under the piano. Santa then informed him that the presents on the tree were not all for him so Santa proceeded to distribute the gifts. The faculty were all happily surprised by little tokens from the Seniors. Even the Freshmen were remembered with a piece of candy. Santa Claus also produced gifts for each one of the students and then wishing us all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year he left.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent in cheering in preparation for the Lambertton game.

Florence Hellman entertained some of her friends New Year's eve. The evening was spent in playing cards. A delicious luncheon was served at midnight.

Miss Hildegard Hein spent a few days during the Christmas vacation with her sister, Dorothy, who is attending a nurses training school at Rochester.

EXCHANGES

"Winewessa Ripples", Pipestone, Minn. Contains good material and well arranged.
 "Otaknam", is numbered among our best exchanges. The write-ups are excellent.
 "The Teck", St. Cloud, Minn. The Diary of Technical Ted gives an interesting account of all the school happenings.
 "Saints Reporter", St. James, Minn. Head lines would greatly add to your paper. We are interested in the outcome of the "Soph. Gym. Campaign".
 "F. H. S.", Faribault, Minn. Although it contains excellent material the arrangement is poor. We suggest placing the ads on the back sheet as an improvement.
 "Orange Peals", Orange, Mass. A very clever magazine. Your jokes were very good, but there were not enough. We wish you'd come often-er.

 "Comet", Brewster, Minn. A newsy paper.
 "The Optimist", Collins, Ohio. A well-named paper.
 "Grove Comet", Paris, Tenn. Contains excellent original stories.
 "The Forge", Akron, Ohio. There is undoubtedly a very peppy student body backing "The Forge."
 "Wilohi", Willmar, Minn. Your "Sports" column is the outstanding feature of your paper. There's a reason!
 "The Scoop", Belvidere, Ill. The Radiograms in the Dec. issue were decidedly humorous. Your paper is very interesting.
 "The High School Echo", Tripoli, Wis. Your publication would be complete in every respect if you had an exchange department.
 "Karux", Phillipsburg, N. J. The Karux is very interesting. We like the manner in which your exchange department is conducted.
 "Purple Parrot", Redwing, Minn. Purple Parrot is very original. The "Knocks and Boosts" column is an asset to a high school paper.
 "The Gleam", Johnston H. S., St. Paul. The literary dept and especially the editorials are unusual for a high school publication. The designs of the Gleam are always very clever.
 "The Nagrom", Morgan, Minn. The Nagrom is a very new Magazine. There is good material in it, a change in the arrangement of the various departments might improve it.
 Open Optic", Sleepy Eye. Congratulations! Your paper as a whole is exceptionally good for a first issue. The editorials and athletic department deserve special comment. A few more good jokes would add considerably to the improvement of your paper.

JUNIOR COLUMN

A sophomore said: "What's the use of playing at the interclass games this year?? Look at our line-up.
 A Junior said: "I guess we'll have to go down tomorrow and have our class championship picture taken."
 Some classmen do hate themselves.

Do you know Gene's got a new girl friend? Guess who.
 Lee Strate is going to Mankato Commercial College.
 Gene had a bad cold during vacation and had a minor operation on his nose.
 Hazel Heiman, prominent Junior, spent the holidays with her folks in Essig.
 Joe Keckeisen is able to play with first squad again because his nose has healed.
 Marvin Meyer started the New Year right by buying a Radio that doesn't work right.
 We hope the band will come to some of the other games. They put a lot of pep into things.
 Mr. Stewart covered 1,360 miles during his vacation. He must have been going some, eh!
 Olga Jannisch spent most of her vacation visiting with relatives and friends in Mankato.
 Plymouth Nelson hurt his back by a jump he took with the toboggan out near the Loretto Hospital.
 Carl Fritsche, '22, a senior last year, returned to Madison where he is taking a course in medicine.
 "Syllie" Wellmann, '22, spent the holidays with his mother. He is attending Carleton college.
 A card party was held at the Nelson home during vacation. Plym lost and hasn't got over the effects yet.
 Miss Jennie Schnobrich who is attending the Mankato Commercial College was home for the holidays.
 Miss Tripp's room's temperature has started the New Year right by hovering around 70 degrees instead of 60 degrees.
 Sophomores defeated Second Team of Co. A. They say they are going to make the Juniors go some for class championship.

FRESHMEN CONTRIBUTIONS

Alice Meile, Margaret Schmid and Verna Miller became members of the Camp Fire Girls Tuesday evening, December 12th.

The Freshman cooking class had their first lesson in baking bread on Wednesday, Dec. 13th.

The Freshmen boys had their first basket-ball practice last night and a fair team is predicted.

Miss Reager, (While trying to explain how to knead bread): "Rose, Use your elbows!"

The boy who makes a chimney of his head will never make a fortune with his brains. Much smoke, little brains.

Teacher: "Which is the longest word in the English language that you know of?"

Pupil: "'Smiles.' There is a mile between the first and last letters."

Two Freshmen were discussing several authors and their books.

One remarked: "Do you know all that stuff; well I guess it is hard to study."

The other: "What book did Edward Eggleston write?"

Other Freshie: "H-n, that's easy, he wrote, 'Who's Your School Teacher.'" (The Hoosier School Master.)

His Ambition.

Dick's parents are well-meaning but a trifle too strict, believing that, "to spare the rod is to spoil the child." When Dick was asked by a friend of the family what he would like to be when he grew up he replied readily, "An Orphan."

Miss Halverson: "Who was it supported the world upon his shoulders?"

Irene O.: "The book doesn't say but I guess his wife did."

Miss Tripp to a student in public speaking class: "Speak louder! Be more enthusiastic. Open your mouth and throw yourself into it."

Wanted:

A sucker for George Gewerth.

A pencil sharpener for Myra so that she doesn't have to walk around the assembly room so much.

English teacher: "Why didn't you get your lessons? What were you doing over Sunday?"

Claude: "Nothing."

Teacher: "What have you been doing, Johnny?"

Johnny: "Assisting Claude."

Teacher: "Never say I ain't gwine thar. Listen! I am not going there; thou art not going there; he is not going there, we are not going there; you are not going there; they are not going there. I hope you get the idea."

Lee: "Sure I gits it all right. They ain't nobody gwine."

Freshman Exam in Physiology:

Proteins—The Proteans are something often mentioned in the Graphos and on the Bulletin Board.

Inquisitive Son: "Is that near beer, you're drinking father?"

Inebriated Parent: "No (hic) shin, thish beer is quite far. (hic)."

The Freshman Latin Class Pupils are young Edisons as inventors of new Latin words. We might add that the words are never patented.

Last Saturday a few Freshies went fishing and caught three large 21 lb. colds.

LOST—A book on "How to Improve your Memory."

Sophie: "Do you like pop-corn balls?"

Bright Freshie: "I don't know, I never attended one."

"What would you do if you were in my shoes?"

"Get a shine."

Did you ever see:

- Hildegard without pep?
- Ochsie not dressed up?
- Fred Sallet flirting?
- Miss Schmidt angry?
- Roy Pfeiffer without a girl?
- Catherine Poynter without a smile?
- Myra without Fred?
- Amy Mather with puffs?
- The assembly quiet?

I.

My friend, have you heard of the town of "Yawn;"
On the banks of the river, "Slow,"
Where blooms the "Wait-a-while"
flower fair,
And the "Some-time-or-other" scents
the air,
And the soft "go-easys" grow?

II.

It lies in the Valley of "What's-the-use,"
In the province of "Let-it-slide"
That "tired feeling" is native there
It's the home of the listless "I-don't-care,"
Where the "Put-it-offs" abide.

A person with a big head doesn't always have a heavy load to carry.

SOPHOMORE COLUMN

NEWS AS IT SHOULD BE.

The defeat of the Freshies, in our last B. B. game, was mainly due to the brilliant playing of our jumping center, Edgar Fehner.

The prize, given by the Sophomores to the most graceful dancer, was awarded to Henry Sievert.

The Sophomores have been so diligent in their past work that Mr. Stewart has decided to reward them with a holiday.

Third period English class was honored by a brilliant recitation by John Guendner.

The following pupils were on the Honor roll: Wesley Schneider, Pat McHale, Cornelia Meidl and Victor Liesch.

Miss Tripp, referring to a high school play: "Have you fixed the settee?"

Roland: "Yes, my dear."

Miss Tripp: "Rather familiar."

Roland: "Excuse me, it's a favorite saying of mine."

Miss Lohren: "Have you done any outside reading?"

Wesley: "No, it's been too cold."

Wouldn't you be surprised if:

- School closed at 3:15?
- The student body were allowed to dance in the high school gym?
- Geometry were not compulsory?
- You wouldn't need a permit?
- Harlow Hummel didn't giggle?

Victor Liesch weren't in a single funk class?

Pat and Joe decided to sing in assembly?

SMILIN' THROUGH.

Keep smilin' and buy a ticket for "Smilin' Through." Why it's a real treat—the latest and most popular photoplay, starring Norma Talmadge and it will be at the New Lyric Theatre.

It's a wonderful story in which Norma is in the dual role of the beautiful Moonyeen of the 60's and the equally charming Kathleen of modern times. The story runs thus: On a beautiful moonlight night, many years ago, John Carter and his sweetheart Moonyeen were to be married. The guests were assembled, the garden presented a picture of gaily and happiness. As the wedding procession entered the garden from the house a man's voice shouted "Stop!" Everyone turned in amazement and saw Jeremiah Wayne, a rejected suitor of Moonyeen's standing, in the gateway with a revolver leveled at John. He shot—. The rest? Come and see it, you simply can't afford to miss it. You'll see Harrison Ford, Glenn Hunter and several other noted stars in this great eight-reel production.

LAMBERTON TEAMS SENT HOME MINUS.

wildered our players, and for a time it looked rather dark and dismal for New Ulm. The visitors excelled in basket throwing and passes, during the first half of the game, but could not stand the rigor of fast playing. Our boys played a waiting game and put their opponents through a terrific mill in the last half of the contest. It was during this part of the game that Hubert of Lamberton was injured in a collision with one of the New Ulm boys and retired from the floor. The first half ended with a score of 9 to 6 in favor of Lamberton.

Schueller and Nelson.

Schueller and Nelson were New Ulm's stellar players in the boys' contest, the former scoring three baskets and two free throws, while his co-star pocketed a total of four baskets. Jones was successful in adding two baskets to New Ulm's final count. Three baskets were made by our boys during the first half, two of them by Nelson and one by Schueller, while the other six baskets, as well as two free throws were scored during the second half.

Gymnasium Packed.

The high school gymnasium was packed and a number of fans were obliged to stand during the game. It is estimated that at least 250 persons were present. Music was furnished by the basket ball band and Howard Vogel scored 100 per cent as a cheer leader. The Lamberton teams were accompanied here by a goodly delegation, the members of which proved themselves good sports by taking the double defeat good naturedly.

Boys' Lineup.

New Ulm's lineup remained unchanged during the entire game, while the only substitution in the Lamberton team was for Hubert, following his injury.

NEW ULM QUINT DEFEATS COMFREY IN SPEEDY GAME.

Schueller Makes 20 of 22 Points for Local Cagers.

The New Ulm high school basket ball team defeated the Comfrey quint by a score of 22 to 21 in the local gymnasium, Friday night, Dec. 15. Schueller, New Ulm center, proved to be the star for the New Ulm team, making 20 of the 22 points.

It was the first game for the high school team and considering the fact that Comfrey has been playing for six weeks, having no football team to delay early practice, the showing by the New Ulm boys was remarkable. The Comfrey basket cagers, lighter than the local boys, proved themselves adept at passing and shooting.

First Half Ends With Tie.

The New Ulm team was slow in getting started and did not catch its stride until the last half. The first quarter ended with a score of 7 to 1 in favor of the Comfrey visitors. At the end of the first half the count stood 9 to 9.

Throughout the second half it was a neck to neck race which kept the large crowd breathless with excitement. Whenever New Ulm scored, the enthusiastic high school students under the leadership of Hildegard Hein, cheer leader, would give vent to their feelings with loud cheers.

Defense Baffles.

The Comfrey cagers failed to penetrate the New Ulm team's defense at critical times of the game and were unable to maintain the large lead they piled up in the opening minutes of play.

Cady, star center of the Comfrey team, and Bean, left forward, were put out of the game in the last half by Referee H. E. Hegstrom of Gustavus Adolphus college for personal fouls.

Schueller Is Star.

Schueller for New Ulm was the main star of the team and the life of almost every play. Time and again he made his baskets against the best efforts of two or more Comfrey players. Keckeisen made one basket for New Ulm.

Robert Hasslen of Gustavus Adolphus college was umpire. The lineup was as follows:

New Ulm.	Comfrey.
Nelson L. F.	Bean
Jones R. F.	Simmer
Schueller C.	Cady
Fritsche R. G.	Renner
Williams L. G.	Schwerzler

New Ulm substitutes: Esser for Jones, Keckeisen for Nelson; Comfrey substitutes, Schwab and Post.

Miss H.: "Alright, who was it?"
Irene: "Henrik Shipstead."

SOPHOMORE-FRESHMEN INTERCLASS GAME.

Friday, January twelfth, at four o'clock, the first interclass basket ball game was pulled off. The Sophomores had a big advantage by having bigger players and more experience. This did not hinder the "Freshies" in putting up a big fight.

The Freshies played very good during the first part of the game holding the Sophomores down to a very small score, but toward the end the Sophomores put the ball through the hoop at will.

Claude Waterston was star on the Freshman team making the only baskets for their side, while on the Sophomore team there were not any particular stars. The game ended with the Sophomores having 82 points to the Freshman having 4.

The Sophomores are out for championship. Will they get it? Come out and see the games and see for yourself. The Juniors also have a strong team having many men out for practice. —Mention the Graphos When Buying From Our Advertisers—

It is doubtful if the Seniors will have a team or not, for at the last practice only one Senior turned out. Mostly all of the Senior boys are on the varsity squad which makes them ineligible to play.
