DEBATE

VOLUME IX

NEW ULM, MINNESOTA, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1924.

NUMBER 6

NEW ULM TO DEBATE MANKATO ON THURSDAY

The fifteen schools which entered the debating league this year have been paired as follows: New Ulm and Mankato; Ivanhoe and Hendriks; Tyler and Springfield; Wells and Amboy; Winnebago and Sherburn; Jackson and Lakefield; Windom and Mountain Lake. Since Slayton was an odd number it was not paired with any school. Of the above mentioned fifteen schools, Hendricks, Lakefield, Mountain Lake, and Slayton were not members of the league last year. Lake Crystal, Elmore, Blue Earth, St. James, and Sleepy Eye were in the debating league last year, but did not enter this year. This year, for the first time in many years, New Ulm will engage in debate with Mankato. Last year Mankato was eliminated in its first debate with Wells. The question for that debate was, Resolved: "That European Immigration into the United States shall be prohibited by law for a period of five years." This year the question is, Resolved: "That the United States should accept the covenant of the League of Nations as it existed July 1, 1924."

Former History.

In the year 1922 the New Ulm debating team, consisting of Elizabeth Hintz, Clarence Roloff, and Howard Vogel defeated Sleepy Eye, Springfield, Sherburn, Waseca, Cannon Falls and Cass Lake and won the State Championship. For this they received a silver cup from the State Debating League. Last year, the team consisting of Howard Vogel, Hilda Steinmetz and Erna Grussendorf, were victorious in their debates with Lake Crystal, Wells, Springfield, Windom and Minneapolis North High and were defeated by Cannon Falls. Last year New Ulm won the district championship for which another silver cup was added to the former collection. This year the team consists of Hilda Steinmetz, Alice Meile and Roland Hohn with bright prospects before them.

Need Your Co-operation.

New Ulm will meet Mankato, December 11 at New Ulm. Year before last New Ulm won the State Championship and last year won the District Championship. How far they will get this year depends somewhat upon the co-operation and support you students of the New Ulm High School give them. Remember, it's with Mankato, December 11, in the High School Auditorium.

LAST FRIDAY'S ASSEMBLY.

On Friday, December 5, the High School Orchestra gave a splendid program. While the players were "tuning up," Carl Thies reminded us of the two great contests to take place next week, namely the Nicollet vs. New Ulm basket-ball game, and the Mankato vs. New Ulm debate. At these two contests the students and people of New Ulm will really see what the contestants are able to do. Mr. Dirks, orchestra leader, then gave the command to begin the first selection "Stony Point." It was received by all with great applause. Five more selections were played, "Robin's Farewell," "March Militaire" by Schubert, "Leuix Adieu," "Falling Leaves" and "Wait Till You See My Gal." Everybody enjoyed the orchestra very much and wanted to listen to them longer. We all hope that Mr. Dirks will favor us with another musical program before long.

TYPING STUDENTS GET MANY AWARDS THIS YEAR

Our High School ranks as one of the best in the state in having such an excellent Commercial department. It is only through the efforts of our able commercial teachers, Miss Muehlbach and Miss Benson, that this course is made so excellent. In looking over the enrollment of this work one sees that the students of New Ulm realize the value of this course highly.

The different typewriter companies offer prizes to those who are able to type correctly and rapidly. Fortunately our High School has quite a number that can type the number of words required per minute.

Many Awards.

During the month of October Ione Schroeder, who bids fair to become a second Evelyn Alwin, received a 40-word gold enamel pin from the Woodstock Typewriter Co., while last month she got a bronze pin for typing forty or over words a minute.

Edgar Fechner, and his competitor, Leona Werdan each received a bronze medal from the Underwood Typewriter Company. In November, Leona secured a gold and white enamel emblem from the Woodstock Co., for being able to type 42.7 words a minute. They also received an O. A. Certificate from Gregg Writer. A bronze bar was awarded to Edgar Fechner for typing 52 words and also a sterling silver pin from Remington Company for 45.4 words per minute.

Elmer Tomschin received a Typist's Certificate from L. C. Smith Co. for having attained the rate of thirty-four words a minute, a bronze emblem from Woodstock Co., an initial Certificate from Underwood Typewriter Co., and a bronze pin for typing at a speed of 40 words per minute.

Luella, who has a good record in typing, received a gold and white enamel emblem from Woodstock Co. She is able to type 48.1 words a minute which is considered a very good speed.

Viola Block and Evan Nagel, each received a bronze pin last month for typing forty or over words per minute.

Typing I Awards.

Frances Schieffelt, a Typing I student, received a Primary Certificate from Remington Company for typing 26 words per minute. She is doing very well considering this is her first year.

All these awards prove that the standards of our Commercial department have not been lowered but greatly increased and prospects for the Commercial contest are very bright.

WHAT IS YOUR VOCATION?

Not long ago the Public Speaking class gave reports on their life work. They also wrote themes. Out of twenty-eight pupils eleven were going to take up teaching. The nurses and electrical engineers in the class were equally divided, there being three to take up each. Telephony, Pharmacy, civil service, farming, laundry manager, business, dentistry, and the army each claimed one aspirant for the vocation. It might be interesting to take a vote of the whole assembly to discover what the life work is to be of all of us.

You Freshies, Sophs, Juniors, and Seniors, are you taking, or have you taken, subjects which will help you in your later life? For instance: you who want to be druggists, doctors, and so forth, are you taking up Latin and the Scientific course? And you, who want to shine in the business world, are you taking up the Commercial studies? Those who wish to teach should be interested in the English course, and so on for each vocation.

Possibly right now there are some Seniors who are saying, "Oh, if I had only known what subjects to take when I was a Freshie." I say to all of you, and particularly to you Freshies—make it your business to find out what subjects to take. Go to your advisor, go to Mr. Stewart, go to Mr. Gloor, they will be glad to advise you. Don't wait—do it now—today!

EXCHANGES.

"The Wilchi," Willmar, Minn. You have a very interesting and well arranged paper. It shows that your school certainly has pep.

"The Otaknam," Mankato, Minn. When reading your paper interest is so thoroughly aroused that one can't lay it down until everything is read. "The Minerva's Question Box" is very amusing.

"The Saints Reporter," St. James, Minn. Your last page seems to be all taken up with ads. Wouldn't a few more write-ups liven the paper? We hope your "Only 38" Junior Class Play will prove a success.

"The Centralian," Grand Forks, N. D. You have a very interesting paper and bring up many different subjects. It shows others clearly what you are doing at all times.

"The Magnet" Owatonna, Minn. You have a paper to be envied by everyone for the good material that it contains. The "Girls Kittenball" is very good sport. Why shouldn't girls play baseball just as well as boys?

"The Winnewissa Ripples," Pipestone, Minn. Your paper is very good. The write-ups on "Pep" and the snake dance show your loyalty and spirit.

"High Notes," Redlands, Cal. Your editorials are very good. Here's hoping your team will win from Riverside.

"The Purple Parrot," Red Wing, Minn. You have a very good paper. Your literary column is exceptionally good.

"The Wilohi," Willmar, Minn. You have a fine idea for advertising your games.

"The Otaknam," Mankato, Minn. Your Success, Climbing Upwards, Helpfulness and Co-operation are excellent.

"West High Weekly," Minneapolis, Minn. Your paper certainly shows that you are wide awake.

"The Echo" Luverne, Minn. Your paper is very well arranged, however, a few short articles and features would improve your paper.

"The Al-Hi-Nuz," Alexandria, Minn. It is a very good scheme to have a little continued story in a school paper. We are eagerly looking forward to your next issue.

"The Winnewissa Ripples," Pipestone, Minn. Congratulations on your wonderful library. If the other books will be as good as those listed, you need not fear that the winter evenings will be long.

"The High Notes" Redlands, Calif. You have a very interesting and well arranged paper.

"The Tattler," Windom, Minn. A few more exchanges would improve your paper.

The public Speaking Club is entertaining as well as beneficial for its members. At 7:15 the meeting started. The secretary's report of the last meeting was read, then roll was taken. Before the last number a surprise was sprung on the members. The president handed slips to several members and they had to give impromptu speeches. Although unexpected, the members showed ability to think quickly and clearly. This is one of the things taught in Public Speaking and is very valuable to those who can do it. The following impromptu speeches were given:

The last number on the program was very interesting and if Mr. Stewart had talked all night long his audience would not have become restless. INTERESTING ASSEMBLIES HELD.

Two very interesting and educational assemblies were held during the past month. The first one was held on Friday, November 21. This was an educational assembly, held for the purpose of promoting interest in High School education. Agnes Schueler and Alice Meile gave short educational speeches, each taking up a different branch of it. These speeches were very interesting and held the attention of the audience throughout. The main speaker of the day was Mr. Anglemeyer, local officer of the Eagle Mill and graduate of the University of Chicago. Mr. Anglemeyer spoke upon the value of a High School education and "What it means to be educated." His speech was well rendered and very effective. It is quite an honor to have a man like Mr. Anglemeyer talk to us and we ought to appreciate it.

The next assembly was held on Wednesday, November 21. This was "Annual" Assembly, held for the purpose of getting support for the annual of '25. Subscriptions were taken and the Business Manager, Hilda Steinmetz, gave a short talk on "Why You Should Subscribe for the Annual." This concluded the program.

GIRLS INTERESTED IN B. B. HOLD MEETING.

Tuesday, Nov. 25th, a meeting was held in Miss Fritsche's room for all girls who were interested in basket ball. A satisfactory number of girls attended this meeting and basket ball was discussed in general. After the discussion each of the four classes elected a manager whose duty it is to collect enough able players to make up her class team.

Last Monday after school the girls had their first practice and they were all there with much spirit and enthusiasm. Keep that spirit girls, and show your class what you can do at the inter-class games which will be held the latter part of December. You've got your pep; now keep it, don't lose it!

Before the inter-class games the coach, Miss Fritsche, will pick the best players to compose the first team. The following are the class basket ball managers:

- Seniors Gladys Wagner
- Juniors Hildegard Amann
- Sophomores Lorraine Spaeth
- Freshmen Tecla Reinhart

THE JUNIOR CARNIVAL.

The Junior Carnival will be given sometime after Christmas, a definite date has not been set. The Juniors are all thinking hard as to how they can help make the carnival a success.

The St. Peter High School had a Carnival, given by the Juniors and it was a success, so we can see that it is not impossible for a class to carry out a successful Carnival.

—Favor Those Who Favor Us—

Flunk list decreased; Honor Roll follows suit. The flunk list had 59 recorded. Fifteen aspirants made the list of the Frosh; only 11 Sophs were blacklisted and 18 Juniors hit the line and were thrown for a loss. The Seniors pledged 15. The Honor Roll was a tardy second with one boy and 13 girls. Freshies, 4; Sops, 6; no Juniors; Seniors, 4. Roger still bears the standard among his slain comrades.

CLASS NOTES

SENIOR NOTES.

Della Pfeiffer was absent a week because of an operation in her hand. She is back now and we all are delighted to see her in school again.

The Annual staff is working hard and the first pictures have already been sent to the engraver to be engraved. The drive in school was not as successful as it might have been, due mostly to the lack of co-operation on the part of the lower classmen.

Seniors need not fear the "Left Arm" clutch anymore, for talk of vaccination is old now.

JUNIOR JOTTINGS.

Agnes Kohls, Hazel Heim, Elfrieda Gronau, Fred Lippmann, and Harold Bierbaum were absent a few days last week on account of illness.

Many of the Freshmen were wondering why so many Juniors had scowls on their faces. Well, the only reason was that they had to give orations in Public Speaking.

After a short Thanksgiving vacation we are all back at school, ready to work.

Quite a number of Junior girls turned out for basket ball; although "Polly" had rheumatism in her knee, she made a number of baskets, in the scrimmage with the Seniors. The Senior girls had better buckle down, if they want to win the class championship.

Our carnival has been postponed till sometime in January. Now we'll have more time to work up our surprises.

SOPHOMORE MARKET.

Loretta Hoffman was absent from school on account of sickness.

There are eleven Sophomores girls out for basket ball. We expect to give the Freshies a good beating in the inter-class games.

Dorothy Engelbert spent Thanksgiving at the home of her sister in Rochester.

Among the absent members of the Sophomore class during the last two weeks were Evelyn Schneider, Anna Sperl, Roger Schmid, Alice Ganske, Clayton Peterson, Oradell Wagner, and Mary Sperl. It isn't a very good showing, is it?

EXTRA! EXTRA! POPULAR SENIOR CONVICTED OF MURDER.

Tom Killem (Joe K.), the defendant, was charged with the murder of Mr. Ned Mushanrun (Zank S.) on November 3, 1924. The attorney for the defendant was Mr. Steljacket (Butts A.), whose vehement words and skill at cross-examination held the audience in awe.

Witnesses for the defense were Jack Cantrun (Toot T.), a policeman in charge of the beat where the murder is said to have occurred. Lady Electra Light (Joce Z.), the young lady upon whom the affections of Mr. Killem, defendant, and the murdered Ned Mushanrun were lavished.

The State witnesses were Mrs. Extra Heavy (Marion R.) who, while doing her daily dozen before an open window at about 11 o'clock on the eve of the murder, testified that she saw the defendant, with a look of uncontrolled hate and revenge on his face, chase the hurrying figure of Mr. Mushanrun, while printed on the latter's face was the undeniable look of fear and anguish. W. N. Moonshine (Ossie O.) declared that having a good time all around, he began to feel queer and decided to leave for home. He stated it was 11 o'clock when suddenly two figures ran past him. The latter dropped something and on picking it up it proved to be a bloody handkerchief with the initials T. K. in the corner. Mandy Neverdust (Charrie B.), maid to Miss Electra Light, testified that on the night of the murder both men had called on her mistress. Mr. Mushanrun is said to have kissed the lady, which greatly angered Mr. Killem. Angry words were spoken. Miss Neverdust stated that the defendant in a frenzy of rage shouted, "I'll stick you for that." Both ladies left the room after that.

Mr. Talehitter (Mickie C.), attorney for the state, through his eloquent words convinced the jury of the guilt of Mr. Killem.

Probably the most tense moment appeared when Mr. Killem took the witness stand. He testified that on leaving the home of Miss Light, he stumbled and fell over the railing, butting his forehead. Finding that the wound was bleeding, he applied his handkerchief. He stated that he did not say "I'll stick you," but said "I'll lick you."

Mr. Madcap Rummy (Al. N.) using a "Whiz Bang" for a bible, kept the audience amused.

The jury members were: The Misses Cora Meidl, Louise Esser, Catherine Poynter, Della Pfeiffer, Hilda Steinmetz, Florence Hartl, and Messrs. Fred Marks, Joe Vogel, Vic Liesch, Melvin Esser, Jack Schoch and Heinie Somsen.

—Support Those Who Support Us— CAMP FIRE CEREMONIAL.

A special ceremonial meeting of the Camp Fire Girls was called Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. A. W. Bingham. Miss Bruess, the public school nurse, was there to demonstrate the principles of elementary bandaging. Bandaging is one of the requirements for the rank of Firemakers. After she had approved of our bandaging the ceremonial meeting was held. Verna Marie Miller, Vesta Muhs, and Verval Mueller were initiated as Firemakers. A fire was built in the fire place, the wood having been brought to the fire by the three Woodgatherers. Each Woodgatherer gave her bundle to one of the girls who was to be initiated. The bundles of wood were put into the fire, one at a time. These three bundles are symbolic of the Camp Fire laws. The girls were then initiated. Big beads were later awarded to the new Firemakers. Camp Fire songs were sung and the meeting then adjourned.
