ST. PETER H. S. WINS BOTH FIRST AWARDS

Carl Thies and Agnes Schueller Win Second and Third Places.

The contest, to determine the representatives of this sub-district to take part in the district contest of the Minnesota High School Declamation contest was held in our auditorium last Thursday, February 21. Eight contestants, representing five different schools participated in this event, five girls and three boys. Agnes Schueller and Carl Thies won first places in the Siegel trophy contest held here on Lincoln's birthday; consequently they were New Ulm's representatives on the occasion.

The program was prepared by Supt. Gloor and was rendered as follows: "The Turk Must Go"—Milton Chambard, Hanska; "Toussaint l'Ouverture"—Melvin Sjostrand, St. Peter; "The Value of an Ideal"—Carl Thies, New Ulm; "Number Six"—Agnes Schueller, New Ulm; "His Mother"—Mildred West, St. Peter; "The Soul of the Violin"—Cathryne Johannes, Nicollet; "The Death Disc"—Ellen Haugen, Hanska; "The Witching Hour"—Bernice Bauer, Arlington.

Before the contest commenced and while the judges were rendering their decision, the high school orchestra rendered several pleasing selections enjoyed by all those who were present. Supt. C. W. Van Cleve of Springfield Supt. H. W. Detamore and Prof. G. S. Petterson of Mankato acted as judges and awarded both first places to St. Peter. Carl Thies and Agnes Schueller received second and third places, respectively.

Even if New Ulm did not win the highest honors, the efforts of Carl and Agnes were a credit to their school and a recommendation to their

To Debate North High, Minneapolis in the Near Future

Friday evening, February 22, our high school debating team captured the district championship of the Second district by defeating the strong Windom team in our auditorium by a 2 to 1 decision. New Ulm upheld the affirmative of the question and Windom upheld the negative. Much praise must be given to both teams, they were nearly equally matched in respect to the extent of territory covered by their arguments. Each team was thoroughly versed on the immigration question, but New Ulm had a slightly better delivery and stronger arguments.

The New Ulm team, composed of Howard Vogel, Erna Grussendorf and Hilda Steinmetz have won 11 out of 12 judges' decisions, while the Windom team, composed of Evelyn Babcock, Paul Stoughton and Alden Muller, coached by Mr. E. E. Lundien, have been awarded 8 out of 12 votes this year. New Ulm defeated Lake Crystal, Wells and Springfield by unanimous decisions, while Windom defeated St. James and Jackson by decisions of 2 to 1 and Elmore by a unanimous vote. The judges were Prof. George Miller of Mankato Teachers College, Mr. Frank Hanft and Mr. Cedric Jamieson of the University of Minnesota, and they cast their decision of 2 to 1 in favor of New Ulm. Clarence Rolloff acted as chairman and the high school orchestra furnished the music for the occasion.

By defeating Windom, the debating team has brought an honor to our high school that we should be proud of. This is the second time this honor has been won by our school, last year being the first time. Our team is the sole survivor of the eighteen teams in our district. Much credit must be given to Mr. Stewart, who trains our team and makes our victories possible in the debating field.

The next debate will be contested with the champion of the First Congressional district. This will be the first inter-district debate.

We have previously told you that our prospects of winning the state honors are very bright, but the team requires all the assistance and encouragement possible from the student body. Now, let's give them our support and at intervals a cheer.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY, "COME OUT OF THE KITCHEN."

The story of "Come Out of the Kitchen" is written around a Virginia family of the old aristocracy, by the name of Daingerfield, who finding themselves temporarily embarrassed, decide to rent their home to a rich Yankee. One of the conditions of the lease by the well-to-do New Englander stipulated that a competent staff of white servants should be engaged for his sojourn at this stately home. This servant question presented practically insurmountable difficulties and one

INTERESTING ESSAY CONTEST OPEN TO STUDENTS.

Here's a chance for aspiring authors! An essay contest is being held which everyone can join. The subject is from David Copperfield, a novel by Charles Dickens. Of course, you have all read it. If not, do so at once and then get busy on your essay. All children under 12 years may write an essay entitled "The Characters I like Best in David Copperfield and Why." The Contestants older than twelve are to write on "What Scenes and Characters I Should Like to See Included in

FAST FLASHES DEFEAT ARLINGTON 16 TO 14

Sextette Remains Undefeated; Arlington a Tie.

In games of two weeks the boys won and lost one game, while the girls won one and played one tie. The fast Arlington boys' team gained its first defeat over New Ulm, having previously won approximately seven games. Both games here were fast and exciting and our victory was but another diamond in our crown. Some gilt, however, fell off the crown when the "second team" was defeated at Mankato last Friday. The score was only 28-9 against the seconds and the "regulars" were not put in much on account of the game with Lamberton the next day.

Boys' Game, First Half.

After good team work Esser netted the ball followed by contributions from "Al" and "Zang." Arlington then managed to score, but "Zang" again followed them up. "Al" boosted the score two points and Arlington again showed through the smoke with a basket. Arbes made a basket and a foul was called on New Ulm on which the enemy made one point. The half ended with the big slice across on our side, 12-5.

Arlington now started with a basket and "Al" followed. Arlington made another basket. Quarter now ended, 14-10. Arlington made another two points, bringing the score 14-12, but "Zang" put us out of the danger zone with a basket 16-12 and at the blow of the whistle Arlington had two more points. Score 16-14 in favor of New Ulm.

OUR HIGH SCHOOL CLUBS.

What is the matter with the members of our clubs? Some of the meetings lately have been very poorly attended and the few that are there seem to lose all their interest as soon as the meeting comes to order. The president and one or two members carry on the open discussion with the help of some teacher.

Perhaps one reason for the lack of interest is the failure of the programs. The program committee works hard and deserves the help of all the members. It is not the committee's fault if persons on the program fail to appear. If these persons would give a good reason they would be excused. All that is necessary is to tell the committee early enough to get someone else in their place.

Surely any high school student has enough sense and responsibility to respect the rules of a society and be a useful member of that society. The clubs in our high school provide amusement, give experience, and promote friendship. These clubs should be upheld by all of us and not be allowed to become mere fallacies.

A TARKINGTON TALE.

Booth Tarkington is writing stories of late that are of the highest standard. But he never told a better story than the following, which he is said to have related about himself: "I was strolling around an artist's Red Cross Fair, when two pretty girls of 16 or so came up and asked me for my autograph. "I haven't got a fountain pen," I said, much flattered, "will a pencil do?" "Yes," said one of the girls, and so I took out my pencil and signed my name in the morocco bound book that she handed me. The minx studied the signature with a gathering frown; then she looked up and said: "Aren't you Robert Chambers?" "No," said I. "I'm Booth Tarkington." The pretty creature turned to her friend with a shrug—"Lend me your rubber, May," she said.

CLUB NOTES

PUBLIC SPEAKING CLUB.

The Public Speaking club met on February 19 in the assembly. After the business meeting, an interesting program was rendered. Esther Poehler gave a delightful account of the youth of Washington. Mr. Stewart added some interesting facts about Washington and then gave an extemporaneous speech. Verona Bemmels and Carl Thies also gave extemporaneous speeches. Their speeches were followed by a Pierette dance by Myrtle Harbo, Della Pfeiffer, Florence Hartl and Adeline Ritschel. The last number was the long postponed water-drinking contest between Helen Sans and Carl Thies. The result, if you want to know, was a tie.

The Public Speaking class has now entered the field of debate. They have chosen many interesting topics to debate and up to the present time we have had one debate which was very interesting and it showed the ability of the students in debating. The question for their debate was, Resolved: "That the Philippines Should Be Granted Their Independence Immediately." The two sides had some very good arguments and this made it interesting, but the negative had better arguments and won the debate.

Francis Hartl and Victor Fritsche upheld the affirmative for the cancellation of foreign war debts in the Public Speaking class debate with a vote of 7 to 6 in the affirmative's favor.

S. T. C.

Most of the upper-classmen, who were in high school last year, will recall one of the greatest events that happened in the typewriting and shorthand classes, the District Typewriting and Shorthand Contest. Last year was the first time that this contest was held, and New Ulm was represented by Clarence Rolloff, Lucy Schneider, Irene Muske, Doris Haugen and Le Roy Haenze. Clarence Rolloff and Lucy Schneider won honors at this contest and so went to the state contest. Although they did not get a place at the state contest, they both received an honorable mention for being among the highest.

This year the district contest will be held at Tracy, Minnesota, on Saturday, April 12. At present we do not know who will attend this contest, for we leave Miss Almeter to decide this, but we all hope that New Ulm will get a place or two at the district contest so that we may be represented at the State contest which takes place at Stillwater.

The S. T. held its regular semi-monthly meeting, Monday evening, February 25. It was decided upon to elect officers three times a year, that is: the first meetings in September, December and March. Everybody be present at the next meeting, for the officers will be elected.

DRAMATIC CLUB.

The Dramatic club met on Thursday, Feb. 14, at 7:15. The first number on the program was a selection by the Dramatic club orchestra. Then roll call and the reading of the minutes followed. A constitution was adopted by the club, and this was followed by the election of officers. The officers are: President, Evelyn Juedes; vice president, Eina Pollei; secretary, Henry Somsen; treasurer, Roger Schmid. Two sergeant-at-arms were appointed, Quirinus Leonard and Harland Werner. Margaret Eichten gave an interesting paper on "Modern Celtic Dramatists." A play, "Bills," coached by William Redeker, followed this. It staged Alice Meile as Mrs. Davies, Orval Fenske as Mr. Davies, and Herbert Montgomery as Mr. Jones. This production was a great success.

LATIN CLUB.

The Latin club held a meeting on Monday, February 11. After roll call a description of the Circus Maximus was given by Verna Dahl. A piano solo by Della Inhofer followed and was enjoyed by all present. Next the election of officers took place. They are as follows: President, Hilda Steinmetz; vice president, Orval Fenske; treasurer and secretary, Marion Reineke. A program and refreshment committee were also chosen. A critic's report closed the meeting.

D. O. T.

On Monday, February 10, the D. O. T. held a meeting in the assembly. After roll call the minutes were read. It was decided that the program at the next meeting be dramatic. After that Thusnelda Hetlinger gave a report on "When the Pictures Are Good." This was followed by an open discussion on "That Moving Pictures Are a Detriment to the Youth of Today." Lastly a critic's report was given by Miss Halvorson.

Keep it up, boys, and win that B. B. game at Sleepy Eye with Lambertton, Friday. If you'll condescend to look around you'll find every one in the school supporting you.

Verval Mueller, editor-in-chief, is back at school. We're glad you're back and if the teachers would allow it I'm sure everyone would try to help you in your makeup work.

Oh, don't you wish there were some more George Washingtons and Lincolns?

SENIOR NOTES.

Tuesday, Feb. 19, was a day of political opposition in the Civics classes. A mock session of Congress was held, and bills were brought forward. Some of the students representing various Senators, showed marked ability as speakers in the Senate.

Hazel Heimann has been unable to attend school the past week because of illness.

We wonder why Joseph Haugen was absent from school Tuesday morning. Maybe the fear of giving his debate in Public Speaking class the next day, gripped him so hard that illness resulted.

Harold Vogelpohl has been absent from school all week and his friends would enjoy having him back.

The girls in the Home Economics class are being trained in the subject of story telling.

He's teaching her arithmetic, Because that is his mission. He kissed her once, he kissed her twice,

And said, "Now that's addition." And on he added smack by smack, In silent satisfaction.

She sweetly gave his kisses back And said, "Now that's subtraction." Then he kissed her and she kissed him, Without any exclamation. They both together smiled and said, "Now there is multiplication." And Dad appeared upon the scene And made a quick division.

JUNIOR NOTES.

We were all very pleased to see Verval Mueller back at school Monday. She has resumed her studies with just as much satisfaction as ever.

Miss Hilda Steinmetz entertained eight of her schoolmates at a party last Tuesday afternoon, the occasion being her birthday. "Hearty congratulations!" We wish you many more returns of the day!

A number of Juniors have been absent from school, on account of illness. Beware! "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

The Juniors, in the Public Speaking classes are all busy working at debate. Mr. Stewart thinks, if they keep on progressing as rapidly as they have been, they will be capable of defeating the N. U. H. S team at the end of the term.

Johnny felt rather blue at the end of the second period Thursday, because his debate speech was criticised so severely. Don't lose your enthusiasm, Johnny; your rebuttal was marvelous!

Alice Meile and Margaret Schmid have had their names listed with the other Sophomore girls as "Bobbies."

Grace Hughes was absent from school several days last week on account of illness.

Agnes Schueller, a Sophomore, won first place in the Siegel Trophy contest. It pays to whisper to those around you, Aggie. Keep it up, you're doing well.

Evelyn Juedes, another Sophomore, won third place in the same contest. You must be following Aggie's footsteps, Murtz; keep it up.

Helen Hintz, who was asked to make an impromptu speech in Friday assembly, the 15th, had stage fright. If the chairman asks you again, show them that you're a Sophomore.

FRESHMEN NOTES.

The Freshmen dance will be held tonight, Feb. 29th. Everyone be sure to attend, as Meyer's Harmonizing Six will furnish the music.

The Freshies trimmed the Sophomores by a score of 22 to 20 last Friday.

Elmer Ratzke had tonsillitis last week, that being the reason for his absence from school.

Everybody be sure to attend the Freshmen dance tonight, because if you don't you'll miss the surprise program to be put on. All stunts are new.

The Freshmen girls' basket ball team trimmed the Catholic Freshmen team by a score of 20 to 11.

The Freshmen girls will hold a candy sale at the dance tonight so be sure to attend and bring plenty of money with you.

Don't forget the Freshmen dance. Let the Freshies entertain you tonight.

LOCALS.

Marguerite Pfaender was absent several days last week on account of sickness.

Morris Johnson, Joseph Haugen and Clifford Anderson spent the weekend at their homes in Hanska.

Hazel Heimann has been unable to come for some time. We miss you very much, Hazel, and hope to see you back soon.

Garnet Schlottman surely had a disappointed look on his face when he had to put his gum in the basket in Com. Geography.

Miss Tripp made her Eng. III, period five pupils very happy, presenting them with a list of topics to prepare a long debate on. Everyone looking very happy.

Quite a number of pupils found it convenient to be ill last Thursday. Evidently, three days vacation wasn't long enough. Cheer up, kids, we have spring vacation to look forward to.

Evelyn Alwin has received another award from the L. C. Smith Typewriter Co. She wrote 61 net words per minute for a period of ten minutes and was awarded a beautiful gold emblem.

A mock Senate held sway in Room 106 about a week ago. Erna Grusendorf presided at the meeting. Bills were proposed and proceedings were similar to the real stuff. No wonder the members seemed so dignified, especially Erna, the vice president of the U. S. Senate.

Boys' and Girls' Glee clubs are starting new work on very hard selections (that's what the members think). They're getting ready for the Commencement exercises with plenty of new pep. They received a compliment from someone who knows something about music—that accounts for it.

FASHION HINTS FOR 1924.

The less your pants are pressed, the better you are dressed. Thus we see that Louie will be the last word in immaculate masculine attire. The cause of so much tardiness is undoubtedly due to so many of our dear boys staying home to press their bell-bottom panties in the morning.

Hats are heavily laden with rooster or hen's (whichever is available) feathers. Especially are they stunning when bunched on only one side, thus over-balancing the hat and causing it to wiggle gracefully as it grasps madly for support on the top of your ear. Miss Lanphier is quite taken with this latest of fashion's foibles and she thinks its chic.—Foolish!

Scout: "I want my hair cut."
Barber: "Any particular way?"
Scout: "Yes, Off."

coaches, Mr. Gloor and Miss Lohren. It might be interesting to know that Agnes will not be with us next year and her loss will certainly be felt. Carl will remain and is expected to do better next year. The Graphos wishes the best of success to the winners of this contest who will go to the district contest at Mankato sometime in the near future.

BASKETBALL.

they proved to be weaker than their opponents. The five who were put in at the beginning stayed in throughout the entire game. They were Schaefer, Arbes, Tomschin, Jones and Nieman. Our boys didn't seem to get into the game at all during the first half, which ended with Lamberton far in the lead, the score being 13-9. During the third quarter New Ulm almost caught up to Lamberton, due to Jones' splendid work. The Red Flashes lacked one basket.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter Lamberton made two baskets and it looked as though we would get left. Four minutes before the end of the game our foes were ahead four baskets, the score being 28-10. Then Mickey's Flashes set to work and had there had been one more minute, would have tied them. However, they didn't have this minute and the game ended with the score of 28-26 in favor of Lamberton. This game didn't count toward the district championship, so our boys aren't worrying over their defeat.

New Ulm-Lamberton Girls' Game.

The New Ulm girls played and won their first out-of-town game last Friday. They carried home the laurel wreath with a score of 40 to 9. They played a two-court game in which both forwards and centers shoot baskets. The game was one of the best examples of team-work in girls' basket ball ever played. There was very little fouling and all the players deserve great credit.

The line-up was as follows: Centers, Slats and Ochsie; forwards, Hil and Flossy; guards, Lucy and Maybelle. During the last quarter Verna Marie was put in for guard and Verna Dahl for center.

Hil had the record of making 12 baskets, Ochsie 5 baskets and Flossy 2 baskets. We all hope to see one of these two-court games played in New Ulm, because they seem to be a tremendous success.

Arlington-New Ulm Girls' Game.

For the first time in many years the New Ulm girls team played a game that ended up with a tie. Both teams were so evenly matched that they failed to make one point more than the other. The only thing that the people who saw the game regretted was the fact that the tie was not played off.

Maybelle Simmet was not able to play, but her place was taken by Verna Dahl, who played an exceptionally good game as guard. The first half was characterized by good, clean playing and with Arlington a few points in the lead.

When the whistle blew for the second half, the "red jackets" buckled down to some hard playing and gave the Arlington team the surprise of their lives. Although our girls caught up with the Arlington score, they did not have time to put in another score and the final score was 19-19.

ESSAY CONTEST.

a Seven-Reel Motion Picture of David Copperfield." You are probably wondering why they chose such a subject. The purpose is to get the parents, teachers, and students interested in the better type of motion pictures. Any boy or girl in a public, or private school may be a contestant. The essay is to be five hundred, or less words long, and must be in by March 31st. You have just a month to write it, so see Miss Lohren at once about the rules and regulations. Now for the prizes: $165 will be given to each group. The first prize winner in each group will receive $100. The next four winners will be awarded $25 each. There will be 160 prizes of $5 each. An additional school prize of $1,000 will be awarded to the schools having the most prize-winning pupils. The first prize will be $500; second prize, $300; and third prize, $200.

Get busy on your essay, everybody! Just think of all the prizes. Wouldn't you be proud of yourself if you'd capture first prize and receive $100? Turn out, students and show your literary talents!

COME OUT OF THE KITCHEN.

of the daughters of the family conceives the madcap idea that she, her sister, and their two brothers shall act as the domestic staff for the wealthy Yankee. Olivia Daingerfield, who is the ringleader in the merry scheme, adopts the cognomen of Jane Ellen and elects to preside over the destinies of the kitchen. Her sister, Elizabeth, is appointed housemaid. Her elder brother, Paul, the butler, and Charley, the youngest of the group, is appointed to the position of footboy. When Burton Crane arrives from the North, accompanied by Mrs. Falkener, her daughter and Crane's attorney, Tucker, they find the staff of servants to possess so many methods of behavior out of the ordinary that amusing complications begin to arise immediately. Olivia's charm and beauty impress Crane above everything else and the merry story continues through a maze of delightful incidents until the real identity of the heroine is finally disclosed, but not until Crane has professed his love for his charming cook, and the play ends with the brightest prospects of happiness for these two young people.
