S. T. C. MEMBERS

GIVEN AWARDS

Who says that the Typing II class is not doing anything this year? Why, just look at the awards which are on the bulletin board in the typing room! Very soon we will need another board.

The following awards were received this month:

1. C. T. Certificate from Gregg Writer, 51 words per minute, Evelyn Alwin.
2. C. T. Certificate from Gregg Writer, 54 words per minute, Le Roy Haenze.
3. Silver Pin, L. C. Smith, 54 words per minute, Le Roy Haenze.
4. Proficiency Certificate, Remington, 25 words per minute, Lena Fixsen.
5. Proficiency Certificate, Woodstock, 42 words per minute, Le Roy Haenze.
6. Proficiency Certificate, Underwood, 55 words per minute, Evelyn Alwin.
7. Bronze Pin, Woodstock, 27 words per minute, Luella Loesch.

And as to speed, well its pretty hard to beat Miss Almeter's champions.

Some time ago, Miss Almeter received a bulletin from the L. C. Smith Typewriter Co. On this bulletin are listed the names of the various schools in the United States, classed as having expert typists, operating Smith machines, and to our surprise, New Ulm was one of the few Minnesota schools represented. Not so bad, is it?

The S. T. held its semi-monthly meeting, Monday, March 10, and the following officers were elected:

President Florence Hartl
Vice-Pres. Elmer Tomschin
Sec.-Treas. Edgar Fechner
Graphos Reporter Willard Price
Sergeant-at-Arms Egbert Fenske

BREAD AND SEWING CLUB IS ORGANIZED.

The Home Economics classes of this year and some of the girls that took cooking and sewing last year have organized a very beneficial club under the supervision of Miss Reager and Miss Ludwig. About three weeks ago Mrs. Genevieve Meybohm from the State College of Agriculture, University of Minnesota, was here and gave a talk for the purpose of getting the girls interested in the Home Economics club. March 7 during the second period the girls met in the Home Economics department and elected officers. They are:

President Lillian Martin
Vice President Hildegard Hein
Secretary and Treasurer Lola Runck

A program committee appointed by the President, Lillian Martin, consists of Hildegard Hein, Chairman, Verna Dahl and Gladys Lanphier. They decided on having monthly meetings, which will be held on Thursday even-

REDWOOD DEFEATS N. U. 22-20

FLASHES COME BACK AT LAMBERTON

Rooters and spectators from Sleepy Eye, Springfield, Comfrey, Marshall, Tyler, Redwood Falls, and other surrounding towns all helped to fill the Armory last Friday at the district tournament. The local high school "staged" a snake dance on Main street and made a good showing in quantity. Led by Hein, Esser and McHale, the students gave many "peppy" yells as did Redwood Falls and the others.

New Ulm Holds Own.

A "walk-a-way" was expected when Schaefer began the first quarter with three baskets and added another after Redwood had but one free throw to its credit. However, Redwood crept near to our score at the end of the first quarter and at the half tied us. Up to the first half the Flashes maintained the lead. In the second half Redwood soon gained a lead and the third quarter ended 19 to 16 in their favor. New Ulm tied the score in the last quarter, but Redwood again led and the gun popped with Redwood Falls a meager basket ahead, the score being 20 to 22.

Play by Play Account.

Schaefer started the game with a wonderful throw followed by two more contributions from himself. Arbes missed free throws on foul. Foul on New Ulm. Redwood makes shot and Schaefer again nets the ball. The game looked like a run-a-way with the score 8 to 1. Redwood then added two points and one free throw on New Ulm personal, followed by another Redwood basket. Esser, Redwood make baskets. New Ulm fouled, nets Redwood a point. End of quarter, 10 to 9. Arbes made a goal followed by Redwood (Timeout). Redwood makes one point on New Ulm personal foul. Half ends 12 to 12 tie.

Second half begins with team's anxiety on spectators' part (as well as players, we surmise). Redwood now gained a 14 to 12 lead, on New Ulm personal. Tomschin makes a point. Score 14 to 13. Was this our 13 jinx? Redwood made two baskets between which Arbes makes point on Redwood foul. Schaefer makes two points and New Ulm foul nets Redwood one point. Third quarter ends 19 to 16 after a timeout by Esser basket does not count. Esser fails throws on Redwood personal. Arbes makes "long" shot making score a tie, 18 to 18. (Baskets by Redwood and Schaefer called void by referee). Redwood again takes lead amid great excitement. Score 20 to 18. A Redwood player sent the ball for two points for the distance of the majority of the floor. Personal foul Redwood, Fritsche fails shots. Niemann nets the ball, hoarsely cheered by New Ulm rooters bringing score 20 to 22. Foul on Redwood for blocking. Fritsche fails the free throw and soon the little gun popped sounding defeat by a narrow margin in the New Ulm ears. Soon after, however the officials announced the score board wrong, which said 21 to 20 and pronounced the score tie, the New Ulm rooters then cheering wildly but still later the officials announced a further change of 22 to 20 in Redwood Falls' favor and the Redwood Falls rooters had their laugh. However, New Ulm took defeat in a sportsman's way and many attended the evening game also even though New Ulm wasn't represented.

Lineup.

Arbes R. F. Corbet
Schaefer L. F. Cole
Niemann C. Bolzin
Tomschin R. G. Englund
Esser L. G. Minning

Esser, from injuries on his hand, was taken from the New Ulm team in the second half and Fritsche was sent in. Esser was one of our mainstays and his injury greatly affected the team.

Tyler defeated Marshall later in the afternoon with a 20 to 18 score. The first half ended 12 to 12 as did the first half in the preceding game.

Tyler and Redwood lined up in the evening and Tyler defeated Redwood in a fast game, 14 to 12. We take off our hats to the little city, Tyler!

Lamberton Game.

The Red Flashes basketball team of our "little college" decisively defeated:

CAMPFIRE.

On Tuesday, February 26, the monthly ceremonial meeting of the Campfire Girls was held at Mrs. Bingham's home. Three new members were initiated into the Campfire. Lottie Pfaender was also initiated as a wood gatherer. The evening was spent in singing camp songs.

On Wednesday, March 5, a short business meeting was held at Mrs. Bingham's home. The object was to plan for the financing of the June camp.

The Girls' Glee Club enjoyed a hike, followed by a feed, on Tuesday evening, after Glee club.

DEBATING TEAM TO MEET NORTH HIGH TOMORROW

"Beat Minneapolis" was the battle cry of the New Ulm debating team as they left for North High, Minneapolis, this afternoon. Our team, with a record of three unanimous decisions and one 2 to 1 decision and the elimination of fifteen teams in this district, will meet the Minneapolis team in the North High auditorium, Saturday, March 15th. The contest will begin at 8 o'clock and the outcome will be wired to the Muesing Drug Store as soon the contest is over.

The "Flour City" team has eliminated three teams, winning the last contest from Mora by a 2-1 decision with the negative side. This team has debated both sides of the question and will uphold the negative side against New Ulm. North High has a student body of two thousand members, and, judging from this, one can readily see that their team will be difficult to defeat.

The Minneapolis team is composed of Harold Goldenburg, Della Shapiro, and John Ackert, and is coached by Mr. Saxby. They are champions of the tenth district.

Of the eighty teams that entered the contest last fall, seven still remain. They are: Minneapolis North High, New Ulm, Cannon Falls, Chatfield, Duluth, St. Cloud and Osakis. Osakis has defeated Hawley and is the first team to win in the inter-district contest. They now enter the semi-finals. Duluth met St. Cloud Monday, but the outcome is not yet known. If New Ulm wins, the team will enter the semi-finals for State honors, which they won last year. Let's boost the team to victory!

F. S. DRAMATIC CLUB PUT ON PROGRAM.

Fred Lippmann presided at the assembly for Friday, February 29th.

The student body sang several songs followed by selections by the Boys' Glee Club.

The next number was a playlet, "Bills," given by members of the Freshman-Sophomore Dramatic club.

Synopsis of Play:

Emily and Jack, during four years of married life, have become indebted to the amount of $365.04. Jack assures Emily that by strategy he can put off the time to pay their bills until they can get some money.

While they are discussing the matter, a Mr. Jones calls on them. He stutters so that it takes him a very long time to say anything. He seems to be trying to tell Jack something important, but Jack and Emily, thinking he is the Mr. Jones to whom they owe money, interrupt him and change the subject. They think that he is trying to get his money. Finally he gives up and, handing an envelope to Jack, he leaves. Imagine

THAT INGRATIATING SMILE.

(An Essay: a-la-Lamb.)

I looked at it long and longingly wishing I might be the proud possessor. First it was just a flicker like twilight shadows on the deep. The lines became more pronounced and more easily discerned. In another second it had blossomed out in its full glory—that ingratiating smile of Johnnie's. It envelops his whole face, sparkles in his eyes, and causes a brighter lustre to shine out in his hair. Why can't we all be blest with such a smile. Johnnie uses it aplenty, too. Here now, how that teacher is scolding him for talking without permission! Johnnie turns up an angelic face all wreathed in smiles. Instantly the sight of such sweet innocence softens his teacher's wrath. Could such an innocent smiling face do wrong? No, not such as that!—And Johnnie gets off easy with a gentle admonition as he has done many times before. Does it seem fair that he should be so favored? Deary me! How much would you charge for rent of it, Johnnie? I needs must use it next period in chemistry.—Della Pfeiffer.

CLUB NOTES

DRAMATIC CLUB.

On Thursday, February 28, the Dramatic club held a meeting in the assembly. After roll call and the reading of the minutes, a short business meeting was held, at which a motto was adopted by the club. A musical number was next rendered by Cecilia Zischka. An account of "The Merchant of Venice" and the "Perfect Fool" as seen by her in Minneapolis was next given by Verna Marie Miller, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. An informal dramatization of the first two acts of "As You Like It", given by the Sophomore club members, was next. The meeting closed with a critic's report by Miss Lohren.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CLUB.

The Public Speaking club met in Miss Halverson's room on March 4. After all important matters had been disposed of, a very interesting program was rendered. Extemporaneous speeches were given by Joseph Haugen and Hertha Hackbarth. Next a humorous sketch was given by Marion Reineke. This was followed by more extemporaneous speeches by Edith Kjolstad and Francis Schiefert. A discussion of one of these extemporaneous speeches followed. The pie-eating contest, which was to conclude the meeting, was cancelled.

The Debates in the Public Speaking classes have been continued. Debates on the Philippine question, the Bonus, Cancellation of War Debt, and Ku Klux Klan, were held. The second group of debates have already been planned. By the time spring is here, Mr. Stewart will have made some expert debaters out of his Public Speakers.

LATIN CLUB.

On February 25, the Latin club had their semi-monthly meeting. After the business meeting, an interesting program was given. "Malus Opus," a poem, was given by Ruth Marti. This was followed by an account on "The Life of Julius Caesar" by Fred Lippmann. After this, "Caesar's Campaigns in Gaul" was rendered by Hilda Steinmetz.

A feed, which was the main part of the program, was then held in the Home Economics Department. Everyone went home entirely satisfied after this bounteous feast.

ALUMNI NOTES.

Blanche Huelskamp, Class of '23, is home from school for good on account of illness.

Elmer Hamann (Doc) '21, is in a Southern training camp, training for the coming baseball season. Elmer was associated with the Minneapolis baseball club last year and will probably be again this year.

Dave Williams, '23, was in New Ulm a few days ago. He saw the debaters go over the top in the Windom debate.

Roy Gebhard (Checkers) is the only one of our 1923 alumni who is engaged in business for himself.

Elizabeth Hintz, '23, who is attending the University of Minnesota, is receiving some of the best marks awarded to Freshmen.

Lorna Schleuder, who is also attending the University of Minnesota, spent the week-end at home.

Violet Steinmetz, '19, who graduated from nursing, is spending her vacation at home.

EXCHANGES.

AS WE SEE OTHERS.

"The Saints Reporter," St. James, Minn.—It is very interesting to know the honor system worked in your school. Every issue of your paper is more interesting than its preceding one.

"The Karux," Phillipsburg, N. J.—Your paper contains good short stories. We read them all and thoroughly enjoy every one. As a whole, your paper is well edited.

"The Anolahi," Anoka, Minn.—We admire your headlines because they are attractive. "School Sweepings" is especially clever.

We have recently received a high school paper from Mountain Lake, called "The Spirit." It is a newsy little paper and one to be proud of.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

"The Echo," Luverne, Minn.—The Graphos is a peppy paper.

"The Karux," Phillipsburg, N. J.—Your paper is small but interesting.

IT'S TO LAUGH WHEN:

John Broeker tries to flirt.
Miss Ludwig tries to scold.
Mr. Stewart gets a box of candy.
Mickie has no flunk list in Chemistry.

Harold Bierbaum has straight hair.

Carl Thies goes out with a girl.

Johnnie Esser blushes.

George Gewerth thinks he's in love.

Howard Vogel plays with dolls.

LOCALS.

Grace Hughes is recovering from the operation which was performed sometime ago. Hurry up and get well, Grace, for that front seat seems mighty empty.

Esther Poehler decided to come back to school after four days' absence. Perhaps she got the spring fever. Well, anyway just try to stand it a while longer.

On Wednesday noon at 11:40 A. M. Winnifred S. was mysteriously called out of English class by Mr. Stewart. Later we learned that she had gone to the Emerson school, where she woke up the 7th and 8th grades with a speech and leading them in cheers for preparation for the tournament. The grades had probably more pep at the tournament than the High school.

HERETIC'S COLUMN.

Editor's Note: Student criticisms to be answered in next Graphos by students.

The boys in this high school are using too much vaseline on their hair. Wherever you look, you are sure to see a greasy head. This is not an Italian town, so why act like Dagos? There is no necessity to flatten the hair down until it looks as if you had just come from a dip—in the lard-can. Why can't the boys be sensible?

A. CRAB.

Chatter, chatter, chatter little gur-rl, Twitter, twitter, twitter, little boy, Together you can make A noise that will wake The ancient bard from repose.

Alas! such is the plight which has befallen us! A continual round of gaiety has led to the adoption of stricter rules in regard to pre-school minutes. Why must we express ourselves so forcibly during a time which is allotted for recreation, changing classes and getting books? Why not brace up and give our teachers a vacation, a rest from the duties of Sergeants-at-Arms?

There has been some question as to the theory of Evolution! A theory has been established which will explode all former theories inasmuch as it is conclusive proof that girls, especially are degenerating backward to the beast stage.

One of the characteristics of the cow family is the perpetual palpitation of the jaw in the process of gurgitation of the masses of food to be digested. Girls in our high schools are gradually going back to the animal stage. Every time you turn a corner and bump into a young lady, a young man is confronted with a whirring of jaws.

If the girls who chew and chew and chew gum over and over until the last breath of flavor is eternally exhausted would only realize how they look, and how rapidly they are backing up to the cow stage, and how immensely huge their jaws are becoming, they'd cut it out. Believe me, Bob Burns wasn't so dumb when he said, "Would ye could see yer sels as ithers see ye."

A CRANK.

INTER-CLASS GAMES.

As before published the Sophomores won from the Freshman basket ball squad with a 28 to 10 score and this game entitled the Sophs to a tilt with the winner of the Junior-Senior game.

The Juniors were eliminated in a fast game by the Seniors 16 to 14 and the Seniors were then scheduled to meet the Sophomores in the deciding game.

Monday, March 10th, the Seniors won the laurel wreath by overwhelmingly defeating the fast Sophomore five with a 54 to 6 score. The larger and heavier Senior team easily guarded the comparatively small Sophomores, who put up a stiff fight. The Sophomores made no points in the second half and 6 in the first, while the Seniors made 24 in the first half, 8 in the third quarter, and 22 in the fourth. A number of fouls were called, principally on the Sophs. The score ended 54 to 6 in favor of the Seniors.

LOCALS.

Harold Vogelpohl is convalescing nicely and we expect to see him back in school before long.

Erna Grussendorf was the only Senior girl at the New Ulm-Comfrey game Friday night.

Verna Dahl and Irene Ochs were very successful in the sale of tickets for the tournament. We need those that boost our school.

Johnnie and Pat certainly exercised their wonderful powers as cheer leaders at the Tournament. Lavendar and White is very becoming to them!

Grace Hughes, who is still in the hospital, would enjoy the visits of her many friends.

The Sophomore boys have a load off their minds by beating the Freshmen in an interclass game Wednesday after school.

Some of the Junior and Senior typists have received their awards of honor and my, but they're proud of them!

Bernard Esser was unfortunate at the tournament on Saturday, for he broke his hand. Bernard played an excellent game.

Boost for the School! Ultimately the Freshies followed this, considering the number that were at the Tournament.

HUMOR.

When Mr. Stewart was "on the road" a few years ago, he had many queer and amusing experiences.

Stepping up to an old farmer, he began brightly, "I'd like to sell you a new encyclopedia." Before he could proceed any further, the farmer interrupted. "Young man," he said, "I'd like to have one, of course, but I'm afraid I'm too old to ride the thing."

Catherine's father had given her a ten-cent piece and a quarter, telling her she might put one or the other on the contribution plate. When she came home, Mr. Poypter asked which piece she gave. "Well, papa, I thought at first I ought to put in the quarter," said Catherine, "but just then I remembered, 'The Lord loveth a cheerful giver,' and I knew I could give the ten-cent piece a great deal more cheerfully, so I put that in."

When Orval was in the Cities, he boarded a crowded street-car. He had great difficulty, when he was trying to get out, in squeezing between two very stout men, and at last got angry.

"People who ride on street cars ought to pay according to weight," he snapped.

"If they did," answered one of the fat men good-naturedly, "the car wouldn't stop for you."

"Caesar chased the Prussians,
Caesar razed the Gauls,
Caesar cleaned up Helvitiis,
And now he's after us."
(With apologies to Julius.)

The Modern History students are studying the World war. They describe some of the battles so vividly as to make one believe that they had actually fought them.

DISTRICT B. B. TOURNAMENT.

Lamberton at Sleepy Eye, Wednesday, March 5, having been defeated by Lamberton at Lamberton, with a score of 16-14 the previous week. New Ulm had won from Lamberton here. The score was 31-9 in the first district game played on a neutral floor. Lamberton was then eliminated from the title race. New Ulm also beat the fast Comfrey team 27-20, at Sleepy Eye, thus insuring a place at the championship district games to be played at the Armory.

Sextette Defeated.

The girls' sextette, until the game at Mankato with the Teachers' College, held a clean slate. Here they encountered a team on an enemy's floor and were beaten 21-14. The girls put up a good fight, however. They had previously won from Teachers' College here.

Lamberton Game.

The first quarter ended 8-2 and the first half 14-4. New Ulm lead overwhelmingly from the start and maintained the lead throughout the game. Lamberton made but one free throw in the third quarter and the score was 23-5. Schaefer made 8 field goals and 3 out of 6 free throws. Esser made 3 field goals and Niemann and Tom-schin each one. There were not many fouls committed. The game ended 31-9.

Comfrey Loses, 27-18.

In a game at Sleepy Eye, Comfrey saw "the red flash" when New Ulm defeated them with a 27-18 score, putting New Ulm in for the title—go and dropping Comfrey from the contest. The boys all showed their speed at this game.

Mankato T. C. Game.

The New Ulm High school girls met defeat at the hands of the Mankato Teachers' college. It was a good game, but our players seemed to have lots of bad luck. The floor is quite a bit larger than our gym and as we all know a strange floor is a hindrance to any team. There was not much fouling during this game and it turned out to be a well-played game in spite of the fact that the "red jackets" lost. The final score was 14-21 in favor of the Mankato Teachers' college.

Catholic High Game.

The girls' basketball game between the N. U. H. S. and the C. H. S. turned out with the latter victorious. Our team is not used to the large armory floor, having practiced on it only once this season, while the C. H. S. have it for their regular floor and are well acquainted on it. "Speedy" Eibner and Rose Saffert were the stars on the C. H. S. team, while Hil and Ochsie were the real stars of our team. Slats played a good game, considering the fact that she had an opponent quite a bit taller than herself. Although the game ended with the C. H. S. victorious with a score of 14-21, we hope to see the two teams clash again in the near future.
