MANUAL TRAINING BOYS IN BIRD HOUSE CONTEST

HUGE SUCCESS.

Under the supervision of Mr. Dirks, a Bird House contest was held in the Manual Training department on April 9, at 7:30 o'clock.

The seventh and eight grade students, and also the first year Manual Training students participated in the contest. It is the first of its kind ever held, and owes much of its success to Mr. Martin L. F. Eyrich who did a great deal to promote it through the Journal, and to the gentleman who so kindly gave twenty dollars to be given in prizes, and also to the excellent aid and supervision of Mr. Dirks, to Baer and Son who displayed the houses, the Manual Training Department owes the deepest gratitude.

The requirements of the contest were, that each boy must draw his

D. O. T.

On Monday, April 21, the members of the D. O. T. staged one of the best programs given this year. A business meeting which followed the taking of roll call, consisted of the making of a new ruling in regard to absences. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Verval Mueller; Vice President, Alpha Backer; Secretary and Treasurer, Nona Dorn; Sergeant at Arms, Winnifred Schweppe.

A play entitled the "Return of Aunt Deborah," coached by Verval Mueller, was the next number on the program. The cast was well chosen and carried their parts exceedingly well. The cast was as follows: Aunt Sarah, Winnifred Schweppe; Aunt Jane, Alpha Backer; Margaret, the Niece, Vida Juni; Blossom, a friend of the Niece, Adeline Ritschel; Delia, the Maid, Marion Rieneke.

A series of impromptu speeches were next on the program and were given by Cornelia Meidl, Myrtle Harbo, and Gladys Lanphier. The critic's report by Miss Fritsche concluded the program.

A delicious feed was served to the members of the D. O. T. by the P. L. S. following the conclusion of the program.

TURN OUT FOR BASEBALL AND TRACK.

Baseball practise is now in full swing. Students interested in baseball are getting practical instruction in this great game. Although we have already had enough for two teams at the fair ground practices, I am sure that there are enough active boys to make at least four teams. The exercise derived is very valuable to the student. Trotting out to the fair grounds gives good training to the players.

To Participate In State Contest Held at Stillwater May 3

On Saturday afternoon, April the 12th, Tracy High School was the scene of the Second Annual District Contest in Shorthand, Typewriting I, and Typewriting II. Eight schools had two contestants entered in each of the three contests which were scheduled to start at 2:00 o'clock.

The first contest was in advanced Typewriting. Evelyn Alwin and Le Roy Haenze represented our school. The next contest was in Beginning Typewriting in which Luella Loesch and Willard Price took part. The third and last contest was in Shorthand, Evelyn Alwin and Lucy Emmerich representing New Ulm. The papers were then given to the judges, composed of the different teachers and coaches representing the competing schools.

After the papers had been corrected, one of the instructors came to the assembly room to announce the winners. The following is the decision as given by the judges:

Shorthand.

1. Evelyn Alwin, New Ulm, 96%.
2. Dorothy Hill, Tracy, 94%.
3. Mildred Hessman, Redwood Falls, 89 1/4%.

Typewriting II.

1. Evelyn Alwin, New Ulm, 58 4-5 words, 20 errors.
2. Dorothy Baily, Lake Benton, 58 words, 30 errors.
3. Clifford Reynolds, Redwood Falls, 51 8-15 words, 27 errors.

Typewriting I.

1. Mildred Davison, Tyler, 42 2-3 words, 25 errors.
2. Eva Jensen, Springfield, 39 2-5 words.
3. Arlan Gistesen, Marshall, 38 2 5 words, 27 errors.

All schools, except Sleepy Eye, received some place. Redwood Falls and New Ulm got an equal number of places but New Ulm got the highest places, thereby giving New Ulm the highest honors.

Evelyn will now represent our

school, as well as the district, at the State contest to be held at Stillwater, May 3. We can surely put our full confidence in Evelyn at this contest, judging from the awards she has in the Typewriting room, and the record she made at Tracy.

Too much credit cannot be given Miss Almeter, our instructor and coach. Due to her unceasing efforts Evelyn was able to do what she did. Judging from the results of the district contest, we do not hesitate in looking for higher laurels at the State contest. The student body certainly appreciates this, as it was through these efforts that our school was honored.

During the time that it took to correct the papers, the students of the Tracy school took the contestants for automobile rides, showing them the city. They also served light refreshments. This entertainment was very

LATIN CLUB.

On Monday, April 28, the Latin Club held a meeting in the assembly. Roll call was answered by the name of some Roman game. A very snappy business meeting followed. It was decided that the club take a hike out to Point Lookout, and have a weiner roast there. After this business meeting an account on "The Roman Child" was given by Verna Dahl. Evelyn Juedes next gave an account on "Roman Playthings, Games, and Amusements." Following this was an account on "Roman Education," given by Hilda Steinmetz. The members of the club then went down to the Domestic Science department and participated in a delightful lunch.

SPRING FEVER.

Spring is here and with it comes the inevitable—spring fever. It comes to every one but not everyone allows it to dominate him. Yet there are those who slump in their work, whose thoughts are on a fishing pole and the old swimmin' hole, instead of on the World War or on Caesar. There are those who have let the parasite get the best of them instead of getting the best of that "spring feeling." We have much admiration for those who do their usual work, those who have found out that there is a time for work and a time for play.

COMPETENT STAFF CHOSEN.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CLASSES PARTICIPATE IN LEGION CONTEST.

All members of the Public Speaking classes will participate in the Ben J. Seifert Post No. 132, American Legion contest, offering a prize of $10.00 in gold for the best suggestion to be adopted by the post for a permanent community service. This contest is open to all, and closes on May 15th. As soon as possible after that date, a committee composed of post members and prominent citizens will announce the winner through the columns of local papers. The rules for the contest are as follows: Composition not to exceed 500 words, must be written in pen and ink or type-written, double space and on one side of paper only.

The Post wishes to render a real and lasting service to New Ulm—but how? Well, they leave that to you for solution. The suggestion must be practical and permanent. So, get busy, find some paper, pen and ink, sit down and think good and long and a bright idea will come to your mind. So let's all go!

CLARENCE ROLLOFF ELECTED TO HONORARY SOCIETY.

Clarence Rolloff, last year's graduate and star debater, has been elected to the Pi Kappa Delta National Forensic Fraternity at Hamline University. His election to the National society came about by virtue of his being a member of the Hamline debating team. Clarence has not only brought high honor upon himself but upon our school as well. This should be an incentive to every student, for Clarence has brought about these achievements solely through hard work.

during study hours. Some are draped over the desk with chins in hands, gazing off into space. Perhaps they are watching for a bright idea to come flying through the window. Others sit with their legs across the aisle, one arm on their neighbor's desk, reflectively chewing a pencil. Now, I don't think there is much nourishment in lead or erasers. Maybe they like the sound of the metal against the desk. The gentle "clik-clik" is very annoying to others, though.

Of course there are some who are really studying—but then—this is not for them to read.

A SPRING DAY.

The call of the wild! The bird's merry warble and the crow's lazy call, the gushing of the crystal-clear water in the grass-bordered, hillside streams, and the little red squirrels indignant chirping, all constitute spring's annual contribution to the great majestic, and mysteriously soft "call of the wild." Spring is the veritable crown-prince in the world court of seasons. All nations wait for it and long for it. Everyone loves it and everyone praises it. And what greater tribute can be paid than the poems written of spring by the greatest poets of all time, dances to spring by the wander dancers of the ages, songs to spring by melody writers great and small, and great compositions to spring by our greatest composers, violinists, pianists, and even plays to spring by our great playwrights? Many days are designated for the observance of this prince's glory. A spring day brings happiness to all classes of life and to life itself. HENRY N. SOMSEN, JR.

EDITORIAL.

Come poundin' thru! Plod around the track of life and dash for the tape, a winner, or, a loser. You can win even if you lose. If you have played fair and tried hard then, at last, you have really won. Some runners may break and some may fall by the way-side and some may trip but the rest come ploddin' thru—with a smile. Whether it be for the cinder path championship or for success on the long, long stretch, come ploddin' through and be prepared! Many a runner has lost because his shoe string became untied and many a man has lost because he let his purse string become untied too often. And when you take the high jump of your career, be careful, and consider, is an inch worth more than a bone, or a thousand dollars worth more than a peaceful night's rest and an untroubled mind? And no matter how you win, or how you lose, give the other fellow a chance and don't crowd. And when it's all over Go Smilin' Back!

HENRY SOMSEN.

"HOW TO STUDY."

We have all read that article and noted its contents but do we all follow it? A special place for studying is recommended but how many pupils study in the same place more than twice? Perhaps, one night, after reading "How to Study", a student will pick a very uncomfortable chair which forces him to sit erect, but I doubt if he continues to use it. He thinks a nice, soft rocker is more soothing to his brain and uses that instead. I have noticed the positions of students in the assembly

OUR SUMMER CAMP.

Ne-Ma-Ka, the guardian of the Camp Fire Girls, was very worried because Mr. Smith, who had promised to take some of the girls to camp had not arrived as yet and it was now a half hour past the time appointed for starting. He finally came up, however, and everyone was ready to start except Ha-Chee, the doll of the Camp, who was called by Pulswana into her father's car. Everyone was talking and laughing and poor old Mr. Jones was so mixed up by the queer names he heard that he finally asked the guardian where they got those names. She explained that the Camp Fire Laws required the girls to call each other by their Camp Fire Names, and therefore he heard such names as Wam-Po-Nia, Chelan, and Wha-wha-tay-see. As they flew along over the splendid roads they made up the time which had been lost because of the delay in starting, but all looked like Indians by the time they reached camp because the hot weather, dusty roads, and their swift movement caused showers of dust to flow over them and settle upon them. On reaching camp, which was a very beautiful spot about eight feet above a rippling creek, causing many a longing sigh to be directed towards it, by the lovers of the water. The tents were put up in a hurry, in spite of their bulk, and everyone was soon settled for night after the supper dishes had been finished. Taps were then played by Shawah for the purpose of signalling quiet, and produced the same effect. VERNA MARIE MILLER.

They say: "It's all over but the shouting"—Now let's hear that shouting!

EXCHANGES.

"The Private Secretary" was the senior class play given by the seniors of Redland's high school, California. It was a great success, in presentation as well as financially. Between seven and eight hundred dollars were taken in.

"The Owl", Tomah, Wisc.—You have a small paper but it is very well edited. Your headlines are good but the "Chatterbox" and "Hoots from the Owl" are especially clever.

"The Crucible", Rochester, Minn.—Your paper is very interesting and the Rochester High School seems to have a peppy bunch of students. However, there seem to be too many sub-topics on the front page and they are not arranged very harmoniously.

"The Winniwissa Ripples", Pipestone, Minn.—The Easter Greetings from the Ripples Staff is very appropriate. We like your paper, especially the editorials.

The coming of spring will be celebrated by the students of Aurora High, May first by means of a maypole festival. The fairest maiden will be crowned and many tributes paid her.

ALUMNI NOTES.

Bernard Poehler, class of 1919 who is studying medicine at the University of Chicago, was in school a day last week. He gave very interesting speeches to the second and fourth period Public Speaking classes in which he outlined the trials of would-be University students.

Clarence Rolloff and Wesley Schneider, Hamline University Freshmen visited school one day last week.

GIVING HER A TIP.

"Marion, I don't want you to have so much company. Why, you have more callers in a day than I have in a week."

"Well, mum, perhaps if you'd try to be a little more agreeable, you'd have as many friends as I have."

Johnny: "Pat, I have to take a joke to English class tomorrow."

Pat: "That's an easy assignment."

Johnny: "I'll say it is, when you're so handy."

Alpha: (listening in on the radio) "Mamma, I'm getting Chile!"

Mrs. Backer: "Alpha, go right to bed, so you don't catch a cold."

MEET AT MANKATO MAY 10.

Teddy Fritsche has been appointed the track team captain and the team will go to the Mankato Meet May 10th. This meet will be held between many schools of this section of the state and a banquet will follow the meet. There is no reason why New Ulm shouldn't have a real, snappy, team and that's what we're working for. A schedule of baseball games has also been arranged and the team will be picked and the uniforms distributed the first part of next week. Some good material has been developing on the diamond.

One of our star pitchers, Bennie Kitzberger, who was expected to pitch a shut out for the Sophs against the Frosh could not participate on account of the M. D.'s orders concerning an injury received recently.

Track Work Started.

A discus and javelin were received and the manual training department constructed a number of hurdles. Anyone who hasn't turned out may show up at the fair grounds very soon and get into the sport. The shot put and jumping standards and, of course, the race track are much in use.

SOPHS WIN BASEBALL GAME FROM FRESHIES, 3 TO 2.

Monday of this week Montgomery and Green in the box and Broecker behind the bat led the Sophs through to a victory in a 5 inning game. Harold Marks showed unexpected skill when he "fanned" twelve of the higher classmen during the game. In one inning he struck three men out in succession. Frank Heck was behind the bat for the Frosh team and by doing good work completed a good battery for the Freshies. Herbert Montgomery made one three-base hit. The Freshies fielders made several serious errors and a few were made by the Sophs also. The Soph men; Broecker, Radloff and Redeker, and Schreyer and Heck from the Freshies, ran across home plate untouched.

LOCALS.

Roland Hohn has been absent from school ever since vacation. We hope he didn't misunderstand Mr. Stewart about length of vacation.

Miss Halvorson doesn't have to say anything to her pupils when they come to class. They automatically take out their note-books and pencils and begin taking down notes.

Ione Schroeder and Ruth Marti hiked way up to Sleepy Eye. We were wondering why the roads were so well traveled. No doubt they gathered all gravel along the road.

The boys always talk about the girls being so lazy when hot weather comes around. Well, they were "Mary on the spot" last Monday at D. O. T. Just try to beat that record at P. L. S.

Hanska certainly was tickled when they found the N. U. H. S. had such things as spring vacations. Morris Johnson, Joseph Haugen, Edith Kjolstad and Clifford Anderson went there to spend theirs.

Don't you notice how studious everyone is since vacation? Either vacation did lots of good or perhaps—they're thinking of the "states." They wouldn't do this in vain because they certainly have something to look forward to—vacation, the three-months' one!

CLASS NOTESFRESHMEN NOTES.

Three cheers for the Freshies. They are out for game. Turning out for track and baseball practice—not playing hookey either—isn't that some record? Not only are they out for Athletic honors but they are working for scholastic honors as well. During the last few weeks the Freshmen have been very studious.

How the Freshmen spent their vacation is a secret but it has been rumored that little Hans Sallet, "littler" Roger Schmid and "littlest" Ronald Eyrich had a good old fashioned pop-gun hunt.

SOPHOMORE NOTES.

Evelyn Juedes spent Monday and Tuesday of last week visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Beyer, at Minneapolis.

The Sophomore girls are out for track. Watch them get the class championship! The boys are working hard for baseball.

Erma Lewis, Hazel Heim, and Helen Hintz spent their Easter vacation visiting with their respective parents.

Alice Meile visited at Winona, Easter Sunday.

Verna Marie Miller spent a couple of days of her vacation at Rochester.

JUNIOR NOTES.

The Juniors are all very busy planning the Junior Prom.

Track teams have been started, but very little enthusiasm has been shown. The Juniors have a fair chance—they'll take the chance too!

Esther Poehler spent part of her vacation visiting relatives at Mankato. Amanda Kramer spent her vacation at her new home in Welcome.

Florence and Francis Hartl visited their grandparents, one of whom was ill, the week before last.

The swimming season is open, at least for some Juniors.

Marion Reineke was at Waseca during her vacation visiting a girl friend.

SENIOR NOTES.

Evelyn Alwin and Willard Price felt quite proud upon being the selected ones to try the Underwood Typewriter, when the World's Champion Typist demonstrated here.

Lucy Emmerich spent the week-end before vacation at Tracy.

Vera Schreyer had two weeks vacation, but sad to say, she spent the first week in bed, seriously ill.

Several class meetings have been called to discuss the selection of a memorial.

The Senior girls are busy arranging material for the double edition of the Graphos, which will be issued in place of an Annual. The Seniors sincerely hope that the Class of 1925 will devote several pages in their Annual to this year's Seniors.

The Seniors are determined to organize a strong team of trackmen.

FOUR WEEKS AND THEN—

Four more weeks of school and then vacation—three months with nothing to do! Let's make these last four weeks a success. Let's work hard to get our grades up and surprise the teachers. We can do it, so let's go!

FRIDAY ASSEMBLY.

The program for Friday, April 25, was unusually good. Mrs. Wishman gave a talk on the work of the Salvation Army and appealed to the students for donations. This was very interesting. Some members of the D. O. T. then gave a play, "The Return of Deborah." This was acted out very well; the characters were well chosen. Verval Mueller coached the play and deserves much of the credit. The play cast is printed elsewhere.

Mr. Stewart then sent all the Seniors "who expected to graduate" out of the assembly and the rest of the student body received a number of pamphlets, enrollment cards, etc. Under Mr. Stewart's explicit directions they filled out their courses for next year and were excused.

LOOKED SUSPICIOUS.

Gr-r-r-r-h! The train drew up with a mighty crash and shock between stations.

"Is it an accident? What happened?" inquired a worried-looking individual of the conductor.

"Some one pulled the bell-cord!" shouted the conductor. "The express knocked our last car off the track. Take us four hours before the track is clear!"

"Great Scott! Four hours! I am supposed to be married today!" groaned the passenger.

The conductor, a bigoted bachelor, raised his eyebrows suspiciously.

"Look here!" he demanded. "I suppose you ain't the chap that pulled the cord?"—Truth-Seeker.

H. S. ORACLE.

Why does Cathie want the Freshmen to be allowed to dance at the Junior-Senior Prom?

Answer—Ask Slick.

Hello Oracle,

Say, why am I bothered with nervous headaches and eye strain?—Johnnie Esser.

Answer—Too much study, Johnnie. Well Oracle,

Here's a hard one! How much wood would a woodchuck chuck, if woodchucks would chuck wood?—A Verdant Freshman.

Answer—As much dew as a dew-drop drops, if dewdrops do drop dew.

FUNNY ACCIDENTS.

I saw a cowslip through the fence,
A horsefly in the store;

I saw a board walk up the street,
A stone step on the door;

I saw a mill race up the road,
A morning break the gloom;

I saw a night fall on the dawn,
A clock run in the room;

I saw a peanut stand up high,
A sardine box in town;

I saw a bed spring at the gate,
The ink ran in the room.

JOKES.

Pat: "Gladys is a proud beauty. Last night we parted in anger."

A Friend: "Going to make up?"

Pat: "I guess so. But I think I'll stay mad about a week and spend some of my money on myself."

Butts Arbes: "If you could have two wishes come true, what would you wish for?"

Joce: (frankly): "Well, I'd wish for a husband."

Butts: "That's only one."

Joce: "I'd save the other wish until I saw how he turned out."

own plans, and write an essay on the life and habits of the bird for whom the house was built.

The houses, over fifty in number, were graded from the viewpoint of a perfect house, namely, a hundred point house. Thirty points were given for the workmanship, of which Mr. John Gronau was judge. Ten points were awarded for the essay which was judged by Mr. F. W. Johnson.

The prizes awarded to the seventh grade were; first prize of three dollars and a half to Edmund Stindt, second prize of two dollars to Alfred Arndt, both of whom attend the Lutheran school. A third prize of one dollar was awarded to Leonard Marti of the Emerson and a fourth of fifty cents to Walter Peters of the Holy Trinity School.

In the eighth grade the prizes awarded were of the same value and the first place went to Lester Karl of the Emerson School, the second place to Walter Epple of the St. Marys' school, and the third place to Robert Meidl of the Holy Trinity school, and the fourth place to Norbert Schwendinger, also of the Holy Trinity school.

In the high school only three prizes were awarded, the first prize of three dollars being awarded to Elmer Ratzke. A second prize of two dollars awarded to Walter Vercoe, and a third prize of one dollar to Harold Bierbaum.

Following the contest, a short program was given consisting of awarding of the prizes, a talk on the value of birds to the community by Superintendent Gloor, and a few selections by the High School Orchestra.

Since the bird house contest was such a success this year, it is to be held again next year and the gentleman who has been so generous this year has offered to increase the prize money to twenty-five dollars, if the contest proved to be successful.

much appreciated by all, as the time which would otherwise have seemed very long and monotonous, was now changed to enjoyment. New Ulm contestants left Tracy with a very happy feeling as to the result of the contest and the reception given them by the Tracy school.

Going Farther and Faring Worse.

"A long walk will give you a fine appetite."

"That's the reason I'm sitting still," replied Mr. Growcher. "I can't afford a fine appetite."—Washington Star.

Miss Halvorson: "The estates general didn't meet for one hundred and seventy-five years."

Eleanor N.: "My, but he must have been an old man."

Dicksie came limping along after a long hike with Company A.

"What's the matter? Your shoes hurt?" asked a sympathetic bystander. "No," replied Dicksie, "My feet."

Ma: "No, Cornelia will not become engaged until she is twenty."

Pa: "But, my dear woman, she may not get the chance when she is twenty."

Ma: "Well, then, she will remain twenty until she does."—London Mail.
