SENIORS PRESENT "INTIMATE STRANGERS"

N. U. DEBATING TRIO DEFEATS TYLER, 3-0

Wednesday evening, February 4, 1925, the semi-final district debate between Tyler and New Ulm was held at the New Ulm High School auditorium. The question for debate was: "Resolved, That the United States shall accept the covenant of the League of Nations as it existed July 1, 1924."

New Ulm again upheld the affirmative side while Tyler upheld the negative. The decision was 3-0 in favor of New Ulm. The Tyler team was composed of Edward Addy, Niels Nielsen and Clifford Hansen and the New Ulm team was composed of Roland Hohn, Alice Meile and Hilca Steinmetz. Both teams did very well, but the New Ulm team bettered their opponents in rebuttal. Our team is very good again this year and has brought credit to the school. They have not only surpassed their opponents in argument, but have excelled in effective delivery.

The judges were as follows: Prof. Youngdahl and Prof. Anderson both of Gustavus Adolphus college, and Miss Harriet Beale of Mankato Teachers college.

Tyler has defeated Springfield and Hendricks while New Ulm has defeated Mankato and Wells.

The debate which will decide the winner of the district championship will be held between New Ulm and Sherburn. The place and date have not been set.

ANNA ZEISE WINS LINCOLN MEDAL

Mr. Stewart's Public Speaking classes participated in an essay contest on the Life of Abraham Lincoln. The Illinois Watch Co. of Springfield, Ill., is sponsoring this contest. Any high school in the United States or its possessions may take part. A beautiful bronze medal three inches in diameter with the head of Abraham Lincoln on it is the free prize offered to each school participating.

There are very few requirements as to the length of the essay. The selection of judges and the time and place of donating this medal are all left to the school. As Springfield, Illinois, was the home of Abraham Lincoln, the watch company is bearing all the expense of the contest to be held each year for the purpose of creating a more thorough knowledge of the life of Abraham Lincoln and to increase admiration and reverence in young people for our great hero.

The essays were written several weeks ago, and have been handed in and judged. The bronze medal will be awarded on February 12, at the Siegel Trophy Contest to Anna Zeise, whose essay the judges considered the best. The winning of this prize is an honor, so Anna deserves our congratulations.

INTIMATE STRANGERS, FEB. 20, 1925.—COMEDY IN 3 ACTS.

The class of 1925 is going to give one of the most exciting plays that has been produced since the time of Shakespeare—"Intimate Strangers", by Booth Tarkington.

The characters are all modern. Isabel Stuart, the leading lady, first meets William Ames, leading man, in a little junk railway. And now the chain of romance and misunderstanding begin—all on account of one sandwich and a hard-boiled egg.

Florence, great niece of Isabel Stuart, finds Isabel and Mr. Ames in the station. Florence, a captivating young typical flapper promptly decides that she is going to like Mr. Ames. Mr. Ames is invited to the Stuart home.

Johnny White who does not like Mr. Ames, because he thinks Florence likes him, tries to show it by word and action.

Who would think that romance and mystery could be caused by a family Bible?

Isabel Stuart, Adeline Ritschel, is a young woman that has had a great deal of experience in life. She is a very unusual woman.

Mr. Ames, Roland Hohn, a young lawyer, who is a very puzzled person, owing to the mystery concerning the family of the Stuarts. He has a very poor impression of flappers, but after meeting Florence he changes his mind.

Florence, Della Pfeiffer, is some flapper, full of pep and always doing something to displease Isabel.

CAN YOU FEATURE IT?

Can you feature the Junior Carnival a failure? I'm asking you, can you? I don't believe you can. When you see Miss Ludwig marching down the aisle with a smile to make you feel real "thrilly," and Miss Ferguson so full of pep that she can hardly conduct a class without referring to the carnival, can you imagine it a failure.

If you had seen Margaret Eichten and Helen Hintz sneaking down to the State Bank Tuesday morning, with their faces pale with fright, but a gleam of happiness in their eyes, you might have guessed the reason for this state of affairs. Since you don't know the reason, here it is. They carried under their coats a bag containing two hundred seventy-five dollars and fifty-three cents. That was the money taken in at the carnival.

Of course you have heard of the different booths and especially the excellent program that was put over great with the aid of Miss Ludwig and Miss Ferguson. Judge for yourself! Wasn't Rose Pfaender certainly a second Cecelia Zischka in "My Best Gal"? "Polly" certainly slammed a few good ones on "Heine" and vice versa. How can you ever forget that bear? No sir! You can't feature the Junior Carnival a failure.

THREE PERFECT PAPERS IN ESSENTIAL TEST

The result of the second minimum essentials contest, held January 27, shows marked improvement in our English, although we have not yet learned our rank among the schools in the state. Our median this time was 85, three points higher than in the first, and three of our students received 100%, no such high average having been attained by any one in this high school in the preceding test.

It will be remembered that in the first of this series of English tests, New Ulm tied with four other schools with a median of 82; those schools are: namely, St. Paul Central High, Glencoe, Big Falls and Aurora. New Ulm, however, was placed at the foot of the list, because her lowest mark, 33, was so much lower than that of any of the others. Some Minneapolis schools, not contestants, had higher medians.

For the whole school, Gertrude Eichten, a Freshman, and Margaret Schmid and Margaret Eichten, both Juniors, tied for first place in the last test with a score of 100%. Lydia Pufahl and Helen Hage, Sophomores, and Valeria Lamecker and Isla Lindmeyer, Freshmen, all received 99%, thus gaining the second highest mark in the contest. Those who got 98% were Sylvia Eyrich, Walter Vercoe, Hertha Marks, Loraine Spaeth, Verna Marie Miller and Hilda Steinmetz. The class records are as follows:

Freshmen: 1st place, Gertrude Eichten, 100%; 2nd place, Isla Lindmeyer and Valeria Lamecker, 99%; 3rd place, Alice Bierbaum, Allan Kosek, and Viola Tepe, 93%; 4th place, Max Miklas, 91%; honorable mention, Louise Eyrich and Lottie Hesse.

SIEGEL TROPHY CONTEST THURSDAY EVENING.

The annual declamation and oratorical contest between the four classes will be held in the auditorium, Thursday evening at 7:30. The class of 1925 won the Siegel cup last year and we can expect some close competition for the trophy on Thursday evening.

The Freshmen will be represented by Joseph Vogel and Tekla Reinhart. Walter Vercoe, Irene Stephan and Sylvia Eyrich will uphold the honor of the Sophomore class, while Bennie Kitzberger, Henry Somsen, Hildegard Amann and Eleanor Neemann will perform for the Juniors. The Seniors, winners of the cup last year, will be represented by Roland Hohn, Hazel Erickson and Marion Reineke.

Tell your friends, bring a friend, and be at the contest. The admission is 35 cents for adults and only 25 cents for students.

HEGSTROM QUINTET CONQUERED, 30-26

The Lavender and White basket ball five took a small dose of defeat at Sleepy Eye Friday, February 6th. The veteran line up: Schaefer, Arbes, Niemann, Tomschin and Hamann met the foes. During the first half, Capt. Schaefer failed to score, but in the second half looped seven field goals and one free throw out of two for a grand total of 15 points. Arbes made nine points with three out of five free throws. A. Wilhite of Sleepy Eye made five successive free throws and four baskets. The first half ended with the score 17-9, Sleepy Eye 8 points ahead. In the second period New Ulm gained 17 points, while Sleepy Eye gained but 13. The final tally was 30-26. Sleepy Eye led New Ulm by the narrow margin of 4 points.

The Windom boys' and girls' games on Wednesday, February 10th, promise to be close and hard fought. Come out and see them. The last home game will be played with Morgan, Saturday, February 21.

NEW ULM WILL MEET NORTH HIGH AND SHERBURN.

The debating team will leave for Minneapolis next Monday morning, February 16, and on that evening will debate the crack North High team. New Ulm will uphold the affirmative of the League of Nations question. North High sent a challenge to New Ulm a few days ago so this contest will not count in the race for state honors, but will be merely a practice debate. It will be remembered that New Ulm debated North High last year in the first inter-district contest and defeated them by a decision of 3-0. North High is out for revenge and the debaters have to do their best in order to bring home victory.

This is the second Minneapolis high school that has challenged the New Ulm team this year, Minneapolis Central has an enrollment of over 3,000 while North High has about 2,500 students. We consider it quite an honor to receive a challenge from two such large schools. It goes to show that our debating record has received favor.

BE SOMETHING.

As Abraham Lincoln's mother was dying, she called "Abe" to her bedside and in her last moment said, "Abe, be something." These words of his mother remained constantly with him and because he studied so that he might be ready when the time came, he was "SOMETHING."

Today, as students, we are the fortunate few who are given the opportunity and the means to be something. Others are either denied the privilege or lack the ambition to go to high school. For that reason, we are expected to do greater things than they: to be better citizens than they: to "BE SOMETHING."

We cannot all be Lincolns, we cannot all be famous, but we can try to do our best in that little niche where destiny has placed us. We can conquer our shortcomings and change for the better. May his precious words usher into our lives a higher standard, nobler virtues, and a worthier purpose. The resolution to perpetuate his motives in greater measures, based on unselfishness and a determination to win fairly, should be the inspiration that we should receive from the life of the man of mercy, who was driven on to greater things by the dying words of his angel mother, "Abe, BE SOMETHING."

FAMOUS SAYINGS.

Mr. Hegstrom: "Well, it was an interesting subject."
Mr. Stewart: "Come to the debate."
"Bones" Wagner: Hohya!!!!
"Cullie" Thies: "What have we in Physics?"
Cora Meidl: "Meet you at the K. K."

CLASS NOTES

SENIOR NOTES.

Everyone is becoming excited because there is some talk abroad that Mr. Hegstrom's Civics classes are to make a trip to Minneapolis and St. Paul to see the Legislature in session. Some of the Freshmen say—"Won't it be fun though?" Others say—"Oh! Those lucky Seniors."

The Senior class seems to tend toward becoming a kindergarten—a short while ago Helen Sans' little niece visited school and last week Hazel Erickson's little sister came to school for several days.

The Senior play cast is working hard now, for it won't be very long before they will give their play, "Intimate Strangers."

JUNIOR NOTES.

Leona Gebhard, a member of the Junior class is in school again, and we are all very glad to see her back.

The Junior Carnival was certainly a success, and the Juniors wish to thank Miss Ludwig and Miss Ferguson, who did so much toward its success. Oradel Wagner, a lower classman, who played the piano for all of the program, should also be thanked, for she had probably one of the most tedious jobs of all. What would the High school do without Oradel?

You probably saw some of the Junior boys running around last week with their fingers bandaged. Those were just results of the saws used during the Carnival.

No one believed that we had a palmist in our High school, until Miss Lohren helped out the Juniors at their Carnival, in that personage.

SOPHOMORE NOTES.

The Sophomore declamatory elimination contest was held last Thursday evening at three-thirty. Sylvia Eyrich and Irene Stephan for the girls and Walter Vercoe for the boys were chosen to represent their class in the annual Siegel Trophy Contest which will take place Thursday, February twelfth. Due to their splendid showing last year the Sophomore expect to carry off honors in the coming contest.

The Sophomores are indeed to be complimented on the fact that they again lead in the number of students on the Honor Roll. The only class equalling the record of the Sophomores in the recent Minimum Essentials English contest is the Senior Class. These facts show that the Sophomores are establishing an unprecedented record in the history of our high school.

FRESHMEN NOTES.

Our class is proud of her football men. She had three lettermen, namely, Jack Schoch, Lowell Rieke and Harold Loefelmacher. My, they look fine in their new sweaters! Going some for freshmen, what say?

After "Jimmie" had given a bad recitation in Algebra, "Jackie," our class hero, stepped in with his pet saying, "Tis wrong, my lad; 'tis wrong."

Our class secretary just had a birthday and received a pretty vanity case. We all wonder who gave it to her. Congratulations, Winnie.

The Freshmen have just finished "Ivanhoe," and began "Silas Marner" last Monday.

CLUB NOTES

D. O. T.

The D. O. T. club held a meeting Thursday evening. Roll call was taken, and the members answered by giving a quotation from Ruskin. A business meeting was held at which it was decided to give a candy sale at the Windom game. The following officers were elected for the second semester:

President ..... Marie Volz
Vice-President ..... Nona Dorn
Secretary ..... Hazel Erickson
Treasurer ..... Della Inhofer
Sergeant-at-arms ..... Leona Werdan

After the business meeting a report was given by Lola Runck on "The Life and Works of John Ruskin." This was a very interesting report. "Honest Peggy," a play coached by Winifred Schweppe was the next number on the program. The characters were as follows:

Honest Peggy ..... Marie Volz
Clara, (sister of Peggy) .....
..... Hazel Erickson
Louise, (sister of Peggy) .....
..... Della Inhofer
Mother ..... Esther Poehler
Aunt Cecelia ..... Marg. Pfaender
Aunt Anna ..... Leona Werdan
Jennie Love ..... Cath. Poynter
Mrs. Holford ..... Florence Hartl

This play was enjoyed by all. After the critics report was given by Miss Weiser the meeting adjourned.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CLUB.

The Public Speaking Club held a meeting in Room 105, Tuesday evening Feb. 3. At this meeting new officers were elected as follows:

President ..... Esther Poehler
Vice-president ..... Lillian Skau
Secretary and treasurer .. Anna Zeise
Sergeant at Arms were left to be appointed by the president.

After the election an interesting program was given. Warren Johnson gave some snappy jokes, and Mr. Stewart gave the third of a series of speeches on "My Trip Out East," which was very interesting. After the program a delicious lunch was served in the Home Economics department, to which the Senior play cast was invited.

ALUMNI NOTES.

Elizabeth Hintz has been chosen alternate on the University of Minnesota Women's debating team. This speaks well for Elizabeth's ability, for as a Sophomore she competed against Juniors and Seniors. It will be remembered that Elizabeth was a member of our state championship debating team in 1923.

Clarence Rolloff, a member of the state championship debating team of 1923, has made the Hamline debating team. Clarence ranks near the top of the list for the debaters at Hamline. He is a hardworker and earns his way through college by working in the afternoon.

Howard Vogel and Theodore Fritsche have been pledged members of the Sigma Chi fraternity at the University of Minnesota. Sigma Chi is ranked as one of the best national academic fraternities in the United States.

John Graff, a former member of our high school basket ball varsity is a member of the St. Thomas squad.

Roy Pfeiffer of the class of '23 is clerking at the J. C. Penney Co. store in this city.

Jos. Schueller of the class of '23 and who had been working at Hutchinson, is now at home sick with the small pox.

Blanche Huelskamp is attending night school at our high school. She takes up cooking.

Emerald Dirks, also of the class of '23 is working at the New Ulm Wholesale Grocery Co.

Caroline Guggisberg class of '23 is working for Somsen, Dempsey and Flor.

EXCHANGES.

"West High Weekly," Minneapolis, Minn.—Your paper is attractively arranged and full of pep. Your list of "Coming Events" points out many good times. The girls certainly show spirit in entering the Field Hockey and Riding clubs.

"Central High News," Minneapolis, Minn.—Congratulations to your debating team. It is very hard to wait until we get your next issue. Your headlines are very tempting.

"The Winnemissa Ripples," Pipestone, Minn.—Your "Breathing" column is excellent.

"The Al-Hi-Nuz, Alexandria, Minn.—Your paper is very neat and well arranged. We hope the Junior's play, "Bright Honor," is successful.

"High School Sabethan," Sabetha, Kansas.—You have a remarkable paper.

"Hobachi," Redlands, Calif.—The students show spirit and pep in "Track."

DID YOU EVER SEE?

Alice Meile's name on the flunk list.

Carl Thies without his hair combed.

Mr. Stewart chew gum in class.

The Public Speaking class without something to laugh at.

The Junior class without some pep.

The debating team afraid of their opponents.

CAN YOU FEATURE:

No whispering in the Assembly?

No one on the flunk list?

Public Speaking without Mr. Stewart?

School without our Friday assemblies?

Every one having all their Physics problems?

LOCALS.

We had a number of surprises awaiting us in last Friday's assembly. Hildegard Amann entertained us with a "Dixie" dance, and several of the Juniors gave speeches boosting the Carnival. Mrs. Olson did not appear for Assembly singing so we finished the program with a study period, Mr. Stewart presiding.

Mr. Hegstrom and his valiants motored to St. Peter with Niemann's car last Monday, intending to win over Gustavus Adolphus seconds but the drifts were too much and after coming within four miles of Nicollet had to reverse homewards. This is not humorous if you ask the boys, it was hard work PUSHING.

The basket ball team made an attempt to get to St. Peter to play the game scheduled with the Gustavus Adolphus College a week ago last night, but on account of the bad roads, they did not succeed in reaching their destination. The game was postponed.

After all the mystery and excitement of the Junior Carnival we are glad to settle down to some good hard work again. Nevertheless we must congratulate the Juniors for the pep and spirit with which they put the thing across.

The Camp Fire Girls have been busy selling tickets for the show "When A Man's A Man" which was shown last night and will be shown again at the Lyric Theatre tonight.

Did you see some of the boys displaying themselves with a great deal of pride this week? Well, why shouldn't they—their football sweaters have come.

The members of the Home Ec. II. class are taking turns at serving meals. Does this account for the tempting odors coming from the kitchen at noons?

The cast of the Senior play is "buckling down" to hard work. They are starting in early, and will certainly make the play a great success.

The eliminations for the Siegel Trophy Contest are being held this week. The contest is to be held on February 12.

WHO'S WHO?

He's the best little cheer leader we've had for years. He is.....? When people see.....coming along they say "so courteous."

When the giant.....of the Senior class walks beside the dwarf..... people exclaim, "What good football material!"

"Laugh and the world laughs with you," that's.....motto.

Our royal Senior who is debater, lawyer, and will be the first woman candidate for president of the US....., is going strong for Home Ec.

Tall and stately, full of pep, and a wonderful B. B. player, that's.....

A piano player of fame, yet only a Sophomore....., has been playing for the high school orchestra for two years.

Folks say she's the noisiest girl in school—but then she's only a Soph; anyway, we think.....is the peppiest girl in school.

FRIDAY ASSEMBLIES.

A week ago last Friday, the assembly program was put on by the Juniors. Several speakers boasting the Junior Carnival gave interesting talks on it, and "Slats" gave a very pretty "Dixie Dance." This peppy Junior class had a surprise in store for the student body, which proved to be a real tamed trick bear, which "Heine" Somsen had procured from a circus company and which performed tricks for them under his able management. Now prepare for Mr. Stewart's surprise; he made several announcements and then said because Mrs. Olsen had not come we would finish the assembly period—by studying. Of course there were many groans, but those of us, who had not prepared our first period lessons well, were glad for a chance to do so, especially because Mr. Stewart said we could make up for it at some other assemblies.

Last Friday the Seniors staged their annual Popularity contest. Each person was given two lists instead of one and first and second choice. There were many of the common choices such as the most popular girl and boy, the best looking girl and boy, and the laziest girl and boy; but there were also many new ones, such as the girl and boy with the prettiest names, the most artistic girl and boy, and the girl and boy with the prettiest hair. We then had some assembly singing with Mrs. Olsen at the piano. We sang some patriotic songs in memory of Lincoln, whose birthday is in the near future. Mr. Stewart let us run into the first period a few minutes, so that we could have some cheering to boast our boys, who went to Sleepy Eye to win another victory. These few minutes were the beginning of the make-up Mr. Stewart promised us for last assembly study period.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY, "INTIMATE STRANGERS."

Johnny White, Arnold Oswald, is a young man, who surely can be sarcastic. He is not in the least sentimental, but, oh my—you ought to see him!

Carl Thies, the station master, is an elderly man, a small town man in a small town station.

Aunt Ellen, Gladys Wagner, a very prim, elderly lady, who is continually being shocked by Florence and Isabel, surely can act.

Henry, the outdoor man, Fred Marks, and the maid, Mattie, Winifred Schweppe, make the situation appear real and lifelike.

Cast of characters in order of appearance:

The Station Master ..... Carl Thies
 William Ames ..... Roland Hohn
 Isabel Stuart ..... Adeline Ritschel
 Johnnie White ..... Arnold Oswald
 Henry ..... Fred Marks
 Aunt Ellen ..... Gladys Wagner
 Mattie ..... Winifred Schweppe
 Florence ..... Della Pfeiffer

There are others beside the cast who are doing much to make the Senior play successful, namely:

Coach ..... Mrs. Stewart
 Stage Manager ..... Elmer Tomschin
 Business Manager ..... Marie Volz
 Prompter ..... Helen Sans

The play is going to be given at Turner hall, Feb. 20. Don't miss it, because it will be the opportunity of your life to see some real acting about real life.

NEW ULM WILL MEET NORTH HIGH AND SHERBURN.

orable recognition from the larger schools of the state. New Ulm holds a record in debate that is unparalleled in high school debating circles.

Will Meet Sherburn for Dist. Champ.

Arrangements are under way for the coming debate with Sherburn. This debate will determine the district championship and the ownership of the district silver trophy. It is not known at this time as to what date the debate will be held, but it will be held at Sherburn and New Ulm will again uphold the affirmative. Roland Hohn, first speaker on our team, has developed into a very forceful and quick-witted debater, while Alice Meile, our second speaker, through her pleasing personality and her effective delivery has helped us win the judges' decisions. Hilda Steinmetz, a star debater of last year's team, is performing even more brilliantly than last year and in every debate she has received the unqualified praise of judges and audience. With such a capable combination New Ulm high school students can rest assured that their team will bring home the bacon.

Every student should take a deep interest in what their debating team is doing, for New Ulm debating teams have put this school and town on the map. We have received more favorable publicity through our debating efforts here in New Ulm than through any other medium. Such a commendable record is certainly worthy of the support of every student and business man of this city.
