94 IS MEDIAN IN ENGLISH CONTEST

The third and last Minimum Requirement test was taken last Tuesday. New Ulm has entered the contest with the hopes of receiving the reward offered to the school, which will have the highest median. In the first test, New Ulm did very well, for we tied with four other schools for first place. This first test was taken at the beginning of the school year and Helen Hage received the highest mark in the school, which was 98. In the second test, which was taken in the middle of the year, New Ulm ranked ninth in the state. The highest papers were those of Gertrude Eichten, Margaret Schmid, and Margaret Eichten, each of whom had perfect papers.

Eight Perfect Papers.

In the last test, of the eight who had perfect papers, there were two from each class. Margaret Schmid is the only one in the school who has had two perfect papers. The median for the school in the last test was 94, which is somewhat higher than before. The average is 92 and 98 was the most common score. The Seniors and Sophomores tied for first place with a median of 95. The Juniors and Freshmen tied with a median of 92. The classes are ranked as follows: Seniors, first place, 100—Della Pfeiffer and Francis Schiefert; second place, 99, Alice Meile, Hazel Erickson, Charlotte Bockus, Marie Volz and Nona Dorn; third place, 98, Hilda Steinmetz, Catherine Poynter, Leona Werdan and Florence Hartl; fourth place, 97, Anna Zeise, Adeline Ritschel, Gladys Wagner, Luella Loesch, Marion Reineke, Viola Block and Edna Borchert.

Juniors, first place, 100, Margaret Schmid and Verna Marie Miller; second place, 99, Hazel Heim, Eleanor Neemann; third place, 98, Elsie Miller and Margaret Eichten; fourth, 97, Milton Chambard, Fred Lippman, Henry Somsen and Lola Runck.

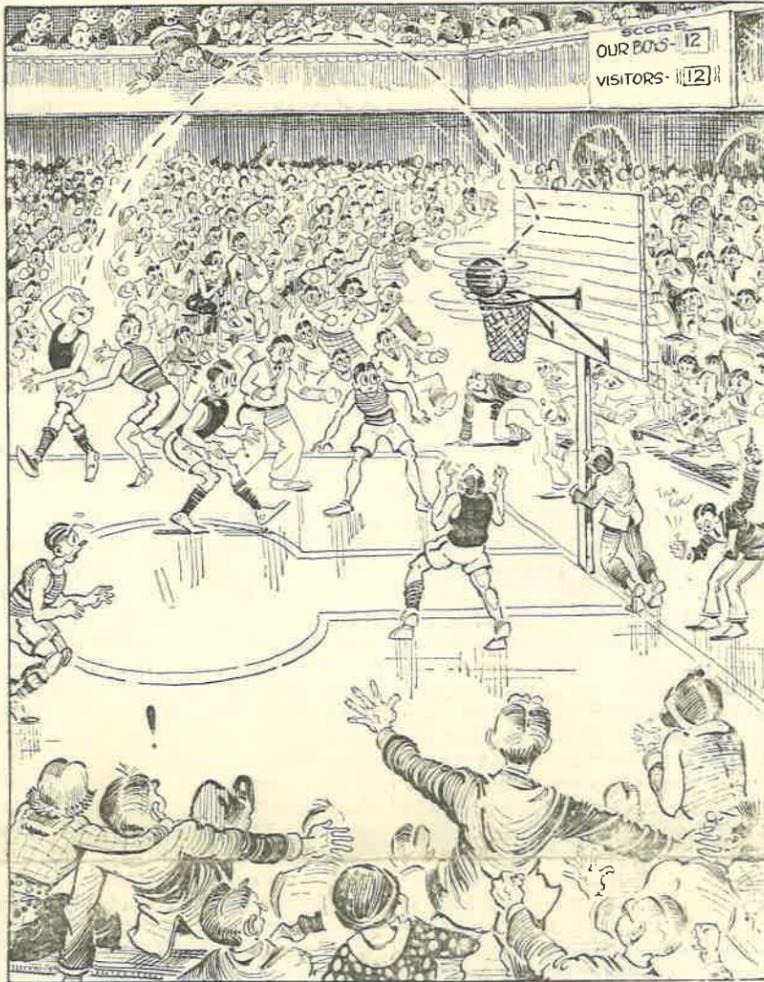

Sophomores, first place, 100, Hertha Marks and Lydia Pufahl; second place, 99, Louise Hamann, Helen Hage and Theodore Bieraugel; third place, 98, Irene Stephen, Loraine Spaeth, Evelyn Schneider, Roger Schmid, Loretta Hoffmann, Myra Gag, Walter Vercoe, Sylvia Eyrich, Dorothy Engelbert, Ruth Dirks; fourth place, 97, Anna Sperl, Bessie Ristau and Lavera Schroer.

Freshmen, first place, 100, Louise Eyrich and Marcella Bauman; second place, 99, Lottie Hesse and Valeria Lamecker; third place, 98, Alice Bierbaum, Gertrude Eichten, Rose Dauer, Viola Tepe and Isla Lindmeyer; fourth place, 96, Melvin Oswald, Clarence Prom, Olive Harbo and Max Miklas.

New Ulm has a very good chance of winning first place in the state, thanks to Mrs. Stewart and Miss Lohren, who so faithfully trained the pupils in correct English.

When Seconds Seem Like Weeks!

Gaylord Wins District B. B. Championship; N. U. a Close Second

The plucky Lavender and White Basket ball squad stayed to the finals in the district tournament and were vanquished only after a hard-fought battle. Friday afternoon the Gaylord team overran Fairfax with a 30-5 total. The crowd witnessed a fine game when Morton won from the speedy Nicollet team in a close fought fracas, ending 17-12. Friday evening, Sleepy Eye snowed Winthrop under with a 21-7 tally. New Ulm proved superior to Arlington by a score of 27-17. Saturday afternoon the Gaylord and Morton teams met and Morton lost 23-14. Gaylord made a number of long, clean shots. The proverbial rivals, New Ulm and Sleepy Eye, then met. This was the most exciting game of the tournament. New Ulm led the first half 9-8, after a "milling" battle. At the end of the third quarter Sleepy Eye led by a 14-9 score. New Ulm's remarkable playing in the final quarter brought down the crowd. Elmer Tomschin excelled at guard. The New Ulm team's work was a credit to our high school and to our coach. The Hegstrom quint played hard and played well. They overcame the Sleepy lead of 5 points and the game ended amid hoarse cheering with a 21-18 score in favor of New Ulm. Sleepy Eye had met its superior.

Evening Program Changed.

The capable referee and umpire, Carl Adams of St. Cloud and F. B. Anderson of St. Paul then announced that Sleepy Eye and Morton were to play for third and fourth places at 8:00, being the losers. The championship game was to take place at 9:00. The umpire and referee are to be commended upon for their impartiality, fair play and ability. On the whole, it may be said that every team, including Morton, Fairfax, Nicollet, Arlington, Winthrop, Sleepy Eye and Gaylord showed fairness and fine spirit throughout the elimination contests. New Ulm certainly holds no grudge against any one of these.

New Ulm Wins Over Arlington.

New Ulm opened the scoring end. Capt. Schaefer looped the leather first, followed by Al Niemann. Arlington fouled and Tomschin made the free throw. Wieman made a goal for Arlington and followed with another. New Ulm then led 5-4. Al Niemann made a ringer.

N. U. WINS 1ST AND 2ND DECLAMATORY CONTEST

The sub-district declamatory contest was held Friday evening, February 27, 1925, in the New Ulm high school auditorium. The dramatic section was as follows: "The Lost Word," Hazel Erickson, New Ulm; "The Reconsidered Verdict," Agatha Reichert, Arlington; "Mary Elizabeth," Helen Haugen, Hanska; "Strongheart," Marion Rothenburg, Springfield; "Connor," Mildred Renner, Comfrey.

The oratorical section was as follows: "The Master Patriot," Alden Sheffield, Springfield; "Americanism," Oscar Miller, Hanska; "The Union Soldier," Roland Hohn, New Ulm.

While the judges prepared their decisions the audience was favored with music by the Girls' Glee club.

The judges were as follows: Professor G. Petterson, Mankato Teachers' College; Supt. A. J. Olson, Kasota; Supt. E. H. Engelbart, Nicollet.

Their decision was as follows: Dramatic Section—1. Marion Rothenburg, Springfield; 2. Hazel Erickson, New Ulm; 3. Helen Haugen, Hanska. Oratorical Section—1. Roland Hohn, New Ulm; 2. Alden Sheffield, Springfield; 3. Oscar Miller, Hanska.

The winners of this will go to the district contest and the winners of the district contest will go to the state contest.

NEW ULM DEFEATED BY SHERBURN IN DISTRICT DEBATE.

In the district championship debate, held Monday evening, February 23, 1925, between New Ulm and Sherburn at Sherburn, New Ulm was defeated by a 2-1 vote. The Sherburn team was composed of Marlin Packard, Cecelia Therbold and Monica Eisenmeyer and was coached by Evan Eliassen. The New Ulm team consisted of Roland Hohn, Alice Meile and Hilda Steinmetz, with R. J. Stewart as coach. Sherburn upheld the negative of the question, which was, "Resolved, That the U. S. Should Accept the Covenant of the League of Nations as It Existed July 1, 1924," and the New Ulm team upheld the affirmative.

Decision of Judges.

Although the decision was 2-1 in favor of the negative, the debate was so close that the decision might have gone either way. The judges for the debate were as follows: Supt. Dunbar of Lakefield, Minn.; Principal Gibson of Estherville, Iowa; Principal Miller of St. James, Minn.

Credible Record of Team.

Our local team has won four out of six debates. The record of the team for this year is as follows: Defeated Mankato, 3-0; lost to Minneapolis Central High, 1-0 (one-man judge); defeated Wells, 2-1; defeated Tyler, 3-0; defeated Minneapolis North High, 2-1; lost to Sherburn, 2-1.

The team and coach have worked hard since the first of November and have won several honors for the

WHY CHEAT?

Yield not to cheating, for cheating harms no one but yourself. Sooner or later, the startling truth will dawn upon you that you have lost much and gained nothing but a stigma upon your reputation, which can not be removed except by the greatest effort and will power.

Perhaps you think that you are succeeding in the practice of letting others work your problems or by copying during an examination. Some day you will be put to a test in which no help is available, but that of your own individual knowledge. By cheating during your school days, you have shirked your duty, and you have let many practical things pass unlearned, and in this way, you have made yourself unworthy and unqualified for any honest position.

This world is calling for young men and women who are not relying on the ambition or initiative of others. To those who are facing school life honestly, sincerely, and squarely, success and rich rewards that go with education are assured. Rather go home with "D's" on your report card than exhibit the work and patient study of those upon which your ill practices have fallen.

If you do not cheat, discourage that practice in others. There is no other trait of character that is so humiliating to others who have held the greatest respect and admiration for you. It is a great disappointment to discover that your trusted friend has cheated. Refrain from that shameful practise—if not for yourself, then for others.

N. U. "LISTENS IN."

Wednesday a novel assembly program was enjoyed, both by the high school and the pupils of the seventh and eighth grades. A radio receiving set had been installed the night before, and we were enabled to listen to an account of the inaugural ceremonies at Washington, and President Coolidge's address. We also heard the new organ in the State Theater in Minneapolis and a number of musical selections rendered by the U. S. Marine band.

The words of Chief Justice Taft, administering the oath of office, we understood very well, but we were not so fortunate in hearing the inaugural speech. Later on, however, when most of the listeners had succumbed to the pangs of hunger, and departed to their various homes, the words of the president became very distinct, and those who remained were well rewarded for postponing their dinner hour.

We are much indebted to the Ulrich Electric Company for the use of their Atwater-Kent radio and also to Mr. Frank Niemann and those who assisted him, namely, Mr. Dirks and Charles Niemann, for installing the apparatus by which we heard this thoroughly enjoyable program.

The previous Friday we also had an unusual assembly. The period was devoted entirely to music. Mrs. Olson gave us a lesson on musical appreciation and started a musical contest. She played "Taps," "Nearer My God to Thee," and "To a Wild Rose," for us telling us by whom they were written. By the end of the year she will have given us twenty selections like this and then she will give us a test to see if we will be able to recognize each selection when we hear it and be able to associate the composer with the selection. Forty minutes spent in this manner is very interesting, as well as educational.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CLUB.

The Public Speaking club held its fifth meeting Tuesday evening. Roll call was taken and the members answered by giving their favorite outside activity. They decided that they would sell ice cream bars at the tournament Friday, and that Francis Schiefert be in charge of selling. The Stunt Program was discussed, and the date was set for March 20th, and motion was carried that Mr. Stewart be left in charge of it. The business meeting then adjourned. The program consisted of some good jokes given by Orval Fenske, several selections on the ukelele by Carl Thies, including his masterpiece, "The Spanish Rosary." After this a debate followed, which was judged by Mr. Harry Dirks. The question for debate was, "Resolved, that woman is superior to man." Edna Pollei upheld the affirmative and Fred Lippman the negative. The vote was cast for the affirmative. The meeting then adjourned.

DRAMATIC CLUB.

The F. S. Dramatic club held a meeting last Wednesday. Roll call was taken by the secretary, Walter Vercoe, the members answering by giving the name of a favorite novel and its author. This was followed by two piano solos by Miss Lohren. The minutes of the last meeting were then read by the secretary. Coaches were elected for the two short plays to be given at the next meeting. The coaches elected were Isla Lindmeyer and Marie Brandt. After the business meeting Helen Hage gave a talk on the "Staging of Julius Caesar." A play, coached by Sylvia Eyrich, was the next number on the program. It was entitled, "Troubles by Mail."

D. O. T. MEETING.

Roll call was taken, the members answering by giving a quotation from Kipling. "The Life of Kipling" was then given by Winnifred Schweppe. This was followed by a piano solo by Ione Schroeder. The next number was a talk on "The Works of Kipling" by Verna M. Miller. Then came Verval Mueller's "Original Story," which was enjoyed by all. The last number was a stunt by Madame Tom Thumb. Then the critic's report by Miss Fritsche. The D. O. T. song was then learned and the rest of the evening spent in singing other songs. The meeting then adjourned.

Did you hear that bobbed hair was going out of style? Well, that was a false report, because Helen Hintz, Adeline Ritschel and Miss Reager had their beautiful tresses shorn. Isn't that sufficient proof that it is not?

The Lavender and White basket ball five, coached by Mr. Hegstrom, of New Ulm high school, defeated the fast Dr. Martin Luther College team last Monday night by a 21-18 score, in a close game.

CLASS NOTES

SENIOR NOTES.

Roland Hohn won first place in the oratorical contest held here last Friday. Hazel Erickson won second in declamatory, having 3 per cent less than the Springfield contestant, but tying with her in rank.

We are all glad to see Francis Hartl well and back to school again. Here's hoping there will be no more appendicitis attacks in the chemistry class.

The Home Economics II. class was at Saffert's Meat Market one day last week to learn the cuts of meat.

The Seniors have one more set of six weeks' exams to take. What a relief.

Adeline Ritschel was added to the ranks of the "bobbies."

JUNIOR NOTES.

Agnes Schueller, who has been sick for a long time, is back in school again. We are all very glad to see you back, Agnes, for we've missed you and your giggling very much.

The Physics classes are studying the principles of the telephone. Warren J. made a visit to the telephone office to find out whether our city uses the central or local batteries.

Fred Lippman was absent from school for a week on account of an operation on his foot.

SOPHOMORE NOTES.

The Sophomores again showed their superiority by obtaining a median of 95, tying with the Seniors and higher than the Juniors and the Freshmen, in the final Minimum Essential English contest. Hertha Marks and Lydia Pufahl scored 100, while Helen Hage, Louise Hamann and Theodore Bieraugel got 99. Eleven others received a score of 98.

English II. classes are now reading Coleridge's "The Rhyme of the Ancient Mariner."

FRESHMAN NOTES.

The Freshmen did splendidly in the final state Minimum Essentials contest, their median being 92. Louise Eyrich and Marcella Baumann received 100. Lottie Hesse and Valeria Lamecker scored 99.

The Freshmen turned out splendidly at the dance last Saturday.

Last Wednesday morning we had a pleasant surprise awaiting us when we came to school. The last and final minimum essential test was given. We passed to our second period classes and then returned to assembly to listen to the inaugural ceremonies at Washington, D. C. Of course you can guess that we heard them over the radio.

Mrs. A. A. Passer of the Minnesota Federation of Women's clubs, sent a number of pictures to the high school. This organization has offered prizes for the best essays on "The Picture I Like Best and Why." Any high school student is eligible to enter the contest. The essays are to be from 200 to 500 words in length.

The fast New Ulm team journeyed to St. Peter to practice on the Gustavus Adolphus floor and defeated Kasota decisively in one-half of a practice game. The Lavender and White was defeated by the first string men for the coming state college championship of Gustavus.

The pistol's crack announced the half over. New Ulm ahead, 14-8.

Second Half.

In the third quarter, Sleepy Eye gained what seemed to be a hopeless lead over us. Amann makes field goal. Toot misses long. Wilhite makes field goal. Wilhite makes two more points for Sleepy Eye. (Score 14-9). Toot makes a long (14-11) and Arbes puts in extra lengthy field goal (14-13). The crowd went wild with Hamann's winning goal, which tallied New Ulm in the lead (15-14). Arbes put in a long (17-14). Schaefer fouled and Weicherding makes point (17-15). Schaefer tallies (19-14). Al fouls and Dangers makes it 19-15. Schaefer scores again (21-15). Weicherding made basket (21-18). (P. S. —Slight mistake in our scoring, eh?) The game ended with New Ulm victorious over their ancient rival.

GAYLORD GAME.

Although our boys were somewhat tired after the afternoon "melee," they entered the evening game with pep and determination. They fought loyally for old New Ulm. Although tired out from a game the night before and an especially strenuous one that afternoon, they won from Sleepy Eye only by a gruelling tearing battle.

Waterston and Keckeisen opened the game with Hamann, Niemann and Tomschin. Keckeisen fouled and Hyzer misses both shots. Tomschin misses long. Corcoran makes free throw on New Ulm foul. (Arbes and Schaefer in.) Corcoran makes field goal. Can Hamann fouled and Hyzer missed. Al opens New Ulm with ringer. Quarter ends 4-2, favor of Gaylord after hot battle. Al fouls and Tindall completes shot. Corcoran makes field goal. Chambard fouls and Schaefer succeeds in making both tries. (Hyzer of Gaylord was unfortunately laid out by an accident. He was injured quite severely about the mouth, much to our sorrow. No. 1 in for Hyzer.) Foul on Chambard and Toot misses. Corcoran makes field goal. Half completed, 9-4 in Gaylord favor.

Second Half.

Schaefer fouls, Corcoran makes point. No. 1 makes field goal. Niemann secures score (12-6). Al fouls, No. 1 makes shot. Arbes gets field goal for tally of 13-8 at end of third quarter.

Final Period.

Chambard makes field goal. Al fouls, No. 1 makes one out of two. (Score, Gaylord 16-8). Schaefer tallies (16-10). Chambard fouls and Toot makes one of two (16-11). Foul on Chambard and Toot misses both. Chambard had 4 personal fouls and Hyzer replaced him. The game ended 16-11 with New Ulm on the lesser side. Both Gaylord and New Ulm played well.

Capt. Schaefer of New Ulm was surely justified in being placed as captain and center. Tomschin earned his position at guard by a large margin. Good Thunder deserved his place. In Wilhite and Weicherding we find two exceptional players who tied as forwards. Young Corcoran is a splendid player. Nicollet placed one, Gaylord two, Arlington one, and Winthrop one on the second team.

The attendance of New Ulm high school students was average—and only average. The team had had, and still has the loyal backing of every red blooded, spirited, American youth in N. U. H. S. Through this medium I feel sure that they gladly and gratefully extend their congratulations to the team and Coach Hegstrom, who has acted so well the role of mentor. The 1925 Red Flashes constitute a team to be proud of.

school. That the team was good can be seen by the fact that it was challenged to debates by Central High and North High of Minneapolis.

LOCALS.

Do you realize that there are only three more months of school left, or, in other words, just exactly two more six weeks' periods? There are also other evidences of the approaching end of the school year, for example: the advent of spring; the preparations for the state examinations; and the publication of the names of the graduating class.

The English III. classes are preparing their thousand-word-themes this week. Don't you Sophomores and Freshmen envy them? But then it doesn't matter because they have written an equally long report on a novel they have read and an essay on one of the pictures that were posted in the upper hall.

The girls of the Glee club were certainly surprised last Thursday, when they found that they were to sing in assembly the next morning. On account of the short notice, they did not have a special program arranged. They also sang at the District Declamatory contest on Friday evening.

Miss Fritsche left for Chicago last Friday afternoon and returned on Monday. Miss Marguerite Vogel substituted for Miss Fritsche during her absence.

The Home Economics classes were visited by a club worker last week. She endeavored to interest them in the various phases of club work.
