NEW ULM UNDEFEATED IN THREE CONTESTS

MANKATO SUCCUMBS 23 TO 16.

Mankato surely must have a greater respect for a basket ball team coming from New Ulm High School, after their defeat Saturday night by our team. Mankato had a fast and experienced team, and the players were taller than ours. Our team again had a good offense and we started out with a rush and led by 6 points by the end of the first quarter. In the second quarter Mankato slowly gained and by the end of the half the score was 11 to 14 in our favor.

The team was well rested after the half and they went into the game with more fight than ever. They formed a better defense and Mankato had very few chances to score. Our team kept up their fast offense and kept scoring and always were out of the reach of Mankato.

The scoring was divided equally, except for Capt. Blauert, who was very unlucky and could not drop in a basket.

Bentzin made 3 baskets, Hamann, 3; Schoch, 2; Schroepfel, 1. Schneider played a very good game at guard.

The rooters of New Ulm made themselves known and they sure deserve credit for supporting our team. The team surely does appreciate their support.

The coach is well pleased with the showing the boys are making, not because they win, but because they play in such a way that they can score and hence win their games.

TO AWARD ESSAY CONTEST MEDAL

LINCOLN ESSAY CONTEST

The object of this contest is to stimulate greater interest in Abraham Lincoln, to encourage the study of his life and character. Anyone in this high school may participate. Here's an opportunity for every one of you to display your ability in English.

MEDAL TO BE AWARDED.

This medal is made of the finest solid government bronze. It is three inches in diameter and three-eighths inch in thickness. The head of Lincoln on this medal is a copy of Mr. Douglas Volk's noted painting, "Abraham Lincoln." This portrait is considered to be the most life-like resemblance of the president.

The Illinois Watch Company of Springfield, Illinois, are the donors of the medal. Any pupil winning the medallion can have his name engraved on the back of it. The medal to be awarded is on display at Schleuders. This contest is a nation-wide competition and can be truthfully considered one of the most patriotic and beneficial contests for high school pupils.

ART EXHIBIT GIVEN BY SCHOOL

PROCEEDS GO TO PICTURE FUND

An art exhibit of Fine Art Prints will be held in the High School Mechanical Drawing room, Wednesday and Thursday of this week, January 12th and 13th, from 3:30 to 5:00 p. m. The exhibit is being loaned the school free of charge for the benefit of the School's Picture fund, and it is planned to obtain a number of pictures for the different rooms.

This exhibit embraces reproductions of recognized art treasures of the world and they possess a charm that appeals to all. It contains more than 150 fine reproductions of the world's famous masterpieces of art. The reproductions are of the finest types produced, showing the original colors and strokes of the brush, as they are produced by special new processes.

Among the famous paintings represented are such subjects as:

"Mona Lisa," by Da Vinci, the original in the Louvre, Paris, is said to be valued at $5,000,000.00;

"The Song of the Lark," by Jules Breton, original in the Art Institute, Chicago;

"Hope," by George Frederick Watts, in Tate Gallery, London;

"The Pot of Basil," by John W. Alexander, in Boston Public Museum; and many others.

Today and Tomorrow

This exhibit will be open to the public on Wednesday and Thursday of this week in the Mechanical Drawing room of the High School building. It will be a treat and an opportunity, as it is not often that one is able to see such pictures without making special trips to museums and other places for this purpose.

The exhibit is being held under the auspices of the High School, and all proceeds will be used to obtain pictures for the public schools. A small charge of admission (10c) is being made.

Prizes Offered

One large $10.00 picture will be given the class or building selling the most tickets, provided the total fund raised is $80.00 or more. The success of the exhibit depends on the

FORMER INSTRUCTOR TALKS TO STUDENTS

Our first assembly after vacation surely revealed the love of the true spirit in the student body. The program was started by two solos, "The Dream of Love" and "If I Were a Bird" by Rhea Mullin. This was followed by a talk by Miss Fritsche. She gave as her subject the Montgomery-Ward & Co. of Chicago, where she is employed.

The students, thinking of the Winthrop game, and also of the Mankato game, were suddenly aroused by the jokes Miss Fritsche gave, and became peppy. Joe and Fat led the cheers. They gave the Freshmen special coaching lessons, so that they could get more force behind the yelling.

It was hard to get back to the regular routine of study after this period of laughter and fun, because it is so seldom that we have such a peppy assembly period.

ALUMNI WIN GAME

GIRLS DEFEATED IN CONTEST. FRIDAY ASSEMBLY.

A large number of girls turned out for the first basket ball practice, Wednesday night. Almost all of the old players are back again with many new recruits added to the force. A team was chosen to play the alumni Friday night.

Louise Esser is the captain. The alumni chose "Slats" as their captain to lead them to victory. The following have reported: Louise Esser, Myra

GAYLORD VS. NEW ULM.

The Gaylord-New Ulm game of this year was almost a duplicate of last year's. New Ulm did not use one substitute, while Gaylord used several. Gaylord lost by a very close score both years. In each game there was a pronounced amount of hard fighting.

The score was close throughout the game. The score at the end of each quarter was: 5 to 5 the first quarter, 7 to 10 in New Ulm's favor at the half, 15 to 18 in favor of New Ulm at the end of the third quarter. The game ended with New Ulm only three points in the lead, 25 to 22.

N. U. BEATS WINTHROP.

The New Ulm squad played up to a high standard Friday night when they played their first home game. The New Ulm players flashed on the floor, before the game started, in new red and white sweat jerseys.

New Ulm started an offense which held up throughout the first half. Winthrop did not make a basket before the second half. The visitors were completely out-classed, and after New Ulm had made its first few baskets, Winthrop never had a chance to overcome the lead. New Ulm players could not be covered, they were all over the floor. The defense of the New Ulm quint was almost perfect, Winthrop never coming near the basket until after the half.

The second team started in the second half but it took practically the whole half for the second team to get started. When they did get going they dropped in two baskets in perfect style.

In the last three minutes the first team again took the floor, but the time was too short to score and the game ended with the score 41 to 12 in favor of New Ulm.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 12, 1927.

BEGIN ANEW

Every time January first comes around, people begin to tell each other to "begin anew," but as most of us know too well, it is a waste of words. For custom's sake, however, we keep on telling each other with the unfailing though a trifle faint, hope that some day our advice will inspire the other person to "turn over a new leaf." Most of us make New Year's resolutions that we never keep; others don't make any because we know we won't keep them. One is as bad as the other, because in our hearts we all know we could keep our resolutions if we tried.

A New Year's resolution is like every other project; nothing can be made of it without effort. It means sacrifice, usually a very painful sacrifice, because it is those faults which are the hardest to break that we arm ourselves against with New Year's resolutions. Looking over the year's achievements at its end, it is a very encouraging feeling to know we have kept our resolutions through thick and thin. It is a feeling of pride and of victory because it shows that we are beginning to be our own masters and not the hopeless victims of every weakness. "It's never too late to begin." "Wherever there's life there's hope."

CAMP FIRE GIRLS.

The Camp Fire girls held their regular business meeting at "Biggie's," December 28. Some of the girls came with the intention of sewing bags for the children of India, but as so many of them had another engagement at 9 o'clock, it was decided to have a meeting the next afternoon.

They did this and had a very enjoyable time for there was a box of chocolates and a basket of apples waiting for them.

The Street.

If you are well brought up, girls, you will not loiter on the street and talk to one another; much less to boys. Street visiting is taboo.

Boys, a gentleman does not detain on street corners a girl or woman friend. If he meets one with whom he wishes to speak more than a moment, he asks permission to walk a little way with her. During the moment that he does detain her, a gentleman talks with his hat in his hand.

You know that a boy should lift his hat or cap in recognition of a girl or woman acquaintance whom he meets on the street. But perhaps you don't know that the same courtesy may well be offered to a man, and must be, if the man is walking with a girl or a woman.

The chewing of gum in a street car, in church, or in any other place outside of your own private room, stamps you at once as "common."

The Assembly Hall.

Actions wholly appropriate to the gymnasium or the play ground may be out of character in the Assembly Hall. Think about it.

Never in the Assembly Hall or in any other place where there is a large group of people, should you stand and beckon, whistle, or "hoo-hoo," and attract the attention of your friends.

If you enter the Assembly Hall after the program has begun, find a seat so noiselessly as to escape notice.

Show your appreciation cordially, but avoid excessive applause. Never stamp your feet or whistle. Carried beyond a certain point, applause ceases to be a courtesy. Cultivate good taste in this matter. Moderation is a mark of good taste.

H. S. CHRISTMAS PROGRAM.

The High School Christmas program was held December 17, the last day of school.

The program was made up of special acts by members of each class.

The first number was presented by the Sophomores. Alice Bong, accompanied by Imelda Ochs, gave several vocal selections, assisted by a chorus, consisting of Irene Puhmann, Ruth Kretsch, Lillian Huelskamp, and Charlotte Miller.

The Juniors next presented a comic sketch about Mother Goose's children on Christmas Eve. The cast consisted of:

The Old Woman in the Shoe .....
.....Magdalene Andreen
Jack-Be-Nimble .....James Beecher
Little Jack Horner ...Charles Veeck
Little Bo Peep .....Louise Eyrich
Boy Blue .....Stanley Simons
Little Miss Muffet .Winifred Hummel
Queen of Hearts.....Isla Lindmeyer
Santa .....Himself

Members of the faculty were called upon to decide which class gave the better number. The Juniors won the decision, and therefore, received a stocking full of toys.

This was followed by the Seniors'

Santa, who delivered gifts to all of the teachers, and also distributed kisses (not the true kind), to all of the Freshmen.

HURRY UP!!

ON SWEATERS.

I never thought that much could be said about such a common article as a sweater, until the football "wows" made their boisterous appearance. Now I'm sure I could write a book about them,—if I didn't get color blind in making my observations. When I saw the first fellow wearing one, I thought he was going to a masquerade. When he said it was his football sweater, I thanked myself for never taking part in that activity.

I don't blame the boys for using the alley routes in coming to school, or for wearing several extra mufflers.

The color cannot be described in words. It seems to be a cross between purple and blue. Someone said that Mr. Stover ordered sky-blue sweaters. Evidently the order reached the manufacturing company on a rainy day. He should have ordered powder blue. But then, they might have thought he meant gunpowder, and matters would have been almost as bad.

It is, indeed, puzzling to me why the state doesn't use this color of clothing for convicts in prison. It would drown out all their singing and other noises. Furthermore, they would have absolutely no chance of escaping, as they could be seen twenty miles away, and heard for for thirty. Deaf and blind policemen could be used as well as others.

It looks to me as if the sweater manufacturer was short on dyes and simply used washbluing instead. If this is the case, "It will all come out in the wash," as the old saying goes.

CLASS CRIMES

SENIOR NOTES.

The following have been written by several of the Seniors:

Some of the Seniors evidently hadn't had enough vacation. Monday and Tuesday found them absent, this fact proving that two more days satisfied them.

Just a few more months and the other classmen will regret having to lose the valiant old Seniors; and believe me, the Seniors won't be so happy to go! Freshmen and Sophomores, take a warning—use your time advantageously while you have the opportunity, for you will not regret it when you graduate and enter into this wide, wide world. (This is by a Senior who has had experience.)

From the way Henry Herrian reports, Santa Claus was very generous to him; and what Howard Roeder says, his vacation days were extremely violent!?!?

The first day of school was certainly "Blue Monday" when the football sweaters made their sudden appearance.

"Sandy Claus" was good to us!!! (This by all the Seniors.) But why shouldn't he have been??

—Be at the Armory, Friday Night—

SOPHOMORE NOTES.

Isn't it a perfect shame that vacation has ended and that another two weeks' vacation is nearly four months away?

Oh! The Siegel Trophy Cup! Last year the Seniors got the cup, but this year just watch our Sophs.

We move that there shouldn't be any six week's tests to bother a person when he is still dreaming of Santa Claus.

FRESHMAN NOTES.

Many of the Freshies seem to be affected with the fever of opening and closing windows. Does this happen every year, or is it original?

The girls of the Home Economics class have been taking turns at serving lunches to the teachers. I wouldn't be surprised if everyone would get a holiday one of these days.

Miss Esperson was in the habit of having pupils, who whispered, stay after school and write poetry. The results were astounding. I suppose that is why she has sworn off that method of punishment.

SUCCESS.

I.

It seems so queer to have at school
A guard at every turn;
A place where freedom should exist,
A place to go to learn.

II.

All we need is bars and locks,
And clothes striped black and white;
Then we'll be classed as criminals,
Who kill and thief at night.

III.

Tis' wrong that we should suffer thus,
For wrongs done by a few;
Our leaders must forget the fact,
That they were young once too.

IV.

Just one little ounce of kindness,
Is worth a ton of wrath;
And if you lead, instead of drive,
You'll take us o'er a smoother path.

V.

The pathway leading to success
Is one that's hard to find,
That is why we must be led,
Or we'll remain behind.
