

N. U. WINS DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP

PEP FESTS ARE BIG SUCCESSES

Instead of having our assembly program Friday, Mr. Dirks told us Thursday noon that we would have it that afternoon, so we would skip sixth period. This accounted for the unpreparedness of some pupils. The program opened with a skit, given by Mrs. Schoch and Mrs. Blauert, "Over the Back Fence." Everybody enjoyed it. This was followed by a very interesting speech by a former principal, Mr. Stewart. Then Mr. Andreen gave a speech. Both of these talks were on the tournament and what we hoped to accomplish in it. (The boys certainly did what we wanted). These were followed by songs, which were ably led by Miss Yaeger, and yells, led by "Fat." The students responded to the need for pep and yelled and sang accordingly. Miss Yaeger asked the faculty to sing a number, but they refused. Only after a lot of coaxing, a quartette, consisting of Mr. Dirks, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Camp, and Mr. Cunningham, sang a song. Considering the fact that they did not have books, they did it very well. The program closed with some more yells and songs.

Friday, to our great surprise, after a great deal of agitation for a half holiday, by a number of Juniors and some other classmen, we had another assembly. This was practically a duplicate of Thursday's. This time, Miss Kearns was asked to talk, but she somehow mysteriously vanished and nobody seemed to be able to find her. The program closed with songs and yells for the team.

SUPPORT THE TEAM!

Come on, gang, let's support the team. It puts a fighting spirit in them if they hear us yell for them, or if they know we are behind them. Let's all sacrifice a new dress or new shoes just so we can go to Tracy.

Just think, if we win there, we will go to Minneapolis. Our team needs our support. Let's show Tracy and the others what New Ulm can do. Come on, gang, let's go!

Reserve a place on the special train, leaving New Ulm Friday morning. Rates $2.21, round trip.

Visitor: "If your mother gave you a large apple and a small one, and told you to divide with your brother, which apple would you give him?"

Inez: "D'ye mean my big brother or my little one?"

John M.: "May I have the next dance?"

Rhea M.: "Yes, if you can find a partner."

DEFEATS LAST YEAR'S CHAMPS 32-14 ELIMINATES SLEEPY EYE, MORTON AND SPRINGFIELD BY OVERWHELMING SCORES

The New Ulm High School basketball team won the championship of the twentieth district by swamping all competition, and will enter the regional tournament at Tracy this Friday.

Fairfax-Gaylord Open Tournament.

In the first game of the tournament Gaylord defeated Fairfax 29-12. Wallin, star center of the Gaylord quint, starred in this game. In the next elimination contest, Redwood Falls easily defeated Lambertton 30-8, and prior to the New Ulm-Sleepy Eye game, the highly touted Morton team defeated Winthrop 17-5. This game was marred by the hard luck the Winthrop boys had in their shooting. Had they connected with one-half of their shots, the score might have been different.

Sleepy Eye First Victim.

All these games seemed to be more or less preliminaries when once the New Ulm and Sleepy Eye teams took the floor. The entire crowd went wild when the game started, and all that they saw was Sleepy Eye defeated as they never were before. From whistle to whistle they didn't have a smell of a chance. The New Ulm team worked wonderfully and seldom missed a shot. The score at the end of the third quarter was 33-3 in New Ulm's favor. All the subs were used in the last quarter and they outscored Sleepy Eye. Their game ended 37-8. Fritz Bentzin starred with sixteen points, while Blauert collected ten, Hamann six and Schoch four. The guarding of Esser featured. The starting lineup was as follows: Blauert, RF; Bentzin, LF; Hamann, C; Schoch, RG; Esser, LG. Subs were: Fritzsche for Blauert, Schroepfel for Bentzin, Schneider for Esser.

Semi-Finals Draw Huge Crowd.

The second day of the tournament drew the largest crowd. This was due mainly to the New Ulm-Morton game, or in other words the game of all games, as was expected.

In the first game of the semi-finals, the smooth-working Gaylord machine, upset the dope and defeated Redwood Falls 21-12 in a hard-fought game. But, nevertheless, the fans were looking ahead for something else, and much to their joy, New Ulm and Morton pranced on the floor. The Morton quint was well supported by their home town, and this, combined with the several hundred New Ulm rooters, sure made the old Armory shake, which was very evident by the performance of some of our "bleachers."

Hamann Makes Nice Shot.

Hamann gave New Ulm an early lead by sinking a long one, but Morton soon tied the score by caging two gift shots, and led New Ulm for a few minutes, 4-2, while their highly recommended "Don" Castle caged one. But field goals by Bill and Jack gave New Ulm a 6-4 lead at the quarter. The lead see-sawed during the first half and New Ulm was leading 14-13 at the half, due largely to the splendid work of our "all district" guard, Melvin Esser, who not only stopped and busted up one Morton play after another, but also caged two field goals.

Morton Outclassed in Second Half.

The second half spelled defeat for the Morton boys, and they were absolutely bewildered throughout. Their favorite Castle was as helpless as a child before our star guards in this half. Our gang doubled their count in this half, regardless of the fact that they did some very beautiful stalling. Morton collected four points during this period. The final score was 26-17 in favor of New Ulm. Although Castle did not prove to be such a "terror" as was reported, the diminutive forward was the best point getter for Morton and made himself generally useful. The New Ulm team played as a unit, and they proved that a smooth-passing uniform team has it all over a team composed of a few individual stars. Every man played a star game, with Hamann holding the scoring lead with a total of nine points. The same lineup started as in the Sleepy Eye game. Subs were: Schroepfel for Bentzin, Schneider for Esser, Bentzin for Schoch.

That Springfield Game.

After New Ulm had retired the Morton team in a much different way than Morton expected, the Springfield team came on the floor in sort of a desperate manner, upholding the motto of "Do or Die," but how they did follow the latter. In contrast to the Springfield motto, Fritz Bentzin formed one of his own, "a point a minute," for in the first ten minutes he made ten points. Every man scored in this game, and if nothing else, it was a humorous success, the final score being 46-6. The regular lineup started as in the previous games, and all subs were used.

The Finals.

The final game between Gaylord and New Ulm started out in sort of a doubtful manner, with the lead shift-

MR. NO YONG PARK SPEAKS TO STUDENTS

Our assembly program for Friday took place Monday. Mr. Park, a native of Korea, was the principal speaker. He gave an interesting address concerning the present-day situation of Korea, China, and Japan. He mentioned the fact that children in those countries have only on rare occasions an opportunity to go to a school, which could be compared to ours, and that Chinamen of Korea would be very satisfied if they had such a beautiful high school as ours, even in their capital city.

He further told us in detail of their costumes, weddings, and the native languages. Our costumes compared to theirs, he continued, are "short, tight, and upward." He also impressed upon our minds the fact that the faculty consisted of the best looking women he had ever met. Furthermore, we were given an opportunity to learn his native language by the method of demonstration. The word most can remember is "Ohio."

As a conclusion, Mr. Park stressed the importance of favorable relations between the yellow and white races, and the hope and confidence that in this way the Pacific would be the future center of civilization.

RHEA MULLIN, FRANK HECK, GERTRUDE SCHEMAN PLACE IN DISTRICT DECLAMATORY CONTEST.

Springfield sprang a surprise by winning all three places in the sub-district Declamatory meet, held at Springfield, March 1. Alden Sheffield won first place in oratory. His piece, entitled, "Beyond the Ridge," was given in a very presentable manner. Miss Dale Paffrath of Springfield won first in the dramatic section. Her selection was called, "One of Bob's Tramps." Miss Mona Anderson, also of Springfield, won first place in the humorous section. Her piece was entitled "The Orphan Wedding." Rhea Mullin, New Ulm's representative, received second place in the dramatic section. Frank Heck in the oratorical section and Gertrude Scheman in the humorous section each received third place in their respective section.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS MEET.

The Helopache Camp Fire Girls went on an "observation" hike, Saturday afternoon under the leadership of their assistant-guardian, Miss Yaeger. They were supposed to take pictures of trees and other things of nature which were interesting, but the cameras slipped once in a while so they got some pictures of the girls. (They'll probably be entitled "Freaks of Nature"). They all took their lunch down to "Biggie's" and had a wonderful time.

SOME ADVICE.

When you're a Freshman, be green.
Most of them can't help it.
When you're a Sophomore, be brilliant.
Most of them think they are.
When you're a Junior, be y's.
Don't be 2 y's.
When you're a Senior, be dignified.
They always are.

ing from one side to the other. Captain Blauert started the ball rolling by ringnig a pretty one. Gaylord followed, and the quarter ended 2 and 2. At the start of the second quarter Can looped one, just to have Gaylord follow with two more. Again our all district guard, Esser, broke through and connected twice, followed up by Bentzin, who caged a short one. But Gaylord showed their old fight and knotted the count and led 10-12 at the half.

Again in That Second Half.

Jack Schoch, star guard, started the second half by caging three in succession; Bill and Earl followed suit by looping one each and the outcome was not in doubt. With the championship in his mind, Bill went on a private warpath and was not stopped until he had netted three more baskets. Jack sealed the championship by putting a nice one through from the free throw line. The final bell found the last year's champs trailing, 32-14. They collected but two points in the last half and those on free throws. The following men started the victorious game: Blauert, LF; Bentzin, RF; Hamann, C; Schoch, RG; Esser, LG. Subs: Schroepel for Schoch, Schneider for Esser, Schoch for Bentzin.

Field goals: Blauert, 5; Schoch, 4; Esser, 2; Hamann, 2; Bentzin, 2; Schroepel, 1.

New Ulm Receives Silver Cup.

After the game a large silver basket ball was awarded to New Ulm for winning the championship, and a smaller one was awarded to Gaylord for second place. Redwood Falls received the sportsmanship cup.

New Ulm Places Two Men on All District Team.

After the cups were awarded, the all district team was chosen, of which Bentzin was placed on as right forward and Esser, standing guard. The other members were Wallin, of Gaylord, who was chosen as center and captain, Peterson of Redwood Falls as left forward, and Castle of Morton as running guard.

In an exhibition game, the All Stars played the remainder of the championship New Ulm team, and, oh, boy! what a game. Although it just lasted five minutes, the New Ulm team was leading 8 to 5. Rivalry was keen throughout, and naturally the rest of the New Ulm boys did their best to show who was an all-district man or not.

Hamann, star center of New Ulm, received honorable mention. Even if Schoch and Blauert didn't get honorable mention from the district officials, they sure received it from us.

A Great Team.

Coach W. A. Stover must be congratulated on his wonderful team, as well as every man on the squad. They have established a record that will stand for a long time to come.

CONTEST PRELIMINARIES.

Again we must call to mind the district contest to be held at Mankato in May. However, owing to the fact that there are several entries for the different solos, a preliminary contest will be held here sometime between the first and sixth of April.

We, the school, imagine that the soloists are working hard on their selections both at home and at school under Miss Yaeger's direction. If they aren't, they ought to be. It seems to us that Miss Yaeger must be a very busy woman. Besides having Boys' and Girls' Glee clubs at High School, and teaching in the grammar schools, she has to help all these soloists. Do you, O soloists, believe in practicing at home if you don't practice in school? We must have as good a showing in this contest as in basketball. Each of you soloists has a good chance to win out in the preliminaries, if you work. However, because only one person can receive first, we will say: "May the best man win."

FRESHMAN NOTES.

Inez Swartz and Harvey Haerberle gave a dancing party at the Woodmen hall, which eighty of their friends enjoyed. A few teachers were present. It shows that at least some of the Freshmen aren't dumb. They served punch during the entire evening and later had a delightful lunch.

The Freshmen are writing stories of their lives. We wonder what some will be?

Ask Herbert Glaser how he likes his seat in General Science?

"Swede" informed the English II class that the past tense of "think" is "thank."

We want to thank Miss Treadwell for being so considerate as not to give us a regular six weeks' test in Caesar.

"Fat" Arndt knew his lesson one day last week, but he couldn't let the class know, because Miss Espersen didn't call on him.

A group of High School girls received the second prize at the masquerade at the Turner Hall, Feb. 28; and received the fourth prize at the Armory, March 1.

In General Science—

Miss Idste: "What is a wedge?"

John Zischka: "A pulley."

Two Sophomore girls played "hookey" last Wednesday, because the weather was so nice, but Mr. Camp saw them.

Another member of our class, Elsan Barnett, has left school.

JUNIOR NOTES.

Juniors, pay your class dues. You have to do it some time. Better do it now. Remember, we have to have money for the reception.

At last! The entire cast of the Junior play has actually met, and has gone through the play once.

Hurrah, for Magdalene! Through her efforts those awful pictures (or should I say picture frames?) were removed from the wall in the English room. The Juniors feel indebted to her for saving them from the agony of seeing those picture frames perched on the wall in that room.

SENIOR NOTES.

As we said, the Seniors won the Siegel trophy cup. What can't the Seniors get if they want it?

Tuesday morning Roland Reim came into the assembly before the first bell rang. It was your own fault if you didn't notice it; Ronie and Raymond clapped enough.

Last Monday, Mr. No Yong Park spoke in the assembly. He stated that we had beautiful teachers. The Senior class is glad that at least one person thinks so.

The other day in the library, Frank Heck was talking as usual. I told him that he talked absolutely too much. Then he said, "Wait, I'll get a book." Soon he was back and laid the book in front of me. "Here," he said, pointing to a title—"Every word spoken a benefit to the nation." We know Frank always backs his arguments with a book, but yesterday I caught him. Ask Frank himself about it if you want to know what it was. It was something about women. Of course, Frank isn't so well read on that—but Mr. Camp is. He might answer my question: Is it true that girls when they say "no" mean just the opposite?

The annual the Seniors are putting out is being planned. Just watch! Some of the articles are very clever.

I'M A TEACHER'S PET.

I.

You certainly would wonder
If you'd see the marks I get;
Of course, it's not unusual
'Cause I'm a teacher's pet.

II.

I always get good marks in tests,
I never flunked one yet;
I know I never will flunk one,
'Cause I'm a teacher's pet.

III.

You ought to bluff a lot in tests,
It often helps, you bet;
Of course, with me it always works,
'Cause I'm a teacher's pet.

IV.

If I can't get a lesson,
I do not sit and fret;
I simply go to teacher,
'Cause I'm a teacher's pet.

V.

And after school I help her,
Her room in shape to get;
I really never mind it,
'Cause I'm a teacher's pet.

VI.

Not everyone can be like me,
And few are in my set;
You see it is an honor
To be a teacher's pet.

VII.

Teacher always warns us
Not our note books to forget;
She never scolds when I slip up,
'Cause I'm her little pet.

VIII.

So I'm the biggest sissy
That you folks have ever met;
But I should give a worry,
'Cause I'm my teacher's pet!

USE OF VACANT PERIODS.

How do you use your vacant periods? Have you ever asked yourself? From my observation (if you can call it that) many of you waste a great deal of time in school. If you've ever tried to concentrate you must admit that you can accomplish much more in one period than you can if you talk with your neighbor. Concentration in school will do away with cramming before the final exams.

Do you realize that every minute you spend in school means money to your parents? Wasting your time is squandering your parents' money. The least appreciation of their interest in you is to spend your school years in such a way that you'll never regret what you've done. Besides, this means of appreciation is for your own benefit. Remember that time wasted is existence; used, is life. How many of you really live?

Farmer H.: "Well, no; I can't say it pays me, but it pays my son, Wesley."

Visitor: "How's that?"

Farmer H.: "Well, you see I bought him the fowls. I have to pay for their keep, and buy the eggs from him, and he eats them."

LAUGHING OIL

Miss Idtse: "Describe water, Alice."
"Swede" Olson: "Water is a white fluid that turns black when you put your hands in it."

Freshie: "Don't you like the latest way for girls to fix their hair?"
Soph: "It's all right, but don't you think it makes you look too girlish?"

Some go to the movies to rest their feet; others to practice reading aloud.

"Do-Do" P.: "I hear that letter postage is going up to three cents."

"Shorty" S.: "Yes?"

"Do-Do": "I'm going to lay in a goodly store of two-cent stamps."

Purchaser: "What is the charge for this battery?"

Garageman: "One and one-half volts."

Purchaser: "Well, how much is that in American money?"

Charles: "How is a stove-pipe made?"

Robert: "First you take a big, long pole, and then you wrap some tin around it."

"Skinny" Epple: "There's a lot of electricity in my hair."

"Beany" Epple: "No wonder. It's connected with a dry cell."

Do Do: "Did you ever pet?"

Lorraine: "Hardly—"

Do Do: "Hardly what?"

Lorraine: "As much as I wanted to."

Miss Espersen: Correct this sentence: "Before any damage could be done, the fire was put out by the volunteer fire department."

Vergil: "The fire was put out before any damage could be done by the volunteer fire department."

Engineer: "And poor Harry was killed by a revolving crane."

Englishwoman: "My word! What fierce birds you have in America."

Kindly Old Lady: "And what do you expect to be when you graduate?"

Two-time Freshman: "A grandfather."

The height of slow motion would be two Scotchmen racing for the dinner check.

An optimist is the man who enters a college and takes with him a frame for his diploma.

An elderly lady walked in to Judge of Probate Jones' office the other day and asked him if he was the judge of reprobates. Mr. Jones replied that he was the Judge of Probate, and she said, "Well, that's it I guess; you see, my husband died detested and left several little infidels, and I want to be their executioner."

Rigid Self Denial.

Sigmund Rombery, the composer, tells of meeting a circus sword-swallower. He asked him to demonstrate his art, and the fellow apparently swallowed pins and needles.

"But," protested Mr. Rombery, "those aren't swords; they're pins and needles."

"I know it," replied the freak, "but I'm on a diet."

Elsan: "Are you fond of autos?"
George K.: "Am I? Say you ought to see the truck I ate for dinner."

Beggar (at back door): "I've lost my right leg—"

Katzy: "It's not here." (Slam!)

Miss Kearns: "You must be neater with your essays."

Erwin: "That's what I tell pa, but he hasn't time to write them over."

"Slick E.: "There's no rest for the wicked."

"Can" H.: "Zat so? All high school students must be saints then."

Eps: "Do you care for animals?"

Jim: "No, I wash dishes."

Fadder to Son: "Ikey, take yourself out a life insurance policy for ten thousand dollars, and I'll buy you a nice new motorcycle."

Myra: "Now what are you stopping for?"

Bill O.: "I've lost my bearings."

Myra: "Well, at least you are original; most fellows run out of gas-line."

Ruth K.: "Officer, that person is annoying me."

Mr. Wagner: "Why, he isn't even looking at you."

Ruth K.: "Exactly."

Alice V.: "What did you say?"

Walter V.: "Nothing."

Alice V.: "Of course. But how did you express it this time?"

Father: "What do you mean, young man, by turning out the hall light when you bid my daughter good-night?"

Young Man: "Why, you see—"

Father: "That's enough! Never darken my door again!"

"Well, of all the nerve," she said, as she slapped his face. "Don't ever try to kiss me again."

"All right," he replied meekly. "If that's how you feel about it, get off my lap."

I know somebody so dumb that he thinks bacteria is the back door of a cafeteria.

My love has flew!

She do me dirt!

How could I knew

She were a flirt?

She has come,

She has went,

She has left me all alone;

How could it was?

"Can you keep a secret?"

"I can; but it's just my luck to tell things to others who can't."

He (Jim): "Most girls, I have found, don't appreciate real music."

He (Joe): "Why do you say that?"

He (Jim): "Well, you may pick beautiful strains on a mandolin for an hour, and she won't even look out of the window; but just one honk of a horn—out she comes."

Freshman: "I don't know."

Sophomore: "I am not prepared."

Junior: "I do not remember."

Senior: "I don't believe I can add anything to what has been said."
