SPRINGFIELD DEFEATS NEW ULM DEBATERS

The New Ulm debating team was defeated by Springfield last Tuesday evening. The debate which was held in the High school auditorium, brought forth a lively discussion on the question: "Resolved, that the Chain Store System is Detrimental to the Best Interests of the American People." The New Ulm team, composed of Marion Pfaender, Arline Arndt, and Charles Poynter, nobly upheld the affirmative, but their argument proved to be not quite strong enough to triumph over the negative team, for the decision was given two to one in Springfield's favor.

SCOUT WEEK OBSERVED

Last week was Boy Scout week, and so, on Friday, Mr. Wiggins, the district executive, gave a speech about the merits and advantages of being a Boy Scout. He also explained, in the course of his talk, how and by whom the Boy Scouts were begun. Burdette Dahl gave a short description about

NOAH'S BOOK SHOWS WHAT NAMES MEAN

While during some research work in the library, it was with some joy and in some cases with shock that the following familiar names and their meanings were discovered in Webster's:

Charles—Manly, noble, spirited.
Eldrid—Terrible.
Herbert—Glory of the Army.
Kenneth—Leader and commander.
Lewis—Bold warrior.
Paul—Little.
Richard—Powerful.
Robert—Bright in fame.
William—Protector.
Margaret—A pearl.
Mary—Better.
Phyllis—A green bough.
Ruth—Beauty.
Arthur—High, noble.
Grace—Wisdom.
Myrtle—A flower.
Alice—Simple.

N. U. H. S. WISHES TO CONSOLE J. R. HIGGS

The entire high school wishes to express its deepest sympathy to John Richard Higgs, who was so unfortunate as to be born on the 29th of February. He is the only one in high school who is minus a birthday this year.

District Tournament to be Held March 5-6-7

New Ulm high school has been paired with Wabasso high school for the first series of the district basketball tournament, to be held at New Ulm Armory, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, March 5, 6, and 7, according to the schedule drawn up at a meeting of the district committee, in this city, Monday afternoon. The New Ulm-Wabasso go will be staged at 8 o'clock, Thursday evening, March 5.

Lamberton-Echo Opens.

The tourney will be formally opened with a game between the Lamberton and Echo high schools, beginning at 2 p. m., Thursday, March 5. In the second encounter, at 3 p. m., that day, Morton is paired with Springfield, while the final afternoon contest, March 5, will be played by Winthrop and Fairfax, at 4 p. m.

Sleepy Eye and Gibbon will contend for elimination honors, in the first evening game of the tournament Thursday, March 5, at 7 p. m. Following the New Ulm-Wabasso tilt at 8 p. m., Redwood Falls will be matched against Gaylord, at 9 p. m., and Belview and Franklin are scheduled to stage the final preliminary go at 10 o'clock, that evening.

Pairings of Winners.

The winners in the seven preliminary games will be paired for the second series, as follows:

Friday, March 6.

Second Round—Winners of Morton-

Springfield vs. winners of New Ulm-Wabasso, 7:30 p. m.; winners of Winthrop-Fairfax vs. winners of Redwood Falls-Gaylord, 8:30 p. m.; winners of Sleepy Eye-Gibbon vs. winners of Belview-Franklin, 9:30 p. m. The team winning the Lamberton-Echo tilt will have the bye in this round.

Saturday, March 7.

Third Round—Winners of Lamberton-Echo against winners of Winthrop-Fairfax vs. Redwood Falls-Gaylord game, 10 a. m.; winners of Morton-Springfield vs. New Ulm-Wabasso game against winners of Sleepy Eye-Gibbon vs. Belview-Franklin game, 11 a. m.

Fourth Round—Consolation game between losers of Games 11 and 12, at 8 p. m.; district championship game between winners of Games 11 and 12, at 9 p. m.

Trophies and Medals.

Chairman C. D. Gray of the district committee has, upon the committee's authorization, purchased three beautiful silver trophies, in the form of basket balls, mounted on wooden bases, to be awarded at the tournament. They are in graduated sizes, the largest being for the championship winners of the meet, while the runners-up will receive the next largest trophy, and the smallest silver basket ball will be given as a consolation prize to the losers of the tournament.

TWO HIGHEST HONORS ARE ANNOUNCED

Marion Pfaender, who has a straight "A" average for her four years in high school, has received the honor of being valedictorian of the class of 1931. Loretta Glaser, who has a "B" plus average for four years in high school, is the salutatorian. Audrey Keute deserves honorable mention as being a close second to Loretta Glaser that it was debated as to whether or not it should be called a tie.

Walter C.: "I flunked in history because I said Coronado was a new make of radio."

Robert S.: "Yeah, and I said La Salle and De Soto are models of automobiles."

One good thing about telling the truth is that you don't have to remember what you say.

True, how true! The first thing to turn green in spring will be Christmas jewelry.

N. U. NOSES OUT SLEEPY EYE IN DECLAMATION

At an exceptionally interesting declamatory contest of this state league sub-district, held at Sleepy Eye, Thursday night, February 26, New Ulm scored highest in the competing schools, namely, Sleepy Eye, Springfield, Morgan and New Ulm. New Ulm won its position by virtue of the following place awards: Oratorical section, William Meierding, second; dramatic section, Marion Pfaender, first; humorous section, Alice Milliman, second—making a total rank of 5. Sleepy Eye secured second honors in the sub-district by a total rank of 6; Springfield and Morgan tied for third, by a total rank of 10.

Mr. Lawrence Brings, president of the Northwestern College of Speech Arts, acted as critic judge. After the contest, he discussed his decisions with the contestants and their coaches, as well as giving them valuable

FINISH SCHEDULE WITH FINE SHOW

Coach Harman's fighting Purples are nearing the end of their season—an unusually bright and successful one. The finish of the schedule will mean the end of their basket ball careers for some of the boys who are graduating, but none, certainly, have any cause to regret their fine playing during the year.

The season's closing with a fine spurt, and the boys have really only one defeat of late to regret. This was the heart-breaking game played at Redwood last Friday, which the latter won, 24-25. But besides this the boys have been taking victories right and left, such as defeating Sleepy Eye, our deadly enemies, and also lowering Gaylord's standards.

The boys met Sleepy Eye on the Ish-tah-kah-ba hunting grounds and defeated them 22-7.

Anyone who has ever seen a clash between these two competitive schools can imagine the tenseness and excitement of the struggle. The scene of the combat was the Sleepy Eye Gymnasium where, it seemed, the whole town of Sleepy Eye and a lot of local fans rallied to the defense of their teams and watched a battle royal which was to result in the lowering of the Ish-tah-kah-ba standards.

Both Teams Work Hard.

The game started with a rush, and both teams played so enthusiastically that in the first few minutes of play about 7 personal fouls were called, 5 of them on Sleepy Eye. The entire first half was played fast and furiously, with New Ulm netting 2 field goals, and Sleepy Eye one; the half ended 7-5 in favor of New Ulm, but neither team had gained an advantage.

Locals Register Comeback.

Then true to form, the New Ulmites registered a third quarter comeback, netting 13 points themselves, and holding their opponents down to 1 field goal. The last quarter was fairly slow, with New Ulm raising their lead by a field goal, and holding Sleepy Eye scoreless; and the whistle found the score 22-7, with Sleepy Eye a very tired and exhausted team.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1931.

OFFER FREE TRIP TO FRENCH CAPITAL.

On to Paris!

This summer some high school boy or girl—it may be yourself—is going to board a great French Line steamship and spend ten glorious days in France, with all expenses paid, New York to New York.

Moreover, the winner of the On-to-Paris essay contest will have the privilege of naming any adult he wishes, as companion. The companion's expenses also will be paid, New York to New York. In France the two will be guests of the French government. Fifty gold, silver and bronze medals will be awarded by the French government to the winners of the next fifty places.

The subject of the contest, as announced in the February issue of the American Boy Magazine, is "Why I Want to Spend Ten Days in Paris." It calls for a 400-word essay, which must reach American Boy offices by March 10. First, contestants are invited to write the On-to-Paris Editor, The American Boy Magazine, 550 W. Lafayette Blvd., Detroit, Mich., asking for free booklets about Paris and the International Colonial and Overseas Exposition that will be held there next summer. Enclose a two-cent stamp for return postage. The booklets will give you plenty of topics about which to construct an essay.

Here are the rules:

Keep the essay to 400 words. If you run a few words over you won't be disqualified, but preference will be given the shorter ones.

You must be under twenty-one to be eligible.

If you win, you must go yourself. The prize is not transferable.

You and your companion must pay your traveling expenses from your home to New York and back—all other expenses will be paid for you.

Get your entry in by March 10! Mail it to the On-to-Paris Editor.

Write clearly, or typewrite your essay on one side of the sheet only. Put our name, address, age, and the name of the school you attend at the top of each sheet. Don't ask us to return your essays—keep a carbon if you wish.

Names of prize winners will be published in the May American Boy.

EXCHANGE.

Vigor, vitality, vim and punch,
 That's pep.
 The courage to act on a sudden hunch,
 That's pep.
 The nerve to tackle the hardest thing
 With feet that climb and hands that cling,
 And a heart that never forgets to sing
 That's pep!

To say, "I will"—for you know you can,
 That's pep.
 To look for the best in every move—
 That's pep.
 To meet each thundering, knockout
 blow,
 And come back with a laugh, because you know
 You'll get the best of the whole darn show
 That's pep!

SAINT'S REPORTER.

A man was bitten by a mad dog. Soon afterwards, in the hospital, being treated for hydrophobia, he called for a pencil and paper. The nurse said, "You won't have to make a will yet; you won't die for a long time." To this he replied, "Oh, I'm just making a list of the people I want to bite."

RAMBLING ABOUT SCHOOL.

See all the freshmen girls chasing Jim Arbes and Civit Walrath down the halls—? Strength to 'em! And our team lost to Redwood. Tough luck—but you're our team—and we like you!

Why didn't we get Washington's birthday off? We are abused around this high school. No kidding.

Donald Rice is looking for a new girl. (Leave applications with his private secretary, Arthur Stone).

(Don't tell anyone, but I've got the itch, too). Did I hear you say Mae Jule and Rolly had another scrap?

Spring nites like these were just made for shy lovers like Janie and the D. M. L. C. swain!

Just who is Spot's inspiration at the present time?

A little bird told me that Gene S. weighs 195 pounds now. Just think girls—Isn't that an armful?

Is Margaret Becker really in love or—is it just a state of mind?

It is estimated that Louis Runck is using up at least 20 gallons of gas a day showing off his Ford to some extra sweet Freshman girls.

Dick Hauenstein has joined a detective agency—at least it seems so. Leave it to Richard and his spotlight to find out what's what and who's who.

FRESHMAN FOLLIES.

The city of New Ulm can well be proud. Why? Because a poet has burst into the limelight. He is none other than Clifford Walrath, (pen name "Civet"). This young man was born Dec. 19, 1916, and now at the young age of fourteen, he has produced the great masterpiece, "The Basket Ball Tournament." He has kindly consented to have it published.

The Basket Ball Tournament.

It fell about the Easter time
The time of all the year,
When people come from everywhere
Basket ball results to hear.

Gaylord won the first game
From Sleepy Eye so dear,
But when New Ulm beat Gaylord,
You should have heard them cheer.

Then Redwood Falls beat Winthrop,
The worst team on the floor,
The half saw Winthrop leading
And you should hear them cheer.

Then came the dear old finals
New Ulm vs. Redwood Falls,
The balcony fairly trembled
When New Ulm won the golden ball.

The great poet has asked that his punctuation, and spelling be excused as this is his first poem and he is only fourteen.

SOPHOMORE SINS.

Famous last words of some of our Sophomores:

Stanley H.: "Will those girls ever quit teasing me?"

Altha S.: "Ten cents, just enough for a piece of pie."

Jimmy H.: "Another day gone to the dogs."

Theo H.: "Oh, Richard, you're so mean to me."

Grace S.: "I just love to tease people."

Jane M.: "One more hour, and I'll see Philip."

Myrtle G.: "Don't mention his name to me again!"

Alys P.: "I'll see you tonight, Paul."

Arthur F.: "I forgot to slap Ora."

Virginia F.: "Mr. Halling, you'll have to excuse me; I have to finish my dishes."

Frederick M.: "I wonder who I can borrow a piece of paper from."

Frank M.: "Algebra, you're driving me crazy."

Jannette F.: "I wonder what Mr.
Heim will scold me about today?"

Leo S.: "I ain't got dat in dat bok."

Laura H.: "I just love to write compositions."

Marjorie S.: "That's an old story, Paul."

Marie W.: "I can't help but whisper in the fifth period."

An artist, John Bauer, writing to his friend from Rome, ended his letter in this manner:

"I have visited the Forum and the Coliseum. Ah, if you only knew, my dear, how I thought of you as I gazed at the old ruins."

JUNIOR JOTS.

Alys Pufahl thinks the Ideal Boy in N. U. H. S. would have:

A disposition like Richard Lindemann.
Wit of Billy Bockus.

Physique of Babe.

Skin like Doyle Spaeth.

Teeth like Bill E.

Eyes like Arthur From.

Nose like Ammy Preuss.

Hair like Digga Reinhart.

Voice like Billy Mather.

Thoughtfulness of Gene Schmid.

Brains like Doyle Spaeth.

Feet like Carl Aufderheide.

Personality like Howard Alwin.

John Johnson thinks the Ideal Girl

in N. U. H. S. would have:

1. Hair like Evelyn L's.

2. Skin like Katherine Stuebe's.

3. Eyes like Blanche P's.

4. Nose like Jeanne's.

5. Teeth like Gertrude Duobe's.

6. Figure like Gretchen's.

7. Hands like Peggy Swartz's.

8. Legs like Helen E's.

9. Blushes like Joe Bianchi's.

10. Voice like Arline Arndt's.

11. Personality like Marion Pfaen-der.

12. Poise like Katherine Eichten's.

13. Sweetness of Marion Schmid.

14. Wit like Alice M's.

15. Disposition like Eileen's.

The Juniors hope this won't cause any violent battle among the above mentioned. If this doesn't, the "would be vacation" and Washington's birthday will!

SENIOR SHORTS.

At last—"Something for the Gra-phos," as Hintz would say.

Maybe this marvy spring weather was the cause of Ruth's taking Jane M., Katherine E., Digga, Poynter, and Emmerich for a visit to a certain farmerette, and maybe, if little Jimmie H. and Chuck O'Malley hadn't got the bright idea to open the bull pen when the girls were in the middle of the barn, it wouldn't have happened. Well, it did happen, and you can ask Kathe, Digga, and Charles, who all but decided to walk home.

Famous clever sayings by clever people:

Time: Friday. (When the Sr.'s got an hour off.)

Place: 6th Period Eng. Class.

Characters: Hippert and Fehlhaber.

Miss Kearns: "I think you've had enough Eng. for one day; I'll read."

Donald: "She's got a heart like an elephant today."

Malker: "May all teachers be elephants."

Miss Sogn: "What is salt in carborundum used for?"

Ruth W. (Perfect specimen of what one year of Home Ec. does): "Flavoring!"

Herewith we wish to publicly announce our future intentions as regarding the status of men in this school.

Rules:

1. The men in this town shall be the very vermin under our feet.

2. Snub entirely those on our given list, and treat those on the list of coolness with only a cool manner.

3. Follow the example of sister
Hintz; she is ideal.

TIPS FOR BEGINNERS IN BRIDGE.

1. Bid high, your partner may have a good hand.
2. When you have a poor hand, signal immediately by saying, "Who the—dealt this mess?"
3. Claim all the honors, you might get away with it.
4. If you get a poor partner—keep score yourself. You've got to have some advantage.
5. Trump your partner's ace and cinch the trick.
6. Always ask what the trump is two or three times during the game. This always refreshes everybody's memory.
7. If nobody bids, bid against your partner; you must always keep up interest in the game, at any cost.
8. After the third attack, lay your hand on the table and claim the rest of the tricks. You may not have them, but it's much easier to play with all the cards on the table.

"Pshaw! I left my watch upstairs."
"Never mind, it'll run down."
"No, it won't. It's a winding staircase."

Dad: "Son, I'm spanking you because I love you."
Spot: "Dad, I'd like to be big enough to return your love."

Mae Jule: "No, he still ends every sentence with a proposition."

Eddie: "Were you thinking of me?"
Blanche: "Oh, was I laughing? I'm sorry, pardon me."

The Redwood game was the most thrilling and yet most heart-breaking game possible, with Redwood coming from behind a 10-point lead to win by 1 point.

The locals held the upper hand in the first three quarters, leading by 10 points. But in the last quarter, the Redwood boys started to click, and with one minute to play, tied the score at 24-all. Just before the whistle a foul was called on New Ulm, and Redwood sank a winning shot.

This was a disappointing defeat, but the boys still have high hopes for the tournament—and they should, for they have the stuff that wins!

suggestions on how to improve their speaking. Mr. Brings expressed many favorable comments on the New Ulm speakers. He complimented William Meierding on the effectiveness of his conversational style of delivery. He stated that he could find no adverse criticism to give Alice Milliman, who won and held her audience with her refined, extremely humorous presentation. His comment on Marion Pfaender was that she showed remarkable poise and excellent interpretation.

We congratulate Sleepy Eye on their initiative in securing a critic judge.

Richard: "No, I got them wrong myself."

Virginia: "You sure think you are good looking, don't you?"
