REDWOOD GAME OPENS SEASON

WHAT LAST YEAR'S SENIORS ARE DOING

In spite of the business depression, many of last years graduating class have found positions or are attending colleges or universities.

Irene Altman and Joyce Bjorneberg are attending N. U. H. S.'s Normal department; Alfred Arndt is now going to St. Thomas, St. Paul; Mae Jule Arbes to Milwaukee-Downer college, Milwaukee; Josephine Bianchi to St. Teresa, Winona; Judith Bieber to Wisconsin College of Physical Education, La Crosse; Nina Frederickson to Gustavus Adolphus, St. Peter; Virginia Hintz to University of Iowa, Iowa City; William Meierding to Macalaster, St. Paul; Mae Larson and Doris Swenson to Mankato Teachers' College; Roland Muesing, Marion Pfaender, Charles Poynter, and Ruth Wicherski to the University of Minnesota; Hertha Penkert to a Minneapolis Business college; Alice Boock is employed at the New Ulm Greenhouses; Raymond Christiansen in the local register of deeds office; Loretta Glaser and Audrey Keute at the Eagle Roller Mill; Martha Hermerding at the office of Mr. Plagens, Ellen Janni in the Messenger office; Veronica Kloeckl at the Bee Hive; Emerson Strate at the Red Front; Audrey Zieske at the State Bond & Mortgage Company; Donald Fehlhaber at Simmet's Tire Shop; Charles Vogtel at the Mill, and Elsie Kaiser at a hospital in Chicago. Loretta Berg, Ernst Eyrich, Jr., Malcher Hippert, Clarence Radl, Anna and Martha Rubischko are undecided as to what they will do. Mabel Guth, Erwin Hamann, William Ring, and Selma Zarn are at home. Helen Hagerberg will study music here, and Lily Larson is also in New Ulm taking a nurse's training course at the Union hospital. Gertrude Dubbe plans to attend Northwestern Hospital next spring.

JUNIOR CLASS

PLAY CHOSEN

"Applesauce," a comedy in three acts by Barry Connors, is the play Miss Ritt has chosen for the Junior class.

A large number of Juniors have already asked to try out. As the cast includes only seven, Miss Ritt can be very choice in her selection. She will choose from the entire Junior class.

The idea of the play is to show that "Applesauce" (in other words the ability to tell other people how nice they are), will surmount most (Continued on page 4.)

Nine Lettermen Form Nucleus For Harman's Team

Forty-five boys answered Coach Harman's call for football men. Nine lettermen have returned, and under the guidance of Captain Emmerich, plan to make the 1931 football season a total success. Lettermen besides Captain Emmerich include Leander Reinhart, Doyle Spaeth, Armin Preuss, Donald Dannheim, Eldred Rieke, Elmer Kading, and Edward Schneider. Billy Mather, who also won his letter last year, will be kept from the game on account of injuries suffered to his knee. Wagner and Marks will be back in the lineup.

Some splendid new material has reported for workouts, and includes Howard Alwin, James Arbes, Alfred Buechner, Arthur Fussner, Kenneth Jahnke, Frank and Wilbur Marti, James Huelskamp, Howard Lindemann, Willibald Bianchi, Stanley Hellman, Richard Arbes, Darwin Pfaender, Clifford Walrath, Erwin Christiansen, Jack Aufderheide, Donald Pollei, George Fisher, and Jack Jordan.

Coach Harman has acquired a new assistant in the form of "Spike" Nehls, who has been filling his position by coaching the Junior High team. Coach Harman hopes to arrange some games for the younger boys.

The first eleven will have a tough schedule this year, but hopes are high and the boys are working hard. The first game will be played with the fast Redwood Falls team at the new Athletic field on Saturday.

A complete schedule of games for the year follows:

- Sept. 26—Redwood Falls, here.
- Oct. 2—New Prague, here.
- Oct. 9—Hutchinson, there.
- Oct. 16—St. Peter, there.
- Oct. 23—Madelia, there.
- Oct. 30—Glencoe, here.
- Nov. 6—St. James, here.
- Nov. 11—Sleepy Eye, there.

The new Athletic field is in good shape, and all home games will be played there this year instead of on the old field at the Fair grounds. This is a great improvement over the old place, and we should show the business men that we appreciate their help in building this new grounds. We can in a small way show our thanks by having a good turn out at all the games. The student season tickets are on sale at the school and general admission prices have been reduced. As an added attraction, the High School band will play at all home games.

New Ulm to Have Uniform Plan for Operation of School Patrols

A system of uniformed patrols to conduct little children safely over street crossings on their way to and from school is being worked out and will be inaugurated soon. The New Ulm Public schools are working in conjunction with the Minnesota Highway Department, the Minnesota Safety Council, the State Department of Education, and the Council of School Executives.

Distinctive uniforms of standard colors and designs, for this purpose, together with other necessary equipment, is available, and American Legion posts throughout the state have been requested to provide the schools with this paraphernalia so that the patrols will be easily distinguishable by motorists.

POINT SYSTEM TO BE CONTINUED

The point system, which was inaugurated when this year's Seniors were Freshmen, will be continued. For the benefit of the Freshmen, we wish to say that for every extra curricular activity each one receives a certain number of points, such as five for orchestra, band, or glee club. Other points are given for debate, (Continued on page 4.)

MUSIC DEPARTMENT BEGINS YEAR'S WORK

Our Music department has made a good start this year. Instead of having all rehearsals after school hours, we now have an extra hour period for music before school. This system seems much more efficient. So far the band has made an excellent beginning. The girls' and boys' Glee clubs have also begun, but the orchestra is not quite complete.

This year the New Ulm High School band will furnish music for all home football and basket ball games. The band is composed of fifty-seven members and is a promising organization. New uniforms for the members will be furnished by Christmas.

The members of the Girls' Glee club, twenty-six in number, are:

First Soprano—Gretchen Kretsch, Grace Schleuder, Jean Veeck, Katherine Eichten, Myrtle Grussendorf, Dorothy Bergquist, Mildred Gulden.

Second Soprano—Alys Pufahl, Aleen Alwin, Virginia Schulz, Althea Schroeck, Laura Loeffler, Marian Schmid, Florence Sjogren, Margaret Brudelic, Eleanor Nelson, Lorna Frank and Jane Mueller.

Alto—Byrll Edmiston, Katherine Stuebe, Arline Arndt, Evelyn Larson, Naomi Stoltenburg, Mary Mueller, Mary Ellen Boomer and Frances Anderson.

The band will play for the first football game on Saturday.

DRUM CORPS

STARTS PRACTICE

Much interest is being shown this year by the N. U. H. S. pupils in the Drum corps. There are five new members in this organization, and fifteen others have asked to join. The drummers, under the direction of Mr. Dirks, practice for an hour every Monday after school. The drum corps will not be present at the first football game, but they will make their first appearance at the second game.

The personnel of the drum corps is:

BASS:

Virginia Glasman
Grace Schleuder
Gretchen Kretsch
Virginia Frenzel

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1931.

This month a new school year begins. To many of us it is our first year in high school. To others it is the last. To still others it is merely another year. However, to all of us it should mean the very best in all respects; and the beginning is the best time to make the resolutions that we meant to make last year. New Year's Day is too late to resolve to study and cram to make up what we missed out on during the first semester of school. By that time we shall have acquired the habit of slumping in one way or another unless we are determined to make good; and, after we have acquired such a habit, we find it is much easier to continue the way we started than it is to develop a new habit of conscientious study and a sense of responsibility.

DOORS CLOSED TO NON-GRADUATES.

If one does not graduate from a high school he cannot go to college. He cannot go to a state normal school in most of the states. He cannot go to a first-class law school. He cannot go to a first-class medical school. He cannot go to a first-class dental school. He cannot be admitted to a Naval School of Aviation. He cannot be admitted to an Army Aviation School. He cannot get a first-class position in a newspaper office. He cannot get a place that is open to promotion in a bank. He cannot get a place that is open to promotion in any railroad office, in any counting room, in any business office unless he has a high school education. One who has not a high school education closes many doors in his face. It is an awful thing for a young man or woman to deliberately shut and lock all doors to the best things in a business and professional life.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT.

Why school started (we have only a vague idea).

Why James A. sits in the swings at school Sunday nights.

Whether or not to buy an "Empress Eugenie."

Whether our assigned Chemistry places are permanent.

If Dumbo F. has really seen all these girls cry.

If Marks will always be the "onliest one"—Gee, Elmer, give the Freshies a break.

If Peggy Swartz really stays home Sunday nights in order to put her fountain pen in water.

Whether Digga is really Scotch? He still thinks the Scotchmen invented the boomerang.

If our "Freshie friends" will have time to take English.

If Theo really touches the grasshoppers in biology.

If the Freshies are going to be initiated.

If we're expected to study out of the books we were given the first day of school.

Christmas vacation. If the Juniors are going to have as hard a time collecting dues as we did.

Why we got a break and don't have to go to school till 9. Someone must have a heart in spite of all these heart-breaking attempts of the Frosh to get to English.

Whether these Graphos notes will be accepted.

Willibald B.: "Come on, I'll show you how to milk a cow."

Arthur F.: "Perhaps I had better start on a calf."

Reporter: "And in what state were you born, professor?"

Professor: "Unless my recollection fails me, in the state of ignorance."

Reporter: "Yes, to be sure. And how long have you lived there?"

Gym Teacher: "Lots of girls use dumb-bells to get color in their cheeks."

Gretchen K.: "And lots of girls use color on their cheeks to get dumb-bells."

An officer was showing an old lady over the battleship. Pointing to an inscribed plate, he said, "And this is where our gallant captain fell."

"No wonder," she said, "I almost slipped on it myself."

Donald D.: "After all, fools make life amusing. When all the fools are dead I don't want to be alive."

Elmer M.: "Never fear, you won't be."

"Have you had static on your radio?"

"Well, we had Los Angeles and Cuba, I'm sure we could get it."

Donald P.: "How long can a man live without brains?"

Leonard R.: "Let's see, how old are you?"

He: "I say just what I think."

She: "Oh, don't be silent all evening."

Stranger: "I represent a society for the suppression of profanity. I want to take profanity out of your life."

Billy: "Hey, Carl, here's a man who wants to buy your Ford."

SENIOR SHORTS.

I am sure that all the Seniors join me in wishing the plodding Juniors as eventful and happy a year as we all enjoyed (or should have) while we occupied the seats that now belong to them.

To the struggling Sophomores, we wish to give our sincere congratulations for escaping from the Freshie rows before most of us realized that they were also attending this great school of ours.

Freshies, please don't be discouraged yet. Better times are coming. If certain ones of you have not found out what period you're taking English I in, why don't you give up? Follow the crowd; and, maybe, some day you'll land in the right room at the right time.

How about an initiation party for the Freshies? Come on, Seniors, don't let those Freshies get by again.

JUNIOR JOTS.

"How the Time Does Fly" would seem a very appropriate theme song for us Juniors. It seems just like yesterday that we were Freshies, being given our first taste of high school life. Grace S. especially will remember when she was made to walk home from the cemetery by some "all powerful" Seniors. When we were Sophomores, we were supposed to know how a high school student conducts himself in and about school. I'm afraid we were a bitter disappointment to some people. Now we are Juniors waiting to give a good play and a better reception for the Seniors this spring. So come on,

ONE LOSES NO TIME BY TAKING TIME TO GRADUATE.

If two young men or women, one leaving school at the end of a grammar school or junior high school course, and the other taking time to complete a senior high school course, enter any kind of industry or commerce, the senior high school graduate is likely to be farther ahead two years after graduation, and to stay ahead ever after.

Something more than experience is needed now in any industrial, commercial, financial, or office life.

A senior high school education is in an industry what the overtone is in music.

No one ever won fame or fortune as a singer or an instrumentalist because of musical correctness.

A musician must know so much of music that he is correct without thinking about correctness. So long as a singer or instrumentalist has to be careful to be correct he will never be more than correct.

Success in music depends entirely upon having had so much musical education that one can give all thought and attention to the spirit of the rendition, to the interpretation of the finer feeling of the composer.

That is the difference between the high school graduate and the man who has merely learned to do this work by doing his work. The graduate learns to do it more quickly and is always learning something more than the doing of the work he is learning. He sees in it more than he

Juniors, let's get together and make this a happy and successful year for all.

SOPHOMORE SINS.

At last we're out of the Freshman class and are budding into Sophomores. We're happy to see the very fine group of Freshman who have taken our places, but we're waiting for the time when we can initiate them.

There is some very spirited competition going on for the companionship of Althea Schroeck, Howard A., James A., and Thaxter M. being the competitors. So far, Howard seems to be in the lead.

FRESHMAN FOLLIES.

Must we Freshman be kept in misery very much longer, wondering when we are to be initiated? Hurry up, and get it over with please. Or is the waiting part of the initiation to make it seem worse than it is?

Finally, we Freshmen have begun to realize

1. That the Seniors think us a little better than nothing.
2. That when we have English the third period, we don't have to take it the fifth or the seventh.
3. That there is a wonderful football hero in our class—Howard L.
4. That we have to walk to the front of the assembly when passing to classes.

One of our best talkers has calmed down. We wonder why.

Help wanted—Cure for Dorothy V.'s passion for drawing paper dolls.

would otherwise and he sees beyond it farther than he would otherwise. He interprets his work as the singer interprets the song. That is what ultimately makes him a foreman or a superintendent.

LAUGHTER.

When you're feeling grouchy,
Let the sunshine in;
When your face gets hardened,
Crack it with a grin;
Don't be afraid of wrinkles,
Tear loose with your mirth;
An old face laughter-wrinkled
Is the sweetest thing on earth.

Teacher: "And can anyone tell me what a dream is?"

Little Doris: "It's the movies when you're asleep."

Stella: "He wore my picture right over his heart and it stopped the bullet."

Bella: "No wonder, dear. It would stop a clock."

Florence R.: "How did your dad know we went out in the car yesterday?"

Helen E.: "Quite simple! Remember that stout gentleman we ran into? That was my father."

Mr. Kangaroo: "But Mary, where's the child?"

Mrs. Kangaroo: "Good heavens! I've had my pockets picked."

Miss Ritt says the assembly doors should be left wide open so Marks can get his chest through.

As a result, one freshman wrote the following:

of the obstacles in life. The play presents a problem both serious and hilarious. Shall Hazel marry Jenkins, an altogether practical young man, or shall she marry Bill, who hasn't much more than a good heart and a good word for everybody?

Leadership and reliability. Their services are to be voluntary. Officers are to serve for at least one school term; other members may be changed at intervals of about six weeks. Any officer or member can be removed for cause.

Standard insignia for patrol members is the white Sam Browne belt. This must be worn at all times when on duty. Officers are to have special badges. Auxiliary equipment must be standard.

Patrol members, while on duty, shall not have in their possession any signs, signals, sticks, or whistles other than the standard signal flag prescribed for patrol operation use.

The patrol member should stand on the curb and hold back the children until he sees a lull in the traffic. When this occurs, he holds out a hand sign or flag as he motions for the children to cross the highway in a group. After the children have crossed he returns to his station on the curb.

Where street signs are required, no other standard signs should be used. The standard sign for street use pedestal type, reading "Caution School Crossing," to be used only when the school patrol is on duty.
