MAYOR MINIUM HEADS CITY GOVERNMENT

By Anita Grussendorf

Tomorrow, Saturday, the city government will again be entrusted to those advocates of a daily good deed, the Boy Scouts. Last year when the scouts took over the duties of the city officials, the council passed the bicycle ordinance that went into effect almost immediately. We wonder what the council's meeting will produce this year.

Mayor Minium (euphonious sounding, isn't it?) will occupy the mayor's chair, and the city attorney's chair will support Charles Stuebe, Carroll Berg is the city engineer and Stuart Groebner, clerk. John Teichrow, treasurer; Richard Engel, fire chief; and Bob Walsh, police chief. The city will have justice with Donald Veigel and Jack Howles as city attorneys and Allan Schmucker as the fire marshal.

Commissioner is Loren Neisen and these are the members of the city council: John Furth, John Herzog, Eugene Martinka,

HIGH SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

The results of a recent questionnaire sent to all Minnesota high schools indicate that basketball is the most popular of the eleven extra-curricular activities listed. Declamation ran a close second, track was third, and football and baseball tied for fourth place. Debate, golf, tennis, swimming, six-man football, and hockey finished in that order.

Since our high school engages in all but the last three of these--and in several not listed, it is evident that New Ulm High School isn't as "dead" as some people would have us believe. If every killjoy of this species would have a little more school in his spirit, we would undoubtedly have more spirit in our school.

THE FFA EMBLEM

The emblem of the Future Farmers of America is made up of five symbols. They are: the owl, the plow, and the rising of the sun--all within the cross section of an ear of corn which is surmounted by the American Eagle.

The owl is symbolic of knowledge; the plow is the symbol of labor and tillage of the soil; the rising sun is emblematic of progress and the new day that will dawn when all farmers are the product of agriculture schools. The cross section of an ear of corn is indicative of the national scope of the organization, as is the American Eagle.

This emblem appears on the FFA uniforms. It also is at the post of the president in the chapter room. The emblem is gold which is one of the national colors of the Future Farmers.

At the present, agriculture education has been broadened so that many farm boys in the United States are able to take advantage of this convenience. Generally where there is an Ag department, you can also find the FFA emblem.

Marjorie H.--Is this dance floor ever slippery?

Eryce W.--It isn't the dance floor, I just had my shoes shined.

NU VS REDWOOD TONIGHT; MEET HUTCH-GLENCOC NEXT WEEK

The Eagles head into more loop trouble tonight as they invade Redwood Falls in cage combat against the Redmen.

A top notch twil bill slated for next week finds New Ulm matched with Hutchinson there Tuesday. Taking the one chance of preventing a loop tie, the Eagles meet Glencoe on the Armory floor Friday night.

FROSH LOSE BUT SHOW IMPROVEMENT

Freshman Coach Snowbeck went at the task of polishing off his frosh cagers some more this week after their second defeat at the hands of the Sleepy Eye St. Mary's freshmen. The loss last Saturday was the second of the season against the same Sleepy Eye quint, this time the score being 12-10.

Offensively the New Ulm boys showed greater strength than in any previous game but defensively the weaknesses were clearly evident. Wolf at guard with Christiansen constituted the bulk of the frosh offensive drive throughout.

DISTRICT TOURNNEY AT REDWOOD FALLS NOT FAR OFF

The District 10 Basketball Tournament will be held at Redwood Falls, March 10, 11, 12. The Region III Tournament will be at Marshall March 18, 19. The State Tournament is March 24, 25, 26 at the Minneapolis auditorium.

MOVIES SEEN THIS MORNING

Fourth period was omitted this morning and the student body was shown some movies on the life of Abraham Lincoln and other various subjects, including some on London, and on Robert Browning's and Elizabeth Browning's poems.

SUFFER SECOND DEFEAT FRIDAY AGAINST ST. JAMES

New Ulm's High school's cage five broke the comeback ice in a fast last half Tuesday night trimming Springfield, 24 to 10.

Wild inaccurate passing and inability to penetrate into scoring territory, closed a first half for the Eagles. First half maneuvering for the Brick-makers found them scoring nine of their 10 points in four field goals and one gift shot.

A quick change in the lineup in the second half found Eichten back as a running mate to Kusske at forward while Spelbrink moved back in the guard position. Play moved machine-like as the Eagles teamed together with the scoring twins, Eichten and Kusske at forwards; rangy Korth at center and Spelbrink moving up to score from guard with Buenger backing up the defensive play that held Springfield to one point in the entire last half.

A last half see-saw duel; a wildly fast battle and an overtime period left New Ulm High School's Eagles outside the Little Ten door last Friday as St. James High turned them out 34-32.

The Eagles started for what looked like a victory with points to spare.

As the final gun sounded things stood at 30-30. St. James made the winning goal from the field.

TEACHER HAS NARROW ESCAPE

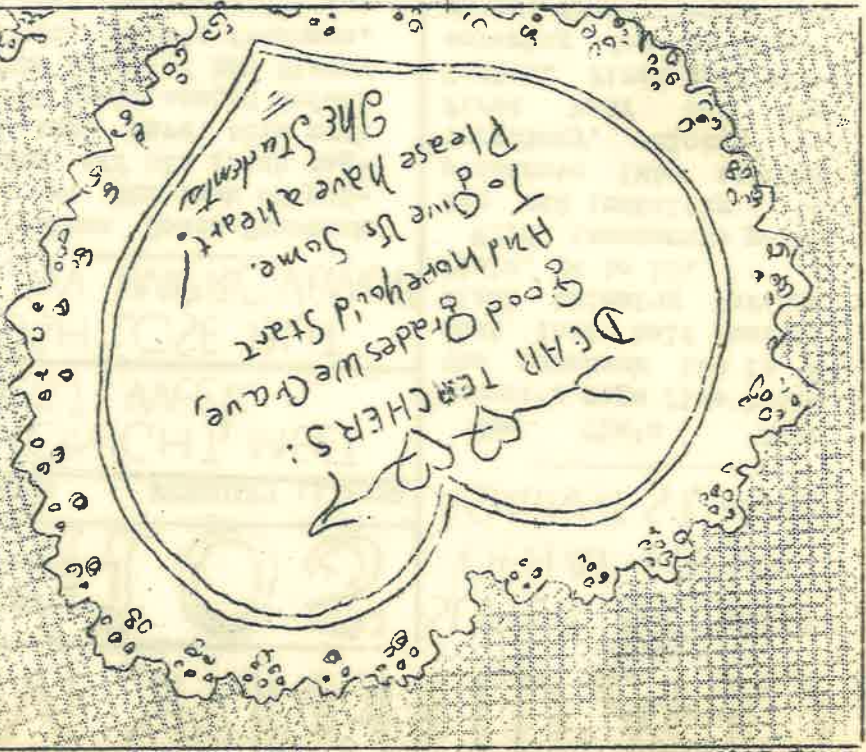

Last Saturday, Miss Westling, cooking instructor, had a narrow escape at her home when the furnace exploded in her face. She was just ready to leave for a party. Her hair, eyebrows, and eyelashes were singed. The only thing that prevented all her hair from flaming up was the fact that she had her hat on. The wool dress she was wearing was also burned. P.S. She went to the party although she was rather late.

DEBATERS ENTER GUSTAVUS MEET TOMORROW

"The debate will proceed with out further interruption." These words spoken by the chairman will start the N.U.H.S. debaters off in their battle of wits with thirteen other teams at the Third Annual High School Activities Meet which is being held at Gustavus Adolphus today and tomorrow.

Each school is allowed to enter only one team prepared to debate both sides of the question. The New Ulm team, Jack Minium and Ray Wieland will be accompanied by Coach R. J. Sutherland and two other squad debaters.

START HOME PROJECTS
Last Friday Miss Westling's food classes handed in the plans for their home projects. These projects make a close tie-up between class work and home activities and encourage the use of what is learned in school. Some of the suggested projects are: food nutrition, personal improvement, health and home nursing, child care, family relationships and home improvement and home management.

FRIE-LAS PLAN PARTY

"It's going to be a big affair and a party you'll remember," were Miss Fisher's words concerning the boy-girl party to be given February 19. Committees were appointed at the meeting, February 9, and plans are under way to make it a huge success. After a short business meeting, Evelyn Arndt, in charge of the program introduced two of our guests Mrs. Ascher and Mrs. Stewart. Mrs. Ascher sang two art. Mrs. Ascher accompanied at the numbers by Mrs. Stewart. A piano by Mrs. Stewart. A humorous reading "X Marks the Spot" was presented by Colleen Williamson, Dorothy Stube and Florence Robertson played a duet and Elaine Shapokahn and Loren Eyrich sang a duet. The Frie-las orchestra directed by Kathryn Higgs, closed the program with the selection "Over the Waves."

From Column 1
After the movie they went to Beyer's where they enjoyed a delicious steak dinner--with the compliments of their own purses.

STYLE, MUSIC, HUMOR FEATURED AT P.T.A.

The next P.T.A. meeting will be held Monday evening in the assembly room. It will feature a style revue, a one act play and several musical selections.

The mixed chorus, under the direction of Mr. Kitzberger, will sing three selections. The girls' sextet and the saxophone ensemble will also offer a few selections.

The speech class will present a one act play under the direction of Marjorie Haebler, entitled "Love, Honor and Obedy."

The Home Economics department will demonstrate their work in a style revue.

N.U.E.A. MEMBERS SEE "VICTORIA THE GREAT"
The meeting of the N.U.E.A. turned out to be a pleasant surprise when the members saw the advance showing of "Victoria the Great" at the New Ulm theater with the compliments of manager, Carl Engstrom.
