

MUSIC DEPT. BROADCASTS SAT.

FRESHMEN GIVE FIRST PROGRAM

The freshman assembly program this morning, was the first of a series of regular assembly programs to be put on by each of the four classes, as planned by the student council. A side-splitting skit that had a fairly large supporting cast and starring Eddie Eggers was probably the highlight of the program. The various numbers appeared in this order:

Opening act--Telephone Girl of the Greenhorn Hotel--Jean Wolfgram
Walter Squinchell--Tom Streissguth
Piano Solo -- Virginia Meerfield
Rosalie -- by girl Trio composed of Naomie Johnson, Patsy Beyer, Carol Sandmann.
Violin Solo -- Elaine Shapekahn.
Piano Trio--Elva Frank Dorothy Oetting, Virginia Meerfield.

STUDENT BODY WELCOMES EXAM WEEK

"Gosh, here comes another set of six weeks' exams. It seems like only two weeks ago that we had our last examinations."

The student body is gathering together their brains(?) and preparing to study for the tests which occur next week. Beginning Monday and ending Friday, the student body will enjoy tests in their various classes. Thank goodness there are only two six weeks periods left.

SCHOOL DANCE SCHEDULED SAT.

The last dance before Lent will be held Saturday night in the high school gymnasium. Windhorn's orchestra has been engaged to play. The dance will be sponsored by school. Mr. Dirks has decided that it will not be a costume dance.

P.T.A. PLANS CARNIVAL

Saturday, March 5, at 7:15 P.M. New Ulm High School again will be open for its third big carnival. This carnival will be sponsored by members of the P.T.A. This year all the different organizations of the school will have their own concessions. They will be able to keep 76 per cent of their proceeds, the other 25 per cent will go to the P.T.A. and the P.T.A. in return will take care of the decorating, building booths, advertising and the ticket sales. A carnival is never complete without a queen. This year not only will the four high school classes elect a queen, but also the seventh and eighth grades.

DEBATERS GO TO MADEIRA

New Ulm High School Debaters have been asked to appear before the Madeira Business Men's Association March 8, to present a debate on the question resolved: That the several states should adopt a unicameral system of legislation. They will have a good reception.

With a motion of the baton, a half hour broadcast will be conducted by Mr. Kitzberger Saturday, February 26. By the request of Thomas R. Rishworth, Educational director of KSTP, these chamber groups will take part in an educational program from 2:30 until 3 o'clock.

The program consists of a saxophone ensemble with L. Stoltenburg, E. Fischer, D. Veigel, and E. Meerfeld, R. Forster, L. Neisen, accompanied by B. Neuwirth on the bells, O. Stelljes drums, and F. Robertson, piano, playing The Spartan by Harry Pearl, Harmoniana an overture by Galuske, and Golden Spurs a march by C. Weber. The girls' sextette, E. Arndt, B. Trettien, M. Christianson, M. Oswald, B. Neuwirth and D. Buenger will sing Neapolitan Nights by Zamecnik and Little Orphan Annie by Andrews. The violin duet will play Angel's Serenade by Brown and La Golandrina by Serdell. The trumpet duet will play Ida Dottie by Losey and Carribean by Homes.

NEW ULM WINS FIRST AT SUB-DISTRICT

By virtue of two first places won by Lyla Mae K. in Dramatic and Jack Minium in Humorous, and a second place in Oratory by Gareth H., N.U.H.S. gets an undisputed first place for the third consecutive year. First place in Oratory was won by Winthrop. Second places in Dramatic and Humorous were won by Winthrop and Gaylord contestants respectively.

REALIZATION AT LAST?

Floating around once again are rumors of the approaching realization of the fond hopes of those interested in New Ulm High School concerning the proposed addition to the school. In spite of the fact that preceding rumors have come to naught, the present crop seems to have been revived with renewed vigor--resulting in the creation within all of those concerned an optimistic outlook on the possibility of the fruition of their plans.

Plans discussed concerning the possibility of a junior college have raised hopes in the minds of many young people who otherwise would be denied a chance for education beyond high school. Since room and board--a major item in the expense of a college education--would be eliminated for the two years of junior college, many more parents would find it possible to give their children the higher education that they want.

In view of these facts, let's all hold our thumbs, knock on wood, cross our fingers and hope--with a capital "h".

When people's opinions differ, that's nothing new. But when they congregate on a street corner and express their differences in no uncertain terms, they're liable to attract some attention. And last Monday afternoon that's just what happened on the corner of Center and Minnesota. When the editor--a sports fan--and the associate editor--an N.F.L. member and declam student--met the argumentative F.F.A. reporter and subsequently the Graphos adviser--who is prone to teasing--and a star pupil of the music department--who is a combination tease and arguer, things began to happen. Merits and defects of various high school activities and their relation to the Graphos were heatedly debated--as was witnessed by many an amused passer-by.

STUFF AND JUNK

That Student Council notebook has yielded up some more gems.(?) This time it's the lost and found department.

Lost-Eddie Eggers's bubble gum.

Lost-My heart to whom??

Wanted-Information leading to the event that I, party of the first part, will be able to fool the party of the second part Miss Treadwell, and pass the geom. test.

Dropped-A perpendicular

Lost-A strand of hair. Return to Gloria G. for reward.

Lost-My bearing and head. Reward. Jack M.

Lost-Darleen M.'s sense of humor.

That council notebook also informs us that:

Gareth H. writes an advice to the lovelorn column.

Carlyn P. went home on the range.

Harold S. and Donald H. went out to buy some baby cows.

Dick Eichten went out (like a light) for Joe Harman.

Charles K. excels in chemistry, physics, football, basketball, baseball, track, and knitting.

And now we close the black book for today.

Guess Who?

She's blonde and has a sort of "on again-off again romance";she loves cokes, and she was Terry in last year's junior class play.

Lucille R.-Do you believe in Budda?

Dorothy Z.-Why, of course, but I think oleomargarine is just as good.

GYMNASTS — GRAPPLERS ENTER ALL-STATE MEET

The Eagle Gym team, attired in showy lavender and white suits, will flash out on the University of Minnesota field house floor to engage in the twenty-eighth annual gym meet in which gym teams from all over the Northwest are entered.

Members of the Eagle Gym team who are to take part in the competition are W. Marti, Captain W. Ahrens, Willare Keckeison, W. Havemeier, C. Berg, N. Schroeck and S. Zimmerman.

Ten medals will be awarded in each of the three classes, A, B, and C.

All of the Eagles entered will take part in horizontal bar work, parallel bar work, and mat work.

FFA ENIERS NINE CONTESTANTS IN MEET

The local FFA wrestling team invades the University of Minnesota field house tomorrow night to participate in the ten weight divisions in which 150 high school wrestlers from all over the state are to participate under the Northwestern High School League Wrestling rules.

Members of the New Ulm wrestling team who are to take part in the various weight divisions are as follows: 105 lbs. D. Vogelwohl, 115 lbs. N. Wolf, 125 lbs. V. Arndt, 135 lbs. O. Sievert, 145 lbs. S. Zimmerman and D. Hippert, 155 lbs. C. Modlin and L. Maidl and in the unlimited weight class is entered R. Runck.

All points won by individual contestants toward the team total, the team scoring the highest number of points receiving a trophy. First and second place winners will receive gold and silver medals. Each contestant is to receive five points for first place; three points for second place and one point for third place. A point will also be given for every match won by a fall.

The FFA wrestling coach, Draheim, was optimistic tonight, hoping to place a team in the upper bracket.

"B" SQUAD ROLLS OVER GLENCOE — INTERMURALS LOOSE TO MANKATO

A strong revamped N. U. "B" squad crashed the Glencoe second teams forward wall in last Friday's preliminary game here to win one of the snappiest preliminary games played here this year by a score of 28-23.

Playine one of the fastest preliminary games on any N. U. H. S. card here this year were Thiede and Christianson at forward.

The intermural team was defeated for the second time this season by a Mankato Scout five, this time at Mankato by a score of twenty-seven to nineteen.

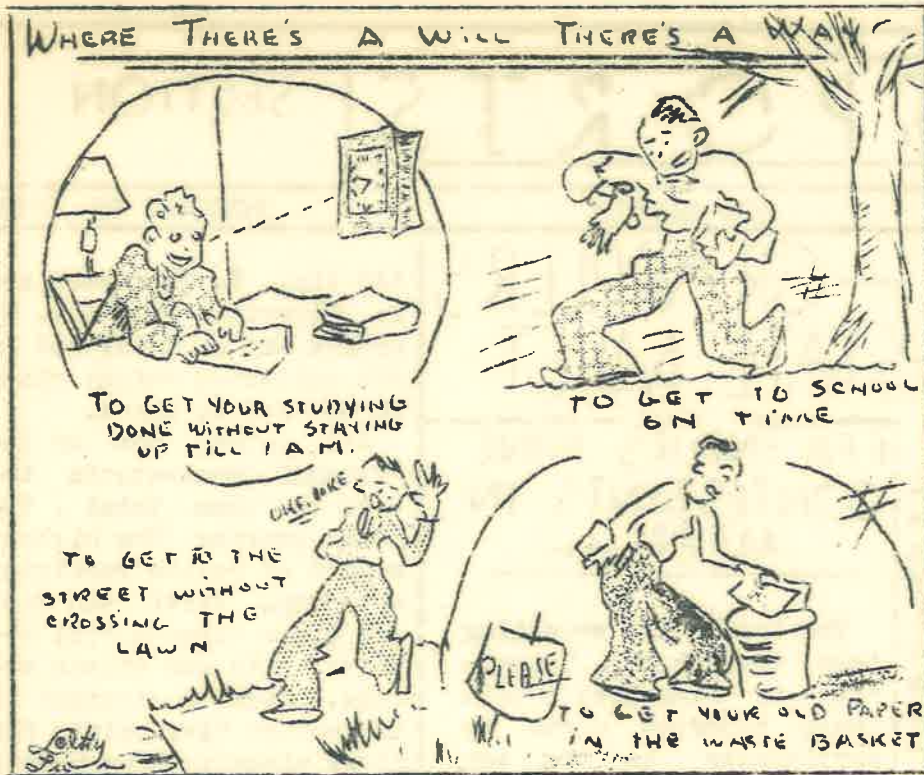

EAGLES DEFEAT GLENCOE

The Eagles went into a revenge battle last Friday night with "blood in their eye" whipping the mighty Glencoe cage machine by a twenty-five point margin to crown one of the greatest comeback drives ever out on by a N.U.H.S. five.

Displaying some of the fastest, most efficient floor play this season, the Eagles topped their comeback drive by smashing the team which started them on the down grade a few weeks ago.

For the first time this year the Eagle five came close to having a star in the form of "Kinger" Eichten who tallied twenty points to take high honors for the evening in scoring.

The victory over Glencoe not only cemented second place in the Little Ten Conference for New Ulm, but also established a score of having beaten every opponent with the one exception of St. James whom they met only once.

Ada Hi Hi

It saddens me to meditate
How many people overate
Themselves, and feel convinced they're far more brilliant than I know they are.

I'm free from such deceptive sham—

I'm smarter than I think I am.

ART CLASS ENTERS
POSTER CONTEST

Miss Paulson's art class is busy making posters for the 1939 World's Fair to be held in New York City. Each poster must contain some idea pertaining to exposition and New York City. The grand prize will consist of a trip to the Fair. Smaller prizes will be given for other acceptable posters. The class has also been making pen and ink sketches of people.

SEWING AND COOKING

The freshmen girls taking sewing from Miss Paulson are making dresses for children from the age of 1 to 6. The first to complete her dress was Doris Dolly.

The girls serving meals to the teachers this week are: Ferne Grussendorf and Marjorie Evans, Mary Klaus, and Eunice Schaefer, Marion Glaser and Pearl Freese, and Dolores Griebel and Emral Sprenger.

The Statue of Liberty in New York harbor was unveiled in 1886.

NICOLLET DECLAM VISITORS
ENTERTAIN STUDENT BODY

Wednesday, the student body was entertained by several declamation students from Nicollet.

Franklin Sweeney started the program by giving his oration entitled The Last Generation. Leola Walz who took part in the sub district contest, gave Jean Marie. The last two selections in humorous were given by seventh graders. Gladys Summers gave Edith Economizes and Dale Johnson gave Mason and Dixon. These people participated in their local contest and received second place.

FRI LE TA CLUB HAS PARTY

The Fri Le Ta Club party which was held last Saturday was a great success due to the efforts of Miss Fischer, Mr. Pfaender and all the committees. The program was opened with music by the Fri Le Ta Girls' Orchestra. "The Blue Prelude" a dance, was presented by a group of Junior High school girls. Tom Streissguth gave his declam number and several other junior high school girls gave a Pierouette Dance. Elaine Shapokahn and Loren Eyrick sang a duet accompanied at the piano by Carol Sandman. Arlene Halvarson played a piano solo. Prizes for Professor Quiz and jumbled word games were won by Virginia Becker, Eldred Fisher, Mariol Havenmaier and various other groups. After the games and entertainment, lunch was served.
