

STUDENT BODY HEARS PUG LUND

Pug Lund!! The magic name of the former Minnesota all-American gridder sent thrills up and down the spines of the students as he addressed them on football this morning here in the high school assembly.

After a humorous introduction in which Pug told of the time Supt. Hanson tried to call the plays for Minnesota from the grandstand, the noted athlete brought all the real value of athletics out.

Pug Lund introduced Bruce Patterson, world's fastest banjo player, who exhibited the skill acquired by twenty-one years of practice by playing popular numbers and catching the entire student body by a promise to play a selection backwards. He did---by turning his back and then playing the selection.

CHARLES LINDEMANN SPEAKS AT FFA MEETING

"I travel very much during the course of the day and I have heard many people out of New Ulm speak about the Future Farmers of America".

That is a statement made by Mr. Charles Lindemann, a visitor at last Tuesday evening's FFA meeting. Mr. Lindemann studied agriculture the first year that it was offered at New Ulm High School.

Plans are under way to hold a local crop identification, grain and poultry judging contest. Committees have been appointed and this annual contest promises to be the best yet.

STUDENTS FLOCK TO REDWOOD FALLS FOR BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

NEW ULM WINS TWO FIRSTS IN DISTRICT DECLAM

Tuesday evening, March 8, the district declam contest was held at the Fairfax high school. Lila Mae Kemske, with the selection, Faith, won first place in the dramatic division, and Jack Minium, with One Big Happy Family, won first in the humorous. Each of the contestants received a unanimous decision. Delford Moerke of Winthrop, who defeated Gareth Hiebert in the sub-district contest, won the honors in the oratorical division. The regional contest will be held next Tuesday night at Redwood Falls. A large local delegation is planning to attend.

DECLAM STUDENTS PRESENT PROGRAM AT MANKATO

N.U.H.S. declam students went to Mankato yesterday to present one of series of declamation programs to be exchanged by these schools.

The New Ulm students making the trip were Jack Minium, who presented his humorous reading, Gareth Hiebert, oratory, Lila Mae Kemske, dramatic, and Corrine Berg, Humorous.

GRAPHOS POSTPONED

Due to the activity stimulated this week by the district tournament, the staff was carried away by the excitement and failed to find time to complete their assignments in time "to go to press".

Two hundred shrieking New Ulm fans and students flocked to Redwood Falls last night to watch the New Ulm Eagles swoop down on Fairfax and smash the team that has no "Big Bad Wolf" by a 42 to 28 score.

One of the largest turnouts for any first game district tournament series trooped to the scene of the district cage spotlight last night, brandishing everything from horns, canes and detective badges to cow bells.

The crack N.U. H.S. drum corps, led by high stepping drum major, Dorothy Schleuder exhibited their spick and span newly pressed lavender and white uniforms in one of the most colorful events of the evening's program.

Resounding cheers rocked the roof as the Eagles took the floor for the first half battle last night.

P.T.A. MEETING POSTPONED

The P.T.A. meeting has been postponed to a week from Monday night, due to several conflicts with other school and curricular activities. In next week's issue of the Graphos, the program for the March 21 meeting will be published.

Mr. E. J. Halling, of the Mankato Teachers' College, a former New Ulm High School instructor, will bring a group of his students to New Ulm to present a program.

Both the 60th and 75th wedding anniversaries are called "diamond woddings."

ODDS AND ENDS

It's always nice to hear something nice about your school from an outsider. Consequently, it's not only the music department that was gratified to receive a letter from a stranger, Mr. Levine, music director at Albert Lea, complimenting that department on the excellence and success of their broadcast.

The link between the basketball and baseball seasons is the snowball season--which is now rivalling basketball for supremacy.

How about a hand for the Class of 1930? The fact that the Carnival Queens for last year and this year were from that class seems to indicate that they've got what it takes--whether "it" is a talent for salesmanship or just an overabundance of enthusiasm.

If you really want that new school to materialize rather than remain a mirage on the horizon, do a little campaigning on your own whenever the opportunity presents itself.

An organization that the student body can be (and is!) justifiably proud of is the girls' drum corps whose appearance and performance are equally deserving of praise.

An optimist is one who counts the very hours until spring (incidentally it's approximately 9 days or 216 hours, or 12,960 minutes).

When you come to school in the morning,
And when you leave in the night,
You can always be absolutely sure
Your hat and coat are a sight!
And when at last you've rescued them,
From under a heaping pile,
The words that you'd like to say just then
To put it mildly, are--vile.

STUFF AND JUNK

Found--By Jack M.--The Fountain of Youth. (Will he ever grow up?)

The other night at Mac's Hamburger Shop Bryce W. ordered a malted milk. He changed his mind and said, "Make mine a soda instead." "Barmaid" Imelda R. replied, "What do you think this is--a sleight of hand show?"

Love's Labor Lost
I don't like my teacher at all,
In fact I think he's punk,
He sharpened his pencil with my knife,
And marked me down a flunk.

Keep Your Eye On---
Lois B. and Martha E. Their frequent trips to the music room must mean something.

Eligible Bachelors?
Bob W.--loves to flirt, dances; can't some of you lower class girls do something about that?
Brad K.--No one can convince us he's a woman-hater!

Buddy B.--The boy from Laffingyet. (Is he eligible or not?)

Ted M.--Girl's I think you've got something there.

Cotton A.----Another of those Laffingyet boys. Maybe if two of you girls ganged up, you could get both of them. They're pals, you know.
Billy L.--here's one who bears watching.

Wonder Why?---
More teachers don't go skiing like Miss Riley?
Lizzy B. isn't satisfied with one swell boyfriend?

Monday Morning Theme--
It's a great day if you don't week-end.

INTRAMURAL CAGERS RUN THROUGH FINAL TOURNNEY

Intramural competition took on a new high this week as Coach Harmon inaugurated the tournament last Tuesday.

The first game of the intramural series between Schlottman's and Ahren's turned into one of the best intramural games this year, both offensively and defensively. Schlottman's gang was finally overwhelmed by Ahren's five in an overtime period by a score of 16 to 19.

Last Friday Walsh's five romped over Ingle's team, smothering them by scoring two points for every one of Ingle's. The final count stood at 12 to 24.

Wednesday Ahren's machine again rolled down on the ill-fated Ingle ship of the hardwood floor, smashing it effortlessly, with a stinging thirty-point drubbing. The final score was 37 to 7 for Ahren's team.

Thursday found Schlottman's five battling the Walsh gang with the Schlottman quint, this time coming out on the long end of a hard-fought 21 to 17 game.

Team	W	L	PTG
Ahrens	2	0	1.000
Walsh	1	1	.500
Schlottman	1	1	.500
Ingle	0	2	.000

Members of the various teams are as follows:

Ahrens: Ahrens, captain, Berg, Schroeck, Marti, Fisher; Walsh: Walsh, captain, Krueger, Peters, Orth, Wieland; Schlottman captain, romberg, Keckeisen, Rickers, Ruenke.

NEW ULM WINS IN DISTRICT TOURNEY

Two thousand cage struck fans were demanding the "hide" of New Ulm tonight. Five hundred loyal rooters were set behind the Laverder.

The largest crowd in Redwood Falls school history jammed the gymnasium last night as eight hardwood teams sounded off in District Ten's floor show of the year.

New Ulm remained in the tourney spotlight after trampling Fairfax, 41 to 28, in a battle that tested a strong team's power and reserve strength.

EAGLES MEET LAMBERTON TONIGHT

Lamberton won the right to meet New Ulm as play swung into the semi-finals tonight, taking Sleepy Eye 36 to 15.

Gaylord loomed the one big hope of a wild-eyed crowd to down the Eagles if they should chance to tangle in the finals tomorrow night. The Maize rallied in the final minutes of play to defeat Redwood Falls, last night, 19 to 13, after playing the Redmen to a three quarter draw.

Springfield, 2-1 favorites before game time, dug in its heels and stemmed a final Morton lead, winning 21 to 18.

The term "baker's dozen" dates back to early English days when tradesmen, fearing anti-fraud laws often gave 13 articles to a dozen.

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT-cont.-night to smash Fairfax and to assure the whole district that New Ulm still is the Big Bad Wolf it is supposed to be.

In tonight's game against Lambertton, Coach Harman predicts one of the biggest battles of the district tournament. He says it'll be a close hard fought battle all the way through, and the best team will win.

With the coach's view in mind, let's get out the horns, canes and detective badges and get to Redwood Falls tonight to help shove the team over the biggest hurdle tonight. Walk, drive, or hitch-hike. Get there and help show Lambertton that New Ulm is the Wolf.

STUDENT COUNCIL NEWS

At the regular meeting of the Student Council last Thursday, there was a discussion on the question "Should class meetings be held at the expense of the last fifteen minutes of Mr. Kitzberger's music time?"

It was suggested that Mr. Kitzberger be informed of the class meeting ahead of time with a note from Mr. Dirks or a class adviser.

SENIORS MAKE PREPARATION FOR GRADUATION

Tuesday, March 1, a senior class meeting was held in Miss Kearns' room.

It was decided to wear dark blue caps and gowns for graduation, and to use the same kind of invitations as the class of '37 used. Evelyn Arndt, Gar-eth Hiebert; and Doris Huelskamp were appointed to decide on the class motto, flowers and colors; and Dorothy Wagner, Dolores Merkel, Charles Korth and Sherman Zimmerman are on a committee to decide upon a gift for the school from the class of '38.

P.T.A. CARNIVAL

Much noise and confusion was "goin' on" in the gym last Sat. nite. It was the annual carnival at the high school, which was attended by approximately 1,000 people.

At 10:30, the queen of the carnival, Carlyn Case a sophomore, was crowned with a wreath of sweet peas. The other candidates, Kathleen O'Malley, Phyllis Shake, Marjorie Thiede and Emily Jane Landrum will each receive a book of theater tickets. The most competition for the sophomores who won, was given by the freshman class. The selling of the queen tickets brought $110 for the P.T.A.

Mrs. Walt Muesing received the $10 award; Cornelius Burke, the $3 prize; and Miss Steen, a member of the high school faculty, received the $2 award.
