How Do You Rate?

Every high school student has the same amount of time—24 hours a day. Although we allow eight hours for sleep, eight more hours for school and about two hours for eating, we still have approximately six hours left for extra-curricular activities. How you spend these unscheduled hours will have a great deal to do with your personality and success now and later.

Many students don't realize the numerous opportunities they have to engage in worthwhile activities in high school. They are such as band, orchestra, chorus, football, basketball, baseball, track, gym team, GAA, FFA, Boy's and Girls ensembles, student assembly programs, school patrol, art, speech activities, school dances and parties, club work, school paper, and many more are activities in which we are permitted to participate.

The school isn't the only place that provides for worthwhile activities. Our churches have young people's societies and choir activities in which many may participate. Scouts, 4-H club work, provide additional opportunities.

Remember! How you spend these hours determine your personality and success of today and what it will be tomorrow.

Mantoux Test Is Worthwhile

"For as little as you are required to go through, the Mantoux test is certainly worthwhile", stated Ralph J. Sutherland who once was a victim of tuberculosis. If this test would have been available at the time Mr. Sutherland contracted the disease he might not have had to stay in bed doing nothing for two long years.

Mr. Sutherland was teaching at Spring Valley, Minnesota at the time he was taken ill. "I had a cough which hung on for about three weeks," he said. "I didn't suspect I had TB." He went on to tell how he was visiting Minneapolis and jokingly asked a friend of his, who was taking medicine at the U, if he could prescribe any cough medicine. His friend took him to the health service there to be examined by Dr. J. A. Meyers. After a preliminary check-up Dr. Meyers asked Mr. Sutherland to come back at 2:00. "I griped and complained: I only wanted some cough medicine." That same afternoon he was given the news that he had an active case of tuberculosis and was ordered home to bed. Complete rest was necessary.

Because he had windows on two sides of him, and because he had gained five pounds in two weeks, it was decided that he wouldn't have to go to a sanatorium. Mr. Sutherland said, "People could come to see me but they had to keep their distance."

After eight and one half months of doing absolutely nothing but lying flat on his back Mr. Sutherland was allowed to get up. He then weighed 182 pounds compared to the 128 pounds he weighed when he was run down. After having x-rays at the Mayo Clinic he was allowed to do moderate exercise but couldn't teach for another year. Two years of Mr. Sutherland's life were wasted because he had TB.

"To this day I receive a Christmas card from J. A. Meyers and it was 11 years ago that he discovered my case of TB."

This little story is for the purpose of bringing home to you that TB can and does strike your friends and family. Don't waste your life needlessly. Find out if you have TB and have those you associate with find out, to protect you as well as themselves. Mantoux tests are given to you free of charge through the sale of Christmas seals. The least you can do is protect others.

Eckstein Is New Rotarian

Henry "Hank" Eckstein, a member of the senior class of '47, has been chosen by the Rotary club to be Rotarian for the month of November. The Rotarians are chosen for their citizenship, scholarship, and participation in extra-curricular activities.

"Hank" was elected vice-president of the student council for this year, and has been selected as a member of the cast for the senior class play. He is well-known for his participation in football, wrestling, and baseball. Recently he has been chosen a member of the All-Conference football team of the South Central League.

"Hank" together with the Rotarian from Trinity, will attend the Rotary luncheons this month.

Who Done It? Was Answered Saturday

People who came to see the senior class play, "The Yellow Shadow" last Friday and Saturday were startled when they heard four gun shots just before the curtain went up on the first act. This started the excitement which lasted until the end when it was discovered that Willard Schultz as Wong Song and Henry Eckstein as Gilbert Wright were smuggling Chinese into the United States.

The talking in a monotone by Nell Travis, played by Lenore Crum, added to the spooky atmosphere of the situation. Nell was supposed to be a housekeeper, but the end revealed that she was placed there by the government. Mildred Marvin, heiress to her uncle's estate, played by Pat Tierney, was kidnapped in the second act but she was returned again for the happy ending.

However, more than a touch of humor was added to the play by Jed Travis, played by Arthur Crum; by Sheriff Macklin, played by Jim Schnobrich; and by Jennie Steele, played Eugenia Forster. Jed was supposed to be very loony and to talk about gillyloo birds; but, as it was also revealed in the end, he was a detective. The sheriff was stupid. He was always a jump or two behind the goings on of the rest of the characters; Jennie Steele, the coroner, who didn't know the first thing about her job, talked in a hillbilly accent, which brought chuckles.

As most stories, "The Yellow Shadow" had a little bit of male and female admiration. Alice Perkins, played by Shirley Rolloff, and Herbert Marvin, played by Eugene Edwards, give the play this needed bit.

Of course, no play would be complete without an old maid. Hazel Wayne, played by Donna Krueger, was aroused by the mere mention of the word matrimony.

The Old Lamplighter Will Make Plea For TB Funds

Army invades NUHS

It looks as though the Army has taken over the halls of NUHS the past week, doesn't it? Here are some of the fellows we've been bumping into:

Herb Furth and Dick Towne, home on a delay enroute of seven days after seven weeks of basic training at Fort Bliss, Texas. From here they are headed for Fort Lawton, Seattle, Washington, by the 25th of November.

Billy Schrader is also home after his basic at Fort Bliss, Texas. He has to be at Fort Lawton the 26th, a day later than Herb and Dick.

Curt Zupfer had his basic training at Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland and has to report to Fort Lawton the 30th.

Marvin Knutson and "Blackie" Glaser took their basic at Fort Dix, New Jersey. By the 25th they will be at Camp Stonemann, Pittsburgh, California.

Seniors Presented Fri-Le-Ta Program

The Fri-Le-Ta Club met on Wednesday, November 21. Plans were discussed for our Annual Boy-Girl Party which, it was decided, will be held sometime in February.

After the business meeting a Talent Program was presented by the Seniors. Jeannie Forster opened the program with two piano selections "Clair de Lune" and "Stardust". Harriette Krieger gave a humorous declamation entitled "Chatterbox" after which Mary Mahle played a flute solo accompanied by Pat Harman. Lenore Crum followed with another humorous reading entitled "Ma Goes To A Basketball Game" and the program came to an end with two piano solos by Shirley Ann Rolloff "Whispering" and "Old Lamp Lighter".

Star Athlete To Speak In Assembly

Wrestling Revelations by Bertrand Shurtleff will be presented here on Nov. 26 by NUHS at 3:00 P. M. Using members of his audience, Mr. Shurtleff will demonstrate wrestling as a popular form of entertainment. He will explain and illustrate such holds as the scissors, the rabbit punch, the head lock, and the hammer lock.

Mr. Shurtleff taught English for over twenty years at Brown University at Providence, Rhode Island, and is a graduate of that institution and was a member of the Brown football team for four years. Dur-

Journalism Class Will Take Over TB Campaign

Because of the ever increasing importance of knowledge about tuberculosis, the Journalism class has been given permission to plan a campaign and to take over the sale of Christmas seals for this year, starting in December. "The Old Lamplighter" representative of the 1946 campaign seal, will be a visitor in New Ulm high school. Information gained from individuals qualified to speak, such as Dr. Howard Vogel, Mrs. Victor P. Reim, chairman of the sale of seals in Brown county, and Governor Harold Stassen will be printed in the Graphos and thus conveyed to the student body.

The Buying of T. B. seals has been neglected among NUHS students for the past years, but this year it is hoped that interest will be created by this campaign and that the sale of seals will be raised to an all-time high.

On designated days in December, the Lamplighter will come to every homeroom and try to enlist the aid of the students in the fight against T. B. by their purchase of Christmas seals.

Seniors Are Out Of The Red

Senior class financial statistics showed that there was $189.01 in the treasury as of November 18.

In the red $13.69 at the end of their junior year, the seniors have raised the present sum of money through various means. Advance sale of tickets for the senior class play has brought $33.20. Five dollars and fifty-nine cents was obtained through senior class donations which started as a joke but snowballed into a tidy sum. The Sadie Hawkins Dance brought in $36.50. Class rings and the class dues deadline arrived about the same time; and although all class dues should have been in by November 15, 64 of the 111 seniors had paid dues, which amounted to $128, by November 18.

About $400 is needed to finance the annual, but the senior class play and the remainder of class dues are expected to raise the difference.

Green Minnesota Is Searls' Topic

"Keep Minnesota Green" will be Harold Searls' topic when he appears in assembly Monday, December 4 at 8:30 A. M.

Mr. Searls will show two 25 minute films, entitled, "Trees For Tomorrow" and "Boys and Trees". He will also give a talk emphasizing the importance of the forests in Minnesota. Literature on reforestation, conservation of forests and forest fire prevention will be available.

ing his senior year at Brown, he was named the outstanding center in collegiate football by Glen Warner and several prominent sports writers. As a wrestler, he won the New England Intercollegiate Wrestling Championship. For two years he wrestled professionally. Bertrand Shurtleff is also a man of letters for he published an original volume of poetry which received favorable critical comment. His "AWOL, K-9 Commando" was published in 1944 and was the first full length novel about the exploits of a dog in the war.

Polling The Public Opinion

Hi Kids:

You all know that the people in the home town always like to see the local boy come back and make good.

The Question we asked was "Do you plan to remain in your home town when you finish your schooling?"

Dear diary

We've had our first snowfall, Diary, so I guess winter is officially here. I just love the snow and cold—it made me feel so ambitious I actually got out and shoveled the sidewalk on Sunday morning! It got me all hepped up about Christmas, too; I went walking down the street kicking snow, gaily singing "Joy To The World", and wondering what in the world to get Phyllis for Christmas.

This was only the second time that Mr. Penuelas has seen snow, and when we talked to him about it he said he liked the snow but not the cold. I'm afraid he's going to get a shock when it gets below zero.

I had the craziest dream last night, and you'll never guess what it was about. I saw quaint little atoms dancing around and around beautifully dressed liters. Miss Raverty, what are you doing to me!

I've decided that old saying about red-heads ruling the world true because Cleopatra had red hair—or didn't you know?

Love,

Dona, what's cooking between you and St. James?

The ballroom isn't such a bad place after all. Is it Erma Jean?

Some of the boys on T. C.'s football team sure are cute. Aren't they Honey, Dory, Rosie and Evie?

Sandy, did you fall asleep at Kosek's last Saturday night? Tut, Tut, what did mama say?

Kim, don't you know that there is a dressing room just across from the girls lockers?

It seems every time I walk into the office, Louise Krohn is visiting with Mr. Lynott. Good Grief, what am I doing in there?

Kathy don't you and Jack know it's improper to spoon in a theater, especially with the lights on.

words, loafing. We guess he's a typical N. U. H. S. student. Of course, Art does find time and energy for Physics, which he claims is his most interesting period in school. We can sort of gather what his pet peeve is, can't we Lenore? But then, you'll have to admit that sisters do come in handy once in awhile. Art is also a familiar sight around the Band Room, and certainly not a hindrance to it, either. There certainly is a very bright future ahead of this fellow.

Nearly everyone can guess who we're talking about when they learn this gal's favorite pastime, namely, writing to and receiving letters from a certain sailor boy. Naturally, we mean Eugenia Forster. She's trying to convince us that she intends to become an airline stewardess, but we sometimes wonder—eh, Wally? This little dark-haired cutie also enjoys trying out new cooking recipes. Talking about food, Jeanie's heart goes out to olives. Imagine! She has numerous hobbies which include keeping 9 scrap books of almost everything under the sun. What with seeing every Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon movie she's definitely a busy person. Agreed!

"Angel"

No doubt you have noticed a rather tall girl with naturally curly brown hair, blue eyes, and a smile on her face wherever she goes. Yes, Hilda Treichel is her name. Her lucky day is Sept. 2 as she was ushered into the world on that date. Hilda, it seems, enjoys french fries, hamburgers, Spanish, Jack Smith and the movie stars Dale Evans and Turhan Bey all rolled into one. That ought to make a very interesting dish, what do you say, Guys and Gals? Her ambition is not quite definite but she has an inclination to like horseback riding so maybe her future ambish is travel. Anyway it's not such a bad idea, try it sometime.

"Blackie"

On the bright sunny day of July 18 way back somewhere around 1929 a baby was born to this class of a contrasting nature. Meaning that on such a bright day a blonde haired, brown eyed "infant" started her career as a member of the class of '47. Somewhere between then and now she picked up a definite liking for sports and training dogs, namely her "ignorant" pup. Besides these interests, Jose Iturbi sends a chill down her spine and no doubt Bing Crosby croons her to sleep. Social seems to be quite the subject among "us" Seniors for Marilyn also states that as her special subject; Nursing [though she's positive she will never get there] is her "ambish". It would be O. K. by her if chicken would be fed to her every day as a daily diet to keep up her strength for that field of work.

"Petey"

Ah! Lucky June 27, to be proclaimed the birth date of that all "around," All American, all sports, Jerry Kraus; yes that's who that brown haired, blue eyed, cute lookin' guy is in our "history making" Senior class. We needn't mention I guess, that sports is his favorite pastime and his favorite dish is barbecued ribs, but what we would like to know is, what does he do "otherwise"? He can't be on the football field and the basketball floor all the time and he certainly can't be eating ribs all day and night. He hasn't got his ambition figured out as yet, so here's your chance girls. He can't be busy all the time.

"Doc"

If this fellow has his way, you'll be calling him Doctor Cym in just a few years. Right Art? As to the present, he's interested only in eating, hunting, and fishing or in plain

When Betsy Von Bank was struggling over her Geometry, Miss Wuopio suggested studying with Walden and making it a "night project."

"Old Buttermilk Sky" seems to be quite the favorite among some of the sophomore girls and "Senior" boys. Still?????

There was a scavenger hunt Sunday night. The signature of saleslady in a dry goods store, a two-headed nail, a Physics book, and a girdle are some things they were required to get.

Have you noticed the flashy ties Mary Green has been wearing? Seems to me Bill Dempsey has got one just like it.

We've got a tenor soloist in chorus. Haven't we? Nice going, Carol Landquist.

Have you heard the latest—one of our teachers is lugging bottles of milk to school. Doesn't your wife feed you, Mr. Sutherland?

What's the little affair that seems to be stirring up between Khalil and Audre?

The latest fad seems to be wearing pajamas, striped ones at that, around town. Ask Jean Gasner and Donna Roberts about that.

Note: The Swing Band is thinking of disbanding because they aren't allowed to play at hardly any dances. What do you think about it kids? Put your opinions in the Graphos.

Donna Krueger's headaches come in quite handy as an excuse at times, so we've been told.

Her lips quivered as they approached his. His whole frame trembled as he looked into her eyes. Her chin vibrated and his body shuddered as he held her close to him. Moral: Never try to kiss a girl in a jeep.

"There's only one thing wrong with me, Blondie, I'm color blind."
"Boss, you sho is."

"That's a Hot number," said the steer, as a branding iron was pressed against his leg.

Eugene Edwards wasn't meant to gash his chin open at play practice the other night, even if a murder is committed in the play.

New classes—Mr. Milinovich has inaugurated a new class which will be known as the 7th hour Study Hall. This class meets after 4 o'clock and the time is voluntarily donated by the Friday members of the 5th hour Study.

Largest Group Ever Reported Turned Out To Train For Gym

Tom Pfaender Will Again Be The Coach

The largest group ever to turn out for the high school gym team has reported to Tom Pfaender, coach of the gymnasts, to train for the first meet to be held in New Ulm, December 14.

The boys to compete in the meet will be chosen by Mr. Pfaender after an intra-squad affair. All gymnasts will take part in this meet, with the top ten comprising the Class C squad and the remainder to enter Class D work.

The first meet on the schedule will be held in New Ulm December 14, with Fairmont, Worthington, and the Eagles to work out in a triangular affair. The second contest, on January 11, will be between the same three schools, with the meeting to be held at Worthington.

The third affair on the schedule will be a home contest, the Eagles encountering Rochester. This meet will be a combination, the Eagle wrestling squad and the gym team meeting the two Rochester squads.

On January 25, a third meeting of Fairmont, Worthington, and New Ulm will be held at Fairmont. February 1 will bring the Southern Minnesota gym meet to Mankato. Mankato Teachers College, Rochester, Fairmont, Worthington, and New Ulm will compete in this affair.

New Ulm and Rochester will repeat the dual wrestling and gym meet at Rochester, February 8.

Finalists from the Southern Minnesota meet will compete in the annual state-wide affair to be held in Minneapolis, February 15.

Squad Cut Down To 45

In preparation for the opening game of the Eagles' basketball schedule at Sleepy Eye, Tuesday, November the 26, Mentor Joe Harman has cut the squad from the original 45 cagers to 28.

The squad consists of five seniors, seven juniors, and 15 sophomores. The seniors on the remaining squad are Arlo Becker, Jerry Kraus, Joe Pivonka, Jerry Prah, and Richard Schueller.

The junior representation consists of Delbert Altman, Jim Clay, La Ray Johnson, Keith Oswald, Marv Rempfer, Bud Thiede, and Chuck Malby.

The fifteen sophomores are Harlan Bauermeister, Charles Brust, Richard Niemann, Fred Nystrom, Jim Prokosch, Eugene Sandmann, Harold Wieland and Dennis Nelson.

Callings All Girls

The senior high gals aren't the only ones who play in soccer-ball tournaments. The junior high girls can play ball, too. Their tournament started with the 7th and 8th grade teams battling it out. The 8th graders were just too strong for the 7th graders, and the score turned out to be 2-0. The next game which was between the 8th and 9th graders was a tie game 0-0. Neither team wanted to stop, but their playing over - time didn't seem to help.

We know you want to be enlightened as to who the captains were, so here goes: Senior: H. Treichel; Junior: E. Siemering; Sophomore: L. Wilson; 9th co-captains: L. Herrick and K. Fiemeyer; 8th D. Huelkamp; 7th Sharon Oswald. Congratulations to all the captains.

Now that G. A. A. is inside again the girls are warming up for volley ball. The turn-out is good, but there's still room for more players. Some of the girls are working on apparatus, too. So if you want to lose that extra pound come down and let G. A. A. help you. We'll be seeing you Tuesday at 4:00. Junior high girls come down Thursday at 4:00.

Looking Back

by Herb Schaper
Eagles

Tonight the Eagles open up their 1946-47 basketball season battling the Indians at Sleepy Eye. New Ulm's probable starting five will shape up something like this: Jerry Prah, Pete Kraus, Joe Pivonka, Keith Oswald, and Tommy Hayes. Coach Harman is neither optimistic nor pessimistic, as he figures his charges to win some games. So tonight in a way is a test for the Eagles. Let's give them the support of the student body.

Bowling

What has happened to the high school bowling leagues? Years ago students from good old N. U. H. S. had their own leagues. In 1940 they had the "Feathered League." They had their fun bowling on a Saturday afternoon or on nights after school. Why not reorganize a new league? Points could be given as this would be extra curricular sport. The league could have their own president and secretary, with different teams. A schedule could be drawn up with each team playing the other teams an equal number of times. At the end of the season, some kind of a prize could be awarded to the winning team.

At Springfield the students have their own high school league. They have written the Concordia Club asking for a series of matches with a New Ulm bowling team. This could be done: the five bowlers with the highest averages could take on Springfield. Some time in the near future a meeting will be held for interested individuals.

second, winning five games in six starts. New Ulm played their final game with Sleepy Eye winning 7-6 in a last-half rally... Coach Joe Harman's basketball squad of 40 tryouts had been trimmed to 25... The juniors were hastily preparing for their class play "Growing Pains", with Lois Becker and Gareth Hiebert playing the leading roles.

5 years ago

New Ulm's basketball outlook didn't sparkle as the Eagles prepared for the Winthrop opener... The November 11 blizzard found 7 members of the faculty stranded in the storm; while only 50% attendance was recorded... Ninety schools were invited to a "clearing house" for officials. The main purpose of the meeting was to make game refereeing in Southern Minnesota more honest.

Jr. High Cagers

Mr. Stuhr and Mr. Laughlin, jr. high athletic coaches were greeted by twenty-four jr. high cagers. The coaches plant to divide the players into two divisions, one the beginners and the other the more advanced class. This year's student manager is James Olson, who was injured during the White-Green clash the end of the season.

Teacher Training News

Guess what? We have decided on a name for our club. It is the "T T Club."

Since last week was Book Week, we observed it by making a trip to the New Ulm Public library. The period was spent in looking at the new and very beautifully illustrated primary books. Don't we wish we were in the primary grades again?

The study of fur bearing animals has been our topic in science the past week. In addition to this, we spent an hour at Ochs looking at the different furs. We saw some very beautiful specimens, and by this time most of us have decided on the kind of fur coat we want next year.

Here's the results from the last poll on favorite male crooners:

1. Bing Crosby
2. Dick Haymes
3. Frank Sinatra
4. Perry Como

For next issue let's see who the favorite female singers are of New Ulm High. Remember contributions go into the Graphos box.

The band had election of officers November 8: Jean Forster was elected president; Mary Mahle, vice-president, and Bob Schroedl, secretary.

The ensembles are really working hard now. The girls' ensemble is practicing on Christmas music. The girls hope to sing in public soon. The sopranos in the group include Patty Hartl, Iris Wagner, Patty Harman, Mary Mahle, and Connie Scherer. The second sopranos are Mary Herrmann, Delphine Amundson, Shirley Roloff and Harriet Krieger. Elaine Siemering, Kathy Kral, Donna Sauer, Jean Forster, and Donna Krueger are the altos.

Join The Navy and Go To College

After Lieutenant Tracy of the U. S. navy explained the NACP and NROTC programs in the library, November 18, about a dozen senior boys took application blanks for the aptitude test in Mankato, January 18, 1947.

He emphasized that passing of the aptitude test for this officer training program would put no one under any obligation to the navy. If a boy wants to continue no farther in the program after passing the test, he is free to drop out of it. Only seniors are allowed to enter it because four years of high school is one of the eligibility requirements.

Dine In Style Invite-- The Dinner Orchestra

Dinner music was provided by the NUHS dinner orchestra, led by Miss Lois Coderre, for a banquet at Turner Hall, November 10.

This was just one of the many dinners it has played for since it was organized in the first week of school. There has been so much demand for dinner music that an orchestra was formed especially for this purpose. It is made up of nine members of the regular NUHS orchestra and is directed by Miss Coderre. Its members are first violin—Ted Stoltenburg and Carolyn Held; second violin—Elaine Siemering and Barbara Fritsche; cello — Myrtle Halverson; piano—Ruth Groebner; clarinet—Arthur Crum; flute—Mary Mahle; string bass—Tony Sellner.

Werner Is On Gustavus Staff

Ralph Werner, class of 1944, is on the Gustavian Weekly sports staff. The Graphos contacted him to find out exactly what his duties are. This is what Ralph wrote in reply; "My duty on the Gustavian Weekly is writing sports which is a job that requires me to put out a sport page for that paper each week. Thanks to some experienced help, that job isn't too cumbersome. Besides that, when I find time, I work with the Public Relations Director compiling news stories for release to press and radio.

Best regards,
"Wiener"

Navy Vet Is Back In School

Another veteran who has returned to school to complete his education is Dale Evans. Dale took his basic training at Great Lakes, Farragut, Idaho, from there he went to Camp Parks, California for advanced training. Shipping out from California to Pearl Harbor, Japan, and Guam, he remained on Guam for 6 months and then flew to Kwajalien and Wake Island. Dale was a member of the Sea Bees and was in the service 14 months.

He is finishing his senior year and was a member of our football team. Besides the required subjects, Dale takes physics and biology and is also a member of the chorus.

Have you ever looked at this girl a "Pepster" Wadena, Minn.

AIN'T IT THE TRUTH?

If a girl speaks to everyone, she's forward.
If she doesn't, she's bashful.
If she talks to boys, she's a flirt.
If she doesn't, she's a high-hat.
If she's smart in school, she's a high brow.
If not, she's dumb.
If she talks about others, she's catty.
If she doesn't, she's a prude.
If she goes out with many boys, she's a pick-up.
If she doesn't, she's a wallflower.
If she's popular, she's talked about.
If not, she's ignored.
If she goes steady, she has to. If she doesn't, she couldn't.
If she wears a boy's ring, she took it.
If she doesn't, she can't.

YA CAN'T WIN!!!!

"By Two Goils"

We've had "requests", "orders" and "commands" from the he males of NUHS to devote a column strictly to them, so as they say, "This is it!"

Here's a plug for a shoe shine shop—We've noticed that men's platforms are always more presentable, than fems. Strange isn't it, since we, the fairer sex, are so fussy about other habits. It's a score for any guy, tho' when his shoes blink like head lights. That's one where they're up on us, gals!

Blue Joes [That's boys' overalls] are really blossoming in this "here" year. We can now look back to those medieval times, couple years ago, when the idea was a definite social outcast. No foolin', they're even cute with mocs or Lil' Abner shoes. We can't see how in the world you guys can lift those tons around off the floor, but we wouldn't advise a steady diet of them. When you're really in full bloom tho, is when, out of a clear sky, you don your flashy ties and suits. Of course, that only lasts a day but, of course while it lasts, you maintain a strictly A-plus rating with us. We dream about you guys all dished out like Van Johnson and it's terrific seeing our dreams "in the flesh"!

About the last thing on your clothes list is those strictly from Tauscheck's stocking caps. The Joes from Lafayette Pole sport 'em all year round and they really "do" something for you—Goose and Schnobby are NU members of the clan.

Well guys that's it—your column—all yours—sincerely yours—

Movies to be Shown On Temperance

Moving pictures on the temperance question will be shown to the junior high at 9:30 o'clock and to the senior high at 11:15 on Friday, December 6, by Mr. Ingersoll. Besides the movies there will be a discussion on this topic. Mr. Ingersoll is the executive secretary of the Minnesota Temperance Association.

On the Inside

The past three weeks the girls physical education classes have been graded on the apparatus work required by the state department of physical education.

In preparation for Christmas, which is just around the corner, the art classes are making pottery in the form of bookends, jars, and tea tiles, to be used as Christmas gifts. The tea tiles will make fine floral table decorations for some mother's Christmas dinner table.

They're Still At It

They're still at it! Those junior and senior girls are the ones we mean. All are busy as bees trying to finish their new outfits. Besides roast turkey on Thanksgiving, there will be a lot of "flashy frocks" to set off the holiday.

They aren't exactly "Teen-Timer Originals", but many could pass with high honors. Many are the hours that were spent pinning, basting, ripping, and rebasting! Patience and Fortitude when it came to that ripping and rebasting all over again.

A bulletin-board was put up showing some of the styles and samples of material being used. Wool-tailored dresses and slacks top the list in popularity in all projects.

The boys in Home Ec. really took over their jobs as "chief cooks and bottle-washers" whole-heartedly, when they helped prepare the dinner for the school board meeting.

As chief cooks, they had the job of baking pies and rolls and preparing the dressing for the turkey. They took over the duties of serving, and after all this work they volunteered to do the dishes. My, what ambition! But of what help are they at home? They wouldn't think of drying the dishes for their little kid-sisters.

Their lessons in table service, etiquet, marketing and kitchen planning came in very handy for these jobs.
