

EDWARD H. FIER

Fier Joins Staff As Ag. Instructor

Filling the position of agriculture instructor formerly held by Glenn Scott is Edward H. Fier, graduate of the University of Minnesota and a veteran of World War II. He began his duties in NUHS on January 6.

As personnel officer in the navy, he was stationed at the Induction center at Fort Snelling, and later was sent to Okinawa.

During his enrollment at the University of Minnesota he was a member of Alpha Gamma fraternity. After three years at the University, he left to work for the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine in Fargo, North Dakota, as supervisor of thirty men carrying on a survey for eradication of barberry bush.

He held this position until his enlistment in the navy. After his discharge from the service he returned to the University of Minnesota to complete his fourth year.

Mr. Fier was born in Lincoln County, Minnesota and attended Minnesota High School, where some of his activities included football and baseball. He was married in St. Cloud in 1944, and lived in Minneapolis until recently. When asked how he liked the school, he replied "It looks very promising."

Wuopio Visits California

While the students spent Christmas in cold Minnesota, Laura Wuopio spent her vacation in sunny California only it rained the first three days she was there. "I arrived Monday morning and it rained all day Tuesday, and Wednesday, and on Thursday morning."

Miss Wuopio didn't sight-see as much this year as she did last, as she spent most of her time with her family, although she did see the Rose Parade at Pasadena. The parade started at 9:15 and lasted about two hours. Bob Hope was on one of the floats and Roy Rogers and Leo Carrillo were riding horses in the parade. About a million and a half onlookers were said to have attended. All the floats are made of flowers.

One day while driving through town Miss Wuopio had an interesting experience. She related, "We drove through a section that looked as if it had been bombed; one of the occupants of the car explained that the buildings were parts of movie sets, and each set made was left standing in case of further use; at closer inspection I saw western towns, French villages and bombed churches and homes."

The train trip to California is not very scenic, as the route crosses much of the flat land of the country.

Gustavus Adolphus Symphony Band Presented Concert

Gustavus Adolphus symphony band presented a concert in New Ulm, Sunday January 19, at 3:00 P. M.

Mergo Wertenbach, gifted young lyric - dramatic soprano of New York City, was accompanied by Mrs. Joyce Hilary, when she sang her solo.

Members of the band included 3 former New Ulm students, Joleen Siebenbrunner, Howard Brust, Edward Wagner. The band featured Edward Wagner as a clarinet soloist.

Core of the band is the French Horn section. The all-girl section is a attraction which interests many people.

Minnesota Aquatennial Queen, Miss Ruth Tolman, holds a key position in the band and also plays in the all-girl flute section.

Frederic Hilary, the conductor of the symphony band, is graduate of Julliard and Eastman school of music. At one time he was a member of the Rochester Philharmonic, and also guest conductor of the Minnesota Symphony.

Fri Le Ta Boy and Girl Party Held

Decorations carrying out a winter theme served as a background for the Fri-le-ta club's annual boy and girl party, held Saturday night, January 18, in the small gym.

At the beginning of the evening, corsages were presented to Laura Wuopio and La Vanche Becker, the Fri-le-ta advisers, by the club members.

Tom Pfaender took charge of the grand march, games and dancing. Chairmen of the committees responsible for planning and carrying out the party were as follows: The entertainment committee, Gene Schueller; Food, Rose Mary Christian; Decoration, Dorothy Ann Moll; Invitation, Mary Niehoff; and Clean up, Donna Krueger.

'I Play Because I Enjoy It' Says Kohl

Wesley A. Kohl, who presented the assembly on Friday, January 10, advises those who have quit music, "Not to, as you will regret it later on." There are short cuts to learning how to play popular music if you know how to play classical compositions. Mr. Kohl uses the short cut of striking out all notes that aren't necessary to the melody, but add to the arrangement.

"I'm not an accomplished pianist. I started to take lessons when I was nine years old, and quit when I was twelve," said Mr. Kohl. "I play because I enjoy it." He plays only for friends; his profession is selling books.

Silent movies provided the theme for his Friday morning assembly. He was able to illustrate the three phases of music in the silent movies, drawn from his past experiences, because he had played for them.

Scott Receives Appointment of Ag. Supervisor of Japan

Glenn Scott, former member of NUHS staff who is in Japan, informed his family, in a telephone conversation, Friday night, January 17, that he has been appointed adviser and supervisor of all agriculture education in Japan.

The telephone call came through in New Ulm at 7:45 Friday evening, January 17, but it was 11:00 Saturday morning in Japan.

Debaters Will Go To Decorah Tournament

Decorah, Iowa, will be host to its annual debate tournament January 31. The debaters from New Ulm who will attend are Bill Dempsey and Virg Herrick on the negative, and Iris Wagner and Jean Nelson on the affirmative.

The debate topic for this year is, "Resolved: That the federal government should provide a system of complete medical care available to all citizens at public expense." Government Medicine was the topic five years ago too. The subject has gained much publicity from the fact that Senators Wagner, Murray and Dingell have been proposing a health bill in Congress.

Speakers Attended So. St. Paul Debates

NUHS debaters attended South St. Paul's debate tournament, Saturday, January 18. Schools from Minnesota and Wisconsin participated in the three round debate tournament.

Bill Dempsey won first place and the blue ribbon in individual ratings. His total number of points was 27, two more than anyone else.

Bill Dempsey and Virg Herrick received superior and excellent team ratings, debating on the negative. Iris Wagner and Jean Nelson debating affirmatively got excellent ratings. Bill and Virg won two out of three of their debates and Iris and Jean lost two out of three of theirs.

The debaters left Friday after school and returned Saturday night. This is their first judged inter-scholastic debate of the season. Thursday night after school the team got practice by debating Mankato in an unjudged contest.

Polling Public Opinion

by "Hansie" Brust

So far this year we have had four programs in assembly that came to us through the courtesy of University of Minnesota Extension Service. The question we asked was: Which of these programs did you like best? A cross section of the student body replied in this way:

Seniors	Chalk Talk	5%
	Hobbies	4%
	Wrestling	35%
	Ritz Trumpeteers	56%
Juniors	Chalk Talk	6%
	Hobbies	6%
	Wrestling	48%
	Ritz Trumpeteers	42%
	Chalk Talk	9%
	Hobbies	2%
	Wrestling	37%
	Ritz Trumpeteers	61%

Junior's Shift Speech and English Courses

With the closing of the first semester comes several changes in the schedules of the junior class. One of these is the shift from Speech to English or vice versa. But before the speech classes are disbanded, the dreaded closing speech must be made. During the past week Mr. Sutherland has been kept busy grading these 500 to 800 word speeches. The topics are all of current interest, ranging from juvenile delinquency, taking in our country's problems, to unity for peace, and problems for the world as a whole. These closing speeches are an annual affair, like a ceremony or graduation. When these are over, the student has completed the requirements for the speech course.

NUHS Offers Night Classes; 140 Adults Are Enrolled

Sharpen Your Wits

Seniors and freshmen will take a test prepared by the American Council of Education on February 3. The test is for the high school's reference and will help determine which students could gain by going on to a college or university.

Scouts Will Run City One Day During National Scout Week

To commemorate National Scout Week, February 8 to 15, New Ulm scouts will take over the city government on Saturday, February 8. Each one of the four New Ulm troops will choose five scouts who will act as the city officials for the day. The scouts will receive assistance from the regular officials. That evening a Court of Honor will end the day's activities.

On Wednesday, February 12, the Winthrop, Lafayette, and Gibson scout troops will come to New Ulm and hold a rally in the armory with the four New Ulm troops.

There are also tentative plans for a senior boy scout social hour at the Flandrau state park recreational building sometime during the week.

President Truman will give a nation wide address honoring National Scout Week on an unannounced date.

Freshmen To Have Their Class Party In Small Gym

On Friday, January 24, at 7:30, in the small gym, the ninth graders will have their class party.

The committees that have been chosen are as follows: food committee — Ginger Tyrrell, Beryl Siebenbrunner, Renee Reim, Gerry Slaybaugh, and Yvonne Christensen; entertainment committee — James Dittrich, Claire Liesch, Marilyn Bockus, Joan Bauermeister, and Bob Schmidt; record for dancing committee—Norbert Schwartz, Barbara Fritsche, and Mary Ellen Sisco; clean - up committee — John Kiefer, Joel Tierney, and Charles Garland.

Plans for the party include playing games in the small gym, having lunch in the cafeteria, followed by dancing to records in the small gym.

Plans Are Made For Tournament

Plans for the District 10 basketball tournament have been changed by the members of the District 10 Athletic Committee, at their meeting at Morton on January 20, in order to accommodate the crowds.

Instead of having the sub-district games at Redwood Falls, and the finals at New Ulm, tournament games will be played simultaneously at both schools, with one game at Redwood on Tuesday evening, March 4, and one at New Ulm. The same procedure will be followed every night that week and the next except Saturday, with one game a night at each school, until the finals.

There will be but the one game for the District 10 Championship, on Friday night, March 14, at New Ulm.

Final night championship game tickets sales will be limited to the two competing schools and the host school.

Six High School Students Are Attending

Night classes are offering 10 subjects this year with approximately 140 adults enrolled. This number includes six high school students.

Classes started Monday, January 13, and will run 10 weeks through March 17. All classes meet on Mondays with the exception of Still Life Drawing and Pottery. These classes meet on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, respectively.

Welding class is held at the New Ulm Manufacturing Company, while all other classes meet at NUHS under the supervision of members of the faculty.

Classes that are fully enrolled include typing, metal shop, welding, sewing, wood shop, pottery, and still life. Cooking, Spanish, and agriculture are nearly filled.

High school students in night classes are all enrolled in typing. They include Walden Thiede, Arthur Crum, Fred Schneider, John Brust, James Sturm, and Kenneth Herzog.

Third Annual Little Ten Discussion

Highlighting the year for the Discussion club was the third annual Little Ten discussion which was held Wednesday afternoon, January 15, at NUHS. The schools participating were Hutchinson, Springfield, Sleepy Eye, Marshall, Redwood Falls, St. James Fairmont, Glencoe and New Ulm. Representatives of the tenth city, Tracy, were not able to attend.

The entire group was divided into four sections, one discussion taking place in the Auditorium, the others in Mr. Milinovich's, Miss Kayser's and Mr. Stuhr's rooms. The subject for discussion was "Maintenance of Industrial Peace."

At 4:00 P. M. a talent show was held in the band room. Donna Krueger introduced the students participating in the program. They were Marianne Ostrom, Hutchinson, humorous reading; Hjalmer Friton, Sleepy Eye, humorous reading; Darleen Bruns, Fairmont, dramatic play-cutting; Gudelia Utz, Springfield, original oration; Margaret Parks, Redwood Falls, humorous reading; and Patty Harman, New Ulm, piano selection.

The activities of the day were ended by a 5:30 supper in the cafeteria. Participants of the discussion and their advisers were invited. The supper was served by Miss Westling and members of her home economics classes.

TT's Practice Teach Seventh and Eighth

On January 13 the Teacher Trainees started practice teaching in the seventh and eighth grades. They are teaching outlining, reporting and summarizing.

Just before Christmas vacation the girls had their final exam in arithmetic. Instead of arithmetic they have started work in geography. A unit in Minnesota History has also been started. This is an interesting subject because they are learning more about their own state.

At the last T. T. Club meeting the Midwest Rural Conference, which is to be held April 17, 18 and 19 was discussed. If possible, plans will be made so that all the teacher trainees will be able to attend. They are also making plans to exhibit rural school activity pictures at this meeting.

There seem to be quite a few gals in our famous Class of '47 that want to be a nurse someday and among them is Bernice Roiger. Although nursing is her ambition she likes to dance and sew. Here's a sweet little lass that doesn't seem to have any pet peeve. I'll bet there are very few of you readers who who can say the same. Harry James and his Orchestra is her favorite band and collecting photographs is her hobby. Another of her favorite is Miss Hein's gym class.

Gerry

Geraldine Maha is one person NUHS can be proud of. Instead of tearing us down as the rest seem to do she seems to be supporting our fair institution. She says she likes our assembly programs, Gym, and Home Ec., the best. Who doesn't? [Especially the boy's Home Ec. class—Oh, to be in good with some of those boys.] She seems to take to the out-of-doors, and writing letters keeps her occupied while indoors. When it comes to the movies she melts with Alan Ladd on the screen, and Sonja Heine takes her into a spin at the theater. Gerry hopes to become something like a teacher and telephone operator.

Lover

Here's one man we didn't have to hunt for or dig up, for Schnobby can be found at the Girl's Senior lockers between classes most anytime of the day. We certainly aren't complaining though. If it weren't for Schnobby our life over there on the left side would be rather dull. [Put down that book, Shirley!] From the interview I got from Schnobby I'd say that the best birthday present he could have on May 2, would be a table [for two] in some nice club in Minneapolis with Stan Kenton coming forth playing "Jealousy", while "Twerp", we mean Miss Rolloff, feeds him his favorite dish—Swiss Steak, and then after a dance or two, a dash off for a swim. Schnobby hates the Lyric on Fri. and Sat. when the good old Westerners are ripping along about to bite the dust. Sometime in the not too distant future Schnobby will be shoving off for college.

Blackie

This time the nickname applies to a girl whose chief ambition is to go to a beauty culture school—and definitely not because she needs it either! She tells us that she has loads of pet peeves, but she's especially "irked" when she catches sight of an odd combination of dress. In her spare time Kathie likes watching football games and going bowling. She also has a "knack" for collecting almost anything under the sun. This gal spends many enjoyable hours listening to "Friendly Time" and claims that the best thing about school is the weekend—wonder why? By now you must have guessed her name.—Of course, it's Kathleen Turbes.

Bobbie Ann

Golly, we must be in a rut or something because this time the person in our clutches is a boy who has a rather indefinite future. He likes ribs and french fries, especially when they're made by a certain someone! While he isn't working at Tauscheck's Grocery you'll be able to find this fellow visiting a certain neighbor of his, Huh Connie? Bob enjoys listening to "name" bands very much and here's where his hobby of playing the clarinet comes in handy. In between this heavy schedule, Bob Schroedl still finds time to watch football games, dance at the Ballroom, and see an occasional Lana Turner movie.

"Smiles"

Mary Reinhart has some of the biggest and best smiles this school has ever seen! It seems as though she has been smiling ever since that birthday of hers May 11, 1929; it must have been a very happy day. Mary's favorite class is shorthand, small wonder, for her ambition is to be a stenographer. Second-hour study seems to be her pet peeve; with some of the people in there, we can readily understand why! Mary considers sewing a profitable pastime, especially on Saturday afternoons,

"Smithy"

Since everyone calls her "Smithy", Irene Smith, a gal with a yen for traveling, better stay home and be a blacksmith! "Smithy" likes to hear Friendly Time, too. A request for Bing Crosby singing "You Make Me Feel So Young" would probably "fill her bill." In her spare time, Irene works at an office and runs with her "gang" somewhere. Smithy likes her shorthand class, of course, since she wants that office work in the West. Now Irene don't eat too much chocolate ice-cream or you may go west in another way!

"Beck"

Aw, I know, no one can guess who "Beck" is but we'll give you three hints. This athletic looking man loves ribs and duck, likes baseball and plays a good game! Well, I tried to fool you—but everyone guessed right—it's Arlo Becker! "Beck" likes to "horse around" uptown; but just to show the teachers he studies once in a great while, his favorite classes are Social and Salesmanship. Really, Beck, you don't need those classes! He wants to go to trade school though, so I guess he must have some favorites.

Let's Turn Over a New Leaf

With the beginning of a new semester as with the beginning of a new year, we could probably make a few resolutions—Fr instance... I—hereby resolve...

"To Work Harder At School". My grades are good enough to keep mother and dad satisfied, but I know I could learn a lot more if I didn't write letters in study hall and keep thinking about last night's date or game while the teacher is talking. And I guess for this year I'll try to do my homework without listening to the Bob Hope and Fibber McGee programs at the same time. And maybe [got my fingers crossed on this one] I can learn to get through just One evening without calling up the girls three or four times to see what answer they got to problem 14 in algebra or whether the history assignment begins on page 231 or 232!

"To Be More Honest". It's true that the alarm clock didn't go off the other morning when I missed the bus and was twenty minutes late for history class. [Never even set it up see.] But it's not true that the paper on "Underwater Plant Life in the Great Lakes" for biology was as hard to write as I pretended it was. It might have been only Two weeks late if I hadn't sat next to Chuck in the library listening to his jokes every day.

And if I'm a smart kid, with my eyes wide open, I'll pick up a few answers for myself—and maybe this list of supersolemn resolutions won't be so long next year!"

Current News—

You've heard of Volta, the man from Mars who has the power to attract and repel metal objects—Well, we heard Hank Eckstein, a loyal fan of his, tried to imitate him by holding on to two charged wires in Mr. Tyrrell's electronics class. Must have been shocking, Hank.

Sports Review—

Seems that Mr. Milinovich's UCLA's didn't bring home the bacon, so he had to. That moustache must have cost you plenty. Maybe next time you'll put your money on a sure thing!!!!

Culinary Art—

Sometimes we wish we took Home Ec during second period. Those cup cakes Benny Seifert was passing around for 'smells' certainly looked good. But whether they could be eaten—well—you're guess is as good as mine.

Coming Event—

On February 15, the annual Woodchopper's Brawl will be held in the small gym. This is a costume dance sponsored by the Journalism class. Music will be furnished by the Swing Band. This is a hint to you students so you can start making plans for your costumes. Prizes will be given.

New Attractions—

Why was everyone rushing to the Orientation class on January 8? Was it part of the boys' welcoming campaign for Shirley Gratz?

Mystery of the Week—

Was it overexposure from the sun, Curt Larson? Or was it a 'measly' case of hives that kept you in the house during vacation??

His Lucky Day??

Donnie Edwards certainly has the luck of the Irish.

He threw a snowball in the air, It fell to earth and he knows where. Mr. Nicklasson does too And that's what makes poor Donnie blue. For now he's got 5 hours detention, But that's something we shouldn't mention. Here's a hint we have for, Nick Always be sure and duck real quick.

Gripes—

Maybe we ought to give a little thought to cliques. In some ways they are bad and again they have their good points. The kids running around in gangs keep just those friends and don't meet new ones. Then there are some students who don't make ANY friends at all. Let's all turn over a new leaf and try to be just a little bit more friendly this year.

Fleet's In—

And Consumer's Education is out. At least that was the impression we got when we heard about their paper ships and airplanes. It seems that LULU'S FLEET is out to offer competition to Admiral Halsey and the U. S. Navy. But I'm afraid paper against bombs wouldn't even dent a sailor's morale.

Rumors Were Flying—

A certain junior boy ought to get glasses for seems he saw spots on 'Dodo' Pivonka before the Waseca game—It must have been something Dodo ate!

Dramatics—

The 4th hour history class was held "Spellbound" as Mr. Stuhr demonstrated how NOT to act in Study.

The Latest—

What's the idea of giving Patty the measles, Flip?

The girls that went swimming at St. Peter really got a break. They saw the aquatennial queen in person.

Please don't cut your hair any more Jean Nelson. You've got the boys beat already.

Eddie Dornack received a box of bubble gum for Christmas, so the loud explosions you hear in the halls belong to him NOT the Chemistry Class.

Will Hank Scheid please keep his H2S at home? There's something we dislike about the odor.

All that glitters is not gold

Say girl's don't you like Dodo's new gold tooth?? Flashy eh???

Any one who has a favorite gripe or tall story should put it on paper and place it in the Graphos box, or give it to Rich Nieman or Shirley Kosek. Be sure to sign it, otherwise we can't use it. But please don't put anyone else's name on it...

Well—

According to Miss Becker all the wolves aren't in the Army. We're too young so we wouldn't know but any one curious might ask Wally Mau, he seems to know all the answers with questions to go with them.

An Ingrid in our midst—

Jean Galloway certainly looks a lot like Ingrid Bergman. If any of you need more proof just pick up the latest issue of Photo-play and see for yourself.

How To Lose Friends And Alienate People

Be sure to barge into a room after someone else has opened the door.

Be sure to make paper airplanes and sail them in assembly.

Be sure to throw scarfs and mittens on the basketball floor during a game.

Be sure to interrupt all speakers.

Be sure to borrow things and not return them.

Be sure to be catty.

Be sure to be noisy in assembly.

Be sure to bump people while running down the halls.

Be sure to forget your assignments at home.

Be sure to be smarter than the teachers.

Be sure to be always right.

Be sure to leave your initials on everything that comes your way.

Be sure to bother everyone else in study hall.

Be sure to throw snowballs.

Be sure to forget your pencils and paper for class.

Be sure to write things like this!

Dorothy Ann Moll is another of the many assistant librarians. This is her first year in the library. You will find her behind the desk during third hour on Mondays and fifth hour on Fridays. Dorothy enjoys her work very much. She thinks it gives her a chance to meet more of the students and it provides good experience. She suggests that everyone should bring his books back on time!

Eagles Trounces St. Peter; Second Conference Win

Tom Hayes Scores 14 Points in 51-37 Game

New Ulm won its second South Central conference game by trimming St. Peter Tuesday, January 14, by a score of a 51-37.

Tommy Hayes, Eagle center, was again high scorer of the game netting 14 points. Jim Sandelin, St. Peter, was next high with 13 counters.

New Ulm took the offensive in the first quarter zooming to a 15-5 lead at the end of the first eight minutes. At intermission, the Saints were still points behind, the score reading 25-15. New Ulm went on a scoring spree in the third quarter counting 18 points to the Saints five. The last quarter was St. Peter's round as the locals were outpointed 17-13. The final gun sounded with St. Peter still underdog, 51-37.

The junior Saints took the preliminary affair from the Eagle "Bees" 25-21. New Ulm lead at the half 13-12 but the Saints kept them scoreless in the third stanza while scoring six points themselves.

The win was the fourth for the Eagle varsity and the second conference win. The Eagles have lost two league games while losing another non-conference tilt.

The intramural league under the supervision of Henry "Hank" Nicklasson began their round robin schedule with the Red Sox defeating the Bums 35-15, the Cards dumping the Yanks 28-8, and the Tigers edging the Cubs 1-15.

Khalil Mansoor paced the Red Sox attack with 72-pointers; close behind was Floyd Alwin raking up 11. Captain Ubl and Leo Traurig teamed up to score 13 of the Bum's 15 points. The Reds held a 14 point lead at the half.

Herrick's 14 points together with Fredrick's 8 sparked the Cards to a 28-8 victory over Hank Eckstein's Yankees. The Cards were in front the entire game, leading 6-2 in the initial period, 16-4 at the intermission, 18-4 in the third stanza, with the final score reading 18-8.

Only thrilling game of the evening was the Tiger 18-15 triumph over the Cubs. The last few minutes found the Cubs rolling; Herb Schaper sunk a shot to cut down the Tiger lead to one point. The Tiger quint then stalled 'til the horn when Bob Isenberg slipped one through the "hemp" for the final score. Isenberg scored 8 points for the Tigers, while Thiede sunk 6 for the losers.

Eagle Sports Calendar Is Full For Next Two Weeks

New Ulm's Eagles have a full sports calendar for the next two weeks, January 24 to February 7. The schedule includes four basketball games, two gym meets, and one wrestling meet.

The locals will travel to Blue Earth for a conference affair on January 24. Redwood Falls will come to New Ulm for the two teams' traditional battle on Jan. 31.

On February 4, another league game will be played on the local floor, with St. James providing the opposition for the Eagles. New Ulm then travels to Springfield on February 7 for a non-conference tilt with the Tigers.

On January 25, New Ulm will compete with Worthington and Fairmont in a gym meet to be held at Fairmont.

The Eagle grapplers travel to Walnut Grove for a return match with that club. New Ulm took the second meet on its schedule from the Walnut Grove wrestlers.

Gymnastics again take the spotlight when on February 1, the Southern Minnesota Gym Meet will be held at Mankato. Fairmont, Worthington, Rochester, New Ulm, and Mankato Teachers College are scheduled to compete in the affair.

"Oh-h-h, am I stiff", groan all the senior hi girls. The gym classes are just one ache after another, where the girls now are taking their mid-semester physical efficiency tests. There are six exercises to complete: pushups, pullups, standing broad jump, vertical jump, sit-ups, and the Burpee test. To struggle through them is really a chore.

Plans for the playday festivities, January 25, are whipping into shape with the help of Miss Hein, Jean Forster, chairman; Donna Krueger, invitation; Bette Brand, reception; Kathy Kral, foods; and Jeanine Naumann, organization.

Miss Hein makes this plea to all girls: "Girls, now about having a better turnout for G. A. A. next time? This spring when points are totaled and you have a shortage of points, what are you going to do? So let's make this the best G. A. A. year in New Ulm high's history."

Sports Review

by Herb Schaper

A few days after the Roosevelt game a letter reached NUHS, post-marked Roosevelt High School, Minneapolis Minnesota. It read:

Dear Friends of New Ulm,
We, the coaches and players of Roosevelt High School, wish to thank you for your fine hospitality shown to us on our trip to New Ulm last week.

We really enjoyed coming down and playing a team of swell fellows and players as we did, and all of us wish you all the luck in the world during this basketball season, and we know you will make the best of the fine basketball team that you have. Our hopes are that you will reach greater heights than last year when you reached the Regionals in the State basketball playoffs. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Kenneth M. Peterson, Coach

"Kegling"

The high school bowling league has started their schedule. Three teams scored a clean sweep of victories to tie up first place. Before the league started, 12 practice games were bowled to establish averages for picking even teams and "blinds". This means, whenever a bowler is absent the team uses his or her average to fill in the vacant spot. During practice, Marv. Boelter rolled a high game of 206. Jerome Dietl hit a first week's honor roll of 546 on games of 178, 183, and 203. There are still three vacant spaces in the league to be filled to make it a full 30-member league. After nine games have been bowled, the five highest averages will bowl against a picked Springfield team. Possibly St. James and Mankato will also be opponents.

Managers

Some of the student managers for the various athletics are as follows: Football—Jimmy Clay and Elmer Rolloff; Wrestling—that intramural hotshot, Khalil Mansoor. John Reese checked the junior high football equipment. Jimmy Olson has charge of junior high basketball. For the varsity basketball, Dale "Art" Tomaschko and Herb "Emil" Schaper "tote" the towels to the players and chart the player's shots.

"Bouquets"

At Gibbon the fans think just as much of their coach as of the team. Whenever Coach Webster walks out on the floor the fans give him a great ovation. I think our coaches deserve credit, too.

Waseca Tips Eagles 51-36

New Ulm's Eagles won three of the four basketball games played Friday, January 10, losing the main event of the evening to Waseca 51-36.

The Eagle squad was split, half playing Waseca at home and the remainder going to Gibbon. Waseca was trimmed by the Eagle "B" squad 30-14 while at Gibbon, New Ulm was victorious in both contests, 29-15 in the prelim and 39-32 in the main event.

Jerome Krause, Waseca's 6 foot 4 inch center, gained limelight at New Ulm by netting 21 points against the Eagles. Tom Hayes was high New Ulm scorer with seven field goals for 14 points. Borkenhagen, Waseca, hit for 12 with five goals and two gift tosses.

At Gibbon, Marv Rempfer tallied six field goals to be high scorer. Next in line was Raforth of Gibbon with 10 points.

The Eagles won both preliminary affairs, Sandmann being high man at New Ulm with 10 points, Malby netting 9 at Gibbon.

Funeral Service

Here is the complete schedule for the events of the music department for the remainder of the year.

February 12—University of Minnesota Symphony

February 23—Mankato Teachers College Choir

March 9—NUHS Concert Band

April 19—Spring music festival at Fairmont

April 27—Concert—home presentation of festival numbers

"Boy, was he good." "Wish I could play like that." "Did you see his fingers go?" These were some of the comments of the students on leaving the auditorium after Wesley Kohl had carried our minds back to the time of the silent movies.

Joleen Siebenbrunner, Howard Brust, and Edward Wagner help prove that what a student does in high school really counts in the days that lie ahead. Through their efforts in NUHS, they were able to get into the Gustavus Adolphus College Band.

If anyone comes down to the music room on Tuesdays or Thursdays, we will find the choir slaving away on four numbers which they will sing with the Mankato Teachers College Choir, February 23.

Cookies and Cakes Baked in Home Ec.

Thanks to the 10th grade girls for the delicious cookies baked for the "Little Ten Meet." All grew hungry from those delicious aromas that filled the halls the day before the occasion.

The boys in Miss Westlings Home Ec. class must have Scottish ancestors or else they just like to bake. Even though butter isn't rationed anymore and the price of it is falling every day, they were doing their best to make a success out of all their butterless cake recipes. Butter rationing shouldn't affect them if they have to do the baking around home.

Miss Westling was pretty proud of some of those cakes made by the boys, so girls, take a hint and settle down to a cook book.

Magazines, clippings and paper have been lying in heaps around the Home Ec. room for almost a week. Everyone is having trouble finding suitable house plans! So far the girls have studied house planning and landscaping.

More trouble and work has yet to come, as they will be studying interior and exterior decorating within a week. House furnishings will follow this work.

Lucille Bruce of NUHS art department has been selected as a member of the state curriculum committee in art.

Miss Bruce will be attending a meeting of that group in Minneapolis on Friday, January 31.

Styles 'n Wiles

"By Two Goils"

"Greetings' gate let's converse" and the subject for conversatin' will be the coming Wood Choppers Brawl. Tis' our advice to you to get that huba huba costume out of the mothballs and dress it up with a couple of ding dings for the coming event. Here are a couple of good (?) ideas if your mind is rusty: "Gilda" would cause quite an uproar if you're game. Salome, not the pig, is a good idear. Mary, the character from Mary and Her Little Lamb, would be original. The escort can supply the Little Lamb part of the twosome. And now for you males: Why don't some of you daring [I wouldn't advise a sophomore to try it] he-men slap on a piece of steel wool and come as that character, Joe Milinovich. Ouch, we're glad we're juniors. George Washington's or Robinson Crusoe's doubles would be cute too. Well, those are just hints—See you all at the dance!!

Ker-splash! That was the G. A. A. on their winter swimming excursion at Gustavus. Since this is a clothes column we'll mention the absence of some—Jean Nelson bought the string to tie it up, but forgot the bathing suit part of it on that memorable day. Some of the G. A. phy. ed. majors put on a water ballet for us that was really col-ase! The girls wore red suits with white caps and swam with lighted candles in one hand in the dark pool. We really thought it was impressive. After the ballet it was our turn to be mermaids—big joke-Ker choo. That was us on our way home.

So long—

Rust Proof Metal Is Shop Project

Rust-proofing metal is being studied and practiced by the tenth grade boys in metal shop at present.

Metal is soaked in a chemical solution heated to 300 degrees Fahrenheit. Paint as used formerly is not durable enough on metal to prevent rust so this method is being studied.

Recently, emphasis has been put on metal working fundamentals instead of projects; but after this phase is completed, projects using the high-quality steel of worn-out files will be started.
