"Ugly Duckling" Issue

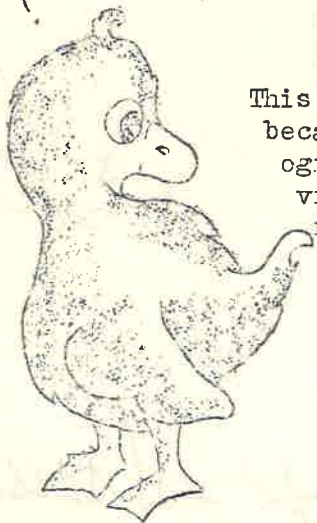

Vol. 36 May 7, 1951 No. 8

New Ulm High School
 New Ulm, Minnesota

A WORD OF EXPLANATION

This issue of The Graphos we call our "Ugly Duckling Issue" because it is different from the rest as it is mimeographed instead of being published by the NewUlm Review as it usually is. Because of our lack of funds, it was necessary to do this if we wanted another issue before the final one. The staff tackled the problem with a will. And as they say, "where there is a will, there is a way," this issue is the result of our experiment.

Since the act of mimeographing is a new one to many of you dear, with its little air-so, we hope you will enjoy it.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Junior - Senior Prom, Banquet Celebrated

TEARS?

The last day of school this year will be Friday, June first. The final session will begin with a general assembly at 10 a.m.

CAFETERIA CLOSES

Final meals in the cafeteria will be served on May 18.

SENIOR SKIP DAY

May fourth was a day of joy for all seniors. Why? Because it was the annual Senior Skip Day. The day ended with the annual Spring Dance in the evening. The Swing Band provided the music.

AWARDS

Underclassmen will receive their awards on Friday, May 25, at 11 o'clock during assembly, but the seniors must wait until 8 o'clock that evening. The program will begin with an out-door band concert at 6:30. After that, the awards will be given out by the various teachers. The descriptions and significance of the awards are given elsewhere in this issue.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Evelyn Sauer was elected Fri-Le-Ta president for next year at the April 25 meeting.

TUMBLERS' PERFORM

Fourteen members of the girls' acrobatic team, accompanied by Miss Mueller, performed for St. Cloud's Annual Sportsmen's Show on April 27.

The girls who made the trip were: Lucille Kosek, Delores Dittrich, Mary Ann Marwinka, Gerry Kramer, De Ann Schleuder, Nancy Turner, Marlene Sharve, Jyneal Erickson, Joy Herrmann, JoAnn Bierbaum, Barbara Keckeisen, Carol Farschman, Betsy Oswald, and Janice Neumann. They were very well received and were clapped back for an encore.

Seniors and senioriats were welcomed to a Festival in Rio at the Junior-Senior banquet and prom on April 28.

Noel Iverson was the congenial toastmaster who introduced the speakers, Mike Pollei, Wally Eckstein and Mr. Herrmann.

The waitresses added a Spanish touch in their peasant blouses. Flowered gondolas served as table decorations to add to the atmosphere.

At 8:30 everyone went to the gym for the grand march to the music of the Gustavus Swing Band. The gym was decorated with gay flowers and bright, dancing balloons. A balcony with grill work adorned with flowers added to the scene, complete with a backdrop of gondolas. The gateway to the dance floor was a huge red and blue jester's mask, through which the couples walked.

Bouquets to the juniors who produced such a wonderful prom and thanks to the sophomores and freshmen who served as waitresses.

FIRST ISSUE OF GRAPHOS FOUND

After brushing away the cobwebs and blowing the layers of dust away, we uncovered a fabulous treasure -- the first issue of THE GRAPHOS, dated Thursday, September 28, 1916.

Within this history-making issue, we found the secret of how THE GRAPHOS got its name. Here is the story as it was told:

"As soon as it was actually decided that New Ulm High School should issue a bi-weekly paper and the staff was appointed, the first question confronting us was: 'What shall we call this child which has been born in our midst?' Our consideration of names was centered on the classical world because it was felt that a Greek or Latin name would be most suitable for a school paper. From several suggestions made by teachers and staff members, THE GRAPHOS was selected.

"Get Funk and Wagnall's New Standard Dictionary of the English Language!"

"Look up 'graph,' -- not 'graft'! Never mind the meaning, but look at the following which you will find in brackets -- Gr. graphe, writing; grapho, writer; graphos, writer. Then turn to 'autograph' and 'telegraph,' looking always at those Greek derivatives, and you will almost come to believe that the English language is 'all Greek to you.' But don't you ever believe it! Consider THE GRAPHOS as 'The Writer.' Thus we got our name."

It was interesting to us to find many familiar names on the staff of the above-mentioned GRAPHOS. Editor-in-Chief was Armin Koehler, and the Associate Editor was Aimee Krook, now Mrs. Albert Heid. The rest of the staff was as follows:

Walter Wiedemann, business manager, John Lippman, Asst. business manager and John Woebke, athletics editor.

In the paper in a story telling about their first issue, was the following paragraph telling one of its purposes: "THE GRAPHOS is for us as a school and as individuals. It is to be hoped that as each issue comes off the press and passes into your hands, there will be instilled into you a deeper and fuller sense of appreciation for the rich opportunity-filled life afforded by the New Ulm High School. And in the spirit of that enthusiasm you will each put forth your very best efforts in the endeavor to be a real factor in making this high school life more worth while to everybody."

Among the stories in the first issue were ones telling of the opening of the football season, the organization of a new dramatic club, the preparation of the debate squad on the topic "Restriction of Immigration by a Literary Test" and the announcement of the second senior annual, the first being published in 1915.

Nor was advertising omitted in issue Number One! "The Fountain Inn," now Eibner's, the Bee Hive, and the New Ulm Greenhouses -- these were a few of the advertisers. Backer's Pharmacy ran an ad to this effect: "Castor Oil is not the ONLY thing we sell," and at the Kleanall you could have your suit pressed and sponged just right for 50¢!

And so, THE GRAPHOS has continued for thirty-four and one-half years. Not even the threat of "Insufficient Funds" has stopped it from "going to press."

BREAD-BAKING WINNERS CHOSEN

One boy and 19 girls of NUHS are considered to be the outstanding bread bakers of the year in the annual bread-baking contest sponsored by the Eagle Roller Mill. The contest was held on April 18 and 19.

The judges, Tom Sanford and Stanley Ratzke, graded the bread on appearance, inside texture, and flavor. They had to sample about 125 different loaves and then decide on the twenty best.

Winners of the ninth- and tenth-grade class were Marlene Freese, Lila Grau, Lula Nichols, Rosemary Staddick, La Von Meyer, Alice Portner, Mary Volikaty, Marlene Heck, Virginia Wallner, and Doris Johns.

In the eleventh-twelfth grade section, the winners were: Lucille Goblirsch, Faith Fischer, Erva Michelson, Beverly Horstmann, Bernice LaPlante, Elizabeth Bakken, Jean Unvervorn, Hylis Altenburg, Dorothy Broste, and Verlin Goering.

Four Teachers Will Not Return

Four teachers of the New Ulm Public School staff will not return in September. They are V. F. Zahn, American History teacher; Dorothy Clark, who teaches the second grade at the Emerson school; Ellen Mueller, girls' physical education instructor; and Robert Regnier of the Speech department. The names of the teachers who will fill these vacancies have not yet been announced.

Barbara Lund Wins Contest

Barbara Lund wrote the winning theme in the essay contest sponsored by the local Business and Professional Women's Club.

The essay title was the question: AFTER HIGH SCHOOL,

Music Festival Comments Given

Differing from previous years in that it had four schools participating, a music festival attended by over 600 music students from Redwood Falls, Springfield, Sleepy Eye, and New Ulm was held at Redwood Falls on April 21.

Harold Van Sickle of Mankato State Teachers College and Miss Florence Williams of Worthington High School acted as the guest conductors and critics. The comments and criticisms of our vocal groups were, on the whole, favorable.

"Some uniformity in appearance would make the choir look much nicer," was the main comment. Others were: "The group should have more cheerful facial expressions." "Attacks and releases were good--a very well-trained group." "The Girls' Glee Club is a well-trained group" was another favorable comment.

"The Flute Quintet made an excellent appearance, has excellent ensemble possibilities and ought to be encouraged in all ways," was Mr. Van Sickle's comment of the group.

"The New Ulm Band made a splendid appearance on the stage. I was glad to note that all the players wore dark shoes and hose," commented Mr. Van Sickle. "I am very favorably impressed with the musical qualities of the organization." The conductors agreed that the entire festival was, for the most part, a success.

"WHAT?" Barbara selected teaching as her particular topic. Seven students submitted essays in the contest.

The judges were Mrs. Ralph Stewart, Mrs. Ruth Kinsey, and Rev. Iseli. Barbara is planning to read her essay over KJUD in the near future and she will be presented

Activities End Seniors' Careers

The sixty-sixth annual commencement exercises will be held in the high school auditorium on May 31, 1951. Eighty-one seniors will be presented with diplomas by the President of the Board of Education.

Newton H. Bell, world-traveler and distinguished lecturer, will be the speaker of the evening. The processional, "March Processional," by Marcelli, and the recessional, "Pomp and Circumstance," by Elgar are to be played by the high school band. They will also play "Eroica Overture," during the exercises. "The Lord Bless You and Keep You" and either "Halls of Ivy," "Erie Canal," or "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" will be sung by the chorus.

The Senior Sermon will take place on Sunday evening, May 27 with Rev. F. R. Iseli delivering the sermon. It will be held at the Methodist Church.

One member of the senior class, Raymond Brey, has already left for service in the Navy and he will receive his diploma on completing Boot Training.

For the forty-third consecutive year New Ulm High School has been placed on the list of secondary schools approved for the ensuing year by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. This action was taken at the annual business meeting of the association in Chicago, March 27 to 31, 1951.

Being named as a member of the North Central Association means that any graduate student of New Ulm High School will have his credits accepted by any college or university in the United States.

with a $25-savings bond on Award Night.

MEANING OF AWARDS, TROPHIES EXPLAINED

Have you ever stopped to consider the meaning of the trophies and awards given to New Ulm High students? So that every student will realize the significance of each award given on award night, the following definitions may be of some help to you:

leadership, character, and scholarship are the four qualifications on which membership is based.

A college tuition is given to the highest ranking boy and girl in the graduating class.

FFA

The State FFA Convention to be held in St. Paul on May 14, 15, and 16 is one of the highlights of the year for the FFA boys of New Ulm High School.

This year, like most other years, many awards will be given. The DeKalb Agriculture award is given to the outstanding senior for his achievements in FFA work. There will also be letters and hogs given away.

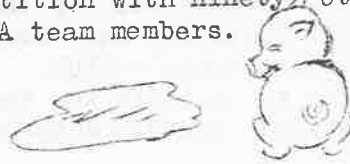

Medals for Chapter Star Farmer, Dairy Farming, Soil and Water Management, Farm Safety, Farm Mechanics, Public Speaking, and Farm Electrification will be awarded to underclassmen and seniors.

Several boys and Mr. Fier attended the District Banquet of the FFA at Worthington on April 26.

New Ulm entered 3 teams in the District Judging contest that was held at Brockings, South Dakota, on April 21.

In the meats judging contest, a team took 5th place; in the dairy judging contest, 6th place; and in the general livestock judging, New Ulm placed seventh.

Walter Eckstein and Vernon Gieseke placed 9th and 10th in the individual competition with ninety other FFA team members.

Track Team Places at Meet Eagles Host to St. Peter Squad

The New Ulm Track team placed in five events at the St. James Relay Carnival held Friday, April 20. It was a four-team meet, with St. James as the host and Windom, Worthington, and New Ulm as the guests.

The three-man high team with John Lloyd, Roger Fixsen and Jeep Heymann running took third place.

Broad jumper Vern Walden jumped 9 feet for a first place, while Hugh Sweetman jumped 5 ft., 2 in. to tie for first in the high jump.

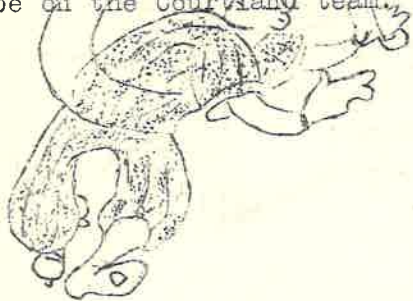

Don Alfreds placed in both weight-throwing events taking second in the discus and third in the shotput.

Eagle Plans

Seven Eagle base ball players have been named to the New Ulm Millers squad, while four other Eagles will be playing on out-of-town teams this summer.

Newly appointed Coach Ronnie Spelbrink has issued Miller uniforms to Cal Rolloff, Jim Hoffmann, Wally Eckstein, Con Schmid, Tom Kraus, Mike Pollei and Walt Keckeisen.

Among those playing baseball this summer will be Leo Dittrich, who will be playing right field for Lafayette and Bob Grossman, who will return to his first base position at Searles. Kenny Werner will be playing for the Essig squad, while Warren Heidegann will be on the Courtland team.

The Eagle Track team, paced by Vern "Weasel" Walden and John Heymann, defeated the St. Peter squad 77-36 in a dual track meet held at Johnson Field April 27.

Vern took firsts in the 100-, 220-yard dashes and in the broad jump. He tied for first place in the high jump and was anchor man on the 880-yard relay.

John took first in the high and low hurdles and also ran in the 880 relay.

The only other Eagle to take a first in individual competition was Larry Krueger who came in first in the mile.

Both of the Eagle Relay teams took firsts. Tom Leisch, Tom Ubl, Chuck Hintz and Alan Iverson ran the 440, while John Heymann, John Lloyd, Hugh Sweetman and Vern Walden ran the 880-yard relay.

Don Edwards took second in the shot put, while Rog Fixsen placed second in the 440. Bob Asleson took second in the 880 for the New Ulm squad.

Hugh Sweetman who tied with Vern Walden in the high jump, took second in the 100- and 200- yard dashes and the broad jump. He also took third in the shot put.

A New RECORD!

GOLF NEWS

Seven golfers reported to Coach George Dahl as practice for this season on the greens got underway.

There are three returning veterans from last year's squad--Rolly Olson, Hugh Sweetman, and Bill Fenske. Fourth man on the team will probably be Carl Peterson. Others out for golf include Ralph Sondag, Chuck Hauenstein, and Bob Schmitz.

The schedule for this year includes six meets:

- May 5 - St. Peter, there
- May 10 - Fairmont, here
- May 14 - Waseca, here
- May 19 - Conference at St. Peter
- May 26 - Hutchinson, there
- June 2 - Regional at Madison

According to an explanation by Coach Dahl, all golf meets will be match plays, which means that all competition is on an individual basis, with each golfer having an opportunity to win or lose three points for his team.

A review of the records show that last year's squad had a four-one record, taking second place in both the region and the conference.

To Next Year's Seniors:

Is Skip Day really "skip day?"

Why don't you all get together and skip school the day you want to and not the day it is planned for.

I think that I shall never see

A satisfactory referee,
About whose head a halo shines,

We hope the 1951 Prom was one of the best ever. If everyone had a good time at the banquet, dance, and otherwise--the Juniors will be quite pleased.

One of the newest ideas in coats is the Dodge Motor Coat, designed by Donald Norris. The coat is made of the same material as the upholstery of the 1951 Dodge.

This spring it's the rustle of taffeta, organdy, and satin instead of leaves. A new kind of material along this line is cotton satin. Practical, for it can be washed.

Boys will have more to look at now when they look at legs. Stockings have designs, such as flowers, at the ankle.

Something new to hold your loose change, lipstick, comb, etc., is a shoulder bag. It comes in many colors, but the most popular is natural. The bag is saddle-stitched and has a big emblem design on the front.

The Sewing classes displayed their spring styles at a Style Revue and Tea for mothers on May 3.

The Hockey Clog by the ninth grade was next. The seventh grade then gave the Sailor's Hornpipe. tsy Oswald tapdanced to "Let's All Sing Like the Birdies Sing" accompanied by Mary Huhn. Mary then played a solo. The umbrella dance was next. This was performed by three couples of ninth graders. After this the eighth grade did a Danish dance. The last number was the Military March by the ninth grade. Mary Lou Schmitz did the solo part.

The Girls' Gym and Tumbling Classes presented a program on April 2. It was under the direction of Miss Mueller. Gym exercises by 15 girls was the beginning number. The next act was performed by a few of the tumblers. Third on the program were the animal imitations. Then the 8th and 9th graders performed on the horse. The last number was building pyramids.

On Monday, April 9, the 7-1 English section gave a radio play entitled "Inside a Kid's Head." The play was a conducted tour through the brain of a 10-year old boy, Richie Price. It showed how a boy's imagination can cause trouble and also be useful. Before the play, Mr. Lynott made a presentation to Meredith Berg for outstanding work in Current Events.

Choral reading by the 6th hour Speech class was the nature of the assembly program on April 23. Spring was the theme of the poems read.

Even though many of us have "spring fever" we still have to go to school. So let's see what has happened

In English we've been working on the use of nouns and pronouns and the correct use of adverbs and adjectives. We just finished the story "Miss Hinch"—a very different kind of mystery story.

In Social we went to the Telephone Office, the Daily Journal, Garment Factory, and to Eibner's. These visits proved most interesting. We are now beginning the study of World War I.

In Home Ec. the girls are working on their dresses and are almost finished. In shop the boys are studying about electricity.

Math takes us outside in a few days to measure distances from one place to another by using the hypotenuse rule.

In science we just completed an interesting unit on the parts of the body. We also had movies explaining the functions of the body. We are now studying electricity.

Many of tomorrow's millinaires will probably be former members of Mr. Achmann's 8th grade shop class. One of the projects they are making is piggy banks. They are also making model motor boats. Another section of the 8th grade is working with electricity and toy motors.

The 7th grade isn't quite so far advanced. They are making sailboats.

Drawing and woodwork are the main projects of the ninth grade. In the metal shop the boys are finishing up their projects.

Mr. Pfaender's "Honor Your Partner" Club is a club that has really been busy. The twenty-four members have been devoting a good deal of time to learning the various American circle and square dances. They have learned about the origin and history of the Square Dance in America. So far the group knows 18 different dances.

The art of photography is the subject of Mr. Tyrrell's Camera Club. Members have been learning about the correct way to take pictures, the kind of camera and film to use for different occasions, and the difference in films. Every few weeks, the six members go out of doors to take pictures. Recently they have learned how to print pictures. A while ago the group worked with the proper lighting for indoor pictures.

Fun 'n Frolic ^{GA}

A Junior-High Party was held Friday, April 13, the day that is supposed to be an unlucky day, but it had no effect on the party for it was a great success.

The entertainment was dancing which included the polka. Everybody surely enjoyed this and suggested we have an old-time party. The Senior High Student Council furnished lunch by selling candy bars and pop.

The F. F. A. Party was a great success this year. It was held Tuesday, April 17. Dancing was the main entertainment and consisted of polkas, circle and broom dances, a Grand March and modern ballroom dancing. Lunch was served consisting of pop and dixie cups.

Well, Spring is finally here! This is the season when "a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love!" It is also that time when the everyday occurrences outside seem so interesting and we spend most of the period looking out of the window—that is until the teacher calls us back to class.

Here are a few things that happen when a person gets spring fever:

1. He daydreams more than usual.
2. The girls think more of boys than they normally do. (?????)
3. Some boys who say they hate girls suddenly discover they are madly in love with them.
4. One doesn't hear people speaking to him.
5. One forgets his studies and dreams of fishing or just loafing.

Many people have wondered how to cure Spring Fever. Is sulphur and molasses the answer? No—just let nature take its course. You'll soon get over it—or you may fall in love, a more serious disease.

During Home Ec. Marion Goblirsch and Mary Schmidt had a very embarrassing moment. We all had threaded our bobbins and were supposed to put them in our bobbin cases and then sew on some scraps of material. However, Marion and Mary Lou didn't put the bobbin in the case but tried to sew without the bobbin case. Finally Mario called on another girl and asked her what was wrong. She started laughing and explained the necessity for the bobbin case. Their sewing consisted of a nice, big bunch of knotted thread. You can imagine their surprise.

In English Jarvis Johnson and Carl Paa were discussing stories and Jarvis asked Carl what part of the story he liked best. Carl said he disliked them all. Then Jarvis said, "Well, what part did you like the most of those you hated?" Did the students have a good laugh?!

Jackie Erickson has been talking to the spiders. She tried to tell us in Orientation that spiders write autobiographies. We are wondering how she knows. Has she been talking with them or does she just naturally understand them????

Miss Sogn asked a class how they could get rid of pneumonia. James Hegermeister popped up with D. D. T. for an answer. That would certainly kill pneumonia and also a little more, I think.

J @ K E S

Miss Sogn: What is a caterpillar?

Jim P.: An upholstered worm.

Charles Kaiser: I'll bet Miss Schmid would like bigger report cards.

Loren: Why?
 Charles: So she can write longer remarks.
