JUNIOR PLAY CAST CHOSEN

ALUMNI NOTES

Many of the newest additions to the New Ulm High School alumni have entered the "wide, wide world" of higher education. The class of '29 was a small but good one. It is impossible to discover what has happened to all of last year's seniors, but here is an account of what a few of them are doing: Lincoln Mueller, Leonard Marti, John Pfaender, and Alice Vercoe are now members of the "U" of Minnesota "Help us to help you" frosh. Hamline College, St. Paul, was chosen by Virginia Alwin for furthering her education. Charlotte Miller has already won a place in the St. Olaf College's orchestra. Helen Krook left some time ago for Ambler Girl's school in Pennsylvania, following in the footsteps of her sister. Imelda Ochs has entered St. Catherine's College, St. Paul. Phyllis Liesch was a guest at parties given in her honor before she entered the Minneapolis School of Business. Ruth Kretsch and Lillian Huelskamp have taken up the study of nursing at St. Mary's Hospital, Minneapolis.

Now to delve into the lives of the class of '28. Jack Schoch, a strong contender for a position on the Minnesota varsity, is on the casualty list. During practice last week his leg was severely injured. Jack is very optimistic about it and prophesies that the leg will be o. k. in a few weeks but "U" officials doubt it. Another N. U. H. S. Alumnus, Walter Hass, '27, is playing backfield on the varsity squad; according to Lenny Mueller, who has watched the team work, Walt is more than just plain good. We hope Walt will get on as a regular. Jim Beecher, Charles Veeck, '28, and Roger Schmid, '26, have returned to Carleton. After a year's "vacation" Earl Schroepel has entered the "U" of Minnesota as a pre-medic student. Joe Vogel returned to the "U", as happy-go-lucky as ever. Dorothy Pfeifferle switched from Notre Dame, Ind., to the "U" of Minn.

Among those that have returned to the "U" as sophomores are Lowell Rieke, Stanley Simons, Lester Karl, all of '28, and Henry Somsen, '26.

Oradelle Wagner, '26, is developing her talent at the Minneapolis School of Music. Harley Schneider is running around the campus getting ready for his third year at the "U".

Returning to Miss Wood's kindergarten school are Winnifred Hummel, '28, and Catherine Poynter, '26.

Harvey H.: "I saw a touching scene, last Saturday, when I was in Minneapolis."

Peggy A.: "What was it?"

Harvey: "Two fat men in a 4x6 elevator. They touched on all sides."

N. U. H. S. GRID TEAM PLAYS TWO GREAT GAMES

ELMORE UPSET 39-0.

Harman's Men Drive Hard in First Appearance.

In their initial appearance of the season, the N. U. H. S. grid team showed up well against the Elmore eleven on Friday, Sept. 20. Although not as yet a polished machine, the work of Coach Harman was clearly shown. Elmore battled hard, but could not raise the tremendous lead of 39-0, which the New Ulm boys piled up.

Much credit must be given to the line for the hard rushes which made it possible for the backfield to carry the ball through.

Wagner made an outstanding tackle when he threw the opposing man for a 12-yard loss. Hintz and Poynter hit hard and low at ends.

In the backfield, Hage at quarter, proved the Coach's good choice for that position, for he called signals both wisely and well. Regelin, who acted as captain of the team, made runs of 46 yards, 14 yards, and 12 yards; Marks made gains of 27 yards, 18 yards and 14 yards, and Emmerich at fullback made gains of 20 and 15 yards, besides hitting the line in several instances. Marks and Regelin made points after touchdowns, 3 by line smashes and 1 by a neat kick of Regelin's.

Harman of Elmore, captain, was the outstanding player for the opponents, leading his team in some hard, but vain attempts to score.

For the first game, the local eleven showed some neat teamwork, even though Coach Harman has had to build up a new line and work in some new backfield men. A quick and snappy response and some great blocking and tackling made the game interesting.

The team lined up as follows:

New Ulm.	Elmore.
Poynter .....LE.....	D. Johnson
Becker .....LT.....	Anderson
Rieke .....LG.....	Imm
Gaut .....C.....	Smith
Hintz .....RE.....	Cuppennall
Wagner .....RT.....	Vreide
Marks .....RH.....	Kiester
Strate .....RG.....	Romig
R. Emmerich .....FB.....	H. Johnson
Regelin .....LH.....	Ivey
Hage .....QB.....	Harman

Subs: W. Emmerich, Dannheim, Loose, Schnobrich, Fritz, Gag.

Touchdowns: Marks, 3; Regelin, 2. Points after touchdown: Marks, 2; Regelin, 2.

GLENCOE FINDS HARD FIGHT.

New Ulm Stages Second Half Come-back.

With expectations of an easy victory, the Glencoe high school football team met the N. U. H. S. team on the latter's ground last Friday. But what a setback they were to meet! For, even with a bad start in the first half, Coach Harman's eleven rallied in the second half to give Glencoe one of the hardest battles of their careers, holding them down to a 14-26 victory and few glories of the game.

In every phase the Glencoe eleven was outplayed, making only seven first downs to our eight, and completing only three forward passes to our six. Only in the first half did the boys seem overawed and dazed, but with the second half, all their fear seemed to have disappeared. They displayed some great football and continually got Mickelson, the big Glencoe half, for whom they had been laying throughout the game.

In yardage (by scrimmage) our men had it all over their opponents, with a total of 173 yards to Glencoe's 126. One of the touchdowns was made by a pass from Emmerich to Poynter. Sixty-eight yards, in all, were made by the accurate passes of Emmerich to Marks, Regelin and Poynter. The coach has developed a keen little passing system which can be relied on.

Huntington of Glencoe received an injury to his back and was unable to walk. Of the Glencoe players, only Mickelson was outstanding. He made 110 yards in 2 runs, from receiving punts, although his efforts in the second half were checked.

The line, after a bad first half, gave some good interference to the backfield, both on offense and defense. Poynter and Hintz got their men continually. Becker, at left tackle, hit hard, and Wagner, at right, repeated his former performance in throwing his opponents for large losses.

Outstanding ball carriers were Regelin, 18 yards for touchdown, receiving fumble; also carried ball on other plays. Emmerich—10 yards, 15 yards, and many small gains; played a great game. Marks—carried ball often for gains; Hage (calling signals)—23 yards, following a punt; many small gains.

The lineup was:
Poynter .....LE..... Barnon
Becker .....LT..... Conelly
Rieke .....LG..... Tiplly
Gaut .....C..... Schmeikeper
Strate .....RG..... Shamler

CLEVER PLAY DECIDED ON

Miss Ritt Selects Cast From Large Number of Prospects.

"Miss Somebody Else!" What intrigue, what an intricate plot is suggested by the name of the Junior Class play, which has been chosen.

Glancing at the plot, we find a charming young girl in a nom de guerre and an acquired accent becoming involved in some delightful and humorous situations. To find out more about her, you must see the play.

SOPHOMORE DRAMATIC CLUB HAS BEEN FORMED

The sophomores have reorganized their dramatic club of last year. Richard Lindemann was elected president, and Mildred Gulden was elected secretary and treasurer.

Each one agreed to pay twenty-five cents for dues.

There are twenty-four old members and one new member. They will be glad to accept any other Sophomores as new members.

They intend to give one play during the year.

SENIOR DANCE TO BE GIVEN

The Seniors are giving a dance for the Freshmen next Friday night in the gym. The entire high school is invited. It is at seven-thirty.

Turn out for it, N. U. H. S. students! If we have a good crowd, it may lead to other dances. We want the teachers, too! Let's have a big mob!

"What is a slide rule?"
"Never slide with your new pants on."

CHATS WITH THE EDITOR.

We see that the Sophomore Dramatic Club has again been formed. Here's to the little Sophs, who seem to have more ambition than the rest of the high school put together. Do you deny it, Freshies, Juniors, Seniors? Of course, something good can be said of them all: the Freshies for their snappy awakening to the school spirit, which they seem to have grasped quite well; the Juniors for the class play which they are enthusiastically putting on; and the Seniors for the dance they are giving. Gee! Looking it over, it doesn't seem so terrible after all, does it? But it could and can be better.

Watch the alumni! Are you interested in what graduates of your high school are doing? Then watch for the alumni news for a detailed report of all the graduates' moves. Some day you'll be among them, too.

Patronize "Graphos" advertisers. We have a fine list of advertisers, and we want you to patronize them. Our business managers have worked hard to get a bigger list than ever. The backing of the business men is very important to us, so show that you appreciate their cooperation in everything.

Did you see the Glencoe game? If you didn't, you should have. You would have seen the snappiest little second half come-back ever. It should give you a thrill, too, to see your school pick up that quickly. Learn to enjoy it and appreciate good plays.

Peggy A.: "Do you file your nails?"
 Jeanne: "No, I just clip 'em and throw 'em away."

Principal of N. U. H. S. (awakened by phone from deep sleep at three a. m.): "Hello?"
 Voice: "Is this the principal?"
 Principal: "Yes."
 Voice: "Well, what are you doing up so late?"

EXCHANGES

All the exchanges we have received so far tell of the start in their football teams, and other athletics. Canby, Minn., has even a tennis team, the only school that we know of which has one. One unusual thing about this high school is the fact that over half the students are from out-of-the-town.

We hope we will soon have more exchanges, and invite all the high schools to get in on our exchange list.

MUSIC.

Both the orchestra and Glee Clubs have gotten a good start. The orchestra has an increasing number of members, and some new music. The Boy's Glee Club has started, and many of the older members have come back. We hope they will do big things this year, and make their showing as well as the Girls' Glee Club.

N. U. H. S. AND TRINITY HIGH PRACTICE TOGETHER.

Last Wednesday, the N. U. High and Trinity High played a practice game. They could not finish the game because of the rain. Before they quit, the score was 6-0 in favor of Trinity High School.

Our High school is trying to get a real game with them soon.

Touchdowns—New Ulm, 2; Glencoe, 4.

Safety—New Ulm, 1.
 The game was made doubly exciting by the fact that both teams, when within 1 yard of their goal, failed to go over, being held down.

The safety in the first half was made possible by Strate's tackling. Both goal kicks were missed by inches.

Friday's game with Hector, there, promises a decisive victory for New Ulm.

"There are four requisites to a good short story," explained the English teacher to a class. "Brevity, a reference to religion, some association with the royalty, and an illustration of modesty. Now, with these four things in mind, I will give you thirty minutes to write a story."

Ten minutes later the hand of Sandy went up.

"That is fine, Sandy," she complimented, and now read your story to the class."

Sandy read: "My Gawd, said the Countess, take your hand off my knee."

A new bank clerk, dictating, was in doubt as to the use of a certain phrase, so he said to the stenographer: "Do you retire a loan?" And the wistful one replied rather sleepily: "No, I sleep with mama."

KLASS KRIMES

SENIOR SINS.

One of the first few days in Chemistry we learned what an explosion was, but we didn't understand it to be accompanied by soot that would change two well-known people into almost strangers—in fact, they almost looked like negro mammies with their two white eyes and teeth flashing through their laughs above the black soot transformation.

Juniors, we take off our hats to you! We wish you success in your class play and hope you make just gobs of money, because—well, because we're Seniors looking forward already to the Prom in May.

Class Dues! It's time for them again. Please turn them in soon. The sooner you pay them the sooner you can pay something else.

JUNIOR JOTS.

The "Whispering Theme Topics" are being handed out daily. Be careful Freshies. You won't be overlooked in anything.

Miss Ritt says that the second period English class will find her in good humor almost every day, because the first period Freshie class is so "bright." Thank you Freshies.

If you have anything you want to sell, let the Juniors sell it for you. We can even sell castor oil.

Thanks for the invitation to your party, Seniors. Maybe we will be able to reciprocate some time.

SOPHOMORE SNICKERS.

So far the Freshies have escaped being initiated. Here's hoping they get their share of initiation at the party Friday night.

All of us Sophomores feel immensely proud of the fact that at least one of our class scored in the football game with Elmore. By the time we're Seniors we hope that all our boys will be football stars.

FRESHMAN FOLLIES.

The Freshies are learning to make what the upper classmen call "Whoopee," anyway, we tried it in assembly the Friday, when Marion tried to lead us in some yells. We were weak, in some places, but we'll learn. We like "Lavender and White" the best.

Some of us Freshmen, walked all the way out to the Fair grounds the other day to see a scrimmage (I guess that's what you call 'em) and got caught in a keen rainstorm. We did so want to try and learn why Edwin Hage was always hollering hip, hip, 1, 2, 3, at the Elmore game, last Friday.

We're so jealous of the Sophomore class, mostly because they have such big class members as, Elmer Marks, Donald Dannheim, and Eldred Rieke. Just you wait until G. Fisher and some of our other big boys grow up, and we'll show 'em.

The girls in the home Ec department are making jam. The other day Jane M. came up to the assembly with a rim of grape conserve around her mouth.

Two Freshies and a Senior were walking to school together. Mr. Harman was walking in front of them, and one of the Freshies poked the Senior and said, "What are all those stripes on his sweater sleeve for? She was informed that they were service stripes for excelling in sports. Just then Clifford Ahrens came along in his blazer. The other Freshie shouted: "That kid must have started playing football and basketball when he was in kindergarten."

Father: "Why were you suspended from school?"

Son: "Constant interruptions prevented my studying."

Father: "Interruptions? In what forms?"

Son: "Ah, those forms!"

He: "Whew, what a crowd!"

She: "Crowd? I'll say. Why, I just fainted and had to dance four rounds before I had a chance to fall."

"What's the trouble, Mamie? You look like you got nothing to live for." "I ain't Grace; I just seen where Lindbergh's been married."

She was only a street cleaner's daughter, but she'll never have white wings.

You never can tell. Dempsey's favorite song may be "Tunney Boy."

Inez: "Father, may I have a dollar to get some stockings for gym?"

Father: "No, let Jim buy his own stockings."

"Words fail me!" said the Frosh as he flunked his spelling examination.

"Here's a ticket for the movie. You two boys can flip for it."

"Give it to him, I'm no acrobat."

Heard Over the Telephone.

"What number is this?"

"Well, you ought to know; you called it."

Then you've heard of that studious boy, who just from force of habit, took notes on the commencement lecture.

Safety First.

"Don't worry; that cop can't arrest us for speeding."

"Have you got a drag at the city hall?"

"No, I haven't got any license plates."

Frosh: "I am troubled with biting insects. What should I do?"

School Nurse: "Stop biting them."

"What is cure for love at first sight?"

"Second sight."

Elderly Lady: "Please tell me where Capa City is located."

Conductor: "Never heard of it."

Elderly Lady: "See! It's listed on that box car—Capacity 80,000."

A fat girl sat on a young man's lap. She knew that it was wrong; But the young man was a skinny guy, So she didn't sit there long.

"The ladies that just passed were Mrs. John Doe and her niece. Her niece is rather good-looking."

"Don't say 'knees is,' say 'knees are.'"

The tourist guide was getting tired. He had to answer too many dumb questions. "And just where did you say this rock came from?" inquired another wahoo. The guide politely replied that a glacier brought it down. Then up spoke the inquisitive one again: "And where did the glacier go?" "Aw," said the guide, "it went back after another rock."

When a fellow whose wife's name is Helen, keeps calling "Mabel! Mabel!" in his sleep, it doesn't help any at the breakfast table to remark: "I had a funny dream last night, dear. I thought I was in Columbus."

Gypsy: "I'll tell your fortune mister."

John K.: "How much?"

Gypsy: "Fifty cents."

John K.: "Correct."

A hotel manager, going along a corridor, saw a kneeling bootblack cleaning a pair of shoes outside a door of a bedroom.

"Haven't I told you never to clean shoes in the corridor, but to take them downstairs?"

"Yes, sir; but the man in this room is a Scotchman and he is hanging onto the shoe laces."

Kip: "Where did Dr. Spooft make all his money?"

A professor attempted to teach a class of little negroes to memorize, "Be not afraid, it is I."

Professor (following day): "Sam, what was the quotation I taught you yesterday?"

Sam (after thinking deeply): "Don't get skeered, 'tain't nobody but me."

Surgeon: "I feel duty bound to tell you that four out of five patients die under this operation. Now, is there anything you would like for me to do before I begin?"

Colored Gent: "Yassuh, kindly hand me mah hat."

At a small station in the South, the daily passenger train was getting ready to leave.

"All right back there?" bawled the conductor.

"Hol' on! Hol' on!" shrilled a feminine voice from inside the waiting room. "Jess' wait 'till I gets mah clothes on."

And then, as the occupants of the train craned their necks expectantly, she appeared with a basketful of laundry.

Irma D.: "I feel terrible. I think I'm dying."

Harvey H.: "Well, you can't die here, this is the living room."

Nitt: "Would you be afraid to hunt grizzly bears with a club?"

Witt: "Not if there were enough members in the club."

Teacher: "Little boy, when I was your age, I could name all the Presidents off by heart."

Albert B.: "Yeah— but there was only a couple of them then."

Lady Visitor: "Remember, 'stone walls do not a prison make'."
