REDWOOD WINS DISTRICT, REGIONAL TITLES

REGIONAL DECLAMATORY CONTEST AT SLEEPY EYE

Twelve contestants from the various districts competed last Friday at Sleepy Eye in the regional declamatory contest. Marguerite Haynes represented us in the dramatic section, and Gene Kuske and Helen Schmid of Sleepy Eye were the other representatives from this district in oratory and humor, respectively.

Tracy received two firsts, in dramatic and humor.

The Sleepy Eye contestants both received second in their divisions and Marguerite Haynes did not place with her beautiful selection, "Peg O' My Heart."

Marguerite has gone farther toward the state than any one in our school for the last five years. It took hard work and concentration to achieve what she has, and with Miss Ritt's able tutelage, has surely advanced far. We congratulate both Marguerite and Miss Ritt for one of the finest pieces of work that has been seen in our school for many years!

LAST NUMBER ON LYCEUM COURSE GIVEN

The Lyceum course, which the P. T. A. presented this year was concluded last Friday with a program put on by the comedian and impersonator, Clarence Bergderfer.

Mr. Bergderfer appeared before one of the largest audiences the course has seen this year. He gave many impersonations and skits, among which was a very clever presentation in which he imitated animals and instruments remarkably realistically.

With this program the Parent-Teachers Association concludes a more or less successful season of Lyceum presentations. The P. T. A., it is true, did not realize many profits from these offerings, but each one was well attended and liked exceedingly. If they attempted another such undertaking next year, they can be assured of greater success.

UNIVERSITY ACHIEVEMENT TEST GIVEN

Last week the annual university intelligence test was given to the Seniors from the surrounding vicinity, about 150 in number. This is an entrance examination given by the University of Minnesota in order to advise students whether or not to go to college, and also, in general, what they are especially adapted for.

This test contained psychological questions, which really baffled the ma-

REDWOOD QUINT DEMONSTRATES REMARKABLE DASH

Harman's flashes did not seem destined to go through the tournament this year, but nevertheless, gained a great deal of glory by going through to the finals. To arrive there, they first had to put aside the more or less speedy teams of Franklin (by 34-8), Sleepy Eye (23-20), and Lamberton (19-17). The last two games were hard fought and highly exciting, but thorough victories for New Ulm.

The final game was a physical and mental strain on every one. Redwood seemed determined to win their first district contest, and the net result was a six-point lead of 19-25. The game started with a rush, New Ulm holding the upper hand in the first minutes of play. But that was the only lead they were destined to have, for Redwood forged ahead with the quarter ending 8-4, and the half 8-16, in their favor. Although Redwood was unable to break through our defense for close in shots, they hit the hoop almost miraculously time and again by long field goals.

New Ulm's comeback, if any, was confined to the third quarter, when they fought a doggedly determined game, which at times looked favorable. But in the last cycle, Redwood took a commanding lead and rode to championship on the crest of Arnett's baskets.

The lineup:

New Ulm.	FG	FT	FTM	PF	TP
Regelin	3	2	0	1	8
Marks	1	0	0	0	1
Gag	0	2	2	1	2
Schnobrich	3	0	0	2	6
Preuss	0	1	1	2	1

RUNS, ERRORS, BUT NO HITS—GIRLS ONLY ARE AFFLICTED.

No one is immune from it—every girl, in fact, has experienced it—that horrible hoodoo of silk stockings—the run.

It creeps upon one when least expected, and even your best friend won't save you the shock, "Oh! you've got a run in your stocking."

It seems as if the desks are specially made to catch some poor girl unaware. Then there's that tell-tale feeling—like a caterpillar crawling up

Redwood	FG	FT	FTM	PF	TP
Arnett	4	3	1	1	11
Bravinder	0	4	1	1	4
Flynn	2	0	0	2	4
Johnson	2	0	0	2	4
Laidlow	0	0	0	3	2

However, our boys have no cause for complaint, as they took many special prizes. Of course, they received the runners-up trophy and also these awards:

For having the highest per cent of free throws made during the tournament, merchandise from various stores.

Individual with highest per cent of free throws made in four games, Marks (883%), prize by Schleuders.

Individual with greatest number of field goals, Anderson of Lamberton tied with Schnobrich, Backer's Pharmacy, fountain pen.

Highest individual scorer of the tournament, Schnobrich (31 points), basket ball shoes at Eichtens.

Regional Tournament.

The regional tournament, held in the Armory last Saturday, was again captured by the ambitious Redwood five. The final game was an overtime, and full of nerve-racking suspense. Tracy, Redwood's strong rival, seemed to have the edge throughout the game, but when Carpenter, their star man, was taken out, they fought a losing battle, 26-29.

Brownston and New Prague battled for the consolation title, the latter unexpectedly coming out on top.

Redwood has the scrappiest team out, and what's more, can be sure of support wherever they go. We wish them good luck at the State!

one's leg—and there's another pair of stockings ready to be used for dust cloths.

What penalties fashion doth impose!

Him: "Do you remember the boy that used to sit behind you at school and pull your pigtails?"

Her: "Oh, is that who you are?"

Him: "No, indeed—that was my father."

Marion's theme song: "My Fat lies in your hands."

SENIOR PLAY AND CAST SELECTED

Miss Ritt and the Senior committee have selected a very notable play for the class presentation this year. It is a comedy by Louis N. Parker called "Summer Is A-Comin' In."

And what a comedy! Willoughby Spencer (played by Harvey Haeberle) is pursued by three girls who are madly in love with him, and sue him for breach of promise. To escape them, he runs away, but is closely followed by the pack. However, through his ingenuity, the three girls are pushed on to three other men, and Willoughby is free to marry Silvia, the girl of his choice (Harriet Fisher).

Now, can you imagine anything more intriguing? Indifferent Harvey is going to be courted, sued and wooed by the most ardent admirers, and gets into the most delicious situations yet!

This is the entire cast:
Willoughby Spencer. Harvey Haeberle
Jack Hollybush. Rollins Emmerich
Harry Davenport. Lee Gaut
Ernest Wybrow. Herbert Regelin
Vokins. Walter Neemann
Mrs. Vokins. Helen Langmack
Selina Yelland. Marguerite Haynes
Daisy Tapping. Inez Swartz
Rose Philpotts. Irma Dietz
Violet Drinkwater. Renola Frank
Silvia. Harriet Fisher

If this doesn't excel "The Dead of Night," we miss our guess. It sounds delightful! What say

FRESHIES ENTERTAIN

Last Friday, the "Freshies" put on an assembly program. Virginia Gieseke, who is in the sixth grade at the Washington school, gave two humorous readings. Eleanor Larson, who is in the fourth grade, played a piano solo. Ora Schleuder played several popular pieces. Last, but not least, the "N. U. H. S. Chorus Girls" did a dance to the tune of "Little By Little."

INTERCLASS CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES ARE HELD

The Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors entered into a triple tie for first place, Monday. This is a very unusual occurrence, and the teams play off the tie this week.

The competition is extremely close this year, each team having some great material. The Seniors seemed to have more regulars, but the Juniors and especially the Sophomores, have an abundance of fast material.

During the last eliminations, the Seniors lost to the Sophs, 37-14, the

EDITORIAL EFFORTS

The tournament is over, and we might say resignedly, "that's that." There have been many slips during the season, of a more or less unpleasant nature, but on the whole it all came out all right. We wish the boys had won—we think we had the better team—but they proved their mettle to everyone's satisfaction. This is really a successful termination to Mr. Harman's first year as head coach and he surely deserves the praise and admiration of all for his persistent and hard work with the team. The Graphos extends appreciation to a fine coach and also hopes for a great team next year!

The class editions of the Graphos are finished (and a sigh of relief is breathed by those worthies whose earnest struggles put forth some fine issues). The regular staff compliments them all, and we want to tell you it's no easy job to try to please everyone in editing a paper. Try and do it!

FINE.

(The American Boy.)

We hear a great deal of uncomplimentary talk about the boys of this generation, and we want to go on record as saying that about 90 per cent of it is what some users of pure English refer to as the bunk. It is our great good fortune to meet and to mingle with a great many young men. We have gotten to know many of them intimately. We want to go on record as saying that we find the young man of today has better manners, more serious purposes, and behaves himself in all circumstances more wisely and graciously than he did when we were young. We are exceedingly proud of the young man of today. His understanding is better; he is a finer gentleman; his prospects of success in life—due to his own character—are better. We want to say right here that the country is in safe hands. These young men who will be taking charge of our life during the next ten years are all wool

EXCHANGES

The fair co-eds of Luverne High School of Luverne, Minnesota, staged a big party from which all males were excluded. As a result of this party they have drawn up the following resolution: "Resolved, by the females, that we can survive without males."

The American Legion Post of Alexandria, Minnesota, is sponsoring a movement by which the students of the Alexandria high school will be given the opportunity of running the city government for one day. Every boy and girl in high school is eligible to run for offices. The offices of mayor, alderman, city treasurer, and justice of the peace will all be held by students. The students who are elected to these offices will have the power to actually act in their capacity.

Richard Halliburton, noted traveler and writer, spoke to the students of Lewis and Clark High, Spokane, Wash., on March 7. Most girls use make-up because they haven't got the face to go without it.

and a yard wide, and as far as we are concerned, calamity howlers may go take a running jump into the lake.

I HEAR

That Marion and Harvey actually got to the cities by going east. Which proves what perseverance will do. But Harriet was along, so that may account for it.

That Inez has been having much difficulty with rivals for her attention. Some discriminating photographic evidence was destroyed in the mix-up. May the best man win!

Mae Jule entertained royally for a few intimate friends. Prizes were won by Billy E. Lee Gaut, Harvey H., and Jeanne Milliman.

Some dark clouds have been dispelled among four members of the Senior class. During the trouble, the Athletic association suffered a decline, because of the lack of concentration by its president.

There have been several midnight raids upon favorite recreation grounds lately. Now, now, Harvey, up to your old tricks again, aren't you?

Donald D. was in his glory during the tournaments. Oh, those Redwood cheer leaders! And Armin P. wasn't so slow about entertaining out-of-town guests either.

Market Report: As we go to press, the Stuebe-Hintz affair running smoothly; the Pfaender-out-of-town case below par; Milliman-laundry affair being ironed out; Arbes-D. M. L. C. still going; Marks-Larson goes into obscurity; Mueller-Emmerich cooling down.

Some of the teachers have been noticed to be galavanting around with New Ulm's established younger set. Strength to 'em!

Porter: "Miss, yo' train is comin'." Crabby Passenger: "My good man, why do you say 'your train,' when you know the train belongs to the company?"

Porter: "Dunno, Miss. Why does yo' say, 'mah man,' when yo' knows ah belongs to mah wife?"

Paris fashions call for 'an occasional train.'

SENIOR SNICKERS.

Say Juniors, how's your bank account? May is coming and that means the Senior-Junior reception is not far away. For Seniors only—neither is skip day!

The cast has been chosen for the class play. We certainly hope it will be as good as "In the Dead of Night." Did you ever see Harvey Haeberle in an embarrassing position? Wait till you see him when he finds he bought three engagement rings and finds he must buy a fourth!

The basket ball game with the Sophomores was rotten, but our team says it was an off-day for them. Too bad the game can't be played again.

JUNIOR JOTS.

That's some little B. B. team we have, eh? Freshies, you'll be good some day. It looks as though there will be a good high school basket ball team next year, too.

Freshies, we enjoyed your program very much. We didn't know that there were such little Freshmen or such big ones.

We think we know what self-reliance is now. If we think about it enough, we are sure we will learn what it is. However, we are not sure that we shall learn to practice it. We are beginning to think that Emerson "wasn't all there." If we do start to practice self-reliance, beware of the Juniors—hereafter.

SOPHOMORE SINS.

Seniors, where's your pride? We didn't think you'd let us beat you like that in the inter-class game.

The Sophomores are getting ready for their annual play. We don't know yet when we'll give it, but you'd better begin saving up your pennies for it.

We have an excellent team, no doubt about it. When we're Seniors, watch us fly!

FRESHMAN FOLLIES.

We think our program was good, if not long. It's quality, not quantity! But weren't the "Follies" good?

We're sorry we had to lose to those high-hat Sophomores. We only got two free throws throughout the game. Well, the Seniors weren't so hot against the Sophs either, so we needn't complain.

Isn't Roland L. a duck? Such a heart breaker. And as a basket ball player he makes an adorable swimmer.

THEME SONGS OF OUR STUDENTS.

Jeanne M.—"I'm Wishing and Waiting for Love."

Mae Arbes—"Singing in the Bath Tub."

Alice O.—"Oh, How I Love That Man."

Swede W.—"The Man From the South."

Erma D.—"Funny, Dear, What Love Can Do."

Gene S.—"Da De Dum, Bum, Bum."

Herb.—"Lovable Me and Lucky You."

Marion P.—"We Need Each Other."

Harvey H.—"Harvey's a Good Boy."

Schnubby—"After You've Gone."

Donad D.—"I Faw Down, Go BOOM!"

Harriet F.—"Oh, Baby, Look What You've Done to Me."

Hilary—"I May Be Wrong, But I Think I'm Wonderful."

Babe—"You're Always in My Arms, But Only in My Dreams."

Jinx K.—"I'm Following You."

Dick E.—"Do You Miss Me?"

And then there was the Scotchman who went to the Black Sea to fill his fountain pen?

"My wife says I talk in my sleep, doctor; what should I do?"

"Nothing you shouldn't."

He: "I know a lot of new tricks. I can imitate any bird you mention."

She: "Let's see you imitate the homing pigeon."

Finicky Customer: "I don't like the look of that haddock."

Merchant: "Well, madam, if it's looks you're after, why don't you buy a goldfish?"

Mr. Harman: "Let's hear you prove that the square of the hypotenuse is equal to the sum of the squares of the other two sides of this triangle."

Donald: "Let's not waste time. Let's just admit it."

STUDENT OPINION

Here's to bigger and better lavender hats among the teachers! They draw the multitude! (This is meant to be very subtle.)—A Senior and Junior.

Why blame the students for last 6-weeks' lapse? I'll admit it was pretty bad, but the teachers surely should shoulder some of the blame.—Freshie.

The library is no longer a haven for us. We are thrown out by the scores, a very futile pastime, it seems to me.—Junior.

Our team should have won the tournament, I think. They were the best team on the floor, and, as the song goes, "We offer them congratulations." It was, as Babe would say, a case of "No breaks."—Soph.

The students would like it much better if the teachers would please refrain from looking at papers during examinations. We know we're dumb, but when a teacher is standing at the desk to see what we're going to write, it makes us feel still dumber. When we see you look so disgusted, it discourages us all the more.

"You hit your husband with a chair? Pray, tell me why did you do it?"

"I did it," sighed the lady, "because I could not lift the table."

A pompous man missed his silk handkerchief and accused an Irishman of stealing it. After some confusion the man found the missing article in his pocket and apologized for having accused the Irishman.

"Niver mind at all," said the latter. "Ye thought I was a thafe, and I thought ye was a gintlemin, an' we're both mistaken."

A Warning.

"Now, listen, boy, you had better watch your step, because I work in the supply department of my father's business, and he's an undertaker."

Billy E. (with strong sarcasm): "When I dance with you I feel as though I were treading on clouds."

Marion: "Don't kid yourself, those are my feet."

"Was your barn hurt during the cyclone?"

"I dunno, I ain't found it yet."

Miss Treadwell: "Now, we find that X is equal to zero."

Jane Mueller: "Gee! All that work for nothing."

Johnnie had a billie goat,
That made folks fit and flutter;
He was not much on milk or cream,
Yet made a classy butter.

Mother (indolently): "Marion, you've been a naughty girl. Go to the vibrator and give yourself a good shaking."

Gene: "I suppose you've been through algebra?"

Swede: "Yes, but I went through at night and couldn't see the place."

Neighbor: "So your son got his B. A. and his M. A.?"

Proud Dad: "Yes, indeed, but his P. A. still supports him."

Lorna S.: "Gee, I saw a pretty girl this morning."

Donald D.: "So, you've been looking in your mirror again, eh?"

"How gracefully Babe Wagner seems to eat corn on the cob."

"He ought to. He's a piccolo player."

Jakie: "Vat iss the meaning of the word, 'hence'?"

Abie: "It iss someding you hold mit your girl when you're in love."

Woman Customer (to Clerk): "My husband is a conductor and I'd like to buy him one of those railroad ties I hear him talk about."

M. Haynes was watching her baby brother. All of a sudden she called: "Mother, won't you please speak to Bobby? He's sitting on the flypaper, and there's a lot of flies waiting to get on."

Fond Uncle: "Well, that was nice, wasn't it? You like having a ride on uncle's knee, eh?"

Marv. K.: "Not so bad, but I had a ride on a real donkey yesterday."

Mrs. Henpeck (sarcastically): "I suppose you've been to see a sick friend—holding his hand all evening."

Mr. Henpeck (sadly): "If I'd been holding his hand, I'd have made some money."

"I guess we'll make port," said the sailor as he threw in another handful of raisins.

"It's the little things in life that tell," exclaimed the fair co-ed as she yanked her kid brother from under the sofa.

Believe it or not, but the rising generation is hard to get out of bed.

Waiter: "There's most everything on the menu today, sir."

Crabby Patron: "So I see! Bring me a clean one, so that I can read it."

"Offisher, you'd better lock me up. I jush hit my wife over the head with a club."

"Did you kill her?"
"Don't think sho. Thash why I wanna be locked up."

His letter read: "I'm enjoying Florence immensely."

His wife replied: "You can stay in Europe. I am having a good time with Oscar."

Saxophone Player (after finishing number): "What was that we just played?"

Herb: "Did you get a hair cut?"

Harvey: "No, I merely had my ears moved down an inch."

Cop: "Hey, where are you going? Don't you know this is a one-way street?"

Abie (in new car): "Well, I'm goin' one way, ain't I?"

One hen to another as the farmer walked past: "There is the guy I'm laying for."

Miss Treadwell: "Who was not troubled by the last sentence?"

Ora: "I wasn't."

Miss T.: "Then translate it."

Ora: "I didn't get that far."

Willibald: "I've got a sliver in my finger."

Altha: "That's what you get for scratching your head."

Super-Annuated Senior: "You exasperate me."

Freshie: "I don't either. I don't even know what that means."

Kenneth: "So you met Marguerite at choir practice, Sunday?"

Raymond S.: "Just a chants acquaintance."

We wonder why they keep on having wind. Nobody needs it to sail ships with any more and hardly anybody uses windmills.

Mr. Dirks: "Were you ever in trouble before?"

Georgie F.: "Well, yes and no. I kept a library book too long once and was fined two cents."
