Harmanites Play Winthrop Tonight

STUDENTS HEAR ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

Several members of the Gustavus Adolphus college gave an interesting program before the High school assembly. A mixed quartet which consisted of Miss Rasmussen, alto, Miss Krock, soprano, Mr. Krock, bass, and Mr. Nelson, tenor, gave two vocal selections. Mr. Krock then gave a cello solo which was followed by a talk by Mr. Youngdahl, professor of Economics and Sociology at Gustavus. The subject of his talk was "Live and Let Live." It was most interestingly presented by Mr. Youngdahl and enthusiastically received by the audience.

Following the talk, Miss Thomson gave a piano solo. The closing number was a tenor solo by Mr. Nelson.

DECLAMATION SEASON SCHEDULED TO BEGIN

The declamation season will open Monday afternoon at 3:30. All students are welcome to register for speech work at that time with Miss Ritt—those who desire general speech training as well as those who wish to participate in the declamation contests. There are two sections open to boys; namely, the humorous and the oratorical. There are two sections for girls, the dramatic and the humorous.

MUSIC FESTIVAL TO BE HELD HERE

Wednesday evening, December 9, at eight o'clock, a big music festival will be given at Turner hall. The festival will be given by the New Ulm and Sleepy Eye High schools. There will be a massed band of 110 pieces and a grand orchestra of 78 pieces, under the direction of Mr. Halling and Mr. Peterson, music directors.

The proceeds of this festival will go to the purchase of capes and caps for the local band and orchestra members. The admission will be 25c, plus 10c for reserved seats which can be obtained at the Rexall Drug Store.

BABY BADGE TO BE GIVEN TO CARELESS

Mr. Pfaender has been having difficulty with some of his gym classes because of their carelessness in the locker rooms. He has now solved that difficulty by a baby badge. This is a large paper baby bottle, bound with pink baby ribbon, and attached by two enormous safety pins. Any (Continued on page 4.)

Prospects Good for Successful Season

Spaeth is Captain of Team

Basket ball fans are anxiously awaiting opening of the basket ball season, while Coach Harman hopes to develop a quint that will hold up the undefeated record of the football squad. With practically the same team representing the school that went to the regional meet last year, his hopes seem well grounded.

Spaeth is Captain.

Doyle Spaeth is captain of the team this year, and he will probably lead his teammates from his last year's position as guard. Last year Bill Emmerich played the other guard position, and Preuss and Wagner starred at forward positions, while Marks jumped at center. However, these lettermen will have some keen competition and will probably find it difficult to retain those positions this year. Other candidates for positions on the team are Reinhart, star football player, who was declared ineligible last year through transferring of schools, Kading, Huelskamp, and Mather. With this prize material composing one team, prospects are favorable for a splendid season.

Younger recruits with whom Coach Harman will work are Backer, W. Marti, J. Arbes, Besmehn, Aufderheide, Miller, Lindemann, Hippert, Jordan and Walrath.

Season's Schedule.

The season's schedule for the regulars is not an easy one, and they have two games away from home before they meet Lamberton here on Thursday, Dec. 17. All home games will be played at the New Ulm Armory. With the season's opening game, December 4th at Winthrop, the boys will engage in twelve games, six to be played at home. The season will close with the Sleepy Eye game on Friday, Feb. 19th. In addition to this program, the team will play two games with Dr. Martin Luther college.

Games on the schedule appear as follows:

- Dec. 4, Friday—Winthrop, there.
- Dec. 11, Friday—Gaylord, there.
- Dec. 17, Thursday—Lamberton, here.
- Jan. 8, Friday—Winthrop, here.
- Jan. 15, Friday—Springfield, here.
- Jan. 22, Friday—Redwood Falls, there.
- Jan. 26, Tuesday (tentative)—Sleepy Eye, here.
- Jan. 29, Friday—Gaylord, here.
- Feb. 5, Friday—Lamberton, there.
- Feb. 12, Friday—Redwood Falls, here.
- Feb. 13, Saturday—Springfield, there.
- Feb. 19, Friday—Sleepy Eye, there.

BOOKS TO BE AWARDED TO PRIZE WINNERS

Miss Holzinger is now awaiting the arrival of the books, which she ordered as prizes for the winners of the contest in which pupils were to portray scenes taken from a book which they had read. The following are the names of the books selected:

- Primary—
- 1st prize....."In Kimona Land"
- 2nd prize....."Ned and Nan in Holland"
- 3rd prize....."Eskimo Twins"
- 3rd and 4th Grades—
- 1st prize....."Holland Stories"
- 2nd prize....."Animal Stories From Eskimo Land"
- 5th and 6th Grades—
- 1st prize....."Sunshine Lands of Europe"
- 2nd prize....."Robin and Jean in England"
- 7th Grade—Won by Constance Ewy, "Top of the Continent."
- 8th Grade, won by Lynn DeWanz, "Buccaneers and Pirates of Our Coasts."

COFFEE SERVED BY HOME ECONOMICS DEPT.

The Home Economics department gave a coffee in the school dining room yesterday afternoon. The proceeds are to be used to pay for new desks, which were purchased by that department.

The girls served a delicious lunch, which was readily consumed by the students and faculty. They served butterscotch, lemon, pumpkin, and apple pie; egg salad and Philadelphia cream cheese sandwiches, coffee and tea.

Into Oblivion.

Katherine E., blushing in Social; Peggy Swartz's long tresses; Florence E.'s library passes; football suits; Jane's playbook; Spot's remarks about "the Star"; Chuck O'Malley after 7:30 p. m.; chemistry.

(Exit Clue) Miss Sogn: "Do you like reciting, dear?"

Becky: "Oh, no, I hate it really. But mother makes me do it when she wants people to go away."

COMMERCIAL CLUB WORKING ON PLAY

The Commercial club is now practicing on a play to be given before the assembly, sometime after Christmas vacation. The play, a comedy, is called "Station YYY," and was written by Booth Tarkington.

The cast consists of the following: Mrs. Winstead.....Florence Reitter Herbert .....Alice Milliman Anita .....Marion Schmid Caroline .....Gretchen Kretsch Mr. Winstead.....Alfred Bechner Roger .....Walter Steinkraus

ASSEMBLY TO HAVE CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

Miss Ritt has now selected the cast for the Christmas play, "Fiat Lux," (Let There Be Light) by Faith Vilas, to be given at the Parent-Teacher association program, Dec. 14, and for an assembly program on December 18. This story portrays an experience that comes to people everywhere (and has for centuries) whenever sorrow casts a shadow upon the home. In the truth that death opens the heart, there is found the miracle that gives this little play its pathos and its power.

The setting for the play is an outlying hut of a mountain village on the eve of Christmas.

The cast is: Azariah .....Richard Lindemann Father Ambrose.....Wayne Walrath Nellie .....Doris Dahl Soldier .....Frederick Meile Waits .....

CANDY SALE GIVEN BY DRUM CORPS

The Drum corps is still trying earnestly to raise money for new drums and bugles. Last Wednesday they gave another candy sale, making approximately five dollars on it.

Mr. Dirks has just received two new bass bugles for the corps. Helen Esser and Alys Pufahl are now trying these out, while Mary Mueller and Althea Schroeck will probably take the formers' places.

Two of a Kind!

Father (putting youngster to bed): "Now, what are you crying for?" Son: "I want a drink." Father: "So do I, go to sleep."

A news story tells us that the size of molecules of gases have been reduced a third under a new idea.

New idea your eye! Those scientists are just stealing some depression stuff.

"Ah! failed!" said the ten-cent cigar.

THE JOY OF BEING ON THE STAFF.

Getting out this paper is no picnic,
If we print jokes, people say we are
silly;
If we don't, they say we are too serious.
If we clip things from other papers,
We are too lazy to write them ourselves;
If we don't, we are stuck on our own stuff.
If we stick close to the job all day,
We ought to be out news hunting;
If we get out and try and hustle,
We are far too inquisitive.
If we don't print contributions,
We don't appreciate true genius,
And if we do, the paper is filled with junk.
If we make a change in the other fellow's write-up, we are too critical;
If we don't, we're asleep.
If we write good articles, people say we copied them.
If we write bad ones, people think they're original.
If we wouldn't have a paper at all—this would be a pretty bum high school.
But it's too bad now.
And say, wouldn't it be just like some one to say we swiped this from another paper?
Well, ladies and gentlemen, WE DID!
Frosh (at a party): "May I sit on your right hand at dinner?"
His Hostess: "I may need it to eat with, but you can hold it awhile."
Geo. F.: "You're the first girl I ever kissed."
Gretchen: "Yeah! Same old Standard Oil."
Dick H.: "Down with capitalism."
Elmer N.: "And punctuation, too!"
A pastor began a funeral oration
this way: "Friends, we have here only the shell of the man—the nut is gone."

EXCHANGES

The Mac Weekly—

The Aquatic league initiated 16 members, Monday night. The initiation included a splash party, which was followed by a banquet and a program.

The Women's Glee club, which was formerly known as the Macalester College Women's Glee club, has recently elected to change its name.
It is henceforth to be known as the Macalester Aeolian chorus.

The freshmen won in a pushball contest against the sophomores.

The question chosen for debating at the Pi Kappa Delta debate festival is: "Resolved, That courting could be done better in a horse and buggy than in an automobile.

The Luther Echo—

The St. Paul Luther Players held their regular meeting in Ernst hall on Friday evening, Nov. 13. After a short business meeting, Mr. Wagner traced briefly the development of the drama.

The St. Paul Luther Players will again present the 3-act comedy of Peter B. Kyne, "Cappy Ricks." St.
Stephens church, St. Paul, Rev. Qualen, pastor, will sponsor the presentation at the West Side Commercial club.

The women's field hockey season
at Luther opened with the first game on Wednesday, Nov. 18. As a means of earning points toward athletic awards, a tournament, consisting of three or more games is held each fall.

The Roosevelt Standard—

The A Seniors will hold a hard-time party. It will be held in the girls' gymnasium.

Under the direction of Howard Stokes, president, the Bachelor club will give a semi-formal dance at the Country club on Saturday evening,
Nov. 21.

Milachi—

The Normal Training students visited the Chippewa Indian reservation and school at Mille Lac Lakes.

The advertising work of the Milachi is carried on by the members of the junior English classes as part of their English work.

The high school presents the annual fun festival. Students will give plays, musical numbers, and stunts.
Booths of various sorts will be had.

Patriotism is a love of home and country. It is a sacred feeling which we have acquired for the safety of our homes.

The Pepster—

Miss Thora Longie of the Crook-ston high faculty will direct "Holiday," a drama by Phillip Barry, to be presented by the Crookston players in December.

Business for the Pepster staff has become so pressing that private mail boxes have been provided for the editor-in-chief, the business manager, the advertising manager, and the exchange editor.

Mr. Kirkwood was chosen major in the school election by a vote of 166.

Hutch-Hi-Times—

SENIOR SHORTS.

Deep Thoughts During Idle Assembly Periods—

Carl H.: "I wonder if Jean V. is thinking of me?"

Bibs M.: Shyly glancing over at the Senior rows and wondering if she would go for a ride on his bike?

Eileene O'M.: "I wonder if I look one pound underweight?"

Billy B.: Ignoring the female sex who are always bothering him.

Donald D.: "I've got a new line—I wonder if the girls will fall for it?"

Jimmie A.: "Should I take Helen E., or Gretchen K. out tonite?"

Peggy S.: Writing notes in shorthand and then trying to read them back.

Chuck: Fondly admiring his new necktie—the one Alma likes.

Miss Huber: "I wonder who else I could make sit in the front seats during 3rd period."

Marks: As usual, he isn't thinking.

Francis A.: Complaining to all those around her because she got a B when she deserved an A.

Ammie: "Only two weeks and she'll be home again."

Fussy: Dreaming of a blonde—(look out, Fussy, blondes are dangerous.)

JUNIOR JOTS.

How They'd Broadcast the Game—

Tony Wous: "Are you listenin'?"

There goes Digga, the New Ulm rhythm boy, through the line. Yes, sir, folks. He's good because he's fresh. The boys in old Trinity sent him here you know. Touchdown. Are you listenin'?"

The Crema Man: "Good afternoon. There's the New Ulm team out on the field. Eleven men, count 'em, eleven."

Calvin Coolidge: "There goes the young gentleman named Reinhart through the line. Going through the line is better known as penetrating the other team's defensive. To penetrate the defensive a man must be smart. He must also have adequate blocking. Blocking is—"

Professor Stoopnagle: "I will now imitate Calvin Coolidge broadcasting a football game."

SOPHOMORE SINS.

Melvin B. calls his razor a little cut up.

Jack J.: "Say is your dog clever?"

James A.: "Clever! I should say so. When I say, 'Are you coming or aren't you?' he comes or he doesn't."

FRESHMAN FOLLIES.

Since Mr. Dirks has started the topic in his social class we Freshmen feel it our duty to do likewise in hopes our fair seniors will thank us some day for this "unasked criticism." No names will be told you seniors so don't ask anyone when you read:

When we freshmen would faint—

Helen E. stops giggling.

Evelyn K. goes with someone besides the onliest one.

Francis A. falls in love with some one else.

Billy B. learns to behave in chemistry class.

Donald D. finds someone to match wits against.

Gretchen K. gets mumps.

Richard L. would play a he man's game (we suggest football).

Marks would miss a dance.

Laura L. wouldn't tell tales.

Eileen O'M. used different wiles.

Flo R. talked of her own adoption.

Kate S. had to walk.

Marion S. didn't study.

Babe, Spot and Bill tried to duck waddle.

We freshmen conclude all the fond hope you lofty seniors thank us in due time. We'll wait!

We hear many statements that the trouble with us today is that we are overcome with boredom. We are not able to be delighted in the simpler things of life. This department, ever a champion for the present against the past, offers this excerpt from a story appearing in a local paper as proof that we are not blase—we are, on the contrary, very easily delighted:

"Dressed in black velvet, fashioned with the ankle length skirt and bertha collar of lace, Miss So-and-So spoke on make-up at the session, Wednesday night. She delighted St. Paul woman by refusing water and drinking a pint of milk during the program."

It's little things like seeing a person refuse water and drink a pint of milk that make life worth living!

P. S. It also delights milk dealers.

—Hoff.

"With a single stroke of a brush," said the school teacher, taking his class around the art gallery, "Joshua Reynolds could change a smiling face into a frowning one."

Small Boy: "So can my mother."

Teacher: "Leo, if you subtract 16 from 109, what's the difference?"

Leo Esser: "Yea, I think it's a lot of foolishness, too."

Elmer N. says, "After nightfall the most important thing in a car is the clutch."

Not long ago down in Mexico a man who never had had a bath was shoved under a cold shower and he immediately became insane.

Which merely increases our suspicion of the enthusiasts who insist on taking a cold shower every morning.

A young St. Paul physician and his bride, honeymooning in Europe, stopped in jolly old London before sailing for home and prohibition. They dined in the pretentious dining room of their fashionable hotel. An American dance band and champagne were on tap. The bride wanted to dance (didja ever see a woman who didn't?), but waited in vain for a husbandly overture. No overtures. Appearing at the table a sleek, immaculately dressed young man. "Would madam dawnce?" he inquired, bending low.

Madam would. And did. Doctor-husband watched. They cut a smart figure on the floor. Then the dancers returned.

Soon the band struck up another tune.

"Would madam care to dawnce again?"

"I ah-ah-ahhhhh—"

"Sure, go ahead."

Madam danced again, the doctor-husband looked on, his brows knit in meditation. Gad, but that guy could dance, but that was all.

Why, of course, madam danced a third time.

"My! What a gallant fellow," she commented, "I'm just curazy about Englishmen's manners."

"Wh huh!"

Soon the waiter appeared with the dinner check—no, TWO checks. The second was for $20.

"What's this bill for twenty bucks?" inquired the suspicious young physician.

"That is for the services of the young man who danced with madam," yawned the waiter.

The band was playing "Just a Gigolo" as madam left the dining room with a young gentleman, whose jaw was out-thrust and in whose eyes glittered the light of battle.

Frank: "I don't care whether it's a girl or a boy—it's pretty."

Mrs. Sniff: "It is being whispered around that you and your husband are not getting on well together."

Mrs. BJones: "Nonsense. We did have some words and I shot him, but that's as far as it ever went."

Wife: "Don't you think I have put too much salt in the soup, dear?"

Model Husband: "Not at all, darling; there is, perhaps, a little to little soup for the salt, that's all."

Passenger (excitedly): "We've knocked a man down. Aren't we going to stop?"

Driver (hard boiled): "Oh, that's all right, We'll read all about it in the papers."

Passerby: "What would your mother say, little boy, if she would hear you swear like that?"

Boy: "She'd be ticked to death if she could hear it."

Passerby: "How can you lie like that?"

Boy: "That's no lie. She's stone deaf."

Good heavens! Who gave you that black eye?"

"A bridegroom for kissing the bride after the ceremony."

"But surely, he didn't object to that ancient custom?"

"No, but it was two years after the ceremony."
