SIEGEL TROPHY CONTEST WINNERS ARE CHOSEN

Last Thursday evening the Siegel Trophy contest was held in the High School auditorium. In this contest a member of each class (previously chosen) was represented in each of the three sections—dramatic, humorous, and oratorical.

The following are the names of the winners finally chosen and the names of their selections:

Dramatic—1st place, Marion Pfaender '31, "Dust of the Road;" 2nd place, Ora Schleuder '33, "The Littlest Rebel;" 3rd place, Laura Loeffler '32, "Tale of Old Madrid."

Humorous—1st place, Alice Milliman '32, "The Glorious Fourth;" 2nd place, Gertrude Dubbe '31, "But I Ain't Dead Yet;" 3rd place, Evelyn R. Larson '33, "At the Movies."

Oratorical—1st place, William Meierding '31, "Message to Garcia;" 2nd place, Wayne Walrath '32, "Ropes;" 3rd place, Frederick Meile '33, "Message to Garcia."

The Senior class won the contest by securing the most number of points in the three divisions. This entitles them to have their name engraved on the cup donated for this contest.

MAGICIAN VISITS HIGH SCHOOL

Mr. Heaney, famous magician, entertained the high school and the junior high school pupils Tuesday afternoon with many puzzling tricks.

Mr. Heaney was born in a small city, the son of a watchmaker, and started performing tricks when he was a boy. His interest was first aroused in magic when a magician brought a piece of apparatus to Heaney's father to be repaired. He learned the lesson of stick-to-it-iveness when very young and simply never would give up. By his many card manipulations, he proves that gambling does not pay. His advice to all young people is to have high ideals, stick to their studies, respect their superiors, and try to make the world better for having lived.

RADIO PROGRAM GIVEN BY SOPHOMORES

Last Friday morning, the Sophomores, under the supervision of Miss Steinhauser, gave a radio program. The program came over Stations JAIL and SOPH. All went well till the two stations started to broadcast at the same time. The result was a (Continued on page 4.)

HARMANITES DEFEAT LAMBERTON 27—17

The Lambert game featured the greatest number of gift shots this season. Twenty-seven personal fouls were called, 14 on New Ulm and 13 on Lambert.

Both teams had 17 free throw chances. New Ulm made 11 of them and Lambert netted only 9.

The game was played on Lambert's small floor, and this fact explains the great number of fouls. Considering that the floor was so small, this was an excellent game, and a close one.

Lamberton kept up with New Ulm during the first half, which ended in a tie; and even in the third quarter they held us down to only a 2-point lead. But in the last quarter they exhausted their resources and were too played out to offer any resistance, and our boys ran up the 10-point lead on them, which ended the game, 27-17. Wagner made high points in this game with Preuss running a close second. To Poynter goes the honor of making 5 out of 6 free shots, but he and Preuss were taken out on personals. A Lambert man also went out because of fouls and 4 other men had 3 personals chalked up against them. The lineup:

PURPLE FLASHES WIN THREE CAGE CONTESTS

HARMAN'S FIVE TAKE TRIO OF VICTORIES.

In three consecutive battles, Coach Harman's purple flashes came out the victors by large margins in each case. Friday, Jan. 30, they nosed out Springfield by 33-11; the following Tuesday they went into the D. M. L. C. camp and defeated them, 20-13; and last Friday they gave Lambert a hard run by beating them 17-27.

The Springfield game was merely an exhibition of a stronger and better team beating a weak five. Half of the game consisted of skirmishes which would result in a scramble on the floor. Springfield was overpowered, in spite of the fact that they have a fighting bunch of boys. New Ulm was rather unfortunate with their shots; they made only a very small majority of their tries at field goals.

The driving power of the boys was again shown when they grabbed another victory from the local college Tuesday. It was as fast and speedy a game as could be asked for by the most particular of fans. The high school team maintained a slight lead throughout the game, but in the last few minutes the college gained a tie on them; then with only a few minutes left, our boys spurted—and spurted with such speed that the college had only time to gasp, before the whistle blew, and the score was 20-13 in our favor.

The D. M. L. C. quint defeated Concordia College of the Cities just recently, which is considered a great feat. Now we have definitely proved that our team is nothing to be laughed at, even in competition with the colleges.

Lineup of the Springfield game:

New Ulm.	FG	PF	FT	FTM	TP
Preuss, rf	1	3	0	0	2
Wagner, lf	3	2	0	3	6
Marks, c	2	2	5	2	9

GRADE STUDENTS ENTERTAIN ASSEMBLY

Last Friday morning several grade students entertained the high school assembly. The first thing on the program was a play by three third and fourth grade children of the Emerson. They acted out a story they read, doing all of the coaching themselves. Next we heard two harmonica solos by pupils from the Emerson school. Two boys from the Lincoln school played a saxophone and clarinet duet. The last number on the program was a solo by Ruth Fuerst, accompanied by Judith Bieber at the piano.

WHAT IS A SENSE OF HONOR.

Anyone with a sense of honor has a clear distinction between right and wrong. That is, he should know the difference so well that he would not choose the wrong. Not only should he have the right feeling, but he should do the right thing. Why does a pupil always look around to see if the teacher is watching when he is about to copy another's work? He does this because he has no sense of honor. He may know the sense of honor, but he hasn't the power to carry it out.

EXCHANGE.

A girl named Anna showed her raisin when she made a date with a prune named Bartlett Pear. She is the apple of his eye, and while she has a cherry disposition, she frequently hands him a lemon. This is plum wrong, and he ought to ban Anna, but our saying so is fruitless.—The Echo.

LOONA TICK TALKS.

Dear Loona: How can I come in closer contact with a certain young, beautiful, adorable, etc., Senior?—D. Dannheim.

Donald: Say it with flowers.—Loona.

Loona: Am I being misled by these D. M. L. C. boys?—Jane M.

Jane: Please send a self-addressed envelope stating your question and your physical and mental ages. Loona.

Dear Loona: These colored glasses don't help. What should I try next? Hilary O.

H. O.: Stick your head in a rain barrel and count to a thousand. With love, Loona Tick.

Loona—What's a good way of constant communication with Minneapolis? Chuck O.

Chuck: There are aeroplanes, cars, bicycles, etc. In your case, moving there is prescribed. Loona.

Dear Loona Tick: How can I tell her I love her? Remund S. Remund: Knock yourself on your head and you won't have to.—Loona.

Loona Tick: What is your next best remedy on how to be big? The last one failed. Blanche P.

Dear Blanche: Act your age.—Loona.

Loona: What is this thing called love? Erv.

Erv.: Don't worry, my boy. When you get to your twelfth birthday I'll tell you. Loona.

Dear Loona: My water on the brain affects me these cold mornings. What should I do? John Johnson.

John: Try some anti-freeze solution. Loona.

Loona: Why don't girls leave me alone? Bill E.

Bill: Shave your mustache off! Loona.

PSALMS OF JEANNE MILLIMAN.

Mr. Harman is my teacher; I shall not pass.

He maketh me go to the board. He compelleth me to draw difficult triangles.

He giveth me zero. He maketh me to sit down for my class' sake.

Yea, though I study 'till midnight, I shall gain no knowledge, for my propositions trouble me.

He prepareth a test for me in the presence of mine classmates.

He giveth me a five. Surely flunks shall follow me all the days of my life.

And I shall dwell in this geometry class for ever and ever.

ELEVEN YEARS AGO.

Thursday morning Howard Vogel proved himself to be as splendid a pianist as he is an orator.

New Ulm defeated Sleepy Eye by the score of 32-7. They also defeated Redwood by the score of 27 to 23.

The girls' basket ball team defeated the Bethany College girls, 38 to 13.

Miss Treadwell also entertained the H. S. assembly with two piano selections, and we all wish to hear her play again.

Wednesday, Feb. 2, the girls' declamatory contest took place.

Some of those who entered the contest and the selections they gave are as follows:

Lorna Schleuder—"Happy In My Lot." Elizabeth Hintz—"An Unfinished Story."

Beatrice Gaag—"Pro Patria." Helen Meile—"Daddy Long Legs."

Lillian Eyrich—"The Littlest Rebel."

SENIOR NOTES.

St. Valentine's Day is so close at hand that I know most of us are secretly afraid of some of our "beloved friends" sending us missives that tell us more of the truth about our egotistical selves than we care to admit.

The horoscope predicts that Hilary can't be passed up and someone will surely compose this anthem to him:
You think your a wonder
But why put on airs
Please cut out the broadcasting!
Nobody cares!

Marion is scared to death of this one—so's Joe:

You're getting darned Fat
There's no use denying,
You can't get around it—
There's no use trying
In fact—you'd both better reduce.

Someone is sure to rope Donald D. on this, or Schmidt:

You think you're some musicians—
As on your horns you squeal—
But let me tell you now Big Boys—
You've got no sax appeal.
