

NEW ULM WINS DISTRICT TRACK MEET

JUNIORS ENTERTAIN SENIORS AT ANNUAL PROM

On April 30, the Juniors were host to the Seniors at the annual Junior-Senior reception. Continuing the custom, begun three years ago, the guests were again transported to a bit of a "foreign country." This time the gym was transformed into a Paris street scene.

At the awninged entrance, an electric sign, "An Evening in Paris," greeted the guests. The gym itself presented the appearance of an outdoor Paris cafe. Little French shops, Lagues, Le Moulin Rouge, Marguery's, etc., lined the sides; and lamp posts and park benches added to the picturesque scene. The menu for the three-course banquet, which was served, was also printed in French, and, although most of us couldn't read French, we all enjoyed the banquet.

Jane Mueller acted as toastmistress for the speeches following the banquet. Stanley Hellmann, president of the Junior class, gave the welcome to the Senior class, and Richard Lindeman, Senior class president, gave the Senior response. Following this, talks were given by Dr. Hintz, Mr. Dirks and Mr. Andreen.

Dancing followed the banquet, music being furnished by the Orient orchestra.

SCHOOL ORCHESTRAS AND BANDS PLAY IN FESTIVAL

Last Friday the bands and orchestras from nine high schools in this district assembled at New Ulm to take part in its annual music festival. Instead of judging according to first, second, and third places, as has been done in the past, the judge, Mr. Gene Koch, of Minneapolis, served only as critic, showing the faults and the good points of each orchestra and band to its director.

The orchestras gave their program at Turner hall in the afternoon. Each orchestra rendered one selection of its own choosing. Following this, the massed orchestras from all the schools played "Largo" by Handel and "A Night in June"—King. They were directed by the critic judge, Mr. Koch.

In the evening, the bands from the various schools presented their program at German Park. Again, each organization gave selections of their own choosing, this time each band playing two pieces. Following this program, the massed bands under the direction of Mr. Koch played "The Thunderer March"—Sousa, "Indian Trail"—DeLamarter, and "The Magic Garden"—King.

The schools taking part in the festival were Fairmont, Granada, Manakato, New Ulm, Sherburn, St. Peter, Sleepy Eye, Madelia, and Winnebago.

THREE NEW RECORDS SET REGIONAL NEXT SATURDAY

New Ulm gathered 75½ points to win the Tenth district track and field meet last Saturday. Redwood Falls was second with 44 1-5 points. Gaylord, Winthrop, and Morton followed with 36 1-5, 25 2-5, and 10 7-10 points, respectively.

The meet proved to be exceptionally interesting, and besides breaking three records, the participants were closely matched. The highlight of the meet was the work of Cuff of Redwood Falls, who succeeded in setting three new marks—those of the high jump, javelin, and shot put. Several other marks were close to being broken. Preuss coming within one inch of tying the old discus mark of 100 feet, 1 inch.

Ribbons were awarded the individual who placed first, second or third, and a silver statuette award was presented the winning team. Besides these awards, New Ulm was presented with another trophy for first place in the half mile relay race.

Officials of the meet were highly satisfied with the annual event, and arrangements have been made to send the holders of first and second places in the district meet to the Regional meet to be held at Hutchinson, tomorrow.

EXHIBITION PLANS ARE BEING MADE

The annual exhibition given by the manual training and home economics departments will be held in the high school gymnasium on Friday, May 20, at 7:30 o'clock. Clothing, decorated boxes, booklets, drawing plates, woodworking and electrical projects, table lamps, gavels, candle sticks, bats, tables, stands, etc., will be displayed at this exhibition. An interesting feature of this event will be the presence of a telegraph set made by the electricity class. This will be on display in the shop rooms.

Following the exhibit, there will be a program in the high school assembly during which awards will be made.

"No officer, we've eloped already, we're just coming home to live with the family."

SENIOR RETURN DANCE TO BE GIVEN SATURDAY

This Saturday, May 21, at 7:30, the Seniors are having their gala return dance. They are bestowing their hospitality not only on the Juniors, but also onto the Freshmen and Sophomores. All faculty members and the board members have been cordially invited, and rumors have been spread that there is to be a light lunch. (We wonder how light?)

To the strains of the Orient orchestra, the guests will promenade up and down the boulevard of Paris. Great care has been taken to prevent any rational bolsheviks from putting bombs under the gym, and the decorations are intact up to the present date of writing.

One hundred and sixty students of the High school have accepted the in-

SECOND ANNUAL FIELD DAY, THURSDAY

Thursday afternoon the second annual field day celebration will be given at the Municipal Athletic field. Seven hundred school children will participate in the physical education demonstration. Children in all grades have been prepared to take part in a program that will show both work and play activities.

Activities are scheduled to start at 1:30 and will include inter-class kitenball games, volley ball tournaments, relay races, and other playground forms of recreation.

The formal program, beginning at 3:15, will include folk dances, a mass calisthenic drill by 200 boys and girls, club swinging, a marching drill, tumbling, pyramiding, vaulting box work, a difficult Danish gymnastic drill, and various other entertaining features.

Following is the program:

1:30—Kittenball games: Junior boys vs. Senior boys; Freshmen boys vs. Sophomore boys; seventh grade boys vs. eighth grade boys; Junior girls vs. Senior girls. Hemingway ball: Freshmen girls vs. Sophomore girls; seventh grade girls vs. eighth grade girls.

2:15—Volley ball games: Wellmann's vs. Bieneman's; Marti's vs. Marks' Specials; winners vs. winners.

3:00—Relay races.

3:15—Formal program:

1. Folk dances, first and second grades, Emerson, Lincoln, Washington, and Franklin schools.

2. Mass calisthenic drill, third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades, all buildings.

3. Ball passing relays, fifth and sixth grade boys.

4. Tumbling and pyramid building, seventh and eighth grade girls.

5. Fundamental gymnastics, seventh and eighth grade boys.

6. Skin the snake relay, seventh grade boys vs. eighth grade boys.

7. Club swinging drill, high school girls.

8. Vaulting box work, junior high boys.

9. Marching drill, high school girls.

10. Danish gymnastics, high school boys.

BAND WILL GIVE CONCERT

Several requests have been made to have the high school band play at band concerts. Mr. Halling has decided to give a concert at German park on Sunday, May 22. The band may also play on June 5.

Caller: "And what are the twins' names?"

John: "Helen and Maria."

Caller: "Oh, no; it can't be."

John: "Well, that's what pop said when the nurse brought them in."

FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1932.

STUDENT OPINION.

The teachers are making review very unpleasant for us with their crabbing. Review frazzles our nerves as much as it does theirs.

Just the thought of graduation makes me want to bawl.

Sad Senior.

Certainly was a swell prom you gave us, juniors. Swell eats and everything.

Just Another Senior.

I'd like to see that wood chopper if we helped ourselves to a skip day,
as the seniors did.

Schoolcrazy Frosh.

I hope those rumors of a return dance won't turn out to be a false alarm!

Dancer in the Dark.

Why should we be expected to spend money for costumes for Field Day? We won't have an audience anyway.

Pessimistic Gymnast.

Why don't the different classes have picnics anymore? Is it considered too old-fashioned?

Sandwich Spread.

"Liza, you remind me of brown sugar."

"How come, Sam?"

"You am so sweet and so unrefined."

He was a loyal little fellow and he wouldn't let anything be said against his parents. One Sunday afternoon a boy friend said, "Listen to your father snore."

"Dad isn't snoring," was the indignant reply. "He's dreaming about a dog, and that's the dog growling."

"Have you ever driven a car?" the lady applicant for a license was asked.

"One hundred and twenty thousand miles," put in her husband, "and never had her hand on the wheel."

THE WIZ'S CORNER.

Dear Wiz:

My folks don't like my boy friend.
He drinks excessively, and I er-ah-don't-er-ah-just exactly mind, but my folks object. What should I do?

Gingeringly,
Tweedle Dums.

Dear Tweedle Dums:

Why not tell your folks the reason you don't object is because you drink
too. Sooner or later they'll find out.

The Wiz.

Dear Wiz:

My girl friend is a hostess in a night club. Every time I come in she gives me the slip. How can I avoid this?

Pa lease,
T. T.

Dear T. T.:

Tell the owner not to wax the floor
any more!

The Wiz.

Dear Wiz:

My girl friend smokes "Chesterfields." I loathe them, but like "Lucky Strike." What can be done about this?

Smokingly,
Smo Ker.

Dear Smo Ker:

Try "Old Golds"! Any old weed will do.

Mr. Newlyrich: "Come and dine with me tomorrow evening."

Mr. Literary: "Afraid I can't. I'm going to see 'Hamlet.'"

Mr. Newlyrich: "Never mind; bring him with you."

Student (bumping into gray-haired man): "Hey, where the heck are you going?"

Man: "Say, kid, I guess you don't know who I am. I am the assistant football coach."

Student: "Oh, pardon me, sir; I thought you were the dean."

Seeing the College.

Guide: "This is the examination room."

Tourist: "My, what a musty smell it has."

Guide: "Yes, many hopes lie buried here."

Marx: "What is your idea of a clever woman? One who can see the point of a joke?"

Wayne: "No, one who can laugh without seeing the point."

Lloyd Marti: "Think of all the golden moments you've wasted playing bridge."

Billy B.: "Yes, besides a lot of silver coin."

"Have you noticed any sign of better business?"

"Yes, people who couldn't pay their bills before are starting to promise."

At church last Sunday Mr. B.—
sang "I May Not Pass This Way Again" to the delight of the congregation."

She: "You certainly eat well."
He: "I ought to. I've practiced all my life."

He: "My education cost me $8,000."
She: "Money doesn't go far these days, does it?"

Mr. Kretsch: "Didn't I see you kiss
my daughter, Gretchen?"

???: "How should I know. Do you think I'll be gawking around when I was doing a thing like that?"

KLASS KRIMES

SENIOR SNATCHES. SKIP DAY.

As tradition will have it, Skip Day proved very eventful to some of us and quite the opposite to others. Alice M., it seems, provided sufficient entertainment for Donald D. Kate S. spent her time pulling weeds out of her garden—it must have been a sight worth seeing. Digga was seen driving or rather trying to drive in such a way as to scare little girls out of a year's growth. Ammie and Wayne, two lonesome lovers, were fishing at Sleepy Eye lake, but came ashore at noon to partake of a well-balanced meal prepared by Florence and Helen. Peg and Eileen hiked and hiked and hiked until a kind soul picked them up in the midst of a shower. Carl A. worked on what was left of his last year's roadster, to get it in good shape to take Billy M. to Lafayette. Gretchen complained because she got cheated out of a ride with one of her "onliest" ones to Lake Hanska. Francis A. was seen with one of her girl friend's former boy friends. Lower classmen began to realize what school will be next year without us. Opinions as to this differ very much.

JUNIOR JOTS.

Well, it's over, but then I'm sure we'd all like to do it over again. Eh, what—why the prom, of course; it was fun, wasn't it juniors? Although I'm afraid many a child will go without a Christmas tree this year.

Georgie F. is a — brother-in-law, and the transformation took place this week. Here's hoping you're successful at the new profession, George.

Melba B. is convinced it is true love. "Why," she says, "it lasted since we were in the first and second grades together."

Winfield and Myrtle, Mary and Clifford, Eleanor and Jack, Melba and Stony, Margaret B. and Kenneth, and Eileen and Spot—Spring is here, even though the weather is giving them no encouragement.

They're saying the state exams are close at hand.

SOPHOMORE SINS.

There was a big mistake in the last Graphos about Dorothy N. It wasn't as bad as it sounded. She wasn't with Walter C.; she was with—it was somebody else. (Maybe his brother.)

Why does Donald P. loiter around the Emerson school doors after school hours?

Why doesn't the whole school have a skip day some day? Emil Z. had one last Saturday and is wondering whether he'll get zeros for his marks for that day.

Harold M. (the thinker) has this mighty problem before him:

Out of 100 people, 10 are millionaires, the others being poor or average people.

Out of every $100, $90 is in the hands of these millionaires. Question: How in the world can the people live under such extravagance? Harold is wondering where he comes in.

Who is this sweet little flame that is so dear to the hearts of her admirers? It is none other than little Eleanor Nelson, the little girl with a big heart. (No blushing or shyness allowed.) Excuse the sentiment.

Not being personal, but why is Billy M. so tickled when Dorothy's name is mentioned? Oh, well, some big hearts have a few small ticklish strings.

"Not responsible for accidents."

Yes, yes, what book was Darwin P. reading in the assembly the other day? "One Hour With You." Yes, that's it. Now he makes us believe he had reference work to do. That may be true, but in a different line.

Soon school will be a faint memory to the minds of the sport-loving people. Most likely some will enjoy the lakes, some the rivers, and some the farms. Kenneth J. said he is making an exploring expedition for Lake Hanska in search of the Sleeping Princess. We all wish him all the luck needed.

One person is even willing to work in a Lafayette filling station for his bread and butter. He also deserves luck.

Where were you after the prom? Whom were you with? Did you have any fun? That's all right; we know all about it.

The Secret Six.

What is this music festival bringing with it? Nothing else than just the meeting of old friends (and then what?)

Has anybody noticed that sad look on Jimmy A.'s face? Well, I'll tell you. You see, he was practicing on a fiddle all this time, but was unable to make the high school orchestra in time for the festival, so now he has given it up entirely. Too bad, isn't it? Better luck next year.

"Run before you leap."

We hear that the next Graphos will be taken over by the seniors. Well, we think that is a fine idea, because we are sure they don't know anything very personal about us. Knock! Knock! Knock!

Fair you well, old seniors, and many happy returns for your tears.

We all seem to have had a pretty good year this year although there were some black spots, but they weren't bad.

Many of us hate to leave our good places (seats and chairs) and also the good old school building. Oh, well, it is only for three months and then we'll be back again. Won't we be glad? Ha ha, ho ho, no no.

I am sorry if ever I intruded in your private affairs, but you see this spae has to be filled and it was my job to do so this past year. So long!

FRESHMAN FOLLIES.

Gee! You Seniors surely are good sports to invite us Freshmen to your return dance. Of course you'll let us have the space in back of the curtain in the gym to practice up a bit or to get a little boop boop po doop in us before we show you how to dance.

"Hear the latest about Newrich?"

"No, what now?"

"He bought a Louis XIV bed, but it was too small for him, so he sent it back and asked for a Louis XVI."

When in Rome.

"All right," said the slow working bookkeeper. "Keep your shirt on. Rome wasn't built in a day, you know."

"That may be," the boss replied. "I wasn't in charge there!"

NEW ULM WINS MEET.

Last Saturday, Hutchinson journeyed to New Ulm to take a close meet from New Ulm. Although the track was in poor shape from the heavy rains, some surprisingly good times were made in the dashes, and if the field is in good shape, fans are likely to see some district records broken.

The summary:

Shot Put—Miller, (H.), 1st; Preuss (N. U.), 2nd; Rosmussen, (H.), 3rd. Distance, 38 feet, 7 inches.

Discus—Miller, (H.), 1st; Reinhart, (N. U.), 2nd; Preuss, (N. U.), 3rd. Distance 114 feet.

Javelin—Albrecht, (H.), 1st; Rosmussen, (H.), 2nd; Preuss, (N. U.), 3rd. Distance, 125 feet 9 inches.

High Jump—Preuss, (N. U.) and Albrecht, (H.), 1st; Allison (H.), Schuft, (H.), and Reinhart, (N. U.), 3rd. Height, 5 feet 2 inches.

Prof. (speaking on phone): "You say Billy Smith has a bad cold and will not be able to attend school today? Who is this speaking?"

Voice (hoarsely): "My father."

Alice: "I'm going out for humor on the staff."

Jean: "Are you?"

Alice: "Yes! I'm going in and let the staff look at me."

He and his young wife were taken for a motor trip by some friends. She admired his anxiety about her comfort.

"Are you all right?" he asked.

"Quite, dear."

"Cushions comfortable?"

"Quite, darling."

"Not being jolted?"

"Oo, no, sweetheart."

"Not in a draft?"

"No, lambkin."

"Then change seats with me."

Miss Sogn: "What can you tell me about nitrates?"

Lloyd: "Well-er- they're a lot cheaper than day rates."

Miss Kearns: "Now, who can tell us something about the great Homer?"

Donald: "Well, his name is Babe Ruth, and his salary is $80,000 a year."
