JUNIOR-SENIOR CLASS PLAY CAST CHOSEN

'TAX' IS DEBATE SUBJECT

"Taxes, taxes, who gets the taxes?" However, it isn't who gets them, but where they are to come from in the first place that is worrying debaters this year. Formally stated, the proposition is, "Resolved, that at least one-half of all state and local revenues should be derived from sources other than tangible property."

So far, Byrl Edmiston, Elsie Olsen, Virginia Meile, Ora Schleuder, Mabel Braun, Alfred Bechner, and Jane Mueller have reported for debate work. Elsie Olsen, B. Edmiston, J. Mueller, and A. Bechner will meet with their coach, Miss McGee, every Friday morning, from eight to nine, while Mabel Braun, Virginia Meile, and Ora Schleuder will meet every Thursday after school.

MUSICAL ORGANIZATIONS HAVE STARTED WORK

This year, we have the biggest turnout for band, glee club, and orchestra that we have ever had. Over sixty people have turned out for band, and out of that group fifty-five have been chosen so far. The membership this year is more competitive than last year. All those members admitted to the band are taking lessons inside, or outside of school, or have already been well-trained. The band is going to play at all athletic events this year. They will, however, be unable to play for the St. Peter game because the New Ulm Greenhouse Boys Band takes too many of the boys to

MANY STUDENT ACTIVITY BOOKLETS ARE SOLD

Reports on the sales of Student Activity Booklets are very encouraging. Evidently, Mr. Dirks' orations were successful in arousing the majority to action. The student body should consider itself quite fortunate in being able to get these booklets at such a reasonable price. We'd have something to kick about if we had to pay five dollars as Sleepy Eye does. It merely goes to prove that the depression is on when all the football games, all the basket ball games, the two class plays, the declamatory contest, the music concert,

Harmanites Meet St. Peter Today

Redwood and Hutchinson Win From New Ulm

Coach Harman opened another grid year with his usual fine team. The football team, although light in weight, shows class and plenty of pep. The coach, thus far, is well pleased with the work of his squad, considering the odds which they have had to overcome.

Redwood's heavy team won from New Ulm by a score of 15-0. Hutchinson's team won from Harman's squad, 19-0. The first quarter found the locals holding the Hutchinson team on safe ground. The only long run made by Hutchinson, in this quarter, was brought to an abrupt ending by a New Ulm tackler on our 17-yard line. In the second quarter Hutchinson scored on a long pass by Mikulecky over New Ulm's goal line, but failed to make the extra point, leaving the score 6-0 at the end of the first half. Again in the third quarter Hutchinson scored on a second pass to make the score 12-0. The fourth quarter of the game brought New Ulm five first downs. Hutchinson was again successful in their attempt to score against their fighting opponents. The visitors raised the score to 19-0 by a drive of 12 yards over the Harman squad goal line.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED FOR 'ARMS AND THE MAN'

"Arms and The Man," a comedy by the internationally acclaimed playwright and critic, Mr. George Bernard Shaw, will be the only three-act play that will be given this year. The play will be sponsored by the Junior and Senior classes. The cast and committees will be chosen from both classes. The dates have been set for November 30 and December 1.

The play is based on international complications between two Slavic countries. Complications are based on a girls' interest in two men. The play is loaded with satire, and is, on the surface, extremely funny.

Characters in order of their appearance:

Catherine PetkoffMelba Bach
 Raina, her daughter.....Jane Mueller
 Louka, a maid servant.....Verona Vee
 An officerArthur Fussner
 Captain BluntschliAlex Oppelt
 Nicola, man servant.....John R. Higgs
 Major PetkoffAlfred Bechner
 Sergius Saramoff.....Donald Pollei

The following committees have been chosen:

Costume—Mary Mueller, Virginia Schultz, Eleanor Nelson, Myrtle Nelson, Adeline Zeise, Delpha Weissenborn.

Properties: Grace Schleuder, Myrtle Grussendorf, Jack Aufderheide, Clifford Walrath.

Stage—Gerhard Radke, Eugene Grausam, Elmer Kading, Howard Alwin.

Business—Ordorra Hamann, Naomi Stoltenburg, Annie Paulson, Virginia Meile, Alys Pufahl.

DECLAMATORY WORK HAS BEEN STARTED

Miss Ritt has begun her work in declamation earlier than usual. More people have come out for declam this year than ever before. There are six people in the oratorical section, eighteen in the humorous section, and twenty-seven in the dramatic section. Later on, in the year, elimination contests will be held, and each class will be represented in the Siegel Trophy contest.

NOVEL ASSEMBLY PROGRAM IS GIVEN

The fierce "Ah-Choos" issued the assembly last Friday and not symptoms of influenza. The parts of the "Sneeze" group of Miss Hensel's this number, the show down, and the assembly formed into a the Germ playing picture. In spite

PRIVATE LIVES.

I'm no genius, and I certainly hope I'm no "peeping Tom," but I'm going to try and give you an insight into the private lives of our "celebrities."

Jean Veeck is very exclusive these days, because she informs you she has a special brand of "beer" for her very own use.

Georgie and Theo are going to do some walking until they can explain to Papa Fisher why those two rear fenders were curled up. Everyone knows Georgie drives so slowly!

Donald Rice, Dumbo Frank and Anna are very determined to put this new "fee wah" language across. They can be heard singing its praises any hour of the day.

The great Richard B. has succumbed to the charms of a blonde senior, but there is a rumor circulating that he has a deadly rival.

Why must Frank M. be so heartless. The other day at a football game, after he had made one of those beautiful tackles, a girl sighed and said, "And to think he won't even look at a girl." Really, Frank, must you be so heartless?

Morton ("Shawdoa") Broste claims to be a brother of Harold Teen's pal. From all his actions we're apt to believe him.

Hope Higgs is the original "giggling alto." Somehow or other during Glee club hour, Hope cannot keep a straight face. Nevertheless, she does manage to do a little singing.

Last spring Leo Esser felt so bad about leaving the Freshman class that he decided to stay with them another year. They say one outgrows homesickness in a couple of years.

The only trouble with these long vacations is that they bring the teacher back too full of tests and long assignments.

"Of Thee I Whistle" seems to be the theme song of some boys. Lacking the courage to go into the house, they stand outside and whistle. Better screw up your courage boys, it's warmer inside.

"What is a pessimist?"
 M. "A pessimist is a person who ties a piece of limburger cheese under his mare and says that the world is rotting

 1931-1932 PHYSICAL EDUCATION HONOR ROLL.

Last year's physical education honor roll, on which the names of two outstanding girls in each class have been placed, has been announced and will be placed in an appropriate place in the gymnasium. The following names and records appear on the roll:

Seniors.

Marion Schmid—1 "B," 5 "As," 1 absence, no tardiness, no excuses, weight, normal.

Delsie Resoft—3 "Bs," 3 "As," 2 absences, no tardiness, no excuses; weight, normal.

Juniors.

Oduvia Hamann—1 "B," 5 "As," no absences, no tardiness, no excuses; weight, normal.

Phyllis Altermatt—2 "Bs," 4 "As," no absences, no tardiness, no excuses; weight, normal.

Sophomores.

Lila Meyer—1 "C," 2 "Bs," 3 "As," no absences, no tardiness, 2 excuses; weight, normal.

Delpha Weissenborn—2 "Cs," 2 "Bs," 2 "As," no absences, no tardiness, no excuses; weight, normal.

Freshmen.

Betsy Larson—1 "B," 5 "As," no absences, no tardiness, no excuses; weight, normal.

Elsie Olsen—6 "A's," 1 absence, 1 tardiness, no excuses; weight, normal.

PLAY-AND RECREATION TESTS GIVEN.

Mr. Pfaender's records for the first five weeks' work accomplished in Athletic Badge tests show a remarkable improvement over the records of last year for the same period of work. The aim charts show an average of seven tests passed for each pupil, whereas last year's charts averaged a little better than three tests per pupil. The improvement, Mr. Pfaender believes, is the result of last year's training plus a change of attitude and a deeper appreciation of the work on the part of high school students.

MEDALS AWARDED.

Tennis tournaments for both high school boys and girls, sponsored by the Physical Education department, aroused a great deal of interest among lovers of the net game. Ideal fall weather provided excellent playing conditions, and all entrants thoroughly enjoyed their tournament experiences and are looking forward to future contests.

Janet Landrum and LaDonna Schleuder defeated all their opponents in their preliminary rounds and met in the finals for the girls' championship. Janet won the match and the medal in a hard and well-fought contest. The set scores were 7-5, 6-3. Carl Lindmeyer defeated Arnold Gulden in the boys' finals, 6-1, 6-0, and was awarded the medal symbolical of the boys' championship.

The preacher, at the end of a stirring address, shouted: "Hands up, all those who want to go to Heaven!"

A tiny little man remained seated, and the pastor grew more vehement. "Don't you want to go to Heaven?" he demanded.

In a jerking voice the little one replied: "Not immediately."

CLASS CRIMES

FRESHMAN FOLLIES.

The new Freshman class may not be very prominent, as yet, but we hope to put ourselves on the map soon. With our brilliant minds, we have truly great possibilities.

"The Unknown" holds no terror for us. Doesn't algebra teach us that it may be solved by simply substituting for it the letter "x"?

Minimum essentials are a pleasant diversion, and oral themes, future best sellers.

Home Ec., to us, is but apple sauce, and history an hour of idle dreams of past and future glory. Surely so great and remarkable a class will make history of its own to add to that of our nation's.

Donald P. has been keeping fit by regular nightly football practice in Kemski's back yard.

Joseph B. has been very persistently patronizing our school colors, as all the Freshies have noticed and remarked upon.

JUNIOR JOTS.

Everyone wonders why Thaxter Miller doesn't concentrate some of this hot-cha stuff on football instead of the women.

We hear the great Arbes had a bad spell of giggling while having his weekly workout at the Rauschke' home the other day.

The younger member of the Mecklenburg's is also attending good old New Ulm High school this year. We not only have good little Chester back with us, but also his "keed" brother, W. Alex Mecklenburg.

Kris "What-a-man" Anstad had the misfortune of breaking his thumb, while hunting his interpretation of a "stubble duck."

Someone almost broke up the Junior class meeting, by casting sixteen (16) votes for Chester Mecklenburg, a candidate for Junior class president.

Alex doesn't seem to go "out amongst them" so often as he did before his good friend "Joe" B. went away to school.

SOPHOMORE SCANDALS.

We, as the Sophomore class, extend our heartiest welcome to the new class of Freshman, who have taken our respective places.

No doubt many of you are already thoroughly worried, miserable, and discouraged about the difficult lessons, the looks received from various teachers, and school life as a whole. Therefore, we have prescribed a little remedy by which you may end your life of misery this year (This also may apply to pupils of higher classes):

1. Eat heavy, unbalanced meals. Clog up your system.

2. Take no exercise in gym or open air.

3. Worry daily about that sideache that so frequently bothers you.

4. Worry frequently about the six weeks' tests and the uncertainty of your passing them.

5. Cultivate an ill temper toward teachers, fellow classmates, and school life in general.

6. Take all school worries to bed with you.

7. Get mad, hot, and often.

But after all, why die this year? Why not arrange your school life so that you may extend the four years beyond the ordinary span of time instead of ending it this year?

SENIOR SINS.

Well, "ye old school bells" have rung again, and we're back to our old job of wearing off that pretty, new coat of varnish. It seems good to be "the grand old seniors." Our goal reached, after a four year's struggle! Haven't you noticed us going around with swelled chests and buttonless vests?

Mr. Dirks always says, "Now, that you've played all summer, you'll have lots of pep and ambition for studying." I think, though, that we play so hard all summer we haven't any pep left for winter. Of course, we always have a couple of students who eat grape nuts for breakfast every morning. They bolster the rest of us up by being an incentive for competition. Naturally, we have to take it rather easy until we become used to the grind, but wait until around about Christmas. Will we be working then? Oh, boy! We'll have the books nearly worn out. (Some do, anyway.)

It promises to be a big year. However, we must begin right by initiating the freshmen. What do you say? Are we going to let them get by without an initiation of some sort? I heard Sally Meidl can do the Black Bottom—well, maybe it is the Charleston—but, then, it might be the Rumba. But we want to see it, don't we? Take off the dunce caps and put on the thinking caps, Seniors! Hatch out some idea, and start the year right!

Peewit: "I got a $4 bill this morning."

Nitwit: "Act your age! There's no such bill."

Peewit: "I wish you could make my tailor believe that."

Mrs. Gabb: "So your husband objects to cats?"

Mrs. Stabb: "Yes, indeed. He says that I feed all the cats in the neighborhood. Won't you stay and have tea?"

Young Wife: "The post office is very careless at times, isn't it?"

Friend: "Yes, dear, why?"

Young Wife: "Hubby is in Albany on business and the card he sent me is postmarked Atlantic City."

NOVEL ASSEMBLY PROGRAM.

scenes were rather dim because the light refused to be entirely kept out, the movie was greatly enjoyed, especially the wedding scene and its long line of results. This program was put on by Miss Westling.

STUDENT ACTIVITY BOOKS.

and the Graphos can be enjoyed for two dollars. Most of the booklets were sold so we're expecting a big crowd of students at all the games.

Seven Lettermen Returned.

Seven lettermen appear in Harman's lineup, as follows: Captain Arthur Fussner, Stanley Hellman, Alfred Bechner, Frank Marti, Bibbs Marti, James Arbes and Elmer Kading.

The Harmanites will meet strong competition in the rest of the season's schedule:

Oct. 14—St. Peter, here.

Oct. 21—Fairmont, here.

Oct. 28—Glencoe, there.

Nov. 4—St. James, there (night game).

Nov. 11—Sleepy Eye, here.

St. Peter.

St. Peter will be here this afternoon with a strong team. New Ulm and St. Peter are two evenly matched teams, which have always given the crowd real thrills. Be at the field with your student activity booklets today, and show the team we appreciate their work.

Fairmont.

The Fairmont High school will play the Harmanites next Friday at the new stadium. Fairmont is a stranger and will bring a real team to give the crowd plenty of excitement and good football.

Mankato for a contest that same afternoon.

The orchestra is very well balanced this year. It includes four cellos, two violins, two string basses, one tuba, two trombones, three clarinets, two cornets, two saxophones, and the piano. The orchestra has been asked to play for the Lions club the last part of October.

Fifty girls tried out for the Girls' Glee club, and thirty-four were chosen. The girls have been asked to sing for the P.-T. A. meeting in November.

Plans are under way for the annual Music Festival with Sleepy Eye. Sleepy Eye will come to New Ulm one day, and we will go to Sleepy Eye, another. No definite dates have been set, but it will probably be the last part of November or first of December. Music directors of this music district are also making plans for the musical festival this spring.
